Of great force of character and tireless enthusiasm: on this foundation was raised an unclouded faith, an intense realization of the presence and love of God, a willingness to serve that knew no limit of time or strength.

Mrs. Crouter's work for her church entered into and supported every vital part of our body. As treasurer of the Auxiliary and Guild, she gave us happily many years of exacting service, bestowing meanwhile labor and thought on every needy cause, and making of each service a joyous act.

In the Church School she taught for a long period in the Senior Section, and for many years she was the Principal of the entire school, inspiring teachers and pupils alike with her ardent and brilliant mind and by her steadfast faith.

Hers was a happy and understanding nature, and to be with her gave strength and a will to do one's best.

RESOLVED, that these words but faintly express our sorrow and love and loss, also our thankfulness for her life and example, and that we extend our heartfelt sympathy to her family.

Rest eternal grant to her, oh Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon her.

The women of Grace Church are unusually well informed with regard to what our Church is doing in response to our Lord's command: "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." They have been deeply interested for many years, and by their reading, studying, and personal contacts with workers from the various fields they have gained a knowledge of the Church's missionary work that astonishes and delights every mission speaker who talks to us for the first time. The splendid amount of money that Grace Church gives every year for the extension of Christ's Kingdom among men is largely due to the information that our women have. For, when once you know the details of what is going on in the various missionary fields, the whole subject becomes a live matter and demands one's prayers, interest, and financial help. It pays to understand.

Unfortunately, our men are not so well informed. They have had fewer opportunities of hearing about the work and less leisure in which to study. In their comparative ignorance they lose much, for the romance, and the adventure, and the astounding results achieved by those who have gone out into the mission fields is a story that stirs one mightily and gives one joy. Senator Pepper, in discussing Mr. Edison's remark that he had never seen a happy person, recently said: "That man is happiest who thinks the most interesting thoughts, and I know of no thoughts more interesting than the thoughts that come to one who is well informed on the subject of what the Church's Missions are accomplishing."

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

Now we want our people to be happy; we also want them to be well informed as to what our Church is doing outside of the home field. One good way of learning about anything is to see it with your eyes. I am sure that all who saw the pictures of our missionary work in the Hawaiian Islands will long remember the fine work that our Church is doing out there in the lonely islands of the Pacific. Tonight we are going to carry our knowledge a step farther. We are going to show the pictures of what our Church is doing in the South to answer the most difficult sociologic problem that our country has been called upon to face. A southern woman, Mrs. Dillard, will tell us what she saw when she went into the country where the pictures were taken.

I earnestly request you to come to the Parish House at 7.30 with the other members of your family to view and listen to this story. We have made the hour early purposely, in order that all the children in the Parish may be able to come. Won't you look on this as a personal invitation? Please!

All should come to the Rectory next Wednesday, March 13th, at 8 o'clock. There will be held the first meeting of those interested in joining the Mediterranean Cruise. Whether or not you intend taking this trip, you should attend the meeting, and hear the interesting and entertaining travel talks describing the beauty and fascinating features of the many places that are to be visited.

Tomorrow evening, at 8 o'clock, in the Henry H. Houston School on Allen Lane, the Mt. Airy School Association will have a meeting at which the speaker will be Miss Bernice Scoville, of the Child Guidance Clinic. Her topic will be: "Contributions of Child Guidance to Understanding Problems of the Normal Child." Every parent in the community should attend.

On Thursday of this week the Woman's Aid to the Convocation of Germantown will hold its Spring Service and Meeting at Christ Church, Tulpehocken and McCallum Streets. There will be Holy Communion and Address by the Rev. Nathaniel B. Groton, of St. Thomas' Church, Whitemarsh, at 10.30; Intercessions at 12.15; Lunch at 1; and Meeting at 2 P. M. Tell Mrs. Brand if you intend to go, so that she may arrange that lunch will be provided for you.

On February 26 we read the Burial Service for Mrs. Florence Spencer Stokes in Calvary Church, Germantown, and held the interment in the churchyard of the Episcopal Church, Moorestown, N. J. On March 4 we read the service for Mrs. Catherine H. Eastwood, of the Leamy, and we held the interment at West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

The noonday Lenten speakers this week are as follows: At the Garrick, Bishop Fiske, of Central New York; at St. Stephen's, Bishop DuMoulin, Dr. Rufus Jones, and Dr. Carter. The Thursday evening preacher at St. Luke and the Epiphany will be Dr. Russell Bowie, of Grace Church, New York City.

On Sunday evening next, at 8 o'clock, the Germantown Chapter of De Molay will come to Grace Church for service. This organization is made up of young men interested in Free and Accepted Masonry. This is the second time they have come to us. Last year there were more than 150 of them here. We are asking the Young People's Fellowship to care for the ushering and to take up the offering. We hope that a large congregation of our own people will be here to greet them.

The Sermon last Sunday morning was on the text from Romans 16:3: "Greet Priscilla and Aquila . . . and the church which is in their house." The preacher pointed out that while most of us assume that Jesus had only a few and prominent friends, as a matter of fact He had many inconspicuous but helpful friends whom we forget. He mentioned Mary of Bethany and Martha, her sister; Lazarus; Joseph of Arimathæa; Simon the Leper, and especially "the goodman of the house" of St. Luke 22:11, going into some detail to explain the incident narrated there. "To good Christians," said he, "this man's deed ranks with the deed of the unknown goodman of the house of Washington, D. C., who received Lincoln into his home after his assassination."

"So, today," he continued, "Jesus has His outstanding and well-known friends—bishops, priests, deacons, confessors—and He has also His unofficial friends (like Priscilla and Aquila), each of them with a church in his house." The family, the oldest unit in history, seems to be disintegrating. Individualism is taking its place. Many of us are fearful of what is happening and worrying about the future. But if each of us will realize afresh in his own family the possibility of making more effective the church which is in his house, then the future will be secure. Just as the Apostles were fearful and anxious for the future of their country before the Ascension, and our Lord told them not to worry but be filled with God's Spirit and witness concerning Him beginning at home and spreading their influence outward (Acts 1:6), so He says to us today: "Take care of the church which is in thy house."

We hope that many of our people will be present this evening at service to welcome the Germantown Chapter, Order of De Molay, who are coming in a body to worship with us. They were here a year ago, and we enjoyed very much having them with us. The order to which they belong is comparatively new, and is in a rough sense a junior branch of Ancient and Accepted Freemasonry. The young men who belong are in their late teens, and when one considers their potential power for good and the noble vows which they have assumed, one realizes what a splendid organization the Order of De Molay is. The Rector had the privilege of attending one of their meetings in Saratoga, N. Y., several years ago, where they were meeting in the Knights of Columbus Hall, because their own meeting place had burned down, and he was deeply impressed. Our Mr. Irwin was one of the Germantown organizers.

Several of our boys have attended "Episcopal High School" at Alexandria, Va., one of the best private schools in the country. We have one boy in residence there now and he was confirmed by Bishop St. George Tucker in Immanuel Chapel of the Virginia Theological Seminary, on February 24th, his presentor being the Rev. Thomas K. Nelson. His name is Joseph Roscoe Anderson, and he is now enrolled as a communicant in good standing of our Parish.

The Good Friday offering will be used for work in converting the Jews to Christianity. When one discovers how rapidly these people are falling away from the religion of their fathers and lapsing into indifference or agnosticism, one appreciates the urgency of this work. The Episcopal Hospital, as usual, will be the recipient of our Easter offering. There is no need to explain or appeal for our Hospital: it is near and dear to all our hearts.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild are collecting second-hand garments for a barrel to be sent away as soon as the clothes can be collected. The clothes are to go to needy Indians in South Dakota under the Rev. Dallas Shaw. Telephone Mrs. Robert Farnham, C. H. 1375, for details.

The service which was rendered very reverently several Sunday evenings ago under the auspices of the Young People's Fellowship was so helpful that members of our people have asked us to repeat it. Accordingly, again on next Sunday the Young People's Fellowship will have charge of the evening service, and again Mr. John Eiseman will make an address. The hour is 8 o'clock.

On the sixth of April our Young People's Fellowship will give a dance at the Old York Road Country Club. There will be an orchestra of colored musicians, under the direction of Madam Io Keene, and the organization is anxious to have our people attend in large numbers.

Two of the Church School classes, that of Mrs. Watts and Miss Heller, are giving a Swim at Alden Park on Friday, March 22d. The money they make will be used as part of their Lenten offering for Missions. Do come! we always enjoy ourselves at these Swims and people of all ages attend.

You will notice above a list of services for every day of this week. They have been carefully thought out and arranged. Please come when you can, as often as you can. The daily afternoon services have been moved forward a half-hour to suit the convenience of many housewives for whom five o'clock is too late. Numerous celebrations of the Holy Communion are provided for all who care to and can come. Even if you do not feel that you may make your communion daily, try to be present at the services and follow your Lord in His trial and passion as narrated in the Gospels from day to day. We hope that even more than usual will attend the Three Hour Service on Good Friday; come when you can and leave when you need to: coming and leaving between meditations. If any of you have children to be baptized, please arrange with the Rector to have them received on Easter Even; it is a historic and appropriate time for administering the sacrament. On Easter Day let every member come to his communion in gratitude to Almighty God for the life and death and resurrection of Jesus. Communion services will be held at 6 A. M.; 7.30 A. M.; and 11 A. M. Morning Prayer will be said at 10.30, and the Church School Festival will be held at 4 P. M.

Easter Day should be the most joyous day of the whole year. The joy of Easter should remain for the following 364 days every year. The assurance of personal immortality that we receive afresh every Easter should stand us in good stead when death visits our dear ones or our friends. We should not act as those who have no hope when our time of testing comes. That is, we should be so grateful for the facts that Easter uncovers that we should do something about it. Easter should make a great difference in our every-day lives.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

As we mentioned last week, our Easter offering will be given to carry on the work of our Episcopal Hospital. Only last week a medical man and your Rector made a tour of inspection through the hospital. It was about 9 o'clock at night, the patients were quieted down, everything was hushed until the morning. I wish that all of you might have seen what we saw. Our hearts were lifted up when we realized what a work for humanity our hospital is doing. Everything was spick and span; the whole institution seemed to preach in eloquent deeds the love of Christ for every one of His children. I do not believe that there is another hospital anywhere functioning more freely and ably for the care of God's poor. In most hospitals the main work is the care of private patients —people who have much of the world's goods and can afford to pay for their care and an overplus to take up the deficit created by the few ward patients. The ward patients pay as much as they are able but not enough to cover the per capita cost per day. This deficit is more than made up by the private patients. The number of ward patients is kept purposely low and the number of private patients is kept purposely high. The ward is a small part of many hospitals. That is not true of your hospital. Last week, on the night that we visited the Episcopal Hospital, there were 382 patients in residence at the institution, almost 350 of them in the wards. The proportion of ward patients to full paying patients was as 11 to 1. Doesn't that make you feel some of the pride that I felt when I learned the facts in the case?

And what a splendid work the hospital is doing! My medical friend remarked that in some hospitals one finds wooden physicians equipped with golden tools, whereas in our hospital the situation seems to be reversed. He felt that the staff was doing as good work as is done in any hospital, not because of their superior equipment, but because of their ability and carefulness.

All the money for carrying on the hospital comes from three sources: Endowments, patients' fees, and the offerings of the Episcopal Church in this diocese. The amount they receive isn't enough to carry on the work as it should be carried on. That is why we are again going to send our Easter offering to our hospital. Our offerings in past years on Easter Day have been relatively small for so large a congregation. Because we have not made a personal appeal for money for ourselves, our people seem to have forgotten the great needs of our neighbor, the hospital. Won't you take this little story to heart and give more generously for this truly Christian work? All the loose offering on the alms basins on Easter Day will be sent to your hospital. Do give liberally!

There will be no session of the Church School on the morning of Easter Day. Instead, there will be the annual Festival of the Church School at four in the afternoon. Our bus will gather together the little ones, as it usually does in the morning. At the service the children's Lenten mite-box offering will be counted, and the amount announced. Come to this service, whether you have children in the School or not. You will enjoy the service.

All who desire to share in furnishing the altar with flowers for Easter Day may do so by sending in their money to Miss Margaretta Bayard, 105 East Johnson Street, before Wednesday of this week.

Dr. W. H. Jefferys will conduct the Three Hour Good Friday service. He is the author of "How can we Know the Way?" and "Mystical Companionship with Jesus." We are indeed fortunate in securing him to lead our meditations.

Rev. George P. Mayo, of the Blue Ridge Industrial School, Dyke, Virginia, will address the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild on Thursday, April 4, just following the 12.30 luncheon. This is a splendid opportunity to learn of the great work done by our domestic missionaries so near our own home.

The Easter sermon was based on the text, "I believe . . . in the life of the world to come." The preacher pointed out that the trouble with dead people is, they seem so absolutely and endlessly dead! Jesus must have seemed nothing but a mass of inert and lifeless flesh to those who laid His body away in the tomb. Likewise, we recall that during the many centuries that have passed, the world has constantly been peopled with teeming billions just as full of life and energy as we are; now all of them are gone—dead. Not a relic remains. The earth is a vast graveyard. Death seems so absolutely final.

"But," said he, "it is proverbial that appearances are deceiving." The sensible man trusts his reason in preference to his senses. We say that "the sun rises and sets," but we check our careless speech by astronomical figures. The earth seems to be stationary, but reason tells us that it is moving through space at the rate of nineteen miles per second. Science goes on the hypothesis that we live in a super-sensible world, and science accepts millions of realities that she cannot prove by the senses; for example: infra-violet rays; sounds not audible to the human ear, and an ether which no man will ever be able to hear, see, smell, feel, or taste.

Man has worked out his ideas on the same premises in religion. Wherever you go, whether among primitive man or civilized Egyptian, every group of men found on the earth's surface has believed in life after death. Appearances do not daunt man in his belief in immortality. Man trusts his reason as against appearances.

The speaker then quoted Socrates as an example of the view the world's wisest men have held. If death were a dreamless sleep, argued Socrates, it would bring him relief from many trials and cares and crown a life which he was content to look back upon without regret. "But he believed that death was not a sleep, but a new life, in which event he would have opportunity to converse with the heroes and sages of all past ages. Calm in this assurance, he lived the thirty days that under his sentence he was allowed to live, received his friends, conversed on high themes, refused all proposals to escape, and met death on the high plane of a serene confidence that all was well with him."

The sermon ended with examples of Jesus' teachings on the subject, culminating in, "If it were not so I would have told you." "We have here," said he, "almost the most precious words of the Master. They are the assurance of all our most cherished hopes for the life to come." These words and Jesus' own coming back to prove that the dead are alive (like the recovery of the Atlantic cable in midocean) are messages from that farther shore for which men's hearts have always hoped, but which they never expected to receive because it seemed too good to be true. Easter reminds us that that which men hoped for, actually is. For these and for many other reasons we "believe . . . in the life of the world to come."

Transferred to us recently from Calvary Church, Germantown, were Mr. Wm. W. Clarke, Jr., and his wife, Margaret McNair, of 8118 Eastern Avenue. They are now communicants in good standing of Grace Church.

On Easter Even we baptized Thomas Allsop Mackin, son of John Mackin, 3d, and Adalaide Allsop Mackin, the Sponsors being Anna M. Mackin, George W. Goetsch, and Thomas Allsop. We also baptized Nancy Thornton, daughter of Stanley L. and Bernice W. Thornton, the Sponsors in this case being Alice B. MacDonald and Oliver Thornton.

Dr. Wm. H. Jefferys arose from a sick bed to lead our meditations on Good Friday. His ideas were helpful, unique, and inspiring. We will long remember those three hours. In your name I thank him.

Again we have had a glorious Easter. Again our attendance, and the number of communions made, have broken all records. And our offering for the Episcopal Hospital, too, was better than usual, going well over six hundred dollars. The Children's Lenten Offering at this writing has not been totaled, but appears good. We are very happy.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY NOTES

You have received a personal invitation to our annual Birthday Party, to be held at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, April 9th. Do come and bring your friends. We hope to have an audience worthy of such an entertainment as Mrs. Foster-Wilde and Miss Foster will give us. If you are a confirmed woman or girl in our Parish, you are a member of our Auxiliary, and we hope our lists are correct and that no one has been missed. If you have been, however, please accept our apology, and come on this general invitation.

On Saturday, April 13th, we will have a Cake, Pie, and Candy Sale in the Parish House, at 10 A. M. Donations are earnestly solicited, and we hope for many customers as well. Depend on us for your week-end baking.

The Spring Rummage Sale will be held on Thursday, April 25th. The place will be announced later. Please send all articles of discarded clothing, shoes, hats, china, toys, books, pictures, etc., to the Parish House before April 24th. If you have no means of conveyance, please 'phone Mrs. Dixon, C. H. 2342, and she will send for them.

On the afternoon of the Birthday Party there will be an exhibition in the Brown room of the work done by our women since last fall.

The sermon last Sunday was based on the gospel for the day, reviewing the appearance of Jesus, after His Resurrection, to the disciples, assembled in a closed room, "for fear of the Jews." Jesus greets them with a familiar Jewish salutation, "Peace be unto you!"

It was emphasized that the gift of peace was stressed from the Nativity of Our Lord to His Ascension. It is a function of the Christian religion to bring peace to those who hold it. In a world of hurry and worry and nerves, Christ's gift of peace is of particular importance. The world is in a state of unrest, exhibited in social relations, amusements, business, religion—a condition sometimes considered a symptom of a mechanistic age, but actually a considerable part of the blame lies with our making a fetich of self-reliance—a worthy trait, if considered merely with reference to human relationships, but what people in this restless, nervous, hurried age need is God-reliance.

To cast our care upon God, leave it with Him, and go our way in peace requires belief in a Christ Who lived and died and came back to men. Peace in Christ brings power—not a peace of inactivity—a peace that enables men and women to do God's work and their own work calmly, happily. It changes many habits, makes our efforts more worth while, enables us to see in nature, and through religious experience, object lessons applicable to human needs.

If our religion fails to bring us peace, there is something wrong, not with Christianity, but with our acceptance of it. God doesn't want us to be gloomy, irritable, unpleasant Christians. If we would "glorify God and enjoy Him forever," we must be happy, smiling Christians. "Peace be unto you!" is for us, here and now. As we find it, we can come out of our closed rooms and set the world aflame with the knowledge of the glorious Gospel of the Son of God.

The Good Friday and Easter offerings this year were very much better than usual. One cannot yet tell what they will amount to, for our Accounting Warden says that Easter offering envelops and Good Friday offering envelops will continue to come in on the alms basins for many months yet. So far the totals are about fifty percent better than last year's were. Roughly speaking, this year we gave about $610 as our Easter Offering for the Episcopal Hospital, and $80 as our Good Friday Offering for work in converting the Jews to Christianity. Some one also put 10 cents in a 1928 Good Friday envelop and turned it in this Easter Day. This 10 cents goes for the work of our Church in Jerusalem.

At the organization meetings of your vestry on April 3d, Mr. Horace Fortescue was reappointed Rector's Warden and Mr. Pratt Thompson was reëlected Accounting Warden, Mr. Thompson being given a hearty vote of thanks for his excellent work in his difficult and exacting task. Mr. Albert C. Brand was reëlected Secretary of the Vestry, and Mr. John Greaves was reëlected Registrar. The following named gentlemen were elected to represent Grace Church at the Special Convention of the Diocese called to elect a Bishop Coadjutor and at the annual Diocesan Convention: Messrs. Fell, Fortescue, and Landenberger. Messrs. Allsop and White were elected Alternate Delegates. The following committees were appointed:

Finance: Messrs. Thompson, Fortescue, Greaves, Brand, Ball. Memorials: Messrs. Fortescue, Thompson, Ball. Buildings and Grounds: Messrs. Fell, Ball, Allsop. Choir: Messrs. Meehan, Landenberger, Brand. Church School: Messrs. White, Sibson, Wagner. Mr. Samuel Algeo was reëlected Sexton.

At the election on Easter Monday, at which Mr. William Walton and Mr. Harry Brown were Judges, Messrs. Landenberger, Sibson, Allsop, and White were elected to serve as Vestrymen for three years.

Your prayers are asked that God will guide our Convention, which will meet early in May to elect a Bishop Coadjutor for this Diocese.

One of the fine problems of life consists not so much in acquiring things as it does in getting rid of them. Most of us have an acquisitive sense; few have sense enough to dispense with the superfluous. Many know how to hoard; few know how to unload.

Some people never acquire this faculty. Their homes are veritable curiosity shops, being crowded to the doors with unnecessary impedimenta. From basement to attic one falls over objects and relics that should have been discarded years ago. If one were to describe such homes, one would think of closets bulging with overcoats of other years, of cellars clogged with pieces of this and that stored away against a mythical rainy day when "they may come in handy," of odd bits of string tied together and rolled up into huge balls, of boxes of assorted nails rescued from here and there, of cedar chests filled with goods never used, and of garrets overladen with trunks, pictures, bric-a-brac, and articles of all shapes and sizes. These are sure and infallible signs of those who do not know how and when to give up.

There are minds like that: minds that are stored like old encyclopedias with unrelated, shopworn, irrelevant material. Some one has said that "many people do not think: all they do is rearrange their prejudices." Just as a snake dies when it cannot shed its skin, so some promising minds seem dead because they have been unable to discard much that was outgrown and outworn.

After all, what really counts is not how much you possess, but, what quality the stuff is that you possess. It is so with homes; it is so with men's minds. Most homes are overcrowded; so are most wardrobes; so are most minds. They are full, but not full of usable and worthwhile possessions.

I saw an altar several years ago. It was furnished and prepared for Sunday. The one who had arranged the flowers had cut off every bit of green. He had stuffed flowers into vases until the vases would hold no more. What one saw was but a big ball of rose-buds choking each other. They were not beautiful. As a contrast, consider how the Japanese arrange flowers and what delightful results they obtain. They put but one or two flowers in a vase and arrange it in relation to its foliage and its surroundings. I am told that Japanese maidens spend years in studying how to arrange flowers effectively. If so, their time is well spent. Their learning shows by its fruits. Perhaps one could work out a mathematical formula and put it this way: "The success of decorations and the effectiveness of decorations vary inversely as the number of objects used" and "the number of objects used in decorating usually varies inversely as the amount of time spent in learning to decorate." In short, most of our homes are filled with liabilities when considered from the standpoint of beauty.

Now one of the great joys that comes rarely in a lifetime is the joy of knowing that one has changed liabilities into assets. To take something that is a handicap and use it for a worthy purpose fills one with a righteous sense of having accomplished something worth while.

And here is the moral of this soliloquizing: The women are going to have a Rummage Sale on April 25th. Why not, in view of the truths just read—why not go through your possessions and weed out what you no longer use or need but what some poor person would be glad to have and to use? We will sell it to him cheaply; he will be better off; the object sold will be saved from waste; the money we get for it will be used wisely and well. And, above all, your home will be more livable. Think it over! Mrs. Dixon, C. H. 2342, is in charge of the sale.

Last Sunday evening our young people voted twenty-five dollars to be used toward defraying the expenses of the Provincial Young People's Convention to be held in Philadelphia at the end of this month.

On Sunday, April 28, 1929, the Rector and Curate baptized Anne Hartshorne Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Wright, of 7128 Cresheim Road. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Thomas and Miss May I. Campbell. Anne was born in the Chestnut Hill Hospital on January 5, 1929.

On Saturday, April 27th, the Rector and the Reverend Mr. Arndt read the burial office in Grace Church for Emma DeCoursey Holt, who died on April 25th. Interment was made at Woodland Cemetery.

Woman's Auxiliary Notes

The work-room is closed until fall. We are happy to announce that one hundred and thirty-seven garments have been made, and more than four thousand surgical dressings folded. Mrs. Farnham, our new Chairman of the Supply Bureau Work, is to be congratulated on the work done during the first year of her leadership. In order to lighten her burdens next year, Mrs. Frank Muzzey has been appointed as Secretary of the Supply Bureau Work. She will keep an account of all garments that are taken out of the work-room—when and by whom taken and when returned.

The Birthday Party on April 9 was a very lovely occasion and a social success. Mrs. Gertrude Foster-Wilde and Miss Beatrice Foster delightfully entertained us with music and readings. Every one went home happy over a well-spent afternoon. Our only regret is that more of our members were not present.

As a financial success, it fell short of last year, the net returns being $58.25. Perhaps some who could not come have overlooked sending their bags. It is not yet too late. Send to Mrs. William H. George, New Street, Chestnut Hill, before she makes up her report for the Stated Meeting.

The returns from the Cake, Pie and Candy Sale held on April 13 were $34.70. We had to turn customers away—there were not enough cakes and pies to fill the demand. We could easily have reached the $50 mark if more had been donated. Many thanks to those who did respond!

From the Rummage Sale all returns are not yet in. It is estimated, however, that they will amount to $170 clear. That is very fine, considering that only a small percentage of our membership responded to the call for rummage. We wish to express our sincere appreciation to those who did, and to the earnest corps of workers who handled the sale under the efficient leadership of Mrs. H. F. Dixon.

Thursday, May 16, is the date for the Spring Stated Meeting. A splendid attendance is hoped for, as it is necessary for us to plan for our biennial event. In the fall of 1927 we held our "Indian Summer Feté" at Cedarbrook C. C., clearing $1300 for the Emergency Fund, with which to meet our obligations for two years (the returns from the envelopes being insufficient). In the fall of 1929 something else must be done for the next two years. What shall it be? Come on May 16 with suggestions. Luncheon at 12.30. Business meeting at 1.30 in the Green Room.

A letter from Mrs. George Woodward, President of the Pennsylvania Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council, follows. Note particularly the paragraph asking you to send your acceptance. Mrs. Woodward's generous hospitality should be much appreciated.

My dear Mrs. Brand: April 24, 1929.

Will you please let all the members of your Auxiliary know that I shall be happy to have them come to my home on Wednesday, May 29th, for afternoon tea, from 4 until 7 o'clock.

I live in Chestnut Hill, on McCallum Street, between Mermaid Lane and the high bridge crossing Cresheim Creek. Buses will be at Germantown Avenue and Allen Lane to meet those who come by trolley (Route 23).

Please have all understand that each one who intends coming must send me a card with her acceptance.

Hoping to have as many of your members with us as possible, I am

Cordially yours,
GERTRUDE H. WOODWARD.

Whitsunday is one of the three great feasts of the Christian Year, ranking with Christmas and Easter. Let every communicant of Grace Church be present at one of the celebrations of the Holy Communion next Sunday and think on the wonderful meaning of the day. Let nothing keep you from church next Sunday.

The call of Jesus to Life was the theme of last Sunday's sermon. It reminded that if the life-bringing influence of the Christ were eliminated, the human outlook would be dark and hopeless. Death confronts every one. Dissolution and disintegration are forces operating against all things, even the inanimate objects around us. Nations and peoples have risen to heights, and have declined into dust and silence. Medical science and modern methods of hygiene have prolonged life, and reduced the potency of some of life's enemies; but man's destiny is unchanged. He "goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets."

On this dreary picture, Jesus cast a new light. He called to life unending—the full and abundant life here, and eternal life with God hereafter. He proved what men had surmised or hoped.

It was shown that the Church is the essential and divinely appointed means of mediating the Life that Christ brought—to all people, in all of time. How Baptism makes one a living member of the Body of Christ; Confirmation seeks to assure continuance and growth, and the Holy Communion brings grace, through the Life-giving Spirit. In the Church we are united with Christ and receive the inflow of His life.

The Christian experiences the abundant life, not so much by seeking it for himself, as through his efforts to bring it to others, exemplifying the social Gospel of Jesus, seeking that his fellows everywhere may turn from contemplation of death to experiences of life, in and through Christ.

There will be a meeting of all interested in the Mediterranean Cruise at the Rectory on Thursday of this week at 8 P. M. We plan from now on to meet regularly and prepare ourselves to get all out of the trip that is to be had. You are welcome to meet with us whether you are going or not.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

The Easter offering of the children of our diocese this year was larger than ever before. All the returns are not in yet, and we do not now know the final figures, but enough has been received to show that we have beaten last year's record. What is true of the diocesan offering is also true of our own Church School offering. Last year we gave the largest amount that we ever raised, namely, $434.59; this year, so far, we have turned in $452.37! At the service of Presentation several Sundays ago our School was well represented. The money raised by the children is used for the general missionary work of the church and goes undesignated to the National Council, to meet the requirements of work that has been already undertaken.

We are not altogether happy in the slow way that the United Thank Offering is coming in. Please, please do not think of this outpouring of gratitude as only one more nuisance cause that one must give to, to satisfy others. The U. T. O. should be spontaneous and cumulative. Day by day, as one feels special reasons for gratitude, the women who use this movement rightly show their thanks by dropping coins in their blue box. Twice a year they empty the boxes and send the accumulated amount to the Treasurer of the U. T. O. Sounds simple, doesn't it? But how does it work out? I may be pessimistic in the matter, but I believe that many women who subscribe to the U. T. O. forget all about the Blue Box and the daily saving of thank money, and then when, twice a year, they are reminded that the Ingathering is due, they grudgingly send a sum of money to the Treasurer and make some remark about the church "always being after money." The fault lies not with the ideal of the U. T. O., nor with the parish representatives of the movement, but with the givers who simply will not use the method which is suggested. May I suggest to the women who have never had joy in giving to the U. T. O. that during the next half-year they really use their boxes as requested and test out the movement on its own merits. I know that those who do so will have a revelation of what they have been missing and a new vision of the joy of expressing thanks. It is not too late even now to send in your spring collection. The books will be kept open until May 23, to give those who have forgotten to do so an opportunity to send in their money for this ingathering. Mrs. K. T. Lundelius, 29 West Phil-Ellena St., is our Parish Treasurer. Send your gift to her.

On Friday, May 3, at four o'clock, the Rector united in holy matrimony Lieutenant Lester Tacy, U. S. A., and Miriam Pomeroy Hill, of our congregation. The service was beautiful and dignified, and was followed by a reception at the Cedarbrook Country Club. The newly married couple will reside at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. Mrs. Tacy is the fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill; all of them were baptized and married in Grace Church.

At the afternoon service last Sunday we baptized Howard Robert Hansen, of 64 East Montana Street. His parents are Frederick Howard and Thelma Ida Hansen, and his sponsors are Mabel E. Brand and Daniel T. Jenkins.

Tonight, at 8 o'clock, our Young People's Fellowship are entertaining at their weekly meeting the Fellowship from the Church of the Good Shepherd, Germantown. Tonight the special program will consist of several talks by members of our group on the part that religion played in the lives of certain great men, and what contribution they in turn made to religion. Some of the men to be discussed are Lincoln, Bismarck, Cromwell, Jefferson Davis, Roosevelt, and others.

The Stated Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will be held on Tuesday of this week, May 14th, beginning with lunch at 12.30. Do come; we need your advice and your presence!

Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday of this week are Ember Days, i. e., days of special prayers for those who are about to be admitted into Holy Orders. Please add to your usual prayers on Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday the prayers found on page 40 of the Prayer Book.

The sermon last Sunday morning was based on Acts 1, verses 12 to 14, with special emphasis on verse 14. The theme of the sermon was: Christianity is a way of life rather than an intellectual assent to a code of religious dogma. Christianity is not achieved by an intellectual leap into the dark, but by slow step-by-step progress, obeying meanwhile the principles that the Author of it laid down. As one moves forward step by step, one by one the great doctrines emerge, clearer and clearer. Illumination comes upon the disciple as he travels the way. But he must first journey along the way before he can hope to understand the great truths it reveals.

So it was in the early Church, even as it is in the latter Church. During the period between the time when Jesus ascended from their sight until the time at Pentecost when they were filled with the Spirit of God, the followers of Jesus were one by one carrying out the orders issued by Him. "What were their orders?" They are found in the fourth verse of this same chapter: "And being assembled together with them (He) commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me." Their obedience to this command is found in the words of the text: And they "continued with one accord in prayer and supplication" (in the Upper Room in Jerusalem). And the sequel and reward are found in the fourth verse of the second chapter: "They were all filled with the Holy Ghost." Illumination came via obedience.

This principle does not seem startling or novel, but in reality it is almost a lost principle of Christianity. Too often men mistake Christianity for an academic thing: a moot question to be debated and never solved because it is in the realm of things ununderstandable. They look on religion as unreal, drab, pathetic. They sum up discipleship as mental agreement with difficult dogmas. They feel that to become a Christian one must begin by arguing, yielding up one's mental integrity, and grudgingly give mental assent.

A study of the early Church disproves this. The first followers of Jesus looked on Him as a Rabbi, then as a Prophet, then as the Messiah, and not until after His resurrection, as their Lord and their God. Three hundred years of Christians lived and died without once hearing the word Trinity or the doctrine that it means. Not until the Gospels were written and spread broadcast did the main body of Christian disciples learn of the Virgin Birth of Jesus. The first creed must have resembled the statement of Philip's convert (the Ethiopian eunuch)—"I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."

This does not outlaw creeds or theological dogma. No one more than the preacher realizes the necessity of correct beliefs. What it does mean is that no one unless he leads a Christian life can hope to get a glimmer of the great truths borne witness to by Christianity. You first obey and live day by day as a Christian should; then, by that obedience, you have put yourself into the right attitude, into the situation where you have the ability to comprehend what it is all about. The one who lives his Christianity is the one who is best able to understand the riches beneath the surface. For a telling illustration of this point, read St. John's Gospel, chapter 7, verses 14 to 18.

The disciples, then, "continued in prayer and supplication." Relatively speaking, it may not have seemed of much importance to them, whether or not they did, but as a matter of fact, what they were doing was the one thing necessary to make Pentecost possible.

So it may seem of little importance to us that Jesus would have us spend a period of time each day in meditation and contemplation. But unless we obey His will in this matter, regularly, and faithfully, and whole-heartedly, the chances are that religion, instead of being an adventurous, joyous way of living, will, for us, become a worn-out creed—as meaningless and useless as last year's bird's nest, interesting for what it once contained, but now worn out, sterile, drab, lifeless.

On Thursday, May 9th, the Rector read our ever-helpful Burial Office over the body of Frank R. Rohrman. Mr. Rohrman had been transferred to us only a month or so ago from Calvary Church, Germantown, and consequently we had little opportunity of knowing him. We are sorry. His funeral was one of the largest that we have ever attended, men having come from as far away as Cincinnati and Buffalo to show their respect for him. On every hand we heard outspoken admiration of his character, his integrity, sturdy honesty, his sound common sense. We are glad that a man of such qualities was a member of our congregation, even though it was for so short a time. The world needs such witnesses. May God bless him abundantly!

The Reverend Mr. Irwin is away today, making addresses and preaching on the mission of the Church down in Virginia, near the North Carolina boundary line. He is to be ordained to the Priesthood by Bishop Garland on May 27th, in the Chapel of the Philadelphia Divinity School, 42d and Locust Streets. The Rector is to present him. We realize that Monday morning, 10 o'clock, is a hard hour to be free, but we hope that many Grace Church people will strain an effort and be present at Mr. Irwin's ordination.

At the Diocesan Convention last week Bishop Garland referred to Grace Church as one of the outstanding parishes of the diocese, because of its generous and continued gifts to missions. He had your Rector speak for five minutes on the subject, "How Grace Church does it."

The Executive Council of the Diocese is what its name implies, a council of men whose business it is to carry on the work of the Diocese of Pennsylvania in between conventions. Five laymen are annually elected by the whole convention to membership in its ranks. We are glad to report that our Mr. Wm. F. Fell was elected on the first ballot as one of the five.

Have you sent in your United Thank Offering yet? Mail it to Mrs. Karl T. Lundelius, 29 W. Phil-Ellena Street, now!

If you feel with your Rector that Dr. Samuel S. Drury was an excellent selection as Bishop Coadjutor of this diocese, why not write him a personal letter and tell him so and that you'd like him to come? He must be receiving many letters urging him to remain at St. Paul's School. Let your judgment on the affirmative side be heard by him. Address him at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H.

The Whitsunday altar flowers are the gift of the Primary Department of the Church School, in loving memory of Mrs. Henry S. Lowber.

You are invited to attend a recital of piano and organ music by pupils of our organist, Mr. Newell Robinson, F.A.G.O., at Grace Church, Mt. Airy, Gowen Ave., Wednesday Evening, May 29, at 8.15.

The sermon last Sunday morning was on the text from St. John 4:24: "God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit." The preacher began by reminding his hearers that Whitsunday and Trinity Sundays are days on which the Church expects us to come to grips with the problem, "What is God?" He continued by pointing out that while the average man occasionally thinks of God as being near and immanent (when he is in trouble or when he labors under some misfortune), usually he thinks of God as transcendent and unconcerned in the affairs of men. Most men are deists. As one would view a skilled juggler with admiration for his dexterity, so most men view God with admiration for His wonderful works. But just as one could not know the juggler intimately without knowing more than his dexterity, questions would come up about his personality, his family, disposition, etc., so an admiration of God because of His skill alone is not satisfying, because it does not tell us anything about Him, Himself. Our souls long for God; deep calleth unto deep; "Oh, that I knew where I might find Him," is the hunger cry of generations of men.

Now, what is the answer to our problem, "What is God?" "How may one know Him?" To find God, one must probe behind things to the reality signified by the thing. Just as Elijah at Horeb, because he had spiritual insight, was not moved by the wind, earthquake, or fire, but immediately perceived the presence of God when the still, small voice spoke to his soul, so we must grow beyond perceiving God only in His works to the point where His spirit will be enabled by our receptivity to speak to our spirits.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

We are not mere physical bodies: we are spirits—self-conscious souls—persons. You have never seen me nor have I ever seen you. My soul has had contact with you (your soul) by means of signals in the code we call the English language; via vibrations in the air, decoded by your brain for you to understand, and by pictures printed on the retina of the eye for an instant and interpreted to you. But you and I, our real selves, are ever invisible and silent. We are spirits.

"So," said the great author of the Fourth Gospel, "is God. God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit."

In concluding, the preacher reminded his auditors that Whitsunday is dedicated to God, the Holy Spirit. He is the Comforter, i. e., the "cum" "forte," "strengthener." "Ye shall have power after that the Spirit is come upon you," promised Jesus to His disciples. And His promise was redeemed on Pentecost. So if our souls, by waiting on God, are in contact with the Holy Spirit, we, too, will have power—even as they had.

Speaking of God, the Holy Spirit, reminds us that tomorrow Mr. Irwin is to be advanced from deacon to priest. At that service the Holy Spirit will be invoked to bless him with the powers of the office of priest. (You will find the service on page 514 of the Prayer Book.) I hope that many of you will attend Mr. Irwin's ordination. The hour is set at 10 A. M. and the place is the Chapel of the Philadelphia Divinity School, Forty-second and Locust Streets. No card of admission is required. If you cannot attend, do pray, anyway. Toward the end of the service, while the Bishop and Priests lay their hands on the candidate's head, the Bishop says: "Receive the Holy Ghost for the Office and Work of a Priest in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the Imposition of our hands. Whose sins thou dost forgive, they are forgiven; and whose sins thou dost retain, they are retained. (St. John 21: 22 and 23.) And be thou a faithful Dispenser of the Word of God, and of his holy Sacraments; In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

The best judgment of the publishers of the revised Book of Common Prayer is that publication of any edition cannot be effected before October or November next. Meanwhile we must get along as best we can. The vestry has placed orders for books to be placed in the pew-racks in the Church as soon as received. Our order was in early, and we shall have the books as soon as printed.

Today we close our afternoon services until after the summer months. The Church School will have its commencement on June 16th.

At the meeting of the Young People's Fellowship last Sunday evening the following officers were elected to serve next year: President, Walton Brand; Vice-President, Genevieve Burton; Secretary, Sarah Mary Onderkirk; Treasurer, Robert Freyer. The next Swim of the Fellowship will be held at Alden Park on June 14th, Friday.

Some one took a hat by mistake on the evening of the play, Friday a week ago. He left his own, with the initials S. L. N. in it. The rector is anxious to adjust the matter. If you are S. L. N., please bring the hat to the rector.

Last Sunday was Trinity Sunday. Being also the day that commemorates St. Augustine, the sermon text was taken from the writings of this great Saint: "Thither one journeyeth, not in ships nor in chariots nor on foot; for to journey thither, nay even to arrive there, is nothing else than the will to go. Be still then and know that I am God."

This is a consoling thought when one contemplates the mystery of the Trinity and finds it too deep a mystery to be solved. But men may come to a comprehension of the Trinity if they possess but the "will to go," for knowledge of the Trinity grew not from speculation or philosophizing, but from experience.

"The Lord our God is One God" was the first revelation to Israel, unchanged for centuries. Then came Jesus, and people in time recognized Him to be Divine, because He could be accounted for in no other way. Still later, men experienced the coming of the Holy Spirit promised by Jesus, and evident at Pentecost, and down to today.

Thus, through their experiences, men were obliged to modify their conception of God, so that it might include God the Creator, evident in nature and in man; God the Redeemer, revealed in Christ; and God the Holy Spirit, present and apparent through His continuing work.

On Friday, May 24th, the Rector read the Burial Office for Elizabeth L. Wiltbank, mother of our Mrs. Doctor Hansell. Mrs. Wiltbank died on the previous Tuesday and was interred at Mt. Vernon Cemetery.

The Altar Guild wishes to thank the different departments of the Church School and the many individuals who have provided flowers for the altar. May 12th, Sunday after Ascension, Mrs. Hall's department; May 19th, Whitsunday, Mrs. Horton's department; June 2d (today), Mrs. H. Clapham; in memory of Ruth A. Hartman.

Bishop Garland has again set aside a day for the people of the diocese to meet with him at the Cathedral Site in Upper Roxborough. He has chosen Saturday, June 8, 1929. The grounds will open at 10.30 A. M. and until the hour of services the day will be given over to informal visiting around and fellowship. At 3 P. M. there will be an open-air Religious Service, the Bishop officiating, with full vested chorus of 600 voices from 40 parishes and missions in a special musical program: Harold W. Gilbert, Conductor; Roma E. Angel, Elsie Tucker, Newell Robinson, and William T. Timmings, accompanists.

The Bishop earnestly desires that clergy, congregations, and church schools participate in this Third Annual Diocesan Day Celebration, and by so doing manifest their unity as a Diocese.

The Church Periodical Club of Philadelphia is sending a Library to the Ven. Archdeacon V. G. Lowery, of Ensley, Alabama, in memory of Mrs. Lowber's sister, Miss E. Lansdale, who was the devoted Librarian of the C. P. C. in St. Peter's Church, Philadelphia, for many years. Will not the members of Grace Church show their interest in this mission by sending some books—secular, religious, historical, etc.,—this week to the Parish House, carefully marked for the C. P. C., and with the name of the donor?—M. W. B.

The Social Service Department of the Parish has sent out the annual appeal to its subscribers for contributions to carry on this work. The committee would indeed be happy to have new contributors take up a share of the financial burden. The manner of giving may be by one donation or by a pledge to be paid in three installments, in May, October, and February. Do not be misled by this to feel that only large amounts are desired. We want to spread the giving: small amounts sometimes carry more blessing than large amounts. This year your gifts have enabled us to provide food, shelter, clothing, medicine, rent, and, in addition, occasional comforts of fruit and flowers. It is obvious that we cannot make public a detailed report of our work. Your Rector assures you, however, that what is spent is well spent. Mrs. Frank J. Sheble, 311 Roumfort Road, Mt. Airy, will receive your gift.

I enclose a letter from Bishop Garland which is self-explanatory (C. E. E.):

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

In calling another Special Convention I am moved to say a few words as your Bishop.

It is doubtless true that each deputy has been somewhat disappointed in one or another of the declinations, and that others who had yielded to the preference of the majority have been satisfied when a declination was received. Therefore though individually we may at times have felt disappointed, yet we should not feel discouraged, particularly so as some were elected who it is now apparent had given no hope of a favorable consideration of a call as Bishop Coadjutor.

Though it is some inconvenience to our deputies to spare the few hours necessary for a Special Convention, yet the responsibility of carrying on the work of this Diocese should not rest on me one day longer than is absolutely necessary. I am confident that realizing this fact, both Clergy and Laity will willingly come together again for an election.

I have heretofore refrained from giving my counsel or advice but I now affectionately suggest that we should consider electing one of our own Presbyters who has shown a vital interest in our Missionary work, or a Presbyter from another Diocese who has had experience in Pennsylvania. Then we may feel confident that his love and loyalty to this Diocese, his knowledge of our history and rich heritage, and the great opportunity for service will lead him in humility and faith to accept the challenging call of the Church to what Bishop Phillips Brooks described as a "life of greater usefulness."

Very faithfully yours,

THOMAS J. GARLAND,

Bishop of Pennsylvania

Thursday, Holy Communion, 9.30 A. M.

SERVICES NEXT SUNDAY

(The Third Sunday after Trinity)

7.30 A. M.—Holy Communion
10.30 A. M.—Morning Prayer
11.00 A. M.—Holy Communion and Sermon
3.00 P. M.—Church School Commencement
8.00 P. M.—The Young People's Fellowship

The flowers on the altar today were provided by the members of Mrs. Harold L. Watt's Bible Class.

The Young People's Fellowship will not meet at 8 o'clock tonight. Instead, they will gather in front of the Church at 6 o'clock, and at 6.10 on the dot will leave by automobile for the Consumptives' Home, Chestnut Hill, where they will sing for the patients first, at 6.30, Evensong, and later in each of the wards. At present there are 78 patients in the wards and 25 children in the Lucas Cottage. We need plenty of automobiles, and if you care to come along, you will be welcome. We are going to sing only well-known hymns. Do come!

On Friday Evening of this week—next Friday—we are to have another swim at Aldan Park Manor pool. These swims are for fun and fellowship. Many come who are not members of our Society. All are welcome. Already a number of adults have bought tickets and told us that they are coming. It ought to be a gala evening. Tickets are 75 cents, and may be secured now from one of our members, or on the night of the Swim at the entrance of the pool. Time, 9 P. M.

Last Sunday evening we had a thought-provoking report from Genevieve Burton, who, with her brother, Kemper, had been our delegates to the Conference of Diocesan Fellowship leaders at Quakertown. She brought back many new ideas which we hope to adopt. We expect to make next year even better than this.

There will be a very special and very important meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild tomorrow morning in the Parish House at 11 A. M., to decide matters of importance concerning our Fête to be held at Cedarbrook Country Club on October 25th. Please come! This means every woman interested in Grace Church.

The Church School will hold its Annual Commencement on next Sunday, at 3 P. M. We do hope that many of the congregation will come. The Rev. Mr. Seymour, Diocesan Secretary of Religious Education, will speak to us, and he is so well worth hearing, we are holding Commencement in the Church, where it is possible to hear everything, rather than outdoors, as last year, where we heard little. Don't forget; next Sunday, June 16, 3 P. M.!

The Executive Committee of the Men's Service League met on Monday and transacted much business. Mr. William Walton was chosen to solicit the congregation by mail for funds to send the choir boys to Camp Wilson for a week in August. Already thirty boys have said that they would like to go, and it is estimated that, with transportation, it will cost $365 to camp them for the week. It would be a happy deed to send Mr. Walton your contribution now before he writes to you. His address is 118 East Durham St.

The women of this section of the diocese several years ago made a pledge of $10,000 for the rehabilitation of diocesan missions—the money to be paid in five years. They have, year by year, raised the installments due by holding a Garden Party and Country Fair at "Wyck," Germantown Avenue and Walnut Lane. And now, again, on June 13, from 3 to 8 o'clock, they plan to hold their fête at the same lovely garden. This year the money they make will go to the Mission of the Resurrection, Mayfair. (This Mission was started two years ago, and is just becoming a full-fledged parish, one of the most remarkable growths on record.) Tickets of admission to the Fair include supper and cost $1.00. In case of rain, the fête will be held in Christ Church Parish House, Tulpehocken and McCallum Streets. Mrs. J. Whedon, 25 East Gowen Avenue, will sell you your tickets. Get them now.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, together with your Vestry, presented the Rev. John Irwin with a beautiful silver private Communion Set on the occasion of his advancement to the Priesthood. The Altar Guild gave a white rope girdle for Eucharistic vestments. The Young People's Fellowship have purchased a gift book. We were all so glad, and these gifts represented an outlet for some of the joy we felt. He celebrated the Holy Communion for the first time at the 7.30 service last Sunday morning. Please keep him in your prayers.

There will be a meeting of Grace Church Vestry tomorrow evening at 8 P. M. in the Parish House.

We have just been informed by the executors of the estate of Mrs. Emma De C. Holt that she left a bequest of one hundred dollars to the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild of Grace Church.

CALENDAR OF HOLY DAYS

June 24: Nativity of St. John the Baptist
June 29: St. Peter
July 25: St. James
August 6: Transfiguration
August 24: St. Bartholomew

This is the last issue of the Parish News for the season. Please notice the Service schedule above. The Ven. Archdeacon Steel, of Cuba, will be in charge on July 7; the Rev. Mr. Irwin, on July 14, 21, 28; we expect to have the Rev. Guy H. Frazer, of Florida, in charge in August.

On June 6th we united in holy matrimony Robert Killough, Jr., and Ann Burton; on June 9th, Clifford Theodore Burke and Irene Deborah Lawrence.

May I again remind you of two worthy causes that need your financial help? They are the Social Service work (care of Mrs. Frank Sheble, 311 Roumfort Rd.) and the Choir Boys' Outing Fund (Treasurer, William Walton, 118 Durham Street).

Church School Commencement in Church, Today, 3 P. M. Summer Church School on Sunday mornings at 10 A. M.!

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY NOTES

A Special Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild was held on Monday, June 10, to decide matters of importance concerning the Fête to be held at Cedarbrook Country Club on Friday, October 25.

After much discussion it was decided that the following prices be charged for the various branches of the Fête:

Card Party, including Fashion Show (No prizes).....	~~$5.00 per~~ table ~~$1.25 per~~ ticket
Dinner.....	$1.25 per ticket
Play, including Dance.....	$1.00 per ticket

Those who do not play cards but wish to see the Fashion Show will be permitted to sit in the lobby at a cost of 50 cents per person. The models will pass through the lobby. This will eliminate confusion in the Ball Room, which interferes with card playing.

There will be a sale of cake and candy. Instead of the usual Bazaar, with its heaps of articles for sale, there will be a Sample Bazaar. If each member brings a sample of something for which she will receive orders to be filled before Christmas, only one table will be required, with three or four attendants. This should net big returns if every one takes part.

The Play—"Clarence," by Booth Tarkington—will be coached by Mr. and Mrs. John A. Eiseman, and the cast selected from our own congregation.

We earnestly solicit the co-operation of all organizations of Grace Church to make this Fête a success. Please book up your friends during the holiday months, for all or part of the day's entertainment. Remember—

Friday, October 25, 1929, 3 P. M.: Card Party and Fashion Show. 6 to 7 P. M.: Dinner. 8 P. M.: Play, followed by dancing.

Tickets will be on sale by October first.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild is grateful for the bequest of $100 under the will of Emma de Coursey Holt. A motion was made, seconded, and carried that a "General Memorial Fund" be created, into which all bequests of sums up to $500, unspecified, be placed, investments to be made as the Fund becomes large enough. We hope that our members will recognize the value of these bequests in carrying on the work of the Auxiliary.

We have already booked two speakers for our opening meeting of the fall on Tuesday, October 8. Mrs. Edward Ingersoll will speak to us on the United Thank Offering, and Mrs. W. Cheston Morris on the Corporate Gift. This is another date to mark on your calendar well in advance.

Every confirmed member of the Parish will be invited to a Parish Dinner to be given on Monday, October 14, in the Parish House. Following the dinner Mrs. Horace H. Burrell will give her illustrated talk on the Bok Bird Tower in Florida. Mark this date, too, on your calendar.

My Dear People:

No matter what else you had planned to do, if you can, change your plans and come out tonight to eight o'clock service. Bishop Garland, your Bishop, will be here. He is coming to make his annual official visit to our Parish and to receive into our family those whom he will confirm. I would like to have so many of you present this evening that the church would be crowded. Please!

At that service there will be twenty-two confirmed, many of them adults. Doubtless many of you know some of them already. If you do, wouldn't it be a courteous thing to remain a bit after service to greet them? The offering at the service will be given to Bishop Garland for his discretionary fund. No one but a clergyman can realize how many worthy demands are made on such funds. Be generous.

Next Thursday will be Thanksgiving Day. I am not now going to preach you a homily on the proper observance of the day. I have done so, many times in former years, and you have taken my words more and more to heart. Do come to church on Thanksgiving morning. You will recall that on Thanksgiving Day we have services an hour earlier than on Sundays. Morning Prayer will be said at 9.30 and Holy Communion will be celebrated at 10, at which time there will be a short address. May I remind you again that on Thanksgiving Day we send our Thanksgiving offering to the Episcopal Hospital, your hospital? Last spring I went through that vast hospital at ten o'clock at night, with a hospital superintendent from another city; one of the night nurses showed us about. To me it was a weird trip, slipping through the crowded wards where many were sleeping and many were writhing in pain. On we went, through the Home for Incurables that is connected with the hospital, passing through operating rooms that had been busy all day and were now ready for the morrow, and through empty dispensary and clinics. Then on to the children's buildings where the patient little sufferers won one's heart immediately. Then down into the accident ward, where physicians and nurses were stationed (through all the hours when you and I sleep) with operating tables and every known appliance prepared, ready to render first aid to those who needed them. When we came out into the cool night, I instinctively thanked God that He had sent our Lord Jesus into the world and that as the result of that Coming, men had learned in a measure to think of each other as brothers and to give of their means to establish such stations of mercy as the Episcopal Hospital. I was proud of that hospital—your hospital—and so was the hospital superintendent who went through with me. And so on Thanksgiving Day when we tell our heavenly Father how thankful we are not only for material benefits but especially for the means of grace and the hope of eternal life, it is meet and right and natural that we should give some tangible expression to our thanks by piling up an extra large thanksgiving offering. And it is certainly fitting that we should send it to the Episcopal Hospital to be spent in ministering to those who need. You all know also that the head of our Social Service Department, Mrs. Frank J. Sheble, 311 Roumfort Road, sends out baskets of food at Thanksgiving time to needy people of our own parish and that she will be glad to receive any donations of fruit, vegetables or money that you care to give. Don't forget them. I know that you won't.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

On Saturday next the Young People's Fellowship of our Church is going to have a dance at the Old York Road Country Club to the strains of a large well-known orchestra. Tickets may be obtained from any of our young people and cost one dollar. They were very appreciative of the travel pictures that Mr. MacDonald showed them last Sunday evening. The room was crowded and interest was intense.

The Church School is coming along well. Last week we added a new teacher, Miss Doris Haldeman, who is well qualified to undertake this important task. The attendance this fall has been good and we have added many new pupils. A Teachers' Meeting is planned for the near future.

The Thursday morning meetings of the Auxiliary have not been so well attended except when there have been luncheons. A number of the faithful workers of former years have not started in yet this fall and the amount of work being done is not exactly encouraging—so far. Let's get after this right away and make a weekly engagement with ourselves to sew or fold surgical bandages. The President is busy selling the New Prayer Book and now has added a line of religious Christmas cards to her stock. They are on display in the Green Room. We have not yet had a final report on the money made at the Cedarbrook fête but expect to know soon.

I append a record of baptisms since June.

Faithfully, Your Friend and Rector,

Charles Edward Eder.

Baptisms: June 22, 1929: Jean Downing Toal; Parents, Charles Arthur and Agnes Downing Toal. Godparents: Agnes Downing and Agnes Downing Toal.

Oct. 6, 1929: Richard Martinez Spurgeon. Born Sept. 1, 1926. Parents, Richard Cruthers and Marie Martinez Spurgeon. Sponsors: The parents.

Nov. 3, 1929: Sally Jean Webb, born Sept. 3, 1929. Parents, Edward Joseph and Frances Gertrude Webb. Godparents: Mrs. Edward J. Webb, Sr., and Frank MacNichol.

Nov. 10, 1929: Patricia Ruth Fisler, born Aug. 21, 1929. Parents, Norman and Ruth Fisler. Sponsors: Henry F. Schwarz, Mrs. Henry F. Schwarz, Mary Eleanor Maxwell.

There will be given in Grace Church beginning on Sunday afternoon, December first, a series of three organ recitals, beginning at 4.10 promptly.

My Dear People:

Thank you! You came in large numbers to Confirmation last Sunday evening, more than three hundred of you, and I know that you were richly rewarded. It was a beautiful service, wasn't it? It did us all good. There were twenty-three confirmed. Their names follow:

Jean E. Coleman
Elizabeth Martindale
Howard Littlefield Gamble
Elizabeth C. Dauphinee
John G. Kuhn
Elizabeth Kuhn
Franklin D. Buckley
Stephen Paul Mathers
Joseph T. Stumm
Francis A. Mathers
John Barton Lownes, M.D.
Kathryn W. Lownes
Pauline W. Weis
Helen Roberta Passant
Sarah Shermer Watkins
Horace Wilson
Walter Bates
Theodore Watson
Conrad Harland
Virginia Moss
Mary Hirons
Dorothy Smith
Suzanne L. Chambers

Six of these were members or former members of our choir. Six were adults. All were in earnest. I bespeak for them a hearty welcome into our church family. The offering amounted to more than $69.00, the most generous offering that you have ever given. It will be sent to Bishop Garland shortly to be used for relieving some of the many needs that come to his attention. It is his discretionary fund, and is used by him in the same way that your Rector uses his discretionary fund which comes to him from the loose offering on the alms basins at the first Sunday morning late service every month.

Did you notice the beautiful white chrysanthemums on the altar last Sunday? They were in memory of Elizabeth R. Meehan, the gift of some of her many friends. These friends have thought up a happy and novel way of keeping her memory fresh. She was one who was ever thoughtful of those who were ill. Her friends have resolved to gather together a sum of money, invest it, and use the income to provide flowers for the sick. Inasmuch as there is no other money in the parish for that purpose, you can well realize that the Rector is in hearty sympathy with their plan. Perhaps you would like to share in it. If the cause appeals to you and you are able, get in touch with Mrs. A. C. Brand, 301 E. Durham Street, custodian of the fund.

We have had an urgent appeal for used clothing for the Fort Valley Industrial School, Fort Valley, Georgia. They need warm clothing for babies, children, and women, also used household linen. (A list of their specific needs is posted in the Green Room.) We intend to put the clothing in barrels and send it no later than December 5th. Please find out what you can spare and send it to the Parish House.

Today we begin using the new Prayer Book, as revised at the General Convention last year. You will find the books distributed throughout the pews. Because you gave generously this year through your pledges, we were able to purchase them from current income without making a special appeal. In fact, we have not had to make any special appeal for ourselves this year, not once. This is the first year in our history that you have not been solicited for extras for your own needs! That makes your vestry feel good. It must encourage you also. Let's give so generously in the coming canvass that we can keep on running our parish without sending out appeals for ourselves, time and time again.

Just before the late Presiding Bishop died, he wrote a last official letter to the Church at large. With the concurrence of the House of Bishops, that utterance now becomes a formal call to the Church in the name of its late beloved pastor:

"My Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

The publication of the new Prayer Book marks an epoch in the history of the Church. It is the result of many years' work of the highest legislative body of the Church and the patient, pious labors of learned men. It carries on the great traditions of the Book of Common Prayer as probably the noblest expression of Christian worship in all the centuries.

It is fitting that such an achievement should be emphasized in some special manner.

I, therefore, with the approval of the House of Bishops, have fixed Sunday, the first day of December, the opening day of the coming Christian Year, as the date on which I suggest that all our congregations begin the use of this Revised Book of Common Prayer.

I earnestly request all communicants of the Episcopal Church, and all those who habitually attend its services, laying aside other things, to attend the forenoon service on this Advent Sunday, the first of December, in order that this whole Church may offer to Almighty God praise and thanksgiving for the completion of this new book, together with prayers for His blessing upon us in its future use.

I suggest the following prayer for use upon the occasion:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we praise thy Name for the direction of thy Holy Spirit, to thy servants, who through the years have endeavored to perfect the worship of thy Church. We yield unto thee unfeigned thanks for the loyalty, devotion, and unity of spirit, which, by thy mercy, have attended them in their task.

Grant, we beseech thee, that, through the Book now enriched under thy guidance, multitudes of thy children may enter into the fellowship of thy Son, Jesus Christ, and worship thee in spirit and in truth.

And finally we pray that all thy people may so faithfully employ the words of this Book that our lives may show forth thy praise, and that, day by day, lifting up our hearts, we may continually dwell with thee in heavenly places; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Faithfully and affectionately yours,

John Gardner Murray,
Presiding Bishop."

There is one more matter of which I want to remind you; as announced in last week's Parish News, our organist, Mr. Robinson, is going to play a short organ recital every Sunday afternoon, just before the service. The recitals begin today at 4.10. Today's program is by German composers. 1. Aria and Finale, Handel (10th Organ Concerto). 2. Adagio, Bach. 3. Short Prelude and Fugue, Krebs. 4. Canon—B Major, Schumann.

Do come!

Faithfully,
Your Friend and Rector,

Charles Edward Eder.

(This is the monthly "Woman's Auxiliary and Guild Issue" of the Parish News. It does not give as much concerning their work as usual, the reason being that they have concentrated their news into a small space in order to make room for the following statement of our Accounting Warden. Mr. Thompson. I commend his statement and accompanying explanation to your attention.—C. E. E.)

We will soon have our "Every Member Canvass," and we will be asking for your pledges for financial support and for missionary work during 1930. With this in mind, the Accounting Warden has drawn up this statement showing where your contributions during the period to November 30th have gone. We have only a few weeks left until 1929 becomes history, and if the few subscribers who are in arrears on their pledges will pay up promptly, we will wind up the year in good shape.

We are not going to ask our present subscribers for increased subscriptions next year. We need more income, of course, if we are to go forward both at home and abroad, but we confidently hope to secure some increase in our income from the subscriptions of those who now enjoy our mutual blessings and pleasures, but are not yet contributing regularly.

In the case of our present subscribers, our canvassers will call to acquaint you with the affairs of the church and to urge your continued co-operation and attendance at the services. In the case of those who are not subscribing, you will be asked to contribute in proportion to your blessings, and we expect to have your help. We need it in carrying out the program of our Parish and of the Church at large.

Woman's Auxiliary and Guild Notes

Christmas is coming; what lovelier gift could any one receive than a new Prayer Book?

We earnestly solicit your orders for these books, that we may receive the generous commission offered us as a church organization and thus be better able to meet our financial requirements.

On Thursdays and Sundays in the Green Room samples are on display—a very splendid assortment from both the Morehouse Publishing Company and the Oxford Press. At other times they may be seen by special appointment with Mrs. A. C. Brand, C. H. 1228. Let us endeavor to have at least one new Prayer Book in each home by Christmas.

In order to send a generous amount of second-hand clothing and household linens to the Fort Valley Industrial School at Fort Valley, Georgia, we will defer packing the barrels until Thursday, December 12. Please leave your contributions toward this missionary work in the Parish House before that date.

There is a movement on foot to establish young women's branches of the Woman's Auxiliary in many of the parishes of this Diocese. We have long recognized a crying need for one in this Parish. Miss Sallie Deane, of Richmond, Virginia, is coming to us on Monday, January 20, at 8 P. M., to tell us how such a group may be formed.

Young mothers, young business women, and teachers, do come to this meeting! You will never know the joy that comes of active service until you give of your time to some such great work.

Let me quote from Mrs. Woodward's letter to us in the December "Woman's Auxiliary News." She says: "As you know, it is not the officers who can make the Woman's Auxiliary a great force for righteousness: it is the women members of each parish, wherever that parish may be. To us all is given the privilege of making Christ known—upon all is the responsibility laid."

It is still not too late to order Cathedral Christmas Cards—the kind of card that really has the meaning of Christ's birthday. Samples are on display in the Green Room.

Remember—the work room is open every Thursday—there are several thousand surgical dressings to be folded and 125 garments to be made.

The compositions played at the 4.10 Organ Recital today will be by French composers: (1) Allegretto, Guilmant. (2) The Swan, Saint-Saëns. (3) Carillon, Vierne. (4) Allegro non troppo (Seventh Symphony), Widor.

My Dear People:

This is the week of the yearly Every Member Canvass. That means that some time during the coming week one of our faithful workers will call upon you to receive your promise of what you are going to give during the year 1930. You will not be asked, as usual, to consider the amount, and sign the pledge, in the presence of the caller. The caller is not coming to you to discuss money with you but to receive your pledge, which you will have put in the sealed envelope mailed to you for that purpose, and to talk with you if you so desire of Grace Church and its business.

You have already (in last week's Parish News) had next year's budget submitted to you. It is very small. In fact, it is the same amount that we asked for and received from you this year. The vestry has approved it and it has been kept down to the amount of this year by the rigid economy and the business acumen of your directors. Every cent that passes through their hands is spent carefully and wisely. They are conscientious stewards.

The Accounting Warden has already told you through these columns that we are not going to ask our present subscribers for increased amounts. (The Rector feels that the emphasis in this is on the word "ask.") In other words, while some of you cannot conscientiously give more than you have been giving, undoubtedly there are some among you whom the Lord has blessed with increasing incomes who will voluntarily increase what you are now giving. We do need more money. The budget allows very little for contingencies or for forward expansion. All growing concerns need more money from year to year. And we are growing apace—both in numbers and (we hope) in spirituality. Then, too, some of our most generous givers have died during the year now closing. They gave not what they felt to be their share but what they felt they could give, irrespective of what others gave. Needless to day, they gave very large amounts. And we thank God for them. But now that they have passed on to the higher life, we need others to assume some of the amounts which they assumed. We need conscientious givers.

Now your Rector, although he doesn't know how much you are giving as individuals, feels that undoubtedly there are many who have not nearly approximated what they could and would give if they could envision for a moment what giving really means, what a spiritual thing giving is. Let me illustrate it by a story:

In another parish of which I was Rector there was a poor man out of work, selling candy, cutting grass, and doing odd chores to support his family. His regular job was temporarily closed. During this trying period in his life this man came under the influence of the Church and desired to be confirmed. When the day of Confirmation drew near, he came to the Rector and said: "Rector, you know my financial circumstances—how straitened I am at this time. I hesitated to be confirmed because I felt that a confirmed member of a congregation should be giving generously, while I have nothing to give. But when you spoke of giving as being a substitute for the giving of one's own services and when you said that a man who received $5.00 a day for his services and gave $5.00 a week to the Church was giving a day of every seven back to Almighty God—it set me thinking. . . . What do you pay for janitor service in our church?" I told him, "Thirty-five dollars a month" (it was a small church and we only had a part-time janitor who did not care much about the job). Then the man about to be confirmed said to me, "I'll tell you what I'll do, Rector, if it meets with your approval. If you'll discharge your present janitor and hire me and pay me the $35.00 every month, I'll send it in to the Treasurer as my contribution and the contribution of my family toward the expenses of this parish. But I want the check every month, and I want the satisfaction of putting it on the plate to receive God's blessing on it, and I'll turn it in regularly." The agreement was made; the man did as he had promised with the check; the church was never so well taken care of, everything was spick and span and done as a labor of love and that man actually was giving more than $8.00 a week for the support of his church. [The sequel is interesting although not pertinent. The man prospered. He stayed with us for a year. Then he moved to California and made more money there than he had ever made in his life. And he started a little chapel at La Crescenta, near Los Angeles; and by and by, mainly through his own efforts, it became a self-supporting church, and now is helping other needy missions. And the man I am speaking of is its Rector's Warden!]

Do you see what I mean by catching a vision of what giving really is; what a spiritual thing the giving of money as viewed from this angle really becomes?

In this week's experience, before you sign the promise and seal the envelope, I want every one of you to think of his own giving as compared with the spirit of this true story and then I want you to ask yourself how much time (symbolized by money) you are promising to give back to our Lord in return for the 168 hours that He gives you every week. I count on every one of you to do your best.

Cordially and affectionately, your friend and Rector,

Charles Edward Eder.

The Memorial Window in the Baptistry to Miss Mills will be dedicated at the 11 o'clock service next Sunday.

Here is a little article about your Church School entitled "In the Spirit of Prayer, Work and Giving," written by Mrs. Thompson:

In the Spirit of Prayer, Work and Giving

The Thanksgiving and Christmas spirit in our Church School has been given expression in the sending at Thanksgiving of fruit and flowers to Chestnut Hill Consumptive Hospital—and baskets of fruit, jellies, and canned goods to the House of Rest, Germantown.

For Christmas, a sum of money was sent to Holy Trinity Mission, La Gloria, Cuba, for the purchase of gifts, and five boxes of gifts have been sent to Breck Memorial Indian Mission, Pansford, Minnesota. A gift of money to St. Mark's, Nenana, Alaska, to purchase Christmas candy.

The children's Advent Offerings are always given to the Bishop's Brick Fund—a Fund the Bishop uses here in the diocese for building new churches, parish houses, and repairing old ones. This year it is to be used to build a Primary Room in a new parish house soon to be erected at St. Ambrose Mission, Kensington.

For the offering at the Manger Service on Christmas Eve the boys and girls are each bringing a toy or gift (not exceeding in value fifty cents, and one suitable for a girl or boy his age), which will be sent to our colored neighbors, at St. Barnabas Church, Germantown.

Please come and worship with your children at their Carol Service Christmas Eve at three thirty in the Church.

—C. J. T.

Mrs. Karl Lundelius, 27 W. Phil Ellena Street, has secured some very attractive calendars for 1930, having on them an excellent and new picture of Grace Church.

On December 3rd the Rector officiated at the Burial Service for Isabelle H. Remsen, of E. Durham Street, the interment being made at Mt. Peace Cemetery.

The Social Service Committee is busy getting ready for the poor and needy at Christmas. If you want to give expression to your Christmas joy, get in touch with Mrs. F. J. Sheble, 311 Roumfort Rd., at once.

The offering in Grace Church on Christmas Day as usual will be used to pay pension premiums for the clergy of the parish. This is a fixed charge and your generous gifts will help the parish in its obligations, which now amount to $660 every year.

Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week are Ember Days; use the prayer on p. 38 of the New Book of Common Prayer.

Your Clergy Wish You All A Holy Christmas

Dear Parishioners:

The first thing that I want to talk to you about today is the Christmas services. They will be as they were last year, both in character and in time. Christmas with us will begin on Tuesday at three-thirty in the afternoon with the Children's Carol Service. Those of you who have attended the service in other years will come without solicitation; those who have not yet attended have a treat coming. Let me tell you about the service itself: It is Christmas Eve; the Church is decorated and the spirit of Christmas is in the air. Exactly at half-past three the children of our Church School march into Church, singing a well known Christmas hymn. After the opening devotions they march about the Church, singing, and as they pass the Crèche with the Manger Scene arranged carefully within, they place gifts before it. (These presents are gathered together afterward and taken to our colored mission in Germantown for distribution to the poor children of that congregation on Christmas Eve). Then, after singing "Holy Night" and a few more carols, our children march out of Church and the service is over. But it starts Christmas right and sings tunes into our hearts that keep on singing there throughout the holiday season. Try it! At eleven o'clock in the evening there will be a half hour of special Christmas music under the direction of our organist. The next service will be the main Christmas service—at eleven-thirty Christmas Eve. We tried this as an experiment last year and the attendance was so good that we are continuing it this year. It seemed to be just what we were looking for. The address will be very brief, lasting not much more than five minutes. The music will be lovely. The unique hour and the night itself all combine to make it stand out. Make your Christmas Communion then.

On the morning of Christmas Day there will be two celebrations of the Holy Communion for those who are unable to attend at midnight. The first will be held at 7.30 and the second at 9.30. There will be no music or sermon at either service. There will be no eleven o'clock service on Christmas Day. During the rest of the week each day is a Holy day and each day the Holy Communion will be celebrated at nine-thirty in the morning. In addition, if any one in the Parish is unable to come to the service in Church, the Rector will be glad to bring the Holy Communion to him in his home, provided that he will write or telephone to me. Let everyone in the Parish make his communion this happy season.

The second thing that I want to call to your attention is the Christmas offering. Every clergyman in the American Church is a member of the Church Pension Fund. This fund was created to pension our clergy at the age of sixty-eight and to give their widows and orphans financial aid in the case of an earlier death. Every congregation is compelled to be a partner in this enterprise. Seven and a half per cent of the amount paid for salary to the clergymen of a parish is assessed against the parish as an annual premium. In this parish the total is above $670. We have to pay this and the Christmas offering is used for this purpose. As a matter of fact, we never raise nearly that much by this method, but the more we do raise the less we have to withdraw from current income. We commend this object to your generosity.

Let me remind you again of the baskets for the poor that Mrs. Sheble will be packing tomorrow. If you care to give either food or money for this worthy cause telephone or see her. She resides at 311 Roumfort Road.

The memorial window to Ellen Stanney Mills, who died on June 14, 1926, will be dedicated at the eleven o'clock service this morning. This window was made by Franz Mayer of Munich, Germany, the same firm that made the window over the altar. The subject is the Baptism of Jesus, having been chosen because the window is the center window of the Baptistry. It is a notable addition to our Church building and we hope that you like it as we like it.

One more item and I am through: I have just had word that Bishop Taitt, Co-Adjutor of this Diocese, will be the principal speaker at the supper which the Men's Service League will give on the evening of February 11th. This supper is for men and women and will be the first visitation of our new Bishop. Plan now to come. Again wishing you a Holy Christmas, I am

Your friend and Rector,

Charles Edward Eder.

There will be no meeting of the Women's Auxiliary until Thursday, January 9th.

My Dear People:

I was very happy to have so many of you make your communions at Christmas time. In comparison with the number on our list the communions made were few, but in comparison with other years the improvement was excellent. Christmas was well observed. The Children's Service was particularly beautiful, much of the credit being due to Mr. Meehan for his carefully prepared program. We had the largest attendance at midnight we have ever had, there being 287 present. The offerings did not improve, remaining at about the same level as of last Christmas.

By now most of you have your envelopes for 1930. Have you noticed the sermonettes on each envelope? They are called "Homilopes," and seem to be well worth thinking about. The canvass was made by faithful workers who gave their time during the busy season to work for us—for you and me. In your name and my own I thank them for their devotion to our parish. The results are satisfactory—some had to decrease the amount they could promise and some fortunate ones were privileged to be able to promise more. If any one has been overlooked or would like to share in paying our bills, let him get in touch with our Accounting Warden at once.

The Men's Service League is looking forward to January 13th, at which time the Rector will give an illustrated talk for men and women on, "Grace Church people in the Holy Land." Mark that night down on your new calendar as "taken."

We need a Scout Master and we need him right away! Has any one a suggestion?

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

Mr. Gordon Crouter is no longer able to lead the troop (as he has been doing so well) and desires to be relieved as soon as possible. Dr. Holman White, Mr. Robt. MacDonald, Mr. Harold Shertz, with your Rector form the Troop Committee. Tell them if you have a man in mind who would make good.

On December 26th I officiated at the wedding of Frederick J. Cooper and Anna V. Benz, and on December 28th, at the wedding of Ralph Irvin Raynor and Helen Frances Meehan.

And now for the very best year in the life of Grace Church! Let every one cooperate and with God's help we will succeed. Let there be more communions made at 7.30 on Sundays; more regular attendance at all services and a fine spirit of cooperation in everything—and we shall make this year the best yet. Will you do your part? I know you will. May God give you every one a holy and a prosperous year.

Faithfully, your Friend and Rector,

Charles Edward Eder.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY NOTES

The Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will be held on Tuesday, January 14. There will be a luncheon at 12.30, followed by the business meeting with election of officers at 2 P. M. We expect to entertain at luncheon the Rev. Mr. Mayo, of the Blue Ridge Industrial School, and just prior to our business meeting, to hear him tell of his interesting work there. Please make an effort to be present on this occasion, thus making a good start for 1930.

Envelopes for regular contributions to the work of our organization will be mailed to all former contributors. We hope others who wish to contribute will ask for envelopes. Next month our Annual Report will be published. Read it carefully and note how our money is spent and you will understand just why we need the regular and continued financial support of all our women.

We regret very much that some who ordered Prayer Books for Christmas gifts were disappointed. Letters of apology were received from both publishers that, owing to the great demand, it was impossible for them to supply the orders received. They hope to be restocked in January and we again solicit your orders, for we think we can fill them as soon as the booksellers can.

The final returns from the Fête at Cedarbrook Country Club on October 25 are $499.35. Again many thanks to all who made this possible.

From the sale of Christmas cards a commission of $4.53 was allowed the Auxiliary.

A Christmas gift of $25.00 was gratefully received by the Auxiliary from one of its members.

We hope all our members (and if you are a confirmed woman in the parish you know you are automatically a member of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild) will make at least one New Year's Resolution, and that is to be an active member in 1930. There are so many ways in which you can serve. If you are in doubt, ask how—there is an answer for every one.

The work-room will reopen on Thursday, January 9, at the close of the communion service at 9.30.

My Dear People:

I was making a parochial call the other day and we got to talking about the different ideas of what is right and wrong held by peoples of different religions. We spoke of some of the immoral ideas inculcated by religions that number among their adherents millions of people, and how Christianity could do much for those people if they would accept it. That, of course, is the rub: how to get them to accept it. I pointed out that while occasionally the Church now sends out men and women to stand on street corners and tell people about our Lord (I have a friend whose duty this is in a city of 100,000 in China, where he is one of the three Christians in the city), the usual way now is to establish a hospital or school and by service win men to care for the Christ who taught men to serve each other. I mentioned Sweitzer, the great New Testament scholar, who was also one of the greatest organ recitalists in the world.

You will recall how Sweitzer for many years studied and wrote critical works about the New Testament and added much to our store of information. In addition, on Sundays and holidays he gave recitals on the great organ of his home church. Men and women flocked from all corners of the land to listen. Meanwhile, he came to the conclusion that the great task for him in the future must be not so much to gather information concerning the make-up of the New Testament, but to impart the news that it contains. So he gave up his studies and organ playing and entered the medical school as a beginner.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

When he graduated he went into the most forgotten part of Africa to practise the ministry of healing. He wrote a book about it and one chapter ends something like this: "It is now twilight; the man that I operated on a few hours ago came out of the ether some time back and looked at me with questioning eyes. After I had assured him that he was going to get well and be strong and lusty as other men his eyes still questioned and I told him that he had nothing to pay—owed me no debt of gratitude. And while he listened I told him of the Lord I love and how He came to teach all mankind that they are brothers and that God cares for every one of them. I went on to tell him that I had left my organ and my studies and had come out here into the wilds of Africa to care for men because my Master had told me that I should do so, for He loves them every one. While I was talking to him great tears of joy at the good news welled from his eyes and he begged me to go on and tell him more about this wonderful God. . . . And now it is night and he has fallen asleep and as I smoke my pipe it all comes over me afresh how wonderful is the fact that the great God of the Universe really cares for every one of us as if there was no one else in the world on whom to shower His love."

Wherever our missionaries go today, that is their message—that where Christ is, men count. No other religion in the world teaches or believes that. It is our entering wedge for converting the men who know not God as revealed in Christ.

My parishioner then asked me why God hadn't revealed Himself to the Mohammedans as He has to us, so that we would "not need to send missionaries." And I reminded her that God had not revealed Himself directly even to us, but to the Jews, and because the converted Jews became missionaries, Christianity spread all over the world, finally to us. If it had not been for early missionaries, we would never have heard of Christ.

That is a wonderful thought that few of us realize enough to appreciate. It is the message of this Epiphany season. The light of the Gospel, kindled in Palestine, flew like wildfire along the blue Ægean, and through the lovely cities of Asia Minor. The messengers that passed swiftly along the Appian Way carried it to Imperial Rome, and the seven-hilled city from her thousand avenues radiated it over the world. Dusky Egyptians embraced it with all the fervency of their torrid nature, and the streets of Alexandria resounded with hymns to Christ. All along the coast of Africa the watchfires of Christ were kindled. From Italy it spread to France, to sunny Spain, to the blue-eyed and fair-haired Saxons. Over to England went the glittering torch, to Scotland, across the stormy channel to Ireland, and so on to our own land. And now it has gone beyond us to China, Japan, India. Yes, wherever the foot of man treads, the story of Christ goes with him, and the story of the Gospel treads fast upon the heels of the discoverer.

In our hands now the torch of Christ is placed. Let us carry it steadily and hand it on firmly. We spend too much time quarreling how it is made, or whether we have the right one; we do not seem to care enough how it burns and what light it gives. The fuel that feeds the flame is our love, our faith, our courage, our character. Pour in such oil as that, and brighter and brighter will the torch flame out over the sea of life, lighting all tempest-tossed ships into the haven of the Star.

That is the meaning of the Epiphany season—the Shining of the Star—to tell men that Christ has come and that God cares! "Let your light so shine before men that they may see."

Affectionately, Your Friend and Rector,

Charles Edward Eder.

The Choirmaster is again preparing to rehearse a girls' choir. If you are interested, let him know.

Tomorrow night, in the Parish House, the Rector is going to talk on "Jerusalem—what we saw there a few months ago." The meeting is under the auspices of the Men's Service League, and they invite both men and women to attend.

The Young People's Fellowship will meet in front of Grace Church, at 7 P. M. tonight, to motor to the House of Rest (Wayne and Harvey Sts.) to have an Evening Prayer service with the guests of the Home. Our young people will take all parts of the service, including the address. If you feel like coming along you will be welcome. Autos leave at 7 P. M.—on the dot!

Last Sunday morning's sermon was based on verses 20 and 21 of the 28th chapter of Genesis. The preacher spoke of the so-called "modern" school of biographers who pride themselves on the fact that in writing the story of a man's life they frankly tell of his evil doings as well as of his achievements; they "debunk" history. The preacher pointed out that like "modern" heresies and "modern" sins (which are in reality as old as the hills), so "modern" biography is as old as the oldest part of the Bible. The Bible tells the whole story, even when it speaks of such a national hero as David. It does it also in the chapter from which our text is taken, the early life of Jacob. And it certainly doesn't spare Jacob in our text where Jacob promises the Almighty that if He will give him plenty to eat and drink and wear, and peace, then Jacob will accept Him as God, intimating that if God failed in any of these details, Jacob would have nothing to do with Him.

The preacher asked us to look into our own hearts and see if we didn't have the same presumptuousness. Many say, "If God will fit into my mind's demand of what God should be like . . . if God will make justifiable to me the problem of evil, disease, and in the world . . . if God will in return for my fealty save me from poverty, sickness, misfortune . . . well, but if not, I'll have nothing to do with religion."

The antidote is an expanding idea of God; an appreciation of the vastness of His creation; and a sense of our own minuteness as compared with the tremendous reaches of space, time, and purpose. We need to emerge from the contract idea of our relationship with God—into a relationship based on mystic fellowship with Him. Jacob found God for himself and became Israel, a changed man. Jesus had it constantly, as found, for instance, in Gethsemane ("Nevertheless not my will but Thine be done"). The three Hebrew exiles in Daniel 3, especially in verse 18, had it: "Our God whom we serve will deliver us from thy hand, but if not (even though He doesn't) we will not serve thy gods (turn against Him)."

Religion is not obedience to a code of laws, the reward for which obedience is health, money, and good fortune. Religion is personal relationship with God as a loving Father, asking nothing and giving all.

Are the women of the Church remembering to save their pennies during Epiphany, that they may be used for the Corporate Gift? Remember that last year we saved $110 in this way, and we scarcely knew we were doing anything. Let us aim to do as well this year. (J. B.)

A special invitation to the young women of the Parish! On Monday evening, January 20th, at 8.15, Miss Sallie Deane will speak in our Parish House on "Young Women and the Church."

As we are to be the hostesses to six neighboring parishes, it is earnestly desired that all our young women be present.

It is hoped that the outcome of this meeting will be the forming of a Young Woman's Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild. (J. B.)

Annual Educational Day of The Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese, Wednesday, January 22, 1930.

8.30 A. M.—Holy Communion in Church House Chapel, the Rev. Herbert Jones; breakfast at Warburton House, 50 cents. Those who expect to attend are asked to notify the office secretary by January 20. Telephone Spruce 6650.

10.15–11.30—Holy Trinity Parish House, 217 South Twentieth Street. Subject, "How to Conduct Our Parish Meetings and Make Them More Worth While." Leader, Mrs. Marcellin Adams, Provincial President of Woman's Auxiliary.

11.40 A. M.–12.45 P. M.—Miss Sallie Deane will lead the Conference on Younger Women in our Parishes.

12.45—Noonday Intercessions conducted by one of our missionaries.

1–2 P. M.—Luncheon. Bring box luncheon with you. Coffee and tea will be served.

2.15—Annual Meeting of Woman's Auxiliary. Special speaker, Mrs. Harper Sibley, member of National Executive Board of Woman's Auxiliary, delegate to the Jerusalem Conference, World Missionary Meeting.

It is earnestly hoped that every parish officer will attend and bring other Auxiliary women with her.

Lent begins on March fifth.

Miss Ellen F. Earp, of the Gorgas Apartments, Gorgas Lane, was this week transferred to us from St. Michael's Church, Germantown.

The first rehearsal of the Girls' Choir will be held on January 23rd at 7 o'clock.

One of our generous parishioners has presented us with an Altar Book and six Prayer Books for use in the Chancel. They were dedicated at the morning service on January 16th and were used for the first time last Sunday. In your name we say, "Thank you."

Last Sunday morning the preacher took as his text, "Be fervent in spirit," or, as Moffatt translates it, "Maintain a spiritual glow." By way of introduction the preacher pointed out that there is a glow of health, there is a glow of mind, and there is a glow of sprit. It is known by its fruits. St. Paul, who enjoined its cultivation on others, himself had it in great fullness. His life as a Christian was the radiant glowing of a great spirit on fire with love and zeal for the Master.

This glowing of spirit is not a matter of temperament, so that stolid people will not possess it and emotional people will exhibit it in great degree. Any one who comprehends the content of the Incarnation, the Atonement, or the Immanence of God cannot fail to be moved at the glory, wonder and mystery of these great facts—if he is in normal spiritual health.

Of course, glowing of spirit is to be distinguished from "piosity." Jesus told us that not every one that saith, " 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven." One suspects the man who glibly rolls the sacred name across his lips at all times and on all occasions. But there is a genuine zeal of spirit that marks the average Christian in normal spiritual health, and if he does not possess it, then he should look for the disease arresting the flow of health.

Three everyday diseases that tend to quench the fire of the spirit are sin, mental arrogance, and just plain everyday laziness. Sin separates from God: cuts us off from the source of power. Mental arrogance makes us sit in judgment of God and His universe. Laziness keeps one from being real or enthusiastic about anything.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

The remedies for these diseases are the contrary virtues, i.e., for sin, conformity to God's will and yielding to our natural affection for Him; for mental arrogance, a fresh apprehension of the greatness of God—ordinarily achieved by the study of some such book as Eddington's "The Nature of the Unseen Universe"; for laziness, industry in religious duties and practices.

If after diagnosis and heroic treatment one still lacks spiritual warmth, then the preacher suggested that the patient go on doing his daily task faithfully and industriously as in God's sight, and as surely as Thomas was convinced because he kept on working and waiting, so we, too, will become aflame with enthusiasm—if we wait for the Lord.

On Monday, at two in the afternoon, the Rector read the Burial Office for Eugene Harrison Renouf, of 4446 N. 15th Street. Mr. Renouf entered into paradise on January 16th and his body was laid away in W. Laurel Hill Cemetery on January 20th. Your prayers are asked for God's blessing on the bereaved family.

The first visit of Bishop Taitt, our new Coadjutor, to our parish will be in connection with the dinner given by our Men's Service League on Tuesday, February 11th. This dinner will be for both men and women. Those of you who have talked with me about Bishop Taitt know how I admire and love him and I am anxious for you to know him, too. It is good to have him come to this informal dinner, where you can see and know him as he really is. I want the whole parish to be present that night and in return I promise you a worthwhile and joyous evening. The time to decide to come is now! (Remember, Tuesday, February 11th—at dinner).

A friend of the parish is having drawings made for a beautiful window to go into our baptistry. We have seen the preliminary painting and it is lovely. The subject is, "The Presentation in the Temple."

The next meeting of Auxiliary "B" will be held in the Parish House on Wednesday of this week at 8.00 P. M. Speak to the Rector about it if you want details.

Of course you want to know where your contributions went during the past year, and here is a statement which gives that information. The item for "Repairs and Improvements" is considerably greater than usual and covers painting the walls of the Church and the upstairs room in the Parish House. It was possible to do this much-needed work in 1929 through the money from the legacy of Mrs. H. S. Lowber. Knowing how Mrs. Lowber loved Grace Church and its beauty, the Vestry could think of no better use for a part of this money than to restore some of the original beauty of the building.

The Woman's Committee for Church Work in converting the Jews invites you to a Meeting and Tea at the residence of Mrs. George Breed, 231 W. Chelten Ave., on Wednesday of this week, February 5th, at 3 o'clock. Dr. Caley will preside and Canon Bridgman, Chaplain in Jerusalem, will speak.

The Altar Guild reports gifts of flowers for the month of January:
January 5th, by Mrs. Bradley, in memory of Mrs. John Greaves.
January 12th, by Mrs. Ralph North.
January 19th, by Mrs. Horace Burrell, "In Memoriam."
January 26th, by Senior and Junior Departments of the Church School.
If parishioners desire any special day for supplying flowers for the Altar, they will please consult with the President of the Altar Guild in order that dates may be arranged to suit the Church's Seasons and also not to conflict with days already chosen by other people. Miss M. W. Bayard, President of the Altar Guild.

On Tuesday last, at 2 o'clock, the Rector read the Burial Office for W. Merriman Price, Jr., who died on January 24th. Interment was at Ivy Hill. Pray for the bereaved families.

Organ Recital at 4.10 this afternoon. Organ Transcriptions:
1. Cantilena, Goltermann.
2. Finlandia, Sibelius.
3. Andante (Symphony in G), Haydn.

Woman's Auxiliary Notes

The regular Missionary meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will be held Thursday, February 6. Luncheon will be served at 12.30, after which Miss Amy Burt, of the Appalachian School at Penland, North Carolina, will tell us of her work among the mountain whites.

The attendance at all our meetings this year has been most encouraging and we hope it will continue—we are accomplishing great things.

Mrs. Jenkins has written a delightful report of Miss Sallie Deane's talk to the young women of our parish on January 20. It tells of the wonderful work of the Woman's Auxiliary in all its branches, and will make us resolve to continue earnestly to do our part to make Christ known everywhere. This paper will be read at 11.30.

Rev. Mr. Hastings, of Etheta, Wyoming, addressed our meeting at 11.30 last Thursday, telling of his work among the Indians.

The Corporate Gift from Grace Church women was made up last year by the saving of pennies during Epiphany. This year we are endeavoring to give even a larger amount by saving our pennies both during Epiphany and Pre-Lent. So don't forget! You'll marvel at how much you can accumulate in this way.

On January 14, the Rev. Mr. Eastburn, rector of St. Barnabas Church at 3rd and Dauphin Streets, in our own city, addressed the Auxiliary, telling of the terrible sickness and poverty among the people of his parish. He so touched the hearts of all our women that they have planned a Card Party under Mrs. Whedon's leadership, to be held on Friday, February 21, at 2 o'clock, at 301 East Durham Street. Single tickets are 50 cents; tables $2.00. The proceeds will be used at the discretion of the Rector of St. Barnabas Church to meet the immediate needs of his people.

It is not too late any time today or tomorrow to bring clothing or bedding or table linen to be sent to St. Andrew's School, Sewanee, Tennessee, in answer to their appeal read to you by our Rector last Sunday morning. Fire has destroyed their main building, and with it all bedding, table linen and the clothing of thirty boys and young men. We have already sent some things and will send the balance on Tuesday.

Miss Rossa B. Cooley, Frogmore, St. Helena Isl., South Carolina, will be very glad to receive the Christmas cards which we accumulate in such numbers year after year. She uses them in her distributions to the Community people and to County Schools where their graduates teach.

A Card Party for the work of the Woman's Aid to the Convocation of Germantown will be given at Alden Park Manor on Monday, February 17th, at 2 P. M. Tables $4.00. Refreshments. Procure tickets from Mrs. E. W. Jenkins, 324 Gowen Avenue.

The Annual Birthday Party will be held on Tuesday, February 25, at 3 P. M. The entertainment will be furnished by the pupils of Mrs. Gertrude Foster-Wilde and Miss Beatrice Foster. Please mark this day now on your calendar.

February Calendar

Thursday, the 6th. Holy Communion 9.30; Luncheon 12.30. Address by Miss Burt.
Tuesday, the 11th. Men's Service League Dinner. Speaker—Bishop Taitt.
Friday, the 21st. Card Party at 301 E. Durham Street, for St. Barnabas Community.
Tuesday, the 25th. Birthday Party.
Thursdays, the 13th, 20th and 27th. In the work room.

We continue to solicit your orders for personal prayer-books.

Six young women met together on Wednesday evening as Auxiliary B, devoting their time to rolling surgical bandages and making infants' sacques and caps. They will meet every Wednesday evening and hope to have their number materially increased each week. Young women, do come!

The Sermon last Sunday pointed out some of the lessons that may be learned from the Presentation of our Lord in the Temple. Jesus was taken by the Blessed Mother for dedication to God, in accordance with the Jewish Law, which required such Presentation of a first-born child.

The Law also required that "When your son asks any of you in after days what this means, you must tell him." Not only must the first-born be given to God, but when he is old enough, his peculiar relationship to God must be explained to him.

Baptism is the method whereby one becomes a member of the Church, but in addition it is the fulfillment of the Law. It is the presentation of our children—all our children, not merely the first-born—to God. And it is important that in this too the suggestion of the old Law be fulfilled—that in after days the children shall be told; made to understand that they are actually owned by God.

The appreciation of God's real ownership of all who have thus been dedicated to Him affects us particularly as parents. As such we act for God, in the work of leading children given to us by God, in ways that will please Him, and lead to the fullness of life for them.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

Appreciation of God's real ownership of us affects us also as adults, in bringing a realization of the insignificance of much that we consider important.

God intended us to be, and to do, much more than most of us succeed in being and doing. A groveling worldliness, referred to by a recent critic as the "mucker" attitude, a resentment of authority, are symptoms of our having lost the vision of God's ownership of us. Our proneness to be satisfied with good deeds, which are infinitely smaller than the deeds we are capable of doing in God's service, is a similar symptom.

Recognition of the fact that we have been dedicated to God, and a life built about that fact, results in a Personal Religion that is truly personal, and entirely Christian; which in turn leads to effective service to God, and the joy of expressing not self, but God, in all of our lives.

Last Sunday morning, in the presence of the Church School, the Rector baptized Molly Louise Brady, born July 7, 1929, daughter of Charles P. and Edna Brady. Molly resides at 116 W. Nippon St., and her Godparents are Linwood W. Hirsch and Gertrude S. Knauf.

By this time every one has received an invitation from the Men's Service League to attend the dinner they are going to give on the day after tomorrow—Tuesday. The invitation went into the matter in full detail and no repetition is necessary here. But if by some mischance you have not received such an invitation, you are welcome just the same. The essential facts are these: The dinner is given by the Men's Service League. It will be served promptly at 6.30 o'clock and is not for profit but for fellowship. The Rt. Rev. Francis M. Taitt, Coadjutor Bishop of the Diocese of Penna., will be the speaker (and the only one). Men, women and children are invited. The charge is 98 cents for each person. We guarantee you a jolly, worthwhile evening and a speaker who will do you good. Come!

Don't forget the Card Party at 301 E. Durham St. on Feb. 21 at 2 o'clock. Mrs. James Whedon is in charge and the profits will be given to the Rev. Mr. Eastburn of St. Barnabas, Kensington, as a discretionary fund for relieving distress among the poor. Single tickets 50 cents; tables $2.00.

Recital, 4.10 P. M. today, by G. Walter A. Laise, Organist of Oak Lane Reformed Church: 1. Harmonies du Soir, Karg Elert. 2. Meditation, D'Every. 3. Tocatta, D'Every. 4. Reverie, Turner.

Wednesday being a holiday, there will be no meeting of Auxiliary B this week.

The sermon last Sunday morning was based on the second lesson of the morning (S. Mark 8:22 to 9:2), the theme being a meditation on the fact that the Lord Jesus deliberately foresaw and acquiesced in His own violent death. The preacher pointed out that Jesus was under no compulsion to die when He did die, inasmuch as the masses of the people were with Him in their sympathies, and also because the recent death of John Baptist had a very strong hold on the imaginations of his fellow countrymen. Yet it was when public interest in Him was at its height that He began to speak to the inner circle of His disciples about His coming rejection and violent end; it was at the very moment when His Messiahship was spontaneously acknowledged by Peter that He explicitly foretold His crucifixion. No wonder that the incongruity struck them and that they failed to realize the necessity for such a tragic close to a work of such power as was going on. We cannot explain the prophecy and His subsequent action except on the ground that His death was a spiritual necessity.

And time has vindicated His insight. The world being what it was, Jesus was sure to come to a cross of some kind unless He were to be saved by a miracle, which was precisely what He had decided against during His ordeal in the wilderness before He set out on His earthly ministry.

The answer then to Calvary is the Mount of Temptation. There He debated how best to make His kingdom known unto men and there He had had to decide that this could be brought to pass only by a short tempestuous career, terminating in His own suffering and death. And so He bowed His head and decided once for all for the cross, with the greater satisfaction arising in His mind that, "I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men after me."

And that being accepted, never once did He deviate from His plan. His was an example of a life focused on one object and remaining focused.

The Rector then pointed out that this thought is something for every one of us to take to heart. Every one of us has a desire to be great for others' sake; the instinct for self-immolation being the strongest urge in human nature. And yet, of the millions of human beings swarming on the earth's surface, practically every one of them possessing this desire and instinct, the chances are that almost every one will die without accomplishing any great altruistic work in the world.

Why?

Why, because we fail to plan our lives or, having planned them in some grand outline, we fail to adhere to the course laid out. We do not think through what we aim to accomplish and as a result we fail to benefit the world as we have it in us to benefit the world. Just as an artist cannot hope to spread on canvas for the inspiration of others that which he himself has not envisioned in his own mind's eye, neither can we hope to hold up a great ideal before the world unless it is first enshrined in our hearts.

The preacher then reminded his hearers that we are on the verge of Lent, a time for going into the wilderness as did our Saviour, and he urged that just as the Master thought things through in His time of solitude, so should we in the splendid opportunity just ahead look at life afresh, plan our futures with grand conception, and then, as our Lord in His ministry (as for example in today's second lesson) adhered to His plan, so should we carry on undeviatingly. We must plan our work and work our plan.

On Monday, at two o'clock in the afternoon, in his late home at 7011 Lincoln Drive, the Rector read the Burial Office for George Herbert Kochersperger, who died on February seventh. The interment was at Mt. Peace Cemetery. Your prayers are asked for his bereaved widow.

The Young People's Fellowship will meet this evening at 7 P. M. in front of the Church to attend a meeting of the Fellowship of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Oak Road, Germantown, at 7.30. Last Sunday evening they planned a Corporate Communion for the first Sunday in March, and had an animated discussion on the subject, "Is the influence of Motion Pictures in general for good or bad on the young people of our generation?"

On Wednesday evening at eight, Auxiliary B will meet together as usual to make baby caps and fold surgical bandages. The impression has erroneously gone out that Auxiliary B is only for very young women. As a matter of fact it was planned not for women of any certain age but to provide an opportunity for the many women of the parish who cannot attend the other auxiliary meetings because the time of meeting makes it impossible or inconvenient for them to come. We feel that Auxiliary B will fill a real need and no matter what your age is, you will be welcome. Come!

Mrs. E. W. Jenkins, 324 Gowen Avenue, is selling tickets for the Card Party to be held on Tuesday, February 25, at 3 P. M. at Alden Park Manor. The proceeds will be used for the Woman's Aid to the Convocation of Germantown. Tables, $4.00. Refreshments.

"Roger Babson has a large number of acquaintances who may be accounted as big men but there is none who can exceed in stature the little, deformed man who was one of the greatest geniuses of our time." Says Mr. Babson:

"Charles P. Steinmetz, who was unanimously recognized by the General Electric Company and other great similar organizations as the world's foremost electrical engineer, was once visiting my home.

"While talking with him of prospective future inventions in connection with radio, aeronautics, power transmission, etc., I asked him: 'What line of research will see the greatest development during the next fifty years?' After careful thought he replied:

"Mr. Babson, I think the greatest discovery will be made along spiritual lines. Here is force which history clearly teaches has been the greatest power in the development of men and history.

"Some day people will learn that material things do not bring happiness and are of little use in making men and women creative and powerful. Then the scientists of the world will turn their laboratories over to the study of God and prayer, and spiritual forces which as yet have hardly been guessed at. When that day comes the world will see more advancement in one generation than it has seen in the past four."

A young lady of the Parish, just graduated from Business College, is desirous of securing a position as stenographer. If you know of a position for her, speak to the Rector.

On Monday the Rector officiated at the funeral of Samuel B. S. Barth, aged 79, who died on February 13, 1930. Interment was at West Laurel Hill.

On Tuesday he officiated at the burial of Mrs. Samuel D. (Irene) Hawley, of 709 Carpenter Lane. Mrs. Hawley was a communicant of Grace Church and died suddenly on February 16th. Interment was at Central Laurel Hill.

Please remember the bereaved families in your prayers.

You will be glad to learn that the National Council of the Church at their executive meeting last week was able to appropriate to every missionary district and diocese the same amount that they had voted them last year. This is indeed a fine step forward.

The old plan that obtained for many years was to go ahead and grant to every leader as much as he needed, hoping that the Church in general would somehow match the need. As a matter of fact, it never did. And as a consequence, there grew up year by year a mounting floating debt that at length assumed formidable proportions. The carrying charges of the debt were enormous.

At length there came a General Convention of the Church that faced the situation squarely. With an enthusiasm and courage that was splendid it decided to put the situation before the people of the Church, ask them to pay off the million and a half dollars debt that had accumulated and thereby save the large sums of money being paid out in interest charges. The appeal was made and the debt was wiped out.

But—General Convention said to the National Council, "Hereafter there must be no annual deficit. You must cut your cloth according to your pattern. Every year by the middle of February you must find out from the people of the Church how much they expect to give that year for work outside their own districts and you are to make your appropriations accordingly." This plan was labeled the "Pay as You Go Plan," and was exceedingly unpopular among the Missionary Bishops and idealists of the Church.

For, as you can readily see, it worked real hardships. Imagine yourself a Missionary Bishop elected to preside over a great district with a corps of trained, consecrated workers under you, receiving wages that barely sufficed to keep body and soul together. Picture yourself working out your financial budget for the coming year, paring down to the very done in order to help the general situation, and asking for as little as your jurisdiction could possibly get along on.

Put yourself in the place of one of our Bishops in that situation having submitted your needs to the National Council, and waiting for word from them to find out how much money you can count on. Visualize your anxiety during the February meeting of the Council while they sum up what has been promised for the year and compare it with what has been asked by and approved for the Missionary Bishops. Conceive, if you can, how you would feel as year after year you would hear from them as follows: "We are very sorry, but the amount of money promised for this year is ten per cent less than the amount you Bishops need; you'll have to ask your workers to accept a heavy reduction in their wages and you'll have to close this ward in your crowded hospital and that school entirely that has been doing so well."

It isn't a pleasant picture, is it? But that is exactly what happened year after year, including last year. Do you wonder that our Bishops were distraught and didn't know where to turn?

But this year things are different. That is why the good news that I told you about at the beginning of this article means so much. It means that this year, because the whole Church is going to give more than it gave last year and because some legacies have come in to help the good work on—this year our representatives at home and abroad will not have to shave salaries or close down going mission stations.

Such relief justifies the saying of a grand Doxology.

Continuing the theme of his sermon of the Sunday before last, the Rector last Sunday morning again spoke of the death of Jesus and how hundreds of years before His birth the prophet Isaiah (look up and read Chapter 53 in his prophecy) had foreseen that the Messiah would not receive a king's acclaim but would die "as a sheep led to the slaughter." The preacher again reminded his hearers that at least as early as at the time of His baptism, the Lord Jesus identified himself with the suffering servant spoken of by Isaiah and clearly foresaw His own coming death on the cross. But in spite of the natural shrinking of the flesh from the agony of dying, the Saviour proceeded to live out His predetermined plan, healing, rebuking, blessing, teaching, an example of a thoroughly consistent and sacrificially lived out career.

"And so," continued the preacher, "He is our example. Just as we judge anything by the finest that has been yet achieved, so all lives rise or fall in the scale of Christian judgment in proportion as they do or do not measure up to the example held forth by our Lord Christ."

Today men fail because of distractions. In other words, they fail either to aim at a mark or if they do aim, something deflects their plans and most men miss the goal. Distractions are wrong, every one of them. Anything that distracts is an evil.

There are four methods that men of today need in order to accomplish great things for the world and its Christ: (1) They need to adopt a well-considered plan of life, altruistic in its aim and high in its ideal. (2) They need to demand for themselves periods of solitude; daily periods in which to assimilate and digest what is going on around them and their own relationship to it. One must, though he be a very busy man, take time for prayers, meditations, and being alone with God. (3) One must give time to specialized knowledge pertaining to one's vocation and add to that knowledge the culture that emerges from an intimate acquaintanceship with the peaks facts in the world's history, both factual and cultural. And (4) the man of today who would be thoroughly successful in focusing his life and keeping it focused on great things, must cultivate a selective and discriminating ignorance with regard to unimportant things. "To be educated means to know how to be wisely ignorant. The educated man does not know all the facts nor pretend to know them, but he does know what facts are worth retaining in one's memory and what facts are not worth knowing. He also knows where to get information when he needs it. One must keep himself in sublime ignorance of the overwhelming mass of petty and worthless matter which distracts a man from the worthwhile issues of life and renders him spiritually and mentally degenerate. The business of the teacher is to point out to people how to be ignorant in this manner."

We are happy to announce that we have just had from Dr. George C. Foley his acceptance of our invitation to take charge of the Three Hour Service on Good Friday. He was with us three years ago, and as your rector makes his rounds among those who have endured trouble, he often hears someone even now quote from what Dr. Foley said at that time. We are glad to welcome Dr. Foley back.

Last Sunday's sermon was based on the Bible lessons of the morning, the story of David and Goliath, and the reminder from Jesus that He "came not to send peace but a sword on the earth." These two Scripture passages bring up the problem, "Should we assume that it is God's business to see that we are happy in this world?" Without thinking it out, most people take the ground that because God is good, this ought to imply the felicity of His creation here and now; their great puzzle is to account for a divine running of the universe which actually acts otherwise. Life is real; it consists of facts; it changes the problem from "What should God do?" to "What does God do?" After indicating that there is much real happiness in life, and that ordinarily one is paid up in full day by day for living, the preacher suggested that we have no warrant to believe that because God is good, therefore there must be no pain or imperfection in the universe; in fact, there are not a few indications which point quite another way.

Said the preacher: "The object of life on this planet, as far as human beings are concerned, is not happiness, but the development of latent faculty, the bringing out of potentialities of existence as a whole. The worthiest things, the sweetest and sublimest, in human character and achievement, require pain for their manifestation, and without pain could not be revealed at all. The things we most reverence in one another or in the mighty dead are things which have been born of sacrifice and struggle. Where were courage without danger; tenderness without hardship couching at the door; sympathy without suffering; glory and honor without peril and strife? Look deep enough and you will see that there is not a single quality in the whole realm of human excellence that is not somewhere, somehow, associated with the cross."

If this life were all, perhaps pain, imperfection, sorrow, would not be worth the fruits that they produce. But inasmuch as five thousand years from now you and I will still be you and I, the characters that you and I are to bear throughout eternity are worth much in struggle, pain, and sacrifice.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

So the answer to unhappiness in this world is not to deny the existence of it—the drug method, hypnotizing oneself into believing that there is no unhappiness or imperfection, for "Jesus wept"—but the answer is a straightforward, manly facing of the fact that sorrow, pain, trouble, are here, but that instead of being our masters, we can use them as our servants to help us to rise to greater stretches of character. Often it is "the cross that raiseth me."

Naturally this does not mean that we are to seek to be miserable "because misery is our lot"; just as you and I desire our children to be happy provided that their happiness is consonant with spiritual and intellectual growth, so we may be sure that our heavenly Father desires His children to be happy if that happiness is compatible with righteousness and development.

"And as we stand at the threshold of Lent," said the preacher, "we should be glad of the opportunity of coming to grips with reality. We should be ready and anxious to get down to true self-examination in order that we may take these spoiled, pampered bodies that we wear and change them into true servants of the spirit—servants, not masters."

Today we welcome as a full-fledged member of our church family Mrs. J. E. (Mary C.) Buck, of 6905 Heyward Street, who was transferred to us on Monday from Trinity Church, Moorestown, N. J.

Woman's Auxiliary Notes

There are still a few days left for us to accumulate pennies for the Corporate Gift of the Church. On Thursday, March 6, at 9.30 A. M., we will have our Corporate Communion, a fitting beginning for our Lenten work and sacrifice, and a Presentation service, when our pennies saved during Epiphany and Pre-Lent will be presented to our Lord. Let us plan now to come in a body to this service, that we may gain strength for the six weeks of sacrifice, prayer, and service that are to follow..

Every Thursday during Lent the workroom will be open all day. There will be a light luncheon served at 12.30. On Thursday, March 6, being Missionary Day, we will be addressed by Deaconess Sterne, of Tanana, Alaska.

On March 13th and every Thursday following during Lent the Mission Study Class will meet at 3 P. M. in the Brown Room. The leader will be Mrs. William W. Arnett, and the subject will be, "Roads to the City of God." It promises to be a most interesting course. Come and bring a friend.

The Committee who planned and managed the Card Party held on February 21, to give assistance to the Rev. Mr. Eastburn for his work at St. Barnabas Mission, thanks all who so kindly co-operated with them in every way and is most happy to report that they will have $200 to present to Mr. Eastburn, to be used at his discretion, where he finds the greatest need.

The annual Birthday Party held in the Parish House on February 25 was most delightful. There was a recital given by the pupils of Mrs. Gertrude Foster-Wilde and Miss Beatrice M. Foster—recitations, pianologues, and piano solos. This was followed by a tea. The returns from the little silk bags were $70.14. If you were unable to attend, please send your bag to Mrs. William H. George, New Street, Chestnut Hill.

A quiet hour for the women of all the parishes within the Convocation of Germantown will be conducted by the Rev. Wallace E. Conkling, Rector of St. Luke's Church, Germantown, at Grace Church, Tuesday, March 18, followed by luncheon and business meeting.

Holy Communion, 11 A. M.; Quiet Hour with Intercessions, at noon; Luncheon, 1 P. M.; Meeting, 2 P. M. Please notify Mrs. E. W. Jenkins by March 15 if you intend to be at the luncheon, which will cost fifty cents.

The Annual Rummage Sale will be held some time in May. Please keep it in mind and save for us all discarded clothing, china, etc. It is from the receipts of the Rummage Sales that we meet all SPECIALS that we are called upon to support throughout the year.

And so we come to Lent in the year of our Lord 1930. What of it? What does it mean to you?

To many Church people, Lent means six long weary weeks of giving up things one likes to do, "because one shouldn't do things one likes to do in Lent." It means giving up innocent pleasures and recreations because "Lent is not a time to have a good time." It means turning one's back on the sunshine in order to pay attention to the shadows. It means sackcloth and ashes. It means giving up candy, or smoking, or cards, or theatres, or desserts, or novels, or "movies," or something else because you enjoy them and "enjoying things is wrong during Lent."

As if being miserable is of itself religious!

There is a time when one should be sad and sorrowful—"Jesus wept"; there is a time to mourn, but it must come of itself and not be created by artifice. And Lent is not a season for maneuvering the emotions but coming to grips with reality.

Giving up is useless unless it is followed up by taking on. It is of no value to get up early in the morning if you don't use the added time for some spiritual exercise. The Moslems in Nazareth last summer were up at 4 A. M. with the sun but they didn't do a stroke of work until long after eight. It might have been better for them to have kept on sleeping. So self-denial, self-sacrifice, "saying 'no' to one's self," these are keynotes of Lent but not its main theme. Giving up candy is not of itself a religious practice. It may be a health rite—good for the digestion and for the system in general, but bad economics, bad for the confectioner and bad for business in general at a time when one should keep every penny in circulation in order to stimulate the country's business. Giving up candy during Lent will only be helpful if it is done gladly, in the spirit of sacrifice, and the money that is saved thereby used for some worthy cause that otherwise would not get it. So the giving up of smoking may be good for the digestion, nerves, and general efficiency of the body and at the same time very bad for one's family and associates. Giving up smoking is not of itself of religious value; it may make one irritable and hard to get along with and certainly these traits are not marks of religious striving. On the other hand, giving up candy, or desserts, or smoking may be spiritual gymnastics, strengthening one's will and proving to the habitual user of them that he is stronger than his habits: forty days of abstaining from anything is a fair test of whether one controls it or it controls him.

Now what is the answer? Is it not this that one should take on something for everything that he gives up? "And what should one take on?" I'll tell you what your Rector would like you to take on—coming out to the 7.30 Sunday morning celebrations of the Holy Communion; that would please him more than any thing else—and more than that, it would build up a habit in you that you would not get over at the end of Lent. And one should take on the reading of religious books: the Rector has many that he will be glad to lend; they are interesting and thought stimulating. And then one should take on more attendance at religious meetings because by doing so one will think more on the things that count. There are splendid opportunities provided at the central city churches and theatres daily and the speakers are the best in the land. There are daily services in your own church. Attend them. And one should take on opportunities of being alone with God—meditating, praying, listening to what He has to say to you, His child. And for every innocent pleasure and recreation that one gives up, take the time and money saved and use them for some good cause.

Above all, let your Lent be positive rather than negative. Do something; become something; achieve something. And LET THE PROCESS OF BECOMING BE KNOWN ONLY TO YOURSELF AND YOUR MAKER. Keep it a secret. So shall your Lent be blessed.

Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday of this week are Ember Days, days on which the members of the Church pray for those about to be ordained to Holy Orders. You will find suitable prayers on page 38 of the Prayer Book. Mark these days down now on your calendar of private prayers.

During Lent the workroom of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will be open for all-day meetings on Thursdays. Luncheons at 12.30. This week's speaker will be Deaconess Sterne, of Tanana, Alaska.

Mission Study Classes begin this Thursday at 3 P. M., in the Green Room.

One of the fine old heroes of the Church is Bishop Rowe of Alaska. For many years as statesman, administrator, and man of God he has traveled the length and breadth of that great land, ministering to Indian, Eskimo and white man as a loving father. It isn't often that business calls him East, but it has done so now and he will be in Philadelphia all of this week. Do take time to hear him; his schedule is as follows: Tuesday at 8 P. M. in St. Luke's Church, Germantown; Wednesday at 11 A. M. at the Church House, 202 S. 19th St.; Thursday at 8.15 in the Bellevue Stratford Hotel and on Friday at 11 A. M. at St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill.

There will be a short organ recital tonight beginning at 7.45. The Program: (1) Solemn Prelude, Noble. (2) Grand Chorus, Dubois. (3) Andante Cantabile, Widor.

The Afternoon Services are discontinued on Sundays during Lent. Evening Services take their place. Tonight the service will be conducted by the Young People's Fellowship, Mr. John Eiseman making the address.

Religion in Russia shows the following figures, according to a recent editorial in the New York Times: Total population, 150,000,000; Adherents to Eastern Orthodox Church, well over 100,000,000; Moslems, 15–20,000,000; Jews, about 3,750,000; Roman Catholics before the war were nearly one-tenth of the population, but by far the greater part lived in Poland. Now, in Russia, they are fewer than the Jews.

At its last meeting the National Council asked Bishop Perry to prepare for use in the Church, subject to the approval of the bishop in each diocese, a prayer for the Church in Russia. The Holy Orthodox Church there is now undergoing persecution in the definite attempt on the part of the Soviet government to obliterate the worship of God within the Republic. In response to the request, Bishop Perry has prepared the following prayer:

Almighty God, the Protector of all who are oppressed, look with pity, we beseech thee, upon the sufferings of thy Church in Russia. Grant to thy servants in their adversity patience to endure to the end, and courage steadfastly to continue in the faith once delivered to the saints. Stretch forth the right hand of thy majesty to maintain their cause; and finally bestow upon them, faithful unto death, the crown of everlasting life. Through Him who suffered and was buried and now liveth, ever to make intercession for us, thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rector's sermon last Sunday morning was based on the second lesson of the morning, St. Luke 18:10. He reminded us that the parables of Jesus are among the most precious possessions that He has left us, and he told how, when the Young People's Fellowship was asked, several years ago, what kind of sermons they got most from, they replied that they enjoyed most and got most from sermons based on the Lord's parables. He said that their experience was a universal one, for the stories that Jesus told to drive home the point that He was making are so true to human nature that they repeat themselves continually before our eyes. The story of the Pharisee and the Publican going up to Church to pray is one of the most telling of the parables. It is so characteristic of men in their attitude toward God that it startles us when we come to Jesus' comment, because we see ourselves as through His eyes.

After giving a careful exegesis of the parable, the Rector went on to point two main lessons from the story. Said he: "Some people might take this story to mean that Jesus is not concerned with respectability—that one should not, for a moment, take into consideration what other people think about his actions. Not so. We do have a duty not only to do what is right, but also to let other people know that we are doing what is right. Jesus was not castigating respectability; what He was condemning was the smug satisfaction that arises from being satisfied with the unworthy codes of behavior that men judge themselves by today. When men cease from striving because they have satisfied the easy standards set up by men and take not God's higher ideals into account, then the parable teaches us that even political grafters who are trying to change the tenor of their lives may be nearer to the Kingdom than such men.

"Again," said he, "the parable is not a glorification of emotional self-abasement. There is such a thing as being proud of one's spiritual poverty. We are miserable sinners—sinners who stand in dire need of God's mercy—and this parable and all Jesus' teachings do bring out the reality of sin and the need of acknowledging the fact that one has fallen far short of being what God has given us the opportunity to become. We should thank God that our high idealism and careful comparison of what we have attained, as compared with what we might have attained, do lead us to see clearly how very far short we have come of being able to look on ourselves with complacency. But, on the other hand, the Lord Jesus is not concerned with our emotions as such, but with what we do as a result of our emotions. He does want us to be sorry for our sins and to be cast down when we reflect upon them, but only because He desires us to do something about it." The purpose of Lent is to have us be sorry; own up; and go out and make good.

Has any one an organ in good condition that is not being used? We need such an instrument at the Leamy, for theirs is literally "played out." They have a piano, but need an organ, because an organ seems to conduce to devotion more than a piano. If you have an organ in good condition and are willing to give it, tell the Rector.

Mission Study Classes are being held in the Parish House every Thursday at 3 P. M. Come!

On Tuesday of this week we are to be hosts to the women of the Convocation of Germantown at their annual Quiet Day. This year the devotions will be conducted by the Rev. Wallace E. Conkling of St. Luke's Church, Germantown. The schedule is as follows: 11 A. M., Holy Communion (offering for missions); Quiet Hour; 1 P. M., Luncheon; 2 P. M., Business Meeting. Please notify Mrs. Jenkins, at 334 Gowen Avenue, today, if you will be present at the Luncheon, which costs 50 cents.

Next Sunday will be Family Sunday. We want it to be as well observed as it was last year and the years before. Let every member of the congregation bring his family and sit with them. Invite your friends to come with you. Make your responses heartily; sing the hymns lustily; put your whole self into the service. Let us forget ourselves entirely and think only on our Heavenly Father and how much we love Him and how fine it is to be in a place where others love Him, too, and are telling Him so. Let us make it a service of engrossing worship.

Every Thursday during Lent the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild is holding all-day meetings in the Parish House; the program is as follows: 9.30 A. M., Holy Communion; 10.15 A. M., sewing and folding surgical bandages; 12 NOON, intercessions; 12.30, luncheon; 1.15 P. M., missionary speaker; 3 P. M., mission study.

There will be no meeting of the Young People's Fellowship this evening. The group is going to Manayunk to attend a Young People's Service at St. David's Church.

The program of the Organ Recital at 7.45 this evening follows:

(1) By the Pool of Bethesda.
(2) The Sea of Galilee.
(3) Mt. Hermon.

All composed by R. Deane Shure.

Keep in mind that the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild are meeting every Thursday during Lent, beginning at 9.30 with Holy Communion; 10–12.30 sewing; 12.30 luncheon, and 1 P. M. missionary speaker.

Last Sunday morning the Rector based his sermon on the text from Romans 6:23: "The wages of sin is death but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." He began by reminding the congregation that St. Paul's observation that we get paid back for every sin that we commit, was not a new idea with St. Paul but had its roots far back in the early experience of the race. Primitive man found it out for himself; later men also saw it confirmed in their experience. The founder of Buddhism, in the 7th century B. C. in India, made it the basis of his teaching in the doctrine of Karma, i.e., that cause and effect go hand in hand in the moral field and that you must pay the penalty for every sin that you commit, either in this world or in another incarnation beyond. And men believe it today more than ever before. Specialists in behavior, in clinics for incorrigible children, start their reasonings on the premise that the wayward child is either physically abnormal or else he is paying, by being evil, the penalty of sins committed either by himself or his parents. "The wages of sin is death."

And if we see this clearly, then in any searching analysis the influence of what we call "luck" shrinks to very small proportions. There is such a thing as luck, but it has far less to do with our lives than we are willing to admit. The results of our own carelessness, lack of judgment, neglect of opportunities, misleading egotism, and plain laziness are usually charged up to "fate" or "luck," but as the world grows older we are learning that human responsibility is far more inclusive than at first glance we were willing to admit. Much that we blame on bad luck is the wages of sin—either of commission or of commission. The appalling thing about life is not its moral indifference but its moral inexorableness. "The wages of sin is death."

But this picture of God's world portrays only half the truth. "The wages of sin is death, but—the gift of God is eternal life." "What a man soweth, that shall he also reap"; true, but even truer—"He hath not dealt with us according to our sins nor rewarded us according to our iniquities." To affirm that "nature never does—cannot—forgive" is to libel nature, for she not only forgives when she can but, even more, she is also ever seeking to repair the injuries that we do her. If a man breaks a leg and a surgeon sets it, binds it up, and the man does not use it for a while, nature commences at once to re-cement the ends and make them strong and usable. If the man should take no pains after the accident, the penalty would go on. But the moment he stops acts of violence against nature, and puts himself in a state of obedience to her—that moment nature will forgive him and with a caution about the future, give him back as much as she can.

So it is with God in the moral world. A man needs but to cease opposing himself to the will of God and immediately God will not only forgive him but also go out of His way to give him back as much as can be salvaged. By God's grace we can do anything. One has only to examine the new-born souls of the Rescue Missions to verify this fact.

The Rector then applied this willingness of God to cooperate with the penitent sinner to our own efforts to get close to God during the season of Lent. Said he: "We must face the facts, be sorry for the past, and go forward in the strength that God supplies. It should be a source of unending inspiration to realize that He is ever willing to cooperate with us and stand between our sins and their reward. God is on the side of forgiveness."

Those who are attending the mission study classes on Thursdays are enjoying one of the most interesting courses we have ever had. Before we approached it the subject didn't sound very attractive, but when we took it up it proved most illuminating. It is not too late even now to join the group. Come next Thursday at 3 o'clock—to the Green Room.

The most used room in the Parish House is the Green Room. It is busy all the time. Indeed, we have used it so much that its furnishings are wearing out and need replacement. This is especially true of the chairs which have done heroic service for at least fifteen years. In order to secure money to buy new ones the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild are going to give a Luncheon and Card Party on Monday, April 28th, at the Fuhrman Inn, 215 W. Walnut Lane, for which tickets will be sold at one dollar a person. Keep the date in mind.

The Young People's Fellowship will again have charge of the Evening Service on Passion Sunday, April 6th, at 8 P. M. Various parts of the service will be read by the young men and Mr. Eiseman will make the address.

Have you noticed that the Motion Picture Theatre in Pelham stripped its billboards on Shrove Tuesday and in the place where the feature picture is usually advertised, has placed the words, "Closed for the Lenten Season"? This is a weighty sermon.

An urgent suggestion comes from England that all Church people offer regular and frequent prayer in public services and at private devotions for the Lambeth Conference, meeting next July—for its Bishops, its deliberations, and its judgment on the great questions confronting the Church and the world.

Over 4,000 boys under 21 years of age were convicted of crime before Judge Fawcett of New York City in the last 23 years, and among these 4,000 only 3 were members of any Sunday School!

The program of the Organ Recital at 7.45 this evening follows:

(1) Slow Movement from Piano Concerto—Raff.
(2) Grand Choeur—Bossi.
(3) Adagio—Bach.

Program of the Organ Recital at 7.45 this evening:

1. Introduction and Allegro Sonate, P. Yon.
2. Adagio, P. Yon.

Our Choirmaster, Mr. Robinson, is playing an Organ Recital at the University of Pennsylvania today at 4 P. M.

The Young People's Fellowship will again take charge of the service next Sunday evening at 8 P. M. Mr. Eiseman will make the address.

The morning sermon on Family Sunday was based on Acts 28:13 and 16, the preacher beginning by pointing out that "Three Taverns" was a famous roadhouse where the talk was so unimportant that the Hotel of the "Tres Viae," or "Three Roads," became a synonym throughout the Roman Empire for talk and events that were unimportant. So the word "trivial" has come into our language. The preacher went on to point out that although St. Paul had just landed after a long and arduous sea voyage, and the hospitality offered by the Hotel of the Three Roads was justly famous, nevertheless he used the inn only for the purpose of meeting his friends and immediately pressed on to Rome and prison.

Using this incident in St. Paul's life as an illustration, the preacher said that the way one meets the trivialities—the commonplaces—of life spells success or failure. Said he: "It is not the great crises that hurl their fury against us that make or mar us; it is the commonplace, every-day trivialities that clog and poison and wear us down—that try men's souls. For it is so easy to be sidetracked by trivialities. One enters a vocation, undertakes a pilgrimage, or embarks on a crusade, and unless one is constantly on his guard, he will become the slave of a system and linger in port and never put out to sea. So in the home: Here we expect and commonly receive the stern virtues of life, but do not properly evaluate the worth of little graces. In great sicknesses, in trouble, we get a clear perspective of how dear our loved ones are to us and how little the trivial irritations of every day matter, but commonly, because we are so near, we lose our sense of values. Even an oil painting or a water color must commonly be viewed from a distance, to be appreciated. Every once in a while we must figuratively, and sometimes literally, stand apart from our families and view them as they really ought to be viewed.

So in religion. Ordinarily we keep the Commandments and commit no mortal sins. But where we fail in religion is in our tendency to underestimate the importance of the "trivial." So we confess to prayers "so languid and faith so dim." It is in the every-day constant realization that Christ dwells in our home that we find our way out of life's labyrinth.

This week we welcome to our Parish family Mrs. Mabel Proctor Mathews, of Vernon Hall, Milton Street, Vernon Road, who was transferred to us on March 22d from Trinity Church, Boston, Mass.

Woman's Auxiliary Notes

There is much disappointment felt in the attendance at our all-day Lenten meetings. Before Lent, at our February luncheon, we had 48 present, and we began making preparations for a greater number during Lent, for we knew that many who did not come through the year gave their Thursdays during Lent to our missionary sewing. Imagine our disappointment on Thursday of last week to have only 24 present! We had felt so sure of completing our Supply Bureau sewing before Easter that we promised our Choir Mother that we would make summer-weight cassocks for the choir and altar servers, as we did last year. We must not let these boys suffer the intense discomfort of so much weighty clothing when we ourselves are comfortably enjoying summer things. So please resolve to "stick by the ship"—come and work with us, that all these things may be accomplished.

We have had very interesting speakers at out Lenten meetings: Deaconess Sterne, of Tanana, Alaska; Deaconess Stewart, head of the Deaconess Training School of Philadelphia, who told of her twenty-one years' experience as a missionary in China, and Mrs. Wickersham, of the Seamen's Institute of our city.

Next week Mrs. Willey, of Santo Domingo, who touched our hearts so deeply two years ago, inspiring our first offering of "Epiphany Pennies," which helped in the building of her longed-for church in Santo Domingo, will speak to us again of the work done there and of the church they really acquired through the Corporate Gift.

The Mission Study Classes, led by Mrs. Arnett, are most interesting, and have been well attended, the average attendance being 20. The subject is the Jerusalem Conference, and the text-book is, "Roads to the City of God," by Basil Mathews. Come now, even if you have missed the first classes.

At the Luncheon and Card Party to be held at Fuhrman Inn, the Wallingford, 215 W. Walnut Lane, on Monday, April 28, only 60 can be accommodated. So get your tickets early from Mrs. Nelson Mayhew, 117 E. Mt. Pleasant Avenue. The proceeds will be used to help in the purchase of new chairs for the Green Room.

The ladies of the Leamy Home were pleased to have Syria and Palestine brought to them on Tuesday afternoon by a most interesting talk by Miss Nimlet, on her travels in those lands last summer, and to see the many souvenirs of the Holy Lands and Egypt brought home by members of her party.

Do not forget the Annual Rummage Sale to be held in May. Please save for us all discarded clothing, china, glass, bric-a-brac, toys, etc. Either bring them to the Parish House, marked "For the Rummage Sale," or 'phone Mrs. H. F. Dixon, C.H. 2342, and she will see that they are called for.

A number of Grace Church women responded to the call for help at the exhibition of work of the blind, and the sale, held all of last week, at the corner of Chestnut and Juniper Streets. Every one should see the marvelous work done by the sightless. It is an inspiration to us more fortunate ones to do more and more with the gifts that God has given us.

The final returns from the "Epiphany Pennies" are $85.50, and from the "Birthday Party," $59.58 net.

Dr. Francis S. Chambers, formerly of Grace Church, is now the chief-of-staff of the new Crippled Children's Hospital (a State institution) at Elizabethtown, Pa. Mrs. Chambers has written asking if some of our women will make sun-suits for the little unfortunates there. She will send us patterns. They are very simply made, and of any kind of cotton material one wishes to use, and very little material is required for one suit. Please volunteer to make some at home, as it is very necessary to get a number together for the beginning of the hospital's work. Get in touch with Mrs. F. B. Stem, 220 E. Mt. Pleasant Avenue, for instructions and patterns.

Do the young women of Grace Church realize that Auxiliary "B" meets in the Green Room every Wednesday evening to sew and make surgical dressings? Won't you come, too? They need you and surely you will want to be a part of this energetic new group—it is such a worthwhile work that they are doing.

Miss M. W. Bayard, our C. P. C. secretary, offers for our Lenten reading a number of books that you will find in the Green Room. Just sign your name, read promptly, and return.

Remember—every Thursday during Lent: Holy Communion, 9.30 o'clock; in the workroom, 10 to 3 o'clock; luncheon and speaker, 12.30 to 2 o'clock; Mission Study Class, 3 o'clock.

Program of the Organ Recital at 7.45 this evening:

1. O Man, Bemoan Thy Mournful Sins, by Bach.
2. Scherzo, by Andrews.
3. Intercession, by Bingham.

The Evening Service at 8 o'clock tonight will again be read by members of the Young People's Fellowship, Mr. John Eiseman making the address. Come out and worship with us. Eight o'clock.

The Young People's Fellowship recently made a donation of fourteen dollars to our Chaplain at Byberry, to be used in making the unfortunates there happy at Easter.

The sermon last Sunday morning took its theme from the death of Absalom, as told in 2 Samuel 18: 33. His death had been a violent one, while he was in open rebellion against his father, the king. Therefore, when he died, his fellow-countrymen were happy that his capacity for mischief had been ended. And they were astonished when they perceived the sorrow of his father, who was crying as though his heart would break. All that they remembered of Absalom was the evil that he had done. And what they failed to think of with regard to the lamentation of his father, David, was that he was not crying for the traitor that had been killed, but for the man that might have been. To the world Absalom was a fratricide and a traitor, but to his father he was "My son, Absalom."

By the side of this story of the first lesson of the morning the Church puts St. Luke 15, the story of another son who went wrong but then went straight. And the two lessons were not chosen at random nor for sentimental reasons, but because through them the Church was suggesting to each one who heard them that we are potential Absaloms or Prodigals. Just as there was a time in the life of Absalom when he was called upon to decide the tenor of his future life; just as there was a time in the life of the Prodigal when he had to decide whether to remain in the far country or return to his fatherland, even so the Church is suggesting that this Lent is a time for us to make decisions for or against living in the presence of our heavenly Father. Absalom did not set out to be a killer; he did not early in his life determine to drive his father from his throne. But when the time of his testing came, he said: "Some day I'll get right with father," and that idea of "Some day" was in reality a decision meaning "never."

We, too, say "Some day," not realizing that each day closes more doors of opportunities and that putting it off becomes a habit and gives a set to our future decisions—a set that is almost impossible to overcome. God's processes do not stop while we make up our minds. Procrastination is no small fault in a universe where everything has to be done on time if it is to be done at all. Like the rich man in St. Luke 12: 20, who was allowed to go on so long as he said, "My barns, my fields, my crops, my soul," but was halted when he said, "My tomorrow," for he was then impinging upon the province of God. So with us, tomorrow is not ours. Now is the time to say what we will, by the grace of God, do. Let it be, "I will arise and go to my father." Then our Lent shall have been the most important period in our life.

Before me is a clean sheet of paper. My task is to put upon it such an eloquent and fervid appeal for a generous Easter offering for our hospital at Front and Lehigh that you who read this will feel compelled to give more for this good work than you ever did before. But how shall I bring this happy result to pass? How shall I do it?

In other years I have written of the unselfishness of our church in establishing a hospital among poor people, where it can never be expected to come anywhere near paying for itself, and of this splendid adventure going on day and night, year in and year out, in God's name, preaching through its works that our church is not a "church of the respectable rich only," but a church for all God's children. Another time I wrote to you on the necessity of "not having an impression without giving it an expression"—that is, that we should give vent to our Easter joy by giving money to help those who have not so much to be happy about in physical health; being so glad because of Jesus' resurrection that we will try to make others happy, too, although they are sick and very poor. I have tried the "human interest" method, by telling you of a night visit that some of us made to the hospital, and how we went from ward to ward and saw with our eyes the fine job that our hospital is doing—of the white, frail children convalescing in the children's ward; of the physicians, nurses, and ambulance drivers remaining on watch, night after night, to take care of any accident that might occur, etc. At another time I spoke of the happiness of serving in a congregation where one does not need to conduct a drive for funds at Easter time, to pay the debts of his own congregation; it does not seem right at Easter time to raise money for ourselves—to give expression to our Easter thankfulness by taking money out of one pocket and putting it into another.

Each year I have begged unashamedly, and I have been glad to do so because I was speaking unselfishly for those who are unable to speak for themselves.

And what has been the result? Only fair. When one compares the amount that we raise for the Episcopal Hospital at Easter time with the amount raised by other congregations, we seem to be doing less than fair. This is not to scold you, but to put the matter before you in cold facts. It may not be your fault at all: it may be that the appeals I make do not sound the right note to inspire you to action.

But whatever it is, let us remedy the condition this year. If you had lost some one to the next world and for a time had gone through a period of doubt of a hereafter and now had come through triumphant, you would certainly not take Easter as a matter of fact. It would mean so much to you that you would find difficulty in restraining yourself from shouting out aloud on Easter Day: "Now is Christ risen—Hosanna! Hurrah!" The fact is a fact, although most of us have known it to be a fact from our youth up. It should mean as much to us who have known it for years as it would if we had just come to appreciate it. So in the name of the halt and the maimed and the lame and the blind I again call upon you to make your Easter offering generous. Every cent of it will go to the Episcopal Hospital. Let us be your agent in sending your share. Make a generous Easter offering.

The Rector has tried ever since he came here to be your Rector—more than six years ago—to get together a group of children and young people for a week-day Lenten Service, once a week. Up to this year he has only had a handful come. This year, somehow, the service has been better attended, always numbering more than fifty. You can imagine how happy this makes him. Much credit is due to the choir of young ladies who lead the singing.

United Thank-Offering Annual "In-Gathering" Service on April 24. The United Thank-Offering's Annual "In-gathering" will take place at the Church of the Incarnation, Broad and Jefferson Streets, on Thursday morning, April 24, at 10.30 o'clock.

The importance of attending this service can be realized only by those who have participated before. The feeling of corporate membership in the Church, and the spirit of thankfulness that prompts the women to make their offerings, is truly inspiring.

The United Thank-Offering supports over ninety women workers in the mission field, and not only pays their salaries, but pays for their training and takes care of them when they are sick or disabled. A certain amount of the offering every three years is used for building purposes, so that all over the mission fields there are buildings, parts of schools and hospitals which stand as witnesses to the thankfulness of churchwomen everywhere, as well as the great witness of the lives of the women themselves who serve God in the far corners of the earth.

Each churchwoman should share in this great opportunity of "praise and thanksgiving."

All who desire to help furnish the altar with flowers for Easter Day may do so by getting in touch with Miss Margaretta Bayard, 105 East Johnson Street, before Wednesday of this week.

Above is the schedule of services for this week, carefully arranged to give every one an opportunity of attending some time. Numerous celebrations of the Holy Communion are provided, that all may follow our Lord through Holy Week in Epistle, Gospel, and personal devotion. Even if you cannot be present, read the Epistle and Gospel for the day, day by day. We hope that even more than usual will come to the Good Friday three-hour service. Dr. Foley has decided that on account of advancing years this will be the last three-hour service he will conduct. Come when you can, leave if you must—between meditations. If any have babies to be baptized, arrange with the Rector to have them received on Easter Even—a historic and appropriate time to administer the sacrament. gratitude to our Lord for the blessed assurance of immortality that the lesson of the day brings us. There will be three celebrations of the Holy Communion—at 6, 7.30, and 11 A. M. Come—the Master bids you to the Feast!

There will be no session of the Church School at 9.30 on Easter Day. Instead, there will be the great Church School Service in Church at 3 in the afternoon. Our bus will call for the children in the afternoon instead of the morning. The Lenten mite-boxes will be gathered in and their contents noted at this service. Come to this service and sing with us the beautiful Easter hymns.

At the 8 P. M. service this evening the choir will sing a beautiful new Cantata by Sliman, entitled, "The Last Supper." The address will be omitted. Come and let the music help you.

On Easter Monday, from 5 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon, in the Parish House, will be held the annual election of four members for the Vestry. Nominations are now in order. Mr. Albert C. Brand, 301 East Durham Street, is Secretary of the Vestry and will give particulars of how to nominate to any desiring details.

Out of every 218 hospital beds in the United States, 118 are devoted exclusively to the care of the mentally ill, while only 100 are used for medical, surgical, and maternity purposes. More than 54 beds out of every 100 are being used for people who have become mentally sick! According to the laws of probability, 15,000 citizens of Philadelphia will become patients in mental hospitals within the next twelve months. One of our most famous psychiatrists says that the one class of people who never or rarely become mentally ill are those who have a strong faith in a living God.

Cake Exchange is planned for Easter, the returns to go into the Woman's Auxiliary Missionary Fund. Will you make a cake, or will you buy one? If so, please phone Mrs. J. W. Randall, Chestnut Hill 2354, before Saturday.

Beginning today, Church Services will be held at Daylight Saving Time.

All young people of the Church are invited by the National Federation of Episcopal Young People to join in a nation-wide Corporate Communion Service on the birthday of the Church—Whitsunday, June 8, 1930. Our Young People's Fellowship will have their Corporate Communion at the 7.30 A. M. Service that day.

The Easter sermon was based on the Committal from the Burial Office: "In sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life." After reminding his hearers of the frequency with which one hears and speaks these words, the preacher asserted that they should be most inspiring, inasmuch as they represent the mind of the ages expressed by the Christian Church. Continuing, he explained the true significance of the word "resurrection," which in reality, for Christians, means "continuance," and then he proceeded to outline roughly two problems that confuse many people with regard to life after death, viz.: (1) How can one survive if he is separated from his physical body? and (2) How can one be conscious when his brain ceases to function? After stating the problem, the preacher showed the way out by explaining the answers to these that satisfy physiological psychologists, the main point being that although every time one thinks there does occur a physical change in the brain; on the other hand, this change is not the change in consciousness itself, but something that happens simultaneously with the change in consciousness. This done, the preacher pointed out that inasmuch as science expects all living things to die on this earth eventually, and the earth to roll on inanimate and silent, how absurd it would make God out to be, to believe that, having created this world and having created it so wonderfully that everything in it displays purpose, it should all end in annihilation. To believe that, would be to think of God as a million times more absurd than a man who would spend a lifetime perfecting some wonderful machine with the express purpose of destroying it at one fell blow when finally he had completed it.

"But, thank God," declared the preacher, "our sure and certain hope isn't based only on arguments that make it seem possible and probable. It is based on a fact, and that fact is that Christ our Lord did not die forever, but after death returned to tell us that what He had promised us is true. The fact of His resurrection secures ours. And so, though we lend our friends more and more to the other land, we do so in the sure and certain hope of the fact that life is of one piece—eternal."

On Easter Even the Rector baptized Marguerite Jones, born December 6, 1929, daughter of Ernest and Marguerite Jones, of 7200 Cresheim Road. The sponsors were Mrs. George Bond, Miss Angeline Jones, and Mr. George B. Bond.

At the annual election for vestrymen of Grace Church, held on Easter Monday, from five to six o'clock, in the Parish House, the following named gentlemen were re-elected for a term of three years: Mr. Thomas H. Ball, Mr. S. M. Meehan, Mr. H. Fortescue, Mr. Pratt Thompson.

The Children's Lenten Offering for the Convocation of Germantown will be presented at St. Luke's Church, Germantown Avenue and Coulter Street, next Sunday afternoon at 3 P. M.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY NOTES

Tomorrow is the day for the Luncheon and Card Party at Fuhrman Inn. Donations of nuts and candy are solicited for use at the card tables. 'Phone Mrs. Turner, Victor 3662, what she may expect from you. If you are not booked to go, and want to do so, 'phone Mrs. Mayhen, C. H. 2211, and ask if there have been any cancellations.

On Thursday, May 1, being our Missionary Day, we will have luncheon at 12.30, followed by an address by the Rev. Wm. H. Fryer, of old St. Peter's Church, who will tell us about "Rural Work in Utah."

The regular Spring Stated Meeting of our organization will be held on Tuesday, May 13th. Luncheon will be served at 12.30, followed by the business meeting at 1.30. We need you present.

The Spring Rummage Sale will be held on Thursday, May 15th, if a suitable Germantown store can be procured for that date. So please send all articles of clothing, china, glass, toys, pictures, etc., for the Sale to the Parish House as soon as possible, or call Mrs. H. F. Dixon, C. H. 2342, and she will send for them.

Please volunteer your services for the Rummage Sale, both for the day before, to sort and mark the articles, and for selling the next day. Many helpers are needed. 'Phone Mrs. Dixon just when you will be available.

Ordinarily we close our workroom just prior to the Spring Stated Meeting. This year, because our work for the Supply Bureau is still unfinished, and because we have promised to make light weight cassocks for the choir and altar servers, we will remain open during May. Please try to help us to accomplish all we have planned.

Auxiliary "B" has been working on Wednesday evenings rolling bandages and making infants' sacques, caps, and bootees. They have made twelve sets, and are still finishing others. They are about to "organize," and still greater things are planned for the fall.

The returns from the Easter Cake Exchange are $17.60. Many thanks to all who made this possible!

Plan now to attend the Convocation Fete on Wednesday, May 28th, at Wyck. Grace Church and the Church of the Epiphany will have the "White Elephant" table. Please send all white elephants to Mrs. E. W. Jenkins, 334 Gowen Avenue.

At the United Thank Offering Service of Presentation, held at the Church of the Incarnation on Thursday last, the offering from Grace Church women was $444.81, coming from 101 contributors.

This year's Garden Party and Country Fair at "Wyck" (Germantown Avenue and Walnut Lane) will be held on Wednesday, May 28, from 3 to 8 o'clock. The proceeds will be used for St. Matthew's Mission, Oxford Circle. Grace Church ladies are in charge of the White Elephant table. Mrs. Jenkins needs helpers and "white elephants." She is also in charge of our quota of tickets. Telephone her at her home, 334 Gowen Avenue, telephone, C. H. 1522, that you will help. See her for tickets.

The sermon last Sunday morning was based on St. John 21: 18 and 19, "Another shall gird thee," the preacher explaining that in spite of the easy manner in which the text fits into a literal interpretation, he believed that the Lord Christ was not here fortune telling the minute details of St. Peter's future life and death, but rather prophesying the type of character that St. Peter was going to develop.

This ability to foretell accurately what a man will be many years hence by being able to foretell what reaches of character he will have brought forth does not demand divine insight for accuracy. It requires no prophet to foretell that a child whose parents are spoiling him and making him totally selfish is going to be miserably unhappy in the future. Selfish characters always are. Likewise it requires no son of a prophet to foretell that one who is sowing wild oats is going to reap wild oats and no other crop. Nevertheless, one must be careful not to discount the grace of God in making predictions; many a man and woman whom the world has given up as hopeless is touched by the Holy Spirit and reborn to a new life of character and helpfulness. Such was the after-life of the Prodigal of whom we read in St. Luke 15. Yet—taking an actuarial view of life and not underrating the power of God to make men and women over—generally speaking, one can with accuracy foretell the future of one he knows well by studying his past in the light of character and seeing what it has brought to pass in the present.

That is what Jesus was doing in the text. He was saying to Peter: "In the past you followed me because you got pleasure from it. I was glad that your choice was well made; nevertheless you made that choice not for the best reason, but for the reason that it pleased you to do so. Now you are mature, have had more experience, and your character has developed beyond the point where you follow merely the call of doing what does or does not please you. Therefore, I predict that in the future you will continue to develop, and instead of doing what suits you, you will yield yourself to the leading of your heavenly Master and another will gird you and lead you whither you would not otherwise go. I predict for you a wonderful life of service and character because you are approaching the goal of total self-surrender to the leading of God."

The preacher then applied the same principle to our own lives, and said that he believed that many men had attached themselves to the Lord Christ for less worthy reasons—such as emotional appeal and intellectual peace. So far so good. But the last and bravest step is still ahead for them, and that is the willingness to follow Christ no matter where His guiding may lead, simply because it is the will of the Master. Just as in social service and other lines of endeavor men and women enter and pursue their enterprises because they enjoy it, because it gives them a sense of superiority or because it is unselfish work and their inner natures rejoice that they are doing something utterly unselfish—but if they continue on, when the work becomes almost mechanical, they will spend themselves as readily on unlovely people as they will on likable ones, not because they receive momentary and immediate pleasure from taking care of the needy, but now because, having sunk their own desires, they continue because they will to give everything they have to the accomplishment of their tasks.

So the last and highest step in religion is total self-surrender to the guidance of God. Those of us who have compartments in our lives which we think we are hiding from the knowledge of God and where He may not enter, will find out some day that, with God, there are no such separate compartments. Unless we are willing to allow Him to dominate all our lives, then the little sins that we cherish so bravely will gnaw and spread and eat and rot all that they come in contact with until the whole be ridden with their devastating influence. Total surrender to the guidance of the All Knowing One is the last and most satisfactory but hardest step in one's religious life. May God Gird us and lead us whither we would not otherwise go!

The Young People's Fellowship had a large delegation attend the Provincial Convention recently held in the city of Washington. Sedgwick Tourison and Genevieve Burton were our official delegates. They brought home some valuable suggestions and also seem to have had an enjoyable time. Reports on the spiritual notes of the Convention will be heard tonight. The Fellowship is also busy practising two little plays that it is going to give in connection with a lawn fête of the Woman's Auxiliary later in the year. In addition they are going to give a dance at the Old York Road Country Club on June 6th, at which dance "Mills Moore and his Midshipmen" will provide the music. If you would like to attend, any one of the young people will be glad to sell you a ticket for $2.00, which will admit two people. The Fellowship purposes to close for the season on June 22d.

Special Announcement: The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild are going to give a Supper on the lawn back of the church building on Friday, June 13th. The profits are to be used for the purchase of chairs for the Green Room. Tickets, including admission to two playlets afterward, are $1.00 for adults, 50 cents for children. Make this an engagement.

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of this week are "Rogation Days," days on which you are desired to pray for the crops of the world. A suitable prayer will be found on page 39 of the Prayer Book.

Last Sunday morning the preacher called attention to the fact that the day was "the fourth Sunday after Easter," and justified this extended period of the season by the universality of interest in immortality and the need of church teaching on the subject.

Using Jeremiah 29:11 as an introduction, he pointed out that, just as the captives were able to rejoice at the news that in seventy years the exiles would return to Palestine, so always the Jews had an unusual ability to disassociate themselves from events, as, for instance, in their attitude toward immortality, for while the Pharisees officially believed in personal immortality at the time of the Christ, as a matter of fact history tells us that individually they believed only in vicarious immortality.

"So," said he, "there are many today who would turn our attention from personal immortality to a life after death in which one lives on in his deeds, his influence, his children. Such is the immortality of Washington, Lincoln, Pasteur, Emerson." This is a noble conception of the future and unselfish. It offers no sugar-plums for rewards nor does it threaten with punishment for misbehavior.

"But," reminded the preacher, "if it is selfish to desire to live 200 years from now, it is equally selfish to live one year from now. Desire to live is selfish only when it is desire to live for selfish purposes. So, rewards for good conduct are no more selfish than the desire of the farmer to see the harvest or the physician to see the ill man well. Such expressions as "Ocean of Being," "Pure Being," have no real significance for thought. They are simply phrases which men juggle, self-deceiving and deceiving others.

"But," concluded the preacher, "thank God our confidence in personal immortality is not based on idle reasoning, on old wives' fables, or 'on a hope to goodness it's true.'

ur faith and confidence and mine are based on the fact that our Lord Christ was immortal, proved it to mankind in a satisfactory manner, and said to us, 'because I live ye shall live also.'"

Thanks be to God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Our Church School Easter offering for Missions this year amounted to $403.18.

The Sunday afternoon services will be discontinued after today—until fall.

The Wyck Garden Party comes this week on Wednesday. We have charge of the White Elephant table. "White elephants" are things such as bric-a-brac, books, lamps, good toys, odd pieces of china, ornaments, curios, etc., which are in good condition and, because you have tired of them, take up room in your home and are "white elephants." Others would be glad to have them. Our table at the Garden Party and Fair is the means of transferring them from you to another owner. Mrs. Eder is in charge of the table and will be glad to hear of any elephants that you have to donate. She will see that they are called for, or, better still, you have them left at the Rectory before Tuesday noon. She needs salesladies for her table. The other aspect of the party in which we are interested is that you come to the Fête and dine with us. Mrs. Jenkins is in charge of our assignment of tickets and will be glad to send them to you if you let her know how many you will need. Her telephone number is C. H. 1522. They cost $1.00. Let's all be there that day and make this the very best convocational party yet!

The Executive Committee of the Men's Service League met last week and elected Mr. Robert Farnham President for the coming year. They elected Mr. Wm. Wagner Vice-President; Mr. A. C. Brand, Treasurer, and Mr. J. Howard Fell, Secretary. It was decided to co-operate with the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in their plan to canvass newly built up portions of the Parish. It was also decided to give a Parish picnic down the Delaware River on some Saturday late in June. The Committee on the trip down the river consists of Mr. Farnham, Dr. White, and Mr. Worrall.

The Rector is very anxious to have many Church School teachers attend the meeting at Calvary Church, Germantown, on Thursday of this week. He is President of the Sunday School Association, and would like to have his own teachers and officers back him up by coming to the semi-annual meeting. Evening prayer will be said at 5.30; supper will be eaten at 6.30, and a good talk will be given at 7.30 by Miss Dorothy Crossley, Religious Educational Director of St. Mark's Church, Frankford. After that there will be a Conference. Miss Crossley will speak on some aspect of Church School work. The Rector will see that all Grace Church teachers are given supper tickets.

Please notice that we have provided two celebrations of the Holy Communion for Ascension Day—one at 7.30; another at 9.30. Come!

At the Stated Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild held on May 13 the resignation of Mrs. Wm. H. George as Treasurer was read, and accepted with deep regret and with sincere appreciation of the splendid services she has rendered the organization. Miss Edith A. Fell, who has been Assistant Treasurer, has accepted the Treasurership for the unexpired term, and Mrs. Stephen L. Newnham will be the new assistant.

Mrs. Frank B. Stem has accepted the Chairmanship of the Supply Bureau work, and will be ably assisted by Mrs. Nelson W. Mayhew.

Mrs. John B. Lownes has accepted the chairmanship of the House Committee, with Mrs. T. M. Bang as vice-chairman. They will be assisted by the five missionary committees, each committee serving at one Missionary luncheon during the year.

Come to the Supper on the beautiful lawn behind the Church on Friday, June 13. It will be followed by two short plays given by the Young People's Fellowship. Tickets, $1.00; children under fourteen years, 50 cents.

Next Sunday will be Whitsunday, the nineteen hundredth birthday of the Church. It is one of the three great holy days of the year. Make your communion at one of the services.

"That which one worships determines one's goal in life. There is comradeship between those who worship the same object, who find themselves on the same road going in the same direction. The recognition of God as the ultimate reality, the finding of Him, the ultimate goal, by any group of individuals, gives them a basis for the supreme comradeship, the supreme fellowship."—Bishop Brent.

St. Luke 24:36 was the text of last Sunday morning's sermon—"Peace be unto you." The poor bewildered disciples, after the tragedy of Good Friday and the surprises of Easter Day, were sorely in need of the Lord Christ's reassurance and promise of peace. So are we. But what is peace? Surely not cow-content; peace does not mean that one is satisfied with things as they are—the pacifist's "peace" is much nearer the mark than that—being willing to sacrifice everything except honor is a truer attitude for a Christian than cow-content. Nor is peace a matter of the will only. It is possible to turn one's back and "forget it" while a brute is striking a crippled child; it is possible to rejoice while all about you people are mourning, but neither is this wilful gaiety Christian, for "Jesus wept." What is necessary for true peace? Five essentials: (1) A long view of history as opposed to the day-by-day and month-by-month point of view; (2) confidence in the moral order of the universe, that goodness is self-perpetuating and that evil is self-destroying; (3) avoidance of inordinate ambition; (4) righteousness of personal living, leading to one's being able to be without fear before any person or in any situation; and (5) trust in the Living God. These five essentials are part of Christian character, and, having them, a man may say with glorious confidence: "If God be for us, who can be against us?"

This week we have had transferred to our congregation from St. Mark's-in-the-Bouwerie, New York City, Mrs. Theresa Bang, of 375 E. Gowen Avenue. We welcome her in your name to full membership in our church family.

This winter our Social Service Committee has had to meet such serious and numerous calls for help that their treasury is now empty. They have spent all the money you gave them to use. Practically all has been used for caring for members of our own congregation. They are now soliciting you for money to carry on during the summer. The chairman has already sent out appeals to former subscribers. This notice is for those who are not yet numbered among the helpers. The amount you send need not be large—be sure it will help. Mrs. Frank J. Sheble, 311 Roumfort Road, Mt. Airy, will be glad to hear from you.

The dance that our Young People's Fellowship is giving on Friday evening of this week will be held at Old York Road Country Club, and the music will be furnished by Mills Moore and his Midshipmen. Subscriptions admitting two cost $2.00. Any member of the Fellowship will be glad to deliver tickets to you.

Second notice! Supper on the Church lawn on Friday, June 13th (the date should be easy to remember). Two plays by the Young People's Fellowship after the Supper. Tickets, $1.00; children under fourteen, 50 cents.

Next week's Parish News will give more details with regard to the trip down the river. There has been some uncertainty so far because the Men's Service League does not want to conflict with settled dates of other of our organizations. At the moment it seems almost certain that we will go on Saturday, June 28th. The trip, as you know, is to be under the auspices of our Men's Service League and they are to be hosts. That means that they will not charge for the trip, but pay for the boat-fare themselves. Arrange now to come along.

Today is Whitsunday. And Whitsunday is a confusing word. No one knows for sure what it is derived from; some believe that it sprang from "White Sunday," and was so called because it was generally hailed as a most opportune time for baptizing and because the candidates who were baptized on that day wore white garments. Others believe that the name is derived from "Whit-Sunday," or the day on which the "wit" or wisdom of the Spirit was given to man. The Roman Church calls today "Pentecost" (fifty days after Easter), and it calls the Sundays which we call "Sundays after Trinity," "Sundays after Pentecost."

No matter how we got the word, the day commemorates the coming of divine wisdom into the hearts and the lives of the Apostles of Christ. This took place when they were gathered together in a room on the Jewish feast of Pentecost. A strong wind shook the room, a flame-like tongue hovered over each head, and they were all filled with holy inspiration and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit guided them to do.

This being a supernatural occurrence, could be explained only by a supernatural person. To many of us the wind and the flame seem appropriate marks of the coming of a new era and the beginning of a new life, in short, the birthday of the Christian Church. Ordinarily when a new era comes into being men salute it with guns and excitement and outstanding marks. So when this great event happened in the Kingdom of God, He marked it by awful signs of His own so that those who saw it would never forget it nor confuse the ordinary inspiration of genius with that inspiration of the Spirit of God. The great miracle that ensued was the inspiration of men of little education and narrow Jewish minds with the great plan of salvation—the Gospel of Christ, inspiring them to tell it everywhere, to tell it convincingly, to tell it so that generation after generation of men would take it to their hearts and themselves catch this same inspiring spirit which would enable them to rise into the clear air of high resolve and noble achievement.

Certainly that day which the Holy Spirit of God chose on which to breathe Himself in this glorious way into the hearts of men might well have been marked out by these great symbols of inspiration—wind, blowing, now gently, now firmly, as the Spirit does, invisible as the Spirit is; and fire which burns and tests and lights up in the material world, as the Spirit does in the immaterial.

May each of us gain inspiration and new zeal from the feast!

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

The Church School will close for the summer on next Sunday afternoon. Commencement will be held at three o'clock next Sunday. There will be no session in the morning. The bus will gather in the children in the afternoon as it does in the morning. Every member of the congregation is invited to be present at the commencement exercises, to see what a task we have set ourselves to do in the Church School and how well we are accomplishing our task. The commencement exercises will not be long, and the program that has been prepared is most interesting. Do show us that you are interested by coming.

Many of you are about to go off on summer vacations. Before you go, while you are arranging your affairs, do not forget to send in your envelopes with your contributions. This will make the task of the Accounting Warden easier, and the summer lean months, healthier. Also, wherever you go, do not fail to attend church at least once every Sunday. Going to church is among other things a habit—a good habit—and it is like other habits, tending to remain fixed if you keep it up or broken if you interfere with it during the summer months. Surely it is not asking too much to expect you to spend at least one hour weekly with others who love God so much that they get together to tell Him so. Services in Grace Church will go on as usual. The Rector does not expect to go away this summer, and will be at the Rectory all during the season, in case you need him. The weekly Thursday, 9.30 A. M., celebrations of the Holy Communion will be maintained throughout the summer.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Supper on the Church lawn Friday of this week, June 13th, 6.30 P. M. Afterward—two plays by the Young People's Fellowship. Price of supper and playlets, $1.00 for adults, 50 cents for children under fourteen. Benefit of fund to secure new chairs for the Parish House. Come!

Plans have not yet been fully determined on, but at the present time it seems that the excursion down the river will be made on Saturday, June 28th, leaving Chestnut Street Wharf at 8.30 A. M. and arriving home about 7.30 P. M. At first the Executive Committee of the Men's Service League planned this sail down the river for a select few; then came the suggestion, "Why not throw the event open to all our friends and why not play the hosts to them?" This suggestion was warmly welcomed, and the trip we are planning is the result. You will read the exact details of this trip in next week's PARISH NEWS; meanwhile set aside the day and determine to go with us. You will enjoy the sunshine and fresh air and good company and we will be glad because you came with us. Make this an engagement now.

Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday of this week are Ember Days. Ember Days are days on which the faithful of the Church pray for those who are about to be ordained to Holy Orders. Trinity Sunday—which follows the spring Ember Days—is the date set aside by many bishops for ordaining candidates to the ministry. And when you pray your prayers this week, pray that God will move the hearts of some of the fine young men of our own congregation to enter the ministry. There never was a time in the world's history when good men were more needed, and there never was a vocation in which every talent one possesses is more used. The salary is small when compared with what one would secure in some other profession, but the joy of serving at the altar and at the bedside more than offsets any pleasure that money could secure. Many of our young people have not yet decided what they will make their life's work; if your son is still undecided, suggest to him that he think of serving God directly in the ministry of the Church. Many young men never give the ministry a thought because their friends never suggest it to them. The greatness of the United States and the future of civilization will depend to a large degree on the leadership the Church offers in the years just ahead of us. And God needs the best we have to offer. Think and pray it over. Suitable prayers will be found in the Prayer Book on page 38.

Today the Christian Church throughout the world is thinking of the doctrine of the Holy Trinity. And the doctrine of the Holy Trinity is the summing up of what our Lord Jesus taught men about the Nature and Being of God.

After the visible Lord was taken from the disciples at the time of the Ascension, they began to collect together and put into writing all that they could remember of what He had said, taught, and done. This was not so difficult a task as one might assume, for you will recall that most frequently He was accustomed to teach by means of short illustrative stories whose points were so unmistakably clear that men could not help see the truths that He was anxious for them to perceive in them. And the great truth that He dwelt upon almost constantly was that concerning the nature and attributes of God, i.e., what God was like.

Several centuries passed and the world did not come to an end as the early Christians expected it to do. The Church of Christ settled down to the task of passing on to the ages to come the great truths concerning the Savior that had been given to it as a treasure to be conserved. It set itself the difficult task of investigating what the Lord Jesus had revealed concerning the nature of God, and it bent itself to the task of digging to the very depths to discover the truth. Years were spent on the project. The noblest minds of Christendom gave it the whole wealth of their intellect. Great Councils of the Church, in which the whole Christian world was represented, pronounced upon the subject. And the result was eminently worthy of the subject and of the travail that had brought it forth. It is the doctrine of God as contained in the Nicene Creed.

Mind you, the creed does not explain the doctrine. These people did not add anything to the teachings that the Lord Jesus had given to His followers. All that they did do was to gather together Jesus' teachings and put down, in as few words as possible, what the Church felt He had made men see of the Nature and Being of God.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

Therefore, the belief comes to us with a weight of authority unmatched by any other belief that men hold about God.

It is difficult to come upon a worthy illustration of the doctrine of the three persons of the Godhead. In our own natures we find as good an analogy as one can discover. All of us recognize within ourselves a physical person living an animal life and with this physical person we find coupled an intellectual man who explores the universe without and within himself and day by day makes greater progress. And with this twofold combination of animal and intellectual natures we find tied up also an emotional man of feeling who loves, aspires, sympathizes, and energizes. All these three natures exist in the same man, side by side. Sometimes one of these persons in us acts, and sometimes another, but no one can act without the other two. You see how they are separated and how they are interwoven; so it is with the persons of the Godhead. There are three, as St. Augustine calls them, "Somewhats," but they form one God—the Holy Trinity.

It has been decided not to have a summer session of the Church School this summer. Our experience has been that the sessions start out with much enthusiasm and fair attendance, but gradually dwindle to nothing as family after family goes away for the summer holiday. Instead, we are making a special effort to have the pupils of our Church School attend the eleven o'clock morning service every Sunday during the summer months. We feel that the purpose of the Church School is to lead our younger charges to know and to love God as revealed in our Lord Jesus. We try to bring this to pass by bringing before their minds what He has done for us and what the Church and great spiritual giants have found out about Him. But more than that, we aim to have them discover Him for themselves by means of worship and by finding Him in truth and goodness and beauty and prayer and sacraments. We do not always succeed in our aim, but we work indefatigably and consistently toward our goal.

That is why we feel that the summer months offer a splendid chance for the pupils of our school to grow nearer our goal, i.e., because if they come to Church Sunday after Sunday to tell God how much they love Him and how sorry they are that they haven't done better in their daily living, and if they come to get strength for their daily needs, we know that they will succeed and our grand aim be accomplished.

Our ordinary Sunday services are not long. In summer months they are even shorter. One of the departmental heads in the Church School writes me that the coming to Church of the children should make a deep appeal to them, and that she feels that they will be much helped by the "cool, quiet of the Church, the reverent atmosphere and the beautiful simple service." Her feeling is shared by many others.

Will you who expect to remain home for any part of the summer co-operate with us by coming to Church with your children, Sunday by Sunday, and when you find it impossible to be there yourself, will you suggest to the children that they come anyway and sit with one of their teachers who will be present to keep them company? We would appreciate such co-operation very much and your child will be greatly helped.

Church School Commencement. This afternoon at three o'clock, in the Church. Beautiful, helpful service. Adults particularly invited. Splendid program. Your coming will inspire the members of the Church School with the understanding that you, too, take their work there seriously. COME!

This week we have had transferred to our church family Mrs. Dorothy M. B. Mayer, of 375 East Gowen Avenue. She comes to us from All Angels' Church, New York City, and is now a communicant of Grace Church in good standing.

It has been definitely decided to have our Parish trip down the river on June 28th. Boats leave the foot of Chestnut Street at 8.30, 10, and 2, returning at 4, 5, and 8 P. M. Tickets will be distributed later. Most of us intend to go on the 10 A. M. boat. You will be informed of other details later. Prepare now to go—next Saturday a week.

THE YEAR now rapidly drawing to a close has been one to try men's souls. Fear and despair have stalked abroad testing men's courage, proving what they were made of. This has been true not only of our own land, but of all lands. No nation has escaped. Every country is suffering.

Your Rector has repeatedly asked you, "What is there to fear?" He has pointed out time and time again that nothing eternally worth while has failed. "God has not changed;" "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow." In the strength of that truth he has bid you look up.

It is with great satisfaction, therefore, that he commends to you the following Christmas message, written by a layman of this parish, who has thought his way through tremendous difficulties and has sensed the inner meaning of Christmas. It is right to the point:

"Peace on the earth, good will to men,
From Heaven's all-gracious King."

The lovely Christmas message comes today to a weary world, with hearts bowed down and faces looking upward, desirous of catching a glimpse of the celestial messengers of hope. Few indeed have escaped life's crushing load, and the tidings never old brings renewed hope to mankind.

Let us go forward with joy in our hearts and peace in our souls, for the babe was born in Bethlehem and reigns in heaven above. Nothing else matters. Let us go forward unafraid and dismiss those fears deep down in our hearts and show our gratitude for the blessings which the babe of Bethlehem has so graciously bestowed. Even now as we rejoice in these many blessings

Steals on the ear the distant triumph song
And hearts are brave again and arms are strong.
Alleluia!

Dear People: First, a few statistics: We had the best attended Christmas this Christmas that we ever had. There were 413 present at the Children's Carol Service, 285 at midnight, 38 at 6 A. M., 45 at 7.30 A. M., and 35 at 9.30 A. M. The total attendance was 816, while last year the total was 708. There was a gain of 16 Communions made, the total being 292. The offerings also were somewhat larger than last year's.

It seems now as if we have at last discovered the most convenient hours for the majority of our people. As you know, I was reluctant to put into our schedule a six o'clock service for Christmas morning because I felt that it would not be well attended and that those who would come at that hour could just as readily come at another hour. I was wrong in my judgment; certainly when 38 people care enough to get up so early on Christmas Day to make their communions, there is real justification for such a service. We shall keep that service in our schedule next year.

You have not so far heard any details from me of the results of our Every Member Canvass, the reason being that we have not yet been able to tabulate the results, some of the work being still unfinished. As soon as we learn where we stand, we shall inform you.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

There is this to be said, however—never did Grace Church have a more satisfactory group of workers represent it than those who went out on the canvass this year. They deserve a great deal of thanks, as does the Reverend Mr. Irwin who planned our work.

During the last two weeks your Rector officiated as follows: (1) On December 21st in Grace Church at the baptism of Edith Anne Landenberger, born July 31, 1930, daughter of Charles Henry and Edith de Zouche Moffly Landenberger, the sponsors being Mrs. Wm. T. Moffly, Mrs. J. Wm. Landenberger, John Moffly, 3d, and William Moffly. (2) On December 18th, your Rector read the Burial Office for Clarence A. Baer, of 2101 W. Tioga Street, who had died on December 15th. (3) On December 23d he read the Burial Office for Caroline H. T. Bournonville, of Summit Street, Chestnut Hill, who died on December 20th.

Now to look forward: On Thursday of this week, January 8th, the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild are going to have an all-day meeting. Holy Communion at 9.30; sewing and folding surgical dressings until noon; intercessions at 12; luncheon at 12.30 and missionary speaker after lunch. The speaker will tell of our Hospital work at New Bern, N. C., and the hostesses will be the members of our Committee on Work among Colored Peoples.

Let us not forget that the winter is just starting and that warm clothes will be needed now more than ever. We have, it is true, sent some very good and warm clothes to the City Mission for distribution among the needy poor, but not nearly enough to meet their needs. Won't you look over your wardrobe, select what you need for your own use, and bring the rest to the Parish House? We'll see that the City Mission secures them and they in turn will pass them on without money to the worthy poor. It would be a good idea to tend to this now.

We have another treat in store for you: On January 25th, Sunday, the Reverend Mr. Hastings, of Ethete, Wyoming, is going to speak to us at the 11 o'clock service about his work among the Arapahoe Indians of the Wind River Reservation. He is not coming to ask financial help, but to inform us concerning one branch of the Church's work. On the next evening, January 26th, he will show his motion pictures to the Men's Service League. This should be a most interesting evening, for the pictures are much more interesting than those one usually sees, and include such scenes as the Indian Sun Dance, etc. All men of the parish and their friends are invited to come. It would be a good plan to jot down the date now before you make another engagement—January 26th.

On Tuesday of this week we will begin the Epiphany season. I wrote at some length on the meaning of Epiphany in this issue of the PARISH NEWS a year ago and feel that what was then said need not now be repeated. However, your Rector would feel better satisfied if more people attended the service next Tuesday, the day of the Feast of the Epiphany. Those of you who are able to, please make up your mind to come.

And now we have entered into a new year. God grant that it will mean much to all of us spiritually. There is no royal way to become so; the method is the slow method of day by day growing in grace and in the knowledge of God: Prayer; Bible reading; meditation; partaking worthily of the Holy Communion—these are the normal methods by which souls are fed. Don't neglect any of these on peril of spiritual dryness. Sacrifice much for God; expect great things of Him; adventure great things for Him. So shall your New Year be the best yet.

Faithfully,

Your friend and Rector,

Charles Edward Eder.

My Dear People: I want to speak to you in this issue of the Parish News of something that nearly every other congregation of our Church has heard about before you, "The Advance Work Program."

To understand what is meant by that term, one has to go back to the meeting of General Convention in Washington in 1928 and recall the conditions that obtained in the missionary work of the Church at that time.

First of all, the executives of the Church had been ordered by your representatives not to undertake any new work unless the money was in hand to pay for it. That doesn't sound drastic, does it, but when you see how it worked out you will realize that it was the sort of thing that would freeze up every worthwhile endeavor. If a medical man were needed sorely among the Arapahoe Indians and a worthy clergyman-physician applied for the opportunity to minister to them, your executives had to refuse to allow him to go because they did not have the money in hand to pay his meager salary and supply bills. Likewise, in another missionary district with a large English population and no church to minister to them, we were offered one of the most valuable tracts in the city free of charge if we in turn would erect a worthy house of God upon it and send in a missionary who would soon not only bring in enough money to pay his own salary but also raise money to help needier parishes. We had to say no because we did not have the money in hand. This policy was called "Pay as you go" and not only automatically set the brakes against any advance work but also (because the various congregations of our church were unable or unwilling to promise as much as they had given the year before) was the occasion of a general retreat all along the line, many missionaries being recalled and practically all others being obliged to accept substantial decreases in their already insufficient salaries.

The situation was intolerable and your representatives in Washington had to face it squarely. They did.

"Advance Work Program" was their answer.

This plan was nothing more than a concerted effort to make a few advances where they were most needed. The Bishops of missionary districts sent in requests for help to do a little more than just mark time; telling in detail of what needed doing most and how little money it would require to bring it to pass. They analyzed each other's projects and turned in their findings to a central committee which in turn also analyzed, sorted, and pared—and finally brought forth a report which included the schedule of what they thought most urgently required doing.

This itemized list was presented to the heads of every diocese, with the request that they would choose some of the projects, stand behind and pay for them.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

In due turn, the schedule came to the Diocese of Pennsylvania; your representatives studied it carefully and guaranteed forward work which would cost $113,000 of the whole sum, our just and proportionate share. The projects that they selected included a School in the Hawaiian Islands, a Hospital in New Bern, N. C., for Colored peoples; and money for Church work in Mexico, Wyoming, Spokane, Western Nebraska and Oklahoma.

Our Diocese having assumed its quota, the next step was to get the congregations of this diocese to underwrite their proportionate share. To bring this to pass, a laymen's committee was appointed which for some time has been hard at work presenting the situation to each congregation, working up the enthusiasm that will finally spell success. In this Convocation the chairman of the Committee is Mr. Isaac Starr, of Laverock.

During the season of Advent his committee asked my permission to present the subject to you. I refused, telling them that we were engaged in raising our annual budget by means of the Every Member Canvass and that we could not afford at that time to have our minds on anything else. But I promised them that during Epiphany we would take the matter up seriously.

And now Epiphanytide is here and this is the first news that you have had from me of the "Advance Work Program." I don't know what we shall do; I cannot inform you until your Vestry meets. At that time we shall come to a decision and let you know what we are going to do. This article is to tell you what it is all about and to ask your prayers for its success. I append a prayer written by Bishop Burleson of S. Dakota for the Advance Work Program—

> O thou who didst promise thy presence and power to those who go forth in thy name; stir up the loyalty and the love of thy Church to supply the pressing needs of those who, as our representatives, proclaim thy message of salvation, both at home and abroad. Accept our gifts and prosper our undertaking, to the glory of thy Name and the blessing of thy children; who with the Father and the Holy Spirit art worshiped and glorified, now and forever. Amen.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY NOTES

The Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will be held on Tuesday, January 13, in the Parish House. Luncheon will be served at 12.30, followed by the business meeting and election of officers. A special invitation is extended to all new members or friends of the Parish, who will be received and made welcome by the Hospitality Committee.

The season of Epiphany is here again, and it comes as a reminder that it is once more the time to save our pennies for the Advance Work of the Church. This has been done for the past two years with splendid results. Let our goal this year be $100, or 10,000 pennies gathered together by each and every woman of our Parish dropping into a box set aside for the purpose every penny that comes into her hands. And when the day of Presentation comes, with a Corporate Communion of the women of the Parish, let us gladly bring them to the altar with the joy of knowing we are thus helping His work to go on in the world about us. For—

Christ has no hands but our hands
To do His work today.
Christ has no feet but our feet
To lead men on their way.
Christ has no voice but our voice
To tell men why He died.
Christ has no help but our help
To bring men to His side.

The Annual Educational Day of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese will be held on Thursday, January 29.

Holy Communion in the Church House Chapel—8.30.
Breakfast at Warburton House.
Sectional Conferences—10.15–11.30 A. M.
The President's Conference—11.45–1.00 P. M.
Box Luncheon—1.00–2.00 P. M.
Annual Meeting of Woman's Auxiliary—2.15 P. M.
Let us have Grace Church well represented at the Roll Call.

P.S.—Be sure to come to the Annual Meeting on Tuesday next to hear the good news the Treasurer has to tell as the result of your efforts.

Naturally you want to know the results of our financial canvass for the year. We are sorry the report has been delayed; this has been unavoidable, for even now we do not have complete returns. The figures covering pledges, some of them conditional, are as follows:

From those who use envelopes (weekly and monthly)	$14,322.36
From those who pay on an annual, semi-annual, or quarterly basis	7,589.00
We have sent out, without having received pledges, but to those who have been consistent contributors in the past, 28 sets of envelopes, from which we expect	700.00
We expect at least four more quarterly subscriptions, which will probably bring in	500.00

Making a total of our expectations, based on our present list, of $23,111.36

This very closely approximates our early estimate of $23,375. We had hoped, in the interest of safety, to have this oversubscribed, but when one considers the present industrial and financial situation, perhaps we have done better than we should have expected.

The canvass of the neighborhood to find people who really belong to Grace Church and who do not share our privileges and blessings with us, and which will be undertaken early in the year, will no doubt bring us new subscribers, and we look forward with confidence to the results in 1931. To all who helped, by working and subscribing, we extend hearty thanks.

If any who attend services in Grace Church are desirous of subscribing money for current expenses by means of the Envelope System, please get in touch with our Accounting Warden, Pratt Thompson, Greene Manor, Greene and Johnson Streets, Germantown.

The Young People's Fellowship will not meet as usual for a regular meeting at 8 P. M. this evening; instead, they will gather in front of the Rectory at 7.30 P. M., to go by automobile to St. Thomas', Whitemarsh. The church is grateful to the Fellowship for a beautiful candle-lighter, which the young people presented as a Christmas gift.

Last week we had transferred to us from St. Mark's Church, Frankford, Mr. Robert J. Ward, Mrs. Robert J. (Harriet V.) Ward, and Miss Doris M. Ward, of 336 East Allen's Lane. In your name we welcome them heartily to our parish family.

Next Sunday morning, at the 11 o'clock service, the Rev. A. Abbott Hastings, of St. Michael's Mission, Ethete, Wyoming, will tell us of the interesting work our Church is doing among the Arapahoe Indians under his leadership. I would like every one who reads this notice to come and bring some one else with him. There will be no appeal for funds. The address is a report of what our Church is doing on the frontier.

On the following evening Mr. Hastings will show his motion pictures to the Men's Service League. This meeting will be for men only. A cordial invitation is hereby extended to every man of the Parish and his friends to attend. Refreshments will be served. Come and bring others with you!

Several years ago your rector was much impressed by the following story, taken from "Marketing." It is a French allegory that points a moral worth remembering: "A portrait painter sat in his favorite cafe sipping his wine. His first small bottle finished, he was about to order another when his eye fell on a headline in the Figaro, 'Hard Times Are Coming.' So instead of ordering his second bottle, he called for his check.

"'Is there anything wrong with the wine?" asked the landlord.

"'The wine is good, but I did not order a second bottle because hard times are coming and we must economize,' explained the artist.

"'Hard times,' said the landlord, 'then my wife must not order the silk dress we planned, but must buy a cheap one, ready made.'

"'Hard times,' repeated the dressmaker, when the order was cancelled, 'this is no time to expand. I must not make the improvement that I had planned for this place.'

"'Hard times, eh?' said the builder, when the dressmaker cancelled the building plans. 'Then I cannot have my wife's portrait painted.' So he wrote the artist and cancelled his order.

"After receiving the letter, the artist went again to his favorite cafe and ordered a small bottle to soothe his fears. On a nearby chair was the paper in which he had read of hard times a few days before. He picked it up and read it more closely, and found—that it was two years old!"

The speaker this morning is the Reverend A. Abbott Hastings, of Ethete, Wyoming. The men of the Parish and their friends are invited to come to the Parish House tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, see motion pictures of this most interesting work, and hear Mr. Hastings tell about it in more detail. The meeting will be under the auspices of the Men's Service League and light refreshments will be served. There will be no charge. Come and bring several friends.

On Friday of last week your Rector and the Reverend Mr. Vogt read the Burial Office for Clarence R. Peterson, of 7321 Bryan St., who died on January 13th. The service was held in St. Peter's Church, Germantown, and interment was made at Laurel Hill Cemetery. Mr. Peterson and his wife for several years have been faithful attendants at the services in Grace Church, and we shall miss him much.

On January 19th we had transferred to us from St. James' Church, Philadelphia, Miss Emma Hampton Adams, who resides at The Leamy. In your name we bid her welcome to our Parish family.

The Annual Service of the Diocesan Festival Choir will be held in the Church of the Advocate, 18th and Diamond Sts., on Wednesday, January 28th, at 8 P. M. Tickets may be had from the rector.

The Annual Meeting and Educational Day of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese will be held on Thursday of this week at Holy Trinity Parish House, 217 S. 20th St., Phila. Holy Communion at 8.30. Breakfast at Warburton House. Sectional Conferences from 10.15 to 11.30 A. M. Conference from 11.30 to 1 P. M. Box luncheon at 1 P. M.; tea and coffee will be served. Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary from 2.15 to 3.30 P. M. The morning conferences will be held simultaneously, and the three subjects will be Missions, Social Service, and Education.

A machinist who is also an experienced chauffeur has applied to the rector for work. If any one knows of a position for him, please notify the rector.

Last Sunday morning's sermon theme was, God is always ready to work miracles if men can be found to work them with Him. Taking St. John's Gospel, the second chapter and first ten verses, as his text, the preacher made the following points in developing his theme of being partners with God in miracle working: (1) Seeing the need ("They have no wine"); (2) Waiting on God for method ("Whatsoever He saith unto you, do it"); (3) Doing what God suggests; realizing that God ordinarily does nothing for us that we can do for ourselves ("Fill the water pots"); and (4) Obeying orders ("With water"), although most of us might complain that "we don't want water, we want wine." In conclusion the rector reminded his hearers that back of the whole subject lay the question whether we were willing to become coarse, common pitchers to be used in God's service. If so, we might expect great things from God; if not, we need expect nothing. Expect great things from God; venture great things for God.

Word has just come to us that Bishop Taitt has agreed to be the speaker at the Lincoln's birthday dinner, given by the Men's Service League on February 12th in the Parish House. Remembering the great turnout last year and the added incentive that arises from the fact that so many having heard Bishop Taitt then, will be anxious to hear him again, we look forward to the best patronized and most successful dinner ever given by our congregation. It would be a wise forethought to jot down on your calendar now that the evening of February 12th is reserved.

On January 28th the Rector officiated at the marriage of Thomas Russell Birch and Aline Constance Covell. On January 29th he read the Committal Office for Douglas Howe Adams, deceased, interment being in West Laurel Hill. On January 30th he read the Burial Office for Alma A. Shephard, deceased, interment being in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York.

In a former issue of this paper we told you that a few years ago your representatives in General Convention decided that the general Church should never again run into debt for any purpose, even though it be the well-being of its missions, and that early every year each diocese should report to headquarters how much money it could be counted upon to give for the missionary work of the Church during the year, and that that amount should be the amount allocated for forward work and no more. If it proved insufficient to meet current expenses, then the missionaries and their work should have their budgets cut to an amount equivalent to what had been promised. This was called the "pay-as-you-go plan" and has been scrupulously carried out. As a result there have been several times when the amount promised has been so small that our already underpaid missionaries have had to accept even less than they received before and many of them have literally been in dire want. Mission property and equipment have suffered even more grievously.

This latter condition proved so shocking that a committee was appointed by General Convention to devise some way to remedy it, and the committee, after much deliberation, hit on the "Advance Work Project" plan as a way out. This means nothing more than the fact that they studied the situation carefully, made a list of what needed doing most, and decided that the sum of $1,550,000 must be raised if we were to hold the ground that we had already won. They included in their report a list of the projects that needed doing and submitted the whole to the various dioceses with a plea that each one pledge itself to raise its share of the total fund. To date more than $1,000,000 has been pledged, and of that sum your own diocese has said that it will raise $135,000. Indeed, by soliciting gifts from generous individuals it has already raised more than half of the total it promised.

And now the plan comes to you! On Sunday next, in every congregation in this Diocese, there will be taken up a special offering for this purpose. There will be such an offering in Grace Church. During the week you will receive by mail special information with regard to the various activities that our diocesan offering will take care of. When you realize that some of the work the Reverend Mr. Hastings is doing depends upon the success of this plan, I know that you will be even more generous than usual. As your Rector I ask you to be as generous as you possibly can, because the need is indeed very great.

On January 26th we had transferred to us from the Church of the Saviour, West Philadelphia, Mrs. Lidie S. D. Shafer, of 145 E. Durham St. Mrs. Shafer has for a long time been a regular attendant at Grace Church and an unofficial member of our parish family; nevertheless we are glad to have her officially recorded as such.

The Annual Missionary Service of the Woman's Auxiliary, Diocese of Pennsylvania, will be held in St. James's Church, 22nd and Walnut Sts., on Monday Evening, February 9th, at 8 P. M. The speakers will be the Bishop of Mexico and Mr. J. E. Blanton, Principal of Voorhees School, Denmark, S. C.

Applicants for the Girls' Lenten Choir should see Mr. Robinson some time today.

A chorus of male voices is being considered for special services and concerts. We have in the congregation a number of former choir singers who enjoy chorus work; there are other men also who like to sing who would fit well into this club. Speak to Mr. John Eiseman or Mr. Merritt Rhoad, or Mr. Robinson.

This is to remind you that you have an engagement with us this coming Thursday evening. On Thursday of this week we are going to give that Lincoln's Birthday Dinner we have been telling you about in the PARISH NEWS. It is not being done to make money (we don't expect to make expenses), but to get the whole congregation together for an inspiring family gathering.

After the fine time everyone had last year at this dinner, we would have a right to expect even more to come this year. But we aren't taking it for granted: We are going to guarantee it by soliciting you and your friends to come. We want you, need you, and will look for you.

As for details: Bishop Taitt will be the speaker, the charge will be one dollar, and we shall sit down to eat at exactly six-thirty o'clock. Look for the unusual waiters. Come and bring all your friends, but be sure that you come, anyway!

The offering this morning will be devoted to the "Advance Work Project" of the Church. You have been reading of this from time to time in the Parish News and many have also had a direct appeal during the past week in the mail. On page 4 of the booklets distributed throughout the pews you will find an admirable summary of this plan, prepared by Bishops Garland and Taitt. Boiled down, the story is this: Our missions are down at the heels because we have not been supporting them adequately—hardly enough money has been coming in for maintenance, let alone going ahead.

So, all through our Church appeals are being made for special offerings to help out our most needy work and do a few things more. Your own diocese has agreed to raise $113,200, half of which has already been given by generous donors, and in every congregation of our diocese today the offering will be devoted to raising the rest. It will be so in Grace Church. Bishop Schmuck, whom you heard from our pulpit not very ong ago, and the Rev. Mr. Hastings, who spoke to us twice in January, will both benefit by your generosity. May I count on you to do your share? I know I can.

On Wednesday of this week we shall enter the annual keeping of Lent. Most of us shrink from the holy season, much as a timid swimmer hesitates on the brink before diving into the cooling water. But, like the swimmer, once one has gone in he enjoys it and its tonic influence; indeed, when the season is ended, many of us wish it were "just beginning." And this realization that we shall enjoy it once we have entered whole heartedly into it should encourage us to meet it gladly.

Ash Wednesday, then, will come in three days. Lent is right upon us; how are we going to use it?

Well, we cannot use it right unless we know what it is to be used for. "What is it to be used for? To grow closer to Almighty God. That is the purpose of Lent.

Some of you will try to accomplish this end by attending services in God's house with faithfulness and greater frequency; others will do more reading along religious lines; others will deny yourselves many innocent pleasures in order to use the money you have saved for worthy causes; others will pay more attention to your prayers and Bible reading; while still others will make it a practice to come every Sunday to the 7.30 Holy Communion Service. Many will combine all these methods. But whatever you do, do it thoroughly, with all your might. Put your whole heart into it, for in religion a half-heart is a heavy heart. So shall your Lent be blessed.

Every Thursday during Lent the workroom will be open all day. A light luncheon will be served at 12.30. Beginning with February 26th, Mrs. W. W. Arnett will lead her weekly Mission Study Class in the Brown Room of the Parish House at 3 P. M. The subject this year will be, "Our Expanding Church," and the Rector hopes that all who are free on Thursdays at 3 P. M. will make it their business to attend.

Tomorrow, Monday evening, there will be held a Teachers' Meeting of the Junior and Senior departments of the Church School at 7.45 P. M. in the Parish House. The discussion will be on the subject, "How to make the Lenten Season a better one for our boys and girls, for the missionaries and missions." The Rector expects all the teachers of these departments to be present.

On February 3d the Rector read the Burial Office for Henrietta M. Geib, who died on January 31st, interment being made at Mt. Vernon Cemetery. On February 5th he read the Burial Office for Eleanor Dering Muzzey, who died on February 2d, interment being at Laurel Hill.

The Rector's sermon last Sunday morning was on the text, "Behold, we go up to Jerusalem," from St. Luke 18:31, and the theme of the sermon was this: Just as individual Christians fail unless they individually live lives that are kinder, more thoughtful of others, and more self-exacting than the lives of the worldly men about them, so the Christian Church itself fails unless it holds before the men higher aspirations, ideals, and standards than the secular world has yet accepted. Said the Rector: "When the Lord Christ asserted that unless the righteousness of His disciples exceeded the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees they would be untrue to Him, He was not hitting at the sham and pretense that we associate with the scribes and Pharisees, but was using these groups as examples of the highest that the world had yet achieved, and was saying plainly that He expected His followers to outdo the best that had yet been done by others."

Applying this dictum, the preacher pointed out that the world today is athrob with new hopes and aspirations, as evidenced by the terrible experiment in Soviet Russia, the continuing Civil War in China, and the No More War movements and aroused public conscience with regard to unemployment in our own country. In these and many other forward movements for the good of mankind the Christian Church seems to be taking no leading part; we are leaving it to outsiders to suffer for these ideals and bring them to pass, although the Lord is calling us to go up to Jerusalem and suffer with Him, in the sense of initiating these movements and following them through.

From His denunciation of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum we learn that the Lord Christ holds us responsible not only for our personal lives, but also for the condition of the community in which we are residing.

If we bear this in mind, it will give us a new appreciation of the keeping of Lent, for Lent is a time in which the Christian Church corporately takes an account of stock, recognizes its needs, and goes forth with freshened ideals and girded sinews.

"But," reminded the preacher, "when great things are to be done they do not begin with mass movements, but in small groups inspired by able individuals. Then they capture the imaginations and win the allegiance of the masses. So with Lent: while it is a moving forward of the whole Church, the success of its going ahead depends upon the efforts of individuals making good and inspiring the whole body."

"So," concluded he, "Lent comes to you in the year of Grace 1931. Here is its rationale; here its social justification. If you personally keep Lent aright, then you will be doing your part in bringing in the Kingdom of God and of His Christ."

Services with Choir and Sermon tonight at 7.30. No Sunday afternoon services during Lent. The Young People's Fellowship meets at 7 P. M. Evening Prayer daily except Mondays.

The examinations held two weeks ago in the Church School were quite satisfactory. The school seems to be functioning well, and great credit is due to the heads of departments and their faithful corps of teachers and officers.

A Quiet Day for the Women of the Convocation of Germantown will be held in Calvary Church, Manheim and Pulaski Streets, on Monday, March 2d,—a week from tomorrow,—the Bishop of Vermont being the Conductor. The order of the day will be as follows: 10.30, Holy Communion; 11:30, Meditation; 12 noon, intercessions; 12:30, Luncheon with Reading; 2 P. M., Meditation; 3 P. M., Meditation. The offerings will go to missions. Mrs. Arthur McNichol, of 4616 Wayne Avenue, Germantown, is receiving Luncheon reservations.

In many parishes it is customary for members of the congregation to take Lenten mite-boxes and use them as depositories for the money they save by personal sacrifice during Lent. Those who give up smoking deposit as much money as they have saved on tobacco, those who give up going to motion pictures insert the amount they would have spent for them had it not been Lent, etc. In the motion picture of the Church's work in the Hawaiian Islands that Mr. Irwin showed us there is a scene showing every member of a congregation carrying home a mite-box. The Rector would be glad to furnish mite-boxes to any of our congregation who care to have them. See him after any Service.

During Lent there will be a special service for young people on Fridays, at 4.30. The girls' choir will sing, and an interesting talk will be given each week by one of the women of our Auxiliary and Guild, about some missionary and his work. Next Friday the talk will be about a missionary working today among the American Indians. Mrs. Charles S. Pease will be the Speaker. We urge all parents to send their children once, feeling assured that the young people will come the second time of their own volition. Adults, of course, are also welcome.

Last year's attendance on Family Sunday was a record breaker; this year's must be even better. Plan now to come and begin now to urge others to do so. The date this year will be March 22d—the fifth Sunday in Lent—the fourth Sunday in March.

Last Sunday's Offering for the "Advance Work Project" amounted to $301.52.

All women are invited to work with the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild on Thursdays. During Lent these meetings are all-day meetings, beginning at the 9:30 Holy Communion, continuing on through luncheon at 12.30, and on into the afternoons. We are particularly anxious to have a good attendance at the weekly missionary classes under Mrs. W. W. Arnett. Mrs. Arnett is leading the class at Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, and was so helpful and interesting here last year that we hope that many more will come out this year. Thursdays, 3 P. M. Subject: "Our Expanding Church."

Mission Study Class—Thursdays, 3 P. M. Subject: "Our Expanding Church."

Today your Rector begins his seventh year in Grace Church. He came to you on the first Sunday in Lent, 1925, which fell on the first Sunday in March. And each year as that anniversary approaches he recalls the first sermon that he preached to you on the Gospel of the day, and had to do with the practical meaning of our Lord's temptation in the wilderness, and each year he resolves to preach to you on another subject. But each year as that Sunday approaches he finds something else in the story of those temptations that needs emphasizing, and each year he ends up by preaching again on the story of the temptations in the wilderness.

It was so this year.

Last Sunday morning he contrasted the miracle that Elijah asked for on Mt. Carmel with the miracle that our Master refused to ask for in the wilderness, asking of the congregation, "Why was it proper for Elijah to seek a miracle at Carmel and improper for our Lord Christ to seek a miracle in the wilderness?" Of course, you will answer right off, Elijah was justified because he asked not for himself but for others, but deeper than that was this difference: Elijah's desire had no element of doubt in it; there was no question in his mind as to whether God would work the miracle nor whether God was with him, whereas our Lord's miracle would have been for His own self, a selfish test of the presence and power of the Father, and as such would have been a real sin.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

Testing one who has always been faithful does real harm and is improper in that it casts a shadow on past happy experiences, hurts the one tested, and in spite of proving the fidelity of the one under suspicion leaves unworthy suspicions in the mind of the one making the test.

Of course, this does not rule out the right of men to study the ways of God with men, and to make generalizations from their studies; but it does stamp as unworthy men's attempts to force God into their little human patterns of Him; it does forever label as presumptuous men putting forth their own home-made tests and challenging God to meet their demands.

Concluded the preacher: "Let us be wary of saying, 'If God loves me He will do so and so'; 'if God is and cares, He will see to it that I suffer not so and so.' God is so wonderful and so beyond our best imaginings that we have no right to demand that He fit into our ideas of what He is like and how He should react to our plans and conjectures. Let us beware of falling into the pitfall which our dear Lord so splendidly avoided when this temptation came to Him. May the good Lord save us from presumptuous sins!"

Tomorrow the women of this section will have their Quiet Day in Calvary Church, Germantown. If you have never attended such a day, resolve now to put all other engagements aside and go; if you have attended a Quiet Day, you will need no urging. Nothing could be more helpful than a day in Lent spent in thinking on certain aspects of God, under the guidance of an able leader. Bishop Booth is such a leader, and all things are prepared for you. Go!

The order of the day (we say it again for those who made no note of it last week) will be as follows: 10.30, Holy Communion; 11.30, Meditation; 12 noon, Intercessions; 12.30, Luncheon with Reading; 2 P. M., Meditation, and 3 P. M., Meditation.

Calvary Church is at Manheim and Pulaski Streets.

Several years ago your Rector had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Henry D. Jump, who is a member of the Philadelphia Prison Board, speak on the work she is interested in. He is very glad to commend her work and to invite you to listen to her speak at the close of the Luncheon next Thursday noon. This will be at the weekly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild. Think of the thousands of women in the Philadelphia jails, and then come and listen to what a socially minded Christian woman is doing for their welfare. Thursday, 12.30 noon. Hostess at the Luncheon, our Diocesan Committee.

Not all the pennies gathered during Epiphanytide have been turned in, although the ingathering was very fruitful. Those of you who still have your pennies will make our tasks easier if you will give them to Miss Edith Fell or Mrs. Stephen Newnham as soon as you conveniently can.

Family Sunday will be here three weeks from today, March 22d.

The Lenten Schedule of week-day Services may easily be remembered if you fix in your mind the following: Evening Prayer is said every day but Mondays and Fridays at 5 P. M. On Monday it is omitted, and on Friday it gives place to the 4.30 P. M. Children's Service. Holy Communion is celebrated as usual on Thursdays at 9.30.

The amount so far contributed to the Advance Work Project is over $350, with more to come in. When I was a boy I attended some Salvation Army meetings and was amused when the amount of the offering was announced as "$3.50, but we hope that more will come in to make it $5.00"—but our amusement left us when the extra amount did come in. May we hope that our $350 will amount to $500?

Speaking of money reminds us of the Good Friday Offering. The envelopes are marked, "for the Jews." That does not mean that the amount collected will be used for relief work among the Jews, but for evangelizing and converting Jews to Christianity —for our missions to the Jews—surely a worthy object of Good Friday benevolences.

The sudden death, last Sunday evening, of Bishop Garland came as a great shock to every one in the diocese, particularly to those of the clergy who had been with him frequently in committee meetings and in planning diocesan business. It is true that we should have anticipated something of the sort because he has been a very sick man since his return from abroad last summer, but against his illness we balanced the facts that he never had appeared robust, that he continued to carry on his tasks from day to day as if he were in the best of health, that he never complained, that his mind was as clear as ever, and that we are accustomed to take for granted that such useful servants of God shall continue to carry on indefinitely because they are so valuable to the Christian cause. So we were greatly shocked at the news of his departure.

It is not your Rector's duty or privilege to eulogize him at this time or in this paper; you knew him well; he was with you many years, both as Priest and as your Bishop; the prosperous state of the diocese attests his faithful and wise ministration. Others more eloquent and more competent will say for us in eulogy the things that are inchoate in our minds. But this we may say: We shall miss him sorely; the diocese and the whole Church have sustained a heavy loss in his passing. We affectionately commend him and his family to your prayers.

What is our loss is the other world's gain.

To his successor, Bishop Taitt, we pledge our continued loyalty and co-operation. He has long held a very warm place in our affections, and we pledge ourselves to do all that we can to ease his burden by responding to his leadership.

We commend him also and his welfare to your daily prayers. May God bless him abundantly!

Last Sunday morning's sermon was by our Curate, Mr. Irwin. He called attention to the fact that many Christians, free from the larger sins, are careless about the smaller sins, while God requires of His servants "spotlessness."

The old law required that anything sacrificed to Jehovah must be "without spot, wherein is no blemish," and that concept carries through into the New Testament, with the coming of the Spotless Lamb of God, Who was the one perfect and sufficient sacrifice for man offered to God.

While man is more good than bad, and while Christians quite generally do not practise sins of the greatest magnitude, goodness tends to be passive. And passive goodness is not spotlessness in God's sight. It is easy for us to view with complacency our good deeds, our love for the Church, our service in it, our honesty, our kindliness, our many fine qualities, and to reach the conclusion that really we are very good people. And we are, but we are not spotless, and the Christ ideal is one of perfection—anything less than that is less than God expects and demands of us.

In conclusion, it was pointed out that the influence exerted by Christians in the world is lessened by the fact that they are open to criticism, not for great crimes, but for the lesser violations of Christ's law of love, and that the world at this time needs especially and urgently the spotless Christian, whose influence is always exerted toward the ideals of the Christ.

It may be news to some of you that our Young People's Fellowship has a basket-ball team, and a very successful one at that. Early in the season a league was formed among the diocesan fellowships and our boys began to play. They were uniformed and given basket-ball equipment by the Men's Service League. As a result, they present a fine appearance. But better than that, they have been winning games, and doing it with fine, clean sportsmanship. So far they have played ten games and have won them all! Next Thursday they are to play against the team representing St. David's Church, Manayunk, and it is hoped that many of our people will attend the game to encourage them. St. David's Church is on Dupont Street, opposite Smick Street. Mr. Henry L. Schimpf, Jr., one of the teachers in the Church School, is the coach responsible for much of their success.

Family Sunday will be celebrated at the eleven o'clock service on March 22d!

The Young People's Fellowship will have charge of the Evening Service on March 22d at 8 o'clock. Several of our young men will lead the service, and it is hoped that Mr. Eiseman will make the address. Plan now to come.

There are a number of good books in the Green Room which you may borrow for Lenten reading. The Church Periodical Club offers them without cost. Just sign your name, read, and return them.

Just to remind you: All-day meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild are being held weekly on Thursdays in the Parish House. Holy Communion at 9.30 A. M.; sewing and surgical bandage folding until noon; intercessions at 12 noon, and luncheon at 12.30. Come!

During Lent the Church School concentrates its attention on making Christ known to those who have not heard of Him. On Sunday mornings Mrs. George Austin is telling a series of very interesting stories which bear on fellowship through play. On Friday afternoons members of our committees in the five fields are telling special stories of the most interesting work the Church is doing in those fields. We have already heard of work among American Indians and among the colored: next Friday we shall hear of a special work in our own diocese. On the first Friday afternoon we had an attendance of 79! You will be welcome if you come, either on Sunday morning at 9.30 or on Friday afternoon at 4.30!

Next Sunday will be Family Sunday. We want it to be as well observed as it was last year—even better. Let every member of the congregation attend and worship with his family. Invite your friends to come along, too, and sit with you. Respond heartily; sing lustily; put your whole self into the service. Let every one forget himself totally and think only on the good God and on how much we love Him and how fine it is to be in a place where others love Him too and are telling Him so. Let us lose ourselves in Him.

Last Sunday morning, taking his subject from the two prescribed lessons for the morning (the story of Joseph pardoning his brothers and the parable of the Unjust Debtor), the Rector preached on the text, "I believe in the forgiveness of sins."

Said he: "Men fall into two groups in their way of looking on God's forgiveness: one group accepts it too matter-of-factly, while the other group accepts it to hesitatingly. One believes that it is God's nature and property to forgive; therefore there is nothing to it; He just has to forgive. The other believes that men's sins are so awful in their consequences that it is hard to believe that even Almighty God in His goodness can or will forgive such deliberate rebellion against His will."

"Likewise," reminded he, "men err in that, when they think about forgiveness, they confuse it with doing away with physical consequences. Forgiveness to them means that God will intervene and wipe out any penalty that might be involved. Not so. Penalty and forgiveness are two crystal-clear subjects, neither one involving the other. For instance, in the story of Nathan, David, and Bathsheba we have a clear case of David being forgiven by God but his child died. Man is primarily concerned with the consequences of his sin; God is chiefly concerned in its cause. To God the terrible thing about sin is that it upsets relationships."

"Forgiveness," continued the Rector, "to be complete involves two persons—the one willing to forgive and the one who needs to be forgiven. It is true that one offended may freely forgive the one who has offended him; and at the same time the offender may not care a whit whether he is forgiven or not. But then the transaction is not complete. Complete forgiveness means harmony; reconciliation. As the Prayer Book in the catechism puts it, 'Repentance whereby we forsake sin, and faith whereby we accept the promises of God and claim their fulfillment.'"

The world today needs to be reminded that God's pardon is there, waiting for the repentant sinner freely to accept. As soon as we forsake sin, then God's forgiveness is ours, if we will accept it.

After stressing the therapeutic value of this doctrine, the preacher pointed out various ways in which the Church's teaching on this subject will come to one's aid in hours of darkness. When weary of self and laden with our sins, we need to recall this Bible teaching: forgiveness is ours; God does not need to be reconciled; His great heart does not need to be importuned. God in Christ hath forgiven us; all we need to do is to reach out and lay hold on this accomplished fact.

"I believe in the forgiveness of sins."

On Wednesday, March 4th, the Rector officiated at the funeral of Glen Hipple, aged thirty-two, who died on March 1st. The interment was at Ivy Hill Cemetery. Mr. Hipple was gassed in the World War and died, as a result of his war injuries, at the Navy Hospital in Philadelphia. Some years ago he married one of our girls, Ruth Dixie, and his death leaves her a widow with two children.

The Rector commends the following letter to your attention:

My Dear Mr. Eder:

A serious problem has arisen in relief work in this neighborhood, of which I hope you may speak to your congregation on Sunday. For more than two months there have been over 100 men employed cutting wood and clearing out underbrush along the Wissahickon Drive and the woods near by. This was first done by the funds of the Friends of the Wissahickon, and later the Lloyd Committee took over many of the men, turning off those who did not meet with their requirements, that is, men with two or more dependents.

That arrangement leaves out of work many men with just a wife or one child to support, or an old father or mother. There are many more single men whose board or rent means much to the people with whom they live. To keep these men at work the large logs cut in the woods are being made into cord wood and sold to pay their wages. This is being done at wood-yards on Rex Avenue and Allen's Lane.

If the people of this neighborhood would purchase this wood now, they would do a great service. If they cannot use it now, it can be stored for future use. If put under cover it will be ready for next winter. Orders at $14 a load, delivered and placed in your cellar, can be telephoned to the Community House, 8419 Germantown Avenue, Chestnut Hill 0377, or to H. Louis Duhring, 1309 Locust Street, Pennypacker 7732. Many men can thus be kept employed until the spring work in gardens, nurseries, and factories begins.

Very sincerely yours,

H. Louis Duhring.

Several classes in the Church School have succeeded in securing the beautiful pool at Alden Park, Germantown, for a Swim on Friday evening, March 27th, from 7.30 to 10 P. M. The charge will be 75 cents, and because the profits will be used for missionary purposes, it is hoped that we will have a large crowd present. Why not organize a group of your friends now to come along and enjoy this healthful sport? It will be great fun and in the interest of fellowship.

Next Sunday evening, at eight o'clock, the Service of Evening Prayer will be read by members of the Young People's Fellowship, and Mr. John Eiseman will make an address. Come!

The sermon last Sunday morning centered about the words, "As we forgive those who trespass against us." After reviewing briefly his sermon preached the Sunday before on God's forgiveness, the speaker reminded his hearers that the Lord Jesus put much emphasis upon this reciprocal attitude. Time and time again Jesus reminded us that those who plead for mercy have no right to do so until they themselves have exhibited it toward their offenders. "The difficulty," said the preacher, "lies not in making men see that this is just, but in getting them to see it so vividly that they will practise it."

There are at least three main obstacles that have to be overcome in order to be generous to those who have offended you:

(1) The first is one's pride, which makes a myriad excuses for one's own failings but none for the faults of others. We are sensitive and proud of it. "No one can hurt us and get away with it." In the background of our minds there seems to be a sort of feeling that if we refuse to be mollified, then men consider us a sort of superior person and look up to us. We lack humility.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

(2) Again, we refuse to forgive because we are prone to take petty dislikes; when one dislikes, it is particularly hard to forgive. Our dislikes are based on such unstable foundations that if we were to examine them they would not stand the light of day. We are not expeeted to like all men equally, for our Lord Himself discriminated among His companions in choosing His bosom friends. But we are to guard against our dislikes, studying to find out whether they are based on reason or on sand.

(3) And the other main reason that we do not freely forgive those who trespass against us is the fact that we lack imagination enough to put ourselves into the unforgiven one's place. The preacher didn't go all the way with those who assert that "to understand all is to forgive all," for he knew from his own life that often he had done hateful things because he willed to be hateful when there were no extenuating circumstances; but, on the other hand, he asserted that much hardness toward offenders would melt away if one would go out of his way to put himself into the place of the erring one.

In closing, the preacher pointed out the increasing ratio of mental and nervous diseases, many of which he believed would clear up immediately were the patient to cease carrying on an internal struggle between his better nature urging him to forgive and his worse nature nagging him to retaliate and hate. "But, deeper than this utilitarian reason for forgiving," said he, "is the reason that God commands it. That should be reason enough." "Forgiving one another—even as God, for Christ's sake, hath forgiven you."

The Swimming Party to be given at Aldan Park Pool has been postponed a night, to next Saturday, March 28th, from 7 to 10. We hope to have many attend; not only because we know they will enjoy themselves, but especially because what profit we make will be added to the Church School Lenten offering. Come!

The Service in Church at 8 o'clock this evening will be in charge of the Young People's Fellowship, whose young men will read the service. Mr. Eiseman will make the address . . . Come!

We are forming a Junior Auxiliary to our Woman's Auxiliary. Membership is open to all girls between the ages of fifteen and twenty-one. An important organization meeting will be held on Tuesday evening of this week in the Parish House. Mrs. Dillard will come out and speak to the candidates. The hour will be 8 o'clock. Come!

The Girl's Choir will rehearse on Tuesday, at 6:45 P. M.

Woman's Auxiliary Notes

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will meet to sew on Maundy Thursday, but no luncheon will be served.

The first Thursday of the month being Maundy Thursday, the Missionary Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will be postponed to Thursday, April 9. Luncheon will be served at 12:30. The speaker will be Miss Margaret Marshall, who has worked in the mountain district of South Carolina. The delegates to the Domestic Committee will be hostesses.

On Thursday, April 9th, from 11 A. M. till 3 P. M., there will be a Food Sale of home-made breads, cakes, pies, desserts, preserves, candies, etc. Will every woman of the Auxiliary make a special effort to be either a donor or a customer or both, in order that the returns from this sale will be really worth while? On the Bulletin Board in the Green Room is a list of foods that can be ordered in advance of the sale.

All who desire to help defray the expense of beautifying the altar with flowers for Easter Day may do so by getting in touch with Miss Margaretta Bayard, 105 East Johnson Street, before this coming Wednesday.

The sermon last Sunday morning was on the text taken from 2 Kings 20:15: "What have they seen in thine house?" After making a careful exegesis of the story leading up to and surrounding the text, the preacher (because it was "Family Sunday") asked the congregation to imagine a delegation from a far country going carefully on a tour of inspection through its homes and making careful mental notes.

"What would they see in your house?" asked he. What they would see could be divided into two main heads: things definable and things indefinable.

If they were careful observers, they would make a distinction between what you cherish because "everybody collects them," and what you cherish for its own sake; between what you possess and what you merely own; between intrinsic and extrinsic values.

But, more than that, this hypothetical delegation would sense the indefinable atmosphere of your home. They would find out whether Christ dwelt in your house; whether you treated your loved ones with the same careful regard for their feelings that you exhibited to strangers; whether you "quarreled as intimately as if you were married"; whether the main theme of your home life were acquisition or being.

"We stand or fall by the kind of life we lead in our homes," pointed out the preacher. "If this brief analysis brings to the fore a wrong direction in which we are pointing, why not now change it all and sail direct to a worthy goal?" "Let our homes be palaces of Christ, our King; let our actions in our homes be regulated by the conduct that obtains in court, i.e., courtesy. Let us not bother about what other people find in our homes, but let us take to heart what Christ has seen in our house."

There will be no Church School Session next Sunday morning; instead there will be a fine, rousing service in the Church proper in the afternoon at 3.30. The bus will make its rounds in the afternoon, as it usually does in the morning, to fetch the children to the service and deliver them safely home again.

At the service itself there will be collective singing of Easter carols, and also carols sung by the Beginners and Intermediate Departments. There will be the ingathering of the Lenten Mite-boxes and a short talk by the Rector. Last year we had a large and hearty-singing congregation at this service, and if every one who reads this notice will come out this Easter afternoon, the Church will be filled. Make up your mind now—to come!

On Easter Monday, April 6th, from 5 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon, in the Parish House, there will be held the annual election of four vestrymen for Grace Church. Particulars may be had from the Secretary, Mr. A. C. Brand.

On Good Friday, at 4.30 in the afternoon, we are going to have a service for our children and young people. This service is an innovation in our Parish and is being instituted because the Rector feels that the Good Friday message should be known to the smallest child as well as the oldest grown-up. Won't you, who have any children under your care, see to it that they come to this service? Better still, bring them with you.

Last year we had about 60 people present at the service in which we prepared ourselves to make our Easter Communions. This year we are changing the date to the evening of Maundy Thursday, at 8 P. M., hoping that the sacredness of the hour of commemoration might bring out more worshippers. "On the night in which He was betrayed" come and prepare for Easter Day.

Whatever money you give on Good Friday will be used for paying the expenses of missionaries who are working to bring the Jews to recognize and follow Christ as their Saviour. It is most appropriate that our free-will offering on Good Friday should be used to win the descendants of the people who crucified the Lord to know Him and love Him. In the Church of England we have had very successful missions to the Jews—some of our very best Bishops have been men of that race. In Canada there are many flourishing congregations of Jewish-Christians, and Bethlehem in Judea is composed almost exclusively of inhabitants who have been won to accepting Christ; it is a Christian city. In our own country we have been afraid to undertake this mission seriously. Let us back up with our money the men who have seen the vision and are giving their lives to the work.

The Easter Offering as usual will be given to the Episcopal Hospital for maintenance costs. I have spoken so often to you of the splendid work that it is doing that you have perhaps tired of my praise. Let me remind you of just one fact: Kensington is full of poor people; many of the children have diseased or enlarged tonsils that should be removed. When the school authorities send them home with a note telling their parents that these children will develop heart disease or some other organic disorder unless their tonsils are removed, the parents are willing enough to have the child undergo the operation, but they cannot afford the cost. So your hospital has set the total fee at $7.00 (including hospital bed; operation; anesthetic; nurses' care; lodging for two days, and use of the operating room). As a result, we have swarms of children passing through the hospital, saved to longer usefulness and service. Of course, the $7.00 fee does not come anywhere near to paying for the total costs, but it is all that many people can afford and the hospital depends on our generosity to make up the difference. Surely on the Feast when we commemorate everlasting life, it is appropriate that we should express our thankfulness by helping the needy to get more out of this life (this portion of everlasting life). Make your Easter offering generous!

Owing to our sewing being almost completed, the women of the Church will not sew on Maundy Thursday, but we will expect all the workers out the following Thursday, April 9th, to make choir garments, and to finish odds and ends of Supply Bureau work.

This afternoon at half past three o'clock we will have our Church School Carol Service. We want all who can, both young and old, to be present; the service will last about an hour and will consist of Carol singing, presenting Mite-boxes, and a short address by the Rector. Come.

The offering this morning will be sent to the Episcopal Hospital for running expenses. Someone might ask, "Why have hospitals run by Christian groups?" The answer is, "Because otherwise there would be no place for most of the people who took sick; other hospitals could take care of only a few of those who need hospitalization; there are so many people who need hospital care and so few beds in proportion." God cares for men's bodies as well as their souls; the ministry of healing is as potent as the ministry of preaching with words. But all this requires nursing, and skill and food and medicine and bandages and a thousand other things. These in turn cost money—much money. So all simmers down to the question: "Do we care enough for the needy to help pay for their physical welfare?" The answer of course is, "We do!" And the proof of our sincerity will be evidenced by our gifts for maintenance. On this glad Easter Day give vent to your Easter joy by being generous to your hospital—that it in turn may be generous to all.

Tomorrow afternoon, Easter Monday, from 5 to 6 o'clock, in the Parish House will be held the annual election of four members of our Vestry, and on Wednesday, at 8 P. M., the Vestry will meet for reorganization.

A Missionary Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will be held next Thursday, April 9. Luncheon will be served at 12.30. The speaker will be Miss Margaret Marshall, who has worked in the mountain district of South Carolina. The delegates to the Domestic Committee will be hostesses.

On the same day, from 11 A. M. till 3 P. M., there will be a Food Sale of homemade breads, cakes, pies, desserts, preserves, candies, etc. Will every woman of the Auxiliary make a special effort to be either a donor or a customer or both, in order that the returns from this sale will be really worth while? On the Bulletin Board in the Green Room is a list of foods that can be ordered in advance of the sale.

My Dear People: One of the fine things about the Easter season is the fact that it brings the subject of death and what happens after death out into the sunlight where it belongs, giving it a naturalness and an appropriateness that it does not seem to possess at other times. Usually we shy away from the subject, regarding it as gruesome, "something that we'd rather not think or talk about," but at this season of the year, when nature brings to our attention new life in the trees and plants that seemed so dead all winter long, thus acting out a parable of life after death for us, the subject takes on a new aspect, becoming natural and appropriate.

But, whether we like it or not, there are times other than at Easter when we are compelled to think on the subject. There are times when we are philosophers by compulsion. The theme confronts us and demands an answer.

And the answer that men usually give is, "Yes; when a man dies he does live again." Never yet has there been found a clan, tribe, or nation anywhere that did not believe in life after death. Men everywhere look forward to living on. God has so constituted men's hearts that they instinctively look forward to another life after this one is over. The argument from universal consent means much.

But what man longs for is not a possibility or even a probability, but a fact. Unless he has that he will become like Cicero, who wrote a most beautiful and persuasive book on immortality and then went to pieces when his own daughter died. Men need more than a "hope to goodness" it's true; they need something tangible to moor their beliefs on.

And thanks be to God, we have it. We have it in the fact of the continued living of our Lord Christ, which we commemorate today.

Have you ever thought of the cumulative mass of evidence that we have for accepting the fact of Jesus' resurrection? Take just one line of thought —the change in the attitude of Jesus' disciples that came about on that first Easter when He showed Himself to them and persuaded them that one lives after death. What happened that day made them over and changed them forever. These men were not hysterical enthusiasts willing to believe anything that coincided with their wishes; as they appear in the narratives previous to this great event, they were eminently practically minded men, inclined to the full measure of scepticism that usually accompanies men of that type. But after Easter they stand forth as men to whom the Easter faith in the living Christ would have been impossible without the Easter fact that He had risen from the dead. The first preaching of the Gospel was concerning Jesus and the resurrection, and that in Jerusalem, itself.

So our faith rests not on a wistful hope but on a fact: the fact that on Easter Day many years ago our Lord Christ confirmed the longing for life to persist beyond the grave by coming back into the lives of men and proving it.

May the knowledge of this fact comfort you when you are cast down, and at this happy Easter season fill your hearts with Easter joy.

Faithfully, Your Friend and Rector,

Charles Edward Eder

The sermon on Easter morning was based on the question of Job 14:14—"If a man die shall he live again?"—and the preacher, in answering the question, in reality did little more than amplify the argument as contained in the editorial in the Easter Parish News. His answer might be summed up in the illustration with which he closed his sermon, which we give herewith: In the main street of Chamounix, under the very shadow of Mont Blanc, stands a monument commemorative of the first ascent of the mountain in 1787. The figure of the Genevan naturalist, de Saussure, is standing erect, looking up at the mountain itself, and one look at his face tells the onlooker what is in his heart.

Beside him, bent over with eagerness, is the guide Jacques Balmat, who in the previous year had made his way to the summit. One of his hands is pointing the way up, and one who tarries a moment by the side of the monument can almost hear him saying to the other, as he stands there, gripped by the grandeur and the challenge of the monarch of the Alps: "Come, I've been up there: I know the way; don't be afraid; follow me, and we'll go together."

So our Lord comes to each one of us as we catch sight of the heights beyond life and question the possibility of our being able to attain them. His hand rests in comradeship and encouragement upon our shoulder; His outstretched arm points out the climbing paths ahead; His voice speaks, quiet but confident, in our ear: "Come, I've been up there: I know the way; don't be afraid; follow me, and we'll go together."

On Tuesday, March 31, the Rector read the Burial Office at the Chelten Hills Cemetery for Samuel Benton Beck, aged eighty-seven, who died on March 28th at Drexel Hill. The body was cremated. On Monday, April 6, he read the Office for James W. Mills, of 7125 Cresheim Road, who died on April 4. Interment was made in Virginia.

On Easter Even, at 4.30, the Rector, assisted by Mr. Irwin, baptized the following children:

(1) Richard Stanley Thornton, born December 31, 1930. Parents: Stanley L. Thornton and Bernice W. Fooks Thornton; godparents: John J. Mitchell, Jr., H. Edward Jefferson, and Kathryn G. Fooks.

(2) Elmer Lindsley Sullivan; son of Robert E. and Marion F. Lindsley Sullivan. He was born on November 3, 1930; his godparents are: Colonel E. Lindsley, George Parker, and Mrs. George Parker.

(3) Alfred James Snyder; son of Alfred James and Rebecca Hall Stout Snyder. He was born February 9, 1925; his godparents are Monroe B. Snyder, Morris A. Stout, and Mrs. Morris A. Stout.

(4) Richard Douglas Bornman, born April 21, 1925, son of Walter H. and Elsie E. Borman; his godparents are Douglas Leese, Redding Bornman, and Anna L. Wiswell.

(5) Donald Redding Bornman, born December 30, 1922; son of Walter H. and Elsie E. Bornman; his godparents are Douglas Leese, Redding Bornman, and Anna L. Wiswell.

Tomorrow evening, at 8 o'clock, in Holy Trinity Parish House, 217 South Twentieth Street, Philadelphia, will be held the closing session of all the Mission Study classes of the Diocese for this season. This does not mean that only those who have attended this year's Mission Study classes are invited; all are invited, and the program has been made particularly attractive to induce others also to attend. The speaker will be L. B. Franklin, Vice-President of the National Council and its Treasurer. The offering that will be taken will be used for the advance work. Our own Mission Study class offering amounts to more than $36.00, and we are pleased that we have done so well. The classes this year in many ways have been most satisfactory, and we feel that they were well worth while. We hope that many will attend tomorrow evening's meeting.

At the annual election of Vestrymen held on Easter Monday, April 6th, the following named gentlemen were re-elected for a term of three years: William F. Fell, William F. Wagner, John E. Greaves, Albert C. Brand.

Several have asked how many were present at the various services on Easter Day. Here are the figures: 6 A. M., 56; 7.30 A. M., 130; 10.30 A. M., 52; 11 A. M., 632; 3.30 P. M., 430—making a total for the day of 1,300. There were 404 persons who made their communions. The attendance was larger than on any day we have any record of, surpassing last year by more than 125. Best of all, the number communicating was much larger than before.

Today we change back from Sunday evening to Sunday afternoon services—there will be no more Sunday evening services this season. The afternoon services are lovely: few attend; we who do give much and get much. We'd like to have you enjoy them with us.

For more than a year now we have been without a Bulletin Board. The one that used to stand in front of the church, announcing the hours of service and welcoming strangers in, served faithfully and well for many years, but being made of wood, gradually rotted away, was patched up from time to time, and finally, in a terrific wind storm more than a year ago, was dashed to pieces and ruined beyond repair. Since then we have had no outdoor Bulletin Board.

And we are very anxious to replace it.

Dignified publicity needs no protagonist these days; advertising has justified its existence. The Rectory telephone is frequently "busy" answering inquiries concerning hours of service, and even strangers stop at the Rectory from time to time to ask what church ours is and whether they would be welcome at its services. In addition, on such a busy corner as ours a good-looking Notice Board speaks a message to many who otherwise have little contact with the Christian Church. Sometimes a seed sown by such a board brings forth a rich harvest. Perhaps some passing motorist in days to come will read something on our Board that will change his whole viewpoint and bring him ultimately to the Christ. We need the Board sorely.

The trouble is, the kind of Bulletin Board that we have in mind will cost a little more than $300. Mr. Irwin, who is an expert in church publicity, and who for many years has made a study of the subject of Church Bulletin Boards, has drawn up plans embodying his ideas and had a model made by one of the best known manufacturers in this country. When we succeed in obtaining it, it will be automatically lighted at sundown and darkened before midnight, will have space for printed notices, and be plainly visible to passing motorists, that he who runs may read. In addition, it will be good looking and fit into the grouping of our buildings. There is a photograph of the board in the hands of the Buildings and Grounds Committee.

The Vestry have voted their approval of having a new Bulletin Board, and all that we need now is for somebody to come forward and offer to give it as a thankoffering for some extraordinary blessing from God, or as a worthy and lasting memorial to some loved one who has entered Paradise. Inasmuch as the exterior will be of enduring metal, the gift should last for several lifetimes.

Won't you take this to heart and think it over? Perhaps you who are reading this are the one who will give it.

At the Reorganization Meeting of the Vestry on Wednesday in Easter Week, April 8, the Rector reappointed Mr. Horace Fortescue to the position of Rector's Warden; the Vestry re-elected Mr. Pratt Thompson to the position of Accounting Warden, Mr. Albert C. Brand to the position of Secretary of the Vestry, and Mr. John E. Greaves to the position of Registrar. The following Committees were appointed: Music, Messrs. Meehan, Brand, and Sibson; Buildings and Grounds, Messrs. Fell, Ball, and Allsop; Memorials, Messrs. Fortescue, Thompson, and Ball; Church School, Messrs. Meehan, White and Wagner; Finance, Messrs. Fortescue, Thompson, Greaves, Brand, and Ball; Missionary, Messrs. Ball, Wagner, White.

On Wednesday, April 8, the Rector officiated at the funeral of Sarah Ann (Mrs. J. Franklin) Meehan, of 400 Vernon Road. Mrs. Meehan died on April 3d and was interred at Boehm's Church Yard, Blue Bell, Pa.

Do not forget that services next Sunday will be held on Daylight Saving Time—one hour earlier than Eastern Standard Time.

We have the Cup! A basketball team representing our Young People's Fellowship has been playing in a city-wide League all winter. Last week they played two games for the championship against the team representing St. Paul's Memorial Church, Fifteenth and Porter Streets, and won both! These were the finals, and now our team is champion! We are very happy over it. Much credit is due to Mr. Henry Schimpf, who coached our team, and to the Men's Service League of Grace Church, who fitted them out with suits and basket-ball. Our Fellowship is naturally elated at the honor, and we rejoice with them.

We have just had an S. O. S. from the City Mission calling for baby clothes, underwear for children, clothes for boys and girls, thin dresses for women, and suits for men. Please see if you have any clothes to meet this appeal and leave them in the Parish House. We'll forward them quickly.

Last Sunday morning the Rector preached from the text taken from 1 Cor. 15: 58, emphasizing the word "therefore." Said he: "This morning I want you to realize with me what a tremendous difference this confidence that we have in a future life makes to us along three lines: Satisfaction of mind arising from the realization that this world isn't a snare and a delusion, but has a meaning and a worthwhile purpose for every individual inhabiting it; weighty reasons for being righteous; and power, poise, and courage when someone you love dies."

Expanding these points, he went on to point out many of the manifest inequalities and injustices of life, reminding his hearers that all men are not born equal, but start off with varying handicaps. Wicked men prosper and seem to go out of life happy, while good saints so often are under the harrow. If the returns were all in when a man died, then this world would seem to a thinking person like a crazy treadmill or a maniac's dream rather than the creation of a loving Father. But, since Christ giveth us victory in our knowledge of life on into another sphere of existence, THEREFORE—"one's labor is not in vain in the Lord."

"Besides, if when you're dead you're dead and that's all there's to it," then how futile all living would be! Scientists tell us that millions of years hence this earth will freeze up and every living creature upon it will die. It, itself, will become as cold and inanimate as the lonely moon that we see floating purposelessly around and around in the sky. How futile then would be the fact that men had once lived upon it. All the heroisms of its great discoverers; all the courage of its saviors; all the travail of its thinkers who had burned the midnight oil in searching out its secrets; all the sacrifices of its physicians and other noble ones would be as though they had not been. Everything that had been fought for and thought out and sacrificed for would have ended just as if it had never existed. And the lonely earth would go on as if nothing had ever happened upon it."

"Again," urged he, "think what a powerful reason one has for wanting to be good when he knows that his character will live on forever. On the contrary, if 'when you're dead you're dead and that's all there's to it,' why should one be unselfish or sacrifice for the good of the generations that are to come? Some of us would still try to make the world better for our having lived in it, but most men would agree with the hopeless men whose motto St. Paul quoted: 'Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.' Belief in one's own immortality is one of the best reasons for developing such depth of character that one will be pleased to move on into another world where character will mean so much."

"Finally," reminded he, "think of the difference this Christian confidence in life beyond the grave makes when someone you love dies. Instead of going on as one without hope, the Christian girds up his loins, holds up his head, and marches bravely forward, resolved to lead such a good life that when God shall call him home he will be found worthy to join the blessed ones who have gone before. It is during days of poignant bereavement that one appreciates most the glad Easter message that Jesus gave us in that He lived on after death."

"Having thought of these things," said the Rector, "one can go on with St. Paul in his thought, rejoice with him, and understand his admonition when he said, 'Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.'"

On Monday, April 13th, the Rector read the Burial Office for William Saylor Powell, who lived at 2326 N. 20th Street, and died on April 9th. Interment was made at Ivy Hill.

On Tuesday, April 14th, the Rector read the Burial Office for Melville Whitaker Fuller, one of our own communicants, who died on April 11th. Interment was made at West Laurel Hill.

On Friday, April 17th, Mr. Irwin read the Burial Office for Charles E. Welsh, of 25th Street and Lehigh Avenue, who died on April 13th. Cremation and interment were at Chelten Hills.

On April 17th the Rector officiated at the wedding of Augustus Moody Burt and Ruby Haskins Ellis, in Grace Church.

This afternoon, in Christ Church, Tulpehocken and McCallum Streets, Germantown, will be held the Presentation Service, for our district, of the Children's Lenten Offering. The hour will be three o'clock, and the Speakers will be our own Bishop Taitt and Dr. A. M. Sherman, of New York City. We hope that many of our Church School pupils will be present.

Two important dates for the women of this congregation to mark down on their calendars as definite engagements are:

Tuesday, May 5, the Birthday Party.

Tuesday, May 12, the Stated Meeting.

If any are interested in summer conferences, they are invited to attend a meeting on the subject at St. Stephen's Community House, Tenth Street below Market, on April 30th. Exhibit at 6 P. M.; supper at 6.30 P. M.; meeting at 8 P. M.

Ascension Day is one of the most important holy days in the year. Because it comes forty days after Easter and consequently falls on Thursdays, its importance is forgotten and its message is unheeded. This ought not so to be. In order to make it possible for many to attend service on Ascension Day, your Rector is scheduling two celebrations of the Holy Communion this year—one at 6.30 and another at 9.30 A. M. Won't you try to attend one of these services?

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of this week will be Rogation Days—days on which the faithful are urged to pray for God's blessings on the labors of farmers and for such seasonable weather as will insure bountiful harvests in the autumn.

Sometimes the need for such prayers does not come to us with such force as it should this year. Sometimes, because many of us are removed from direct contact with the soil and its culture, we tend to forget that in addition to all that man has to do to secure ample crops, there is necessary the cooperation of Almighty God if the harvests of the world are to be ample and varied.

This year none of us should need to be reminded of this fact; last summer's extended dry spell already is costing our government—which means us—millions of dollars in drought-relief. Thousands of the farmers in our own land have had to be supported over the winter and supplied with working capital this spring in order to be enabled to plow and plant again. In addition, the poverty of our farmers has added to the economic depression that we have been going through and rendered it even more acute. We have had it brought home to us on many sides that we are not running the universe and that we are dependent upon our Heavenly Father, literally, for our daily bread.

If the extended drought of last summer does nothing more than result in a fresh apprehension of this truth, then it will not have been in vain. In spite of the hardships that the withholding of rain entailed, it will have been well worth while. Our ultimate gain in the spiritual realm will more than compensate for our loss in the physical realm.

Thus the Rogation Days this week should find us in responsive mood. When tomorrow and Tuesday and Wednesday come, the experience of last year and the fact that even so far this year our rainfall has been below normal should together send us to our knees, so that corporately all over the land God's children will be found acknowledging their dependence upon Him, and beseeching Him to provide such seasonable weather that the labors of the husbandman will be blessed, and at Thanksgiving time we may meet together to thank Him wholeheartedly for these and all His other mercies.

As your Rector and spiritual leader I urge you to pray the Rogation petitions on the days appointed. You will find a sample prayer, hallowed and purged by the usage of centuries, on page 39 of the Book of Common Prayer. Use it and add to it your own. And may our good God heed our prayer!

On Friday of last week, May 1, at 12 o'clock noon, the Rector read the Office for the Burial of the Dead for one of our long-time communicants, Mrs. Susan Ingles Darlington, who died on April 28th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Burk, at 42 East Gowen Avenue. The service was held in Grace Church, and interment was made at Ivy Hill Cemetery. May God continue to bless her abundantly!

Quite a good-sized delegation from Grace Church School was present at the presentation of the Lenten Offering at Christ Church, Germantown, on April 26th. We turned over to Bishop Taitt $346.15—not a large sum in quantity, but a very large sum when viewed from the standpoint of the sacrifices and love it embodied. Therefore we are proud of it. The gift of all the children of the diocese is used for sustaining the general work of the Church, both in our own diocese and in the Church-at-large.

On Thursday of this week we hope to have almost every teacher of our school attend a meeting at St. Luke's Parish House, Germantown, for a conference with Mr. Edwin W. Adams, an Associate Superintendent of the Philadelphia Board of Education. Evening Prayer at 5.30; supper at 6.30, and Conference at 7.30. The Rector would like to have every officer and teacher tell him today that he is going, in order that he may reserve places at supper as his guests.

Tomorrow evening is the date set for our next Social Evening for Men in the Parish House. The hour is set at eight o'clock. An informal talk on banking will be given by Mr. Horace Fortescue, and still-pictures of some of the scenes at last June's picnic will be shown by Mr. Albert C. Brand. Every man who reads this is invited to come and bring some friends. Refreshments will be served. Come!

We had such a good time on our first picnic down the Delaware River last year that we are going to repeat it on Saturday, June 20th. Mr. William H. Hanna is in charge of arrangements, and this is a preliminary notice to acquaint you with the fact that there is to be a picnic and to urge you to set aside the date now.

On the day after tomorrow, Tuesday of this week, the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will hold its Spring Stated Meeting. Luncheon will be served at 12.30, and the business meeting will follow. Let every woman who reads this come!

Whitsunday means nothing at all to many church people; if you were to ask many of the members of our Communion what Whitsunday commemorates and why we observe it, you would find that the majority of your hearers would have to hesitate and think for quite a while before they would be able to make a reply.

And I believe that they would be somewhat ashamed of their ignorance and frankly acknowledge it; but, on the other hand, I do not believe that they would be ashamed enough to go out and find out once for all the true significance of the day, so that if ever again they were to think the word "Whitsunday," they would immediately think not of the word, but of the things that it connotes. This is typical of many church people. There are any number of Christians who bemoan their own lack of knowledge as to what the Church believes and teaches, but when one offers them interesting books to remedy their defect, or offers them confirmation instructions in which these things are brought out and discussed, they never have time to pay attention. As a result, the church year passes them by without touching them as it should, and instead of getting the joy and comfort out of the orderly seasons that have justified their observance by the winnowing influence of centuries of careful Christian practice, they look longingly off to modern substitutes, such as "Mother's Day," "Be-kind-to-animals Sunday," etc., because they find in these new observances truths that they do understand.

Now all this is wrong. How can one hope to enter into the Church's life unless he understands what the events in its life are about? How could one enter into the life of an earthly family unless he understood something of the background of that family—its happy anniversaries and sorrowful commemorations? It just couldn't be done! For one cannot enter into that which one does not understand.

What, then, is Whitsunday and what is its significance?

First of all, it is, in the Church's eyes, on a par with Christmas and Easter, one of the three great festivals of the year. It is one of the days on which the Church urges every communicant to partake of the Lord's Supper. It stands in honor above Trinity, Epiphany, Thanksgiving, and all great days in the year except Christmas and Easter. In time to come, if church people will some time grasp its truths, there will be three great church anniversaries every year, and Whitsunday will stand on an equality with the Feast of the Incarnation and the Feast of the Resurrection.

"What does it commemorate?" It commemorates the coming of God's Spirit afresh into the lives of the Apostles. They were gathered together in a room on the Jewish Feast of Pentecost; they had been promised by the Lord Christ that they would shortly be endowed with wisdom and strength from heaven; they understood that this event would be marked by some supernatural sign. And while they were in this expectant and receptive mood, suddenly the house in which they were was shaken mightily; flame-like tongues of fire hovered over the head of each of them; they were filled with a new spirit, and from that time on they were changed men—as different from the Peter and James and John of old as any persons could be. From now on, men took knowledge of them "that they had been with Jesus."

That was the fact of Whitsunday. But an even greater event emerged from the fact: the Christian Church in visible form was born on that day. Eleven men with God that day began the organism which we call the Church. Following the teachings of their Master, they united themselves into a visible body whose central rites were Holy Baptism and the Supper of the Lord, and whose officers were known as Bishops, Priests, and Deacons. As time went on, under the guidance of their heavenly Father, they worked out the details of their organization, together with a well-rounded-out scheme of church life; always, as the New Testament and profane writers remind us, meeting together on the first day of the week for the Breaking of Bread. During the first century no one would even have thought of calling himself a Christian who was not a member of the visible body—the Church. Nor would any Christian have dreamed of even allowing himself to think such a traitorous thought as, "I don't believe in missions." Under the guidance of God and as a result of their own enthusiastic witnessing for Christ, they spread over all the world until, in process of time, they included us. It is because of their vision and zeal and self-sacrificing that you and I know the Christ.

So Whitsunday is a great day. It commemorates more than you and I feebly sense. When you come to your communion, then, next Sunday, let all these remembrances dwell in your consciousness, and as a result you will be filled with grateful praise for these and God's many other mercies.

GARDEN PARTY AND COUNTRY FAIR

AT WYCK, GERMANTOWN AVENUE AND WALNUT LANE

Thursday, May 28th, from 11 A. M. to 8 P. M.

Supper, 5 to 7.30 — Ticket, including admission, $1.00

In case of rain, the Fair and Supper will be held at Christ Church Parish House, Tulpehocken and McCallum Streets. Grace Church will be in charge of the White Elephant table.

The Men's Service League will meet on Monday, May 25, at 7.30 P. M., at the Parish House for a trip through the Pennsylvania Institute for the Deaf, on Germantown Avenue at Gowen. Every man in the community should know about this great work going on almost at our doors. This trip will provide an opportunity. Plan to come with us.

Lest you forget, may we remind you again that the annual picnic, under the auspices of the Men's Service League, will be held on June 20th? All children will be taken free of charge. Adults, 50 cents for the return trip. June 20th!! Riverview Beach.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will hold a Rummage Sale in Germantown, on Friday, June 5. By "rummage" they mean clothes, books, pictures, household articles; in fact, anything that you no longer want to keep, but some one else might have use for. Bring your rummage to the Parish House or telephone that you have some.

The women also are appealing for "white elephants" for the "Wyck" Fair. By "white elephants" is meant particularly attractive books, games, bric-a-brac, lamps, necklaces, etc., which you have grown tired of and which someone else would enjoy having. Leave "white elephants" at the Rectory, or telephone Mrs. Eder at the Rectory.

On Wednesday, June 3d, our choir will sing an Operette. It will be given in the Parish House, and is entitled, "The Vagabonds." At this performance our Male Chorus will make its first public appearance. The money made will be used for camping equipment.

There will be a Card Party at the Woman's Club of Germantown on Wednesday, June 3, to make possible the purchase of some new equipment for the kitchen. Tickets 50 cents. Please come!

Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday of this week are Ember Days—i. e., days on which the prayers of the faithful are asked for those about to be ordained to Holy Orders. Suitable prayers will be found on pages 38 and 39 of the Book of Common Prayer.

"I believe in Jesus Christ; He ascended into heaven," was the theme of the Rector's sermon last Sunday morning. After narrating the New Testament facts circling about the Ascension of our Lord, he asked, "Why the Ascension? Why was it expedient for the disciples and for us that He go away?"

Confessing that even now it is difficult to understand what was in the Master's mind when He predicted the beneficent value of the Ascension, the preacher pointed out three reasons that seem to indicate the expediency of the Ascension.

Said he: "(1) If the conditions of the Forty Days had been perpetuated, then Jesus' presence in one place at a time would have indicated His absence from all others at that time. All men who believed in Him would flock to the place where He was to be found in visible presence, but when they were later compelled to leave, they would have been all the lonelier as a consequence.

"(2) Instead of working out our own salvation with His help, we would have leaned upon Him entirely for all important decisions, going to Him to settle every problem. Thus we would have remained weak and childish, lacking character. For character is not thus formed. Even we have to send our children forth and have them learn to take the initiative by forming their own judgments and solving their own problems. Thus a child learns when it is safe and when unsafe to cross streets; how to take care of money, and how to learn its lessons. Even so our heavenly Father develops us by sending us forth and then standing behind and encouraging, but not in making up our minds for us. He is present with us in Spirit, but not in visible form. As a result we co-operate with Him not by passing our problems over to Him to solve, but by doing the best we can and leaving the rest to him to straighten out.

"(3) The Ascension was expedient for us in that it prevented worship of His body, substituting instead worship of His spirit. Thus all places were near to Him and He in turn was and is near to man everywhere and at all times. He went away that He might be near. So the Apostles after the Ascension went forth in all directions to evangelize the world, strong in the knowledge that this same Jesus who had ascended in their sight was with them, guiding, encouraging, and inspiring, and in that Spiritual Presence they found compensation for the Ascension."

On Sunday the Rector baptized Nancy McDaniel, born September 5, 1929, daughter of Delaplaine and Charlotte Wilkinson McDaniel. The godparents are Margaret Wilkinson Hassold and her father and mother.

At the same service the Rector baptized Carolyn Isbell, of 7111 Boyer Street, born October 5, 1929, daughter of George W. and Lottie L. Isbell. Her godparents are Mrs. Harry W. Kingsley and Mr. and Mrs. Horace C. Williams.

The Social Service work that has to be done in a parish as large as ours is considerable in quantity. On the other hand, very few people even know that such work is being done, because our Social Service Committee has no desire to exalt itself by holding up to attention the names and needs of the needy who are under its care. Their aim is to rehabilitate those who come to them and treat them as deserving friends momentarily in need of personal service.

The work that this committee does differs in character, varying from visiting shut-ins and sending convalescents to homes, to supplying clothes for the ill clad and securing institutional care for the needy.

This year, as one could well imagine, the calls on its treasury have been particularly exacting. And their treasury is never overwell supplied. The manner in which they gather money is by making appeals from time to time in the PARISH NEWS, by sending out letters to former subscribers, and by giving generously themselves. Their appeals go forth three times a year—in May, October, and February. They are sending them out now.

This brief notice of commendation and explanation from your Rector is to catch the attention of those who have not yet given and who desire to give—either by joining the three times a year group; by responding this one time only, or by any other method through which you who read this might like to help.

Mrs. Frank J. Sheble, of 311 Roumfort Road, is the Chairman of the Committee to whom aid may be sent.

Tomorrow evening, at half-past seven o'clock, all the men of the congregation who would like to are invited to meet in front of the Church to go on a visit to the Pennsylvania Institute for the Deaf. Every one in the community should know more concerning the P. I. D., and this is an agreeable way, i. e., by going in a crowd and having a competent guide show us around. Decide now to go with us and bring a friend or two along with you.

Now, while house-cleaning time is here, is a good time to set aside White Elephants for the "Wyck" Fair on May 28th, and rummage for the sale in Germantown on June 5th. Mrs. Dixon is in charge of the latter, and Mrs. Eder, of the former. Telephone them, telling them what you have, or, better still, bring them to the Parish House carefully marked. Mrs. Dixon's telephone is C. H. 2342, and Mrs. Eder's is C. H. 2602. Tickets for the Fair at "Wyck" include admission and supper and cost $1.00. They may be bought from Mrs. E. W. Jenkins.

We neglected to state in last week's PARISH NEWS that the Operette to be given by the Choir on June 3d will cost 50 cents per person admission, and that tickets may be had from any choir boy. Buy yours now!

Also, don't forget the card party at the Woman's Club of Germantown on the same day in the afternoon. The profits will be used to help defray the expenses of some necessary repairs in the kitchen and to add to its equipment.

Today we close our Sunday afternoon services until fall. After today there will be no 4.30 service on Sunday afternoons until October. This is our usual custom, but if ever an increased attendance warrants it, we will continue them later into the summer season and begin them earlier in September.

Preaching last Sunday morning on the text, "I believe in the Holy Ghost," the Rector concluded by pointing out the religion in the doctrine, i. e., its spiritual worth. Said he: "The faith of many Christians is merely historical, a matter of past history. They acknowledge God as the Great First Cause, who many centuries ago brought into being the universe in which they live. In addition, they accept the Lord Jesus as the Redeemer of the world. But there they stop—as if God had ceased His interest in us on Ascension Day 30 A. D. They may not put it as baldly as this; in fact, they may never have reasoned it out to this point, but the truth is that many, many Christians lose the joy of true Christian living by politely bowing God out of His universe at the end of New Testament times.

"Against this defective faith the Church opposes itself constantly and firmly. Her emphasis on God the Holy Spirit, present in the lives of men, is a constant and effective protest against this terrible misconception. She insists that just as God was with Moses and the children of Israel in their erring wanderings through the desert of Sinai, even so God today is with His leaders and His masses in their journey through the visible world. He is the Living God, whose activity is just as real today as it was during the Creation, Incarnation, and Redemption.

"Look into nature," pleaded he, "what do you see? Take the story of the bees as told by Maeterlinck, or Virgil in the 'Georgics' before him, with greater spiritual insight. Each member of the swarm performs his function in the hive with a persistence and worth that are uncanny. The drones which consent to die, the queen depositing the ova of a new generation, the guardian soldiers of the gate, and the busy traffickers of the pollen and the honey, are all individually unintelligent, stupid, like human automata.

Those skilful builders of the cells have not the sense to overcome the slightest unaccustomed obstacle. NOTHING IS MORE CERTAIN THAN THE INTELLIGENCE OF THE HIVE, EXCEPT THE UNINTELLIGENCE OF THE BEES. The unmistakable fact is that there is a soul of the swarm, intelligence which is not in the individual bee, animating and directing the community.

"Just as in studying nature, we find there an Intelligence whose wisdom, contrivance, and power are manifested even in the lives of ephemeral insects, so in studying human nature we find the same thing—the Living God energizing, suggesting, inspiring: the Soul of the universe presiding in and through the lives of individual men. The message of Whitsunday is that God is, that Spirit with Spirit may meet, and that in the right relation to God, well-being consists."

He ended with the prayer of the Minor Benediction, that the fellowship of the Holy Ghost might be with us all. Amen.

Two weeks from today our Church School will close until fall. The closing exercises will be held on June 14th. Last Sunday the Senior Department held its examinations. From the returns already turned in it would seem that the results are quite satisfactory. No one can estimate, however, the value of what has been done in the lives of the pupils. Only God knows that. Judging, however, from the earnestness, faithfulness, and zeal of the teaching and administrative staff, as seen by your Rector, it is very high. May He bless the work that has been done and bring it to a rich harvest!

Already we are feeling the effect of summer on church attendance. Already some of our faithful ones have left for their summer homes, and their vacant places in Church remind us to put their wellbeing into our prayers and to anticipate that Sunday by Sunday more and more of our family will go forth to the four corners of the globe.

There are two requests that your Rector would make of you before you go: First, let no Sunday pass, no matter where you may be, without associating yourselves with others corporately to tell the good God how much you love Him. Spend at least one hour on the first day of the week in corporate worship. Secondly, before you do go away, place your envelopes for the summer, filled, in the alms basin at some service of the Church in order that your gifts may be offered up at the altar and dedicated to Almighty God. The summer months are lean months for the treasury, especially this year, when we are cutting down expenses to the bone. If everyone were to pay up before he went away, the treasurer's onerous tasks would be simplified. It may call for some sacrifice on your part to do this; I am sure that it will not be easy for many of you, but our people are not noted for seeking the easiest way. Will you do it, if you can?

The ending of the season and the coming closing exercises of the Church School remind us again of the coming parish picnic on June 20th. Every member of the Church School, whether pupil or officer, is to be the guest of the Men's Service League. Everyone is invited. All children are to be taken as guests. Won't you come along to help make this a second success? The boat ride will be enjoyable; the outing in the fresh air will be an investment in health and fellowship. If you have not already done so, resolve now to allow nothing to interfere with your coming along. June 20th; Wilson Line; Riverview Beach.

On Wednesday of this week those two social events will be held that we have been telling you about in the PARISH NEWS. In the afternoon will be held the Card Party at the Woman's Club, Germantown, whose profits are to be used for making the kitchen more efficient. This is under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild. In the evening, the Operette, The Vagabonds, will be given in the Parish House, at eight o'clock, by the choir, whose profits will be used for purchasing camping equipment. Tickets cost only 50 cents, and any choir-boy will be glad to sell you one. It will be worth the price of admission just to hear our young men's chorus, who will sing for the public that night for the first time. COME TO BOTH! Even if you cannot come, buy tickets. We'd like to have you do both.

The Parish Picnic will be held on Saturday, June 20th. Come with us!

Preaching last Sunday morning, the Rector took as his theme the idea that the doctrine of the Trinity is the last word that we may know concerning what God is like. Pointing out that from nature we can learn many things about God, he went on to indicate some of the things which we can discover from nature.

Remarking that the human mind is so constituted that it harks back constantly to the cause of things, he showed that this is the first lesson that one learns from nature about God, i. e., that He is the Uncaused Cause. Man finds the presupposition of an Uncaused Cause absolutely necessary to explain phenomena. He looks at nature to find out what God is like, and first of all learns that God is Cause of Causes—the One who started all things.

The next truth with regard to what God is like that comes from observing nature is that He is intelligent—The Great Purposer. All phenomena have reason behind them; all science is built up on the theory that everything that happens has a rational cause. By following this theory, Harvey discovered the circulation of the blood; by accepting it, medical men discover that the human body tends to correct its own ills—nature is on the side of health. So biologists find purposive changes in the structure of plants; so zoölogists find an intelligence of a hive of bees not resident in any individual bee. There is an intelligent purpose back of everything, a reason for everything; and the implication is that this reason was first reasoned out by a Reasoner. God then not only caused the Universe, but still directs it. He is First Cause and ever-present Intelligence.

But more than that, in looking back of nature to its God, one discovers that He loves beauty. Beauty is not an accident; it is the result of studied thought. And one finds beauty everywhere in nature—whether in the moon and stars through a telescope; in the speck of dust or snowflake through a microscope, or anywhere one looks on undisturbed nature with the naked eye. Nature reveals God as caring deeply for beauty.

And more and more historians are coming to realize that the Cause of the Universe cares for goodness. The progress of civilizations, the rise and fall of nations, the growth of institutions, denote the fact that God is on the side of righteousness, helping goodness to live on and seeing to it that the wages of sin is death. There is a moral principle displayed by everything that persists on through the ages. When you study history not by single years, but by decades and centuries, you will find that there is a tendency running through history that makes for amelioration. God is One who cares for goodness and sustains it.

But having reasoned thus far with regard to what God is like as we find Him in nature, we can go no farther. He is the First Cause; is intelligent; loves beauty, and cares for right doing. But when we learn these truths from nature, we have sapped all that she has to tell us about Him.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

Nature does not have a word to say with regard to God's care for the individual. From studying nature one might almost come to believe that He is concerned not at all with individual men, but with improving the race stock. Nature has nothing to tell us, except by analogy, with regard to the future life of mankind. Immortality might be guessed at from nature, but not definitely arrived at as a terminus of thought.

Therefore, when man had gone as far as he unaided could in thinking to God, He became Incarnate, that we might have further revelation. Through our Lord Christ He has revealed Himself as Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier. He has made us to see that we are citizens of a continuing life; that this life is only a piece of what becomes more glorious as it grows on; that God cares for us and understands our trials because He endured them Himself, and that individual life has a purpose and a goal and that you and I count in the eyes of God as one.

Thus the doctrine of God as revealed in Christ, present in the Holy Spirit, is the flower and fruit of revelation.

The Church School will close for the season next Sunday. At 3 P. M. we will hold our closing exercises. There will be no session next Sunday morning; instead, the bus will gather in and return the children in the afternoon.

We hope that many of the congregation will attend the closing exercises, and we urge you to come not only because we feel it is your duty to let your unfailing interest be known, but also, and especially, because we know you will be gladdened and heartened by the evidences of good, honest, fruitful work you will discover.

We have a right to be very proud of our Church School. The Rector has visited many schools, and feels that ours is one of the best. You need feel no hesitancy in recommending it to parents who have children who are unattached.

This does not mean that we are satisfied, for we are not. Our departmental chiefs are constantly weighing plans to improve their responsibilities. But it does mean that we are getting somewhere and that, year by year, we are advancing.

Won't you take this invitation seriously and plan now to be with us next Sunday afternoon at three o'clock?

The Young People's Fellowship held its annual elections last Sunday evening. The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President: Albert Fischer.
Vice-President: Virginia Bave.
Secretary: Richard Gamble.
Corresponding Secretary: Marjorie Hanna.
Treasurer: Robert Fryer.

On next Sunday evening they will meet early, in order to go in a group to visit the Fellowship of Christ Church, Germantown.

On Trinity Sunday, at 4 P. M., the Rector baptized William Connor Wright, Jr., son of William Connor Wright and Josephine Hartshorne Wright, of 7128 Cresheim Road. The newly baptized was born on October 22, 1930, and his sponsors are Isaac Thomas, Marielle Thomas, and Edward Hartshorne.

Here is a statement of how your money has been disbursed since January first. With bills for May Choir Expense, Diocesan Assessments, repairs now under way, taxes, etc., staring us in the face, it can readily be seen we must have substantial receipts if we are to pay our bills this month and we must, of course, take care of our promise to the Diocese each month. There are a few subscribers who are in arrears in their payments and we hope to catch up on most of these during the month. Without this, we must borrow money and pay out interest, which will be unfortunate.

Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday of this week will be Ember Days. You will find appropriate prayers to use on page 38 of the Prayer Book.

Dear People:

The matter of securing enough money from year to year to care for the congregation's annual needs is a trying task.

Perhaps this is so because so many people seem unable to visualize what money really is. It sometimes seems almost hopeless to get the average man and woman to see that money is not merely dollars and cents, but coal to heat the Church; electricity to light it; gasoline to convey the Rector from hospital to sickbed; food and clothing to support splendid, self-sacrificing missionary physicians and nurses; text-books and lesson materials for the Church School; and such everyday commonplace things as washers for faucets and slates for the roof. If a vestry had the time and patience to translate a congregation's needs into such concrete details and then were able to go to each interested person in the congregation and ask him to pay for all or part of the coal, electricity, washers, Church School Bus, or some other thing that has to be paid for each year, I believe that the problem of securing ample funds to meet the running expenses of a Parish would be solved. But such a method would be cumbersome and require more time than the average vestry has at its disposal.

So we have to lump these items, sum them up into a grand total, and ask you to give as much as you should, to balance the budget from year to year.

If more people would give a fixed proportion of their income back to God through His Church; or if more would visualize the Church's needs in terms of coal and electricity, rather than in terms of dollars and cents, ours would not be a task but a report and the result would be splendid. But we have to face life as it is. People have not yet learned to tithe nor to think of the Church's needs in terms of opportunity. As a result, your vestry has to make the need and responsibility clear from year to year.

This year your vestry has decided to canvass regular givers by mail rather than by personal solicitation. They have also decided that after the regular mail returns are in, they will call on those who have neglected to send in their pledges, and also upon others who might feel a responsibility to give. In addition, they intend to write to other interested persons and give them an opportunity of helping in our great work.

Now as to the budget itself: It is printed elsewhere in this paper and you can see that we have cut our expenses to the bone. The worst cut is on the side of givings-outside-the-Parish, and your Finances Committee feels very badly in having to suggest such a course. Their one hope is that those of our people who have employment will be so grateful for it that many of them will increase their pledges and make it possible for us to give more for others than we have put down on paper. God grant that it may be so! In parishes where the canvass has been held already, many people have increased their pledges to make up for those who are out of work and unable to give anything. Grace Church people care for their Parish as deeply as members of other congregations care for theirs, and therefore we confidently look for substantial increases in the majority of pledges.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

I heard of a man recently who was described as "having the same passion for collecting money that some people have for collecting postage stamps, except that he doesn't get rid of duplicates" and that he "had never learned the joy and fun of generous giving." I am sure that no one in Grace Church is like that poor-rich man, but I am also sure that too many still think of giving in terms of "so-many-cents-per-week," rather than in terms of five hundred, or a thousand, or of several thousand dollars per year. I am not exaggerating in naming the large amounts; many should be giving in the hundreds rather than in the tens, and there is still too much feeling that in giving one "is tipping the Church." Perhaps you who read this should be in the hundreds class but have never before realized it. At any rate, ask yourself the question and look on this suggestion not so much as a compliment, as a call to sober and prayerful consideration.

On the other hand, we need the gifts of those who are unable to reach the hundreds-per-year amount. I am sure that many a small amount given today is just as precious in God's eyes as was the mite of the widow in Bible times. And—"many a mickle makes a muckle."

So we leave the matter in your hands, confident of this very thing, that you will consider it prayerfully and meet it generously. You will, won't you?

May God bless you abundantly!

Your friend and Rector,

Charles Edward Eder

This is the first issue of the Parish News for the year 1931-1932. We have refrained from publishing up to this time because we have been trying to keep down expenses. From now on the paper will be issued week by week as in previous years. From time to time we will print data from the Parish Register and hope within a little while to catch up. You will note that your clergy have been busier than ever. That means that our Church is not only ministering to its own but to an increasing number of those in the community who are learning how glad we are to be of service to anyone who needs us and who are turning to us when they are in difficulties. This is as it should be. But it means fewer calls on those who are well by the clergy. We are doing our best but we have just so many hours a day and no more. Please understand, forgive, and remember that if you need us at any hour of the day or night, we are at your service.

Since May your Rector read the Burial Office for the following:

June 26, Herbert V. Steelman, who died on June 24 and was interred at South Laurel Hill.

July 3, Emma L. Earhart, who died on July 2, interment at St. James the Less.

July 14, Edwin Ward Fisler, who died on July 10, interment at West Laurel Hill.

Aug. 3, Thomas Ellicott Gilpin, who died on July 31, interment at West Laurel Hill.

Aug. 8, Philomene P. Meyer, who died on Aug. 6, interment at Ivy Hill.

Sept. 12, Elizabeth Agnes Stumm, who died on Sept. 10, interment at Ivy Hill.

Nov. 3, Lucy M. Saunders, who died on Nov. 1, Cremated.

Nov. 17, Frank M. Ward, who died on Nov. 14, interment at Ivy Hill.

Nov. 23, Irene Milnes Morse, who died on Nov. 20, interment at Ivy Hill.

On June 7 the Rector baptized Jean Elisabeth Malony, born Nov. 11, 1930, parents, Ronald Allen and Elisabeth Loxly Malony. Godparents were John and Laura Adelaide Mackin.

On June 28, Norman Maitland Wilson, Jr., born March 24, 1931, son of Norman M. and Amelia M. Wilson. Godparents, Helen Caroline Smith and Wm. David Deely.

On October 25, John Jenkins Scott, born July 2, son of Wm. Maxwell and Irene Jenkins Scott. Godparents, Theodore F. Brooks, Emily Brooks, Egerton Sawtelle.

On Nov. 22, Wm. Meehan Insinger, Jr., born Nov. 6, 1931, son of Wm. Meehan and Dorothy Rupp Insinger. Godparents, S. M. Meehan and Ada Chandler.

Taking as his text the words of Jeremiah 16: 14 and 15 (Jeremiah's prophecy, "Ye shall no more say the Lord liveth that brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt but the Lord liveth that brought up from the land of the north"), the Rector last Sunday morning preached on "The Living God." After defending Jeremiah against a common misunderstanding that he was a man who enjoyed being gloomy, the preacher pointed out that in reality Jeremiah was a prophet of the dawn. It was inevitable that such a seer should recognize the midnight darkness that surrounded him, for he lived at the most tragic moment of his nation's history; but in spite of the blackness he was able to pierce through and discern the first glimmerings of dawn. The text is an example of that discernment.

The Rector continued by pointing out that Jeremiah was not worried for fear that Israel in their Babylonian exile would forget God; his one concern was lest their despair keep their memories in the past tense, rather than the present. They were arguing among themselves that in the good old times God had manifested Himself in most remarkable ways by coming to the aid of His people and bringing them out of their imprisonment in the land of Egypt, but that in these days He seemed unconcerned about their welfare.

"Stop!" shouted Jeremiah. "It is true that God led our fathers forth from Egypt but during those trying days it would have been hard to get the average Israelite to acknowledge it; it was only many years after the events transpired that they saw His hand in that delivery. So God is active today. His hand is in the affairs of men just as much now as it has ever been. The days will come when you, also, will see it. Ye shall no more say, 'The Lord liveth that did so and so in the past,' but 'the Lord liveth that did so and so in our own affairs.'"

"If Jeremiah were in this pulpit this morning," continued the preacher, "he would repeat the same message to us, for God is not a God of the dead but of the living." So many of us look back at Jesus' day, or Apostolic days, or St. Francis' days or Mediæva days and feel that if we could have lived in those ages of faith we would have discerned God's hand moving across the face of time, but it is impossible to discern any such activity today. In these trying days of economic distress God seems far off and uninterested; but God does not change; He is the Living God and the days will come when ye shall no more say, "The Lord liveth that did so and so, thousands of years ago, but the Lord liveth that led us through the troubled waters of 1930 and 1931 and 1932."

Christianity is not like last year's bird's nest, interesting for what it once contained but having nothing vital in it today. You cannot judge it from the outside. But if you come on in and allow God to speak, you will find that "God who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in times past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these latter days spoken unto us." He is The Living God.

Your Clergy Wish You A Holy Christmas

You will find the list and hours of Christmas Services in the Calendar printed on the reverse side. These will be of the same nature and at the same hours as last year. They are so arranged that everyone can attend. We emphasize the 3.30 Christmas Eve Carol Service and the Christmas Eve Midnight Service, but also provide celebrations of Holy Communion at 6, 7.30, and 9.30 A. M., Christmas Day.

Let everyone make his communion at one of these services.

The offering at the Christmas services will be used to pay off the $2,000 debt that we have accumulated since January first. This debt was caused by the fact that many of our congregation who had pledged themselves to give generously and regularly had to cancel their subscriptions because they got out of work or because their money was tied up in one of the many bank failures. The fault is not theirs nor ours. When times brighten up, they will make it up. We have told them "not to worry about it; to turn their whole attention to rehabilitating their own affairs—that we would get along somehow." We are sure that you approve of this policy.

BUT, we feel their misfortunes keenly not only in our sympathy, but also in the fact that we have had to borrow money from the bank. It is unusual and embarrassing for us to have to do this. We don't want to start a new year in debt.

So—we are trying to find a way out, and the way out that we have chosen is this: to use the Christmas offerings for wiping out our debt and to ask you to be generous in your offerings.

Please!

Since May your Rector officiated at the marriages of the following:

On June 20, William Sutherland Fort and Valda Catherine Chapin.
On June 24, Clarence J. Wilson and Hannah E. Kaufman.
On July 10, Edward Brown and Evelyn Green.
On July 18, Warren S. Tyler and Edith Eichmann.
On September 12, Stanley Anderson French and Katherine Conrow.
On October 9, Wesley Clarke Clark and Frances Grace Stiles.
On October 10, Griffith Stansbury Miller and Frances Annabelle Allen.
On November 23, Allison Lloyd Sickels and Natalie Rose Jackson.
On Nov. 27, Douglas Eugene Dismukes, Jr., and Nancy Stokes Coleman.

The Nominating Committee of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild have posted the name of Mrs. Stephen L. Newnham as their candidate for President, and Miss Edith A. Fell as their candidate for Treasurer, at the coming election.

The Workroom of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will be closed until Thursday, January 7, 1932.

Contributions for Christmas baskets will be gratefully received by Mrs. Sheble on or before Tuesday, December 22.

Taking as his text Emmanuel, "God with us," the Rector last Sunday morning preached on the theme that God is with us and that His presence is to be discerned in various ways. "For instance," said he, "we know that God is on the side of health and that when injury or disease offends the body, then a something which we may call 'the tendency to get better' gets to work and does all that it can to restore the patient to fulness of health. Physicians, surgeons, all who tend the human body, rely on this tendency. Without it we could not live."

So in history one can discern an impulse toward good, working itself out. The story of mankind is not to be explained by the dismal rising and falling of nations and civilizations, but by the progressive gifts that each of these added to the common good of all mankind. To be concrete, the history of Philadelphia is not to be explained in terms of political régimes, machines and machinations, and in their rise and fall, but in terms of its Frankin, its Weir Mitchell, its Conwell, its Bok, and its Binney. After the same fashion, the present-day world of human relations is not to be interpreted in terms of its Capones and racketeers, but in its Ramsay MacDonald, its Jane Hull, and its President Butler.

Jesus taught this "God with us" and in His human contacts used the knowledge to lift men up to higher levels. With Zaccheus, with the woman taken in adultery, with the Syro-Phoenician woman, he pointed out this truth that God really IS in us, opening their eyes to discern what they had in them to become, and by pointing out the power of God within them, giving them power to become Sons of God.

"God with us"—Emmanuel—does not mean "Gott mit Uns" in a narrow and selfish sense; on the contrary, it means that the Immanent God is a common possession and that one does not need to go on a journey to find God: one appropriates Him as the lungs appropriate the pressure of the air and as the swimmer appropriates the forces of the waters surrounding him.

He is the Living and Apprehensible God, Emmanuel!

"A picket frozen on duty—
A mother starved for her brood—
Socrates drinking the hemlock,
Jesus on the rood.
And millions who humble and nameless
The straight hard pathway plod,
Some call it consecration,
And others call it God."

Here are some suggestions for New Year's resolutions by Orlo Price:

1. I will quit peering around for prosperity, do my own job better than ever before, live as normally as possible, and keep from talking about my losses.
2. I will take an interest in more people, hoping to enter helpfully into their lives.
3. I will give up trying to get rich and learn instead the art of living.
4. I will not limit my giving to money, but give myself to every possible good cause.
5. I will grow a richer inner life and not be so dependent upon the favors of others.
6. I will take my stand on moral issues, even though I may lose a customer, a client, or a friend.
7. I will work with my fellow men, even when I do not agree with them one hundred per cent.
8. I will set my mind to work and keep it working, and feed it, that it may work better.
9. Believing that I am part of the cause of the present breakdown in society, I will quit blaming politicians, rich men, and militarists, and will start building the better world within myself.

Confirmed in Grace Church on Nov. 18, 1931, by the Rt. Rev. H. P. A. Abbott, acting for the Bishop of Pennsylvania: Janet Parkhill Bates, Carleen Horne Brooke, Lillian Mohrman Brooke, Katherine De Brunner, Helen Goldsmith, Mary Jane Hall, Elizabeth Hansell, Elizabeth Sloan, Alvin Powell, Dorothy Helen Sheeler, Rebecca Stout Snyder, May Strubing Stout, Willett Brand, Charles Brigham, Frank Parvin Brooke, William Cooper Burk, John Clapham, Francis Brooks Weiler.

On Saturday, December 19, at her late home at 10 West Mt. Airy Avenue, the Rector read the Burial Office for Ella C. Koenig, who departed this life on December 16. Interment was made at Northwood Cemetery.

The Choir boy's Christmas party will be held tomorrow evening in the Green Room.

Since June the following persons have been transferred to our family from other congregations, and in your name we have welcomed them to our Church: July 2, 1931, Charles Covell, from St. John's, Williamstown, Mass.; July 21, 1931, Robert Sullivan, from Trinity, Oxford, Phila.; July 21, 1931, Marion F. Sullivan, from Trinity, Oxford, Phila.; July 28, 1931, Eliza J. Smith, from Holy Trinity, Phila.; November 11, 1931, Bernice Thornton, from All Saints, Torresdale; November 18, 1931, Morris Albert Stout, St. Michael's, Germantown; November 27, 1931, Elizabeth Kennedy Purnell, from Holy Apostles, Phila.; December 17, 1931, Sarah Yeates Whelen, from St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, Phila.

Mr. Covell is studying for Holy Orders at the Virginia Seminary, and we ask you to remember him in your prayers—that God may bless him in his preparation for this holy calling.

The Rector once preached a sermon on the text, "All things are double one against another," bringing out the idea that every good thing in life has a "but" against it except the things that have to do with God. God only unqualifiedly is good and does us good. There is no "but" charged against His love and goodness toward us.

That sermon comes to your Rector's mind as he looks back at the Christmas services of several weeks ago.

Everything that had to do with the strictly religious side was good and unqualifiedly so. There were more communions made than last year; the music was well chosen and delightfully rendered; the decorations in the Church were tastefully arranged and reverently put up. As one reviews the keeping of Christmas there comes before his mind's eye the girls' choir at the Carol Service, the new cloaks they wore and the hours of work entailed in the preparation of those cloaks; the Creche; the stacks of gifts brought by the Church School pupils and delivered to one of our poorer missions in Kensington; the fine program of that Carol Service, arranged by Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Horton, and Mrs. Hall; then one thinks of our young people going out to deliver food and toys in person to some worthy poor and of their Carol-singing at the Leamy and at the homes of the sick.

So one goes on to think in detail of the midnight service and how some who rarely come to Church gladdened the heart of the Rector by being present and Communing. One recalls the clear beauty of the night, and the Christmas morning celebrations, with the sun lighting up the East window during the 7.30 service, and how after the service two missionaries from China wandered in to say their prayers and worship our common Father. There were many touching incidents that will remain in our memories for many a day.

"But," over it all hung the realization of a world that keeps Christmas but snubs Christ; of a world materially and spiritually starving in the midst of plenty; of a world which longs to know the way but is unwilling to believe because what is true seems too good to be true."

To some of us that realization came as a challenge; thanking God afresh for the Incarnation we resolved that with His help we would do more to make Him known to the world He came to save. If we could only keep the Christmas spirit glowing warmly in our hearts it wouldn't be long before we would make the whole world ardent. As we enter the Epiphany season let us ally ourselves with the Wise Men of old and make Him known to the other Gentiles who as yet do not know Him. Let us be earnest "Jesus men" and "Jesus women."

We have not yet the complete returns from our Christmas special offering to wipe out our debt. The treasurer so far has received $629.74 and envelopes are still coming in. Now $650 is much less than the $2,000 we need. "But"—we are not worried; the spirit our people are displaying more than compensates for the lack in money. The very first envelope that came in had a letter with it, which began, "I am so glad to give my mite to help the deficit fund and wish I had enough to pay the debt off by myself"; a second told a tale of hardship and overhanging financial clouds, "but" concluded with an apology for the $5.00 enclosed. And so they came in. The Rector wishes he had time to write a letter of thanks to every subscriber but obviously he cannot, for eighty envelopes had no names on them and the rest which were marked would take so much time to answer he could not do his regular work if he took time to thank each donor individually. So he must content himself by saying "Thank you" to all, here and now. When a Rector receives such hearty backing he cannot help feeling encouraged.

The annual canvass has not yet been completed. We do not know yet how to plan our finances for the present year. The committee is at present engaged in putting on the final touches, i. e., interviewing people who are not fully affiliated with us but for some reason or another might feel inclined to help bear our common expenses.

If you who read this do not have envelopes and would like to give regularly to Grace Church, write your name on a slip of paper and put it in an alms basin, or speak to the Rector or Accounting Warden.

The Lord Christ said, "Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also," which paraphrased means that when you have a financial interest in a work, you will surely also take a personal interest in it.

Our sympathy and prayers go out to our Organist and Choir Master, Mr. Robinson, whose father entered into the unseen world on Christmas morning.

Last Sunday evening the Young People's Fellowship had an interesting discussion on the subject, "Does a college course spoil a young lady for a career as wife and mother?" There were 34 present.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY NEWS

The Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild of Grace Church will be held on Tuesday, January 12. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock in the Brown Room, followed by the business meeting at 1.45 in the Green Room.

There will be election of officers—a President and a Treasurer. A large attendance is earnestly requested to give the incoming Officers an enthusiastic welcome and to pledge their allegiance to the President-elect, who will need the help of each and every member to carry on the many obligations the organization has assumed.

As has been our custom during several years past, we will again save our pennies during the season of Epiphany and Pre-Lent, and after a Presentation Service in Grace Church, will send them out to help perform the advance work of the Church.

Please have a little box in a convenient place to receive all the pennies that come into your hands during that time, and thus make this "penny offering" grow to great proportions.

Last Sunday morning, calling attention to the story of Jacob at Bethel and to the visit of the Wise Men, the Rector preached on the subject of "Giving." Said he: "We really own nothing tangible; everything we claim for our own in a material sense is continually slipping away from our grasp. In spite of this, we do have the say from time to time how certain money will be spent. When we spend on the needy, we really give to God; so, too, when we help finance God's enterprises, we give to the Lord.

"Do not misunderstand," pleaded he, "gold—money—should be given, but as a rule money is the cheapest and easiest and least helpful thing we can give. Personal service, prayer, self—these weigh much more in worth. Yet, just as the Wise Men gave gold, so if we visualize money as a symbol of so many hours of our lives for which we have received so much currency, we can give it with a feeling of having given something worthy. The Church recognizes this truth, for she offers up three things only at her altars—prayers, the Holy Communion, and money—and I believe she includes money because it represents the hours of our lives we worked to obtain it, and is consequently a part of ourselves."

The Wise Men also offered frankincense, a symbol of worship. This, too, we owe to God—not only for our own good, but also for His happiness. God seeks us not ours. And just as on earth the parent's reunion with his children is incomplete if one be missing, so there is sorrow in the presence of the angels of God over one who does not come. We have it on the word of the Lord Jesus.

Myrrh was the gift of one wise man and, because it was used for embalming, it typified sorrow and trials. Many of us have not yet learned to dedicate our troubles to the Lord Christ. "But I am sure," continued the Rector, "that the bearing of sorrow for our Lord's glory is the best gift one can offer. Just as jewels are fashioned under pressure and in deep darkness, so God's living jewels store up glowing beauty by taking life's sorrows to their hearts and setting them to shine for God's glory. Christ says that we are lamps, and the whole purpose of a lamp is something which can shine in wind and rain and night until the dawn comes. Death and time are the great examiners. They reveal junk as junk and false gems as paste. And God takes some men and women in His hands and says: 'My jewels faithful, shining, kindling, undimmed, unbeaten, My jewels.' These have offered Him their myrrh."

On January 11th, the Rector read the Burial Office for Mrs. Marre Wilson Bounds, who died on January 9th. Interment was made at Westminster Cemetery.

The Executive Committee of the Men's Service League met last Monday evening at the home of Mr. John Watkin. It was decided to have an evening for men in the Parish House on February 8th instead of the usual Men's Dinner, and after Lent, on April 15th, to have a Mock Trial, to which all will be invited: men, women and young people. The Men's Service League has, as one of its main purposes, the bringing together socially of the men who worship in Grace Church, and this year's programs are particularly succeeding in this purpose.

The Rector received the following letter from the head of our Social Service Committee and, after commending it to you most heartily, passes it on to you for action.

MY DEAR MR. EDER:

This is to recall our little talk the other day about putting a notice in next Sunday's PARISH NEWS, reminding people of the need of garments and shoes for the City Mission, to be brought to the Parish House, or, if anyone will notify me, called for. The latter we had not suggested before, but it might help.

Children's clothes are particularly needed. Would you please put in a notice about this—as much or little of it as you think best?

Very sincerely yours,

Jan. 16th MARGUERITE E. SHEBLE

At the stated meeting of the Women's Auxiliary and Guild, held on January 12th, Mrs. Stephen L. Newnham was elected President and Miss Edith A. Fell was elected Treasurer for three-year terms. We congratulate the organization on its wise choices. To the retiring President, we give hearty thanks for six years' hard and telling work. Grace Church has ever been blessed with fine leadership among its women, and we are glad that the new officers are of the same outstanding calibre and ability.

Septuagesima—seventy days before Easter—today! Ash Wednesday will be here on February 10th, and Easter on March 27th! This will be the earliest Lenten season since 1921.

The fact that today we enter into the pre-Lenten season should give us pause. "Why Lent?" "Why this shrinking from entering into the sombre season?"

First of all, let us get it out of our heads that Lent is a season which dour men thought up in order to see to it that all men would be as unhappy as they were. It sounds foolish, as one reads it in cold words, to believe that any one should ever have felt that Lent had such an ignoble background, doesn't it? But just the same there are many who feel that, somehow, Lent means just that and nothing more—a season which pious men invented for the purpose of seeing to it that all Christians should be unhappy for at least one-ninth of the year.

As a matter of fact, no one knows the exact date when Lent began to be observed. But this we do know: It rose spontaneously to meet a need of human hearts. Perhaps it began this way: The disciples who were witnesses of Jesus' death and resurrection naturally came to keep the anniversary of the coming back of their Lord every Passover season. Their joy at the unexpected vindication of their faith in the Lord Jesus by His rising to life was so intense that they not only kept a Passover commemoration of it, but also a weekly one—hence the observance of Sunday as the weekly holy day, instead of the time-honored Saturday, the Sabbath giving way to the first day of the week. But, nevertheless, as each year they kept Easter—the anniversary of His resurrection—they could not forget those awful three days when He seemed to have gone out forever and they realized that their joy at Easter came not only from the wonderful fact it brought back to their minds, but also from the truth that their hopelessness and despair had made their Easter joy more intense. The darkness of Calvary made the light of Easter brighter. Therefore, as they gradually built up a church calendar of observances, it was natural for them to set aside forty hours for thinking on the passion and death of the Lord Christ, annually to precede the keeping of the festival of His Resurrection.

This observance became general and popular—so much so that men finally extended the forty hours to forty days, and the whole Church began to keep Lent from Ash Wednesday to Easter Day, a period of more than six weeks.

So it has come down to us. This is the historical, "Why Lent?"

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

As to the answer to our second question, "Why this shrinking from entering into the sombre season?", this will vary from person to person. Usually it arises from spiritual inertia. There are people who go to the seaside and never bathe in the refreshing ocean because "it is too much trouble to get undressed and dressed again." There are people who spend whole months in stuffy inns in Switzerland, never leaving the fireside or the dining table, while others go forth for days at a time—skiing, tobogganing, skating, or mountain climbing—coming in at night exhilarated and refreshed with not only their bodies, but also their minds, renewed. So there are Christians who have never entered into the rigors of Lent because "it sounds so needless and exacting." They have a malady—a spiritual disease—called inertia.

The law of inertia in physics refers to the difficulty in getting a body into motion, the resistance to be overcome and the impulse to be imparted. But inertia also means that when a body gets started into motion, it will have a tendency to remain in motion—the bigger the body, the more it will tend to move on!

"The moral?" Just this: Give Lent a chance at your life. Begin now to plan what you are going to move into for the Lord Jesus' sake, and when Ash Wednesday comes—a little over two weeks hence, on February 10th—get started!

In planning our corporate observance of Lent, the Rector is desirous of fitting into your needs and time. He intends to have at least one early celebration of Holy Communion on week-days, and is puzzled at what time to have it— 6 A.M.? 6.30 A.M.? 7 A.M.? or 7.30 A.M.? Let him know what would be the best time for you.

Also, what about a mid-week getting together? Perhaps we might have a service in the Green Room, with instruction, conference, or corporate study. What would help you most? How about discussing a good religious book together?

Last Sunday morning the Rector preached on the topic, "Gospel—Good News." After contrasting the overflowing enthusiasm of the early Christians as we find them described in the pages of the New Testament and in the works of the early Fathers, with the smug taking of it all cavalierly by the masses of Christ's followers today, he set out to detect some reasons why we are not athrill with the Good News.

Staleness accounts for much lackadaisical listlessness. "I often wonder," says Caroline Heston, in "Shirley," "whether most men resemble my uncle in their domestic relations; whether it is necessary to be new and unfamiliar to them to be estimable in their eyes; and whether it is impossible to their natures to retain a constant interest and affection for those they see every day." The preacher followed up this idea in the realm of the Good News, and quoted an evangelist who says that we of the Occident have been inoculated with a mild form of Christianity in order that we may be immune when exposed to the real thing.

"Evil communications corrupt good manners!" Much of our current novel reading, pouring forth from the presses and looming big for a day, emphasizes the animal side of our natures alone; the heroines who move across the pages yield themselves to every temptation and desire. Just as a physician who spends most of his time among the sick at bedside and hospital must come to feel surprised that any one can be in health, so when one spends much time in the presence of modern fiction he comes to believe that all people are as sordid and morally unhealthy as the people he reads about.

Then, too, there is an opinion abroad that historic Christianity has been discredited. Because our opponents are so noisy, men believe that they must be certain and many. Newspaper science helps this fallacy. But when our chaplain at the University of Pennsylvania announced that he was going to have a series of services at which members of the faculty could speak up for orthodox Christianity, he was overwhelmed with applications from noted professors who were desirous of testifying what the Lord Jesus means in their lives. He told me that it was a revelation to him to learn that so many outstanding men who had never said a word about their faith really were enthusiastic Christians. "Perhaps," continued the preacher, "we don't realize how important it is in doing one's duty to be careful of the spirit we put into doing our duty. Religion means more than 'playing the game,' 'going straight,' 'camaraderie,' etc. It means the spirit in which one does a thing as much as the deed itself. God respects adverbs more than verbs. St. Luke 18, verses 10 to 15, are our own Chief's testimony that this is so. Let the 'Good News' have a chance at your thoughts and your imagination and this half-hearted, heavy-hearted, disspirited plugging on will disappear."

Don't forget—the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild holds weekly meetings during Lent, sewing, folding surgical bandages, and listening to worthwhile missionaries tell of their own problems and victories. Luncheon is served each week, and Mission study classes are held in the afternoon. Put this on your engagement book, now!

The men of the Parish are asked to keep Monday evening, February 8th, as an engagement to meet with the Men's Service League in the Parish House for an informal get-together, with a talk and refreshments.

Preaching last Sunday morning on the parable of Dives and Lazarus, as found in St. Luke 16: 19, the Rector cleared the ground by recalling the usual meanings given to this story, which are: (1) That it is a picture of the world hereafter; (2) that it is a diatribe against the possession of much money, and (3) that it is intended to inculcate other-worldliness, making men satisfied to endure the evils in this world because they will be compensated for it in the world to come.

But the great missionary, Sweitzer, took a different meaning from the parable. He weighed the good points of Dives and his evil points, and came to the conclusion that Jesus told this story to warn men not against callousness, but against limiting their interests in others—against being unsocial in a social order.

The Rector proceeded to point out that most of our problems today are problems in human relationships. "In the past," said he, "we have been busy correcting the habits of individuals; today we must continue that emphasis, but we must also add to it the task of getting people to think socially, for being an unsocial person in a social order is a sin.

"Christianity," continued he, "is not only a way of life, but also a way of living together. It is not a rule nor a law, but a life lived on the principles laid down by the Lord Jesus."

Last week we added to the roll of those officially in our Church family the name of Mrs. Emma Sinclair Brown, who was transferred to us from Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia, on January 18th. In your name we welcome her.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

On February 4th (next Thursday) all the Young People's Fellowships of our congregations in the Convocation of Germantown are going to have a dinner in our Parish House at 7 P. M. There will be notable speakers to address them and an informal dance afterward. It is hoped and expected that we shall have 200 guests.

On next Sunday afternoon, at the 4.30 P. M. service, the Rector is going to make an informal address to the Church School teachers of our own Parish. It is expected that all will be present.

To the Women of Grace Church:

As I assume my duties as president of your auxiliary, my thoughts carry me back to the day, about ten years ago, when, as a complete stranger, I walked into your midst. I had come here from the middle west—from a church which, in only one year, I had grown to love—and I felt skeptical of ever again feeling as much at home anywhere else. But my fears were dispelled. I came once, and came again, and have continued coming all through the years. I love Grace Church and its associated activities as I once loved St. George's Church and its guild in Kansas City, and am more than anxious that they shall mean as much to each one of you as they do to me.

You who come regularly to our auxiliary meetings know what I mean, and I want you to work hard with me to do as much for the newcomers this year as my predecessors did for me, and make them thoroughly at home in their new surroundings.

You who have not come regularly I urge to do so, that we may demonstrate to you our sincerity and prove the pleasure that it will really come to mean to you. By co-operation we can accomplish much, and there is no better time for you to begin, or to continue, rendering service to your Church than in the approaching Lenten season. Let us all resolve to put our shoulders to the wheel and make this winter's work a pre-eminent success.

And now let me list the activities for the coming month:

On Thursday, February 4th, at 9.30 o'clock, there will be a corporate communion of our auxiliary. This will be a service of rededication, at which time we will also present the pennies which we've been saving during this Epiphany season. Please do your part to make this a corporate communion in reality, and not only in name. There will be a luncheon at 12.30, as is always the custom on the first Thursday in each month, after which we will have the unusual pleasure of hearing Mrs. Grafton Burke, of Fort Yukon, Alaska, tell of the wonderful work she and Dr. Burke are doing in that northern clime.

Ash Wednesday, as you all know, comes on February 10th, and every Thursday during Lent we will have all-day meetings: Communion at 9.30; sewing and folding surgical bandages from 10 until noon; luncheon at 12.30; followed by more sewing in the afternoon; and the Mission Study Class at 3.

Just a word about the work of our box committee. If we wish to keep up the record of its work in former years, and finish the usual number of garments and surgical dressings, Mrs. Stem and Mrs. Hall need your help. Not only come yourself, but ask a friend or new member or, better still, bring one with you. Give these leaders, who put in so much of their time in preparation for this work, the encouragement of a large attendance.

The Mission Study Class this year will have for its leader Mrs. James F. Bullitt, wife of Archdeacon Bullitt, and the study topic will be, "Building a Christian Nation." Let each one make an effort to join this group; see what you can bring to it, and, in turn, get from it for your own spiritual growth and enlightenment.

Lastly, just a reminder of the little blue box, our symbol of the United Thank Offering. Even in this time of stress each one of us can find something each day for which to be thankful. It may be that we have less substance with which to show our thankfulness, but each little mite will help, in the sight of our Lord, to demonstrate our gratitude for our blessings. A prayer of thanks to God and a mite in your blue box will not only help to keep some toiling missionary in a foreign land, but will also cheer our Mrs. Lundelius, and bring much joy to the heart of Mrs. North, who worked for this cause so ceaselessly and long, and who will ever hold it near and dear.

Hoping to see each and every one of you frequently in the coming weeks, believe me,

Most sincerely yours,

NELL H. NEWNHAM.

On Wednesday of this week we will enter into the wonderful calling-back-to-first-things known as Lent. I trust that by this time everyone has arranged a special and definite program for observing the season. Let your motto be, "Be still and know that I am God." Use the church freely: it is open at all hours.

The schedule of services appears above. In next week's Parish News you will find an additional early morning celebration of Holy Communion listed; also a week-night conference. Meanwhile start Lent right by making your Communion on Ash Wednesday and by coming to the Evening Service. Also, make better use of the weekly Eucharist on Sundays at 7.30 A. M. (attendance has fallen off lately). Let us all obey that impulse to live nearer to God at this season, when hundreds of thousands of others are corporately and individually getting back near Him. Don't put it off until Holy Week—begin now!

Tomorrow evening every man who reads this is invited to come to an informal gathering of the men of the Parish, in the Parish House, at 8 P. M. One of our own group will tell us interesting things about a man we want to know more about, and afterward there will be refreshments and chatting with our neighbors. Bring your friends with you. Tomorrow evening—8 P. M.

Last week we had transferred to us Mrs. Arthur L. Rogers and her son, David, who were formerly communicants of St. Stephen's Church, Beverly, N. J.

There will be an organ recital every Sunday evening at 7.40 P. M., beginning on the first Sunday in Lent.

We append a statement showing how your money was spent in 1931. That you may better understand some of the items, we give a few words of explanation:

Rector's Discretionary Fund is the amount of loose money in the collection plates at all services on the first Sunday of each month. With the many calls on the Rector during these trying times, we hope the amount put at his disposal will increase. Just put the money in the plate loose on that Sunday.

Bishop's Discretionary Fund is the collection on the occasion of his visit to administer confirmation.

Insurance was very low, as we had no premiums to pay on fire insurance. We will make up for this in 1932. The item of $42.86 covers our liability insurance on all employed persons and also insurance on our money from the time it is collected in church until it reaches our bank.

Organ repairs were heavier than usual because of an accident to the motor last summer. This year (1932) should show a material reduction in this account.

Missionary contributions for specific objects represent the money you contributed for the specified causes. "Nation Wide" represents the rest of our missionary giving, and is sent to the Diocese to be applied against the missionary budgets of the Diocese and our Church at large.

Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday of this week will be days for corporate prayers for those about to be ordained to the Christian ministry. Prayers for these Ember Days are found on page 38 of the Prayer Book.

Sunday afternoon services are discontinued until after Lent.

On January 28th the Rector read the Burial Office for Arthur S. Walmsley, who died in New York City on January 25. Interment was at Mt. Peace Cemetery.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

The Treasurer of the Diocese, Mr. A. V. Morton, informs us that for the year 1931 Grace Church promised $9300 for the general work of the Church and gave $9411! In addition we were credited with $201.35 for work not on the quota. This year we have been able to promise only $5000, but we mean to do much better.

Mission Study Classes are held every Thursday at 3 P. M. in the Green Room.

The Lenten offering of the Church School is used for the far-flung missionary work of the Church. Each child is given a Mite Box in which he puts what he earns and saves; at Easter time these boxes are emptied and the whole amount is changed into medicines, books, coal, clothes, and food for those who have had courage enough to go out into the harder fields of God's vineyard. This year, in addition to securing subscriptions for the Spirit of Missions, and in addition to the usual ways of securing money for their Easter offering, our Church School folk are gathering together unused gold and silver and selling it to be melted into bullion. This has a threefold value: (1) It cleans out of the house many discarded articles, such as broken silver spoons, tarnished salt or pepper shakers, and spectacle frames; (2) it puts into circulation more bullion, which in turn helps to make economic conditions better, and (3) it helps the general missionary work of the Church at a time when such help is sorely needed. Almost every family in the Parish has unused gold or silver in the form of fancy pins or bracelets lying about. Why not co-operate with our young people and send it in to be melted down? Any of our pupils will be eager to call for it if you will let us know that you have something. Think this over now.

Any one interested is invited to come to the Parish House on next Tuesday, at 8 P. M., to talk over the subject for a weekly Lenten conference.

The preacher at the Garrick Theatre noon-day services this week will be Dean O'Ferrall, of the Detroit Cathedral, and at St. Stephen's Church will be Dr. Melish, of Holy Trinity Church, Brooklyn. On Thursday, at St. Luke and the Epiphany, the preacher will be Dr. Z. B. T. Phillips, of Washington.

Program of Music for the Organ Recital at 7.45 O'clock Tonight

Reverie, Vierne. Divertissement, Vierne. Entrée, Introit, from "Messe Bassee," Vierne.

Last Sunday morning, preaching on the text, "If thou be the Son of God," the Rector urged, as a Lenten motif, greater self-respect. "One cannot really acknowledge one's wretchedness unless he also acknowledges his possibilities," said he. True humility arises only when one has before his eyes a high ideal.

Continuing, he pointed out that Satan's insinuation to Jesus that He was not God's Son is exactly the point at issue between Christianity and the world today. Christianity claims that nothing in the world is so dignified as the spirit of a human being; nothing is worth so much as human personality; nations, castes, classes, have no real existence, but are merely ways of describing the relationships existing between a number of human integers, each of whom is precious; you and I are dear to the most high God. The world, on the other hand, asserts that the individual human being is only a pawn in a system in which the individual counts for naught and the type for all. We are but animals which have acquired a bit more canniness than other beasts, and the only way in which we count is in the amount of material wealth we add to the world's supply. Soviet Russia represents the world point of view and differs from ordinary thinking only in its brazenness and lack of hypocrisy. The fundamental idea back of Sovietism is that there is neither God in heaven nor in man; man is of the earth, earthy, and certainly not a son of God.

The way to join in the Church's battle against this degradation of man is not by invective, but by holding up the real truth—that we are sons of God. The individual Christian will surround himself with an atmosphere in which he will evaluate himself highly because of his personal potential greatness; he will endure temptation successfully and shed trouble without difficulty because he knows himself too fine to yield or go down under attack. The result of this realization of his own potential greatness will result in even greater faith, for when one gets a glimmering of his own great worth, then he just cannot conceive of death as an ending, but as a stage in development. We are sons of God.

At last Sunday evening's service the Rector discussed the difficult subject of demoniac possession, reading extracts from a new book by Dr. Worcester, entitled, "Body, Mind, and Spirit." Tonight Mr. Irwin will make an address and the service will be preceded by a fifteen-minute organ recital. Next Sunday evening the different parts of the service will be read by members of the Young People's Fellowship; our Mr. John Eiseman will make an address. While we are on the subject of services, don't forget the Lenten 7.30 A. M. weekly Holy Communions on Wednesdays, nor the Children's Services on Fridays at 4.30 P. M.

Next Sunday will be Family Sunday! Let everyone who worships here be present at the eleven o'clock service, bringing his family and other friends with him.

On February 16th the Rector read the Burial Office for Charles Chalmers, who died on February 12th. Interment was made at Fraser, Penna.

The Mission Study Class, which meets weekly on Thursday afternoons, has voted to meet at 2.45 instead of at 3.00 P. M. The attendance is good, the leader inspiring, and the meetings are eminently worth while. Why not drop in and taste of it? We promise you that you will want more.

On January 1st the new marriage canon of the Church became effective. In addition to a number of other changes, the clergy are now required to receive at least three days' notification before performing any marriage ceremony. Bear this in mind, and tell it to any who are contemplating being married in Grace Church. The Rector has no discretion in the matter, and he hereby announces that it is absolutely necessary to notify him at least three days before a wedding, or he will be forced to decline to officiate.

Mrs. Kempton, the president of the Church Periodical Club of Pennsylvania, has sent out a call for a Book Drive in every Parish to supply libraries to be started in country and mission stations. Will not each one of you who reads this notice bring a book to the Parish House this month, marked for the "Church Periodical Club"? New or second-hand books in good condition, for children or older people, fairy stories, books about animals, travel, history, or good fiction—all will be most useful. Please do not forget this appeal.

Program of music for the Organ Recital at 7.45 o'clock tonight: 1. Solemn Prelude, W. S. Barnes. 2. Scherzo, Mark Andrews. 3. Contemplation, Saint-Saëns.

Last Sunday morning, preaching on the text from St. Matthew 15:26, "It is not meet to take the children's bread, and cast it to dogs," the Rector brought out the idea that if these were the only words of Jesus that were left to us, many would turn away from Him in contemptuous disdain. "Every educated person knows," said he, "that not only the Jews but also the cultured Romans and Greeks of our Lord's time habitually held aloof from people of other races, terming them 'Barbarians'." But when we discover our Lord Christ seeming to agree with His fellow-countrymen in their arrogant pride of race, that agreement comes upon you with a distinct shock. The text alone is so misleading! But the context makes it right, revealing to us that the Master was trying out the distraught mother to ascertain whether she really was looking for healing or merely not leaving one stone unturned in her effort to relieve her suffering child. When He knew that her faith was worthy, He healed her daughter.

But the text, if taken alone, would mislead us. And therefore in all our conclusions we must beware lest we generalize from insufficient data—jump at conclusions without knowing enough about the matter under consideration.

Apply this in historic crises and you will discern the wisdom of Emerson's rule, that the study of history leads one to let the years speak against the months and the centuries against the decades. In other words, in the midst of war or other calamity one is not to jump to the conclusion that this crisis is unparalleled and hopeless, but that crises have happened in the past and will recur in the future, and that when one is in the trough of the sea his vision of things is necessarily limited.

Apply this to individuals and you will not misjudge them because of one unhappy incident that occurred in their lives, but appraise them for their general tendencies and their final harbor. We would have no more right to estimate St. Peter's character by the one sentence standing against him, "Then began he to curse and swear and deny Jesus," than some modern writers have to villify George Washington because they have found a single incident or two which does not fit into the nation's estimate of the man.

"As we move deeper into Lent," continued the preacher, "let us apply this unwillingness to jump to conclusions to our own spiritual lives. Most of us, from time to time, are shocked by thoughts, words, and deeds that seem to crop out from within ourselves. When we become disturbed by such manifestations of evil, let us not get discouraged nor give up; on the contrary, let us look on them as scars of battle, and fight all the harder. The man who won't admit defeat is undefeated."

Last Sunday morning Virginia Lois Tyler was baptized by the Rector and his Associate. Virginia is the daughter of Warren S. and Edith E. Tyler, and was born on January 7, 1932, in Abington. Her sponsors are Melville Ewee, Helen Harkins, and Mrs. Harry Eichmann.

Several people have complained because they are unable to read the numbers on the Hymn Boards at the front of the nave, and as a result are unable to find out the number of the hymn being sung. The nave is so long that one cannot make out the hymn numbers on the boards if he is far back in the church. During the greater part of the year this need not bother anyone because the numbers of the hymns in use are printed from week to week in the PARISH NEWS. But during the summer and autumn, when the PARISH NEWS is not printed, it presents a real problem. The Rector has had this in mind for a long time and decided that there should be Hymn Boards on the walls about half way down the nave. Last week he looked at a number of them and was pleased to learn how relatively little they cost. He saw two in particular that would look well on our walls, and felt that perhaps someone in the congregation would like to give them as a memorial to be in use by Easter. If you would care to know more about them, speak to the Rector.

The service this evening will be read by members of our Young People's Fellowship. Mr. John Eiseman will give an address. Mr. Robinson will play a fifteen-minute recital on the organ, beginning at 7.45. Come!

The men of Whitemarsh have a League which attends church in a body, from time to time. Today they are going to attend St. Thomas's Church, Whitemarsh, and the preacher will be our own Bishop Taitt. The Rector has asked me to invite the men of our congregation to attend. Four o'clock. Men only.

The Woman's Auxiliary are promised an interesting hour at their meeting on the third of March. They will have as a speaker the Venerable Wellington Boyle, Archdeacon in charge of the Indian work in Duluth. Archdeacon Boyle is an American Indian, a member of the Ojibway tribe, and one of the best-educated Indians in our church.

The attendance at our Auxiliary meetings has been splendid, and we always welcome newcomers. Wouldn't this be a good time to look up the neighbor or friend who may have been indefinitely planning to join us, and bring her to this meeting? Our work will follow the regular schedule: sewing at 10; lunch at 12.30, followed by the speaker, and Mission Study Class at 2.45.

Program of music for the organ recital at 7.45 o'clock tonight: Sketch in F Minor, Schumann; Canon in B Major, Schumann; Grand Choeur, Guilmant.

The preacher last Sunday morning took his text from Ephesians 3:14, "For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father," from whom every family in heaven and earth derives its name and nature. Said he: "This idea of St. Paul's is a play on words, for in Greek the word for 'father' is pater, and the word for 'family' is patria. Fatherhood and family go hand in hand. There is a connection between what we call family life and the Christian religion."

Continuing, the Rector pointed out that many of the sacrificial rites of the Old Testament were carried out not in the Tabernacle by priests, but in the home, where the father of the family was priest of the household. So Christianity was built upon home life, Jesus teaching us to look upon God as our Father, upon other people as sisters and brothers, upon true religion as filial intimacy, sin as the wilful leaving of home, with its sanctifying restraints, and penitence as the soul's home-sickness. Jesus called heaven "my Father's house."

Said the preacher: "We have taken it for granted that the institution, 'the family,' is of divine origin, and that it is going to persist to the end of time. But today it is being attacked on several sides—by the Neo-Platonists, by Soviet Russia, and now in college courses. And it must be admitted that some family life is open to adverse criticism.

Please take this leaflet home for careful reading and reference

Psychiatrists trace many adult nervous disorders to some bad family influence on children, the 'Oedipus complex' is all too apparent; very few parents view their children objectively. As opposed to these perversions, we believe that the normal home is the best place for developing a child. Abnormal homes secure more notoriety than normal homes because the normal home does not provide 'news interest.' We believe with our Lord and St. Paul that there is a vital connection between family life and the Christian religion. If one goes, the other will be mutilated."

The way to save the Christian home is to make it worth saving. When you and I make our home life worth while imitating, it will be imitated. When an important work is to be done, it is wisely given to a small committee to be perfected. It may be that today, when the world is weighing the institution known as "the family," and prayer, and Christian marriage—it may be that you and I, and the manner in which we live out these sacred relationships, will be the determining factor in the final results. May we be found true to our ideals!

The noon-day preachers in central city locations this coming week will be as follows: At the Garrick Theatre, Bishop Fiske, of Central New York; at Christ Church, Monday and Tuesday, Dr. Goodwin, of Williamsburg, Va.; Wednesday and Thursday, Dr. Morton, of Alexandria, Va.; Friday and Saturday, the Rev. Mr. Langston, of Truro, Va. The preacher at St. Stephen's Church was to have been Dr. Morris, of Calvary Church, Germantown, but he has fallen ill and his successor has not been announced. At the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, 330 South Thirteenth Street, on Thursday evening, at 8 P. M., the preacher will be the Rev. Dr. B. I. Bell, Warden of St. Stephen's College, Columbia University.

Reserve Friday Evening, April 15th! The Men's Service League will give a "Moot Court" (commonly known as "Mock Trial") in the Parish House on that evening. Both men and women and children are invited and there will be no admission charge, although a silver offering will be taken to defray expenses. The Rector sat in recently on a preliminary reading of the plot and dialogue, and he promises all who come on April 15th a series of hearty laughs and many happy chuckles. Set aside the date now—April 15th.

A Lenten-Offering Message from the Presiding Bishop

To Our Church Schools:

As ever, the boys and girls, the young men and women of the Church, are marching with the van in the conquest of the world for Christ. In the past three years you have contributed a larger sum for missions than in any former triennium. The Bishops and Deputies in General Convention at Denver last September received with thanksgiving the report of $1,567,838 given in that period through the Lenten offerings.

By vote of the Convention the Presiding Bishop sends to the juniors of the Church a word of hearty congratulation—"well done!"

I give you Godspeed as well. The approach of Lent opens again the doors of opportunity for a new advance. There will be no slackening of effort. Never has your help been more urgently needed than now. A host of young people in all our schools will press forward with courage and with high resolve. It is our Lord who sends you on your way; it is a world in need which is calling for your help—may the joy of victory be yours.

Faithfully your friend,

James DeWolf Perry,
Presiding Bishop.

We are anxious to make our Church School Easter Offering for Missions in Grace Church as large as we can this year because of the distressing crisis that our mission work is going through. The great need is for consecrated money to help us carry on. Our children are saving, collecting old gold and silver, and taking subscriptions for the "Spirit of Missions." They will turn their Mite Boxes in on Easter Day. Won't you help them?

All who desire to help furnish the altar with flowers for Easter Day may do so by getting in touch with Miss Margaretta Bayard, 105 East Johnson Street, before Wednesday of this week.

On Easter Monday, from 5 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon, in the Parish House, will be held the annual election of four members of the Vestry. Nominations are now in order. Mr. A. C. Brand, 301 E. Durham Street, is Secretary of the Vestry, and if desired, will give particulars as to how to nominate.

Preaching on St. Matthew 7:11 last Sunday morning, the Rector pointed out that the Lord Jesus, so far as we know, never argued with people that there is a God; what He did do, what He spent much of His time in doing, was to try to get men to think correctly what God is like. After all, to the Lord Jesus and to us, when we come to think about it, it matters little that a person believes in God—what does matter, what matters in his life more than anything else—is the kind of God a person believes in, i. e., what is God like?

reason from that to an even higher type in the Heavenly Father. But, on the other hand, Jesus gave this method a new prominence in His teaching, making it real and workable.) It was as if He kept on saying, "Let your own hearts speak to you and teach you, for if your love for your child leads you to endure and suffer and go to no end of trouble for his, think you that your Heavenly Father is not as good as you to His children?" To the one who wistfully exclaims, "If only I knew that God were as good as my mother, I'd be content," the answer is, "Then be content, for that is exactly what God is like."

Continuing, the Rector said that there are two lessons that follow from this chain of reasoning: "(1) We must never despair of anyone. Just as a mother discerns much worth while in her child that others never even glimpse, even so our Heavenly Father keeps on caring for many seemingly hopeless men and women, discerning in them potentialities that the world is unaware of, and trying to love them into visible existence. (2) The fact that human life at its highest directs men's thoughts to God and makes them get a glimmer of what God is like brings home to us our own responsibility as revealers of Him." What if there is someone near you and me who finds it hard to believe in the love of God because they find in you and me cold hardness which does not speak of the loving warmth of a caring God? We know that generalization from few facts is wrong and illogical, but nevertheless men will generalize from few facts, and many of them will judge religion and what it is like only from the effect that it has on you and on me. Are we revealing God to some degree as our Lord Jesus revealed Him?

Last week, from the Church of the Epiphany, Carpenter, there was transferred to us Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Guckes and their son and daughter, William and Luzene. In your name we welcome them to our family.

On Sunday evening, at the Church of the Atonement, West Philadelphia, your Rector presented to Bishop Taitt for confirmation Mr. Arthur Bacon, of Washington, D. C.

On March 10th, at his late home at 5150 Knox Street, your Rector read the Burial Office for George H. Wiswell, who died on March 7th. Interment was made at Westminster Cemetery.

If you were rector of a parish and one of your good people came to you to tell you that she was destitute and had an incurable disease and didn't know where to turn in her old age, what would you do? I suppose that your first thought would be to enter her in the fine new Home for Incurables in Fairmount Park. But you would soon learn that there are so many worthy people awaiting their turn to be admitted there that your needy parishioner would have to wait many, many years before she had a chance to become a guest. However, if you knew your own Church's resources, you would turn immediately to the "Harrison Memorial Home"—in connection with the Episcopal Hospital—and within a little while your needy friend would be inside and happy.

Most people think of the Episcopal Hospital in terms of medical and surgical service; few realize that it also comprises a home for men and women suffering from incurable diseases. There are almost a hundred guests there, among them one of our own parishioners. I commend in the highest terms what they are doing for her.

The work of the Home costs money, much money, and is one of the heaviest charges against our hospital. Yet none of us would have them think of giving it up. We are glad to have a part in supporting it.

I have told you this to help you with your Easter offering. When your thankfulness at the resurrection of the Lord Jesus and the assurance of personal immortality that goes with it lead you to want to do something about it next Sunday, then give generously in the Easter Offering—all of which will go to the Episcopal Hospital.

There will be no Church School classes next Sunday morning; instead, there will be an inspiring Church School Easter Festival at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The busses will run in the afternoon.

The Young People's Fellowship has organized a Dramatic Club and is going to present three one-act plays on Friday evening, April 1st. The shows will be presented at 8.15 P. M. in the Parish House. Tickets cost 35 cents, proceeds to be given toward the Parish deficit. The young people are working hard and the Rector urges your generous co-operation.

The Buildings of the Episcopal Hospital have been standing so long and used so hard that they are beginning to wear out. Recently the Main Building was condemned by the Building Inspectors and ordered torn down at once. Their orders are being complied with. Meanwhile, plans have been drawn for a unit to take its place and the new building will be erected immediately. It will cost more than $400,000, and the funds to build with are being taken from invested legacies whose income up to now has been used for paying every-day expenses. This loss in current income must be made up in some way and we of Grace Church are going to help by giving them our Easter Offering. Won't you be as generous as you can to help out in this emergency? I count on you.

The Children's Carol Service will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The service will last an hour and will be full of joy and inspiration. Do come—both old and young.

Tomorrow afternoon from 5 to 6 o'clock in the Parish House there will be held the annual election of four members of the Vestry. The new Vestry will meet on Wednesday at 8 P. M. for reorganization.

A luncheon will be given by Mrs. Frank P. Brooke, of 302 Gowen Ave., at her home, at half-past twelve o'clock on Thursday of this week, March 31st. All who care to, are invited to come. The charge will be moderate and all money collected will be used for the Parish deficit. If you plan to attend, please notify Mrs. Brooke, so that she may know how many to prepare for. Even if you decide at the last minute to be there, and have not notified her, come just the same.

The Rector urges everyone in the congregation to come to the Parish House on Friday night of this week, at 8.15, to enjoy the three one-act plays given by the Young People's Fellowship. Tickets are 35 cents and the profits will be given to the Parish deficit. If you come because you feel you should—and you really should—you will go away rewarded by the good time you've had. Tickets may be obtained from members of the Fellowship.

MY DEAR PEOPLE: How strange man's belief in immortality seems when we compare it with the facts of his experience! Appearances seem so dead against it!

In a sense the whole world is a vast graveyard, filled with relics of things that once teemed with life. The coal we burn was once living tree; the rock we stand on bears fossil remains of life now extinct. The flower of the field; the bird of the air; the fish of the ocean—one by one return to mother earth from whence they sprang. Every living thing comes to the point of death.

Yet, in spite of this seeming universality of death, men everywhere refuse to accept it—at its face value. One would presuppose that in the midst of an experience where the facts of life seem to insist that "when you're dead, you're dead, and that's all there is to it," men would accept death at its face value. But they don't! Belief in life after death is one of the commonest and most widespread of beliefs. No tribe or nation has yet been discovered that does not believe in a hereafter.

How did men acquire their belief in another world? When you come to think about it, doesn't it seem as if man's belief in immortality is even more remarkable than his faith in immortality? How account for it?

There is in biology a factor known as "appetency." Were you to place a tray of potatoes in a pitch black cellar to keep them from sprouting, and on your return a fortnight later you found them full of shoots, every shoot pointing in the same direction, you would immediately conclude that your cellar was not absolutely dark and that a ray of light was entering in at a spot toward which the potatoes were pointing. Investigation would confirm your hypothesis. Your assumption would be based on your knowledge that there is a tendency in potatoes to discover light if there be any light, and turn to it. This is called "appetency." So in man. God has planted in men's hearts everywhere an instinct that leads them to look for light amid the darkness of death. Appearances may be against this instinct, but men will turn their backs on appearances and keep on facing the light.

When our Lord Jesus rose on Easter Day, men's hearts were ready. They had believed in immortality before; now they had something more than a predisposition to justify their hopes. So today we rejoice not only in the will-to-believe that God planted in our hearts, but especially in the fact—the fact of our Lord's resurrection.

May this satisfaction fill your hearts to overflowing this glad Eastertide.

Your Friend and Rector,

Charles Edward Eder

It is our intention to publish the PARISH NEWS monthly until next autumn, during the last week of each month, and to mail a copy to each family in our congregation.

During the last Lenten season a prayer circle was formed for intercessory prayer and thanksgiving; it is hoped that it may be continued. Anyone wishing to join will be most welcome.

We meet each week on Friday afternoons, at half-past three o'clock, with Mrs. Pease, 166 East Pomona Street, Germantown.

Will any who desire our prayers let Mrs. Pease know in advance?

In retiring from the office of your Accounting Warden I feel I would be remiss if I did not thank all of you for your kindness to me during the time I had the opportunity of serving you. When I was elected, a friend who once held a similar position in a neighboring parish told me I would now find out just how mean and disagreeable people could be. Grace Church people are not that kind, and serving you was an unmixed pleasure. The work was not unduly heavy, but the necessity of attending to matters at times when my own business did not permit my taking the time to give them proper attention made it imperative that I decline to serve longer.

You all know Dr. Holman White, your new Accounting Warden. His devotion to Grace Church and his kindly sympathies are your assurance as to how the office will be handled. Some of you can help him if you will keep in mind a few of these: Keep up your payments—if you are away, send a check at least once a month, and when making payments send an envelope along to help him identify the account. When paying for several Sundays, use only one envelope, destroying the others. Use coins or bills of the largest possible denomination. When making payments for special envelopes (such as Easter, Good Friday, etc.) do not enclose other kinds of envelopes, for each of these accounts is handled separately. When paying up for several members of the family with one bill or one check, be sure to specify what you are paying. Do these things and you will lighten the Warden's work.

Sincerely,

PRATT THOMPSON

Mrs. E. P. Haines, of 110 E. Durham Street, is giving a card party at her home on Tuesday afternoon, May 3, at two o'clock, the proceeds to be added to the Auxiliary funds. Tables will be two dollars; single tickets, fifty cents. It is hoped as many of our ladies as possible will be there; also bring your friends. If you have not already told her you are coming, phone her to reserve a place or a table for you. Her phone number is C. H. 1082.

Mrs. Dixon is again undertaking to manage a rummage sale. She can achieve financial success only by the co-operation of each and every one of you. Give her your rummage; also your help, either in arranging the goods the day before the sale, or at the sale itself. The date is Thursday, the fifth of May; the location has not yet been determined, but Mrs. Dixon will give you that information later. Bring your rummage to the church before Wednesday, or phone Mrs. Dixon, C. H. 2342, and she will call for it. Also let her know just what time she can count on your help. Returns depend upon you. There will be no sewing on that day.

The spring stated meeting of the Auxiliary will be held on Tuesday, May 10. Luncheon will be served at 12.30, and the business meeting will follow. Come and hear a résumé of our work of the past year; also a discussion of some of our plans for next fall.

Burials.—May 5, 1932, Elizabeth Dunbar Jones, who died May 3d. Interment, Kennebunk, Maine.
May 19, 1932, Walter Weber, who died May 16th. Interment, Greenwood.
Marriages.—May 7, 1932, John Gilbert Andrews, Jr., and Anne Levering White.
Transfers.—May 13, 1932, Emma K. and May D. Kephart, from Calvary Church, Germantown.

Our Church School will hold its Commencement on June 19th at 3.30 P.M. An interesting program has been prepared; we are sure that if you come you will receive much inspiration and enjoy the results of the fine work done by our faithful corps of workers. Attendance at Commencement is one way in which our Church family at large can show its interest in this most important work of our parish. Won't you come?

A Tea was recently given by some of our people to help the children in our school at Nenana, Alaska, who have had an epidemic of whooping-cough. Twenty-two dollars was sent as the result of the Tea and this will help in buying a little nourishing food for these needy charges of the Church. Our thanks go out to all who helped, especially to those who gave and managed the Tea.

Just above New Hope stands a little Episcopal Church known as Trinity Chapel, Solebury. There it has been for many years, the spiritual home of countless boys and girls who were baptized, confirmed, and made their communions at its altar, and then went off to the cities to make their living, and incidentally to strengthen city churches. On the first Sunday in the month a clergyman comes to the Chapel from Langhorne to administer Holy Communion; on other Sundays a Lay Reader comes out from the city and reads the service. They are a brave little congregation and have a good-sized Sunday School.

The late Dean Caley was their adviser and friend. He noted that the work had marked time for many years, and felt that if they had a modest Parish House in which to meet for social purposes, for women's guilds, and Sunday School, the work would take on new life. Plans were drawn, an appeal for funds was made to the different church funds, and so far about $8,000 is at hand. The additions will cost about $13,000.

In his need, the Dean turned to the women of the Convocation and they in turn decided to have a Garden Day and give the financial profits for Solebury.

Now this is where you can help: The Garden Day will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Miles Day, Allen Lane and Wissahickon Avenue, on Tuesday, May 31st—next Tuesday—from 2 to 7 P. M., rain or shine. Country produce, fresh vegetables, eggs, cakes, pies, jellies, and flowers will be on sale. Afternoon tea, ice cream, and lemonade will be served, and this beautiful country estate will be thrown wide open for you to see and enjoy. Tickets of admission are 25 cents, and may be had from Mrs. Jenkins or at the gate. There will be arrows on the trees of Allen Lane marking the way. Autos will meet pedestrians at Germantown Avenue and Allen Lane. All is prepared—come!

Mrs. Sheble, the head of our Social Service Committee, is again in need of funds to carry on her work. You can readily understand that there have been heavy levies on Grace Church this year to help our own people in their extraordinary need, and so we bid you send her your contribution—no matter how small—for this worthy cause. She may be addressed at 301 Roumfort Road.

The Young People's Fellowship of Grace Church held its annual election last Sunday evening, which resulted as follows: President, John Fisher; Vice-President, David Rodgers; Treasurer, Fred Burness; Secretary, Ruth Bowen; Corresponding Secretary, Constance Leighton.

On Friday, June 10th, at two o'clock, there will be a card party at the home of Mrs. Stephen L. Newnham, 518 East Mt. Pleasant Avenue. Single tickets will cost fifty cents; tables, two dollars, and the proceeds will be added to the Auxiliary treasury. If you have not already done so, buy your tickets from Mrs. Newnham, or phone her that you are coming, so she may know for how many to provide. Come and bring your friends!

There will be a Parish Picnic to Memorial Park, Schwenksville, on Saturday, June 18. We want to take the Church School children in our own automobiles. If you have a car and can help us out by transporting some of the children, won't you let Mr. Burness or the Rector know right away? We are anxious to get our plans settled.

Grace Church is about to launch a Talking Magazine. Its name will be "The Lamp," its object, to disseminate light—pleasurable, entertaining, informative.

The Table of Contents will comprise eight departments, wide in scope, of church and general interest. Each department will be sponsored by a capable editor and an assistant editor, who will be responsible for the season's contents of their department. Each article will be limited to ten minutes in length.

The price of subscription to "The Lamp" is your interest and presence. As no copies will be printed, attendance is the necessary requisite for participation. The magazine will be issued on the third Monday evening of each month from October to May, at Grace Church Parish House, at 8 o'clock. A large working model of "The Lamp" will be in evidence, to serve as a guide and to emphasize the actuality of the magazine itself.

Mark down on your date pad, now, Monday, October 17th, at 8 P. M., at Grace Church Parish House—"The Lamp." Come and bring your families and friends to hear the contents of Volume 1, Number 1.—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Editor-in-Chief.

The year 1932 marks the seventieth year of the incorporation of Grace Church. In 1862 Grace Church was formally admitted to the Diocese of Pennsylvania as an independent parish, the action being taken at the annual diocesan convention.

Most churches hold an annual festival on the anniversary of the saint for which they are named, but inasmuch as our congregation took its name from a Christian doctrine, we could not do that; instead, we keep our birthday on the Sunday nearest All Saints' Day.

Seventy years of continued existence means a great deal. Your vestry recognizes this, and last spring decided to keep the commemoration in a fitting manner, appointing Mr. S. M. Meehan to be the head of a committee to plan a worthy celebration. The committee has worked hard and now has completed its plans for keeping the commemoration on the first week in November, the time of our annual Dedication Festival. They plan now a parish-wide Corporate Communion on October 30th, at eleven o'clock, the preacher to be Dean Collins, who grew up in Grace Church and entered the ministry from this congregation. This is to be the great service of the anniversary. In the evening it is planned to have a rousing, helpful service, with a reunion of former members of the Choir, the Rector being the preacher.

On Thursday, November 3d, in the evening, there will be a Parish Dinner, the Rectors, Warden, Mr. Fortescue, presiding, and Dr. Cline and several others as speakers. It may even be possible to have our beloved Bishop present.

You will hear more of our plans later. The important thing to do now is to reserve all of Sunday, October 30th, and also Thursday evening, November 3d, for the anniversary. We want everyone connected with Grace Church to be present. Make a note of this now.

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

The Anniversary Committee desires to have the loan of any photographs or other articles reminiscent of the early days of the Parish. Photographs of any of the buildings in which the mission commenced its Sunday school and services will be especially appreciated.

A reunion of former members of our Choir, dating back as far as possible, is part of the plans for the forthcoming anniversary. The present whereabouts of some of these old members may not be generally known, and the aid of the congregation in reaching them is greatly desired.

Adults, Juniors, Men, Women! On Monday, October 17th, at 8 P. M., at Grace Church Parish House, Volume I, Number 1, of "The Lamp" will be presented. This Talking Magazine will contain eight departments, each department to be edited by its own editor and assistant editor. Men, women, juniors, and adults comprise the editorial staff. Each article will be limited to ten minutes, and will be illustrated when possible.

The price of subscription is your attendance and interest. As the magazine "speaks for itself," no printed copies will be obtainable. The editorial staff has based "The Lamp" upon subjects of church and general interest, and feels confident that the material will be unique, creditable, and of mutual enjoyment. Subscribe your presence on October 17th. Bring your friends!—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Editor-in-chief.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY NOTES

Tuesday, October 11th: Luncheon at 12.30. Stated meeting at 1.30. This is always a happy time; a renewal of old associations and a welcoming of new members. We urgently invite all of the women of the Church to meet with us on this day

---

Thursday, October 13th: And each Thursday during the winter—Holy Communion at 9.30.

Sewing and folding of surgical bandages in the Green Room from 10 till 12. Let us encourage those who have charge of this work by a large attendance. There is an inspiration in numbers, and let us make "service" our watchword for the winter.

Monday evening, October 17th, at 8 o'clock: The opening issue of "The Lamp," the oral magazine of Grace Church, with Mrs. Horace H. Burrell as editor-in-chief. Successive issues will appear the third Monday in each month. Save these evenings. We feel sure you'll find this new venture a worthwhile entertainment. Every department of the Church's work is represented, and everyone is invited. Come and bring your friends.

Thursday, November 3d, at 6.30: Anniversary dinner. Cake and candy sale. More detailed information of this event will be sent out later.

Please keep these dates on file, and don't miss any of them.

Next Sunday, October 30th, will be the great anniversary day of Grace Church. Let every one associated with the congregation come at 11 A. M. to give thanks to our heavenly Father for all that He has done and is doing in our Parish, to pledge Him anew your allegiance, and to tell Him of your love and gratitude.

In keeping with the festival, let us not overlook All Saints' Day, Tuesday of this week, when we remember in our church service not only the great saints of God, but also the unnamed ones—our own dear ones in Paradise. Services will be held at 7 A. M. and 9.30 A. M.

Also, if you have not already done so, drop a note right away to Mrs. Holman White, 135 E. Mt. Airy Ave., telling her that you will be present on Thursday evening of this week at the Parish Dinner, at which not only our own Dr. Cline will be present, but also our beloved Bishop, Dr. Taitt. Let us all prepare now to keep the Feast.

Most of you by this time have had a letter from the Accounting Warden and from the Rector announcing that the annual ingathering of pledges for church support will be made during this coming week. In those letters you have been told in detail of our financial situation, and you have been asked to give prayerfully and joyously. This year, in addition to a card on which you will indicate the amount of money you purpose, with God's help, to give, there will also be a card on which are listed various ways in which people may help the Parish by doing personal work for it. This you will also be asked to sign. When you make your communions on Anniversary Sunday, do not fail to pray for God's blessing on the canvass and on those fine people who are going to go from house to house to receive the promises. We commend the canvass and the canvassers to your fervent prayers.

Red Cross Call for Emergency Relief Sewing! The South Eastern Pennsylvania Chapter American Red Cross has been requisitioned for 500,000 garments to clothe those in distress from unemployment. The Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania has been apportioned 100,000. Grace Church has its quota, to be finished by Christmas.

We need the help of every machine and hand sewer in the Parish. The work room is equipped with extra machines, and garments may be finished at home. This is a post-war call for service. The need is urgent. Come to the Parish House every Thursday morning and help the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild complete its quota. You are needed. You are needed now!

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

Through the courtesy of one of our people the rug in the Green Room has been thoroughly cleansed and renewed. We appreciate very much this act of personal service, and hope that some who notice the new appearance of the rug will be moved to inquire who it was who cleansed it and what vacuum cleaner he is selling.

The Talking Magazine.—Vol. I, No. 2, of "The Lamp" will be presented at the Parish House on Monday, November 21, at 8 P. M. As per regular custom, the Table of Contents will not be divulged in advance.

The Editorial Staff takes this opportunity to express its appreciation of the presence of 134 "Subscribers" who braved the storm to attend the October issue. Thus encouraged, the Staff is stimulated to greater and better effort.

A delightful issue awaits you. Guest-Speakers. Come see for yourselves.—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Editor-in-chief.

Whereas, the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild of Grace Church, Mr. Airy, has lost one of its devoted members in the death of Mrs. Ralph H. North, whose untiring service and gentle influence will ever remain in the hearts of all with whom she was associated, and

WHEREAS, her very life was an exemplification of her highest ideals—prayer, thanksgiving, and service—which permeated all her interests and activities, and

WHEREAS, the members of the Auxiliary wish to express their love and deep sense of loss,

Therefore, be it resolved, that this resolution be sent to the family of Mrs. Ralph H. North and a copy of the same be spread upon the minutes of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild.

There are numbers of people who attend Grace Church regularly who are not formally associated with us. We hesitate to ask such people to share our financial burdens, because we want them to feel that we seek them and not theirs. On the other hand, it may be that many of them would like to give regularly toward the support of our work. If you who are reading this are one of those who have not been asked but would like to be a regular subscriber, speak to the Rector or to the Accounting Warden and we will be glad to give you opportunity.

For some years the Rector has been dissatisfied with the annual date of Confirmation. Imagine his pleasure when he received notice that the date has been changed from early in November to late in February! This will give adequate time for assembling and preparing the Class, which will be called together early in December. If you are interested, speak to one of your clergy.

Have you ever noticed the rubric at the bottom of page 320 of the Book of Common Prayer? It reads as follows: "The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the People, whilst they are in health, to make their wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and when of ability, to leave bequests for religious and charitable purposes."

In accordance with this injunction, your Rector hereby calls your attention to the rubric, with the hope that many will obey its direction and remember Grace Church in their wills. It is comforting to realize that even when God shall have called you home you may still have a part in supporting the work of the Parish that you care for so deeply. There have been many of our people who could have given generously in their wills for the continuance of the work of this Parish, but have failed to do so; perhaps they failed to leave anything to the endowment fund because their attention was not called to it. A notable example on the other side is the will of the late Mrs. Ralph H. North, who left a thousand dollars outright to the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild and an additional two thousand dollars, the income of which is to be given to the ingatherings of the United Thank Offerings and credited to Grace Church.

The returns of the Every Member Canvass are still incomplete, but from what have already come in we feel very much encouraged. Many new contributors have been added to our list and we hope thereby to draw them closer to our church-family, realizing that "Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." Some have increased their pledges despite these difficult times; we thank God for them. Others, by renewing for 1933 the promises that they made for 1932, are giving with equal sacrificial generosity; by maintaining what they have undertaken in the past, they are really going ahead. There has been a fine spirit exhibited throughout the canvass and the canvassers to a man have had happy experiences. We wish particularly to thank the Chairman of the canvass, Mr. Stanley Thornton, for his well-laid plans and for his constant interest and work during the campaign. Also to our many canvassers we give thanks. As the Rector said to some of them, "With such backing, a parish cannot fail to succeed."

If any one has been overlooked by the canvassers and not given the opportunity to make his pledge, please get in touch at once with the Chairman, the Treasurer, or the Rector, and the thing will be remedied. We are desirous of making this a complete canvass.

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

FROM THE PARISH REGISTER

Marriage:

On October 29th, in Grace Church, Arthur Schopenhauer Bacon and Mildred Elizabeth Gamble. Both are communicants of Grace Church, but unfortunately for us are residing in Washington, D. C.

Burials:

November 12, 1932, Caroline E. Joly, who died on November 9th. Interment was at Ardsley.

November 23, 1932, William N. H. Houston, of 150 Greenwood Avenue, Wyncote, who died November 20th and was interred at Northwood.

Transfer Received:

November 1, 1932, Miss Irene Fooks, from All Saints' Church, Torresdale.

There are still many in the congregation who worship regularly with us and who look on Grace Church as their spiritual home but are canonically connected with other congregations. They don't know that to be listed as a communicant in good standing in a particular parish it is necessary to have a formal letter of transfer from the congregation which holds one's letter. All you have to do to be transferred is to write to your former rector, asking him to send a letter of transfer for you from his parish to Grace Church. We are not interested primarily in adding to our statistical strength, but we are interested in having every one worshipping with us members of the family rather than guests.

As a result of the Rector's appeal for unperishable goods at Thanksgiving time, to supplement the unpaid salary of a nearby clergyman, there was collected and delivered almost three barrelfuls of canned goods, some sugar, a ham and some money to help him along. The recipient asks us to thank all who gave so generously and to tell them he appreciates their kindness from the bottom of his heart.

The Talking Magazine.—Vol. I, No. 3, of "The Lamp" will be issued on Monday, December 19, at 8 P. M., at Grace Church Parish House.

Do not miss the Christmas edition. It is full of timely articles. The Pageant which will be presented by the Department of "Youth" should be witnessed by all. It will sound the keynote for the Christmastide. Subscribe your presence.—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Editor-in-Chief.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY NOTES

On Thursday, December 1, there will be held the monthly all-day meeting of the Auxiliary. There will be Holy Communion at 9.30; sewing and folding of bandages at 10.00; lunch at 12.30, followed by a speaker; the name of the speaker will be announced later. Don't miss this meeting! Let every woman of the church lend her help to the work we are doing for the Red Cross.

Mrs. Pease wishes to announce a card party at the home of Mrs. Holman White, 135 E. Mt. Airy Avenue, on Tuesday, December 13th, at two o'clock. The cost will be fifty cents a person, the proceeds to be applied to the special work of the Indian Hope Committee. Please phone your reservations to Mrs. White, C. H. 0707.

Our Church Periodical Club is sending out an emergency call in this Parish paper for books of all kinds—for all ages.

There is an urgent need for more magazines to be sent out regularly each month. Will not those who are fortunate enough still to be able to subscribe or buy magazines regularly be willing to send theirs in place of the regular donors who have had to discontinue sending just now during the present depression?

Please telephone Germantown 3872, or speak to the secretary of the Church Periodical Club of Grace Church, Mt. Airy.—M. W. BAYARD, Secretary.

Dec. 5, 1932, Margaret W. Elberly, from Epiphany Church, Carpenter Lane, Phila.

Dec. 23, 1932, William Bishop, from St. Simeon's Church, Phila.

Burials: Nov. 28, 1932; Leila A. Smith, interment at Ivy Hill.

Mrs. Leila A. Smith, who died at the Cresheim Arms at the age of 91, was for many, many years a Communicant of this parish, having come to this section as a bride during the early days of the Civil War. In her will she bequeathed five hundred dollars to the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild of Grace Church, the federal tax to be paid by her executors and the money to be used at the discretion of the Guild.

The Editorial Staff of "The Lamp" sometime ago conceived the idea of providing lights for the two trees that stand at either side of the main entrance of the church, to brighten up the exterior of our buildings and lawn. They felt that this year particularly when so much seems enveloped in gloom, it would be fittingly symbolic to lighten up the way to Church as a reminder that The Light of the World still shines brightly. With the consent of the vestry they went ahead with their plans, and the beautiful illumination seen nightly during the Christmas season is the result. Not only our own people have been appreciative, but also strangers have told the Rector that the lights have seemed to them a cordial invitation to come inside and worship. We thank all who had anything to do with the project.

The final returns from the Every Member Canvass are in. We now have a business-like idea of how much to depend on and how much we shall be able to spend during 1933.

The total at first seems disappointing. Fifteen thousand dollars was promised for next year as against about twenty-one thousand dollars for this year. That means that in planning our expenditures we have had to cut everything drastically, beginning with salaries and continuing with the amount we promise "for others." For the first time, we shall not be able to pay our full proportion for missions. This is very disheartening when one's imagination visualizes the results at home and abroad. But it simply cannot be helped; we cannot pledge more money than we have in sight.

The bright side is this: we are in the same position as almost every other congregation we know of. Perhaps this sounds to you like the remark of a child who, having brought home a poor report-card from school, excuses his poor showing by pointing out that, "Johnny So-and-so's is even worse." Not so. The resemblance is merely superficial. What we mean is that all congregations are suffering from the results of their people's poverty. Grace Church people are as generous as ever, but they simply do not have the money to give. Attendance at church services is larger than before; all the organizations report more interest and more people coming out than ever; the parish is functioning; the decrease in income is not due to decrease in affection and appreciation, but to financial inability to give. This is a fact, not a theory.

Meanwhile we shall close the year with a deficit of approximately three thousand dollars. This we must make up in some way, as soon as possible. We did not capitalize our Seventieth Anniversary by pleading for a special (thanksgiving) offering at that time; nor did we send out an appeal for special gifts at Christmas time. Our plan is to depend on the regular, generous givings of our people from week to week to carry all expenses. We hope to continue this plan indefinitely. When a contributor thinks out how much he will pledge from year to year, we want him to feel that there will be no extras unless a great emergency arises; he is conscientiously to consider how much he should give for God's work and pledge the full amount, without reserving any for special appeals.

As for the three thousand dollar deficit—perhaps we can make it up in some unusual way. The Rector is going to call together the heads of our various groups very soon, to consider the matter.

It will help cheer us up to remember that if all who pledged for this year could have kept their promises, we would have had a considerable balance in the treasury. Also, more people have pledged for 1933 than for 1932, and we believe that because all are cognizant of the low state of their incomes, the amount uncollected in 1933 will be comparatively small.

So we take heart and go on, believing that if we do all we can for Him, God will take care of us not only spiritually but also financially.

Confirmation Classes are now forming. The clergy will meet candidates on this Sunday, January 1st, at 7 P. M., in the Green Room. All are welcome, whether they are planning to be confirmed, have been confirmed, or only come to increase their knowledge of what the Church believes and teaches. Our own beloved Bishop will come to us on Sunday morning, February 12th, at 11 A. M., for the rite.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY NOTES

At our all-day meeting on January 5th, the luncheon speaker will be Dr. Paul Rusch, instructor at St. Paul's University, Ikebukuro, Tokyo, Japan. Dr. Rusch is thoroughly conversant with the work of the church in Japan, and should afford us an interesting hour.

Tuesday, Jan. 10th; mark this date on your calendar and save it for the annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild. There will be a luncheon at 12.30, followed by the business meeting. The stranger in our midst will be specially welcomed. Come and meet the women, hear of our work in the past and our plans for the future; and we feel confident you will wish to be actively identified with this branch of the church's work.

The annual appeal for second-hand clothing to help one of the missions, has been received. This year the barrels will go to the Redeemer Mission at Pineville, South Carolina. The need is greater than ever, and we trust everyone will help in this emergency. Any clothing in good condition for men, women or children, will be acceptable. Either bring the garments to the church or phone C. H. 1323, and Mrs. Newnham will have someone call for them.

The Talking Magazine. Start the New Year by subscribing your presence to Vol. I., No. 4, of "The Lamp." It will be issued on Monday, January 16th, at the Parish House at 8 P. M. The Nature Department will be edited by Mr. J. Fletcher Street, naturalist and author. His article will be illustrated with slides. The News Department will be represented by the Editor of a well-known local paper. "Music" will present guest artists in an unusual way. "Art" will also present a guest speaker.

Do not miss the January issue. It will be of more than passing interest.—Stephanie S. Burrell, Editor-in-Chief.

FEBRUARY 2 (Purification of B. V. M.) AND FEBRUARY 24 (St. Matthias').—
Holy Communion, 9.30 A. M.

EVERY THURSDAY.—Holy Communion, 9.30 A. M.

Our own Bishop Taitt will come to us on the morning of the Second Sunday in February for an official visitation to the parish and to administer the rite of Confirmation. A Bishop is obliged by the law of the Church to visit every parish and mission station in his jurisdiction every so often and when Bishop Taitt comes to us on February 12th, he will come to the whole congregation as its bishop, to meet with us, preach us a sermon, and look over our records. It will be his official visitation. At the service he will administer the rite of Confirmation. A large number will at that time become full-fledged members of our congregation. After the service I would like to have many of you wait a few minutes to bid the new members of our family welcome and to speak a few words to Bishop Taitt.

Not only because he is our Diocesan but also because we care so much for him, I hope and expect our church building to be crowded to overflowing on the morning when he comes: February 12th, 11 A. M.!

In spite of the difficult year 1932, our Diocese closed its books without a deficit in its own account and also paid the total of $200,000 promised to the church at large. This was made possible by drastic economies put into effect early in the year and by the added gifts of a group of people calling themselves "The Diocesan Contributors" who raised over a period of months a large amount of money to prevent a deficit at the end of the year. Grace Church paid to the Diocese its full quota of $4,830—which is very little compared with the $10,000 we gave in 1931, but very good considering the sacrifice and generosity it represents.

The flowers on the Altar on Christmas Day were given by Mrs. Frank J. Sheble—In Memorium; on January 8th by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph King—In Memorium; on January 15th by Mr. John Greaves and Mrs. Thomas Bradley—In Memorium.

Next Sunday and February 5th will be the last two Sundays on which we use Altar flowers until after Easter Day. If any member of the parish would like to provide for either Sunday, please telephone Miss Margaretta Bayard, 105 East Johnson Street at once.

On February 23d at 6.30 P. M. there will be given by the Men's Service League and the Young People's Fellowship a supper and entertainment. This will be a novel event; seating at tables holding four, good food and continuous entertainment lasting the entire evening. For all members of Grace Church Parish, their children and their friends. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Men's Service League, the Young People's Fellowship or the Woman's Auxiliary.

The Talking Magazine, Vol. I, No. 5 of "The Lamp" will be presented at the Parish House on Monday evening, February 20, at 8 o'clock. This will be the All-American Issue. Every Department in the Table of Contents will sound an American note. This number will be of outstanding interest, even though quite different from the issues that have preceded it.

Guest Speakers! Surprises! 147 subscribers attended the January "Lamp." Come again.—Stephanie S. Burrell, Editor-in-Chief.

FOR THE UNEMPLOYED

O ALMIGHTY GOD, who hast blessed the earth with all that is needful for the life of man, give thy help and comfort to all who are in need and especially to those our brethren who are now suffering through unemployment; stir us to do our part for their aid and relief; help us to realize our responsibility for the injustices of our social and industrial life; fill us with the desire to purify our civilization and make it truly Christian that we may be delivered from the evils alike of grinding poverty and of excessive riches; lead us into the paths of simple and upright living; take from us the spirit of covetousness and give us the spirit of service; show us the way so to order our life as a nation that, receiving the just reward of honest labor, none may want, but each according to his need may share in thy bountiful provision. We ask this in the Name of Him who came into this world to show us the way of justice and brotherhood and love, thy Son, Christ our Lord. Amen.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY NOTES

In accordance with the decision at the annual meeting, the women of the auxiliary are undertaking to raise one thousand dollars toward last year's deficit. The enthusiasm with which the women have started to earn their contributions toward this fund, is amazing. Several delightful affairs have been arranged at a nominal charge.

The social afternoon given by Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Thompson added forty-four dollars to the fund, and the success of this gathering was measured, not only by the financial returns, but by the joy of pleasant companionship, and closer contacts with friends and neighbors.

Through the kindness of Mrs. Voorhis the management of Upsal Gardens is giving us the use of their recreation rooms for the evening of February 8th. There will be diversified entertainment—cards, pool, billiards and ping-pong; the charge will be fifty cents per person and tickets may be purchased from Mrs. Voorhis, or any of her committee: Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Brand, Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. Hanna, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Thompson or Mrs. Newnham.

Mrs. John D. Thomas, chairman of the Women's Committee for Church work among the Jews will tell the auxiliary about this work in our Diocese on Thursday, February 2d, after luncheon.

A visit to the work shops of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf is being arranged for the women of the Auxiliary and Guild of Grace Church by the Social Service Committee. All who care to join in making this interesting tour are asked to meet in the Parish House at 1.45 (or to be at the institution at 2 o'clock) on Thursday afternoon, February 9th.

On Monday evening next, at 8.15, we are in for a great treat. Many of us have heard something of the Bok Tower in Florida; some have even seen it, but nevertheless most are still in the dark as to the details of it and its inner meaning. Now we have in our congregation one who knows the whole story; her husband and son were the builders; she was in Florida while the project was being brought into reality, and she has consented to make it all clear for us in a lecture, illustrated by still and motion pictures, entitled, "The Romance of the Singing Tower," which will be given in the Parish House on Monday next at 8.15.

We hope that the Parish House will be filled to capacity; it should be, for Mrs. Burrell is a forceful and interesting speaker and the subject is of great interest. There will be an offering taken which will be used for the Church deficit.

Don't forget—tomorrow evening, 8.15, in the Parish House! Come!

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

The leader of the Three Hour Service on Good Friday will be the Rev. C. Rankin Barnes, Executive Secretary of the Department of Christian Social Service of the National Council.

On Easter Monday, from 5 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon, in the Parish House, will be held the annual election of four members of the Vestry. Nominations are now in order. Mr. A. C. Brand, 301 E. Durham Street, is Secretary of the Vestry, and if desired, will give particulars as to how to nominate.

The Easter offering will be given to our Episcopal Hospital. Please be generous—the need is great.

From the Parish Register: BAPTISM: March 19, 1933, Langdon Williams Harris, born September 10, 1932. Parents, Langdon W. and Elizabeth C. Harris. Godparents: Dr. Edward K. Crossan and Mrs. Elizabeth M. Crossan.

RECEIVED BY TRANSFER: March 8, 1932, Mrs. Roy Hand, from St. James' Episcopal Church, Cedartown, Georgia.

BURIALS: February 22, 1933, Wilhelmina R. Weis; died February 18th and interred at Hillside Cemetery. March 1, 1933, Mary Thatcher Kayser, died February 27, 1933; interred at Westminster Cemetery. March 25, 1933, Hugh Hamilton, died March 22, 1933; interred at Ivy Hill Cemetery. March 27, 1933, Robert Morrison Stults, died March 24, 1933; interred at Middletown Presbyterian Church Yard.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY NOTES

Another Auxiliary birthday draws near. The date is Tuesday, April 25th, at 3 o'clock in the Parish House. All women, old and young, are invited to attend and enjoy a delightful program given by home talent.

You are asked to bring with you, if possible, a penny for each year you have lived, but if not, come anyway—the more the merrier, at this informal party.—E. V. D. B.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will have its all-day meeting with luncheon this coming Thursday. They will meet for sewing on Thursday of Holy Week, but there will be no luncheon.

The Young People's Fellowship are in need of storage space for their belongings. If anyone has a spare cupboard or book-case that can be locked, or to which a padlock could be fastened, kindly notify Miss Marguerite Westney, and arrangements will be made for its transfer to the church.

Anyone desiring to give donations of money or plants for altar decorations for Easter will please telephone to the President of the Altar Guild—Germantown 3872—this week.

Remember to borrow books from the Lending Library in the Church Porch—they are good reading for Lent.

The Church Periodical Club is in great need of money to pay the postage and express charges on the books and magazines you send to the Parish House. Some girl from the West has asked for "The American Magazine." Will you not send her your copy regularly each month after you have read it?—M. W. BAYARD, Secretary, C. P. C.

The Easter number of "The Lamp" will be presented at the Parish House on the evening of Easter Monday at 8 o'clock. An elaborate and colorful issue has been planned.

The Editorial Staff appreciates the faithfulness with which so large a number have subscribed their presence to the magazine each month. The large attendance has stimulated all those who have been responsible for the contents.

If you have not already attended, come to the Easter number, so that you may be familiar with our Talking Magazine.

The April issue will close Vol. I.—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Editor-in-Chief.

On Wednesday of this week at 8 P. M. there will be held in Holy Trinity Church, 19th & Walnut Sts., Phila., a Diocesan Missionary Mass Meeting. Two of the most interesting missionaries in the world will address the meeting: (1) Bishop Roots, for thirty years in charge of the missionary district of Hankow, China; and (2) Dr. Wu, a Chinese woman of charm and power, President of Gingling College in Central China. This meeting was arranged by the Field Department of the Diocese because we found that these two outstanding world citizens would be in Phila. this week and we wanted our people to hear them. Our purpose is simply to have you know them and be inspired by their vision. I hope that many Grace Church people will take advantage of this great opportunity.

There will be a Social Evening for Men on Monday, Dec. 11th, at 8.00 P. M., in the Parish House. All men in the Parish are invited to come and bring their friends.

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

Our Bishop, at the diocesan convention in May, suggested that every communicant of this diocese put aside ten cents a week, in order to take a one-day excursion to attend the General Convention of our Church to be held in October, 1934—at the great opening Mass Meeting in Convention Hall. The ten cents a week will provide train fare, a dollar for the offering, and luncheon. Many of our people have taken his suggestion to heart and already several parishes and missions have engaged special trains to go and return in. Your rector would like to have his whole parish attend and is calling your attention to the event now as a sort of preliminary suggestion; perhaps we with a neighboring parish will be able to go and return in a special train. Think it over.

Our choir has been handicapped for a long time by the fact that their piano has finally given out, beyond repair. As a result rehearsals have had to be held in church or in the Green Room. This is unsatisfactory for many reasons. We cannot at this time afford to purchase a new piano and your rector is wondering whether anyone in the congregation has a Grand or Baby-Grand piano he will give for choir use. It must be a Grand piano, because the director has to see the choir while playing the score. Have you such a piano for us?

PARISH ITEMS IN BRIEF

The Young People's Fellowship will give several short plays on January twelfth; details later. So far this year we have added 35 new pupils to our Church School. Confirmation will be administered in Grace Church on Feb. 18, in the morning. We have had more confirmations and more transfers to us this year than any year in our history. The women have completed and turned over to the Parish Treasurer the thousand dollars they pledged for the deficit of 1932. Grace Church promised $1200 less than its quota for the general work of the Church for 1933 (our proportion was $4200; we have promised $3000). With the diocese now $40,000 behind, how fine it would be if we could add the $1200! We now have two of our young men studying for the Ministry: Charles Covell, who will finish at the Alexandria, Va., Seminary next June; and Albert Fischer, Jr., who began his three-year course at the Philadelphia Divinity School in September. As soon as we learn how much our Thanksgiving Offering for the Episcopal Hospital amounted to, we will let you know. This year the Young People's Fellowship gave a special offering to be added to the Parish Offering. Lent next year will begin on Feb. 14—that means an early Easter—on April 1. At the Church School Carol Service on Christmas Eve, there will be given a beautiful pageant, the Nativity. We hope to publish the PARISH NEWS regularly now, from week to week. The number of baptisms, weddings, new communicants, and burials is so large since our last issue, we will publish a few each issue.

The Christmas Number of the Talking Magazine, "The Lamp," will be presented at Grace Church Parish House on Monday evening, Dec. 18th, at 8 o'clock.

This will be a beautiful and elaborate issue. Mr. Hollingsworth Pearce, a metal craftsman with studio in Phila., will tell us of his work and show examples of his art.

The Hill Top Chorus of more than twenty voices, conducted by Mr. Moritz H. Emery, will sing old French carols.

Preceded by an historic outline of ancient Pageantry, the Pageant of the Nativity, arranged and costumed by Mr. and Mrs. John A. Eiseman, will be presented. The Pageant will depict the Annunciation, the Holy Night, and the Epiphany.

Do not miss this number. It will strike the keynote of a glorious Christmastide.

It was a happy impulse that led one of our good people recently to have the Green Room repainted without expense to us. For the thoughtfulness and generosity of the donor we are truly thankful. No gift to Grace Church could have been more acceptable at this time; there is no room that is in more frequent use. The Green Room cares for one of the large departments of our Church School and is the place where the Young People's Fellowship meets. During the week it is used by both Auxiliaries and, in addition, is often much admired after weddings as a place where bride and groom receive their friends. It is in almost constant use; but the one function it is coming more and more to serve is as a place where thinking people meet to learn interesting things in a delightfully informal atmosphere. The Rector often speaks of it as the "place of painless education."

This use of the Green Room came again to mind last Monday evening, when the Men's Club had for its program brief talks by some of its own members on their own businesses and some of their problems. There were talks on very high levels concerning engineering, banking, manufacturing, textiles, gasolines, law, education, and other subjects by men who knew their subjects intimately. Nowhere in so short a space of time could one have learned so much, so interestingly.

And the same use will be made of the room tomorrow evening at eight. At that time a metal craftsman will speak of his art, illustrating his points by concrete exhibits. The Hill Top Chorus will sing old French Christmas Carols for us. And there will be given a brief synopsis of ancient pageantry, together with a "Pageant of the Nativity," arranged and costumed by Mr. and Mrs. John A. Eiseman—and this without admission charge or collection of money.

Do come out tomorrow evening; let this issue of the Lamp begin your Christmastide. Bring some one you like—some one you'd like to have a good time with you!

There are many unbaptized children in the Parish, either newly born or children of newcomers who have so far put off having their children received into the Christian Church. What better time for the Sacrament than Christmas Eve—the anniversary of the birth of our Christ child? With this thought in mind the Rector has arranged a service of Holy Baptism for 4.30 P. M. on Sunday next—right after the Children's Carol Service. For a male child it is customary to have two godfathers and one godmother; for a female, two godmothers and one godfather. Parents may serve for their own children, if they so desire. A godparent need not be one of our own; all we demand of sponsors is that they themselves shall have received Holy Baptism in some Christian Church and that they will take the vows seriously. Have you a child to be baptized? If so, telephone the Rector.

The Social Service Committee are planning to send Christmas baskets to poor families in the Parish and will welcome gifts of either food or money for this purpose. These may be sent to Mrs. Frank J. Sheble, 311 Roumfort Road, Chairman, or brought to the Parish House, labeled "Social Service."

PARISH ITEMS IN BRIEF

We have not yet been offered the Grand Piano we asked for last week for Choir use. And we need it sorely. Have you the piano we need?

The Rector has officiated at more funerals this autumn than ever in his ministry during a like period, except during the epidemic of 1918. Many of the funerals have been of people not connected with this Parish, and were cared for by us because Grace Church's friendliness is becoming more widely known. Some, however, have been of outstanding communicants of our own Parish. We shall miss them much. May they rest in peace!

Last Sunday evening the Young People's Fellowship had a rabbi address them on his religion. It was helpful, and more than 65 came out, though the weather was bitter cold. Tonight's program will be equally interesting. Both Juniors and Seniors will meet together at 8 o'clock.

There is a plan on foot to ask the communicants of the Diocese at the end of the year to come to the aid of Bishop Taitt, so that he will not have to go out and beg money for our diocesan deficit. A bishop should not have to give over his spiritual duties to raise money any more than a rector.

The Young People's Fellowship is planning to care for twenty-five needy families at Christmastime. They have been gathering provisions for several months, and have amassed quite a large quantity of imperishable food.

We have had eight weddings this autumn, and have one more scheduled. During the whole of 1932 there were only five in our Parish. It looks as if people are more confident of the future than they were last year.

How cozy and warm Mr. Algeo keeps our Church these winter days! The new porch helps much.

No Church School on December 24th—next Sunday.

Your Clergy wish you all a Holy Christmas

We believe that people are looking more and more on Christmas for its religious significance than as a gift day—as a Church day. During the last few years there has been a steady tendency back to the real meaning of Christmas, evidenced by increased use of religious themes on Christmas greeting-cards, by religious motifs in department store decorations, and by many other manifestations. This is as it should be. For it we are truly thankful.

In order that all who will may worship our Lord some time during Christmas Day, we have arranged a number of services, as you may discover in the above schedule. The great service will be the midnight service, beginning the day with Communion with God. It seems singularly appropriate that we should gather together to worship at a time roughly corresponding to that time on the first Christmas when the glorious news "came upon the midnight clear." For those who cannot come out at midnight, we have arranged a daybreak service at 6 A. M., another at 7.30 A. M., and a final service at 9.30 A. M.

Surely you can come at one of these hours. Come in wonder at the awfulness of the good news of the Incarnation of God.

The Social Service Committee are sending Christmas baskets to poor families in the Parish, and will welcome contributions toward them. These may be sent to Mrs. Frank J. Sheble, 311 Roumfort Road, Chairman, or given to any member of the committee.

PARISH ITEMS IN BRIEF

You will remember that it is our custom to give our Thanksgiving Day offering to our Episcopal Hospital for current expenses. Last year's offering from Grace Church was $815.32; so far this year we have received $775. Judging by past experience, envelopes marked "Thanksgiving Day Offering" will be turned in from time to time for several months more. The final figure will probably be around $800. In spite of the fact that we have fallen short of last year's amount, we are pleased. Undoubtedly the gift represents more genuine interest and sacrifice than any Thanksgiving Day offering for many years. ✠ Because we have so many parishes, missions, chapels, and institutions, and because we have only one bishop, it is impossible for our Diocesan to visit every congregation, every year. For many years, therefore, it has been the custom to call in the bishop of a small diocese to help with confirmations during the season of Lent. Inasmuch as our own Bishop Taitt came to Grace Church last year for confirmation rites, we are assigned the visiting bishop this year. His name is Rt. Rev. H. P. A. Abbott, bishop of the diocese of Lexington (Ky.). He will be with us at 11 A.M. Sunday, February 18, 1934. Confirmation classes will begin on the first Sunday in the new year. ✠ One notices stories of unhappy marriages so frequently in the newspapers that one has to stop and realize every once in a while that they are featured in the newspapers because they are unusual. Usual happenings are not considered news and are not reported. The rector of a London congregation in a crowded industrial district recently felt this so strongly that he held a special service of thanksgiving for happy married life, and four hundred couples, of all ages, attended! ✠ There will be no Auxiliary meetings held during Christmas week. ✠ The Young People's Fellowship are busy on their plays for January 12th in the Parish House; tickets are going fast, the Men's Club having taken more than 150. Have you secured yours?

We thought last week that we had secured the Grand Piano we have been asking for, but we just missed it. Again, do you know where we can secure one free or at a low cost? ✠ The Choirmaster has arranged a special service for the Sunday after Christmas at 4 P.M.—it will be musical in character and you will be amply repaid if you attend. Come!

The annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will be held on Tuesday, January 9th. There will be luncheon at 12.45, followed by the business meeting at 2.00; a résumé of our work of the past year; discussion and formulation of plans for 1934; and election of officers.

May I ask all the women of the church to make a special effort to attend this meeting? Remember, the Auxiliary is YOUR organization, and needs YOUR help.—Nell H. Newnham.

Thursday, January 4th, is the date of the first Auxiliary meeting in 1934. Everybody come and start the new year with a record attendance. The luncheon will be at 12.30 o'clock and immediately following it Mrs. Frank S. Perkins will tell of the work of the church at Quantanamo, Cuba. Both the subject and the speaker are most interesting.

PARISH ITEMS IN BRIEF

Happy New Year! ✠ Do not forget the beautiful service of Christmas music that has been prepared for you, which will take place at four o'clock this afternoon in the Church. ✠ The Offering envelopes are here and ready for distribution. A vestryman will be in attendance after service this morning in the Parish House to give you yours for 1934. Even if you haven't been a regular contributor before, he will be glad to welcome you and give you a set of envelopes. ✠ Attendance at the Christmas services was as follows: 11 A. M., 238; 3.30 P. M., 548; 11.30 P. M., 427; 6 A. M., 28; 7.30 A. M., 32; 9.30 A. M., 27. There were 338 Communions made and the total Christmas attendance mounted to 1300! ✠ There were eight children baptized at the 4.30 service on Christmas Eve and the rite was so interesting and helpful that we plan to make this service an annual custom. ✠ Here is how a sermon is born: The Rector had been reading in his New Testament that suggestive prayer that the Elder John offered for his friend, Gaius: "Beloved, I pray that in all things thou mayest prosper and be in health even as thy soul prospereth." Then he went out to make Parish calls. Stopping at one house he inquired why the children had been so irregular in Church School attendance and he was given the common reply that they had been kept out of Church School because their mother, having heard that there were many colds, grippe, and other things about, was afraid to send them for fear that they might catch something. The pastor then went on to inquire if they remained isolated in their homes. "Oh, no," replied their mother, "they go to school every day, riding on the street cars, and they attend the movies from time to time." Hearing this, the Rector could not forbear inquiring whether mothers think that bacilli haunt only the House of God, becoming especially virulent on Sundays and seeking for their prey only the unfortunate youngsters who are sent there for their religious education. On his way home, partly amused and partly depressed, it dawned upon him that this is a general attitude toward life: Children must have their schooling; they may be educated in holy things if nothing more entertaining prevents; men must make money and have recreation; religion is an extra which those who have a taste for it may put down on their weekly menus. And so the clergyman returned in spirit to the Elder John and began to discern what he meant by his prayer for Gaius. Thus a sermon was born. It was never preached. ✠ The Young People are going to give their plays on January 12th. ✠ Confirmation instructions begin next Sunday; all are invited to attend. No one will be asked to be confirmed. Come! ✠ Our thanks to all who prepared, and gave the beautiful pageant!

Vol. II, Number 4, of the Talking Magazine, "The Lamp," will be issued at the Parish House on Monday evening, Jan. 15th, at 8 o'clock. It will be a "Miscellaneous Number" and offers much of interest.

Save the date for yourself and your friends. Additional information will appear in the next issue of the PARISH NEWS.

Start the New Year with a resolution to attend every number of "The Lamp."—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Editor-in-Chief.

Tonight your clergy will begin confirmation instructions preparatory to Bishop Abbot's coming on February 18. Mr. Irvin will instruct the younger members of the class—the Rector will instruct the older ones. These instructions are open to all who care to come; no pressure will be brought to bear on any one to be confirmed. The decision as to whether a candidate shall be presented will in every case rest with the clergy. We hope that many will attend: we know that those who come will learn much and get much from their attendance. The meetings will take place every Sunday at 7 P. M. from now until February 18, in the Parish House. We would like to have you present tonight.

On the day after tomorrow, January 9, every woman of our congregation is invited to come to the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild. Luncheon at 12.45; Business Meeting at 2.00. The meeting will be very interesting, consisting of a summary of the past year's work, election of officers, and planning for 1934. Come, whether or not you have ever attended; you will be welcome!

PARISH ITEMS IN BRIEF

No Holy Day occurs this week, but as usual there will be a celebration of Holy Communion on Thursday at 9.30 A. M. ✠ Statistics for 1933: Sunday Services, 155; Week-day Services, 141; Public Services of Holy Communion, 166; Private Services of Holy Communion, 9. Total Services, 296, and in addition more than 40 Church Services for Church School. Total attendance at Church Services for year, 19,000. Total Communions made, 4,651! ✠ Next Friday, January 12, is the night set for the two plays to be given by the Young People's Fellowship. Over 200 tickets have been sold already, and the whole project promises to be a success. A dance orchestra will play and there will be a dance after the performance. Tickets are 35 cents. Have you yours? ✠ At a special meeting of the Vestry held on December 31, Mr. Albert F. Fischer, Jr., was recommended to the Standing Committee of the Diocese to be made a candidate for Holy Orders, he having a few days previously successfully passed his preliminary examination on the contents of the English Bible before the Examining Chaplains of the Diocese. ✠ Any one desiring to become a regular contributor to Grace Church may do so by speaking to either of the clergy, or by writing directly to our Accounting Warden, Dr. Holman White, 135 East Mt. Airy Avenue.

The January number of "The Lamp" will be presented at the Parish House on Monday, January 15, at 8 P. M. This will be a "Miscellaneous Number," and offers variety and interest.

Mr. Irvin C. Poley, Assistant Principal at Germantown Friends' School, will tell us of his famous collection of autographs and will exhibit some of them.

Mrs. Abram Bunn Ross, State Chairman of Conservation in the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women, will discuss "Conservation in Nature."

Mr. Richard Blizzard will tell us of "Stonehenge," one of the ancient wonders of England. Mr. Blizzard will show us pictures that he took last summer while visiting Stonehenge, preparatory to this article.

These are some of the high lights, not all. Come and see for yourselves, and bring others to share the pleasure of our Talking Magazine.—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Editor-in-Chief.

Tomorrow evening, January 15th, at 8 o'clock, will mark the edition of the January issue of the Talking Magazine, "The Lamp."

It will be a Miscellaneous Number, and has sufficient variety to please every one. Some of the high lights were mentioned in last week's PARISH NEWS.

Remember your New Year's Resolution to attend every issue of "The Lamp." Come to the Parish House and bring others to enjoy the Lamp-Light with you. Begin with the January number.—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Editor-in-Chief.

The Rector asked the Superintendent of our Church School to make a report for the PARISH NEWS. He consented, and here it is:

"If the Church School is making progress this year, it is due to the faithfulness and devotion of its teachers. In all three divisions of the school, teachers' records for regular attendance are remarkable. Absences are few, and pupils have learned to depend upon their teachers' presence and interest. Nothing can shatter the morale of a school so quickly as undependable teachers.

"People of the parish owe to the thirty or more men and women who work in the Church School a real debt of gratitude and appreciation.

"Parents can help by seeing that their children practise the same virtue of dependability as their teachers. When pupils are absent or late, it can very often be traced to carelessness on the part of parents.

"The Church School has as its objective the training of its pupils in the experience of Christianity as understood by the Episcopal Church. It operates on a budget unbelievably small. There are no luxuries, but it is believed that the essentials are all there. Parents and other interested persons are always welcome as visitors at Church School sessions."—J. W. I.

Parish Items In Brief

No Holy Day occurs this week, but as usual there will be a celebration of Holy Communion on Thursday at 9.30 A. M. ✠ Have you envelopes for 1934? If not, let us know at once, please. ✠ We look forward to seeing you at "The Lamp" tomorrow evening. ✠ At the stated meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild on Tuesday last, Mrs. Francis Murphy was elected treasurer of the United Thank Offering, and Mrs. Arthur L. Rogers was elected Educational Secretary. ✠ We had a good number present at Confirmation Instructions last Sunday at 7 P. M. We shall meet again this evening at the same hour. ✠ Twenty were baptized in Grace Church in 1933; eleven in 1932. ✠ On February 22 ,1933, your Rector, as Dean of the Convocation of Germantown, the Rev. Sydney Goodman, and a group of eleven interested people met in West Oak Lane to consider the feasibility of establishing a mission. Services were begun the following Thursday, and within a month were too well attended to be accommodated in private houses. The Dean then rented an apartment, and still the numbers grew. On Thanksgiving Day, singing hymns and carrying chairs, the congregation moved into its new home, a frame building moved down from Southampton. The Sunday evening congregation often consists of more than a hundred, and even in the heavy downpour last Sunday at 7.30 A. M., 36 persons came to receive the Holy Communion. The mission is at Briar Road and Tulpehocken Streets, and you are invited to visit them any Thursday or Sunday at 8 P. M. The people are working hard. ✠

There was formally transferred to us, on January 11, 1934, from St. James' Church, Lancaster, Pa., Mrs. Mary Reigart Cowell, and on the same date Mrs. Laura Amelia Ambers Sheetz was also formally transferred to us from St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, Phila. In your name we welcome these new members of our congregational family and hope that they already feel as near to us as we do to them.

The Burial Office was read by the Rector on Tuesday, January 16, at the funeral of Mrs. Arch K. (Maude Robertson) Schock. Interment was made at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

Last Sunday morning, preaching on II Cor. x : 9, the Rector reviewed a sermon on human forgiveness which he had concluded with the thought that "there is so much inevitable trouble in the world, one should be very loath to add to it by one iota." He reminded his hearers that St. Thomas Aquinas had done the world a great service by pointing out that every virtue lies between two extremes—one of underdoing something, the other, of overdoing it; the virtue is the golden mean between the two, i.e., cowardliness; bravery; foolhardiness. So we must take this injunction ("one should be very loath to add one iota to the pain already in the world") with the Thomist definition in mind. The main purpose of life is not to be continually happy nor to be trying continually to make others happy. The main purpose of life is to be faithful to Truth, Reality, Goodness. In other words, there come times when one must deliberately hurt others for their own good. We should do this reluctantly and only after having thought it out carefully.

Said he: "St. Paul as in our text never hesitated in doing a strong, disagreeable thing when he was sure it was right to do so. He did not believe that one's primary task in life is to radiate happiness and inculcate in others cheery, pleasant moods. Neither did our Lord—as we find in His allusion to Herod as a Fox, or in His fight with the Temple Merchants Protective Association. It is impossible not to feel that in our modern desire always to speak and act with delicate touch and taste we have lost some of the simple, hearty, straightforward power of long ago. There is a time to call a 'spade a spade' and to speak right out in meeting. Mistrust the physician, dentist, friend, or clergyman who never hurts."

Confirmation, February 18, at 11 A. M. Officiant, Rt. Rev. H. P. A. Abbott, Bishop of Lexington, Ky. Confirmation instructions every Sunday at 7 P. M. ✠ Next Thursday will be the day on which we commemorate the Conversion of St. Paul; Holy Communion at 9.30 A. M. ✠ "Does it make you mad when you read about some poor starved devil who flickered out because he never had a decent chance in the tangled meshes of circumstance? If it makes you burn like the fires of sin, Brother! You're fit for the ranks, fall in!; whoever has blood that will flood his face at the sight of the beast in the Holy Place; whoever has rage for the tyrant's might; for the powers that prey in the day and night; whoever has hate for the ravening brute that strips the tree of the goodly fruit; whoever knows wrath at the sight of pain, of needless sorrow and heedless gain, Brother! You're fit for the ranks—fall in!" ✠ The Juniors of the Young People's Fellowship held elections last Sunday evening, resulting in the following officers being chosen: President, Craig Eder; Vice-President, Nancy Idell; Secretary, Kathryn S. Burness; Treasurer, June Morrison. ✠ At the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild on January 9, the Rector made a passionate plea for loyalty to the diocesan budget, contending that the objects on the diocesan budget (which includes our proportion of the expenses of the whole Church), inasmuch as they represent maintenance items only, must take precedence over all other appeals. Said he: "One has no right to give to charity when he is unable to pay his electric or gas bills. So one must refuse to give to worthy appeals until the regular expenses of the whole Church are met." ✠ Sequel to last week's synopsis of the history of our new mission at West Oak Lane: On Friday they were formally received as a regular mission of the diocese, they having presented a petition signed by 100 adults and promising to give $700 toward their clergyman's salary during 1934! And the work was only begun February 22, 1933—less than a year ago!

January 21: The Editorial Staff of "The Lamp" wishes to express its appreciation of all "subscribers" who made the New Year resolution to attend every forthcoming issue of the Talking Magazine.

More than one hundred men and women attended the January number, and many pronounced it the best-yet edition. Audiences are inspirational. Save February 19.

PARISH ITEMS IN BRIEF

Lent is only three weeks off, Ash Wednesday this year being on February 14. ✠ The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild is planning a large Parish Dinner for Lincoln's Birthday, February 12, and the Men's Club is supplying an outstanding speaker in Dr. McClenahan, of the Franklin Institute, who will tell us of its object and ideals. Set aside the date now—February 12. ✠ The Executive Committee of the Men's Club plans to visit the Planetarium on the Parkway on March 5, at 8 P. M. If any other men of the congregation care to go along, they should give their names to one of the committee and he will reserve a seat for them. ✠

NEWS OF WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD

February 1—All-Day Meeting. Luncheon. Speaker, Mrs. J. H. Genung, Chairman of Committee on Colored Work. Subject—"Schools of the South for Colored Girls and Boys."

February 12—Reserve this evening for the Parish Dinner. Notices, giving details, will be mailed out soon.

February 15, 9.30—Corporate communion of our Auxiliary. The Epiphany pennies will also be presented at this service. To make this truly a corporate communion, each one of you should be present. Come and dedicate yourself anew to the work.

All-day meetings every Thursday during Lent. Communion at 9.30; work in the Green Room from 10 to 12; luncheon; Mission Study Class in the afternoon.

The hour, subjects, and leaders of the Mission Study Classes will be announced later.

Many thanks are due the women who worked so faithfully to help the Auxiliary raise its pledge of $1,000 for last year. Now we are again undertaking to help the Church more nearly fulfil its obligations to our workers at home and in foreign fields, and we solicit your further aid and co-operation. Give what you can, either in money or service, and we will again attain our goal.—NELL H. NEWNHAM, President.

The twentieth of February is the anniversary of the organization of the Woman's Auxiliary in Grace Church, and of late years it has become the custom to celebrate the event by having a Birthday Party. Every woman and girl in the Parish is invited to attend, and, if possible, to give a penny for each year she has lived—or more, or less, as it is convenient.

The time is Tuesday, February 20, at 3.30 o'clock, in the Parish House. Come—and help make it a happy, sociable afternoon.

"The Lamp" is still burning. The next High Light will be Monday evening, February 19. Mark down the date and watch the PARISH NEWS for further details.—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Editor-in-Chief.

The Church Periodical Club—an organization in the Church that tries to supply all kinds of reading matter to those unable to procure it—is sending out a call for books to start a lending library at St. Mary's Mission, Bluefield, Virginia. Please send now all books you can spare—any kind, in good condition—to the Parish House, marked "For the Church Periodical Club." The box should be sent this month if possible.

Is there not some one in this Parish who would be willing to pass on his copy of the Living Church each week after reading it to some priest who cannot afford to subscribe for the magazine?—M. W. BAYARD, Secretary.

The Rector read the Burial Office, on January 28, for Charles A. Lent, who died on January 26. Interment was at Forrest Hills Cemetery, Utica, N. Y.

This week we have had transferred to us from the Church of the Good Shepherd, Kensington, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Clapham, whom we now formally receive as members of our congregation.

PARISH ITEMS IN BRIEF

It is customary for the Men's Club to give a dinner each year on or near Lincoln's birthday, and at the dinner to have some outstanding man of note as speaker. This year the men are co-operating with the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild in making it unusually large. The women will prepare and serve the dinner; the men will provide as speaker Dr. McClenahan. Inasmuch as he is head of the newly completed Franklin Institute and will speak of what it is and what it is for, there should be an unusually large attendance. Tickets cost 50 cents. Even if you cannot come to dine with us, you will be welcome to attend the speaking—without charge. February 12th, 6.30; 50 cents. ✠

It is a good time now to prepare your personal Lenten observance; a well-planned Lent makes for a well-kept Lent. Your Church does not tell you categorically what you should do or should not do, but leaves it to you individually to plan for yourself. There are books to be read; extra services to enjoy; kindnesses long deferred to be put into practice; a new life to be lived. Why not make this Lent the kind of season you have long had in the back of your mind that you'd like to keep? ✠ Have you noticed the North Memorial Tablet in the new vestibule on the Gospel side of the Church? It was put up two weeks ago. ✠ Recently the Young People's Fellowship, as an expression of one of their goals—Service—played two plays at the Seamen's Church Institute; at another time they led a song service at the Harrison Memorial Home. In conjunction with the Men's Club they gave a play in our Parish House and turned their profits over to the Accounting Warden—a sum exceeding seventy-one dollars—for "the deficit fund." ✠ A number of our clergymen have gone on record as saying that they will never again bless a war and that it is their belief that war is always unchristian. They have vowed that if another war comes they will go to jail rather than serve in it, and that they will advise their people to emulate their example. Several men high in the councils of our government have publicly stated that, unless Christians wake up and do something about it, another war will soon arise and destroy civilization. What do you think?

Woman's Auxiliary B meets on Wednesday evening, from 8 to 9.30, in the Parish House. A varied assortment of tasks—machine sewing, hand sewing, knitting, bandage rolling—meets the taste and the ability of the worker. If you are busy during the day and cannot be active in Auxiliary A, won't you join us? We need you.—Doris W. Haldeman.

February 4: The All-Pennsylvania Edition of the Talking Magazine, "The Lamp," will be presented at the Parish House Monday evening, February 19, at 8 o'clock. Save this date to enjoy an interesting evening built around the great State of Pennsylvania.—Stephanie S. Burrell, Editor-in-Chief.

Thursday, February 15, is the date of the first Mission Study Class. The hour will be 2 to 3.15 P. M., the majority of last year's class preferring the earlier hour.

We are to have six leaders—one for each week—and each well qualified to teach her subject. The course is titled, "Christ and the Modern World," and is divided into six topics, as follows:

February 15—The Call to Discipleship. Leader, Mrs. Charles Henderson, of St. John's, Lansdowne.
February 22—Labor and Industry. Leader, Mrs. Frank Miles Day, of St. Martin-in-the-Fields.
March 1—Communism.
March 8—Trends Toward Paganism.
March 15—Nationalism.
March 22—The Road Ahead.

Please note the change of time—2 P. M. sharp.—Frances P. Rogers, Educational Secretary.

PARISH ITEMS IN BRIEF

The Young People's Fellowship, both Juniors and Seniors, meet at 7 P. M. during Lent. The clergy are again arranging to have a Lenten Sunday evening service in Church conducted by the young people. ✠ Have you planned your personal Lenten practices

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

yet? On page XXX of the Book of Common Prayer the forty days of Lent are listed as days "on which the Church requires such a measure of abstinence as is more especially suited to extraordinary acts and exercises of devotion." Why not, instead of emphasizing what you will "give up," think of what you will "take on," i.e., reading of the Bible, reading of religious books, attendance at services, especially the Holy Communion; also at some of the noon-day preaching services at central-city churches and theatres? ✠ This year we are going to try for a large Lenten Mite-Box offering from the Church School. Every cent of this money will go direct to missions. When you remember that our Diocesan Missionaries have salaries averaging $1500 per year and that this year they will probably be cut $100 each, you can appreciate how much a generous offering is needed. Let's all help the children secure the largest offering in our Church School history. Why not use a Mite-Box yourself? ✠ The Brotherhood of Saint Andrew will have a service of Holy Communion on Washington's Birthday in Holy Trinity Church. Bishop Taitt will be celebrant, and after communion, breakfast will be served at the Penn A. C. This Service is for men and boys. Last year 225 attended. You are invited to be present. Let the Rector know if you plan to go. ✠

Woman's Auxiliary and Guild

February 15th: First Thursday in Lent

9.30: Corporate communion. We want every woman to share in this annual devotional service. Bring your Epiphany pennies.

10.00: Serving and folding of surgical dressings in the Green Room.

12.30: Luncheon.

2.00: Mission Study Class. Subject: "The Call to Discipleship." Leader, Mrs. Charles Henderson, of St. John's, Lansdowne.

Join in one or all of these activities. This is a good time for strangers to get acquainted with the women and with the work they are doing.—NELL H. NEWNHAM, President.

We want the church building crowded at the 11 o'clock service next Sunday morning. It is only once a year we have a bishop with us at morning worship; not only that, but also many who have heard Bishop Abbott before will want to hear him again. The Church School particularly should be present—by classes, if possible. Besides, all should be present to welcome the newly confirmed into our congregational family. It should be a red-letter day in the history of Grace Church. Come!

The Parish Dinner! Tomorrow evening, at six-thirty o'clock. By this time most of you will have arranged to attend; it is still not too late to make up your mind to come if you have not done so. Good food; good fellowship! If you have an engagement that will prevent you from being present at 6.30 for dinner, come anyway at 8 P. M. for the informative talk by Dr. McClenahan. It will be helpful if, at the dinner, you sit next to some one you don't know or know only slightly. Make yourself known. Let no one in the Parish feel like a stranger!

The All-Pennsylvania Issue of the Talking Magazine, "The Lamp," will be presented at the Parish House on February 19 at 8 P. M. Every article in the contents will bear upon our great commonwealth, in a delightful and refreshing manner.

Violet Oakley's famous murals in the Governor's reception room at Harrisburg will be shown in reproduction and reviewed by Mrs. George M. Austin.

Mr. Pratt Thompson will take us, pictorially, through a Pennsylvania coal mine.

"The Greatness of Pennsylvania" will be outlined by Mr. Allen F. Horton. Other attractions are also in store.

Do not miss the February number.—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Editor-in-Chief.

Remember the first Mission Study Class of the Lenten Season. The day—Thursday, February 15. The hour—2 P. M. The subject—"The Call to Discipleship." The leader—Mrs. Charles Henderson, of Lansdowne.

All women of the Parish and their friends are urged to attend.—FRANCES P. ROGERS, Educational Secretary.

PARISH ITEMS IN BRIEF

The Confirmation Service is on page 296 of the Prayer Book. ✠ The preachers at the Garrick Theatre noon-day services (12.30–12.55 P. M.) this week are: from Monday to Friday, Rev. Allen P. Shatford, of Montreal, Canada; on Saturday, the Rev. John C. Roak, of Gloria Dei, Philadelphia. ✠ All-day meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild are held every Thursday during Lent. ✠ The Rt. Rev. Henry P. A. Abbott, D.D., who is confirming and preaching in Grace Church this morning, is Bishop of the Diocese of Lexington, Kentucky, which includes about half of the area of the state. He has in the diocese 45 parishes and missions, 29 clergymen, and 3530 communicants. The diocese was organized in 1895. ✠ When Dr. McClenahan, at the Parish Dinner, spoke of the Franklin Institute as affording "painless education," he used the same phrase we had coined to describe "The Lamp." Last month's number was one of the best; the attendance was extraordinarily good. The result should be an even greater crowd to-morrow evening. The program is most alluring, and we suggest that you come and bring several friends with you. Decide now. ✠ The Rector intends soon to appoint a Parish Committee to work up enthusiasm and secure promises to attend the opening Service of General Convention at Atlantic City on Wednesday, October 10, 1934. The Bishop is desirous of having all who can attend. A Convocational Committee is busy at work, and you will hear further details soon. We hope to run a special train for the three parishes in and near Chestnut Hill.

To-morrow evening, February 19th, will mark the publication of the All-Pennsylvania edition of the Talking Magazine, "The Lamp."

Some of the attractive high-lights were outlined in last week's PARISH NEWS.

Come to the Parish House to-morrow at 8 P. M., and enjoy a novel evening with the magazine, the contents of which are spoken instead of being printed.—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Editor-in-Chief.

Remember! Tuesday, February 20th, is the Woman's Auxiliary Birthday, and all women of the Parish are invited to come to the party at 3.30 o'clock. There will be an enjoyable program and a cup of tea, and the birthday gift to the organization is, "a penny for each year you've lived"—or more or less as you find convenient. Be sure to come.

A reminder of the second session of the Mission Study Class, which will meet on Thursday, February 22d, at 2 P. M. The leader will be Mrs. Frank Miles Day, of Chestnut Hill, whose subject is, "Labor and Industry."

The subject and name of the leader for each Thursday will appear in the PARISH NEWS the preceding Sunday. Watch these notices! Try to attend each meeting.—

FRANCES P. ROGERS, Educational Secretary.

Last Sunday, the First Sunday in Lent, the Rector baptized Miriam Buchanan Hagy; her witnesses were Miss Eleanor Hinkle and Mr. John E. Watkin.

PARISH ITEMS IN BRIEF

In spite of last Monday's heavy snowfall, almost seventy people attended the February issue of "The Lamp." As usual, the number was interesting from cover to cover, and those who attended were well repaid for braving the wintry blasts. They said so. ✠ At the Garrick Theatre this week Dean O'Ferrall, of the Cathedral in Detroit, will preach from Monday to Friday; Dean West, of Conshohocken, will preach on Saturday. ✠ We are going to keep Family Sunday on March 11th. ✠ Every Thursday during Lent there is an all-day meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary; luncheon is served at 12.30 noon. ✠ An account of evening services being held at 8 P. M. during Lent, the Young People's Fellowship meets at 7 P. M. every week. ✠ The newly confirmed are making their first communion at the 7.30 A. M. service this morning. ✠

When a man feels a call to study for the Christian ministry he consults with his rector. If his rector believes that he has proper qualifications and that the call really is of God, he presents the young man to his bishop, who again examines him to decide whether the man has a vocation for the ministry. If he accepts the man, he makes him a "Postulant" and enrolls him on the diocesan records as such. The Postulant must then study in and graduate from some accredited college, and when he has completed his college education, must appear before the examining chaplains of his diocese, who weigh his credentials and examine him in his knowledge of the contents of the Bible in English. If he passes these tests, he may be made a "Candidate for Holy Orders" by the Standing Committee of his diocese and his bishop. Three years later he is again examined and may then be ordained "Deacon." A year later, after passing more examinations, he may be ordained "Priest."

Our own Albert F. Fischer, Jr., recently was made a "Candidate for Holy Orders." Here is the bishop's letter announcing it:

"My dear Mr. Fischer: As you have given satisfactory evidence of your literary qualifications and have been recommended to me by the Standing Committee in accordance with the requirements of Canon 2, I am glad to admit you as a Candidate for Holy Orders, the date of record being February 7, 1934. By the cultivation of devout habits, by study and faithfulness to duty, by seriousness of purpose and consideration of your future calling, you will, I trust, commend yourself for Holy Orders. You will report to me personally or in writing each Ember Week, and if I can advise or help you in any way, it will give me pleasure. Commending you to God's guidance and blessing,

"I am faithfully your friend,

"FRANCIS M. TAITT, Bishop of Pennsylvania."

It was very gratifying to the Editorial Staff of "The Lamp" to welcome so many faithful subscribers to the All-Pennsylvania Number last Monday. In spite of the heavy snowstorm, the room was comfortably filled.

PARISH ITEMS IN BRIEF

The Educational Week for the Blind is a cooperative effort to show the public what is done for blind people, and to emphasize the capabilities of blind persons, so that the contacts made in this somewhat spectacular fashion may lead to intelligent assistance and future employment. The seventh annual demonstration begins tomorrow, and is held in the auditorium of the Gimbel Store, Ninth and Chestnut Streets, Fifth Floor. Luncheon and afternoon tea are served daily. In addition to luncheon music, every day at 3 o'clock there are special programs. The Episcopal Church is assigned tomorrow as its special day. ✠ The special preacher at the Garrick Theatre this week will be Dr. Joseph F. Newton, of St. James' Church, Philadelphia. ✠ The Rector is reviewing on Wednesday evenings the lives of some of the great leaders of Christendom. This week he purposes speaking on St. Benedict of Nursia, 480–550 A. D. St. Benedict was founder of the Monastic movement, and as such is interesting for the attitude he took toward life and the impression he has made on the Church ever since. The modern Benedictine Order is a survival of his teaching. ✠ This Lent our Church School children are endeavoring to raise a generous sum of money for their Lenten gift to missions. Some of us feel that in our efforts during recent years to interpret missions and Lent spiritually, we have overdone it, and made an artificial distinction between the spiritual and the secular. In life and in God's eyes there surely is no such sharp line of demarcation. This year we are frankly urging our children to give and raise as much as they can. ✠ Speaking of Lenten efforts, how many have adhered to their resolution to speak no evil? Since preaching on the subject, your Rector has been astonished to mark how much of ordinary conversation deals with personalities. Since this is so, how much more important to make allowances, palliate—or merely refrain from comment!

Dr. McClenahan, at the Parish dinner, poked a lot of fun at those who had not been to the Franklin Institute. We felt that the Chairman showed a great deal of restraint in not explaining why he and others had refrained from going. Perhaps he instinctively felt that "he who excuses himself accuses himself." For he could have explained that many of us have deferred going in order to go together. We felt that we'd enjoy it more if we went as a group. At any rate, we are going tomorrow evening, planning to meet at the Planetarium between 7.45 and 7.55. Already about thirty men have said they would be there. If any other men care to come along, get in touch with Mr. William Wagner, C. H. 2410, and he will reserve seats. The entrance fee is 25 cents. Come with us!

The service this evening will be read by different members of the Young People's Fellowship, and it is expected that Mr. John Eiseman will deliver an address. Last Sunday evening, in spite of the storm raging outside, it is estimated that 150 people attended the service. Come tonight—not to listen to the Young People primarily, nor even to encourage them with your presence, but to worship. The hour is 8 P. M.

Next Sunday will be Family Sunday. Let every family of the congregation attend and sit together at the eleven o'clock service. Bring your friends with you.

The Mission Study class, which meets each Thursday at 2 P. M. during Lent, will, on March 8th, have for its leader Mrs. John H. Moore, who comes to us from Wilmington, Del. Her subject will be "Nationalism or Christian World Brotherhood." Come and bring a friend.—FRANCES P. ROGERS, Educational Secretary.

A Miscellaneous Edition of the Talking Magazine, "The Lamp," will be presented at the Parish House on Monday Evening, March 19, at 8 o'clock.

The contents will be unusual and of more than ordinary interest. If you care about "the sea and all that therein is," you will especially enjoy the next magazine. Come anyway and see for yourself.—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Editor-in-Chief.

PARISH ITEMS IN BRIEF

Church School pupils are selling subscriptions to the "Spirit of Missions," for which they receive a generous commission to add to their Lenten offering. Many of the congregation have often intended to subscribe, but haven't just done so. Why not bring your intention and the opportunity to subscribe together? The cost is but $1.00 per year, and any member of the Church School will be glad to take care of you. Arrange it today. ✠ Did you notice in the "Church News of the Diocese of Pennsylvania" that at the new mission in West Oak Lane—just a year old—the Priest in charge presented twenty-six for confirmation two weeks ago? More than a hundred adults recently applied to the diocese for formal recognition as a Diocesan Mission. ✠ The Convocational Committee on the Pilgrimage to the opening service of General Convention next October has arranged a $5.00 all-inclusive rate: Transportation back and forth in a special train, lunch and dinner at a good hotel, and a dollar for the offering. The Bishop hopes to have 20,000 from this diocese go. ✠ There will be a Leper pageant, a Leper miniature village, and a talk by a man who has been working among Lepers, on March 16, 8 P. M., Mt. Airy Presbyterian Woman's Bible Class, Germantown Avenue and Mt. Pleasant Street. Silver offering. ✠ There are a number of unbaptized children in the Parish. We aim to baptize a large number on Easter Even at a special service. Easter Even is a favorite time for administering and receiving the Sacrament, being hallowed by ancient usage. Arrange now to present any unbaptized child you are interested in on Easter

Even. ✠ The preacher at the Garrick noon-day services this week is the Rt. Rev. Granville G. Bennett, of Duluth. ✠ Bishop Brown, of Harrisburg, will preach on Thursday next at Holy Trinity Church at 8 P. M., under the auspices of the Diocesan Commission on Evangelism. ✠

Early in February our Presiding Bishop sent us the following letter:

To the Bishops, Clergy, and Laity: We have entered a year which is fraught with solemn significance and, no less, with new hope and expectation. Men's hearts, long "failing them for fear," seek now the sign of promise. Where may it be found?

You share with me the belief that the final answer to that question lies beyond material recovery. It will be found in the spiritual realm. The only reconstruction that will satisfy this shaken world must rest upon foundations built in conformity with God's purpose and in obedience to His will.

There is Divine purpose in God's creation, revealed by Christ and proclaimed by His Church. To you who are God's children there comes a call to have part in its fulfillment. As Christian Churchmen, in a time of confused thought and conflicting loyalties, you have in clear view a Way of Life which is yours to follow if you will. The Way has been revealed to us through God's guiding power displayed across the ages. It gives knowledge of His entrance, through the Incarnation, into human life. It sanctifies the home. It illumines every personal experience of birth and marriage, of joy and sorrow, of moral and physical adversity, suffering and death. It enters into every social and industrial relation. It leads at last into the Divine Presence, revealed through the language of prayer and praise in the Liturgy. Thus is God's Plan of life for you unfolded in our Book of Common Prayer.

I call upon you who are communicants of the Church to make this Way of Life your own throughout the coming year. Find in the services of daily Morning and Evening Prayer, with the appointed lessons and psalms, help for your private devotions. Thus prepared, attend each week the public worship of the Church, receiving regularly the Sacrament of Holy Communion. Let whole parishes concentrate their thought and work upon our Lord's special, missionary and sacramental purpose for His Church. Let there be carried from house to house and from heart to heart the message of the same loving purpose, until flames of faith, of quickened conscience and devotion, burn with new light.

March first our own Bishop sent us the following:

Reverend and Dear Sir: The presiding Bishop has sent me the following letter:

"It has been suggested that the Call initiating the Church-Wide Endeavor and the courses of study and of devotion which in response have been undertaken by many dioceses should be brought to an act of corporate worship at a special celebration of the Holy Communion. I have thought that the bishops might like to act upon the suggestion by naming to the clergy the same Sunday for this service. The morning of Passion Sunday, the eighteenth of March, would seem to be a fitting time to bring together our people for the rededication of their lives to God's purpose and for a united approach to the contemplation of Our Lord's passion and resurrection."

In accordance with this, I would confirm the Presiding Bishop's desire that the morning of Passion Sunday be a time for the celebration of the Holy Communion for the "rededication of our lives to God's purpose."

Very faithfully your Bishop,

FRANCIS M. TAITT.

In accordance with this suggestion, your Rector invites you to make your Communion next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, having as your aim a rededication of your life to God's purpose. Let the church be filled next Sunday morning with faithful children of God seeking to know His will.

On February 28, at 3.30 P. M., in Grace Church, the Rector and the Rev. Lloyd M. Smith read the Burial Office for Mildred Marie (Mrs. J. Arthur) Wellington; interment was made at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

On March 3, at her late home, 50 W. Nippon Street, the Rector read the Burial Office for Mrs. Helen E. Ludwig; interment was at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

On Thursday, March 15, at 2 P. M., the Mission Study Class will take up the subject of "Communism," with Mrs. Elliott Brewer, of Wayne, Pa., as leader. These discussions are very interesting and profitable. Let us have a large attendance.—FRANCES P. ROGERS, Educational Secretary.

Vol. II, No. 6, of the Talking Magazine, "The Lamp," will be issued on Monday evening, March 19, at 8 o'clock. The contents will be miscellaneous in character. Two guest speakers, Mr. Benton Spruance and Mr. William T. Innes, will be present. Our own Mr. William C. Burk will also be on the program.

Save the date—March 19.—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Editor-in-Chief.

At the end of last year, when it became apparent that the Welfare Federation of Philadelphia would not secure as much money as was needed to care for its members, outstanding leaders of every kind of social work were called together to discuss how the money should be distributed and where cuts should be made. In spite of the fact that these leaders represented every phase of social work, to a man they agreed that hospitals must be taken care of no matter how much other social agencies suffered—"hospitals come first."

And not only should "hospitals come first," but also hospitals have suffered most financially. Supplies have cost more; more poor people have had to have hospitalization; grants have been cut; private rooms have ceased to afford revenue; clinics have been deluged with clients.

Our own Episcopal Hospital has felt the financial storm more than other hospitals. The district in which it is situated had depression years before the rest of the city or country heard of it. Nevertheless, it has gone on steadily day by day, caring for the sick and the mutilated, the dying and the incurable, trusting that if it carried on, finances would be found.

However, today it stands in great need. No money has ever been received by it from state or city or Welfare Federation. All its income comes from endowments, from contributors, and from Episcopal churches in this diocese.

So, on Easter Day, when our hearts are filled with joy because of the glorious message of the Resurrection, let us show our gratitude to God in a tangible form by contributing generously to our hospital. Every penny you put on the alms basins on Easter Day will go to this worthy cause. The Easter Day collections will be sent to the Episcopal Hospital of Philadelphia.

Among twenty-five leading church groups in the United States, the Episcopal Church ranks second to the highest in the amount of money given per communicant for its own parish expenses, and nineteenth for purposes outside the parish, the figures being $19.00 per year for parish expenses; $1.94 per year for work beyond, i. e., missions, totaling $35,000,000 for selves; $3,600,000 for others.

The annual election to choose four vestrymen will be held in Grace Church Parish House on Easter Monday from 5 to 6 o'clock. Messrs. Harry Brown and William Walton have been appointed Judges of Election. Nominations for the office of vestryman are posted in the Tower Room on the Bulletin Board. The Annual Meeting of the Vestry will be held in the Parish House on April 4 at eight o'clock.

There will be no meeting of the Church School on Easter morning; instead, there will be an inspiring Church School Easter Festival at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, at which time the bus will gather and return the younger children.

The conductor of the Three-Hour Service on Good Friday will be the Reverend Goodrich R. Fenner, of New York City. He is on the staff of the National Council.

The Lenten preachers this week are as follows: At the Garrick Theatre: Bishop Cook, of Delaware; at St. Stephen's Church: Monday, Dr. Morris, of Calvary, Germantown; Tuesday, Dr. Toop, of Holy Apostles, Philadelphia; Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Dr. Grammer, Rector of the Parish.

A large and enthusiastic audience of "subscribers" greeted the March issue of the Talking Magazine, "The Lamp," last Monday evening.

The contents were unusual and outstanding, and will always call to mind "the sea and all that therein is."

Reserve Monday, April 16, for the Spring Number. Further details later, in the PARISH NEWS.—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Editor-in-chief.

The Church School will have its lovely Carol Service this afternoon at 3.30, in the Church. It will not last more than an hour, and if you can, come! You will be amply repaid.

Many congregations of our Church use the offerings of Easter Day to pay current expenses. Happily, such is not the custom of this Parish; we always devote the Easter Day thank offering to some worthy cause outside our Parish. This year will be no exception: every cent put on the alms basins today will be forwarded to the Episcopal Hospital to help continue the unselfish work it is doing in what is perhaps the neediest section of our great city. We of Grace Church owe the hospital much. Some of our own congregation have been and are being taken care of this year in their Home for Incurables—and they are being well cared for. Let us tell the authorities of the hospital how much we appreciate their kindness by giving unusually generously today.

On Palm Sunday we baptized Richard Dixon Lull, born January 17, 1934, in New York City. Richard's parents are Edward Earle Lull and Emily Gertrude Dixon Lull; his godparents are John E. Wightman, Jr., Elizabeth P. Wightman, Herbert F. Dixon, and Mary Milligan.

Last week we received by transfer from St. Peter's Church, Germantown, Mrs. Felix (Esther A.) Perry, of 8100 Flourtown Avenue. She is now a full-fledged member of our congregation.

The flowers on the altar today are in memory of William F. Fell, who passed into paradise just a year ago yesterday.

Tomorrow afternoon (Easter Monday), from 5 to 6 o'clock, in the Parish House, will be held the annual election of four members for the Vestry.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY NOTES

All during the Lenten season we have had splendid attendance at our meetings, and much has been accomplished. Much still remains to be done, and we will continue our work for several more weeks. So keep up your interest and support. Come to each Thursday meeting, and interest some friend in coming, too. April 5 will be our regular all-day meeting, with luncheon at 12.30, and an interesting speaker.—Nell H. Newnham.

The speaker next Thursday will be the Rev. Samuel Hardman, of St. Stephen's Church, Riverside, N. J. He will tell what the Church Periodical Club means in the missionary field.—C. E. E.

Reserve Monday, April 16, for the "Spring Number" of the Talking Magazine, "The Lamp." This edition will radiate spring. Bring your friends to welcome the return of birds and flowers.

This number of the magazine will conclude Vol. II.—Stephanie S. Burrell, Editor-in-Chief.

The Spring Presentation of the United Thank Offering will be held Thursday, May 3, 10.30 A. M., at St. Clement's Church, Twentieth and Cherry Streets. The preacher will be Rev. Frederick S. Fleming, D.D., of Old Trinity Church, New York City. I sincerely hope that many women will make an effort to be present at this service; it has been a wonderful inspiration to all who have attended.—M. E. Murphy.

On Good Friday, March 30, 1934, the Rector read the Burial Office for Joseph Fullmer Schott, who died on March 27. Interment was at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

On Easter Even the Rector united in Holy Matrimony Alan Rockwell Boyd and Helen Lisette Barbee, in Grace Church.

Easter statistics: At 6 A. M., 52 were present; at 7.30, 131; at 11 A. M., 602, and at 3.30 P. M., 379, making a total for the day of 1,164. At the various services 420 made their communions.

"A Perfect Alibi," by Milne, a mystery detective play in three acts, will be presented by the Young People's Fellowship on Friday and Saturday evenings, May 11 and May 12, at 8.15 o'clock, in the Parish House. Tickets can be obtained from any of the young people; price, 35 cents.

The Lenten Offering of Grace Church School has mounted to more than $200, with more to come in. The sum includes a gift of $15 from the Young People's Fellowship; $5.00 from three Church School classes, raised by a play and a tea; and more than $12 from the offerings of the children at the Friday afternoon services. We are already ahead of last year's total.

The closing meeting of the Mission Study Classes on "Christ and the Modern World" will be held at Holy Trinity Parish House, 217 S. Twentieth Street, Monday evening, April 9, at 8 P. M. Dr. John R. Wood, Executive Secretary for Foreign Missions, will speak on the Philippines, and tell especially of the hospital in Sagada, showing lantern pictures. Our offering is for the maternity ward at Sagada.—FRANCES R. ROGERS, Educational Secretary.

The Spring Number of the Talking Magazine, "The Lamp," will be issued at the Parish House on Monday evening, April 16, at 8 o'clock.

The contents of this edition will be presented entirely by guest speakers and artists and will be very pictorial and interesting. Come!—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Editor-in-Chief.

The Rector is especially interested in three announcements for this week:

(1) This afternoon: The children of our communion each Lent raise a large sum of money for the general missionary work of the whole Church. In almost every parish and mission station in this and other lands, wherever our Church has a Sunday school, each year the little Mite Boxes are blessed and given out, and returned with the children's gifts at Easter time. (Your rector himself received a number of them recently from the little farmer boys of Bucks County, when he held a service at Dolington.) Each parish gathers in its own Mite Boxes, sends the money to Diocesan headquarters, and in return receives a voucher for the amount credited to it. Then, on a Sunday soon after, the Church Schools of that vicinity gather together in one large church and have a Presentation Service, where together they offer up their gifts. SUCH A SERVICE IS TO BE HELD THIS AFTERNOON IN GRACE CHURCH! We are to be hosts to the other Church Schools of our communion in this vicinity. Won't you try to be present to help create an atmosphere of welcome for our guests? The hour will be four o'clock.

(2) Tomorrow evening: It isn't often the Men's Club succeeds in having to itself such an outstanding speaker as it is going to have tomorrow evening. Dr. John L. Haney, President of Central High School, is known far and wide for his sparkling speeches and ability to interest men. Indeed, his reputation spread so wide that he just couldn't keep up with all the engagements men tried to make for him. This year he refused all. Much to our delight, he broke this determination not to speak anywhere this year by promising to come to us tomorrow evening because we have a number of former pupils and warm friends in our group. Naturally they are very anxious to give him a large audience. WON'T YOU WHO READ THIS COME YOURSELF AND BRING SOME OTHER MAN WITH YOU? Think up now what man you like well enough to bring along.

(3) Wednesday evening and Friday evening of this week: We never felt in Grace Church that we were "cold" in welcoming newcomers. We are not. Nevertheless, so many newcomers have joined our congregation during recent years we feel that a special time has to be set aside to become acquainted. We have chosen Wednesday and Friday evenings of this week. Shortly you will receive a letter containing your assignment. May I ask you to look on it as imperative? Don't miss this opportunity to do something for our common object of affection, Grace Church. Remember: Wednesday and Friday evening of this week!

On March 31, in Grace Church, the Reverend Mr. Irwin united in Holy Matrimony Thomas Anthony Brew and Margaret Anna Knorr.

At the Reorganization Meeting of the Vestry on April 4 the following offices were filled and committees appointed: Wardens, Mr. Horace Fortescue and Dr. Holman White. Secretary, Mr. Albert C. Brand. Committees: (1) Choir: Messrs. Meehan, Sibson, Wagner. (2) Church School: Messrs. Thornton, White, and Wagner. (3) Finance: The Wardens, with Messrs. Ball, Greaves, and Brand. (4) Missionary: Messrs. Thornton, Wagner, White, and Ball. (5) Buildings and Grounds: Messrs. Ball, Allsop, and Fell. (6) Memorials: Messrs. Fortescue, Thompson, and Allsop. Mr. John Greaves was reelected Registrar.

The United Thank Offering, to which it is hoped every confirmed woman and girl desires to contribute, is falling far behind the sum contributed in former years, and if something is not done—and done by each one of us—to augment this sum, many of the women workers in the mission field will have to be recalled; then they too will join the ranks of the unemployed. This would be tragic, indeed!

Remember, it is not a few large sums of money, but the small sums from many, that make our sacrifices acceptable to God and make a truly United Thank Offering.

Coming Events: Under the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, but for everyone, May 2: Evening entertainment at the home of Thorsten Y. Olsen, 235 Gowen Avenue. Details later.

Under the Young People's Fellowship, on May 12, in the Parish House, a three-act play entitled, "The Perfect Alibi." Tickets, 35 cents.

At 8 P. M. on April 30 Bishop Taitt will make his annual address to the members of the Diocesan Convention, in Holy Trinity Church, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets. The public is invited.

Tomorrow evening the Diocesan Convention will assemble in Holy Trinity Church, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets, to hear Bishop Taitt's annual address. Now, Holy Trinity Church is a large building and there will be plenty of seats free for the general public over and above what are needed for the gentlemen of the Convention. Your rector would like to have many of you attend, not only because of the information you will obtain, but also and especially because of the inspiration you will receive by realizing how large is our diocese and what a splendid body of men represent it. It is hoped that the Presiding Bishop will be present. The hour is eight o'clock.

On Wednesday evening of this week many of our people will be at play. On that evening there will be an entertainment, for all who care to come, at the home of Mr. Thorsten Y. Olsen, 235 East Gowen Avenue. Billiards, pool, cards, anagrams, and other games will be played. Candy and cake will be on sale. The profits will be turned over to the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, and we promise a rare good time for all who attend. Mrs. Thomas H. Ball and Mrs. T. Y. Olsen will be our hostesses; that means that a good time is assured. Tickets cost fifty cents, and may be bought at the door. Why not gather together a few friends and bring them with you? Decide now to do it.

The last issue of the "Lamp" for the current season was issued on April 16. Comparisons are not always welcome or tactful; perhaps, however, it would not be out of place to say that many felt that this was "the best edition yet." Every article was worth while and interesting. The night will be long remembered.

It has been learned since that the editor-in-chief has resigned her position. For this we are very sorry. While we owe to her associates much gratitude for their cooperation and ideas, nevertheless we realize that Mrs. Burrell supplied the initiative and inspiration. Her executive ability guaranteed the "Lamp's" success. And so in the name of the many persons who attended and enjoyed the various issues, to her we say, "Thank you, much!"

The play, "Perfect Alibi," which was to be given by our young people on May 12, has been postponed until later. Due notice of its presentation will be given.

There will be services on April 30 (tomorrow) in commemoration of the 150th Anniversary of the Diocese, at 4 P. M., in Christ Church, Second above Market Street.

At a special meeting of your Vestry last Sunday morning Mr. Charles VanOrden Covell was recommended to our Bishop and Standing Committee for ordination to the Diaconate.

The Men's Club has a delightful evening for men planned for the near future. Details later.

The United Thank Offering of the women of the Church is an expression of a spiritual attitude. The giving of it is a true act of worship and, like every such act, it is offered voluntarily in an atmosphere of freedom. It has also a special fragrance in that it is an act of joy, representing as it does not one's "regular duty," but a spontaneous and buoyant response over and above what is required.

The spring Presentation Service will be held on Thursday, May 3, 1934, at 10.30 A. M., at St. Clement's Church, Twentieth and Cherry Streets. Bishop Taitt will be the celebrant. The address will be made by the Rev. Frederic S. Fleming, D.D., Rector of Old Trinity Church, New York.

There will be the regular activities in our workroom on Thursday, May 3, but no luncheon or speaker on that day. This will be the last of our sewing meetings before the summer.

Tuesday, May 8, is the date of our spring stated meeting. Reserve the date now, and show your interest by being with us. Come and hear how this group of loyal women have made a winning fight against adversity; how they have turned work into play. Attendance at our meetings during the winter has been splendid, but, until we have reached and interested each one of our women our work has not been completed. Maybe you can inject some new ideas into our meetings. "New thought is new life." At least, do show your interest by being with us.

There will be noon intercessions in the church; luncheon at 12.30; and business meeting at 2.00.

Because of the number of reports, I am asking that each one be made as brief and concise as is consistent with the story you wish to convey. We want some time to discuss plans for the future.

As a climax to our "Magic Basket" fund, Mrs. Anderson is planning for a food sale in the Green Room at this time. If you have anything to offer, communicate with her. Her telephone number is Tennessee 2567.—NELL H. NEWNHAM, President.

Whitsunday, also called Pentecost, ranks with Christmas and Easter as one of the three great church festivals of the year. It commemorates the infusion of the Holy Spirit into the little group of Christians gathered together in Jerusalem, changing them from an organization into an organism—a church; therefore it is considered the birthday of the Christian Church. As such it deserves our appreciation and thanks. Let all the faithful of this parish gather at God's altar next Sunday morning to offer up our thanksgiving in the Eucharist. God will miss you if you are absent; it will please Him if you come. DO!

The Rector desires to express his appreciation of the fine spirit of loyalty our people showed in the recent Parish Visitation. When one woman, no longer young, was criticized for venturing out alone at night, she replied, "My Rector asked all, including me, to do this thing; I just could not think of refusing." That is a sample of fine loyalty most of our people possess—the attribute that gives heart to a leader and lightens his tasks.

There were a few—a very few—who did not respond. For that we are sorry. We do not know yet why they did not do the thing they were asked to do, and therefore it will not be amiss to remark here that loyalty is a precious virtue which not only inspires others but reacts favorably upon oneself. There are times when one does not wholeheartedly favor a project, but if at such a time one sinks his own opinions because his chosen leaders have asked him to go along, then the results on one's own character are rich and manifold. Loyalty and humility go hand in hand.

We have heard incidentally from many who did as their Rector asked. Stories came to us of old acquaintances discovered; school-day friendships renewed; lonely souls warmed and heartened. The whole project succeeded far beyond our expectations, and to the Chairman, Mr. Stanley Thornton, and to all the fine people who worked hard on the plan, often at the cost of much inconvenience, we extend our thanks. You have given us fresh heart.

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

Tomorrow evening the Men's Club will meet. It will be "An Evening in Finland." The speaker, Vice-Consul Norbert A. Considine. Motion pictures and stereopticon views of that comparatively unknown country will be shown. There will be refreshments and cigars. Come and bring two friends.

The Choral Society of the University of Pennsylvania will sing Brahms' "Requiem" on Wednesday evening of this week at 8 o'clock in the Auditorium at 34th and Spruce Streets. No admission will be charged or tickets required.

On April 25 the Rector officiated at the funeral of Mellie J. Carrell, of Roxborough. Cremation was at Chelten Hills.

On April 27 the Rev. Albert Stork united in Holy Matrimony in Grace Church, Charles F. Simonin and Joan Krauss.

The Committee of our National Council that prepares an estimate of how much money is going to be needed from year to year to carry on the various undertakings of the Church's program before it decides on a definite amount takes into consideration how much it can reasonably expect from the United Thank Offering. It deducts this—and the estimated income from legacies—from the total amount needed and then allocates to each diocese its share. This share is called its "quota." You can readily see, then, how the United Thank Offering effects the amount asked from each diocese and in turn the amount asked by each diocese from each parish and mission. If the U. T. O. amount is large, it cuts the total amount to be gathered in from other sources, and vice versa.

The diocese of Pennsylvania this year gave it a little more at the Spring Presentation than it gave last year, but the total for the three years is still far below the figure of three years ago. The women are trying hard to equal that figure before September. Mrs. Van Pelt's books are open until May 15, and anyone who has not yet sent in her thank offering may still do so. But it must be done now if it is to be done at all. The Treasurer is Mrs. F. Murphy, 136 W. Sedgwick Street.

To the Clergy:

The Diocese is carrying an overdraft of $28,629.06, of which $14,967.37 was carried over from Bishop Garland's Episcopate, and $13,661.69 was created in 1933 as the result of disappointments in parochial payments. Not a dollar of this has gone to the Diocese, but has been sent to the National Council to meet our expectation.

The Finance Department proposes, and I approve, that we shall reduce our overdraft by at least $10,000 through a special offering this Whitsunday, May 20, 1934, made in special envelopes—we do not want the plate offering, as that might interfere with parochial arrangements.

I should be glad to have you further this offering by any measures which will bring the need forcefully before your people. If every communicant will conscientiously do his or her share, we can soon get rid of the small debt we have. This result will not be obtained except by a special interest and a special appeal on the part of every Rector. Will you do this?

A supply of special envelopes for this offering will be sent you under separate cover. If additional envelopes are desired, kindly call Mr. Radcliffe, Spruce 6650, and they will be forwarded you promptly.

Sincerely your friend,

FRANCIS M. TAITT,

Bishop.

The Convocation of Germantown will meet at 11 A. M., on May 15, at Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg. The sermon will be preached by the Rector of the Church of Our Saviour, Jenkintown. Luncheon at 12.30. Afternoon business meeting at 2 P.M.

A Garden Party and Country Fair at the WISTER HOMESTEAD, Germantown Avenue opposite Queen Lane, Germantown, Thursday, May 24, 1934, from 3 to 8 o'clock, given by the Convocation of Germantown for the work of the Woman's Aid. Supper, 5 to 7.30, 50 cents (supper ticket includes admission). In case of rain, the Fair and Supper will be held in St. Luke's Church Parish House, Germantown Avenue and Coulter Street.

Many congregations at Easter time make a drive for a large offering, using the money to pay current parochial expenses. Grace Church prefers to finance its work by steady, week-to-week giving, using the Easter Offering for some other worthy work done in the name of the Risen Christ. For several years we have given our Easter Offering to the Episcopal Hospital and shall do the same again this year.

There are many reasons why this is just and proper: The Hospital receives neither State nor Welfare Federation aid; it is our Hospital; it is set down in the midst of a teeming population of very poor people; it glories in a splendid staff of outstanding physicians, etc., etc.

But at the present time its appeal to us is even stronger: it has a right to look to us for generous aid because in the Harrison Home, a wing of the Hospital set aside for chronic cases, are two communicants of Grace Church. There, in a happy atmosphere, surrounded by loving care, these two patients are being looked after at a charge so low that it does not come near paying the actual costs of their care. The reason that the charges are low is because the authorities are anxious that no deserving person be kept out because he is unable to pay what is asked. Naturally, since the Hospital in this department charges only one-third of what patients cost, there is a heavy deficit at the end of the year. This slack is taken up by the free-will offerings of various congregations at Easter and Thanksgiving time. Do you see now why we of Grace Church should be particularly generous with our Hospital?

Therefore, when in response to our Easter joy next Sunday we give liberally to God through His Church all the loose money in the alms basins and all the Easter-Envelope money will be sent to our Hospital. Decide now how much you can and will give.

The annual election to choose four vestrymen for Grace Church will be held in the Parish House on Easter Monday from 5 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon; Messrs. Walton and Moody will supervise the election and tabulate results. Nominations for the office of Vestryman are posted on the Bulletin Board in the Tower. The annual reorganization meeting of the Vestry will be held on Wednesday in Easter week, April 24, at 8 P. M., in the Green Room.

The Conductor of the Three Hour Service from 12 o'clock noon to three in the afternoon of Good Friday will be Dr. Addison A. Ewing, of the Department of Homiletics, Philadelphia Divinity School. We are fortunate to secure so good a leader and hope that crowds will attend to gather in the benefits of the service. If you can, attend the full service; if for some reason you cannot be present for the full time, come or go during the singing of hymns. Bring your friends with you.

The Offering at this service will be used for evangelizing the Jews: for making God's ancient people see in Christ their promised Messiah and King.

Remember: On Easter Day we do not have Church School in the morning; instead, we gather together for a wonderful Carol Service in the afternoon at 3.30. At this service the Mite Boxes are presented and in happy hymns all have an opportunity to express our Easter joy. The Church is usually well filled with the school and its older friends; we invite you to come and rejoice with us.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will meet as usual on Thursday of this week at 10 A. M. On the following Thursday (April 25) we will meet at 10 for sewing; at noon we will enjoy a covered dish luncheon and entertainment.

Easter Day

Some years ago we printed the following poem, by an unknown author, in the Parish News. So many people asked for copies, the edition was exhausted. We are printing it again because it has helped many and because we felt you might like to have a copy for yourself.

The Beyond

"It seemeth such a little way to me
Across to that strange country—the Beyond;
And yet not strange, for it has grown to be
The home of those of whom I am so fond;
They make it seem familiar and most dear,
As journeying friends bring distant regions near.

"I cannot make it seem a day to dread,
When from this dear earth I shall journey out
To that still dearer country of the dead,
And join the lost ones so long dreamed about;
I love this world, yet shall I love to go
And meet friends that wait for me, I know.

"I never stand above a bier and see
The seal of death set on some well-loved face,
But what I think, 'One more to welcome me
When I shall cross the intervening space
Between this land and that one "over there"—
One more to make the strange Beyond seem fair.'

"And so for me there is no sting to death,
And so the grave has lost its victory;
It is but crossing—with a bated breath
And white, set face—a little strip of sea,
To find loved ones waiting on the shore,
More beautiful, more precious than before."

Easter would not seem like Easter without the Children's Service. This will be held this afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. Beside singing Easter Carols and hearing the Easter story, the children will also present their Lenten Offering for Missions.

The Convocational Presentation Service will be held on the Sunday after next, May 5, at St. Paul's Church on Chestnut Ave., Chestnut Hill. Attend both!

The severe cold of the winter of 1933–34 played havoc with many of the trees, fine shrubs and ivy of Chestnut Hill and vicinity. Our own Church was almost denuded of its green covering. In order to restore this and beautify our property, the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild intend to hold an ivy-planting on next Thursday. If any one has living ivy with roots attached and would like to give it for this purpose, please bring and plant it yourself next Thursday, or else let us know and we will call for it. Don't forget!

If you ever feel yourself inclined to doubt the truth that life continues after death, because you are impressed by the seeming arbitrariness of death and because dead people "seem so very dead," then look about you and notice how everywhere the forces of life touch seemingly dead things and transform them into living proofs of immortality. Nature on every side is touching inert matter with her magic wand, transforming it into living visions of beauty. All about us seemingly dead matter is feeling the throb and thrill of life: trees which for months have stood stark and still now are beginning to lift up tons of water and earth high into the air, changing it into sap and leaf and fruit. Flowers, also, are sending down their roots into unfeeling soil, turning it into petals of beauty and grace. Birds are taking into their bills particles of inanimate matter and changing it into songs of love; men themselves consume carbon and oxygen and then go on to think thoughts that soar among the stars and explore the reaches of eternity. Life transforms matter, not by the laws of matter but by the laws of life. In every one of these illustrations the corruptible is clothing itself with the glory of the incorruptible and mortality is being swallowed up by life. Matter ceases to be dead because something acts on it and changes it into living symbols of the resurrection. Earth becomes "crammed with heaven and every common bush afire with God."

The question is often asked, "Why do we have Church hospitals—inasmuch as municipal hospitals are so up to date and efficient, why are we asked to continue to support Church hospitals?"

The answer is, "Until recent times municipal hospitals were neither up to date nor efficient. Visit any of them and you will see that only the new buildings are up to date; the old ones are things indescribably shabby and dismal. As a matter of fact, hospitals themselves are a recent innovation. Until recent times, almost every sick person was cared for in his own home, no matter what was the matter with him. Surgery and hospitalization had not yet come into their own.

When a few forward-looking persons did come to recognize the superior value of institutions in caring for the sick, they began to appeal to public-spirited citizens to give large sums of money for their establishment and support. And because religious people are always in the forefront in charitable works, almost all hospitals were started under religious auspices. The majority of hospitals in Philadelphia still bear denominational names. They have done a magnificent work and we are much in their debt.

Then it was borne in on the city fathers that they owed it to the worthy poor to care for them. This they did in a shabby manner; at one time it was considered almost a disgrace to go to a municipal hospital. Gradually the public came to demand that their city hospitals should be as good as the best. More and more money was voted for their rehabilitation and upkeep, until today the municipal hospitals of our land are among the very best.

But even though a municipal hospital may be one of the best in a large city, it can by no means take care of all needy poor people. Imagine the Episcopal, Presbyterian, Methodist, Roman Catholic, and other hospitals all standing side by side on one site, and you will have some idea of how many beds are required in a city as large as ours is, to care for the sick who cannot pay their own way. Until the city comes to the conclusion that it must take care of ALL charity cases, our Church institutions will have to carry on.

Besides, a Church hospital has something to add in atmosphere to what one finds in a city-owned institution. It differs in an intangible something that makes for physical and spiritual health.

Moreover, our own hospital has a large building dedicated to the care of continuing cases of illness, the Harrison Home. Here men and women in the sunset years of life,

OUR annual Every Member Canvass will begin next Sunday, November 10th. We have adopted this much earlier date because the Episcopal Church throughout the nation has set aside the week of November 10-17 as "Every Member Canvass Week." When one envisions the thousands of faithful men and women, who are taking time from their busy lives to secure money pledges to care for work at home and abroad; when one realizes how much depends upon the success of their efforts: hospital work, jail work, work among incurables, as well as carrying the good news that God Cares to whose who do not know Our Father as revealed in the Lord Jesus; when one has an inkling of how much more we could do in our own little corner of the Kingdom of God if we were financially enabled by increased pledges--the result is that many of us will spend more time on our knees this week, praying that God will richly bless their efforts. A helpful prayer is at the botton of page 156 of the Prayer Book.

IN June we appealed to our people through the Parish News to prepay their summer contributions rather than wait until after vacations. We told how, for several years, our vestry has borrowed money to pay the running expenses of the lean summer months and said we felt that most of you who could would gladly pay ahead if you realized how much we would save thereby. That confidence and appeal were justified. Those of you who could, did pay in advance and as a result, for the first time in several years, we did not have to borrow a cent. Thank you--much!

ONE of our own faithful communicants, Dr. Janet Anderson, sailed last month to take the place of the physician at Sagada, Philippine Islands, while he recuperates during a much-needed furlough. The hospital, of which Dr. Anderson will take charge, gives 25,000 treatments annually and she will be the only physician in that whole region. Her address [illegible] Hospital, Sagada, Philippine Islands.

[illegible] the Bell memorial lectern on Sunday, Oct. 13th. In addition to setting aside and blessing the Lectern, the Rector preached on St. Paul's admonition, "Whatsoever things are lovely, think on these things." Pointing out that Symbolism is woven into the very fabric of mental life, and that even the most certain and undeniable forms of reasoning--those used in mathematics and logic--are expressed in symbols, he asserted that Religion, too, needs symbols to express its meaning. Even today the manger-cradle and the cross express to many better than even the terms of the Apostles' Creed, the inner meaning of Christianity. Symbolism in religion has at least two good effects: (1) It takes our mind from the concrete to the abstract, even as our Lord's parables were concrete stories from which men drew abstract generalizations (the Prodigal Son led to thoughts on Forgiveness; the Good Samaritan led to conclusions concerning neighborliness.) (2) Symbols stir up the imagination and imagination is the germ from which action grows. Whatever has passed through our mind will tend, either at the time or later, to influence some action. The consecration and the corruption of life alike begin in thought. It is probably true that no one does wrong without first thinking wrong and vice versa. That is why St. Paul's suggestion is so pertinent: "Whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely... think on these things." For, "as a man thinketh in his heart, so is he."

THERE still remain a few booklets containing daily Bible readings, a part of the great spiritual "Forward Movement" begun by our Church last year. More than three hundred similar booklets are being used by Grace Church people. Don't you want to use one? The books are lying in the back pews. Help yourself.

OUR associate, Mr. Irwin, will be absent today and next Sunday. He is caring for publicity attendant on the meeting of the House of Bishops, being held at Houston, Texas this week.

A CARD party, sponsored by the Indian Hope and the Domestic Committees of the Woman's Auxiliary, will be held at the home of Mrs.Albert C.Brand, 301 E.Durham Street, on Friday evening, Nov.8th. There will be cards and other games. Tickets 50¢ from any member of either Committee.

Next Thursday, Nov.7th, there will be luncheon at 12.30 after the Auxiliary sewing meeting. The speaker will be Miss Allfriend of the City Mission.

THE communicants of this parish during the past week received a letter from their Rector and from their Accounting Warden, announcing that the annual ingathering of pledges for support was to begin today, and explaining various little-known facts with regard to the money end of running our Church. During the incumbency of the present Rector it has been his constant aim to have every cent of the budget pledged before the year began, so that you will not be bothered all year by requests for money. It seems to him that that is the sane, sensible, business-like way to do it. Of course, we have suppers, teas, and Spring Festivals, for which we charge, but in general these affairs are given not so much with the idea of "making money" as of making friends. The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild in line with this policy, this autumn asked each member to make and donate a given sum instead of having a large bazaar for that purpose, and their plan is working beautifully. This policy should commend itself to all; we believe that Grace Church deserves your respect and your generous support, not only for what it is and does, but also because of its careful handling of your money in its business affairs. Naturally we are visitng only our communicants, the parents of the children in our Church School, and those who have been subscribers in the past. On the other hand, there are many who worship with us Sunday after Sunday, who probably would like to bear their share, by giving regularly through the envelope system. If you are one of this class, won't you tell the Rector or any of the ushers, this morning? Do it now while the impulse is fresh.

TOMORROW evening the Men's Club will hold its first meeting of the season. The object of the Club is to bring together socially the men who worship in Grace Church, that they may get acquainted with one another and feel more at home in God's House. The programs usually consist of an interesting speaker, who gives us something to think about for many a day--the subjects have been uniformly well worth while. An air of informality is achieved by providing cigars and refreshments. The meetings are open to all men, whether they worship in Grace Church or not and you who read this, if you are a man and interested, will be welcomed heartily. The speaker tomorrow evening will be Mr. Hermann A. Lum, Executive Secretary of the American University at Cairo. He will speak on "Present Day Egypt". In view of the proximity of Egypt to Ethiopia and the fact that Mr. Lum is in constant correspondence with people close to the seat of war, this talk should be one of the most illuminating any of us have heard in many a day. Do your neighbor a favor: bring him with you!

BISHOP Taitt wrote to his clergy under date of Sept. 27, "In view of the present horrible menace of war and in conjunction with the call of the Presiding Bishop to the whole Church, I hereby bid you to a special and devout observance of Armistice Day. Let us unitedly lift up our hearts to Almighty God that hostilities be averted, that aggression be overcome, that all nations may seek peace." Your Rector believes that the biggest corporate task that the Living God has committed to his children in this generation is that of getting rid of war, or, at least, building up such a sentiment against it, that soon after we shall have entered into life everlasting, the time will come when war shall be no more. The women of this congregation tomorrow are observing a day of continuous intercession in our Church building. At 9.30 the Rector will celebrate the Holy Communion with the special intention of pleading with Our Father to use us as willing and able instruments in building a world of no more war. From 10 A.M. there will be constant intercessions until nightfall. Won't you spend some time during the day on your knees in Church?

ON October 17th your Rector read the Burial Office for Charles Henry Brigham, who died on October 14th. Interment was made at Whitemarsh Memorial Park.

ON October 9th we had transferred to us from Calvary Church, Germantown, Miss Mildred E. Loughead. She is now one of our Church family.

THE lighting in Grace Church is inadequate. We yield to no Church in the beauty of our lamps; they are as beautiful as anyone could wish--but they don't give enough illumination. When they are lighted our Church building is suffused with a "dim, religious light", but when one tries to read the Psalms or the Litany or follow printed prayers, the strain on one's eyes is serious. This ought not so to be. The genius of Church worship requires that everyone be whole heartedly taking part all the time. The minute one's attention relaxes, the service is marred. An electrician experimented for us with higher-powered bulbs and with lowered bulbs. This did n't help much and it did spoil the beauty of our lighting atmosphere. Some one suggested that we remove the base of each lamp. We knew this would produce more light but it would spoil the beauty of the lamps and break our principle that memorials are generally not to be tampered with. Last summer we consulted the architect who was creating our new lectern. He agreed that our lighting, though beautiful, was inadequate and he marvelled that we could ever have an evening service with such dim lighting. He assured us that if we would add four Gothic lamps, similar to the six we have hanging in the nave our problem would be solved. When Mr. Watson told us in June that we needed four more lamps we consulted Mr. Samuel Yellin, who made the six we already have. He has the drawings ready, if and when we give him the order to go ahead. But the price he charges is very high. There our problem rests. What shall we do about it?

WORDS of this morning's anthem:

"O Brother man! fold to thy heart thy brother;
Where pity dwells,the peace of God is there;
To worship rightly is to love each other,
Each smile a hymn,each kindly deed a prayer.
Follow with reverent steps the great example of Him
Whose holy work was "doing good";
So shall the wide earth seem our Father's temple,
Each loving life a psalm of gratitude.
Then shall all shackles fall;
The stormy clangor of wild war music o'er the earth shall cease;
Love shall tread out the baleful fire of anger,
And in its ashes plant the tree of peace!"

John Greenleaf Whittier

LAST Sunday in his morning sermon on Ephesians 4:31-32,the Rector gave a brief survey of world conditions in regard to peace and war.Continuing,he asserted that the will of God for mankind is peace and that if the Christians of the nations were honestly to become scandalized at the idea of two Christian nations resorting to armed combat to decide economic or moral issues,there simply could be no more wars. The only guarantee of peace among nations is an attitude of love;until that is achieved we must try to establish international justice,both by restraining an aggressor nation who seeks to satisfy his needs by violence,and also by finding lawful ways of satisfying his needs. Some people feel that we cannot have everlasting peace unless individuals root out the seeds of hatred, discord and malice from their own hearts. "This is true,"said the Rector,"a nation does consist of its citizens;it is not something that exists apart from them. But a nation will not become unselfish only because its citizens are personally unselfish. What is needed is that they become unselfish in their capacity as citizens--i.e.,in their contributions to the conduct of the nation. And that is very difficult." Nevertheless,we are not appalled. The task is great, but we are on God's side,for the will of God for mankind is peace. In the long run,His will will be done. And our inspiration throughout is not fear of calamity,but loyalty to Christ,Who bade us seek first God's Kingdom and justice.

THE Church School has just completed a very interesting project:

When the school year began,a representative was elected by each class to the Student Council which is under the direction of Mrs.Edgar A.Hunter. This Council in turn selected the children of two congregations of colored people in Florida to be the recipients of their Christmas gifts and each representative was instructed to return to his class and "work it up." They did. Last Sunday the gifts were on view and by this time are on their way South. You should have seen them: an assortment of gifts which would make any child's eyes shine! Imagine how happy those poor children will be on Christmas Day when they receive their Boy Scout knives,dolls, Peter Rabbits and games!

ON Monday,November 11,your Rector read the Burial Office for Mrs.Deborah Warren Cooke,who died Nov.8th. Interment was made at Woodlands Cemetery.

SO far this year we have had 129 Sunday Services;111 week-day Services and 26 private Communion Services. The Rector has made more than 700 parish calls;there are usually between 20 and 30 sick. There have been 138 Holy Communion Services in Church. Church attendance has been better than any year before. The Church School,too,is growing. Do you wonder that we are humbled by our opportunities?

THERE is a movement on foot to start a Bible Class for women;a committee is busy on the plan and we hope to have an important announcement on the subject in the near future.

ON Sunday the 24th and until Thanksgiving there will be a barrel in the Tower vestibule to receive contributions of food for those under the care of the Social Service Committee.

PERHAPS some of you would like a copy of the Prayer we use on Thursdays at the meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild. It was written by Mrs.Burrell. Here it is:--

Our Heavenly Father,with grateful hearts we kneel beside our work to make our noonday prayer to Thee. Strengthen us with Thy blessing. Endue us with that spirit of devoted service that knows no faltering. Help us to sew loving thoughts into these garments and to infuse these surgical dressings with that spirit of healing which,in due time will bind up the wounds of the world--this world our Savior died to save. Thy will be done. Amen.

JUST before our Dr.Anderson landed at Manila to prepare herself to take over the hospital at Sagada,a tragic storm swept that district,causing a landslide to bury almost all the village, injuring others. First the landslide poured down on five houses and then an hour later,when most of the men of the town were trying desperately to help the victims,a second terrible slide overwhelmed them all. Many were near relatives of children in our Sagada School. The mountain is still dangerous. Our missionaries had previously in vain urged the government to blast out the rocks. They are now trying to persuade the survivors not to rebuild in that place--with varying success,for the people love their home fields and are reluctant to move.

THE Rev.George Copeland recently wrote an editorial for the Young People's Fellowship of this diocese. We enclose an abstract of it:"In Granada,Spain there is an ancient church which has the unique distinction of being named after a lunatic. His name was Juan de Robles;and,in the eyes of his neighbors,his lunacy consisted in this,that he persisted in preaching the necessity of establishing hospitals for the sick poor;for,seeing the blind and infirm and diseased huddled in the very shadow of the magnificent palace of the Alhambra,his tender heart would not let him rest until he had gone up and down the city on this crusade of mercy.So the rulers shut him up in an iron cage and left him there to rot and die. But a hundred years later when the world learned better,the Pope reversed the decision of Juan's contemporaries by declaring him a saint,while the great-grandchildren of his murderers hauled the cage into the nearest church and preserved it lovingly as a sacred relic of one of their greatest citizens.

"Today,it seems strange that men who called themselves Christians should have done such an unchristian thing as to martyr this gentle follower of Jesus the Great Physician. We believe the Episcopal Hospital to be one of the best reasons why we dare call ourselves Christians. As Bishop Taitt so truly says,"It is the glory of the Diocese."Indeed,we might,if we were lawyers,make a strong case for the charge that the real lunatics are those who,having the means,refuse to provide hospitals for the sick poor of their city. But,though we shall not go so far,we can at least say that one of the sanest as well as most Christlike things a member of the Episcopal Church in Pennsylvania can do is to support the wonderful work of this great institution."

WE of Grace Church have always felt that one of the best ways to follow our Lord's commandment to "heal the sick" is by giving our Thanksgiving offering to the hospital that bears our Church's name. Our contributions have been generous and constant. This Thanksgiving will be no exception.Every cent that comes in in the special Thanksgiving Day envelopes and every bit of money that comes in on the Alms basins will be sent as usual to our hospital. I count on you to be generous!

THE barrel in the Tower entrance to Grace Church has been placed to receive your gifts of food for the worthy poor of our own parish. Unperishable food stuffs,such as canned goods, jelly,flour or potatoes will be especially welcome.

PLEASE pay careful attention to the fact that the later Service on Thanksgiving Day is at 10 o'clock,one hour earlier than the hour of the late Sunday Morning Service. This is done in order to provide a time for worship which will fit most people's needs. Arrange now to spend part of this coming Thanksgiving Day in our Father's house.

WE have just had transferred to us from Christ and St.Michael's,Germantown,Miss Florence Ealer. She is now one of our congregational family.

LAST Sunday morning's sermon was based on St.Matthew 4:17,"Repent ye,for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand"--which the preacher translated according to the Greek,"Change your mind, God's reign is near";in modern phrase it might be interpreted,"Think again,and think differently." The theme of the sermon was: Be open-minded;what was good yesterday may be evil today;one way of being a sinner in the eyes of God is to live in the new day as though the old day was still here. God is not dead but living and you can only keep pace with Him by running at full speed. The religious gains of yesterday become the jumping-off place for the advance of today. The challenge of Christ and of life itself to us is to keep pace with the ever increasing revelation from the living God. "I have many things to say unto you but ye cannot bear them now." In the sermon most of the illustrations were taken from the Bible: The Sermon on the Mount (Ye have heard...but I say unto you");Exod.21 and its attitude toward perpetual slavery vs. Nehemiah and his command to wipe out slavery that lasted more than six years;and St.Paul's letter to Philemon,where he asks his reader to treat the runaway slave as a brother, because he had now become a fellow-Christian; but toward the end,the preacher brought in later illustrations,for example,how today the whole civilized world stands aghast at Italy's aggression against Ethiopia and how men everywhere regard Italy as a pariah-nation,because, while it is only doing what other nations have always done in the past,it does not realize that a new day is here--and that such things simply are n't done.

THE Lessons today are (1)II Kings 19:14-36 and (2) St.Matthew 6:19.The Proper Psalms for today are 146 and 147 (p.522).

Words of today's anthem:--"At midnight there was a cry made,"Behold the Bridegroom cometh;go ye out to meet Him;It is high time to wake out of sleep,for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness,and let us put on the armour of light."

THE Church School had as a Thanksgiving project the securing of fruit and candies for children in the Lucas Cottage of the Home for Consumptives,Chestnut Hill. You should have seen the array of presents they prepared. It would have done your hearts good!

LAST Sunday the Rector preached on Zephenia-ah 3:17;"He will be silent in His love",taking as his theme,"Can we believe that God is often silent,when we would like Him to be vocal,because He loves us?"After introducing the text as coming out of the travail of the Hebrew race, an answer to God's apparent indifference to the cries of His people,the preacher proceeded to discuss it in relation to modern times,first prefacing his discussion by two warnings,i.e., (1) humility when endeavoring to understand the ways of God with men,and (2) earnestness bred of absorption in fighting the good fight,rather than an academic question asked for the fun of setting up a problem and arguing about it.

Said he,"There are times when we can readily understand why a God Who loves us,will remain quiet. The man who challenges God;the person whose attack is unworthy of the dignity of a rejoinder;these are answered in love by silence. And we understand why. Further,we know that the wise parent won't be always interfering in his child's problems. The loving earthly father will refrain from bearing down with heavy artillery on the crude ideas,opinions and judgment of his growing offspring lest he render him feeble and crippled in character,or,else drive him into open rebellion. The loving parent who is wise,knows that often his child can learn only by personal experience. He will be silent in his love."

But what shall we say when doubts assail, temptations entice and God's children run to Him for help--and the Heavenly Father chooses to remain silent? Is it not time to look back over the perspective of the ages [illegible] because we were forced to fight out our doubts seemingly by ourselves,and to conquer temptations without perceiving the forces of righteousness that were fighting with us,that,therefore,we were all the stronger in our victory? Even if God's children seem to go down in utter defeat while crying to God for His manifest presence,we still have the example of Calvary to warrant us in our confidence that God is often silent because of His love;out of that crucible of suffering came Easter and the Resurrection and the Christian Church and the knowledge that at the heart of the universe beats the loving heart of a God Who understands,because He went through the darkest of days Himself. We must always wait in deciding an issue until the returns are all in."He will be silent in His love."God always has the last word.

THE Church Club is sponsoring an open dinner to the laymen of the Diocese in the interest of the Forward Movement. It will be held at the Penn A.C.,18th &Locust Streets,on Wednesday,Dec. 11th at 6.30,at a charge of $1.25 per person. Informal dress will be in order. At the dinner, Bishop Hobson,Chairman of the Forward Movement Commission,will be the principal speaker;Bishop Taitt will introduce him and the Rev.Wallace Comkling,a member of the Diocesan cooperative committee,will speak of the Movement in this Diocese. The Rector hopes that enough men from Grace Church will go to fill one or more tables of ten and sit together. Reservations must be in by Dec.9th.Tell the Rector if you plan to attend.

HIS Grace,the Archbishop of York,will broadcast from Washington Cathedral on Sunday morning next,Dec.8th,at 10 A.M.,over a nation-wide hookup of the Columbia Broadcasting System. These broadcasts are sent out from time to time on what is known as the "Episcopal Church of the Air."

YOU are welcome to take home and use one of the Forward Movement Leaflets which will be found at the rear of the Church. The new booklets begin with meditations and prayers for today.

THERE is need of a number of Bibles for use in the Church School. They need not be of uniform size or binding. If we have to purchase them it will cost much money. There are many Bibles in the homes of our people that could be spared for this purpose. If you have one or more that you are willing to give for this worthy cause,won't you bring them to the Parish House, please?

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY & GUILD NOTES

AFTER the 9.30 Communion Service on Thursday,Dec.5th,there will be an all day sewing meeting with luncheon at 12.30. The hostesses are: Mrs.Murphy,Mrs.Kuhn,Mrs.Russell,Mrs.Westney,Mrs. Irwin,Mrs.Hansell,Mrs.Lazarus and Mrs.Dawson. After lunch there will be an address by Mrs.John E. Hill,Diocesan President of the Woman's Auxiliary. A large attendance is urged and especially do we extend an invitation to the newer women in the Church,who have never heard Mrs.Hill.

A Woman's Exchange table has been arranged for Christmas articles. Those who have novelties are asked to bring them to the meeting,when orders will be taken and the proceeds,on a percentage basis,turned into the Auxiliary Treasury.

This fall the House of Rest for the Aged is in need of jellies--and interested members of Grace Church are asked to donate one glass of jelly from their household supplies. A basket will be placed in the Green Room to receive the donations at the luncheon meeting on Dec.5th,and we hope to have it overflowing.

The card party held at the home of Mr.and Mrs.Albert C.Brand for the benefit of Missions was a social and financial success. Every one who attended enjoyed a delightful evening and more than sixty-five dollars was earned by the committee in charge.

WORDS OF today's anthem:--"Doth not wisdom cry?and understanding put forth her voice?'Unto you,O Men,I call,and my voice is to the sons of men:Hear,for I will speak of excellent things, and the opening of my lips shall be right things. Doth not wisdom cry?For wisdom is better than rubies. I love them that love me;and those that seek me early shall find me. Counsel is mine and sound wisdom;I am understanding; I have strength. Amen." Prov.8:1,4,6,11,17,14.

CALLING attention to the perils of religious snobbery,last Sunday's sermon endeavored to demonstrate that the holier-than-thou attitude on the part of the religious is responsible in considerable degree,for failures of the Church to reach all mankind. We are too ready to believe in evil in men,rather than to insist that there is good in all men,if it can be found and brought to light. The age is one of cynicism; an attitude which seems to move in cycles through all ages,an attitude which it is the business of the Church,and of all Church people,earnestly to combat.

Members of the Church must be the saints of this world,acting as leaven that will ultimately lighten and sweeten the whole of humanity. Instead of standing by and complaining of the evils of the world,Christians need to get down among sinners,where they are,and exert influences that will restore them to union with a loving and forgiving Father.

If we are perturbed by the present state of the Church,we may seek the remedy by finding the good in men,seeking the strayed,raising up the fallen,rescuing the lost. If we are perturbed by the present state of the world,we may seek the remedy through the same means--teaching, preaching,living the Gospel of Jesus Christ, which is able to warm the hearts of men and make them over into a universal brotherhood.

It was suggested that this is an appropriate Advent thought,and that as we consider,with special appreciation of His reality and His nearness,the Holy Child's Nativity,--we shall remember His humanity and His relationship to all the rest of humanity,knowing that we are to be the leaven and that,for the leaven to work, it has to be in contact with the meal.

THE meeting of the Vestry,scheduled for Wednesday evening,December 11,has been postponed until the next evening,Thursday,December 12, on account of the Forward Movement Dinner on Wednesday.

YOU responded so generously last June to the Rector's appeal in the Parish News--that everyone pay up his promised contribution for the summer months before you went away on vacation,rather than wait until after vacation time was over--that for the first time in years our Accounting Warden did not have to borrow money to meet current expenses. As a result we did n't have to pay interest this year on a summer loan! That was fine;thank you. And your hearty response to that appeal moves your Rector to make another now;won't you,who have fallen back in your weekly contributions try to catch up before the end of this month? There is a considerable amount of envelope money outstanding and we need every cent of it to balance our accounts and start the new year with a clean slate. If everyone who can will make good his 1935 promises to Grace Church we shall come out fine. You will do what you can, won't you?

LAST month we had one of the largest crowds we've ever had at the meeting of our Men's Club. Those who came not only had a good time but also learned much about Egypt,Ethiopia and the raison d'etre of modern missions. Tomorrow evening we are going to have another meeting. This time our speaker will inform us on a different but very pressing problem,"Narcotics and Their Misuse." The speaker is Detective Sergeant Wm.C.Linehauser. All men who read this notice are welcome to come,especially if they bring friends with them. Refreshments,cigars,generous hospitality.

ON Thanksgiving Day at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in Grace Church,your Rector officiated at the marriage of Melvin Clifford Olson of Duluth,Minn.and Idamae Vanzandt of Cape May,N.J.

ON Friday,Nov.29th at 8 o'clock in the evening he officiated in Grace Church at the wedding of Charles Henry Holland of Scotia,N.Y. and Elizabeth White Buchanan of Mt.Airy.

THE Children's Carol Service will be held as usual this year on the afternoon of the day before Christmas. We debated moving it forward to Sunday afternoon because so many of the teachers find it impossible to be present on Christmas Eve;their business prevents their presence. But after talking it over,we decided to stick to our old plan. Make up your minds now,both old and young,to begin your Christmas at this lovely carol service. There will be a pageant,good carol singing,and devotions.

BEGINNING tomorrow,there will be a week's intensive effort to secure books and magazines for the American Merchant Marine Library Association. Using the books and magazines gathered in this drive,the Association will deliver traveling libraries to men on merchant ships,in lighthouses and on lightships;men who are eagerly awaiting text books,technical books,novels and biographies. Any good book or high grade magazine of recent publication will be appreciated. You may send them to the Association, c/o Y.W.C.A.,5820 Germantown Ave.,or Community Center,8419 Germantown Ave.

LAST Sunday, because it was the four hundredth anniversary of the putting of the whole Bible into English by Coverdale, the Rector preached a sermon on the theme, "The value of having the Bible in a language one uses in every day life." His text was, "Unless, in using the gift og "tongues" you utter intelligible words, how can what you say be understood? You will be speaking to the winds! There is, for instance, a certain number of different languages in the world, and not one of them fails to convey meaning. If, however, I do not happen to know the language, I shall be a foreigner to those who speak it, and they will be foreigners to me...Therefore, let him who, when speaking, uses "the gift of tongues" pray for ability to interpret them." I Cor. 14:9-11, 13 (Twentieth Century Version).

"The reason", said he, "that the Bible in English has continued to be a "best seller" for four hundred years (there were 3,000,000 English Bibles sold in the years 1856-1886 alone) is because men keep putting it into words that people know intimately. There is a constant flow of books from the press, each one putting the old, old story in language that we and our fellow men speak. Papini, Van Loon, Goodspeed, Moffett--a continuous procession of writers translate the old manuscripts into the vernacular, and their popularity shows that people of today will read the Scriptures if they are translated into the language of the day."

"There are two classes of people who will benefit by modern English translations of the Bible: those who are familiar with the present version, and those who are not. As we cease to hear the ticking of a clock after listening a while, so those who have heard, read, or memorized portions of the Scriptures every day since babyhood, and always in the same words, have lost the power of perceiving their deep and vivid meaning. On the other hand the tools who have not been so trained [illegible] language seems affected.

In concluding, the preacher recommended that his hearers read the Bible in French, German, Italian or Spanish if they know these languages. If they don't he suggested reading it in some modern translation such as Goodspeed's or Moffatt's. "You will find", said he, "that these are not such good literature as the King James' version, but on the other hand you will understand and enjoy better what the Bible means--and after all, that is more important."

IT is customary at the Christmas Eve Carol Service for the members of the Church School to bring gifts, usually in stockings, but sometimes with stockings tied to the package the gift is wrapped in. As soon as the Service is over, these gifts are taken to parishes of our own Church to be distributed to the poor children who otherwise would go without. These gifts are not cast-offs, but gifts that our own children would be glad to receive. The Student Council of our Church School has decided that this year the presents shall be given to the children of two worthy congregations--St. Luke's, Eddystone, a suburb of Chester, and the Hebrew-Christian Synagogue, Philadelphia.

WE have just had word that Bishop Abbott, of Lexington, Ky., will come to us for Confirmation on the morning of February 9th. Bishop Abbott has twice preached and confirmed in Grace Church in recent years and has made many admirers. We are glad that when we can't have our own Bishop we can have Bishop Abbott. Confirmation classes will begin right after Christmas. Mr. Irwin will, as usual, instruct the younger group and the Rector will prepare the older. If you are thinking of being confirmed, get in touch with the Rector or his Assistant

WEDNESDAY, Friday and Saturday of this week are Ember Days--days on which your prayers are asked for those about to be ordained to Holy Orders. You will find suitable prayers on pages 38 and 3 9 of the Prayer Book.

BEFORE Dr.Anderson sailed to do medical missionary work in the Philippines she spent some time at the Post Graduate Hospital, studying the technique they use in removing tonsils bloodlessly. When she left Philadelphia, we told her that when she arrived at her hospital, if they did not possess the proper surgical instruments for such operations, she was to inform us of the fact and we would try to raise enough money to buy them. This week we received a letter from her, via air mail and the initial flight of the "China Clipper", asking us to make good our promise. The instruments will cost a little less than $50., and if any of you who read this would like to have a part in providing them, the Rector will be glad to accept your contribution.

FROM now until Christmas a barrel will be placed at the entrance to Grace Church to receive contributions of food, which the Social Service Committee will distribute to the needy poor of our congregation during the Christmas Season. We also need contributions of money to provide meats to accompany the imperishable food. Mrs.Sheble or the Rector will receive your gifts. You have no idea how much your Thanksgiving donations were appreciated!!

ON Wednesday, December 4th, at 2.30 P.M., the Rector read the Burial Office for Benjamin F. Welsh, at his late home 41 W.Sharpnack St. Interment was made at Chelten Hills Cemetery.

WORDS of this morning's anthem:--"Rejoice in the Lord alway:and again I say,Rejoice. Let your softness be known unto all men;the Lord is even at hand. Be careful for nothing;but in everything,by prayer and supplications,let your petitions be manifest unto God with giving of thanks. And the peace of God which passeth all understanding keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesu. Amen." (Philip.4:4-7 in words of the Epistle for the 4th Sunday in Advent as found in the Prayer Book of 1549.)

ON Sunday morning last,the Rector began his sermon by calling attention to the economic and geographical way of interpreting history. Grant Allen said,"The differences between one nation and another ultimately depend...simply and solely upon the physical circumstances to which they are exposed". Von Treitschke claimed that the lack of poetical and artistic development which he thought he discovered among the Swiss,is due to the fact that they live among overpowering mountains,while low mountains and hill countries like those of his own land produce poets and artists. Mason says that "Hawks taught men to fish,spiders and caterpillars to spin,the hornet to make paper and the cray-fish to work in clay. In general,all history is to be interpreted by geography and economics.

But men more wise are coming more and more to believe that,while we are influenced by our physical environment,we are not coerced by it and that history is to be understood by its great men. If you want to understand what the 4th century was like,you can best find out by understanding what Athanasius and Constantine were like. "And this",said he,"is the way our Church and our Bible looks on life." When God desired to prepare the way for the coming of the Lord Jesus,He sent Isaiah and later John the Baptizer. God uses men to prepare the world for His will".

Continuing,he pointed out that the Christian ministry is God's way of preparing the world for His second coming.The ministry has two sides: the Prophetic and the Priestly;the Prophetic being exercised principally via preaching and espousing notable social causes;the Priestly being evidenced by representing the Church and by pastoral counsel. The pastoral is seriously impeded because people discount the authority of their Pastor. A pastor's business is to shepherd souls; naturally a good shepherd takes his responsibilities seriously.

"Moreover",said he,"there is a Priesthood of the laity". By illustration he attempted to show how the work of God's Church is hampered because the laity do not take their orders seriously."People generalize from the examples they see of what the Church means to the laity;the whole cause of Christ being furthered or retarded by your examples. It is the task of the whole Church to hasten the coming of the Kingdom".

IT is not too late to help the Social Service Committee to provide Christmas Baskets for the poor of our Parish. You may place imperishable food in the barrel at the Church vestibule and send money to Mrs.Frank J.Sheble,311 Roumfort Road. Gifts will be wisely used.

HAVE you paid up your back envelops yet?

ON Saturday,December 14th,in Grace Church, at 2 o'clock,your Rector officiated at the wedding of Jack Bradner White of New York City and Caroline Bernice Benson of Chicago,Ill.

ON Monday,December 16th,in Grace Church,at noon,your Rector read the Burial Office and officiated at a plain celebration of the Holy Communion for Virginia Campbell Nimlet,who died on December 13th. Interment was made at W.Laurel Hill Cemetery.

WE have had about one-third given us toward the amount needed to purchase the surgical instrument Dr.Anderson is to have as our Christmas gift for use in her medical mission work. We are still in a receptive mood!!

THE Feast of Christmas has come to mean some pleasure for almost every one,but to the Christian it should convey outstanding happiness;the joy of communion with God in Christ at the Christmas Holy Communion. Therefore,in order that all may worship our Lord in the one Service He definitely instituted,we have arranged a number of Communion Services for Christmas Day,so that whosoever will,will find a Service that he can attend. The great Service will be the Midnight Service Because it seems singularly appropriate that God's children should begin the dav in remembering Him,Whose birthday it is. For those who cannot attend at midnight,we have arranged a daybreak Service at 6 A.M.,another at 7.30 A.M.,and a final Service at 9.30 A.M.

If you come at midnight,be sure to prepare for it by observing a period of silence and peace before the Service. Don't rush from your Christmas activities,tired out,into the House of God. Keep yourself mindful,instead,of why you have been so busy. Rest yourself before you come,so that you will be able to pour your whole self into the Service;be present,if possible,at 11 o'clock in order to allow the ministry of music to help prepare you for what comes after. So shall your day be blessed! Your Clergy wish you a Holy Christmas!

Your Clergy Wish You All A Holy Christmas

EVERY parish and mission of our Church is assessed a certain percentage of what it pays toward the support of its clergy, the amount assessed being used as a Pension Fund for elderly clergymen and for the relief of clergymen's widows. Grace Church is taxed $375 annually for this worthy purpose, and we depend on the offerings of Christmas Day to help raise our assessment, although we haven't ever even approximated the full sum. All the money in the Special Christmas Envelopes and all the undesignated money received in the alms basins this year will as usual be used for Pension Fund premiums. Won't you be as generous as you can?

CONFIRMATION lectures begin this evening at 7 o'clock, in the Parish House. The class is divided into two groups, Mr. Irwin instructing the younger members, the Rector preparing the older ones. Attendance at lectures does not obligate any one to be confirmed; indeed, the clergy reserve the right, at the end of the talks, to decide who of those who want to be confirmed are really ready. It is important that no lecture be missed and that all be prompt. The clergy hope that many of the congregation will attend to learn more about our Church, what it believes and why.

Bishop Abbott, of Lexington, Kentucky, will come to bestow the rite on the morning of February 9th.

AT TENDANCE at the Christmas Services was as follows:--Carol Service, 493; Midnight, 381; 6 A.M., 24; 7.30 A.M., 28; 9.30 A.M., 30. The clergy also administered the Holy Communion to 11 sick parishioners in their homes. Total attendance 956. Total Communions made 307.

TOMORROW will be Epiphany, the beginning of a new Church Year season. Epiphany is the English coming from the Greek word it sounds like, and means "to appear to", or, "manifestation", the manifestation of our Lord Jesus to other than Hebrew peoples. The visit of the Magi is the story we connect with Epiphany and the message of Epiphany is, therefore, a missionary message--making known the Christ to peoples of other nations.

SEVERAL weeks ago we made an appeal in the Parish News for money to provide our Dr. Anderson with a Tonsillectome instrument. Your response has been very generous, coming within $5.00 of the amount needed. Believing that that amount would come in, we have purchased and sent the gift.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD

THE Annual Meeting and Luncheon of the Auxiliary will be held on Tuesday, January 14th, 1936.

Luncheon at 12.30. Speaker, Dr. Harold Morris, of Shanghai, China.

Business Meeting will follow immediately after.

Sewing Meeting, Thursday, January 9th. Holy Communion at 9.30, followed by Work Room activities at 10 o' clock. No luncheon on this date.

It is the hope of officers and members that many new women will join in these regular, informal Thursday morning sewing meetings. There is a luncheon the first Thursday of the month. There is machine and hand work to be done as well as bandage folding; and interesting accounts of the various committee activities in the Diocese are given while work goes on. We extend a cordial invitation to newer members to come and become acquainted with our Guild and with our Parish work.

EVERYONE is interested in Puppets. They have an universal appeal. Therefore, we look for a good attendance in the Green Room on Thursday Evening of this week, at eight o'clock, when our own Miss Hinkle, an authority on the subject, will speak to us on the subject of Puppets and Puppet Shows. The meeting has been arranged by the dramatic department of the Young People's Fellowship and they are opening their meeting to all who care to come. Thursday, January 9th, 8 o'cock in the evening.

CANON Bell, of St. John's Cathedral, Providence, R.I., is giving a series of four lectures on the Monday nights of January in St. Clement's Church, 20th & Cherry Sts., entitled, "A Churchman looks at the Modern World". Tomorrow night at 8.15 his subject will be "Modern Man". No tickets of admission;all are welcome.

Words of this morning's anthem are as follows:

Lo!Star-led chiefs Assyrian odours bring,
And bending Magi seek their infant King!
"Mark'd ye,where,hov'ring o'er his radiant head,
The dove's white wings celestial glory shed?"

EXTRACT from a letter of our Dr.Anderson, medical missionary in Sagada,Philippine Islands: "Confirmations and Baptisms in Sagada have at times numbered 500 and in some years 1000--more than are reported by many a diocese in the United States. In twelve villages the mission has outstations;these missions,hidden away in the mountains so obscurely,minister to more people than do many city parishes at home. St.Gregory has 358 Communicants;Taulon 632;and Suyo 487;St. Mary's in Sagada proper,has 1580. And these are real Communicants! All of them have received the Holy Communion at least once,many of them many times during the year. The numbers are overwhelming in all the mountain provinces,larger than in many whole dioceses in the States;Sagada with its outstations is the largest.

The "half-hospital"(so called because funds were insufficient to build more than half the original plan,which only called for $12,000) tells the same story of numbers beyond what any man should be asked to cope with. Many mission hospitals among primitive people struggle with inadequate equipment and space,with patients trooping into the clinic by the scores,but few, if any such hospitals shoulder it all on to one doctor and one nurse. The Sagada Hospital year before last (statistics are not available for last year yet) had 985 in-patients and 27,000 out-patients;in 1935 the number was larger. In addition to this the doctor and nurse are accustomed to answer urgent calls off in the mountain villages. There is also the responsibility of caring for the foreign staff;in one week Dr.Jenkins delivered an American baby;performed two very serious emergency operations upon one of the staff,and operated on his own small daughter for appendicitis. But it is not hard;the people respond so eagerly and even the stiffest,most conservative of the old men,who still exert a potent and malign influence,are beginning to cooperate. The most powerful of the witch doctors came in not long ago to be trained for Baptism."

THE Rector submits the following letter for your consideration:

Reverend and dear Brother:--

As you probably recall,the Bishop of the Diocese will keep the Jubilee of his ordination to the Priesthood on February 2nd,when we will remember him at the Altar,and on February 3rd, when there will be a Diocesan Service at Saint Peter's Church,where he began his Ministry,followed by a Reception at the Church House. There are undoubtedly many in the Diocese and elsewhere who will wish to remember him at that time. Fifty-three years in the Ministry,spent in three Parishes in one Diocese and as Bishop,is indeed a record worth commemorating. It has been suggested by his friends,with his own hearty approval and that of the Standing Committee,that instead of personal gifts,any moneys so intended might be combined in a fund,to be known as the Bishop's Jubilee Fund,to be added to the endowment of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese,the Income from which is only $400C while Assessments amount to over $26,000. This would serve the double purpose of an enduring memorial to our Bishop and of enabling the Parishes to devote the amount equivalent to the interest so obtained to other objects. Do you feel that such a gift would be possible? And will you make a real effort to bring it before your people,advising me if it meets with your approval? The time is far too short to obtain such a result as we all desire and as might be possible;but the affection of the Diocese for Bishop Taitt will respond eagerly if the idea is properly presented,in the Parishes and to individuals,as well as those who may be able to make provision for it by will and in the way of promises.

Faithfully yours,
Richard J.Morris,
January 2,1936 Secretary of the Convention

EVERY year during the month of February, the Men's Club, cooperating with the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, gives a Parish Dinner, to which it invites both men and women, to dine together and listen to an outstanding speaker. This year it will continue the practice. The speaker chosen is Major Thomas Coulson, who was in the British Intelligence Service during the World War and is the author of "Mata Hari" and similar works. He is at present on the staff of the Franklin Institute and will talk to us on the subj ect of Spies and Detecting Spies during the World War. Every one is invited. Reserve the date now! February 13th!!

ON January 7th, the Rector read the Burial Office for Laura Hill Hopkins, who attended Grace Church during Mr. Hill's rectorship. Mrs. Hopkins died January 4th in Germantown. Interment was made at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

ON Tuesday of this week at 12.30 there will be a luncheon given by the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild in the Parish House. The speaker will be Dr. Harold Morris of Shanghai, China. The annual business meeting will follow right after the luncheon. Every woman who reads this is invited to come and bring her friends.

Words of today's anthem:"Almighty and everlasting God,mercifully look upon our infirmities and in all our dangers and necessities stretch forth Thy right hand to help and defend us,through Jesus Christ our Lord."

LAST Sunday's sermon was based on II Cor. 7:10. Moffatt translates it,"The pain that God is allowed to guide results in a saving repentance,never to be regretted". After explaining how St.Paul came to write these words,the Rector applied them by showing that they acknowle dge pain and sorrow to be real,and also that those who are spared pain are not necessarily enviable,for"it is better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all";it is better to live than merely to exist. Trouble,sorrow, pain come from three sources:Self;Others;God. When one faces them,let him not (1)shift the guilt to others,(2)Try to day-dream them away, (3)Indulge in self-pity,which is self-poison, but (4)accept the truth that if one is truly sorry,God has already forgiven. When sickness or bereavement comes,let us also allow God to guide that;if we do we will find that life takes on new meaning;our religion,loves,health,popularity and financial status will assume their proper order of importance;we will see life in its right perspective--if we allow God to guide us.

OUR general Church work is facing a dire crisis. In making up the budget for 1936,it is feared that the members of the National Council, on February 11,12,13,will be faced with a shortage of more than $200,000 to meet what is known as the "Emergency Schedule",i.e.,work "as is", making no allowances for repairs,replacement or going forward. Our own Diocese had already pledged $125,000 toward the budget of the National Church,but on January 17,when informed of the situation before the whole Church,sent a telegram to the Presiding Bishop increasing our 1936 pledge to $135,000. In 1935 Grace Church pledged $2500 for Missions,but by added efforts of Vestry and Woman's Auxiliary,when the books were closed we were credited with more than $3000. This is little when compared with the years when we paid almost $10,000,but your Rector feels that the 1935 sum represents as much or more sacrifice,interest and prayer than did the larger sum.

AR E you keeping Thursday,February 13th, open? On that evening we will have our annual Men's Club Dinner,with all welcome,and Major Coulson as our speaker. He will talk on "Espionage in the World War". Do come!

ON February 3rd,Bishop Taitt will complete fifty-three years in the ministry;all of them spent in this Diocese. At 11 A.M. he will celebrate the Holy Communion at St.Peter's Church, 3rd & Pine Streets,where he began his ministry, and from 3 to 6 P.M. there will be a Reception and tea at the Church House,202 S.19th Street, for all members of the Diocese.

WE have just had word that Dr.D.A.McGregor, Executive Secretary for the Department of Religious Education of our National Council,has consented to lead our devotions at the T hree Hour Se rvice on Good Friday,April 10th,in Grace Church. Now we must secure a good attendance to justify our invitation!

WE have had two letters of thanks for the gifts given at the Children's Service on Christmas Eve. One was from the Hebrew Christian Synagogue;here is the other:

"The boys and girls of St.Luke's,Eddystone, thank you very much for your goodness in sending them the lovely Christmas presents. It seemed to us you made a splendid selection of gifts and I can say with certainty that every child received something which pleased him. We had two parties for the children,one for the smaller ones,and one for the older ones,at which time the gifts were given and a treat of candy and fruit from their own Church.

We have many children who [illegible] the one received at Church. Two of the older classes suggested they write their thanks and all sign their names, so I am enclosing the notes they gave me Sunday.

In connection with these gifts we have been able to teach quite a little about the Diocese and have interested the children in sending presents to places worse off than we are.

We gave the boxes of candy to the teachers and they were much pleased. Mr.Hornby wishes me to say how much he liked the gift for him and the kind thought which prompted you to send it.

Sincerely yours,
Myra C.Hornby.

WORDS of today's anthem: "The Lord whom ye seek shall suddenly come to His temple,even the messenger of the covenant,whom ye delight in;Behold He shall come,saith the Lord of Hosts.

But who may abide the day of His coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? For He is like a refiner's fire".

TODAY we commemorate the Presentation of Christ in the Temple,the day commonly called the "Purification of Saint Mary the Virgin"(see Prayer Book,p.231). According to Jewish custom when a child was a month old,his parents were obliged to take him to the Temple at Jerusalem for the double rite of purifying the mother (Lev.12) and "redeeming" the child as a firstborn(Ex.13:2,12).

And the Gospel for today presents a lovely picture--the humble parents,too poor to offer a lamb,and presenting instead the poor man's offering of two pigeons;the patriarchal old man with the hope of the world in his arms,and the still older matron. The whole story is rich in beautiful symbolism.

LAST Sunday was set aside in the American Church as a day for considering Christian Social Service. The Rector,taking as his text St.Luke 13:20-21 ("The Kingdom of God is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal till the whole was leavened"),first outlined two attitudes toward Christian worship,i.e., Corporate and Individual,and showed that they are not mutually exclusive but complementary,although Christian people tend to over-emphasize one as opposed to the other and do not realize the full value and necessity of both personal devotion and group worship. "So",said he,"it is with the ideal of a perfect life and how it should be lived.Some people emphasize personal morality,while others emphasize social ideals. Both are necessary. At the present time most men realize the necessity of personal morality,but Christians,as a whole, have never fully realized their obligations as leaders in reforming the social order. A few Christians have taken Christ's teachings in His parable of the Last Judgment and "Woe unto you, Chorazin",seriously to heart. Under their initiative,Infanticide,Polygamy,Duelling,Slavery,Torture and Imprisonment for debt have gradually been eliminated,while Hospitals,Refuges,Protectories for the Social Debtor classes have been erected. But Christians,as a whole,have not caught a vision of their obligations as members of the community. When we come across cases of worthy people suffering because they are unable to secure employment;when a war develops that consumes our dearest and our best--then we wonder why the Church has n't made our social order such that these things could n't happen--but ordinarily we are content to be good ourselves and hope that somehow the world will automatically grow better. This is futile. The Church is to be an innovator in social advance;a pioneer that points out the way and then goes ahead. Old Age and Unemployment Insurances,War,and even safe-automobile-driving are proper sujects for the Church to work on. Anything that touches the needs of one's fellowmen lies in the sphere of real religion. The Church is not designed to do all the benevolent work in the world,but to show that it should be done,insist that it shall be done,and hang on until it is done!"

LET'S have a large congregation present at the 11 o'clock Service next Sunday! When a large group of fine people are becoming members of our Church-family,what could be more appropriate than to have the family itself present,every one,to welcome them? Bp.Abbott,of Lexington,Ky.,will preach and confirm;he comes to us every other year and we have learned to expect great sermons when he comes. Every time he has preached for us he has done us good. Let's have a large congregation at the 11 o'clock Service next Sunday!

ALMOST 600 Forward Movement booklets have been distributed in this Parish since Christmas. How many are being used faithfully? Were the Rector to ask for a showing of hands to indicate faithful use, how many hands would be raised? Let's do better!

HOW many families in this Parish say "Grace before meals"? There is a short one on page 57 of the current Forward leaflet, and also a longer one (used extensively at public gatherings in this Diocese) which follows the short one on page 57. Why not begin today?

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD NOTES

Thursday, Feb.6, 9.30 A.M.--Holy Communion. 12.30 Luncheon. The speaker will be Miss Ludie Willis from Bishop Brooks Memorial Chapel. Hostesses will be: Chairman, Mrs. Pratt Thompson, Mrs. Bayfield, Miss Grant, Mrs. Apeldorn, Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Faunce, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Moyn and Mrs. Leighton.

The Bible Class for women begins on Tuesday, Feb.11 at 11 o'clock and meetings are to be held at the residence of Mrs. Frank Brooke, 302 E. Gowen Ave. This will continue on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of the coming months and the class will last one hour. Every woman in the Parish who is interested in Bible study is urged to become a member.

On Feb.3rd, at the Church House, a Tea from 3 to 6 o'clock, will be held in honor of Bp. Taitt. This will mark the 50th anniversary of his Ordination to the priesthood and the women of the Diocese are invited to attend.

WORDS of t oday's anthem: "Holy Spirit,come, O come,Send from Thy celestial home,the Glory of Thy Light divine. Father of the poor,descend,Come, O come,bounteous Giver,constant Friend,Come,O come,Come into our hearts and shine. Thou of comforters the Best,Thou,the soul's most joyous guest, Thou,all quick'ning,saving One,'Mid earth's labor Rest most meet;'Mid earth's tempest,Calm and sweet; 'Mid earth's tears true Peace alone. Come,then,O most blessed Light;Come,and fill with radiance bright,Hearts most faithfully Thine own.

Thy sustaining grace apart,Every good will fill man's heart,Nought therein but ill have sway, Cleanse Thou all impurity,Pour T hy dew upon the dry,Heal all wounds,all pains allay. Gently the unyielding bend,Warmth into the cold heart send, Guide the wanderer in Thy way.

On Thy faithful here below,In Thee trusting bestow Thy sevenfold grace:Grant them s trength that shall uplift,Grant salvation's highest gift, Ever to behold Thy face. Amen".

GLADLY we welcome Bishop Abbott back to Grace Church. This is his third official visit and we hope he enjoys being with us as much as we enjoy having him. He always does us good. In your name,we welcome him.

IN the notice sent to each Rector at the beginning of the year,telling him when the Bishop is coming for Confirmation,there are several items of direction and suggestion. One of them is,"It is asked that the offering at the Confirmation Service be given to "The Bishop's Fund",and that the Rector make a special appeal for this at the Service". In accordance with this request,the offering at this morning's Service will be sent to Bishop Tait for his own special discretionary fund. Please be generous;the demands are many.

TODAY is Septuagesima,seventy days before Easter,the third Sunday before Lent. We are not using the Septuagesima color for stoles or pulpit frontal,nor are we removing the seven-branch candlesticks (which connote joy) from the altar, as we ordinarily would. Instead we are using red and the candles because we are having Confirmation. Red is symbolic of the Holy Spirit,reminiscent of the gift at Pentecost,when the Spirit descended on the Apstles in the form of flames of fire. The candles will be used to mark our joyful recognition of God's goodness in giving us His Spirit at Confirmation. On the other hand,Septuagesima reminds us of the approach of Lent and should result in setting us to work now at planning our individual Lenten programs. The secret of a well-lived Lent lies in a well-planned Lent plus God's help to carry out the program we have worked out with His guidance. I want every one of you to be busy between now and Ash Wednesday, Feb.26th,in preparing for your Lenten discipline. Let's make this Lent the most helpful yet!

THE National Council meets Feb.11th to 13th. This is the meeting at which the budget for the year must be adopted. Pray for them earnestly!

THE Young People's Fellowship of Grace Church is better known throughout the Diocese than in our own Parish. It has not only provided outstanding leadership for diocesan activities,but also has justly gained a reputation for being one of the best groups in the Diocese. It is dear to your Rector's heart. The purpose of the Fellowship embraces worship,study,fellowship and social activities. One of the departments is the Dramatic,which from time to time gives worth while plays. On Feb.21,they will produce "Three Cornered Moon",which has been shown in the local Motion Picture Theatres. Your Rector is desirous that this performance be well attended. We promise, that if you come only out of a sense of duty,you will be amply rewarded by having an enjoyable evening. Any of the young people will sell tickets.

TWO of the Senior Classes in the Church School are preparing a Bible Play to be given before Lent. It is called "Jairus' Daughter", was written by two of our teachers and has been highly praised by professionals. The profits will be turned in as a part of the Lenten Offering of the two classes. (You will hear more about this in a later issue of the PARISH NEWS).

ON Saturday, Feb.1, the Rector read the Burial Office for Elsie B.McClintock, at her late residence, 3617 Quincy St. She died Jan.29. Interment was made at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

ON Monday, Feb.3, the Rector read the Burial Office for Eleanore B.Hinkson at Oliver Bair's. Miss Hinkson died Jan.31. Interment was made at Fernwood Cemetery.

ON the Feast of the Purification, the Rector and Mr.Irwin baptized Horace G.Goodwin, Jr., son of Horace G. and Elizabeth Stewart Goodwin. His godparents are Nelson Worner Goodwin and Sarah Clifton Goodwin.

ALSO on the Feast of the Purification, your clergy baptized Franklin Ashmead Fisher, Robert Ashmead Fisher, Mary Caroline Bates and Joanne Marie Lavell; all adults. Mr.Horace Fortescue and Mr.Thomas H.Ball acted as witnesses.

WORDS of this morning's anthem:—
"Hide me under the shadow of Thy wings,
Keep me as the apple of an eye,
From the ungodly that trouble me.
I have called upon Thee,O God,for Thou shalt hear me;
Incline Thine ear unto me,and hearken unto my words". (Ps.17:8,9,6)

LAST Sunday morning,in spite of the heavy snowfall,317 persons attended the 11 o'clock Service,at which the Rt.Rev.H.P.Almon Abbott, of the Diocese of Lexington,administered the rite of Confirmation. There were 38 confirmed;others were prepared,but were too ill to attend. The names of the newly confirmed are as follows:

Jane Gomershall	Donald Atkiss
Mary C.Bates	James Haines
Marie Ross	John Murphy
Margaret Marks	James Garrett
Jane Worrall	Albert Littell
Margaret Oakman	Joan H.Hepburn
Margaret Morrison	Katherine M.Hepburn

ON Tuesday morning last,the Woman's Bible Class held its first meeting. It was decided to study the life of Christ as found in St.Luke's Gospel,and that the members of the group would prepare themselves to lead the discussion on various topics. The class will meet again on Feb.25 at 11 A.M.,at the home of Mrs.Frank P. Brooke,302 E.Gowen Avenue. Assignments for the next meeting were three: Mrs.William Burk to discuss "The kind of government Jesus grew up in";Mrs.Brand,"What kind of town it was in which He was born",and Mrs.Holman White,"The social conditions and outstanding characteristics of the age in which Jesus lived His earthly life". All women are welcome to attend the meetings.

AS you know,Bp.Taitt has recently celebrated his fifty-third anniversary of continuous service to Christ and His Church in this diocese. When some of his friends asked him what kind of present he would like,he replied,"Nothing would please me more than to have the people of this great diocese contribute a sum of money,to be invested and the income used toward defraying the salary and expenses of the Bishop of this diocese". Not only because it would please Bp. Taitt,but also because this would relieve every parish of the diocese of a certain sum of money now assessed against each one annually,the idea was received with acclaim. Already Grace Church has received from individuals $37. and from the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild $25. more. We should like to give at least $100. If you can give here is your opportunity.

ON Feb.4,we received from Christ Church, Cambridge,Mass.,the formal transfer of Mrs.Bradford Johnson of 418 E.Sharpnack St. She is now one of our family!

ANY member of the Young People's Fellowship will be glad to sell you tickets for "Three Cornered Moon",a play they are giving on Friday,the 21st. Buy them now;the 21st is next Friday!

AT St.Paul's Church,Malden,Mass.,a vote was recently taken to discover the congregation's favorite hymns. The five leaders were:"O Master, let me walk with Thee","Onward,Christian soldiers","Fight the good fight","Lead,Kindly Light", and "Abide with me". Strange to say,"Abide with me" is our own Young People's favorite.

THE annual Laymen's Corporate Communion on Washington's Birthday will be held at the Church of the Holy Trinity,19th & Walnut Streets at 8 o'clock. Bp.Taitt will be the celebrant. Following the Service,a breakfast will be served at Dufour's restaurant at a cost of 50¢. The Commissions on the Forward Movement and on Evangelism are co-operating with the Laymen's Committee in charge of the Service,and the Rev.Dr.Arthur M.Sherman,member of the General Convention Commission on the Forward Movement will be the speaker.

This annual Corporate Communion of the laymen of the diocese was begun by the Brotherhood of St.Andrew,and has grown in size and importance until it is now a recognized feature of diocesan life. The Service is held on Washington's Birthday in order to emphasize the example of the Founder of our Country as a Christian,a Churchman and a Patriot.

This year the Service has assumed larger importance because of the Forward Movement in our Church,which calls for renewed wills in the service of Christ and of His Church. The approaching Lenten Season should be a time of consecration and spiritual invigoration. No better way of preparing for this can be found than such a Service,at which a large group of devoted men pledge themselves to the service of Our Lord, and receive the power which He gives through the Sacrament.

THE Presiding Bishop's book for Lent,"Christ the King",sells for $1. Royalties from last year's book yielded $500. for the Church's work. The same use will be made of this year's royalties WORDS of this morning's anthem:--"Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels,and have not charity,I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal,and though I have the gift of prophecy and understand all mysteries,and all knowledge;and though I have all faith,so that I could remove mountains,and have not charity,I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor,and though I give my body to be burned,and have not charity,it profiteth me nothing. Charity suffereth long and is kind;Charity envieth not,charity vaunteth not itself,is not puffed up. Beareth all things,believeth all things,hopeth all things,endureth all things. Charity never faileth;but whether there be prophecies;they shall fail;whether there be tongues, they shall cease;whether there be knowledge,it shall vanish away. For now we see through a glass, darkly,but then face to face. Now I know in part; but then I shall know,ev'n as I am known. And now abideth faith,hope,and charity,but the greatest of these is charity".

DURING Lent we will have Services every Sunday evening at 8 P.M. Every Wednesday Evening we will have Evening Prayer and a talk on a historical subject at 8 P.M. On Tuesdays,Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays,Evening Prayer will be read at 4.30 P.M. Children's Services will be held on Fridays at 4.15 P.M. On Wednesdays we will have a special celebration of the Holy Communion at 7 A.M. Sunday Services will be as usual except for the addition of the Evening Service.

YOU find above a list of Lenten Services to be held in Grace Church. Your Church expects you to "keep Lent". That means that your spiritual Mother Expects every one of you to fast from certain things and to take on certain other things. You are to make a plan--and follow it. Lent as a season for deepening our spiritual life is not on trial;the usages of the [illegible] and the experiences of countless generations of earnest disciples of the Lord Jesus have proven its worth--if men use it devoutly. Your Church does not tell you what you may eat and what you may not eat,nor does it outline a series of spiritual exercises for you to engage in. Legalism--being satisfied with outward observances--is too subtle a temptation when one is given a schedule of external ways by which to observe the holy season. But the very fact that your Church trusts you to make your own rule puts you and me on our honor to have such a rule. Let it not be over-ambitious,but nevertheless, worth while--beginning the custom of praying at noonday for missions,using the "Forward Movement" leaflets religiously,reading religious books,forgiving those who have offended us,Turning,Following,Learning,Praying,Serving,Worshipping,Sharing--there are innumerable things to be and to do. Let's make this the best Lent yet!

THE Annual Pre-Lenten Conference of the Germantown Sunday School Association will be held at St.David's Church,Baker,Dupont & Smick Sts., Manayunk,Monday,Feb.24 (tomorrow) at 6 P.M. Subject:"Ways of uniting efforts of parents and teachers." Let Mr.Allen Horton know that you are going.

A WORLD Day of Prayer will be observed on Friday next (February 28) under the auspices of the "Woman's Interdenominational Union". Locally it will be observed in the First Presbyterian Church,Chelten Avenue,near Germantown Avenue. The hours are from 11 A.M. to 12.30 and from 1.30 to 3 P.M. Mrs.Bonynge will speak both morning and afternoon on Latin America,which she visited last summer.

DR.Sherman,of the Forward Movement,will preach on the Movement at 4.30 this afternoon at St.Luke's,Germantown. This will be an excellent opportunity to hear one of [illegible]

WORDS of this morning's anthem:
"Distracted with care and anguish,
When hearts despairing languish,
Madly they seek for comfort
Where it doth ne'er abide.
For us no rest remaineth,
If earth our love retaineth,
And heaven we cast aside.
Relief he only gaineth,
And peace at last attaineth
Whom God vouchsafes to guide".

The Evening anthem is by Samuel Wesley(1810-76),and the words are from Psalm 51,verses 2-3. "Wash me throughly from my wickedness,and forgive me all my sin;For I acknowledge my faults, and my sin is ever before me".

JUST before the Evening Service tonight,Mr. Robinson will play on the organ a Choral Prelude on "Our Father",by Margery Moore,and a Fugue in F minor,by Handel.

PREACHING on the observance of Lent,last Sunday,the Rector expressed his disapproval of the idea held by many,that Lent is above all things a period in which one shows the appetites "who's boss". One should learn to control one's appetites and Lent is a good season in which to fight it out;the Church has a right to expect every one of its members to give up some luxury and to use what is saved thereby for a good purpose,but fasting is not the sole nor even the main object of Lent. It is a means to spiritual power and not an end in itself.

"Also",said he,"one should n't pay overmuch attention to whether he feels like keeping Lent or not. Religion is more a matter of good will than good thrill. To many people "feeling" is the supreme test in religion. They feel that if they do not feel close to God when they pray, there is something amiss and they are not getting to God. If they do not enjoy their private prayers or their Church-going,they quit. If you ask them why they have given up,they usually say that it is because they did not get any good from them. And if you persist by asking them what they mean by "good" in this connection,it always turns out that they mean "pleasure" (or "fun"). The emotional aspect of the mind is their supreme value in spiritual as in other matters and "feeling" seems to constitute the whole point of their religion. This is childishness, for the difference between mature and immature living depends upon the degree that one does things whether he "feels" like it or not. Indeed, one of the great menaces to mental and character advance today consists in the way we live by feeling--by sentimental feelings. Sentiment is a good thing,but "sentimentality",which means enjoying a feeling for its own sake and allowing it to evaporate without bearing practical fruit, is contemptible".

When prayer is dry and has no pleasurable effect;and we go on praying without feeling like it,it is most effective,for it delivers one from self and leads to God. S.Francis de Sales wrote, "Prayers,when they are dry,smell sweetest to God, just as rose leaves do to us".

So,Lent. Here is a time when millions go aside to draw near to their Lord. Whether we "feel" like it or not,let us join their company this year and feed our hungry souls. The Master waits.

WE hope that many will attend the Sunday and Wednesday Evening Services during Lent. They will be helpful,inspiring,worshipful--and reasonably short! Now that the bad weather is broken,make an effort to come weekly to the Holy Communion Service at 7.30 on Sundays;if once you form the habit,you'll find no other Service so full of the Presence!

WEDNESDAY, Friday and Saturday of this week are "Ember Days", i.e., days on which the faithful are expected to pray for those about to be admitted to Holy Orders. Suitable prayers are to be found on page 58 of the Book of Common Prayer.

THE Executive Committee of the Men's Club will meet tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr.& Mrs.Dorwarth, 108 E.Sedgwick St.

SOME one asked the Rector for a list of the Primary Instincts; here they are:--Hunger, Fear, Repulsion, Curiosity, Pugnacity, Mating, Parental, Gregarious, Acquisitive, Self-assertive, and Submission. It would be interesting and helpful in forming an estimate of one's character, to analyze your attitude toward life and discover in what order these instincts range themselves.

A RECTOR, telling of the Forward Movement in his Parish, said that a woman who had been an attendant at Services, but never active, had brought her husband, their son and daughter, the son's wife and the daughter's husband into the last Confirmation Class.

THE evening anthem is by Gustave Holst;the words "Turn back,O man,forswear thy foolish ways",by Clifford Bax.

JUST before the Evening Service tonight Mr. Robinson will play "Kyrie Eleison" and"Machs mit Mir,Gott",by Sigfrid Karg-Elert.

THE sermon last Sunday offered the suggestion that one of the reasons for spiritual starvation,as well as for general unrest,is the passing,in personal experience,of a real belief in Heaven. There is need for a restoration of the balance between the world in which we live now,and the life for which this is a preparation.

Dissatisfaction with spiritual growth manifests itself very often during Lent,when people consult their clergy as to why their prayers are dead and cold,and why there is not the joy in their Communions that there used to be. Usually the person who is concerned about his failure to grow spiritually is not in grave danger. The danger would be present if he failed to be concerned. The trouble is most often a failure to recognize the difference between feeling,and the deeper things which go with added years of life.

The mind which is stayed on God,with a true conception of the values of this world,and an equally true conception of the values of the world to come,cannot be subject to fear or unrest or hopelessness. Nor is the possessor of such a mind one of the spiritually starved.

When people fail to find the help they need in the Church's teaching,and seek easier religions and more promising Messiahs,they are of the spiritually starved,and they lack that balance between the now and the then which is essential to a sustaining faith. Too,they may be attendants at Church,with an attitude entirely receptive,when their need may be an active, alert,aroused kind of attention and participation which will bring them the Church's true message,and supply what their souls need. "He that cometh to God must believe that He is,and that He is a Rewarder of them that DILIGENTLY seek Him".

THE Tuesday morning Bible Class had an inspiring,helpful meeting on Feb.25th.It was decided to study the life of Christ from the standpoint of "One who came from God,to found the the Kingdom of God,and to bring men home to God". It was further decided to study it by periods:-

I. Preparation and private life of Jesus of Nazareth. (From His birth to the coming of S. John the Baptist;a period of thirty years.)
II. The beginnings of the Kingdom. (From His baptism to His rejection at Nazareth;a period of sixteen months.)

THE Evening anthem is entitled,"Lord,for Thy tender mercies' sake",School of Tye.

AT the evening organ recital,Mr.Robinson will play,"Pièce Héroique" and "Andante",by Cesar Franck.

"LO,we have left all and followed Thee--what shall we have therefore?" Using this self-seeking query of Peter as his text last Sunday morning,the Rector contrasted the crudeness of these words with Peter's attitude later on in life--when he faced the rulers of his fellow-countrymen and defied them because he cared so much for Jesus,he did n't care what happened to himself. Something miraculous had taken place in Peter's inner nature;his following of Jesus had changed from being only a habit to something founded on sentiment.

"That is where this sermon touches us",said the preacher. "Let us ask ourselves whether our religion is habit only,or whether our heart is really in it. There are many tests. "Feeling", as we pointed out,is not necessarily a yard stick to apply;"Sentimentalism" is not a true test. But good sentiments,with the love of Christ as the master-sentiment,are our ideal. The religion of the Pharisees was habit only;the religion of a Christian is based on affection. The New Testament is filled with examples of the difference. S.Paul's famous chapter on charity (I Corinthians 13) is a sermon on the subject. "Though I do this and that--and don't have my heart in it,it is vain". If,when you are away from home,you feel no urge to pray or go to Church,the chances are that your religion so far is habit only. Habits are worth while,good habits,but they are external,while sentiment is internal. If you will be receptive this Lent,God will touch,warn,and win your hearts".

IN connection with the Forward Movement Mrs.A.Van Harlingen is giving a Three Session Course on "Discipleship" at the Parish House of Christ Church and St.Michael's,Tulpehocken and McCallum Streets,on Tuesday afternoons,March 24th and 31st,and April 7th,at 2.30 o'clock. The women of Grace Church have been given a special, warm invitation to attend.

THE Sunday Evening Service on Passion Sunday,March 29th,will be conducted by members of our Young People's Fellowship;and one of their number will give a devotional address.

NEXT Sunday will be "Family Sunday"in Grace Church. Try to attend the 11 o'clock Service;let the families sit together;bring one or more friends with you.

HAVE you noticed that we have been experimenting with a lantern in Church,on the Gospel side,toward the main entrance doors? We have removed the bulbs from the center of the lamp and have inserted them in reflectors at the base and at the top. This gives more light and brings out the beauty of the lanterns--as you can see by comparing the one we have changed with the one opposite. We purpose changing all the lanterns, making them like the one we have beautified. The cost of this will be taken care of from current income. We purpose also adding four similar lamps to prevent eye strain and add to the beauty of our building. Both our architect and our lighting engineer urge us to do this. We already have the price of one tentatively promised,and the cost of another is in hand. That leaves two more to be given. The lamps are to be memorials and we feel that they offer a splendid opportunity to keep alive the memory of dear ones,now in Paradise. Have you some one you'd like to commemorate? The cost is $150. per lamp.

BEFORE this Evening's Service Mr.Robinson will play "Chorale Prelude on Martyrdom", by C.H. Parry and "Solemn Prelude", by E.S.Barnes.

THIS evening's Anthem is the first Chorus from the 42nd Psalm, by Mendelssohn, "As the Hart Pants".

LAST Sunday morning's sermon was a study of the Collect for the Day, which, the preacher said, offered difficulties in understanding. A good rule to go by, when one is puzzled in understanding Biblical or Prayer Book thought, is to consider the phrase, not literally but spiritually. Thus one can understand, "Thou preparedst a table before me in the presence of my enemies", "defend us from all perils and dangers of this night". So, in today's Collect, "hearty desires" means the real sentiments which motivate our lives; "look upon" means censor; "stretch forth thy right hand" means "do everything possible"; "against all our enemies" means "everything that tends to prevent our spiritual growth", especially the enemy of formalism, religious routine and meaningless religious practices, "not having our hearts in our religion". "How can one put his heart into his religion?" One tried and proven way is by putting time on it. When some one says, "I don't think much of that (or him)", they mean that the object does n't appeal to them, but they are saying that they are not spending any time to improve their acquaintance. So, if religion is not a matter of heart with you but habit only, the chances are that you "don't think much of it". And the remedy is to put more time on it and it will become real and of intense interest. Meditation, Bible and religious book reading, praying, sharing--these are age-tried means of success.

THE Bible Class will meet day after tomorrow, Tuesday, at 11 o'clock in the Green Room. Mrs.R.N. Hall will discuss the vision which came to Ezek-arias while he was ministering at the alter of incense, and Mrs.Matlack will discuss the "Logos" doctrine in the Prologue of St.John's Gospel. All are welcome.

SEVERAL weeks ago the Rector explained to the Woman's Auxiliary the financial crisis that threatens the missionary work of the Church. After every parish and diocese had informed the National Council how much money it could give during the year 1936, there will still be needed $127,000 to maintain the present work, not counting replacements or repairs. (One hundred and forty vacancies in the mission field have not and cannot be filled, even if the emergency budget were raised.) An S.O.S. has been sent out to the whole Church to try to do something about it by April first, the dead-line when by mandate of General Convention, if the money is not in sight, every missionary field will have to cut its skeleton budget and close some of its work. This would be a calamity.

When the Rector informed our Auxiliary of the facts in the case, they set to work to do their share. Then the Executive Council of the Diocese held a meeting and in spite of the fact that Pennsylvania had already increased its givings for 1936 $10,000, it was decided to guarantee one tenth more--to underwrite $12,700 of the amount needed!! Thus in 1936 our Diocese promises to pay $147,000 for missions, $22,700 more than in 1935. Never was your Rector more proud of his Diocese! But to prove our appreciation, we must all get behind Bp.Taitt in his effort to raise the money, which must be in hand by Whitsunday. The Woman's Auxiliary has given $100; the Vestry has voted a similar amount. This is a good beginning, but we must do better. You will hear more of this subsequently.

WE are still waiting for some one to tell us that he would like to [illegible] like.

necessary to erect one of the Memorial Lamps we mentioned in the PARISH NEWS last week.

ONE of our clergy, standing in the pulpit of his Church last Easter Day, began the sermon by saying how gratifying it was to him to see so many people that he had n't seen for a whole year, although it was sad, too, for judging by past experience he realized that unless they were in trouble, he would n't see them again for another year. The congregation resented his remarks and perhaps they were not quite suited to the special message of Easter Day, but, nevertheless, one does feel sorry at Eastertide as he views the crowded pews, that these children of God do not care publicly to honor Him more than once a year. There are too many consistent Church-goers who go to Church consistently every Easter Day! They lose much by being so irregular, but think how sorely the Heavenly Father misses them! If only one is missing, He knows!

ON Monday, Mar. 16th, the Rector read the Burial Office for James Willard Chattaway, who died in the Germantown Hospital , Mar. 13th. Interment was made at Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Maspeth, L. I.

ON Wednesday, Mar. 18th, at 1339 W. Thompson St., your Rector read the Burial office for Linda B. Shertz, who died Mar. 15th. Interment was made at West Laurel Hill.

THE Evening Anthem is "O Saviour of the World",by Goss.

BEFORE this evening's Service Mr.Robinson will play "I believe in One God",by Bach and "O Sacred Head",by Garth Edmundson.

"WHAT is God like?",was the question asked by the preacher in last Sunday morning's sermon. Said he,"During all the ages men have been asking this question,usually answering it in anthropomorphic terms,"God is like some fine spirit we know". Our Lord Christ sanctioned this method by teaching men to think of God in terms of Fatherhood. And such a description of God satisfies. "But",said the Rector,"one must be sure to think of Fatherhood in its highest implications,viz.:If a son were dismissed from college for drunkenness and immorality his father could react in one of four ways:(1)"I forgive you;it's all right;never mind". (2)"I turn you out and will have nothing more to do with you". (3)"I'll forgive you,but you may not return home until you've paid the price of your folly". (4)"I will take my son back into my home,suffer with him and forgive him". The last is what God is like,for so we find Him in Christ. Since God is like Christ,He suffers for us and with us,even to dying for us on the Cross. Such a God is worth dying for,and--what is much harder--worth living for."

TONIGHT the Service in Church will be conducted by members of the Young People's Fellowship. Mr.John A.Eiseman will make the address. We hope for excellent attendance.

After the 8 o'clock Service this evening young people of Calvary Church,Germantown,will present a short religious play for our Fellowship in our Parish House. The play will be devotional in character and all are invited to attend,whether old or young. There will be no charge. Come!

MR.Stanley Thornton's Class is providing a light supper this evening in the Green Room. The charge will be 25¢ and the profits will be used to swell their Church School Lenten Offering. Come;you will be welcome!

MICHAEL H.Mason,in his book "Arctic Forests",says:

"The most beneficial establishment in the country (the Arctic of the Mackenzie and Yukon Rivers) is the American Mission at Fort Yukon. It was founded many years ago by Archdeacon Macdonald and carried on for twenty years by Archdeacon Hudson Stuck,whose friendship I was privileged to enjoy until his untimely death from bronchial-pneumonia. Since that time it has been carried on by Dr.Grafton Burke and his wife. They have a small hospital up there,and have probably saved more lives than they can count, including my own.

"Their door is always open,and they have a cheery welcome for any stranger,be he 'bish' or ex-convict. Their house is always full of about a dozen Indian children who have either lost their parents or are being kept to attend the little Indian school while their fathers are out on their hunting grounds. Mrs.Burke does all the cooking for them,caring also for their clothing and religious training. I would add, the Doctor told me once,"When Mrs.Burke and I had been married three months,we had fourteen children".

"If the Doctor and his wife were to leave Fort Yukon,a light would go out which would never be replaced. The Indians in the village would all go to pieces,the mortality would increase 100 per cent,and the white people would lose two very good friends."

THE three Dioceses of the Chinese Church, which form the three missionary districts of the American Mission, Shanghai, Hankow, and Anking, have sent an offering of $1672, Chinese currency, to the Presiding Bishop and Council, as a Thanksgiving for the hundredth anniversary of the arrival of the Episcopal Church's first missionaries in China.

THE words of this morning's anthem are: "Ye daughters of Jerusalem,weep not for me,but weep for yourselves and for your children. Jerusalem is faithless found".

"GOD will provide Himself a lamb for a burnt-offering",a verse in Genesis 22,was the text of last Sunday morning's sermon. After giving an exegesis of the whole chapter narrative, the preacher pointed out the peculiar manner in which the text applied to the Lord Christ. When evil is committed,a price must be paid;we do not know why,but we do know that it is so. One cannot sin with impunity. No wrong can be entirely wiped out,but so far as possible atonement must be made for the sin and always innocent people have to help pay the price. (The Jewish Temple rites were planned to drive this truth home to the hearts of the worshippers.) We are so closely knit together that when someone commits a wrong all are involved in the subsequent ravages. Vicarious suffering is an ever present factor in human relations. Meditating on this truism,sensitive-conscienced souls have often identified themselves with the guilt of erring humnaity and have felt a sense of self-reproachful complicity in every sinful tendency of their age. Their own consciences have acknowledged responsibility in the community's wrong. So Jesus. Because His nation was not fulfilling God's purpose,He felt that He was implicated in its failure. Because His Church was guilty of apostasy, He,as a member of that Church,was involved in its sin. So,not because He had to,nor because it was demanded of Him--but voluntarily and willingly He gave Himself to the death on the cross. "Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the sins of the world!"

PALM Sunday--today--begins the observance of the most solemn week of the whole year. If you look at the commemoration dispassionately, you will realize that Holy Week should be so different from other weeks in Christian homes, that any stranger visiting them would be impressed by the real way that we enter into Jesus' sufferings. Do take advantage of the many opportunities we have made available for worship in our Parish Church this week. You will find the schedule of Services printed above. In particular,your clergy are anxious to have you take part in the Good Friday Three-hour Service. As you know,the leader will be the Rev.Dr.McGregor of New York City;many of you know by personal experience under his teachings,how fortunate we are to secure him. If you cannot remain from 12 o'clock until 3,come for part of the time. The preparation for making one's Easter Communion will be conducted on Good Friday evening by our own Mr.Irwin;many still remember how helpful his ideas were last year. The Easter Day Services are many,so that all who care to,may find acceptable times for worship. Come in the joy of the Resurrection and observe the Feast!

THE EASTER OFFERING: Recently a parish that suffers under the burden of carrying a heavy mortgage,was offered $500.if it would raise a similar $500.and use the $1000.to pay off part of its mortgage principal. They acquiesced and the mortgage has been reduced--but the money they paid was taken from the fund they were raising toward their Easter Offering! Many Churches have to work all year to raise enough money at Easter time to carry on. Thank God,we of Grace Church by regular contributions are in a different category. We do not have to make a drive every Lent to pay our bills at Easter time. That puts us in the enviable position of being free to express our Easter joy in an altogether happy fashion--by giving our Offering to others. Every year we give away our Easter Offering. This year will be no exception. And,as usual,we will give the offering to our Hospital in Kensington. In that way our Easter gifts will continue the work of Jesus,Who in His earthly ministry,spent much of His time in healing the sick. Be generous!

THE Church School Carol Service will be held at 3.30 on the afternoon of Easter Day. The Rev.Percy Haughton of New York City will address the school and the congregation.

ANY one desiring to contribute toward the purchase of Easter flowers for our altar may do so by communicating with Miss Margaretta Bayard, 105 E.Johnson Street.

THE annual election of vestrymen will take place in the Parish House on April 13th,from 5 to 6 P.M. The following have been nominated: Thomas H.Ball,Horace Fortescue,Robert Farnham and S.Mendelssohn Meehan.

ON Sunday,March 29th,the Rector and Assistant baptized:

Joseph Neidinger Williams and Clifford Harrison Williams,Jr.,sons of C.Harrison and Eleanor F.Williams,of 329 W.Durham Road.

Eleanor Lee Weihenmayer,daughter of Frederick C. and Leona F.Weihenmayer,of 2941 Morris Road,Ardmore.

ON Tuesday,March 31st,the Rector read the Burial Office for Anna Eugenia Hand,who died March 28th. Interment was made at Ivy Hill.

The words of today's anthem are as follows:

"Hail, all hail, dear Conqueror!
Oh, what a victory is Thine!
How beautiful Thy strength appears,
Thy crimson wounds, how bright they shine!

Thou camest at the dawn of day,
Armies of souls around Thee were;
Blest spirits, thronging to adore
Thy flesh, so marvellous, so fair.

With a voice of singing declare ye this;
Tell this and let it be heard;
With a voice of singing utter it e'en to the end of the earth
The Lord hath redeemed His people.

Grace Church does not re-elect its Vestry from year to year; instead, the terms of four vestrymen only expire at Easter time. At the annual election of vestrymen tomorrow evening, from 5 to 6 P. M., in the Parish House, four men will be elected for a term of three years. Those nominated are Messrs. Thomas H. Ball, Robert Farnham, Horace Fortescue, and S. Mendelssohn Meehan.

There will be a stated meeting of the Vestry next Wednesday, April 15, at 8 P. M., in the Parish House.

The Church School will not meet this morning; instead, it will meet this afternoon (in Church), at 3:30, for its Easter Carol Service. This year we have arranged a different program than usual, being particularly fortunate in securing an attractive speaker to address the School—the Rev. Percy Haughten, of the Field Department, National Council of our Church. The Lenten Mite Boxes will be gathered in at the service and inspiring Easter Carols will be sung. In addition to the School, we always have a good-sized congregation of grown-ups at this service, and we hope that even a larger number will be present today. You who read this are invited to come!

Notes of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will hold sewing meetings each Thursday morning in April. On Thursday, April 16, there will be a Covered Dish Luncheon at 12.30. At this luncheon the bags of rainy day pennies which the women have been gathering for the past year will be collected. It is hoped many will come to the luncheon and many bags will be presented.

The attendance at Holy Communion on Thursday mornings has been most gratifying, and we pray that more and more women will avail themselves of the opportunity of this quiet mid-week service.

Said the great Dr. William W. Keen, Professor of Surgery in Jefferson Medical College, and whose degree as Doctor of Medicine, Honoris Causa, came from the University of Paris (many of our congregation knew and admired him greatly): "Immortality is to my mind a logical necessity.

"I have seen a most complicated spectroscope which can reach to stars and nebulae so far distant that light, travelling 186,000 miles a second, takes a million years to reach the human eye. Yet that wonderful instrument will tell you what chemical elements—hydrogen, oxygen, nitrogen, iron, helium, and all the rest—compose that far, far away body.

"Recently Professor Millikan, of the California Institute of Technology, that wizard of the atom, by 'hot-spark' spectroscopy has been able to take atoms to pieces. Through creating these 'hot sparks' in extreme vacuum he can 'strip in succession one, two, three, four, five or six of the outer electrons,' and all of these stripped-off atoms are exactly alike! He has given experimental proof of the accuracy of these statements! By demonstrating the central nucleus of an atom and its encircling electrons, which constitute a system very similar to our sun and its planets, there has been formulated what is called 'The Astronomy of the Atom.' Yet only a few years ago we thought the atom was the smallest possible particle of matter—'indivisible' as its very name means.

"I have seen a balance so sensitive that the heat from the human body, at a distance of twenty feet if unobstructed, would destroy its accuracy. It is, therefore, enclosed in a room twenty feet long, the end opposite to the balance being of glass. To see the little figures on the arms of the balance, indicating the weight, a telescope has to be used. To adjust the final, exact weight, a tiny bit of the finest wire, lighter than a hair, is moved to and fro by a rod twenty feet long reaching to the balance. What a marvel of accuracy!

"Suppose that the maker of that spectroscope, or the maker of that balance, when it had been used but a month or a year, had deliberately battered it into fragments, would we not call him a lunatic? And shall God be less than a man? To develop a Shakespere, a Newton, a Luther or a Wesley, a Washington or a Lincoln, and then by death to annihilate those wonderful minds, would be worse than to destroy a material thing like a spectroscope or a balance. Hence I argue that everlasting Life is a logical necessity for man; and Scripture confirms this."

The Easter Offering.—If you and I were creating a world, we'd undoubtedly try to make one in which good people would always be rewarded with worldly prosperity and evil people would always be punished with worldly adversity. That is the kind we'd like our world to be. But it isn't. It isn't true that accident, sickness, or financial adversity seeks out only the unrighteous. Nature seems curiously morally indifferent; its sun shines on good and evil, its rains fall on the just and on the unjust. When the tower of Siloam fell to the ground and crushed out eighteen lives in its fall, the men who were killed were no better and no worse than their neighbors. We have this fact on the word of our Lord Himself.

But in spite of nature's moral indifference, many who enjoy worldly prosperity ascribe their good fortune to the fact that they have received their just deserts, and when they think of those in worldly adversity, they feel that that poverty is entirely due to moral unworthiness or to punishment. "People who are very poor must be shiftless or else they'd be better off; people who are sick and without funds to pay for a doctor and hospital care somehow could not have been doing what is right or else they wouldn't be in such a plight." People don't always say this in so many words, but many have these thoughts in the back of their minds.

It is our crass individualism that is at fault. We tend to think of ourselves apart from the society in which we live, and forget that in such a society there are bound to be many sad by-products, including honest poverty and undeserved want. We have had that driven into our hearts during the last six years.

Sickness is a condition which can enter into a palace as well as into a hovel. The difference is that when it enters into the hovel, there is no money to pay for a doctor's care. What then? Shall we allow people in such circumstances—who through no fault of their own are sick and too poor to secure medical care—to die because they cannot afford medical aid? God forbid! No Christian would answer "Yes." To prevent such untoward happenings the various religious groups that call themselves by the name of Christ have one by one established hospitals in which the worthy poor may receive that medical care which is their due. Our own Church when she sought a site whereon to erect her hospital deliberately picked out a part of Philadelphia where the majority of people are always so poor that they never have a chance to put away much for a rainy day. When the people around the Episcopal Hospital are sick, they cannot pay for their own medical care: better-off Christians have to help them.

That is where you and I come in. The Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania supports our hospital at Front Street and Lehigh Avenue. Grace Church, Mt. Airy, is a part of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. We have to do our share in meeting the heavy expense of our hospital, which receives neither State nor United Campaign aid. And we do our part by giving to the hospital all our Easter and Thanksgiving Offering, realizing that when our hospital heals the sick, we who support it are carrying on the work of healing that our Lord began when He was here in the flesh. We are Christ's physicians.

So today's offering will all of it go to the Episcopal Hospital, Philadelphia. Be generous; the need is great!

INTERPRETATION OF THE DESIGN. The front page design is a color reproduction from the Book of Hours (prayer book), executed in France for John, Duke of Bedford, about A.D. 1423. The original is now in the British Museum in London. The central design is the artist's interpretation of the Last Supper. The upper left hand corner shows Judas given money for the betrayal of his Lord; lower left hand shows Jesus discoursing on eternal life; upper right hand shows consecration of the host at the holy communion; central right hand design shows Jesus washing the feet of His disciples; the lower right shows the kiss of betrayal.

WORDS of today's anthem:
"Lo! my Shepherd's hand divine,
Want shall nevermore be mine,
In a pasture fair and large,
He shall feed His happy charge.

When I faint with summer heat,
He shall lead my weary feet
To the streams that, still and slow,
Thro' the verdant meadow flow."

WITH Lent and Easter past, the sermon last Sunday recommended a taking account of stock, to note gains made, and to guard against losses. There is always the possibility that, because we aimed high in Lent, a sense of failure follows if we did not achieve all for which we tried. St. Paul's insistence that we shall put on the whole armor of God was contrasted with the story of David, who, about to battle with Goliath, put off heavy armor, prepared himself for offense rather than defense, and triumphed through means of a sling and a few round pebbles.

If Lent resulted in our acquiring one piece of the armor of God, that was a gain. The armor is not to be put on all at once, with most of us. Rather it is gained piece by piece, and we are able to fight manfully under Christ's banner, even if not completely armed for defense. We can have offensive equipment, so that the story of David is very comforting to those who feel that they did not succeed in all their ambitions for betterment during Lent.

No Christian should be satisfied with himself. But any new, higher level that we have gained should be cause for thanksgiving, and the present task is to hold, through the year, what has been gained, and, starting from there, to go to greater heights of spiritual achievement.

YOUR Vestry met for its annual re-organization meeting on April 15th. Messrs. Moody and Walton were thanked for their work as Judges of Election on Easter Monday. The Rector reappointed Mr. Horace Fortescue as Rector's Warden and appointed various committees as follows: Finance; Messrs. Fortescue, White, Ball, Greaves and Brand; Buildings and Grounds, Messrs. Ball, Allsop, Fell and Farnham; Choir, Messrs. Meehan, Sibson and Wagner; Church School, Messrs. Thornton, White and Wagner; Missionary, Messrs. Thornton, White, Wagner and Ball. Every Member Canvass, Chairman, Mr. Brand. Dr. Holman White was reel ected Accounting Warden; Mr. Albert Brand, Secretary and Mr. John Greaves, Registrar. Mr. Samuel Algeo was relected Sexton. Messrs. Greaves, Wagner and Brand were elected delegates to the Diocesan Convention; Messrs. Thornton and Meehan were elected alternate delegates. The Vestry decided to have all the Church lanterns remodeled and the lighting factors reconstructed. When the various committees had reported and appropriate action had been taken on their recommendations, the meeting adjourned.

THE large memorial lanterns in Grace Church have been changed! Formerly the electric light bulbs in the lamps were plainly visible, spoiling the beauty of the ensemble; now, by inserting reflectors at top and bottom of the lanterns, the bulbs themselves are invisible, but, nevertheless, give off a warm glow of fire, suffusing the interior and spreading light in all directions. In addition, the new arrangement, by illuminating the top of the lamps, silhouettes the design and causes the pattern to stand out in bold relief. The whole result is very pleasing. But--we need more lamps! Since our recent appeal in the PARISH NEWS another lantern has been promised, making three definitely taken. We need only one more! If you have in mind the giving of a lamp as a memorial, please speak to the Rector soon, for we are anxious to carry the project to completion at once.

IT has been the aim in Grace Church,this spring,to place a Blue Box in the hands of every woman in the Parish. Each woman should feel it a privilege to contribute to the worth while work being done by the United Thank Offering. If,by any chance,any one has not received a box,please notify the Treasurer of the U.T.O. and she will see that one is delivered immediately.

Please keep in mind the Presentation Service at Calvary Church,Manheim Street and Pulaski Avenue,on Thursday,May 7th at 10.30 o'clock. Your contributions should reach the Treasurer before May 4th.

WORDS of today's Anthem:"They buried Him, and then the soldiers slept:the city feasted, and the feasters told how all the crucifyings had been done. But before dawn the heavy stone unrolled,the grave clothes fell,the Living Form out-stept,man's many-millioned darkness knew the sun. We are all buried deep. Arise in us,O Living Form,out of this hate,this greed,this night,this starving in the stone. Roll back the self-shut boulders of our fate,that we may know our power and be wise in the light forever about us truly known.

LAST Sunday's sermon was an amplification of the parable of the Good Shepherd,especially of the verse,"The Good Shepherd giveth his life for the sheep". Said the preacher,"This example is not a council of perfection,but a call to high adventure". As God called Abraham to leave home and kindred and journey forth on a hard journey;as God called Moses to give up the luxuries of the Egyptian court for punishing years in the wilderness,in the faith that that rabble of protesting slaves had in it the makings of a great nation;as Christ chose the long,hard way of winning men by love to become members of His Kingdom--even so God is calling you and me to undertake fresh ventures for His cause today. No longer may Christians rely on respectably moral lives to win the world for Christ. Today's demand is for Christians to be amazingly and quixotically finer than the masses of non-Christians. We are not to seek our own but other's good;called to be "God's gentlemen";too fine to live for mean or selfish ends--as Loyola prayed,"Teach us,O Lord,to give and not to count the cost;to fight and not to heed the wounds;to labor and not to seek for reward,save that of knowing Thy will". The calculating,mean man of the world may call us "Fools" for our idealism,but we shall go gladly on,knowing that even if we be not permitted to see it,we shall have done a man's part in ushering in a new world.

THIS afternoon at Zion Church,Broad & Wyoming,the Church Schools of the Germantown Convocation are having an inspiring,short Service with an address by the Rev.Dr.G.W.Hobbs,Editor of the Spirit of Missions. Our Girls' Choir expects to attend in a body,leaving here at 3.15 for the 4 o'clock Service. All are welcome. We need a few more automobiles with drivers to transport our Choir. If you can help us,speak to the Rector.

AT the meeting of the Young People's Fellowship this evening,there will be a debate on the subject,"Shall we favor lotteries run by our government for relieving the financial burden of the American people?"

THERE will be a Service for all the people of the Diocese on May 4th,at 8.15 P.M. in the Church of the Holy Trinity,19th & Walnut Sts., when the Bishop will read the Annual Address to the Convention of the Diocese,and Lewis B. Franklin,D.C.L.,Vice-President and Treasurer of the National Council will tell of his trip to the Orient.

THE Woman's Auxiliary and Guild is giving a pleasing evening of music and other entertainment at the home of Mrs.Frank J.Sheble, 311 Roumfort Road,on Wednesday of next week, May 13th,at 8 P.M. There will be no charge for admission;however,a generous Silver Offering is asked for,the proceeds to be used at the discretion of the Auxiliary. Some of us remember the delightful evenings we used to have at Mrs. Sheble's on similar occasions and are glad that they are being resumed. Mark the night on your calendar now--May 13th,Wednesday!

THE Spring Presentation Service and ingathering of the United Thank Offering for 1936 will be held in Calvary Church, Manheim St. and Pulaski Avenue, Germantown, May 7th at 10.30 A.M.

Please send your contributions for this work to the Treasurer before May 4th.

THE Collect for the Third Sunday after Easter was the theme of the sermon last Sunday, the congregation being urged to notice its various implications, rather than merely to say or hear it as one of the many beautiful prayers in the Prayer Book.

This Collect brings first, recognition of the Fellowship which is the Church of Jesus Christ. The implications of that Fellowship include all that we call "Missions"--as an inescapable obligation of Christians--all that we call "Social Service", and all the other relationships between mand man, in politics, industry and society.

Christ's Religion as indicated by the Collect calls for Church Unity, not a unity of ceremonial or ritual, but a united foundation upon the teachings of the Christ, and Church people should be working and praying and keeping in touch with the latest trends toward unity, in order that they may further it--a cause surely in cordance with the Will of Christ.

It is not enough merely to avoid "things contrary to their profession". Christian people must possess positive virtues, not simply negative ones, and they must actually profess their belief, which means that they must proclaim it publicly, showing by life and works and by actual "profession" that they possess a gift which, to be retained, must be given to others.

There are many indications that the Church is determined to move forward, that this is a hopeful moment in its life. It becomes, therefore, the more imperative, that each member of the Church shall be ready to grasp his opportunities to aid the advance. He must be a "professing" Christian. He must know what it is he professes. He must possess a reality of Faith that is transmissible. And he must stand ready and eager to perform whatever Christ's Religion requires that he shall do.

THE Diocese of Pennsylvania is increasing interest among its members, in the whole Church by having a group of inspiring men speak from its many pulpits during the Sundays preceding Whitsunday. In this plan Grace Church is to have the Rev. Eric M. Tasman, next Sunday, May 17th. Make a special effort to be present at the 11 o'clock Service.

THE flowers on the altar last Sunday were "in memoriam", given by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. King; the flowers today were given by the Third Grade of our Primary Department and were grown by them in a little garden beside the Church. St. Paul's Church School, Third Grade, plans to visit our Primary Department this morning and our Third Grade will return the visit on May 24th.

TUESDAY next, the day after tomorrow, the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild of Grace Church will hold its Spring Stated Meeting, beginning with luncheon at 12.30. After lunch there will be reports of the year's work and plans will be made for the coming season. All women are invited.

DO put aside everything else and attend the Musicale given by the Woman's Auxiliary on Wednesday of this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sheble, 311 Roumfort Road, at 8 o'clock. Remember: this Wednesday!

OUR Men's Club trip to Washington is being tentatively planned as follows: Leave N. Phila., via P.R.R., rain or shine, on Saturday, June 6th at 8.43, Eastern Standard Time, arrive in Washington 11.15. Lunch at or near the Union Station. Take taxicabs to the Cathedral, arriving about 12.30. Prof. Hutchins, of the American University, will be waiting to guide the group on its pilgrimage, taking a leisurely trip through the buildings and grounds, learning to know the project from one who understands and loves it. Before leaving,it is purposed to have a brief Service for our group,in one of the Chapels,led by one of the Cathedral clergy,assisted by our own Rector. Congressman Darrow has invited our group to the U.S.Capitol,where he will greet us and have us guided on an unusual sight-seeing trip about the buildings where our governmental laws are made. There will probably be an hour for individual viewing of some of the newer buildings in Washington and we shall return on the 5 or 6 P.M. train,having dinner in the Dining Car and arriving about 2½ hours later. If enough men take the trip,we will have a coach on the train exclusively for our group. It is necessary to know soon how many are going,and return postcards will be mailed in the near future to find out. It is hoped that we shall be able to take advantage of the new fares of 2¢ a mile;if so,the round trip will cost $5.63.

THE Young People's Fellowship is again busy on plans for a Spring Festival. The date set is Saturday,June 13th,and it is hoped that with a clear day,we shall make more money than usual. Plans include games and a carnival in the afternoon,a supper,a Puppet Show (Aladdin and his Wonderful Lamp),and a one-act comedy by the Dramatic Club (Browne with an E). You will hear more of the Festival in later issues.

ON Tuesday of this week the Diocesan Altar Guild will meet at St.James' Church,22nd & Walnut Sts.,at 7.30 P.M. The Rev.E.L.Souder,missionary from Japan,will make the address. From 3 to 7 there will be an exhibition of Altar Linens and Church Vestments,when instruction in the proper and reverent vesting of altars will be given to those desiring it. Let the Rector know if you plan to attend.

THE Bible Class will meet in the Green Room on Tuesday at 11 A.M.

WORDS OF TODAY'S anthem: "The Lord is King, He hath put on glorious apparel. The Lord is girded with strength, wherewith He hath girded Himself. Exalt ye the Lord your God and worship at His holy hill, for the Lord your God is holy. Lord, it is good for us to be here on the holy mount with Thee, when darkling in the depths of night, when dazzled by excess of light, we bow before the heavenly voice that bids bewildered souls rejoice, tho' love wax cold, and faith be dim, This is my Son, O hear ye Him. Send out Thy light and Thy truth, that they may lead me, and bring me unto Thy holy hill, and to Thy dwelling.

SEVERAL weeks ago we sent to diocesan headquarters, our parochial report for the year 1935. Here are a few statistics from that report: Baptisms 14; Confirmations 31; Marriages 10; Burials 29; Communicants 696; Services 196; Total membership of Church School 291, there being 256 pupils and 35 officers and teachers. Total receipts were $26,384.51, which includes money contributed for Parish Improvements and Missions. Many items such as gifts to the United Thank Offering, are not included in the report. We gained, by Confirmation, 20 Communicants; by transfer to us from other parishes, 10; we transferred to other parishes 3 Communicants and lost by death 3. There were 2 adult baptisms and 30 private celebrations of the Holy Communion for the sick.

YOU will find in the pews today a short address by the Hon. George Wharton Pepper together with special Whitsunday Offering envelopes. On next Sunday we are going to give our offerings to the Diocese to enable it to make good its $12,700 pledge to the Church toward the missionary emergency that loomed up in March. Our Diocese promised to give 1/10 of what was required and our Diocese means us--the people and congregations that make up its constituency. Our Diocese pledged in our name because our Bishop and Council knew that they could rely on us. Let us not disappoint them next Sunday! All money in the special envelopes will be sent to redeem our diocesan pledge.

THIS week the Rector sent a check for one hundred dollars, in your name, as a gift in recognition of our Bishop's Jubilee. The money will be used toward the endowment fund, the interest of which is to care for the salary and expenses of the Bishop of Pennsylvania.

LAST week one of our young men, Nesser Clapham, was elected Chairman of the Northwest Convocation of the Young People's Fellowship of the Diocese and one of our young women, Miss Von Nostrand, was elected Secretary. Our Fellowship received a gold seal from the Diocese for efficiency and John Fischer, retiring President of the Diocese, was presented with a watch charm key, together with high praise for his splendid leadership during the year just completed. The Fellowship will elect its own officers on June 7th and close for the season a week or so later. They are now busy preparing for the Puppet and Stage Shows to be given on June 13th--at the Spring Festival.

The Vestry at a special meeting on May 17, recommended Albert F. Fischer, Jr., to the Standing Committee of the Diocese, for ordination to the Diaconate.

MRS. Woodward's gardens are lovely at this time of year; many will attend the party at her estate on Tuesday next--just to see her flowers and boxwood. Says Mrs. Woodward, "The annual Garden Party should be much more than a number of people coming from scattered parishes, wandering around, buying a few things, having tea and perhaps eating supper. It ought to be an opportunity for the men, women and young people of the Convocation--not only delegates--to meet together and have a happy, friendly time with those from other parishes throughout the Convocation". With such gracious hospitality offered us, many from this neighboring parish should attend in the same spirit in which her invitation is given. Automobiles will convey passengers from Allen's Lane & Germantown Ave. to "Krisheim" and return. The hours are from 5 to 7 P.M. Grace Church women are helping with the supper. Admission 25¢. Profits go to aiding needy parishes wipe out mortgages. Do attend!

ON May 27th, from 11 A.M. to 5 P.M., there will be a May Fete at the Episcopal Hospital. A cafeteria lunch will be available and many useful and beautiful things may be purchased. At 4 and again at 5 o'clock there will be a Mexican Fiesta presented by the Church Schools of the Chapel of the Mediator, St. Mary's, Ardmore, St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill and St. Paul's, Overbrook. The Bishop says, "We have no institution in our Diocese more worthy of our support than the Episcopal Hospital and I trust that our people will come out in very large numbers to see this institution and aid it in its work by such purchases as they may make".

"ON Memorial Day, Saturday, May 30th, a book containing a list of the soldiers who enlisted in the World War from Mount Airy, will be presented to the Lovett Memorial Library. The time will be 12 noon to 12.30. The congregation is invited to be present at the exercises on the Library Grounds".

LAST Sunday's sermon outline was as follows: (1) The tendency of men to get "off-balance" and the value of balance in athletics, in mental life (vs. "eccentricity", unbalanced mind, etc.), in ethical life--where every virtue lies in the Golden Mean between underdoing and overdoing a virtue. (2) The same danger of getting "off-balance" in one's attitude toward religious truths--where some over-emphasize the Incarnation, others the Atonement, others the Resurrection and still others Pentecost. These truths are complementary and balance one another. (3) None of this "off-balanced" emphasis is new. Every modern heresy can be duplicated by a similar heresy in the early centuries. (4) The Christian Year was devised by Mother Church to guard against over-emphasis or neglect of the great doctrines of Christianity. Her orderly sequence is a constant help in walking upright. (5) Today's teaching ("Expectation Sunday") has its part in this orderly, balanced scheme. It reminds us that Christianity is historical and objective, and it balances this by reminding us that history did not end in 100 A.D.; God is still guiding His world. On the other hand, Christianity must be accepted individually; we must be personally converted and take our part in God's plan. God does not change; He still rules His world.

THE story of the envelopes in every pew today is as follows: Early this year your officials, who administer the funds of the Episcopal Church, discovered that the amounts promised by the Dioceses fell short of the actual needs to carry on existing Church work at home and abroad by several hundred thousands of dollars. Even when they counted in several undesignated legacies, the amount still lacking amounted to $127,000. They then informed the Missionary Bishops how much less each would receive than he had expected and asked them to prepare to close down hospitals, discharge workers, and shut up various parts of their work. Our Bishops responded courageously. One said that he would accept no salary for 1936 and get along somehow; others made similar heroic plans and still others proposed to leave their territory and beg from their eastern friends lest their fields be hurt beyond recovery. Meanwhile, the news went forth to the Church in general and immediately our shocked people began to exclaim, "But this must not happen! We must do something about it!" And they did! Congregation after congregation, diocese after diocese began to say to financial officers in New York City, "We will assume such-and-such a share of the amount needed". Our own Diocese, under the leadership of Bp. Taitt and the Executive Council, valiantly undertook to guarantee 1/10 of the amount needed. And so the rescue movement spread all over the Church, until the whole amount was pledged and the good news went forth to our Bishops on the firing-line: "Proceed as before; the deficit is pledged". A great crisis had been overcome!

But--the task remained to raise the amount of money pledged! So the Diocese of Pennsylvania called in a corps of leaders and in every pulpit, up and down the five counties that make up our Diocese, there was heard a restatement of our needs and a challenge to make good the amount promised by our leaders. And today these contributions are being received; in every Episcopal Church in the Diocese today envelopes similar to those in our pews are being used to receive the gifts of our people. Pennsylvania has promised $12,700; we expect to raise more. But whether we succeed in raising the whole amount or not the Diocese will make good its promise--even if we have to go to the bank and borrow it. Your Bishop and Rector both expect you to be generous and confidently hope that in this as in every good undertaking the Diocese of Pennsylvania and Grace Church will go over the top. If you do your part, we will! Use the special envelopes, please, If you want to put yours in next week, it will not be too late.

WEDNESDAY, Friday and Saturday of this week are Ember Days. Suitable prayers are on pages 38 and 39 of the Book of Common Prayer.

THE Church School will cose for the season next Sunday with Commencement Exercises at 3.30 in the afternoon. There will be no morning session.

THE Altar flowers last Sunday were given by the Kindergarten Department of the Church School. The flowers today are the gift of the Primary Department.

THE Rector has officiated at the following weddings in Grace Church:

May 16th, Frank Arthur Mathers and Janet Stewart Napier.

May 20th, Alden Robert Tucker and Marie Elizabeth Kirby.

May 23rd, James Thornton English and Elizabeth Grier Hansell.

On May 23rd your Rector read the Burial Office for George Lewis Taubel, who died on May 21st. Interment was made at Philadelphia Memorial Park, Fraser.

THE pilgrimage of the Men's Club to the Washington Cathedral has been postponed! So many had pressing engagements for June 6th, which would prevent their going, that we decided it would be advisable to delay the trip until autumn rather than go as a small group now. You will be informed of the new date in due time in the PARISH NEWS.

THE Sermon on Whitsunday pointed out that the first and lasting result of Pentecost was the fellowship of Christians and of the Church. The disciples had been waiting with a common expectancy and a common belief, for a gift of power, which, when it came, sent them out preaching Jesus Christ as God, with His doctrine of repentance and baptism for the remission of sins.

We see a summary of cause and effect. First a people waiting confidently, expectantly for the coming of the Gift--and next compulsion to teach and preach the Good News; with the result, a phenomenal growth of the Church.

It may be questioned if people today are prepared to follow the Pentecostal method--whether they are ready, even, to pray for a Pentecost. Are we ready to accept the implications of the Gift of Power, or do we wish to stay always in ways that are easy and safe? Do we really want the Gift of the Holy Spirit?

When the Gift comes, things are changed. There is a new motivation, a new and pressing urge for service and sacrifice, a new dissatisfaction with anything less than a world turned to God. It is possible for us to experience a Pentecost today, but we must accept all that goes with it, and be ready, with the Power of the Holy Ghost, to be made over into valiant and triumphant workers for God.

PLEASE do not give money to people who come to your door, saying that your Rector sent them. The same holds true with regard to men who try to sell you religious books or other wares, because "your Rector wants them in every home". Your clergy do not give out the names of members of the congregation or of Church School pupils to any one; if we want to commend books or periodicals to you, we will see you personally or write a letter with our signatures affixed. This warning is necessary because lately a young man secured quite a sum of money by representing himself as giving part of his profits to our Young People's Fellowship, saying that he was a member of it. He was tripped up when he used a similar story, representing himself as working for the Germantown High School. He is now being held for trial. Several young men have also canvassed some of our people, representing themselves as needy students of our Divinity School, who had come with the Rector's sanction. Needless to say, they, too, were frauds, and the money given to them was worse than wasted. They were neither bona fide students, nor known to your Rector. If any one comes to you soliciting business "because Mr. Eder sent him", or by giving the name of any organization in our Parish, telephone the Rector at once. He will communicate with the police!

THE House of Rest--our diocesan Home for old ladies--is making an appeal for financial help. They need it sorely. One dollar maintains an old lady in peace and security for one day. Don't you want to care for one of the residents for one day or more? If you do, you may send your contribution to Miss Edith Fell, 126 E. Sedgwick St. In order that you may know the work better, the Board of Managers invites you to Tea on June 9th in the garden, from 4 until 6 o'clock. The address is 5919 Wayne Avenue.

THE Choir is presenting a musical Operetta, "Alice in Wonderland", on the afternoon and evening of Saturday, June 27, at 2.30 and 8.15 P.M. Profits will be for the Choir outing fund. The matinee charge will be 10¢; the evening performance costs 35¢. Any member of the Senior or Junior Choirs will be glad to sell you a ticket.

ON Wednesday, May 27, the Rector read the Burial Office for Marian Stewart Bates, one of our faithful communicants, who died on May 23, after a long illness. Interment was made at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

THE next Porch Party will be held on next Tuesday, June 9, at the home of Mrs. J. Howard Fell, 7018 Boyer St., at 10.30. Sewing for a good cause; pleasant companionship; lunch. Come.

THE flowers on the Altar today are the gift of Mrs. H. C. Clapham, in memory of her mother, Ruth Hartman.

THE Young People's Fellowship will elect officers tonight. Next Sunday morning at 7.30, Corporate Communion, Installation and Breakfast.

EVERY one should attend the Spring Festival. It is given by the Woman's Auxiliary, the Men's Club and the Young People's Fellowship, who are cooperating to give us all a good time and at the same time help their Church. THE Sermon on Trinity Sunday emphasized the importance of being trinitarians,rather than monotheists or tritheists,showing that the doctrine,one of the earliest formulated,has endured through the centuries,accepted by Greek and Roman Catholics,Anglicans,and all Protestant bodies,except the Unitarians.

Doctrines of the Church which have become firmly established,have grown from experience. The doctrine of the Trinity grew from the experience of the early disciples,who had been taught to believe in the God of prophetic tradition;then recognized God in Jesus,with Whom they walked and talked,and finally,found in each other the indwelling Spirit of God,the Holy Ghost,which had come upon them.

That same erperiential knowledge can come to Christians today. Disregarding early controversies,and technical difficulties,we must recognize that doctrines are not formulas but symbols,and when we do recognize that,we may experience belief in God,the Father,the Creator;in Jesus,the Son,Who is known personally to us;and in the Holy Spirit,Who speaks to us,and permits us to understand and experience His presence, His benediction,His guidance,in our lives.

It is likely that the average Christian need not go much deeper than that,as to this mysterious doctrine of the Christian Church, certain phases of which must be always beyond human comprehension. We may know,with thankfulness,that the Trinity stands as an eternal symboly of the infinite greatness of God,Whom to know is eternal life,and Whom to serve is our first and highest duty.

WE are pleased to announce that on Monday last at Holy Trinity Memorial Chapel,Bp.Taitt ordained our Mr.Albert Fischer to the Diaconate. Mr.Fischer studied at the Philadelphia Divinity School and at the Alexandria (Virginia) Theological Seminary,receiving his Bachelor of Divinity degree from the latter institution on June 4th. Your Rector presented Mr.Fischer at the Trinity-tide Ordination. It is expected that Mr.Fischer will begin his ministry as a member of the staff of the Bucks County Country Center Missions,with direct responsibility for the one-hundred-year-old parish at Hulmeville.

LAST year at this time we made a plea in the PARISH NEWS that every one who contributes to the expenses of Grace Church by using the envelope system,fill his envelopes and send them in to us before leaving for summer vacation. Our main point was this;because so many do not pay up until they return from vacation,Grace Church for many years had to borrow money for running expenses from the bank,paying out a considerable amount in interest charges for the loan. We felt that this was a needless expense and if we put the case before you,you would send in your envelopes before you went away and save us from having to borrow. Our reasoning was justified by the results of that plea. Last summer for the first time in many years,many paid in their contributions before they left town and we did n't have to borrow a cent! Now we are repeating our request: if you can,bring in your envelopes before you go away,please!

THE Young People's Fellowship last Sunday evening held their annual elections with the following results: President,John Clapham;Vice-President,Craig E.Eder;Corresponding Secretary, Rhoda Taubel;Recording Secretary,Oakley Van Nostrand;Treasurer,Franklin Fisher. The group will sing at the Harrison Home this afternoon,leaving Grace Church at 3 P.M. Next Sunday evening they will close their season with a supper,followed by an address by our own Mr.Swan.

THE summer number of the Forward Movement booklets may be had at the main door of the Church.

OUR Tuesday morning Porch Parties are proving successful;last week eighteen women attended the meeting at Mrs.J.Howard Fell's. It is planned to have the meetings continue every Tuesday,the group assembling at 10.30 o'clock at various houses,for fellowship and for sewing for the Episcopal Hospital. Next Tuesday morning the meeting will be at the Rectory;on June 23rd at Newnhams';on June 30th at Wagners';on July 7th at Brands';and on July 14th at Burks'. Later dates have not yet been filled. All women are invited. Come!

THE Choir will present "Alice in Wonderland" on Wednesday evening of this week at 8.15 in the Parish House. Tickets 35¢. A second and matinee performance will be given on Saturday afternoon of this week. The profits will be used for providing an outing for our combined choirs. Any member of either choir will be glad to provide you with your ticket.

THE flowers on the Altar today are "in memoriam",the gift of Mr.and Mrs.Joseph B.King.

THANKSGIVING DAY will be celebrated on Thursday next and,as usual,we are having the late Service one hour earlier than on Sundays, i.e.,at 10 A.M. The advantages of this earlier hour are obvious. Also,as usual,our Thanksgiving Day offering will be given to the Episcopal Hospital to help in their well worth while work. The hospital which bears our name depends on the Thanksgiving offerings of the Churches of this great Diocese to keep it out of debt. We must not let our hospital down! A barrel has been placed in the vestibule of the Church to receive any gifts of canned goods or groceries you would like to make for the needy of our own congregation. As you know,the Church is open every day from 8 to 5 and between now and Thursday there is ample time to bring your gift. Above all,come to one of the Thanksgiving Day Services!

YOU should have seen the collection of Christmas presents our Church School purchased from its offerings and sent to the Indians of the Middle West. Each class has a representative on the Student Council and each representative was allowed a certain amount of money to buy presents for his class. Some classes made their own gifts. Christmas Day will be all the happier because of our efforts--not only to the Indian children,but also to us!

THROUGH the generosity of some of our parishioners,four new lanterns have been installed in our Church. Each is a memorial and as soon as the proper bronze marker is completed we will dedicate the lamps and set up their names in remembrance.

THE Woman's Auxiliary and Guild,assisted by a contribution from the Men's Club,have given fifty new folding chairs for the Parish House. The chairs are unusually comfortable and were badly needed. Our thanks go to all who had anything to do with the gift,not only to the donors,but also to the committee that made the selection.

DURING the National Preaching Mission there will be a Union Mass Meeting of all Churches in the Germantown-Chestnut Hill area on Tuesday, December 1st at 8 P.M.in the First Presbyterian Church in Germantown. The preacher will be the Rt.Rev.Henry W.Hobson,Bishop of Southern Ohio. There will also be meetings in Convention Hall on Sunday,November 29th,at 3 P.M.and on Wednesday,December 2nd at 8 P.M.

LAST Sunday evening the Young People's Fellowship,Senior group,attended in a body the monthly Evening Service conducted at Grace Church,Hulmeville,by the Rev.Albert Fischer,Jr. In spite of the inclement weather about fifty made the trip. Tonight the program will feature a discussion on "Youth and Religion",conducted by Miss Marguerite Westney. Next Sunday evening Mr.Irwin will give an illustrated lecture on "The Church and the Negro",a preview of what the women of the Church are going to study in their Lenten groups throughout the nation in February. The Dramatic Club of the Fellowship is busy preparing a play,entitled "Berkeley Square",to be given in December.

THERE are still a number of the "Forward Movement" leaflets to be had,at the west door of the Church. This issue,it seems to your Rector,has been particularly helpful and he hopes that many are using the books regularly. They are handy to carry in one's vest pocket or to keep by one's bedside for nightly use. The new issue will be out next Sunday.

IT is too early to report the result of the Every Member Canvass just conducted in the Parish. About fifty-two canvassers visited the seven hundred and fifty names on our list. Mr. Albert Brand planned the canvass and had as his assistants Messrs. Moody, Murphy, Rogers and Walton. Many hours were given to preliminary work, followed by two evening meetings for canvassers at Mr. Brand's home. On November 8th, when the Canvass was begun, forty-nine people attended the early Communion Service in Grace Church, asking God's help in their endeavor. To these faithful workers we are truly grateful.

IN a pre-vacation issue of the Parish News your Rector requested every one to turn in his summer envelopes before vacation. The response was so good that for the second successive year we did not have to borrow money from a bank to tide us over the lean months. This was splendid. Thank You!

TODAY IS ADVENT SUNDAY, the Church's New Year's Day. Advent Sunday is the Sunday nearest St.Andrew's Day, which always occurs on November 30th. The Advent Season extends from Advent Sunday to Christmas Eve. It is a sombre period in which the Church desires her children to prepare themselves worthily to celebrate the anniversary of the coming of the Son of God on the first Christmas Day, and to school themselves to look forward with hope and joy to His second advent when He shall come again to judge mankind. The season is of very ancient observance, possibly going back as far as the Council of Saragossa in 380. Its color is purple.

MAY we remind you again that the National Preaching Mission begins today at 3 o'clock in Convention Hall and that a Union Mass Meeting of all Churches in this area will be held on Tuesday of this week at 8 P.M. in the First Presbyterian Church, Germantown and Chelten Avenues, at which Service the preacher will be our own Bishop Hobson of Southern Ohio.

THE discussion on "Youth and Religion", last Sunday evening in the Young People's Fellowship proved so interestingly helpful that it was decided to continue it on some Sunday evening soon. Tonight Mr. Irwin will show lantern pictures of the Church's work among negroes and give a talk on the subject. Any one interested is invited to come. The date of the play, "Berkeley Square", which the Dramatic Club of the Followship is giving, has been set for Dec.12th. Tickets of admission at 50¢ are now for sale by members of the Followship. "The Pratt" was published last week for the first time this year; among other items it informs us that the young people expect to donate and distribute forty baskets of food to the worthy poor at Christmas time--which is quite an undertaking for any group. We wish them success!

LAST Sunday the pupils of the Church School brought fruits, candies and jams for the children in the Home for Consumptives for Thanksgiving. So much came in, in response to the appeal of the Student Council that Mrs. Hunter, its Director, was hard-pressed to find enough containers.

YOUR Rector is informed that the custom of sending only religious cards at Christmas time is growing by leaps and bounds and that makers of Christmas cards are providing more such cards each year to meet the regular demand. This is as it should be. A few years ago it was almost impossible to secure Christmas cards that had anything to do with the real meaning of the day, but now one has a wide variety of choice. May I ask you to help along the good cause when you select your cards by purchasing real Christmas cards?

THE Seasons of the Church Year have persisted throughout the ages because they have, year by year, proved their value. They are classics because they have been tried over and over again and found helpful. This is true of the Advent Season as well as of the others. So Advent has come to be considered as a lesser Lent. Just as one cannot really keep Easter (observe, please, the word "keep") unless he has kept Lent, so one cannot really keep Christmas unless he has kept Advent. And the way to keep Advent is by serious self-examination to discover what we really are religiously; to purge our lives of extraneous things that stand between us and true-hearted devotion to the Living God; by intensified observance of the tried religious practices of prayer, meditation and Bible reading; and by more faithful attendance at Church Services, especially the Holy Communion. Grace Church tries to provide Services at hours convenient to worshippers. Many opportunities are given for corporate expression of our devotion; the Forward Movement leaflets are provided for all who care to spend a little extra time each day thinking on the things which count most. What are YOU doing with the opportunities provided?

ON Monday a week, December 14, at 8 o'clock the Men's Club is again going to give one of its delightful evenings for men in the Parish House. There were more than a hundred men present at the meeting several weeks ago and the speaker was so well-informed and so able to present his difficult subject that every one not only enjoyed the evening, but also learned in a short time and in a happy way what would otherwise have taken hours of study to find out. He told us some of the problems of the Electric Utility companies, how basic rates are fixed, how few employes are necessary to operate a giant generating station; the exorbitant cost of erecting water-power generating stations compared with the building of steam plants; how expensive it is to transport electricity over long distances; what is the real purpose of the Conowingo Dam; the controversy between the Electric Utility companies and the Government and how many human factors enter into the whole subject, etc. The men present felt that the evening was one of the best that we have had. The singing of Mr. Howard Gamble's group of men added much to the enjoyment of the meeting.

On December 14 the men are presenting another good program. Commander Gates Sickel, of the United States Navy, is going to speak on the subject which he knows best, "Our Navy". This subject is so attractive and promises such interest that we again expect a crowded attendance. All men are invited. We are especially anxious to have newcomers in the neighborhood join in these meetings in order that they may meet their fellow-citizens of Mt. Airy and that we may know them better. Mr. Newnham's committee will again have charge of the refreshments. Come and bring your friends.

OUR Young People are very ambitious. When they give plays they do not select easy, worn-out ones; instead they present the better stage hits of recent years. This sometimes makes us fearful ahead of time, but so far they have never let us down. Before they gave "Death takes a Holiday", and again before they put on "Westward Bound" we had our qualms, fearing that they would n't be able to do them justice. In each case our anxiety was needless. The plays were very well done! Now they are again undertaking a serious and difficult production, "Berkeley Square"--a play that was successful both in the legitimate theatre and on the screen. It is a three-act drama in costume, costing considerable money to stage and much work in preparation. Won't you manifest your appreciation of their ability and earnestness by purchasing tickets for this production, which will take place on December 12,at 8 o'clock. The cost is 50¢ and any member of the Young People's Fellowship will be glad to sell you a ticket. Better reserve the date now and buy your tickets at once--before you forget.

MRS.J.H.Fell is anxious to know how many women are going on the trip to the Breyer Ice Cream plant next Thursday. The bus will seat thirty-five and the charge is 25¢,the money going to the Auxiliary Treasury. See her or telephone her today. Before the trip there will be the weekly Service of Holy Communion at 9.30, then sewing garments and folding surgical dressings until bus-time.

TONIGHT the Young People's Fellowship is to have a discussion on an up-to-the-minute subject. Next Sunday evening the group will meet with the Fellowship of St.Martin-in-the-Fields in their Parish House,at 8 P.M. Transportation from Mt.Airy to St.Martin's will be provided for all who care to go. Mr.Willett Brand, Chairman of the Service Committee,is somewhat concerned because donations for the Christmas baskets are coming in so tardily. There are only three more weeks for preparation and only one quarter of what is needed has been provided. The goal is a dinner for forty worthy families! It is expected that The Pratt will be out today.

Friday, Circumcision
- 9.30 a. m.—Holy Communion

HAVE you noticed this Christmastide that there seems to be more thought than usual of Him whose birthday we are celebrating? Perhaps it is caused by the war clouds over Europe, or the civil war in Spain with its frightful accompaniments, or the turmoil in China, or the recent crisis in Great Britain, or the economic changes and uncertainty right here in the homeland. But, no matter what the cause, it does seem as if many factors have worked together this Christmas season to impress upon us our own insufficiency and constant need of the One who came on the first Christmas Day to save mankind. For this we are truly glad. Christmas belongs to the Christ and, no doubt, hostility and repudiation are easier for Him to bear than the thoughtless indifference which has marked so many recent Christmas Days. Have you ever come across the poem by Studdert Kennedy called "Indifference"? Here it is—and it applies as well to Christmas as to Good Friday.

"When Jesus came to Golgotha, they hanged Him on a tree,
They drave great nails through hands and feet, and made a Calvary;
They crowned Him with a crown of thorns, red were His wounds and deep,
For these were crude and cruel days, and human flesh was cheap.

"When Jesus came to Birmingham they simply passed Him by,
They never hurt a hair of Him, only let Him die;
For men had grown more tender, and they would not give Him pain,
They only just passed down the street, and left Him in the rain.

"Still Jesus cried, 'Forgive them, for they know not what they do,'
And still it rained the wintry rain that drenched Him through and through;
The crowds went home and left the streets without a soul to see,
And Jesus crouched against a wall and cried for Calvary."

Woman's Auxiliary Notes

There will be no more sewing meetings until Thursday, January 7th (morning only).

Annual Meeting, Tuesday, January 12th, following Luncheon at 12.30—in the Parish House.

Business Meeting with the Election of two Officers—Treasurer for the United Thank Offering and Educational Secretary.

Plan now to come on this big Auxiliary Day, not only to hear what has been done in the past year, but to help with your presence and to bring inspiration to the work to be done in 1937.

All pennies saved during Epiphany will be presented at the 9.30 A. M. service on Thursday, February 11th. The ingathering to be given to the House of Rest.

The women are invited to attend the Mission Study Class every Thursday during Lent at 1.30, following a light lunch.

The subject: "Africa and the American Negro."

Leaders: February 11th, Mrs. Frank Bonynge will give experiences of her work among these people. On the other Thursdays Mrs. Chas. Hunsicker will come to us as an old friend and lead the class in her interesting way. Let us show our appreciation by having a large class.

Every Thursday—Celebration of the Holy Communion, 9.30.

Sewing beginning at 10 o'clock.

The annual Parish dinner, given under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild and the Men's Club, is to be held on Wednesday evening, January 27, 1937, at 6.30 o'clock.

The speaker of the evening is to be the HONORABLE J. WILLIAM DITTER, Congressman from Montgomery County. Reserve this date on your calendar now and plan to attend with your family.

BISHOP TAITT is coming to us for Confirmation on the evening of Wednesday, March 3rd. Tonight at 7 P.M. in the Parish House we will begin to prepare those who wish to be confirmed. The Rector and the Assistant reserve the right to decide whom they will present, but all are welcome to attend the preparation of the older group whether they have been confirmed or not. No one will be urged to be confirmed.

THIS letter was sent to the Chairman of our Finance Committee. We pass it on to you because we know you are interested:--

My dear Mr.Fortescue:

The Every Member Canvass Committee, consisting of Francis Murphy, Arthur L.Rogers, Nicholas Moody, William B.Walton and myself, conducted the campaign this year with the following results:

There were 762 canvassed, including 66 parents of children in the Church School, not communicants of the Parish, solicited by mail. Of this number 497 signed pledges for 1937, aggregating $17904.70, classified as follows: Weekly 404; Monthly 8; Quarterly 21; Semi-annually 10; Annually 51; envelopes but no pledge 3. There are still four or five persons who have not given a definite answer, so that the above amount may be increased slightly in the near future.

At the close of the campaign last year, we had 451 pledges, aggregating $16459.30, so that we are about $1500 ahead of last year.

Respectfully submitted,
Albert C.Brand,
Chairman.

MR.Albert C.Brand, of 301 E.Durham Street, is our new Accounting Warden, taking the place of Dr.Holman White, who resigned the position because of the pressure of other work. Many thanks are due to the retiring Warden, who undertook the responsibility when there was no one else who could accept it. And we are glad, since he felt he had to give up the work, that so able a man has been raised up to take his place. Mr.John E.Greaves will continue to be assistant.

IT is high time to be thinking of the Annual Dinner of the Men's Club, to be held three weeks from this Wednesday, January 27th, at half past six o'clock. This dinner has become one of the outstanding events of the year in our Parish and this year we purpose having it better and bigger than ever. Both men and women are invited. The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild are planning the meal, and Congressman William Ditter, one of the few Republicans returned to Congress in the November election, will be the speaker. You will hear more about this event from week to week, but now is the time to mark it on your calendar.

BISHOP Taitt, our Diocesan, will be 75 years old tomorrow, having been born in Burlington, N.J. on January 4, 1861. Your Rector first met him in 1914, when Dr.Taitt was only 53 years of age, and believs him to be even younger in outlook and more vigorous today than he was then. If you notice his weekly schedule in the Saturday morning newspapers and add to that the innumerable private conferences and meetings he has to care for each week, you wonder how any man can carry such a schedule. The secret of his strength is his cheerfulness and refusal to worry. His outstanding characteristics are his simplicity, the joy he finds in his work and the patent fact that he walks with God. The Diocese is blessed in its Bishop.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY AND GUILD NOTES

THE Breyer Ice Cream trip netted $12.40, which was turned over to Miss Bayard for Church Periodical Club work. Books gathered by the Church School and the Auxiliary will be forwarded to Pine Ridge Indian Agency, S.Dak., for Sister Annie Horner's small library.

Mrs.Brand's card party earned $56. for the Indian's Hope and Domestic Committees. The latter is work conducted among white people in the domestic field.

Mrs.Brooke took ten children's dresses, handsmocked, with bloomers, and ranging in age from 5 to 8, to the Social Service Department of the Episcopal Hospital for Christmas, along with three dozen patients' bed jackets and eight dozen surgeon's towels. This was sewing accomplished by our Auxiliary.

THE folowing letter explains itself:

My dear children of Grace Church School:

Your Christmas gifts to the children of St. Barnabas Church School,Germantown,brought real cheer and happiness.

'Twas a delight on the part of St.Nicholas to bring in and bestow on the joyous youngsters the fine presents you sent them.

The Christmas party was in every way a glorious one,and,just think,you had a major part in making the evening one full of excitement and merriment. The kiddies send a thousand thanks.

On behalf of the teachers and myself I pray you accept our deep appreciation for the splendid Christmas Spirit shown toward others.

Sincerely yours,
E.Sydnor Thomas

ON January 1,1937,the roll of our Church School was statistically as follows:--Pupils, Male 128;Female 150;Teachers,Male 11;Female 18. Officers,Male 4;Female 1. Total 312.

THE Rector has been somewhat disappointed at the small number of adults attending the class for Confirmation preparation (the number of younger members is satisfactory) and he feels that perhaps not enough publicity has been given to the fact that classes are now being held. They are conducted every Sunday evening at 7, in the Parish House and are quite informal and informative in nature. No one is urged to be confirmed,but we would like those who are at all interested to sit in and hear what our Church stands for and what it believes in. We believe that many will be much helped by attending. Come tonight:7 P.M.in the Parish House!

LENT begins very early this year--on February 10th. There will be the usual daily Services, special Services for young people and midweek Services on Wednesday evenings. In addition,the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild plan much Thursday sewing and weekly mission-study classes to learn about our Church's work among the Negroes. The Conductor of the Three-hour Service on Good Friday will be Dr.Francis C.Steinmetz,formerly Rector of Christ Church,Norfolk,Va. The secret of a well-kept Lent is a carefully prepared Lent. Better begin now to plan your schedule. You will be glad at Eastertide if you do!

OUR new Accounting Warden,Mr.Albert C.Brand, has called our attention to the fact that a considerable amount of money is still outstanding on unpaid pledges of 1936. That means that many who read this have still a number of 1936 envelopes which have not been turned in. Won't you look up your back envelopes,please,fill them and send them in as soon as you can,so that we may pay our bills promptly and close our books for 1936? It will help the Accounting Warden and his helper much and we can begin the new year with a clean slate. Better do it now,before you forget!

MR.Robinson,our Choirmaster and Organist, is organizing a class for boys between 7 and 8 years of age,who would later be absorbed,one by one,into our regular choir,perhaps next year. This is an excellent opportunity for a boy to receive a fine education in appreciating and rendering good music at no financial expense. If you have a boy of the proper age or are interested otherwise in such a boy,speak to Mr.Robinson or send him to him on Tuesday next in the Parish House at 4 P.M.

THE Convocation of Germantown will meet in St.Mark's,Frankford,on Tuesday of this week,beginning with a celebration of the Holy Communion and a sermon by the Very Rev.Nathaniel Groton,at 11 A.M. At the afternoon meeting a new Dean will be elected to succeed your Rector, who, having served a term of four years, will not accept re-election.

THE lanterns that were dedicated last Sunday morning were as follows: the second lamp on the Gospel side of the Church is in memory of John M. and Ruth Anna Hartman; the fourth is in memory of Virginia Campbell Kimlet. The one opposite the Hartman lamp is in memory of Pratt Thompson and the fourth (counting from the front) is a memorial to Mildred Marie (Mrs. James A.) Wellington and Eva St.Clair Fletcher.

THE Executive Meeting of the Men's Club will be held tomorrow (Monday) evening at the home of Mr.Stephen L.Newman, 518 E.Mt.Pleasant Avenue at 8 o'clock.

A VERY interesting book by H.V.Morton, who wrote "In the Steps of the Master", is just off the press. It is entitled, "In the Steps of St. Paul" and is well worth reading. The Rector commends it to you.

HAVE you received a copy of the Epiphany Forward Movement booklet? Copies are still to be had at the door of the Church.

ON January 9, the Rector read the Burial Office for Blanche E.(Mrs.Theodore D.) Sutton, who died at her late home, Erlen Arms, January 7. Interment was at West Laurel Hill.

GRACE Church not only paid its missionary "expectation" for 1936,but also a little bit more than it had promised. The following letter is a graceful acknowledgment from Bishop Cook, President of the National Council:--

My dear Friend:

Here at Headquarters we feel confident now that we may expect to come through the year without a deficit in the Missionary work for 1936. The amount is inadequate for the task the Church has undertaken to make Christ known,but there is satisfaction in knowing that the work goes on and is well done,without adding to the debt.

This is because of the support given by such parishes as yours,and as we study the report this last month,as President of the National Council I desire to send a message of appreciation to you and your people for their continued support.

Times have been difficult for us all,but with all our people taking a share we shall go forward to greater achievement for Christ and His Church.

Congratulations to you and to them.

Sincerely yours,
Philip Cook
President of the National Council

THE Confirmation preparation classes are now meeting every Sunday evening in the Green and Brown Rooms at 7 o'clock. One class is for adults, the other for younger candidates. There are many in the Parish who have told the Rector that they "intend to be confirmed sometime". Why not make that "sometime" March 3,1937? We shall have our own Bp.Taitt,and the Rector is desirous of presenting a good class,not only in numbers,but especially in quality. Why not come tonight at 7?

LEST you overlooked this item in last week's PARISH NEWS,we are reprinting it here because it is so important: Our new Accounting Warden,Mr. Albert C.Brand,301 E.Durham St.,has called our attention to the fact that a considerable amount of money is still outstanding on unpaid pledges of 1936. That means that many who read this have still a number of 1936 envelopes which have not been turned in. Won't you look up your back envelopes,please,fill them and send them in as soon as you can,so that we may pay our bills promptly and close our books for 1936? It will help the Accounting Warden and his helper much and we can begin the new year with a clean slate. Better do it now,before you forget!

NUMEROUS acceptances to the Annual Parish Dinner have been received but there are some who have so far neglected to send in their card of acceptance. Because the dinner is to be catered the hosts must know the exact number to be present and must know by tomorrow. Put your acceptance in the mail today. Send it to Mr.Thornton.

THE Vestry are interested in doing something about the inadequacy of the present Parish House. At present they are mulling over the need and how to remedy present untoward conditions. If you have any suggestions,please pass them on to Mr. Robert Farnham,who will be glad to listen to you and give your ideas due consideration. There are three possibilities: 1) Tearing down the present structure and building a new one;2) Remodeling; 3) Adding a new building in the rear.

THE Young People's Fellowship sponsored the Spring Festival last June and because it came after we had discontinued the PARISH NEWS for the season we never told you the financial result. The amount made was $185.,all of which the young people turned over to the Accounting Warden toward a new or remodeled Parish House.

LAST Sunday evening the Young People's Fellowship debated a full-fellowship project to take place at Easter or soon after. The topic of the regular program discussion was,"Is there something besides heredity and environment that determines Character?" Tonight the order of the day is a talk on "Drama",by our own Mr.John Eiseman.

THE Annual Supper and Meeting of the Church School Association of Germantown and Chestnut Hill will be held in St.Luke's Parish House,Germantown Ave.and Coulter St.on Monday,February 1. Supper (price 35¢) at 6.30;Business meeting at 7.30;Address,"The Effect of Church School Experience on the Behavior of Children",by the Rev. T.L.Harris,Rector of St.Luke's and the Epiphany at 7.45. All are welcome. Make your reservations through Mr.Irwin.

MR.Samuel Algee,our Sexton,came to us twenty years ago this month,in January 1917. We congratulate ourselves on having him so long. No one but a clergyman knows how much it means to a parish to have a faithful sexton,so that one need not worry whether the church is warm,the lawn in good condition or the thousand and one other things done which have to be done in a plant as large and active as ours. The Vestry and the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild have already formally acknowledged their gratitude to him and we hereby add our own thanks. It is a good record.

ON January 16,the Rector read the Burial Office for Charles Rudolph,who died January 14. Interment was at Mt.Moriah Cemetery.

I do not believe that any member of our congregation can visualize the scenes of terror and destruction in the flooded area of our own state, in Kentucky and in Ohio. Floods are bad enough, but when fire and water famine follow, the horror of it all staggers the imagination. There is one element that cheers our hearts in such calamities and that is that as soon as a major emergency arises we have a national organization, fully equipped and prepared, that moves in and takes command of the situation before most of us realize the seriousness of it. The work of the American Red Cross is done with efficiency and dispatch. It is not merely palliative, but remedial; families are not only aided, they are rehabilitated. The task is completed with thoroughness and by experts, trained in similar emergencies. We rejoice that their emblem is the Cross. But such efficient service costs money--lots of money and so, the organization appeals to us now for financial help. Won't you show your cooperative sympathy by mailing a check to the American Red Cross, 2100 Delancey St., Philadelphia, marked, "for flood relief"?

FOR the tenth consecutive year the first Friday in Lent, which this year falls on Feb.12, will be observed as a World Day of Prayer. The program, centering around the theme, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God", has been prepared by Miss Mabel Shaw, founder of the Livingstone Memorial Girls' Boarding School, in Northern Rhodesia, Africa. The program is an act of worship, including a complete arrangement of hymns, responses, Scripture, prayers, intercessions and meditations. The observance of the day, which now covers fifty countries, is promoted by the international denominational missionary organizations of women. In Grace Church, the observance will take the form of continuous devotions in the Church proper, and for those who care to and have time, participation in a united service in the First Presbyterian Church, Chelten Avenue, Germantown.

MAY we remind again those who are interested in Church School work, that the Annual Meeting of the Germantown Church School Association will be held tomorrow evening, Feb.1st, at St. Luke's Church, 5411 Germantown Avenue. If you expect to attend the supper, tell Mr. Irwin. The Rev. Thomas L. Harris will speak at 7.45 on "The Effect of Church School Experience on the Behavior of Children". All are welcome. Parents as well as teachers should find this address valuable.

OUR little item in last week's PARISH NEWS about a better Parish House aroused much interest and discussion. We said that there were three possibilities: 1) Tearing down the present outmoded and out-grown structure and rebuilding; 2) Remodeling; 3) Adding a new building at the rear (which would save a sum which we now pay annually for taxes). At a recent Vestry meeting, Mr. Franham suggested that a plan could be worked out, whereby a certain portion could be built each year and not look like a "built-on" job. We neglected to say that the first contribution toward the improvement was made over a year ago in memory of Pratt Thompson. If you have any doubt of the need, speak to a Church School teacher, or, better still, visit the Parish House some Sunday morning between 10 and 10.45 A.M.

BY order of the Vestry, a local company is paving with a composition product the spaces between our front sidewalks and the curb, leaving room around the trees to assure proper growth, the area to be covered being 188 by 4 feet. The purpose of this work is to make it possible to enter and leave automobiles, parked in front of the Church without stepping in the mud. We have tried to grow grass,but failed and so,we are doing the next best thing--covering the space with a good-looking composition. We hope you will like it.

THE Helen Ackroyd-Clare Woman's Chorus of Germantown,an organization devoted to the artistic rendering of ensemble music,has asked us to say that there are a few vacancies in their membership,which they would like to fill. The requirements are a good voice,the ability to read vocal music and a small entrance membership fee. Mrs.Anna Albright,214 E.J ohnson St., is Secretary.

NEXT Wednesday will be Ash Wednesday,the first day of Lent. That means that we are on the verge of another forty days of opportunity. And, although all days are days of spiritual opportunity,faced with the approach of Lent,we have a special incentive to begin now,with millions of other earnest souls,a fresh cultivation of religion. So many people "mean to" start afresh "sometime",but keep putting it off. Ash Wednesday comes to such and says,"Now is the appointed time;embrace this opportunity;let your "sometime" be now". "How?" The Church wisely leaves the details to you. She lays down certain principles,both positive and negative and asks you to build a personal program around those principles. She calls on you to spend more time on religion and less on worldly pleasures. Your Church expects you to fast;to give up some pleasures and use the money or time saved for good works. She is interested in your achieving spiritual strength,therefore,she calls on you to discipline yourself. A disciple is one who disciplines himself.

The schedule of Services in our Parish Church appears on the front page of this PARISH NEWS. Note,please,that we are having Services every afternoon except Mondays. People,from time to time,say they'd like to attend a Servie on Sunday evening;here is such a Service every Sunday evening during Lent,with choir and addresses. Also there will be Wednesday evening Services--and Children's Services on Friday afternoons. Besides what is offered in our Parish Church, there are daily noonday Services in central city Churches and the Chestnut Street Opera House. At Holy Trinity Church there will be evening weekday Services with outstanding preachers drawn from near and far. What an opportunity!

Paradoxical as it may sound,with all these large gatherings which we hope you will attend, the Rector asks you to take for your Lenten motto,"Be still and know that I am God". "Keep" Lent;"cultivate" your soul;as a disciple,discipline yourself. Let God speak to you. So shall your Lent be blessed and Easter will find you re-created.

THERE are many mutes in the Diocese,living in a different world from most people because their activities are limited. Your Church ministers to them by means of a clergyman who is himself deaf and speechless,but able to communicate with his people in the sign language. We also provide a Church building at 3226 N.16th St.,called "All Souls' Mission". There are 251 communicants. Much of their financial support must be provided by others and amounts to $2000, but they raise more than that for themselves. The amount the Diocese contributes is raised by its various parishes,Grace Church contributing its Ash Wednesday offering for this purpose. Use your AshWednesday envelope in full confidence that it is for a good and needy cause.

MANY people are asking why Lent begins so early this year. The answer is that Easter determines the time of Lent. Easter Day occurs on the first Sunday after the Spring full moon. This year the Spring full moon occurs on March 25th,and the next Sunday,March 28th,is Easter Day. The first day of Lent is reckoned by counting back 46 days from Easter,forty days for the days of Lent and 6 days for the 6 Sundays IN Lent. There is a movement on foot,fostered by the League of Nations,to fix Easter Day so that it will be observed on the same day each year, but it will be many years before the movement amounts to anything more than a suggestion. Meanwhile there is a convenient calendar in the front of the Prayer Book on p.xxxvii,which will tell you the date you desire.

CONFIRMATION classes this evening,seven o'clock.

LAST Sunday evening, the Young People's Fellowship had a discussion on "Youth Movements--Abroad and at Home", led by Miss Marguerite Westney. Tonight Mr. Robinson is going to have charge of a special program, featuring his musical chorus of young women of the Parish. The Fellowship of the Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields is to be our guest. On Wednesday evening of this week, at the home of Jack Clapham, 7451 Sprague St., there will be a very important Executive Meeting, to which every member of the Fellowship is invited. Meetings during Lent will be held at 7 instead of 8 o'clock. A new Puppet Show is being prepared and rehearsed.

Jan. 28th at 11 A.M. in Grace Church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Charles Arndt, the Rector read the Burial Office for Alice Janvier (Mrs. Wm. H.) Haines, who died Jan. 25th. Interment was made in Trinity Church Yard, Moorestown, N.J.

Jan. 28th at 2.30 P.M. your Rector read the Burial Office for Anna Marie (Mrs. Edward J.) Campbell, nee Tyler, who died Jan. 25th. Interment was made at Ivy Hill.

IN the beginning Lent was observed not for forty days, but for forty hours, representing that dreary time between the Crucifixion and Easter, when to Christ's disciples it seemed as if the whole world had gone black and darkness had prevailed. Later, they kept Easter Day annually and, with the joyful keeping of Easter, they could not forget those dreary hours between His death and the first news of His being alive. So, instinctively, they kept those hours also. Every year before Easter the early Christians kept forty hours. As century succeeded century and it was discovered how spiritually helpful it was to observe the Forty Hours, the idea came, "why not forty days?" This was put into practice and the time of the penitential season was lengthened. At the same time the symbolism was changed from an observance of the hours between Good Friday and Easter morning to an observance of the Forty days that the Lord Jesus spent in the wilderness during the period of His temptation. Of late years there has been a reaction; one hears talk of shortening the period because many find it over-long. The Roman Church, we think wisely, breaks the Lenten period by observing St. Patrick's Day, March 17th, as a feast day. We could have the same relief if we remembered and kept the six Sundays in Lent as joyful days--which they really are--days weekly commemorating Easter. Were we to do this, there would be no thought of lessening the Lenten period. Sundays, remember, are Sundays in Lent (not of Lent); they are festal not ferial. They are days of joyousness.

IT is bad taste to hold any meeting in the Parish House while Church Services are being held. Indeed, your clergy do not like to have anything go on in the Parish House during Church time, not even what seems like necessary work by individuals. Therefore, during Lent the Young People's Fellowship, lest it break this canon of good taste and because many of our young people are in the habit of attending evening Services, holds its weekly Sunday evening meeting at 7 o'clock, one hour earlier than usual. This makes it possible to have the meeting over and be in Church before the final 8 o'clock bell rings. Beginning this evening, then, and continuing until Easter, the Young People's Fellowship will meet at 7 o'clock!

FOR some years it has been the custom for our Church Schools throughout the land to give their Lenten Offerings for missions. In addition Church School pupils have been encouraged to take home little cardboard banks, called "Mite Boxes", in which they are to save money raised by sacrificial effort. We do not encourage our children to give up desserts and save the money desserts would cost, for we believe that growing children need strengthening food, and parents are the ones to decide what food their children should eat. But we do urge our young people to give up "Movies" and other amusements and place the money saved in their Lenten Offering. (Indeed, in many congregations almost all the adults take mite-boxes and use them conscientiously. There is no reason why every one of us should not have a mite-box.) In addition to saving money our children are urged to secure subscriptions to the "Spirit of Missions", for which they receive 25¢ a subscription for their mite-boxes. This is all to the good. Every interested Churchman should be reading this most readable magazine of the Church's work on the frontiers. The cost is $1.00 per year and any pupil in our Church School would be glad to have your subscription. The Lenten number is on sale now. Treat yourself to a year of inspiring reading and encourage our young people in their Lenten effort by giving your order today.

OUR Lenten motto is, "Be still and know that I am God". (Psalm 46:10)

CONFIRMATION Classes this evening at 7 o'clock. Confirmation will be held on Wednesday evening, March 3rd, at 8 o'clock. Bp.F.M.Taitt will officiate.

ON Feb.2nd the Rector read the Burial Office at the funeral of Florence J.Walker, who died Jan.31st.

ON Feb.8th, in Grace Church, the Rector officiated at the wedding of John Henry Dingle and Clara Morris Anderson.

IN the eastern two-thirds of the United States, Church people will have a broadcast of unusual importance when Miss Grace Lindley speaks in the Episcopal "Church of the Air" period over WABC on Sunday, Feb.21, at 10 A.M. As national executive secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary, Miss Lindley probably has the widest knowledge and the deepest understanding of what women's work in the Church means today. She is known throughout the country and knows the leaders among Churchwomen in Canada and England. The approach of the Triennial Meeting in Cincinnati next October is already arousing enthusiasm as the women of the Church look forward to that great gathering.

ON the Wednesday evenings of Lent the Rector is giving a series of talks on "modern Saints", having in mind the mistaken feeling abroad that all the great heroes of the Faith are dead and that there is no opportunity today to live dangerously or a thrilling life such as was that of St.Ambrose or St.Chrysostom. Last Wednesday evening he began to tell of the great Albert Schweitzer,missionary-physician to Africa. Later he hopes to make his hearers acquainted with Kagawa of Japan. In between,for contrast,he hopes to speak on one of the great Saints of former times--perhaps,St.Chrysostom.

NEXT Sunday will be "Family Sunday" in Grace Church. Won't you bring all your family to the 11 o'clock Service and as many other friends as you can get to come? Let us draw around us our dearest and our best;the shortest distance between two souls is via God.

THE Men's Club does not hold meetings during Lent. That is why so much effort is put into their Annual Dinner,just before Lent. But after Lent is over,the Club again springs into action and this year the men are already planning for their first post-Lenten meeting,early in April. And this is the story of that meeting. Last summer on the ship returning from England,your Rector met a classmate of his Seminary days,who upon graduation became a member of the Order of the Holy Cross,a monastic Order,whose motherhouse is at West Park,N.Y. The man's name is Allan G.Whittemore. Upon graduation from General Theological Seminary,Fr.Whittemore became a novice and in due time was admitted to full membership in the Order. The Community was interested in a missionary project in the hinterland of Liberia,Africa,and was sending a group of men into the African bush to evangelize. Fr.Whittemore went with them and built himself into the lives of the natives. Very recently he was elected Superior of the Order and was ordered back to civilization. Said he to me,"It was the hardest command I ever had to obey,so fond had I become of my people and so reluctant was I to take up executive work." But,of course,he came and fortunately for me,I met him on the boat. One of the passengers,a fussy old man,remarked to him, "I'm sure you're glad to get away from those dirty,smelly blacks and back again to white people". To which Fr.Whittemore answered,"Honestly, I don't know how I'm going to stand our civilization and ordinary,everyday white people after being with my childlike,honest men of the bush." The fist day on board people avoided him because of his monastic garb and his seeming austerity, but on the second day he appeared in shorts and and sweat-shirt and proceeded to demonstrate that he was the best deck-tennis player on board. By the middle of the week he had no time to himself. Jews and people of no religion constantly surrounded him,plying him with questions and giving him their confidences. He was the most popular man on the ship and on the night of the hurricane sat on the floor of the lounge(all chairs had been removed because of the tempest) and entertained the passengers for several hours,teaching them college songs,telling them stories,and keeping their minds from the gale outside. And then and there your Rector exacted a promise from him to speak to the Men's Club of Grace Church about "Life in the African Bush." And he is going to redeem his promise by coming for our April meeting! Make up your mind now to be there!!

THE STUDENT COUNCIL,now in its second year, is an organization composed of a representative from each class in the upper division of the Church School. The Council,at present,is stressing better order during the school sessions and is also in charge of and directing the sale of the "Spirit of Missions". It is under the direction of Mrs.Edgar L.Hunter.

ON Monday last, at the annual Founder's Day and Commencement Temple University awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity to your Rector, who was presented by Bishop Taitt.

YOUR Vestry has puchased an addressing machine with a view to mailing the PARISH NEWS regularly to the members of the congregation. We are revising our mailing-list. Have we your correct address?

Feb.25. Holy Communion at 9.30 A.M. Sewing and making of surgical dressings immediately after. The weekly sewing on Thursdays during Lent promises a very active day for all who can join in an informal get-together, and the sewing chairman has a varied list of garments to be made, to keep many workers busy. Luncheon at 12.30. Hostesses, Mrs. Eder, Chairman; Mrs. Sheble, Mrs. Scheetz, Mrs. Cowell, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. R.M. Hall. Mission Study class after luncheon, conducted by Mrs. Hunsicker.

The City Mission shelves are almost empty. Clothing, shoes or any article that may bring warmth to the city's poor are acceptable. Bring bundles marked, "City Mission" to the Parish House and these will be sent in the end of the week.

Mar.8 will be Episcopal Day in the Educational Week for the Blind at Gimbel's Store. Mrs. George Gawthrop will be chairman of a committee from Grace Church. Lunch will be served to 1000 persons, who visit this exhibit and we are asked to give it wide publicity. Donations of money and food and volunteers for service are solicited by the chairman of the day, Mrs. Frederick S. Fox--or Mrs. Gawthrop.

The Epiphany Pennies, gathered this year, as a donation to the "House of Rest" on Wayne Ave., will amount to $50.

ONE of our parishioners, on learning that the Rector had been given the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity by Temple University, sent him a letter of congratulation and said that it was an honor, not only to him, but also to the Parish, and in recognition of this there was a check enclosed to be used toward the new Parish House. Imagine the Rector's amazement and joy on discovering that the check was for $500!!

IN last week's Parish News we spoke of the Anglican monk who is to talk to the Men's Club at its April meeting on his recent experiences in the jungle of Africa. Here is an extract from "Hinterland"--a bi-monthly paper describing his work and that of his associates:-

"The rains last season lasted unusually long, but we managed to make one excursion into the Loama country." The Father continues: "'The mountains' had warned the people, we learned, that they must work a cross on the door of their huts for a particularly evil spirit is wandering about, looking for a place to lie down, and only the cross can save them. We told them that we too, knew about that Sign, and Daniel Kpoto used it for a parable to teach the duty of giving up heathen sacrifice and learning to pray to God. In the last town we visited on this trip, the 'devil' was conducting the funeral of some big medicine-man, and every time he entered the town, according to the pagan custom, all women and those not initiated into the tribes, had to scurry to cover, and keep the doors of the huts closed. We could do nothing while all this was in progress, so I took a nap during the first raid, and made my meditation during the second, and was just starting to take a bath when he came for the third. 'Is he going to finish in time for us to preach to the people?' we asked. 'Probably not,' was the reply, whereupon, our time being precious, we took a dignified departure to another town. By the time we reached this place, it was pitch dark, and half the people were in bed, but that did not stand in the way of their giving us a hearty welcome. I demurred to an old man being turned out of his house to make room for us, but to him it was the merest trifle. In thirty seconds he had reached for his sleeping-cloth, and had disappeared, leaving me in possession of one smoky fire, and two somnolent hens. The hens behaved very well--as most of us do when we are asleep--and the fire presently boiled water for our tea. But the rats! One expected a few to nibble at the sheaves of rice overhead, but this house sheltered dozens of them, and to judge from the noise, they were about the size of half-grown puppies; and they practised for the running broad-jump on the matting over my bed. The hens did most of the sleeping that night."

BECAUSE the Garrick Theatre has been torn down, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which has been conducting daily noon-day Lenten Services there for many years, has been obliged to move its Services to the Chestnut Street Opera House, Chestnut Street below 11th. The move has not been a happy one; the difference of two blocks has resulted in a very much lessened attendance. Your Rector was quite embarrassed at a Service he attended last week, because so few were present. The preacher was a popular speaker, who had come from far, with a well thought-out message; everything was as in former years, except the attendance. It isn't possible for all to attend, but I wish that those of you who are near, would make an effort to attend regularly. The Services are held daily during Lent, from 12.30 to 12.55. The preacher this week is the Rev. Dr. Joseph Fort Newton.

ON February 20th, the "Philadelphia Record" carried in its religious news section a large picture of Grace Church, with a short resumé of our congregational history. One of our young men, John S. Westney, is in charge of that department.

FEB.16th the Rector baptized Lloyd Lee,an adult,"in extremis",at his home in Wynnefield.

LAST week's issue of "The Pratt" was unusually good. The Rector appreciates what was said concerning him,but especially enjoyed the tribute is paid to one of our outstanding young women,Miss Van Nostrand.

The Woman's Auxiliary wants to remind all its members that there is much sewing still to be done in order to complete the amount of work we set out to do and have promised, and Lent (the period in which most sewing is done) is almost over. Let every member come out every Thursday from now on, not only because we like to be together and enjoy ourselves at the meetings, but also because we want to make good our promises and back up our sewing committee. As usual, Luncheon will be served next Thursday at half after 12 o'clock. This week Mrs. Gawthrop will have charge of the luncheon, being assisted by Mesdames Carson, Moody, Moock, and Voorhis. After luncheon, as usual, we shall adjourn to the other room to take part in the very interesting Mission Study Class that we have this Lent. Keep your Thursdays for and with us!

Beginning tomorrow, Philadelphia will again observe its Educational Week for the Blind. One of the interesting developments of the Blind Pension Act has been the discovery of many blind persons not before known to the workers. Almost 10,000 blind persons are receiving pensions today! This has greatly increased the field of operation of cooperating agencies and made us realize more and more how very important is the conservation of sight and the prevention of blindness. Blind Week is, as you know, observed in the Auditorium of Gimbel's Store. Luncheons and teas are served daily by representatives of various religious communions. Tomorrow, Monday; Episcopalians, Friends, and Ethical Culturists have charge. Mrs. Gawthrop will be our personal representative. It would be fine to have great numbers of our congregation greet her at the Gimbel Auditorium. Will YOU be there?

Our Church School Classes are busy doing what they can to build up a larger Lenten Offering, all of which goes to Missions and helps Grace Church with the amount it has promised for the Forward Work of the Church. Today we wish to call your attention to two efforts which you yourself can help in the near future. (1) Mrs. Thompson, Miss Ouderkirk and Mrs. Walton are, with their Church School Classes, conducting a united Food Sale in the Parish House on Thursday afternoon of this week, March 11th. You will find tasty and appetizing food for sale and by purchasing from these classes you will be helping the girls to help themselves. (2) Next Sunday evening, March 14th, at 6 P.M. in the Parish House, members of the Senior Church School Class will give a supper to all who care to come. The price has been kept down to 45¢ in order to get many to come and, in addition to the supper (and who doesn't like to eat Sunday Supper out?) there will be an interesting speaker and some group singing. The Rector is anxious that these hard working young people be backed up in their worthwhile efforts. Don't forget: (1) Thursday afternoon, Food Sale; (2) Sunday Evening, Supper. Do come out to both!!!

What do you do with your time? Out in the west there was a hardy pioneer named Ezra Meeker. To prove that he was still fit after five-score years of busy living, he drove a pair of steers back over the Oregon trail. One day he walked into the office of an old friend and asked to see his erstwhile companion. He was told that he would have to wait - his friend would likely be back in half an hour.

"Me wait half an hour? Why, my boy," he said to the clerk, "I'm ninety-five and I haven't got time to wait a half an hour, even for the President."

He had sewed up his time leaks years before. Yet, what can you really do with a half hour, anyway? Listen:

A half hour a day put intelligently into music will make you a musician.

A half hour a day put into public speaking will make you an orator.

A half hour a day put into hard work will make your fingers creative.

A half hour a day put into purposeful reading will give you a liberal education.

A half hour a day put into study of any subject will, in a few years, make you master of it. It is being done every day.

A half hour a day put into vigorous outdoor exercise will keep you healthy and hard, and able to keep the pace.

A half hour a day on your knees will make you a saint.

Today, Passion Sunday, reminds us that we are entering into the heart of Lent; next Sunday will be Palm Sunday, the beginning of Holy Week. Let every one begin now to deepen his observance of this penitential season and keep company with the Master. There will be an extra Holy Communion on Wednesday of this week at 7:15 A.M. Resolve now to attend the Three Hour Service on Good Friday, at which Dr. Francis Steinmetz will be the Preacher. S pend more time in quiet, thoughtful meditation: so shall your Lent be blessed.

T he Young People's Fellowship will have charge of the s ervice next Sunday evening. Mr. John Eiseman will make an address. Attend, not only to worship, but also to encourage our younger congregation.

On Saturday, March 20th, the fourth, seventh, and eighth grade girl's Church School classes will hold a Cake and Candy Sale in the Green Room (or outside, weather permitting) from 1:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M. The proceeds of the sale will be added to the Church School Lenten Offering. We hope many of you will come.

The Womans Aid of the Convocation of Germantown will hold a Devotional Service and Meeting on Tuesday of this week, March 16th, at the Church of the Epiphany, Carpenter Land and Lincoln Drive. Holy Communion and Sermon by the Rev. Brooks Stabler, Chaplain of the University of Pennsylvania at 11:00 A.M., followed by luncheon and business meeting. All women are invited.

BOOKS! BOOKS! BOOKS! Many of ours have been hiding behind closed doors for a long time, waiting to help and entertain others who rarely see a book, or would not, were it not for the Church Periodical Club, whose work it is to send books and magazines to those who are a long distance from any library as well as from home and friends. There are many isolated all over the country and it is hard for us to imagine such lonliness. Will you bring the books which you are willing to pass along, and leave them in the Parish House, marked C. P. C. (Church Periodical Club.) Thank you.

School books, childrens books, good novels, books of travel and of history. Let us clear our book shelves, make room for new friends, and share these old friends with others less fortunate than ourselves.

It often means a year of real joy to one to whom a magazine is sent regularly each month, as we finish with it ourselves. Miss Bayard will gladly give you the name of the person "waiting at the other end." This is one of the many ways in which we of Grace Church can serve and share.

In many congregations at this time of year there is much stir and bustle about raising a large Easter Offering. Church schools are selling chocolate eggs; fervid appeals are being made at meetings of the various organizations; and from the chancel comes the reiterated plea to give "until it hurts" in order that the Easter collection may be large enough to get the Church out of debt. Meanwhile, tradespeople, too, are anxious that the offering be large, for on its size depends the question whether they will now be paid long-standing bills or not. The whole spirit of the great Festival becomes somewhat profaned by the necessity for its capitalization. We are glad that our lines are fallen in a pleasanter place. Our Easter Offering is never used for ourselves but always for others. We people pay our bills as we go along by means of regular weekly subscriptions. This is as it should be. BUT—on the other hand, we do need to express our Easter joy in some tangible form and we accomplish this by giving every penny that comes in in the Easter Offering "to others." Usually by "to others" we mean for the expense of maintaining the Episcopal Hospital in a neighborhood where it is sorely needed and where it serves admirably. It will be so this year. The Easter Offering will be sent to the Hospital which bears our names and which says to the people of that needy district, "God cares, and so do His children." May I ask you to be as generous as you can? Please!

The Good Friday Offering will be used as usual in doing missionary work among the Jews, to help them realize that the Christ whom we worship is really their long-looked-for Messiah. When we recall that the early Church was made up exclusively of converted Jews, this cause should appeal to us very much.

This evening the service of Evening Prayer at 8 o'clock will be read by members of the Young People's Fellowship, Mr. Eiseman making an address. Come!

An Annual Election of Vestrymen will be held in the Parish House on March 29th from five to six o'clock in the afternoon. The following have been nominated for a term of three years: Messrs. Brand, Fell, Greaves, and Wagner. Messrs. Walton and Moody have been appointed to supervise the election.

The offering at Confirmation on March 3d (which is sent to Bishop Taitt for his "discretionary fund") amounted to $57.41.

On Thursday, March 11th, in Grace Church, the Rector read the Burial Office for (Mrs.) Ida S. Greaves Slifer, who died March 8th. Interment was made in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

Any one who desires to contribute toward the expense of supplying our altar with Easter flowers may do so by communicating with the Rector or any member of the Altar Guild. This should be attended to at once!

There will be no session of the Church School on Easter Morning, but, as usual, the Church School will hold its lovely Carol Service on the afternoon of Easter Day at 3.30 P. M. in the Church. This service is very well attended by adults as well as members of the School and lasts about one hour. We hope that you will come: if you do, you will enjoy it and be helped.

Today, we enter into a commemoration of the most solemn period of our Lord's life. Beginning with the triumphal journey from Bethany to the Temple in Jerusalem and closing with the precious passion and death of our Lord Christ, this week stands out from all weeks of the year as unusually portentous and solemn. Shall we not enter into the Spirit of it and real-ize it? A schedule of services is printed here. In general our people attend well during Holy Week, but we would like to have more come to the Good Friday Passion Service and the Preparation for the Easter Communion, held on Good Friday evening. To the many who come only on Christmas, Palm Sunday, and Easter Day we say: "We are glad to have you; you are heartily welcome; but why not become members of our family instead of merely being guests? Instead of being three-times-a-year attendants, why not come every Sunday? We want you."

Says Barton: "If a man were to spend his life beside the Niagara River and had little knowledge of geography or natural science, but were possessed of reasonable intelligence, he would find himself continually meditating about the river whose waters were flowing past him by day and by night, and would ask himself, 'Where does this water come from and where does it go to?' He would observe that the stream flowed ever in one direction; that it never reversed its current; that it flowed gently at the upper end of the short stream but gathered momentum, and moved more and more swiftly, until it plunged at last with terrific speed over the edge of the chasm, to be lost below in the whirlpool and swallowed up in a vast mystery.

"He would sometimes ask himself, 'Is there any power on earth that can lift those waters up again to their former level above the falls?' He would be very likely to answer that there can be no such power. He could hardly be expected to answer otherwise. He could see nothing, understand nothing, to justify any other opinion. The water flowed down from an unknown source, running faster and faster, until at last it disappeared over the falls, and that was virtually the end of it. It flowed on to unseen mysteries, but it never came back. Yet, even as he looked, the water would be rising. He could not see it or understand it, but the very mist into which the falling water was dashed would be the beginning of its elevation. And if he could but know it, the silent power of the sun playing upon it was lifting it up, not simply to its former level at the brink of the chasm, but higher than the river, higher than the lake above the river, up and up, into the very sky, where rainbows would play through it, and the sunlight find joy in its companionship. And in time it would be sent on fresh ministries, unending opportunities, of service.

"We live on the banks of such a stream. Its waters flow ever in one direction. They go faster and faster as the years multiply, and they take a plunge which carries them from our sight. The river is the stream of human life. We may not sit upon its banks, for we flow with it and are part of it; but we are able to see the direction of its current and to witness the plunge before we ourselves take it. It is not to be wondered at that we see no great distance beyond the gorge or whirlpool. But the power of God that lifts the waters out of the cataract, out of the whirlpool, out of the very ocean, purified and illumined, on other ministries, is capable of lifting human life out of the grave, giving to it new opportunity, new service, new light and life."

Your offering today will be sent to the Episcopal Hospital to be used for meeting current expenses. All hospitals need financial help, but our hospital more than other hospitals needs money; other hospitals receive much money from private rooms: our hospital has few private rooms, most of our patients being too poor to pay even the little bit we ought to charge for ward patients. The Episcopal Hospital receives neither State nor Community Chest aid. Although it serves all worthy poor, sick people, it is our Hospital—it depends upon us for support. We must not, shall not, fail it!

The annual election of four vestrymen for a term of three years will be held tomorrow (Easter Monday) in the Parish House from 5 to 6 P. M. Those nominated are Messrs. Brand, Fell, Greaves, and Wagner.

There will be a Stated Meeting of the Vestry next Tuesday, March 30, at eight o'clock in the evening, in the Parish House.

On Thursday, March 18, the Rector read the Burial Office for Robert J. Thompson, who died at his late residence, 124 West Mt. Pleasant Street, on March 15th. The interment was at West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

The Church School will meet this afternoon at 3.30 for its Easter Service. A new and interesting program has been arranged, which will be short and to the point. In addition, the Lenten Mite-Boxes will be gathered in and Easter Carols will be sung. You are invited to come!

We have just had transferred to us from St. Matthew's Church, Philadelphia, George O. Frey and Mrs. George O. (Marie E. Currie) Frey, of 105 East Upsal Street. They are now members of our congregational family.

It is anticipated that the last Smoker Meeting of the Men's Club, which is to be held on Monday evening, April 5, 1937, will be the most interesting meeting of the year.

So great has been the demand upon the time of Allan G. Whittemore since his return from Africa that although effort was made to have him address the Men's Club last fall, the earliest date that he could promise to be with the men of this Church was Monday, April 5.

Father Whittemore has just returned to the States after having spent ten years in intimate and personal contact with the Human Leopard societies and the other witchcraft of the jungles, and his talk is sure to be replete with thrilling episodes of the life of the Christian teacher in the dark continent.

These meetings afford splendid opportunities for the men of the Church to get together in good fellowship, and you are urged to come early and bring your friends and neighbors.

INTERPRETATION OF THE DESIGN. The front page design is a color reproduction from the Book of Hours (prayer book), executed in France for John, Duke of Bedford, about A.D. 1423. The original is now in the British Museum in London. The central design is the artist's interpretation of the Last Supper. The upper left hand corner shows Judas given money for the betrayal of his Lord; lower left hand shows Jesus discoursing on eternal life; upper right hand shows consecration of the host at the holy communion; central right hand design shows Jesus washing the feet of His disciples; the lower right shows the kiss of betrayal.

AT the reorganization meeting of the Vestry held on Tuesday in Easter week,a new office was created,Assistant Accounting Warden. Mr.John E. Greaves of 7437 Devon Street,was unanimously elected to the office. Among other interesting subjects brought before the meeting were (1) a means to regulate the going up to and coming from the Altar of the crowds making their Communions on great festivals,so as to cause less confusion;(2) the erection of hand-rails at the Chancel steps;(3) an enlargement of the Green Room in the Parish House;(4) and a vote of thanks to Mr.Robinson and his choirs for the fine music at the Services on Palm Sunday and Easter Day. Also it was decided to set aside Good Friday Offerings from henceforth for the work of the City Mission.

THE Lenten Offering of the Church School now amounts to $354.80,which is $47. ahead of last year,with more to come in.

THE season between Easter and Ascension is generally known as "the Great Forty Days" and it is believed that during that period our Lord carefully instructed His disciples in religious matters,particularly with regard to carrying on after He had ascended. The opening chapters of the Acts of the Apostles are interesting in this connection. It would be a good plan to study them carefully and prayerfully at this s eason.

THE two following items are from the Apr.4 issue of "The Pratt",a bi-weekly paper issued by our Young People's Fellowship:

The Annual Fellowship Dance is to be held on April 16 at Cedarbrook Country Club. Remember the good time we had there last year? This year we are having George Craig and his orchestra. If it so happens that you never heard of him, see some of the floaters that have been printed and are ready for distribution. We are again having a printed list of patrons and patronesses. You will recall that this was done last year, with great success. Speak to your family and friends about this.

The forthcoming production of the Y .P.F. Dramatic Club is a comedy of American life in a small New Jersey town. Rehearsals started last week under the able coaching of Mrs.Yvonne Walters. Coach Yvonne,as you remember,directed the highly successful "Three Cornered Moon" given last year. We are indebted to her for her able assistance this year. Friday,May 14,is the tentative date set for this performance.

BEFORE long a bill will come before the Pennsylvania State Legislature permitting gambling at horse-racing in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The proponents of the bill claim that they are introducing it to secure revenue for financing public education. T hey argue that the masses of our people are gambling anyway by playing "number games",the Irish Sweepstakes, "baseball pools",etc.,and the State might as well profit from this unconquerable tendency as have the money go into the hands of racketeers. Mr.Jack Kelley,of Philadelphia,has promised the advocates of the bill to push it through to success. On the other hand,social workers,to a man, are opposed to it. They believe that the people who would play the horses are the very ones who could least afford to lose. They base their conviction on the experiencs of social workers in other states where gambling is legalized. Your Rc ctor is opposed to the movement because gambling is always and everywhere an evil. It breaks down morale and raises up a group of people who try to get along without working. We have too many such people now. Let us not add to their number. The whole movement is part of a general let-down in moral ideals. That does not mean that our country is bent on destruction,but it does mean that at the present time we are on the downward curve in moral ideals. If the thinking people of the state will rise up and demand that their representatives in Harrisburg kill this bill, we shall avert much trouble for future generations and serve a warning to the morally obtuse that we will not tolerate further concessions to evil. T his bill is but the beginning of the introduction of other bills to permit organized vice. T he time to scotch the whole movement is now! When the bill comes up, let us individually say to our representatives, "No!"

EXTRACTS from a letter received by Miss A.M. Miller with an appeal for clothing for a Rummage Sale to be held in a mission in S.Dakota:

As a girl I grew up wearing clothes that my mother made from materials which came in packages of clothing so kindly sent by you to our St.Philip's Episcopal Mission in Dupree, S.Dak. Likewise I have read volumes of the Anne Miller Library which you contributed to the people of my home mission. Thus, I introduce myself. Now, I am married, living in another Dakota town, but here, too, our Episcopal Church is but a mission. My husband is a teacher and we are quite new in Milbank, but I feel that I can appreciate the qualities of the few women working so hard for their little mission and they need help. As a Guild we have tried about every money-making scheme but we still cannot make enough to take care of our national apportionment. T he idea of a Rummage Sale has come to me, but rummage garnered from twelve homes that are themselves about needing outside aid, would hardly be of sufficient quantity to insure financial benefit and so I turn to you, dear Miss Miller, hoping that you can interest your Grace Church Parish in supplying us with good, partly worn clothing for a sale in the fall." Surely we can find plenty to pass along to Mrs.Ronshangen by Tuesday, May 11. Mark packages "For S.Dakota", or if to be called for, send card to Mrs.Holman White, 15[illegible] E.[illegible]t.iry Avenue.

WAS N'T it a glorious Easter! Beginning with a well-arranged Lent, continuing with increasing attendance at the numerous Services, coming to a climax with an outstanding Good Friday, and culminating with a great outpouring of the faithful on Easter Day, it was a season long to be remembered. Perhaps you would like to hear some statistics: At 6 A.M., 30 were present; at 7.30 A.M., 144; at 10.30 A.M. we did n't count how many were in Church for most remained to attend at 11, at which Service there were 605. In the afternoon 427 came to the Carol Service. The day's total was 1206, not counting the large number at the Young People's Fellowship group in the evening. We beat last year's record by more than half a hundred, and better still, there were many more Communions made than last year. We have no idea of the amount of the offering, but we believe it was good. The Church School Lenten Offering was $307.51, which is $15. more than all that came in last year and we have reason to believe that there is much more coming in within the next few weeks. The Rector held five private Communion Services for sick people on Easter Day. We hope that the numbers are a true index of a growth in Grace as well as a renewed interest in things of the Spirit.

AT the annual election last Monday evening in the Parish House, Messrs. Brand, Fell, Greaves and Wagner were reelected to the Vestry for a term of three years. At the reorganization meeting of the Vestry on Tuesday evening, Mr. Horace Fortescue was appointed Rector's Warden, Mr. Albert C. Brand was elected Accounting Warden, Mr. J. Howard Fell was elected Secretary, and Mr. John Greaves was elected Registrar. The Rector appointed the following committees: FINANCE, Messrs. Fortescue, Brand, White, Ball and Greaves; BUILDINGS and GROUNDS, Messrs. Ball, Fell and Farnham; CHOIR, Messrs. Meehan, Sibson and Wagner; MISSIONARY, Messrs. Thornton, White and Wagner. Mr. Samuel Algeo was reelected Sexton. Mr. Fortescue was appointed Chairman of the Memorials Committee.

THERE are two very important events scheduled for this week:--

(1) Tomorrow evening, April 5th, at 8 o'clock the Men's Club will have as their speaker an Anglican monk, Fr. A. G. Whittemore, who was your Rector's classmate in the General Theological Seminary, and who has spent most of his time since in the hinterland jungle of Liberia, ministering to primitive tribes, converting them from animism and witchcraft to Christianity. When one meets this remarkable man and feels his innate goodness and his affection for people, you can readily understand why he was so successful with the natives and why his heart aches that he is no longer allowed to remain with his beloved black people. It is rare, indeed, that one meets such a spirit and those who come tomorrow evening will remember it for many a day. All men are invited and we hope that the hall in the Parish House will be filled to overflowing--not because we want it to be the biggest evening ever, nor because we owe it to so remarkable a man to give him a large audience, but because we honestly believe that here is a rare chance to come in contact with one of the outstanding saints of our day. If you come and bring your friends with you, you will be glad. Make up your mind now and--Come!

(2) Thursday evening of this week in the Parish House, our Young People are giving a Puppet Show, entitled, "The Magic Oven". The group, not only will produce the show, speak and sing the parts and manipulate the actors so that they will play as if they were really living, but also they made their own puppets, designed and produced the scenery, and arranged the songs and dialogue. We feel that for many reasons, Grace Church is a fine place for young people to grow up in, and one of them is the good, clean fun our young people have right in their own Church environment. But we of the older generation should encourage them more by attending their entertainments in greater numbers. Here is a chance to cheer them by our presence and if we do, I am sure that (as is usual when we do something from a sense of duty) we will be repaid in real enjoyment. There will be two performances, one at 7 P.M. for children, for which the admission charge will be 10¢; a second at 8:30 P.M. for all who care to come, when the admission will be 25¢. Thursday of this week.

On Friday evening of next week, April 16th, from 9 until 1, the Young People's Fellowship will hold their Annual Dance at Cedarbrook Country Club. Music will be furnished by George Craig and His orchestra and the charge is $2. per couple.

On Tuesday, March 29rd, in Grace Church the Rector read the Burial Office for Charles L. DeBrunner, who died on March 20th. Interment was made at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

"DAYLIGHT SAVING" TIME BEGINS NEXT SUNDAY!

WHEN a man,who is a member of the Episcopal Church,feels that he is called of God to become a clergyman in the same,he talks it over carefully with his Rector. If his Rector is convinced that the man is truly called,he takes him to their Bishop and the three go into the matter thoroughly. Then,if the Bishop believes that the man is meant to be a clergyman,he makes him a "Postulant for Holy Orders" and directs the man's intellectual preparation. When the man has finished his college course,on the recommendation of the Standing Committee of his Diocese,he is made a "Candidate for Holy Orders". He must remain a "Candidate" for three years,during which time he prepares himself (usually at a Seminary) in such subjects as Greek,Church History,Homiletics,Dogmatics,etc. At the end of the three years he is carefully examined in these subjects by a Diocesan "Board of Examining Chaplains" and if he passes all examinations,and his home parish, through its Rector and Vestry,recommend him to the Standing Committee,the Bishop duly ordains him to the office of Deacon. Some men,by choice, remain Deacons;among them are college professors, intellectuals,writers,etc. But normally the Deacon serves in some parish for a year under the supervision of his Rector;at the end of the year he must pass more and harder examinations in subjects related to the Ministry. If successful, his home parish must again say through its Rector and Vestry,that it believes him to be truly called and of a Godly life. The Bishop himself examines him and then,the Standing Committee having recommended him again,he is duly advanced to the Priesthood. At a special Vestry meeting held last Sunday morning the Rev.Albert F.Fischer,Jr.,a Deacon from this Parish,was duly recommended to the Standing Committee for advancement to the Priesthood. Many of you know that Mr. Fischer grew up in this Parish and was ordained Deacon last June. He has been working in the "Country Center Mission" of Bucks County during the year,with special work at Hulmeville,and now has fulfilled all requirements for advancement. It is expected that he will be ordained Priest toward the end of May.

ONE of the stock catch-questions often asked of Church Schools is,"What day of the week will Ascension Day fall on this year?" Usually the children answer "Sunday",or any other but the correct one. The correct answer is always "Thursday",for Ascension Day,corresponding to the fortieth day after Easter when our Lord actually ascended,always occurs forty days after Easter. Inasmuch as Easter Day always occurs on Sunday,Ascension Day always occurs on Thursday. This year it will fall on May 6th. There are, therefore,five Sundays between Easter Day and Ascension Day and these Sundays are called "The Sundays after Easter".

WE are glad to report that the Children's Lenten Offering is still growing and gives promise of amounting to a larger sum than for several years. And we know that it represents sacrifice and much hard work on the part of the donors.

THE Easter Offering of the congregation for the Episcopal Hospital will probably eventually amount to as much as was given last year. We say "eventually" advisedly,for within the last two weeks we have had an envelope come in, dated Easter 1936! As a result of the recent statements sent out by the Assistant Accounting Warden,many who were behind in payments on their pledges,have brought them up to date. This is fine and we appreciate it much!

THE Puppet Show given by the Young People's Fellowship on April 8th was a success,both art-

LAST SUNDAY morning the Rector preached on "Avenues to the Presence of God", his theme being suggested by the post-Resurrection appearances of Christ. Mentioning some of the great mystics who have blessed the world during the cent uries since 100 A.D., such as St.Francis, Joan of Arc, Catherine of Siena, etc., he moved up into contemporary times and quoted Kagawa, E.Stanley Jones and others to keep us mindful that God still appears and speaks to men today and that a mystic is not a dreaming contemplative--impractical, absent-minded, unfruitful; on the contrary, many mystics are the most practical doers the world has ever known, being like St.Paul on fire to initiate great adventures for God. Speaking of Beauty as another avenue of approach to a sense of the presence of God, the preacher said that beauty is everywhere; it is not utilitarian (i.e. God could have made His world efficient as a carpenter arranges his shop, and left out the idea of beauty altogether. But He did n't; wherever we look we see sights that delight the eye.) And we feel that this beauty is not by chance; one feels as he looks out on nature that he is looking at a great Artist at work who enjoys the loveliness of what He is creating and delights in the works of His hands. The third avenue of approach to the Presence is along the path of duty. God stands in the shadows watching over His own, ready to guide and strenthen as need arises. Guidance may lead into a lonely, isolated path; into a "via dolorosa", but if followed, it brings a sense of work well done, a feeling of having done something worthwhile, which raises one infinitely higher than if one had taken the easier, selfish way. And generally along such a road one's heart begins to burn within him and he feels the near presence of the Great Companion!

YOUR attention is called to the leaflets distributed in the pews concerning the "Drama of Missions" to be given in Convention Hall, 34th & Spruce Sts., Phila., on Sunday, Sept.26th at 3 P.M. Inasmuch as this is one of the most ambitious projects our Diocese has ever undertaken and will be talked of frequently from now on, your Rector would like every one to read the leaflet thoroughly and familiarize himself now with the details so as to be able to discuss the subject intelligently when it comes up. The leaflet is for your information; it is not a prelude to raising money. There will be no admission charge to the pageant! Keep the leaflet for reference.

TOMORROW at 1 o'clock, the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild are giving a Dessert-Bridge at the home of Mrs.J.B.Lowmes, 321 E.Durham St. The money made will go into the treasury of the Auxiliary. The price is 50¢ a person and includes dessert and prize for each table. Mrs.Stephen Newnham and Mrs.Robert Farnham are cooperating with Mrs.Lowmes in giving the party. Please send reservations to Mrs.Lowmes.

THE day after tomorrow, Tuesday, the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese will be held in Holy Trinity Parish House, 20th & Walnut Sts. Bishop Taitt will celebrate Holy Communion at 9.30. Business will be discussed at 10 o'clock. Luncheon will be served at the Penn A.C. at 12.30, the price being $1.25. There will be an interesting speaker at the luncheon. Let Mrs.Holman White know today that you are going to attend.

OUR Church School Lenten Offering this year now stands at $362.29, being $69.33 more than we raised in 1936; $87.12 more than in 1935. Bully for our young people!

THE annual election of officers of the Young People's Fellowship will be held this evening. Positions to be filled are President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Recording Secretary and Corresponding Secretary. The Nominating Committee has made its report which it insists consists only of suggestions, nominations being permitted from the floor. A large attendance is anticipated. The new officers will be installed next Sunday. "The Pratt" of this week carries the following item: "Arrangements are being made for a bigger and better Spring Festival. June 5th is the date most agreeable to the Fellowship and it is hoped that this will meet with the approval of the Woman's Auxiliary and the Men's Club.

As mentioned previously the action in the approaching play to be given by the Y.P.F. Dramatic Club is scened in a little New Jersey town. It is a character comedy such as this group has never given before. The gruff, sharp-tongued father and the sweet but vague mother are a sharp contrast to their daughter with the "would be" bohemian personality. Tickets for "Kempy" will be on sale very shortly. Get yours immediately and put this play over with a "bang".

"THE Spring Presentation Service of the United Thank Offering will be held in Holy Trinity Church, 19th & Walnut Sts. on Thursday, May 6th at 10.30 A.M. The celebrant will be our own Bishop and the preacher will be the Rev. Howard R. Weir of Holy Trinity.

As Parish Treasurer, I hope that the women of Grace Church will give even greater support to this work of the United Thank Offering. Remember, it is not the amount that each individual gives; it is more to be desired that we increase the number of contributors.

Mary E. Murphy,
Treasurer"

TODAY is the Fifth Sunday after Easter, commonly called "Rogation Sunday". Tomorrow, Tuesday and Wednesday are "Rogation Days", days of solemn intercession. The word "rogation" comes from the Latin rogare, to pray, and Rogation days are days when we pray to our gracious Father, Who openeth His hand and filleth all things living with plenteousness, to bless the lands and multiply the harvests of the world. Suitable suggestions for your private prayers will be found on pages 39 and 40 of the Book of Common Prayer.

TOMORROW evening at 8.15 o'clock, the opening meeting of the Annual Convention of this Diocese will be held in Holy Trinity Church, 19th & Walnut Sts. At this meeting Bishop Taitt will give his annual address on the condition of the Diocese and enumerate outstanding events of the year closing, together with suggestions of important matters coming up in the future. All interested are invited. No cards of admission are necessary. You will be welcome. On Tuesday the Convention will assemble at 9.30 A.M. for the transaction of such business as should properly come before it. This includes elections to the Standing Committee, of delegates and alternates to the General Convention, members of the Executive Committee of the Diocese and other important offices. Also several controversial matters--such as the right of Missions to representation in Convention, how to care financially for temporarily disabled clergymen, etc., will be decided. The galleries of the Church are open for spectators. Our official delegates are Messrs. Brand, Greaves and Wagner, together with Mr. Irwin and the Rector.

IT is too bad that Ascension Day always falls on Thursday, for it is one of the major days of the Christian Year and were it to occur on Sunday occasionally the Church could do more justice to it and the teaching it enshrines. But inasmuch as it must fall on Thursday, it is hoped that as many of you as can will be in Church next Thursday morning to keep the Feast. There will be an extra Service at 7 A.M.

THE Spring Meeting of the Altar Guild of the Diocese will be held on Wednesday, May 5th. Evensong will be sung at 7 .30 in St. James' Church, 22nd & Walnut Sts., and the meeting will follow immediately in the Churchwoman's Club. The Rev. James M. Niblo, of St. John's Church, Norristown, will give a practical talk on altar linens, proper vesting of altars, symbolism, etc. Any woman interested in this work is invited to be present.

MISS Bayard asks that all books belonging to the Lending Library be returned this week and left in the care of the Sexton.

IT is important that all articles of clothing for the "Rummage Sale" at Milbank, S. Dak., be sent to the Parish House on or before Tuesday, May 11th. Please help fill the trunk.

THROUGH the courtesy of a friend, the delegates to the Committee on Colored Missions, invite the women of this Parish to the Bird Sanctuary, 7001 Wissahickon Ave, for an informal Garden Party, Wednesday, May 19th, from 2 to 5 P.M. Cars will leave Allen Lane and Germantown Ave. about 2 o'clock. Fare 10¢ each way. The amount of the silver offering will be sent to Mr. Hunt, of the Fort Valley Normal and Industrial School, Fort Valley, Georgia.

MRS. Murphy, Treasurer of the U.T.O., reminds us that the Spring Presentation Service will be held in Holy Trinity Church, Thursday, of this week at 10.30 A.M. Your box should be emptied now and its contents sent to Mrs. F.J. Murphy, 136 W. Sedgwick Street.

THE Young People's Fellowship held its annual election last Sunday evening with the following results:--President,Miss Roberta Raynor; Vice-President,Albert Buchanan;Corresponding Secretary,Mrs.James English;Recording Secretary, Miss Janet Bates;Treasurer,Craig Eder;Editor of "The Pratt",James English;Assistant Editor,Miss Ruth Brand.

IT has been decided to give "Kempy" on May 21st,one week later than was originally planned. It is felt by the Dramatic Club that this will enable them to put on a more satisfactory and side-splitting performance than if they had kept to their first date. Rehearsals are going satisfactorily and in a short time tickets will be out and for sale. Reserve May 21st for this event!

DURING the last month your Rector has been actively engaged with a group that is trying to have eliminated the dangerous grade crossing of the Reading Railroad at Mt.Airy Ave. Recently he testified before the Public Service Commission. The prospects seem hopeful;all agree that the crossing is a menace. It will be done away with eventually. We want it done away with soon, lest some one be killed or maimed for life. Meanwhile we recommend that as much as possible you use Gowen or Mt.Pleasant Ave. We are so instructing the children of the Church School.

THE Pennsylvania Prison Society is one hundred and fifty years old. On Friday of this week,at 4 P.M.,in old Christ Church,it will hold a Service in commemoration of this anniversary. Our own Bishop,Wm.B.Harvey,of the Society of Friends,and the Rev.Dr.E.P.Pfatteicher of the Lutherans--representing the three groups that founded the Prison Society--will speak. The congregation of Grace Church is invited to attend.

OTHER Christian Communions call next Sunday "Pentecost", although Pentecost is a Jewish festival occurring fifty days after Passover, the word Pentecost being of Greek derivation, and meaning fifty. Our Church prefers to call next Sunday "Whitsunday". We use the day to symbolize that day, told about in the second chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, fifty days after the first Easter, when the Holy Spirit of God descended upon the Apostles on the Jewish Pentecost. Whitsunday is one of the three major Christian holy days, ranking with Christmas and Easter. Our Church expects us to make our Communions on Whitsunday, the rule being that every faithful communicant should come to the Sacrament of the Altar at least three times a year, on Christmas, Easter and Whitsunday. It would be helpful during this week to study Acts 2 and to prepare for an inflowing of God into our own souls next Sunday. "When the disciple is ready the Master comes".

WE want to keep before your attention the pageant to be given in Convention Hall on Sunday, Sept. 26th. Most of you have, we hope, read through from cover to cover, the descriptive leaflet recently distributed in Grace Church. There are still a few left for those who have not yet had them. This drama is one of the most ambitious projects ever undertaken by the Diocese of Pennsylvania and from every indication it is going to be a grand success! Already, seventeen of the best voices in Grace Church have begun rehearsals of their parts; also we have appointed Mr. John A. Eiseman to be our Marshal with Mr. Victor Rupp as his assisstant, their duty being to select carefully some of the players for the drama. Yes, Grace Church will work heartily for the success of this unusual project. We want every member of our Church family to be boosters, knowing about the project, cooperating in every way they can, and talking it over with friends and acquaintances to give it needed publicity.

"THIRTY-THREE organizations, representing more than 500,000 active members, are looking to Harrisburg for action on House Bill 1758. The legislation sponsored by Representative Samuel A. Weiss, Pittsburgh attorney, provides for a merit system on a state-wide basis.

Backed by the Pennsylvania Federation for the Merit System and the above mentioned half-million citizen members, Representative Weiss's bill was blasted out of Committee long enough for a public hearing in the House Caucus Room, Harrisburg, last Tuesday afternoon.

EVERY PENNSYLVANIA CITIZEN HAS A STAKE IN THIS MEASURE WHICH IS DESIGNED TO DIVORCE STATE JOBS FROM PATRONAGE.

Passage of this bill will put Governor Earle and his administration far out in front in the drive for acceptance of the Democratic party. Defeat of the measure will give comfort to those who hold the opinion expressed this week in the Philadelphia Record--that the present Legislature is playing the same kind of politics that caused the public uprising against the G.O.P.

"Why was the public disgusted with the G.O.P.?" asked the Record. "Because it became a mere machine for perpetuating the jobs of party workers," the newspaper answered, warning that the Democrats will go the way of their predecessors if they become too greedy for patronage. The time has passed when either major party can afford to ignore the desire of taxpayers for efficiently administered public services.

The Weiss bill will give Democrats a chance to prove they are opposed to "perpetuating the jobs of party workers." And the hearing at Harrisburg gave citizens a chance to echo the Record's warning.

TODAY is Pentecost,commonly called Whitsunday. Among the ancient Israelites Pentecost marked the conclusion of the harvest commenced with the Passover,fifty days before. For reasons given in Lev.23:15 it is usually called the "Feast of Weeks". This festival,mentioned but once in the historical books of the Old Testament,was purely agrarian in nature--thanksgiving for the grain harvest,as the "Feast of Tabernacles" is for the fruit harvest. Among Christians,Pentecost is the third of the chief festivals,closing the cycle of festivals referring to our Lord. It is connected with its Jewish predecessor,not only historically,through the events recorded in Acts 9,but also internally,being early regarded as a festival of thanksgiving for the fruits of the Spirit. Originally,Pentecost was used to designate the whole period of fifty days,from Easter to the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. It was marked by a cessation of theatre and circus exhibitions,and by increased ceremonial in the Church Services. In a narrower sense,as designating the last day of this quinquagesimal period, the word "Pentecost" is first found in a canon of the Council of Elvira,305 A.D. This use of the word and day grew apace and one may say, therefore,that the observance is more than 1600 years old. Because it was customary to wear white garments on Pentecost,this day is called Whitsunday,i.e.,White Sunday,and the whole period Whitsuntide. For the event back of our modern keeping of the festival,read the Epistle for the day.

THE EMBER Days which fall on Wednesday,Friday and Saturday of this week should mean much more to us this year than usual. As you know Ember Days are days on which the whole Church prays to the Good God that the men about to be accepted and ordained to the Ministry of our Church may be found worthy of their high calling. (Suggested prayers are to be found on pages 38 and 39 of the Book of Common Prayer.) Ordinarily we pray these prayers fervently and realize their importance,but this year,as we have suggested, they should touch us more deeply because one of our own young men is about to be advanced from the Diaconate and the Ember Day prayers being breathed up all over the world apply to one we know and admire. Do put him into your prayers, not only on the Ember Days of this week,but keep him there;it will help him much. Now as to his ordination:it is to take place at Epiphany Church, Sherwood,Phila.,which is located at 57th Street and Baltimore Avenue,on Monday,May 24th,at 10 A.M. Bishop Taitt will officiate. All are welcome;indeed,many should feel it their duty to be present,pray for our own candidate,particularly,and wish him Godspeed. Don't forget:a week from tomorrow,Epiphany,West Phila.,10 A.M.

ON TUESDAY next,the Convocation of Germantown will meet at St.David's Church,Manayunk. The Convocation will begin with Holy Communion at 11 A.M. Bishop Taitt will celebrate and Dr. McBee will preach.

ST.MARTIN'S is usually lovely at this time of year;flowers are fragrant and wall gardens a sight long to be remembered. Mrs.George Woodward has invited all who care to,to come to her home and gardens,"Krisheim",on Tuesday afternoon of next week to feast on its beauty. People will journey miles to enjoy it. We who are near should not miss the opportunity. There will be an admission charge of 25¢,which will be used to help our baby-Church at West Oak Lane to build a much-needed church. A cafeteria supper will be served in the late afternoon. The whole affair is under the auspices of the Woman's Aid of the Convocation of Germantown. Mark the event down now:Tuesday,May 25th,all afternoon:home of Senator and Mrs.Woodward,McCallum St.& Moreland Ave.:free transportation from Germantown Ave.& Allen Lane.

THE TULIPS on the Altar last Sunday were grown in a garden beside the Church, from bulbs purchased and planted by the Third Grade of the Church School last autumn, with the idea of providing the Altar with flowers and thus help in making our Services more beautiful. We hope that the children had as much joy from their lovely colors as we had. Truly, they were for the Glory of God.

A COMMITTEE of the Young People's Fellowship is busily working on plans for the Spring Festival. You will hear more of this later. Remember the date--June 5th!

WEDNESDAY May 19th. Garden Party 7001 Wissahickon Avenue. Cars leave Germantown Ave. & Allen Lane at 2 P.M. Fare 10¢ each way. Silver offering to help pay for a mule for the Fort Valley School.

ON THE SUNDAY after Ascension, the Rector baptized Stuart Martin Pennypacker, born in Phila. Mar. 6, 1937, son of Harry Martin and Marion Elizabeth Pennypacker. Godparents: Lydia Ann Pennypacker, Henry L. Bryan and William D. Bryan.

SOME of the congregation have fallen into the habit of leaving the Church in the midst of the Communion Service. This is bad,and because so many of those who worship with us are not Episcopalians,they have received the impression that only those who intend to receive the Holy Communion are welcome to remain through the whole Service. Of course,this is not so. The Service is meant for all,whether they are entitled to receive and intend to receive or not. In fact,unless one is ill or has to leave for some very important reason,all are expected to remain until the last hymn is ended. This custom of going out during the Service is not confined to Grace Church;other clergymen beside yours complain of this breach. One Rector has postponed preaching his sermon until the Communion Service is ended;he reports that this has changed the manners of his congregation for the better. But your clergy prefer to have the sermon where the Prayer Book says it shall be preached. We believe that by calling attention to the growing bad habit,there will be a change for the better. After all,it is not asking much to expect the Faithful to worship together for one hour,once a week. One hour out of seven days,of twenty-four hours each is not asking too much for public worship and common prayer. Let us not hear in our ears an echo of our Lord's lament in the Garden of Gethsemane,"What,could ye not watch with me one hour?" Let us now resolve to mend our ways.

AS ANNOUNCED in last week's PARISH NEWS,the advancement of the Rev.Albert F.Fischer,Jr.,from the Diaconate to the Priesthood will take place tomorrow morning at Epiphany Church,57th Street and Baltimore Avenue,Phila.,at 10 o'clock. Bishop F.M.Taitt will ordain him and several others, and the Rev.James M.Niblo,of St.John's,Norristown,will preach the sermon. Your clergy are desirous that as many of you as can,will be present at tomorrow morning's Service. The Rev.Mr. Fischer grew up in Grace Church,entering the Ministry from this Parish. He received his theological education in the Seminary at Alexandria, Va. Just about a year ago he was ordained to the Diaconate by Bishop Taitt and since then has been on the staff of the Bucks County Mission,with special care of the hundred-year-old Parish,Grace Church,Hulmeville,and also has had supervision of the little Church at Edgely,above Bristol. If you cannot attend the Ordination tomorrow,you can,at least,keep in your prayers this sone of Grace Church. Please!

THE DAY after tomorrow you are invited to attend a Garden Party at "Krisheim",the beautiful estate of Senator and Mrs.George Woodward, at McCallum Street and Mermaid Lane. You can reach it easily by means of automobiles which will meet guests at Germantown Avenue and Allen Lane,throughout the afternoon. The garden are at their best now and the vista over the Wissahickon hills is incomparable. Mrs.Woodward's invitation provides an excellent opportunity for you and your friends to see St.Martin's at its loveliest. Toward the late afternoon a cafeteria supper will be served for which a nominal charge will be made. The price of admission is 25¢.and the money taken in will be given to our newest little Church in West Oak Lane. If it rains,the festical will be held in the Parish House of St. Martin-in-the-Fields,nearby. The whole fete is given by the Woman's Aid of the Convocation of Germantown,of which Mrs.Woodward is President.

THE WOMEN of the Parish are cordially invited to a Tea on Thursday,May 27,at 3 P.M. at the home of Mrs.Albert C.Brand,301 E.Durham St. Mrs.Clifford Buck,of Swarthmore,will tell of her travels through England and the Mediterranean. Hostesses,Mrs.Pratt Thompson and Mrs.Albert C. Brand. Silver offering for missions.

THE EPISCOPAL Hospital is having a Lay Fete on its grounds on May 26th, from noon to 7 P.M. Refreshments, music, entertainments, flower exhibits. Admission 25¢.

THE SPRING Festival Committee has organized and are busy planning for Saturday, June 5th. Our Men's Club, Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, and the Young People's Fellowship are cooperating to make the day one of enjoyment and happiness. All the profits of the day will be put into the fund for the new Parish House! The intention is to have games, refreshments and a cake sale in the afternoon; a cafeteria supper outdoors if the weather permits, and at 8 o'clock a Comedy-Musical by Mr. Howard Gamble and his Choral Society. Set aside the day now on your calendar. June 5th; afternoon and evening.

THE JUNIOR Fellowship recently elected officers for the coming year, the elections resulting as follows:--President, Isabella Simmons; Vice-President, Roberta Morrison; Recording Secretary, Barbara Shallcross; Corresponding Secretary, Jane Worrall; Treasurer, Margaret Worrall.

ON WHITSUNDAY, the Rector baptized John Frederick Horrisberger, Jr., born in Philadelphia, Feb. 19, 1937, son of John Frederick and Josephine K. Horrisberger. Godparents: John Horrisberger (his grandfather), John Horrisberger (his father) and Emma Price.

There were twenty-eight in the class confirmed by Bishop Taitt last Wednesday Evening. Their names are as follows:

Marion A. Baldy	Robert F. Maxwell
Albert Daniel Barton	Shirley A. McCarter
Georgiana Benson	Morton Schilbred
Emily K. Buck	Sara Jane Snyder
Raynor M. Colmary	James F. Sutor
Robert H. Dursch	Ashton L. Worrall, Jr.
Shirley Jean Eder	Annette M. Whitehead
George Falkenhain	Ernest Jones
Isabella S. Gammons	Edgar L. Hunter
Helen H. Herbert	Guy Scott Apeldorn
Marylin Hesser	Elva E. Apeldorn
Edmund H. Jordan	Mary Louise Preston
William C. Jordan	Lehen Haines Herbert
James F. A. Macvaugh	Mildred Moore Frey

The Woman's Auxiliary wants to remind all its members that there is much sewing still to be done in order to complete the amount of work we set out to do and have promised, and Lent (the period in which most sewing is done) is almost over. Let every member come out every Thursday from now on, not only because we like to be together and enjoy ourselves at the meetings, but also because we want to make good our promises and back up our sewing committee. As usual, Luncheon will be served next Thursday at half after 12 o'clock. This week Mrs. Gawthrop will have charge of the luncheon, being assisted by Mesdames Carson, Moody, Moock, and Voorhis. After luncheon, as usual, we shall adjourn to the other room to take part in the very interesting Mission Study Class that we have this Lent. Keep your Thursdays for and with us!

Beginning tomorrow, Philadelphia will again observe its Educational Week for the Blind. One of the interesting developments of the Blind Pension Act has been the discovery of many blind persons not before known to the workers. Almost 10,000 blind persons are receiving pensions today! This has greatly increased the field of operation of cooperating agencies and made us realize more and more how very important is the conservation of sight and the prevention of blindness. Blind Week is, as you know, observed in the Auditorium of Gimbel's Store. Luncheons and teas are served daily by representatives of various religious communions. Tomorrow, Monday; Episcopalians, Friends, and Ethical Culturists have charge. Mrs. Gawthrop will be our personal representative. It would be fine to have great numbers of our congregation greet her at the Gimbel Auditorium. Will YOU be there?

Our Church School Classes are busy doing what they can to build up a larger Lenten Offering, all of which goes to Missions and helps Grace Church with the amount it has promised for the Forward Work of the Church. Today we wish to call your attention to two efforts which you yourself can help in the near future. (1) Mrs. Thompson, Miss Ouderkirk and Mrs. Walton are, with their Church School Classes, conducting a united Food Sale in the Parish House on Thursday afternoon of this week, March 11th. You will find tasty and appetizing food for sale and by purchasing from these classes you will be helping the girls to help themselves. (2) Next Sunday evening, March 14th, at 6 P.M. in the Parish House, members of the Senior Church School Class will give a supper to all who care to come. The price has been kept down to 45¢ in order to get many to come and, in addition to the supper (and who doesn't like to eat Sunday Supper out?) there will be an interesting speaker and some group singing. The Rector is anxious that these hard working young people be backed up in their worthwhile efforts. Don't forget: (1) Thursday afternoon, Food Sale; (2) Sunday Evening, Supper. Do come out to both!!!

Each time we had to admit it was unwise. So many teachers went away as the weather grew hotter, and so few children came regularly enough to warrant the effort made in their behalf, that finally we decided that it is better to close the School early in June and start afresh in September when the weather is more propitious. This year we shall follow the same plan. Therefore, there will be no session of the Church School next Sunday morning; instead we shall have our closing exercises in the afternoon at 3.30. At this session promotions will be announced, certificates will be awarded, and Bible and Prayer Book awards will be made. We hope that many of you, who are not of the Church School, will attend, to gain some idea of the splendid and unselfish work that our teachers are doing from Sunday to Sunday. Remember: next Sunday afternoon at 3.30. Come and bring some one with you.

AT THE ordination to the Priesthood of the Rev. Mr. Fischer last Monday, your Rector was reminded, by the admonition to the newly-ordained "to seek out the poor and needy in the parish and minister to their needs from the funds raised in the parish for that purpose". In Grace Church, not only does the Rector minister to the worthy poor in their financial needs, but he has behind him a Social Service Committee who do considerable work along the same lines. This Committee does a quiet but invaluable work and secure funds for doing it by sending out special appeals at Thanksgiving and Christmas and at this time of year. Therefore, if you are able and desirous of helping them in their good work, now is the time to send your contribution to Mrs. Frank J. Sheble, 311 Roumfort Road, Mt. Airy. THEY WILL USE YOUR GIFT WISELY. GIVE NOW!

THIS is the last number of the PARISH NEWS until September. One by one our organizations have closed up their work until autumn,the last being the Church School,which will have its closing exercises this afternoon. Urgent need for a weekly leaflet containing notices of meetings and other Parish news no longer obtains. So we cease publication until the summer is over. Before we close,we thank Miss Mary Kaighn, who prepared the stencils for the paper,week by week,also Messrs.Victor Rupp,Richard Jefford, Herman Schwarz and Craig Eder,who mimeographed it every Friday night. They,together,made this valuable little PARISH NEWS possible. Thanks--in your name.

IT IS not too early to request those of you who are going away on vacations this summer, to fill your weekly envelopes and turn them in before you go away. For several years,now,you have done this and made it possible for the Parish to go through the lean months of the summer without borrowing money and paying interest to the bank. It is not asking overmuch to request each individual to pay up ahead of time,and the comparatively small sacrifice thus entailed on the part of the individual is more than compensated for by the financial and morale gain to your Parish. We have made an appeal similar to this for several years and your response has been splendid. Won't you keep up the good habit, please,and if you do go away for a vacation, turn in your envelopes before you leave.

THE first of the summer "Porch Parties" will be held at the home of Mrs.Frank P.Brooke, 302 E.Gowen Avenue,on Tuesday,June 22nd. These gatherings proved so enjoyable last summer that it has been decided to continue them this summer. All women who care to come,are invited to attend.

THE Dramatic Club recently elected officers for the coming year as follows: President, Mrs.James English;Vice-president and Business Manager,Alvin Powell;Secretary,Sarah Mary Ouderkirk. At the meeting,Mr.John Eiseman talked on Amateur Motion Pictures,illustrating his talk by making pictures in color of those present.

MAY we remind you again,please,that the group of women of our congregation who look after our worthy poor,are in need of funds and are asking your help. They make an appeal similar to this at Thanksgiving,Christmas and on June first. If you care to help and are able, send your gift to Mrs.Frank J.Cheble,311 Roumfort Road.

ON WEDNESDAY next,June 9th,from 4 to 6 in the afternoon,you are invited to a Tea at the "House of Rest",our diocesan Home for the Aged, 5919 Wayne Avenue. Grace Church has for man years been deeply interested in this splendid work and is represented on its Board,by several women,working in season and out of season to help make ends meet in our institution. If you cannot attend on June 9th,you may send your contributions by any of our representatives,or directly by check to Miss Edith Fell,Treasurer, 126 E.Sedgwick Street.

THE Young People's Fellowship will close its meetings for the season with a supper meeting on June 20th,at which meeting we expect to have a most interesting speaker to address the group.

ON April 28th the Rector of St.Matthew's, Church,Francisville,Phila,transferred to Grace Church Dr.and Mrs.Napoleon B.Heller. We have received them into our congregational family and they are now communicants in good standing of this Parish. In your name we welcome the.

In England the Harvest Festival is observed early in October; ours is held on Thursday of this present week. Ours does seem a bit late if one associates Thanksgiving with a day of gratitude to Almighty God for the harvests of the world, but, late or early, Thanksgiving Day is a natural day of observance, giving an outlet to the need of the human heart corporately to express its sense of obligation and thanks for God's many material mercies.

In Grace Church we provide two services on Thanksgiving Day, hoping that many will come to both. The early service is at the usual hour of 7.30, and the later service at 10.30—a half-hour earlier than the usual Sunday hour, because many people have family dinners at midday on Thanksgiving Day and engagements early in the afternoon.

In Grace Church, and indeed in all Episcopal churches in this area, we make much of the Thanksgiving Day money offering, realizing that thanksgiving means not only saying "Thank You, God," but also giving something to express our thanks. All local Episcopal churches give for one cause on Thanksgiving Day, the recipient being the Episcopal Hospital. There is no need to tell Grace Church people about our hospital: they are already well informed. But perhaps they do not know this, that the State of Pennsylvania, in its new labor regulations, has said that workers of a certain type may not work more that forty-four hours a week. This is many hours less than our workers at the hospital have been accustomed to work, and so we must comply and engage many more workers to care for the sick during those extra hours. A hospital must never be undermanned. But this new ruling will cost us $20,000. Now, where shall we turn to secure this large sum? We cannot get it from the ward patients, for most of them are unable to pay even the $3.00 a day we are supposed to secure from them. We cannot add the amount we need to the bills of private or semi-private patients, for we do not have provision for many people so well off that they can afford private or semi-private rooms. We receive no state, city, or community aid. All our income, apart from what is paid by our patients, comes from interest on endowments and from the Thanksgiving Day offerings from our churches. We cannot increase the income from endowment at this time. So—what? Isn't this where you and I come into the picture? We must add to our Thanksgiving Day offering. No one knows better than your Rector how many appeals are being made to our generosity these days, and how difficult it is to make one's income stretch to cover all needs. BUT WE CANNOT LET OUR HOSPITAL DOWN! WE MUST STAND BY IT, ESPECIALLY IN THIS, ITS HOUR OF NEED.

So all the money that comes in on Thanksgiving Day, whether marked or unmarked, and any money that comes in at other times labeled "For the Episcopal Hospital," will be sent at once to care for God's worthy sick children being cared for in our hospital. Let's be as generous as we can!

We used to have a custom in Grace Church of making an appeal in the early summer for money to send our choir singers away for a summer outing. This obtained for many years and was successful. But gradually we worked away from this plan, because we did not want extra appeals for money from time to time during the year, hoping to secure whatever sums were needed by means of the regular systematic, conscientious giving of our people from week to week. At that time Mr. Robinson, our Choirmaster, began the practice of having the choir itself give some musical offering and secure its own funds. This has been our policy for several years, and we believe that the large attendance at choir concerts has been due not only to the desire to show our appreciation, but also to enjoy the work that was being done. In line with this later policy our choirs are going to sing the ever-pleasing Gilbert-Sullivan operetta, "Iolanthe," on the night after next, Tuesday, November 23, at 8.15, in the Parish House. They have been working hard on the presentation for a long time, and we believe that they will do it well. We hope that many of the congregation will attend and in this way not only themselves have an enjoyable evening, but also give an outward, visible sign of their appreciation of a faithful choir and its leader. The tickets cost 35 cents (we believe that this is not enough), and any member of the choir will be glad to sell you yours. Do come!

As a result of the Spring Festival held last June, the Young People's Fellowship has turned over to the Accounting Warden more than $200 to be added to the "New Parish House Fund." This fund is creeping up toward the $1000 mark, but if you were to look in on our unusually large Church School some Sunday morning and see under what handicaps our devoted teachers are working, you would wish that it were many more thousands of dollars, now!

Early in the autumn the Dramatic Club of the Young People's Fellowship, having chosen a difficult play for its next presentation, were non-plussed as to where to turn for a good director. Finally the happy thought came to them, "Why not Mr. Eiseman?" So they went to him, and in spite of his many engagements and other activities, he consented to direct them. Rehearsals were begun. They have been busy now for some weeks, working often hard and late. The play that they are preparing is called, "A Bill of Divorcement," and they will present it in the Parish House on Friday evening, December 3, at 8.15 o'clock. They are charging 50 cents for adults' tickets and 25 cents for children's. Any member of the Fellowship will sell you yours, or Mrs. James English, President of the Dramatic Club, will gladly send you tickets if you will give her a call (telephone CHE 3091).

Several times each year we learn a new hymn in Grace Church. When we do, we have the choir sing the new hymn in place of the anthem, asking the congregation to sing it with them. Recently we so learned Hymn 497. Today we are going to learn another, No. 494. Let every one sing it, whether or not they know it. The words were written by Frank Mason North in 1905; the tune, by William Gardiner in 1815.

From the Parish Register:

On June 13 the Rector baptized Rodman Warren Stuhlmuller, Jr., who was born December 13, 1936, son of Rodman W. and Roberta Passant Stuhlmuller. Rodman's sponsors are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Passant and John Stuhlmuller.

On November 7 the Rector baptized Lucy Royer Alburger, daughter of T. Linton and Katherine C. Alburger. Lucy was born on July 23, 1937, and her sponsors are Eleanor Barba, Grace M. and C. R. Parmale, Jr.

The Church Year begins today with Advent Sunday. "Advent" is taken from a Latin word, advenio, "I come back," and is founded on the express words of Holy Scripture: "This same Jesus which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven," and its object is to keep that coming before our minds. The Church Year did not always begin at Advent. For a long time it began at Christmas, and in the Church of England, until 1752, it began on Annunciation Day (March 25), a very appropriate time; but for many centuries Advent has been the real starting-point, and surely there could be no more appropriate time than just before Christmas to begin the sacred drama of the Life and Death and Rising of our Lord.

We will take a very narrow view of Advent if we confine it to our Lord's second coming. His first coming and the world to which He came must be just as prominent in our minds. Nor should we think that Judgment Day means exactly twenty-four hours in which the whole awful transaction will begin and end. "Day" in Scripture means a time, a period. The blowing of trumpets, the chariots and horsemen, the thunders, the signs in sun and moon, and the stars falling, are all vivid touches in an awful picture which is meant to convey to us deep and piercing convictions of the importance, the dread, the solemnity of the last judgment. "And He shall come again with glory, to judge both the quick and the dead." May He so fit and prepare us for that great account which we must one day give that we may look up to Him with joy and comfort!

We hope that you have already decided to come and enjoy the play being given by the Dramatic Club of the Young People's Fellowship next Friday evening. We want you to come not only because you will enjoy the play for itself, but also because we believe that all should encourage our younger groups by supporting them. The play being given was a decided success in the motion pictures not very long ago, and calls for clever acting, the cast including Messrs. Ellis Cook, Wallis Stilts, Alvin Powell, W. Sattler, the Misses Helen Burton, Ouderkirk, Raynor, D. Smith, and others. Properties are under the care of James English and Oakley Van Nostrand. We assume that Fred Burness, Jr., and his efficient crew will manage the scenery and lighting effects. When you add that Mr. John Eiseman is coaching the cast, you have assurance that the acting will be good. Mrs. James English is President of the Dramatic Club: a telephone call to her at CHE 3091 will bring you tickets or you may pay at the door. Do attend!

This coming Thursday's meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will be a luncheon meeting, the speaker being the Reverend Dr. Thomas MacRae, of Shanghai, China. Here is a chance for the women of the Parish to bring their friends, and with them learn a good deal of what is going on in China. You know, we begin with Holy Communion at 9.30; sewing and folding surgical bandages from 10 to 12; Intercessions at midday; luncheon at 12.30, and speaker after the luncheon. All women are invited. Come!

The Church Periodical Club is sending two boxes to the Indians for Christmas—one to Sister Horner, at Pine Ridge Reservation, South Dakota; the other to Deaconess Bedell, working with Seminole Indians in the Everglades, Florida.

The Librarian of the C. P. C. will be very thankful for any contributions toward these boxes—of toys, jewelry, scarfs, gloves, etc., books of every kind, but especially picture books for children, picture and Christmas cards, Church School leaflets with pictures and charts. The librarian would not refuse small donations of money with which to buy gifts and pay for the expressage. Please leave all gifts this week in the Parish House, care of Sexton, marked plainly for the C. P. C.—M. W. BAYARD, Librarian, C. P. C.

On this Second Sunday in Advent the emphasis, as found in Collect, Epistle and Gospel, is on the importance of the Bible in man's daily life. No fact could be truer; it is a commonly accepted fact that no one in an English-speaking country can call himself educated unless he knows the contents of the English Bible. Indeed, many men who profess no particular interest in religion itself read and reread their Bibles, not only because they enjoy its limpid style, but also because they realize that the contents of Holy Scriptures form the background for much of our thought and speech. As an example: the writer just now, by chance, was browsing in the non-fiction "best seller" of the year, an autobiography written by a physician, and came upon the explanation of the word "Lazaretto" (which means a quarantine station where people with communicable diseases are cared for), as having derived its name from the parable in St. Luke 16:20, which tells of a man named "Lazarus," who was full of sores. A little later the author spoke of having met Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., "whose speech, like that of his illustrious father, was filled with quotations from Kipling and the Bible." If for no other reason than the pursuit of culture, there should be daily Bible reading in our schools and at our bedsides.

But culture, like patriotism, is not enough. "The devil also can quote Scripture." Education, mental knowledge, often fails to make men better or happier. Knowing the contents of the Bible of itself will not save a man, although remarkable miracles have been wrought by putting the Bible into the hands of criminals. We need to "read, mark, learn and inwardly digest" this most remarkable book. So many of us read it casually or mechanically, picking it up by fits and starts, or setting ourselves the task of reading a chapter or just so many verses a day. A better way is to read a whole Gospel or Epistle right through at one sitting. Another good way is to read it in some foreign language after having read it in English. Or, one might use a concordance and study special subjects, such as "Grace," "Faith," etc. Sometimes, even, it is good for one to get away from the superb English of the King James version and read the Scripture in some modern translation. Before one reads, and after one reads, it is good to observe a moment of quiet in which God can guide us and in which we may make resolutions based on what we are thinking on. A wonderful treasure is ours in the English Bible.

Tonight the Senior group, Young People's Fellowship, is expecting to have as its guests groups from Jenkintown and Roxborough. There is also to be a guest-speaker, Miss Kune, who will tell us something about the "Scandinavian Countries." Preparations are being made for supplying Christmas baskets to the needy poor in downtown Philadelphia. It is planned to go as a group to the Planetarium soon to view the "Christmas Skies"; also early in the new year to sing at the Home for Consumptives, Chestnut Hill. The service committee is planning to paint stencils on chairs for the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild. The Juniors are working out a program for the coming month. Last Sunday evening the Senior program was conducted by the Rev. Albert Fischer, who presented a social service problem and had his hearers help him to a conclusion. In the Juniors, James Haines gave a talk on an Alaskan missionary.

Mrs. Burrell has had a most appreciative letter from Manati, Puerto Rico, where we recently sent a modern "missionary box." Said Mrs. Garrett, the wife of the missionary there: "It is not only the good quality of the nice articles you and the people from your church sent to us, but also the love and good will with which you and yours made it, that makes us appreciate it so much. I thank you—for the clinic supplies. They came just in time, when my stock was coming to its end. . . If some time you or somebody of yours thinks of going on a trip . . . why not come to Puerto Rico and stay with us for a while and see by your own eyes our missionary work among the people here? I am sure you would enjoy so much the time in our little island. . . With warm regards from everybody here to everybody there, and with our best wishes for your work there, I am, sincerely yours, Georgina P. Garrett."

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Men's Club on November 29 it was decided to have the next club meeting in the Parish House on December 13 at 8 P. M., the speaker to be the Rev. Alfred M. Smith, Episcopal Chaplain at the Eastern State Penitentiary and at Moyamensing prison. The next Executive Committee meeting will be held at the home of Mr. William Bishop, 7025 Boyer Street, on January 10th. The date of the annual Women's Night was tentatively set for February 24.

The Christian Ministry: That is the main subject of Epistle, Gospel, and Collect for today. The winter Ember Days, falling on Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday of this week, with appropriate prayers on pages 38 and 39 of the Prayer Book, too speak of the Christian Ministry. We ought to make more of this opportunity to pray for and encourage the best of our young men to enter the work which God has for them to do. There can be no more blessed calling than to be appointed by God to be the friend, teacher, and guides of His people. When men of learning have illumined their minds and done all that they can to enrich their lives; when physicians have sought to heal their bodies, and nurses, with all their tenderness, have offered their services of love and mercy—there is much left which men and women need to have done for them, which is given the Christian minister to do. To encourage the young, to stand by the tempted, to lift up the fallen, to enrich the heart stricken with a sense of its poverty, to keep alive in men's hearts the assurance of a better world ahead—these are some of the tasks which the Lord Christ calls His servants in the ministry to perform. And God needs our best young men for this work. When you are talking over with some young man over whom you have influence the question of what shall be his work in life, do not overlook the call of the ministry. God needs more and better workers in His vineyard.

Almost every congregation sees to it that the needy among its members have an unusually good meal on Christmas Day. Men recognize their duty to share with the unfortunate every day, but on Christmas they see to it that the meal is a bountiful, holiday dinner. So in our own parish. We try to look after our needy all year 'round, but as the Feast of the Nativity approaches we provide baskets that contain things not usually had by the poor. The securing and delivering of these baskets we assign to ou.

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

Social Service Committee. They in turn make an appeal to the congregation-at-large for money to purchase and fill Christmas baskets. This is their appeal! If you want to help provide for a needy family, send your money to Mrs. Frank Sheble, 305 Roumfort Road. Do it now!

Your diocese faces a great responsibility. It has promised $80,000 to care for starving Chinese Christians who, having lost all their worldly possessions, are in dire need, and it requires $90,000 to balance its books and pay all obligations by the middle of January. Bishop Taitt has lumped these sums and asked his clergy to present the problem to their people, being confident that they will rise to the emergency. Already about $10,000 has come in. In most parishes there is being taken up today a special offering for this cause. We of Grace Church feel that our people need more time and information. You will hear from us soon. Meanwhile think about it and prepare yourself to give generously when the time comes.

Many of you remember Dr. Janet Anderson, who several years ago went from this parish as a missionary-physician to take charge of St. Theodore's Hospital, Sagada, in the Mountain Province of the Philippine Islands. After a year and a half's faithful service there her health was impaired by heart strain, due to the high altitude, and she was obliged to give up her hospital and descend to Manila, where she undertook work among the Chinese refugees being cared for there by the Red Cross. In September Dr. Anderson decided to do full war work and enlisted with the British Army, going over to China with a Red Cross unit which was subsequently split up. Then she flew to Wuhu, China, and is now working in a military hospital, caring for war wounded. Her letters give unstinted praise to the wounded she is caring for, together with vivid descriptions of the horrors of modern warfare. She makes light of her own discomforts, making nothing of her being obliged to subsist on Chinese foods, possessing no pillows, having no drinking water, only tea, the intense cold, and the nerve-racking torture of frequent attacks by bombing squadrons. She is happy, very useful, and—"very glad she came." Remember her in your prayers!

From the Parish Register:

On November 30, 1937, Nettie Stock (Mrs. Thomas W.) Anderson was transferred to Grace Church, Mt. Airy, from Trinity Church, Toledo, Ohio. She is now a communicant in good standing of this parish.

On December 7, in Grace Church, Clifford M. Hopkin, Jr., and Dorothy M. Renouf were married by the Rector.

Tomorrow evening the Men's Club will hear the Reverend Alfred M. Smith, our Chaplain for more than nineteen years at the Eastern Penitentiary and Moyamensing Prison, tell how he accounts for the fact that every year more people than ever before are being sent to jail—a subject that should interest every one. We hear so much over the radio from wardens of well-known penitentiaries, and they always hold our attention because the sinister shadow of this teeming prison population is a national blight. To morrow evening we will listen to an expert tell what we can do to help remedy this growing problem. Come out and bring your neighbor—at 8 o'clock.

Tonight the Young People's Fellowship will have as leader of its discussion Mr. Joseph Baxter, President of the Fellowships of our diocese. On December 26, the Dramatic Club will give us a puppet presentation of "Why the Chimes Rang." On January 2 the Fellowship will go to the Planetarium to view "Christmas Skies." We hope to take a large group that night, not only of members of the Fellowship, but also mothers and fathers and their friends. Miss Oakley Van Nostrand is in charge of securing reservations. Let her know soon, please, how many you are bringing.

We have just had word that Bishop Abbott will visit Grace Church on Sunday morning, February 27, to preach and administer Confirmation. Classes in preparation will be held soon after Christmas.

As Christmas Day approaches it is time to think of the Christmas present you are going to make to the One who was born on Christmas. You may say that the Lord of all the world "needs nothing at your hands." Do you talk that way about ordinary Christmas presents? No, you say, "I want to show him how much I like him and appreciate his friendship, therefore I am sending him this gift." It is true that God has everything, but just as you and I would value something our children gave us bought with our own money, so does the Lord Jesus value the gifts we give Him, furnished by the very powers He Himself has bestowed. One can begin by giving what was given by the First Wise Man—money. (In another article we dwell on the need for this.) Or again you can make your Lord a Christmas present of some wrong thing in your daily life which you dally and play with and feel you should part with for your soul's good. That would be excellent. Or you can begin, as was suggested in last Sunday's sermon, to give the Babe of Bethlehem the gift of personal service. There is no Christmas present that would please your Lord like that. He, like all Kings, prizes most highly personal service. Think over these gifts—money, ceasing from wrongdoing, personal service. All can give the last two: most of you can give some of the first to Him who gave us all things.

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

In many congregations at this time of the year there is an annual drive for a large Christmas offering to clear the church of debt before a new year begins. Bazaars, suppers, sales, and what-nots are held to raise large sums for the Christmas offering. Fortunately, because of the regular, sustained, week-by-week giving of parishioners, Grace Church does not have to have such a Christmas drive. But—we ought to have larger Christmas offerings. It is eminently proper that we should, as has been suggested in the article above on Christmas presents. Now, every Episcopal church is assessed 7½ per cent of what it pays for its clergymen's salaries. This tax is paid into a fund called the "Church Pension Fund," which cares for retired clergymen. Our assessment amounts to about $450 a year, which we partly pay from the Christmas Day collections, although we never come near that sum in our Christmas offerings. Cannot we do better this year? I know all the answers and excuses one could think up against the amount. But, after all, $450 is a comparatively small sum for us to raise when compared with what other churches are giving on Christmas Day. Let us not think of it that way, however. Let us think of it as an expression of our inward appreciation of Jesus, as a birthday present to Him. The first Wise Man gave—gold, that was his birthday present. Be generous with your church at this holy season.

On December 10 the Rector read the Burial Office for Alice Patterson Bensinger, of Wyndmoor, who died on December 9. Interment was made in the churchyard of St. Thomas's Church, Whitemarsh.

In last week's Parish News we neglected to remind you that your committee, to whom is committed the responsibility of providing Christmas baskets for the worthy poor of the parish and community, will not only welcome gifts of money, but also imperishable foods themselves, to supplement the food purchased with the money. A barrel has been placed in the vestibule of the church so that at your convenience, either today or early in the week, you may leave groceries or canned goods in it. The committee will welcome all gifts, but especially gifts of money, because with it they will be able to purchase poultry and other seasonal foods. Send your contributions to Mrs. Frank Sheble, 305 Roumfort Road.

Interesting Parish Notes Told Briefly: Mrs. Francis Murphy has been nominated for the Presidency of Grace Church Woman's Auxiliary and Guild; as she is the only nominee, congratulations are in order.

We recently transferred a man to another parish who has been away from here forty years.

At the Junior Young People's Fellowship meeting tonight, Mr. Powell, one of its members, is going to give a talk on "Criminology."

There has been complaint against the habit of piling hats and coats on the window-sills in church when there is a packed congregation. Please!

The Church School is bringing its Christmas gifts in today instead of to the Christmas Eve Carol Service, as heretofore. The children are losing some of the joy they used to have in presenting them on Christmas Eve, but the poor children who receive the presents will have them now on Christmas Day. After all, true charity consists in doing a thing not for the fun one gets in giving, but because one's heart goes out to others to share with them. The gifts will be distributed at our Italian Mission, 3529 Memphis Street.

Mr. Norton Walton is going to lead the discussion at the Senior Fellowship meeting tonight.

The Fellowship play was a success, from the standpoint both of acting and of finance.

A new class has been started in the Church School for the pre-Kindergarten age; it already has a good enrollment.

Confirmation will be held on the morning of February 27th.

Mr. Franklin Spencer Edmonds has promised the Men's Club to be the speaker at the Annual Dinner on February 24th.

It would seem strange if one were not a believer in the Incarnation of the Son of God to realize how much the birth of a Jewish baby in a conquered and despised colony of the Roman Empire has changed the course of the whole world. A priori it would seem incredible that the birth of such a child should have given rise to our method of reckoning the years, our advancing ideas of what is right and wrong, our belief that every person in the world is precious in God's sight, our nobler attitude toward women, our feeling of responsibility for the condition of the poor, and our growing appreciation of the gentler virtues. Above all, it would be hard to explain Christmas. Back of the Nativity, back of the manger birth, back of all our rejoicing at this happy season, stands the fact of the Incarnation.

"Why did God become incarnate?" Because His purpose in creating the worlds was to see to it that He could have someone whom He could love and someone who would love Him. But how could men love God if they had never seen Him, and how could they believe that He loved them if He had done nothing visible to indicate it? God perceived this and therefore came, and the "glory, grace and truth of God was shewn in the face of Jesus Christ." He at the first Christmastide revealed Himself in the only form intelligible to human beings; that is, in the form of man. Thus the Incarnation takes its place as the explanation of the mystery of Creation—God wanted at the last to have someone whom He could love and who could love Him. Jesus is God's Word to us; He is what God said in response to our need. That is the reason for our rejoicing at Christmastide.

To the Members of the Parish:

We have recently completed the annual canvass of the members of the Parish, in which we have asked all those who desire to share in the maintenance of the church to indicate on a subscription card the amount they expect to contribute for the year 1938. Some may have been missed in this canvass. If you are one of those and will communicate with me, I will gladly furnish you a subscription card.

Faithfully yours,

ALBERT C. BRAND, Accounting Warden,
301 E. Durham Street
(Phone: Chestnut Hill 1228)

Recently a clergyman of our Church died. During his earthly course he had not been able to put aside any insurance for his family because his salary was small and he was the sole support of an aged father and mother. He left almost nothing in the way of money. If it had not been for the fact that every church of our communion is taxed a definite percentage on what it pays for clerical salaries, his wife and children today would be destitute. As it is, they will receive $400 a year for the widow and $150 for each small child—a mere pittance, but something. The tax on Grace Church for this fund is about $500 a year. Now, $500 is a large sum of money, and we try to raise it by using the Christmas Offering for this purpose—otherwise it would be a heavy burden on our budget. Besides, it does seem appropriate, doesn't it? that at this glad season we should show our thanks to God by giving a Christmas present to Him through His Church. All the Money in the Offerings Today will be used to Pay our Assessment in the Church Pension Fund. Be Generous!

On the Fourth Sunday in Advent the Rector baptized Charles Edmunds Rhoad, son of Merritt N. and Margaret V. Rhoad. Charles was born on August 23, 1936, and his godparents are Alice Rhoad and his parents. His sister, Margaret Hewitt Rhoad, was also baptized at this service. She was born February 28, 1931; her godparents are Edwin K. Ward, Emily Hewitt Ward, and her parents.

On December 20 Mary Adele (Mrs. J. T.) Baral was transferred to Grace Church from the Church of the Resurrection, Philadelphia. She is now a member of our congregational family.

Interesting Parish News Told Briefly: The Rector is often asked by people who attend Grace Church but belong to some other Episcopal church how to become members of this congregational family, rather than guests. The way is as follows: Write the Rector of your home parish telling him that you desire to be transferred to full communicant membership in Grace Church, Mt. Airy, asking him to make the transfer and inform Mr. Eder. He will attend to the details, and your new Rector will inform you of the transfer.

Our new Presiding Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Henry St. G. Tucker, of Virginia, will deliver his first message as head of the Church over a nation-wide hookup of the Columbia Broadcasting System, on Sunday, January 2, 1938, at 10 A. M. The broadcast will originate in Station WABC, New York City, and will be heard through more than fifty Columbia stations, covering most of the continent.

The Thanksgiving Offering for the Episcopal Hospital promises to be larger than usual. We say "promises," because envelopes marked "Thanksgiving Day" regularly come in months later. Which reminds us -are you seeing to it that your envelopes for 1937 are all in the Accounting Warden's hands and that your account is paid up by January 1?

Mr. Irwin is planning a Bible Class to be held at the regular Church School hour for parents of children in the school. He has secured a capable teacher and the class will begin very soon. Speak to him if you are interested in joining it.

The Fellowships, both Senior and Junior, plan to visit the Planetarium on January 2 to view the "Christmas Skies." Miss Oakley Von Nostrand will reserve a seat for you if you tell her soon that you intend to go along. On December 26th there will be a puppet rendition of "Why the Chimes Rang."

There were 79 men present on December 13 to hear the Rev. Alfred Smith. Judging by the fact that they asked questions for more than an hour after his talk, the men were deeply interested in his presentation. It was a worthwhile evening.

It isn't often that we mention money or ask for a special offering in Grace Church. Today is an exception. At the request of our Bishop we are today making an effort to raise a large sum of money for two purposes: viz. (1) China Relief: To send a sum of money to China to feed, clothe, and house our Christian brethren there, as well as care for our physicians, nurses, and missionaries in China who are bearing a staggering burden in relieving the wounded and caring for the afflicted. Most of us have a deep sympathy for our Chinese brethren—here is an opportunity to show our friendship. Bishop Taitt has promised $30,000 from the Diocese of Pennsylvania. (2) To provide Bishop Taitt with the $75,000 needed to clear the diocese of debt before our books close on January 15. This money has been spent to care for our missions in the diocese, to support the works of our chaplains in the various jails of Philadelphia, to pay for our part in the forward work of the general Church, and to provide for countless other good works our Church is engaged in. If the diocese is to end its fiscal year free of debt, all of us will have to give sacrificially and at once! With the whole-hearted consent of your vestry, all money taken in in Grace Church today will be sent at once to Bishop Taitt to help him out in this emergency. I beg of you—be generous!

On January 23 the patients at the House for Consumptives, Chestnut Hill, are to be dinner guests of our Woman's Auxiliary and Guild. Our women are giving thirty dollars to provide an extra-good dinner for the patients there on that Sunday. Expenses run high at the home, and patients pay but ten dollars a week for food, room, heat, nurses, medicine, and medical care. The best of milk and eggs is provided, but there is not much money for luxuries. So various individuals and groups are volunteering to provide one extra-good meal a week. Our date is January 23.

A most important meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will be held on the day after tomorrow, Tuesday, January 11, beginning with luncheon at 12.30. Luncheon will be followed by the Annual Meeting, with election of officers. All women of the Parish and their friends are invited to attend. Come!

On Monday evening of next week the Men's Club will have another meeting. Sound pictures will be shown. These meetings are growing so popular that men are calling the Rector up on the telephone to find out when the next one will be held. Set aside the night of January 17 now! Bring friends with you.

On December 28 the Rector read the Burial Office for Louisa H. MacIntosh, who died suddenly on Christmas Eve at her new home in North Aronimink. Mrs. MacIntosh formerly resided on West Gowen Avenue and had recently moved. Interment was made at West Laurel Hill.

In the Episcopal Church it is customary to instruct all candidates carefully in the meaning and ways of the Church before they are confirmed. The reason for this is obvious. It is also customary to invite others besides candidates for Confirmation to attend instructions, which are quite informal, with ample opportunity for questions and answers. In Grace Church we divide the group into two sections—one for younger members, the other for more mature persons. The Rector takes one group, Mr. Irwin, the younger. Both meet at the same hour. Inasmuch as the rite of Confirmation will be held on February 27, both classes begin this evening. If you are desirous of knowing more about what Episcopalians are, what they believe, and why, why not come this evening at 7 o'clock and spend an hour with us. You will be amply repaid. Attendance at instructions does not in any way obligate you to be confirmed—indeed, the clergy reserve the right of deciding at the end of the course who they will present for Confirmation. Don't forget, tonight, at 7 P. M., in the Green Room!

Extract from Sister Constance's Christmas letter concerning our missionary in China:

> "Dr. Janet Anderson from the Philippines came a few weeks ago to do Red Cross work. Her unit did not have a place when they arrived, so she came here to Wuhu. She is such a dear and so willing to do the work in spite of the handicap of the language! It is a marvel to see her getting on with gestures, and besides helping here, she operates at the Methodist Hospital, and does dressings, etc., at the base hospital, where wounded soldiers are cared for. She lives here with me, and I haven't the words to say how happy I am to have her here. She is a real answer to prayer, for all my friends up and down the river were worried about my being alone."

The Accounting Warden, Albert C. Brand, 301 East Durham Street (Phone: Chestnut Hill 1228), will, upon request, furnish subscription cards to all who desire to contribute to the maintenance of the church.

Dr. Anderson, missionary from Grace Church, now doing surgical work in China, wrote on December 9: "Just a late Christmas greeting: I will be thinking of the Christmas service and of you all. Haven't had mail for weeks, as we have no boats, radio, or telegraph. Sun still shines on all of it. The Japs are supposed to be in about tea-time today; then what? Will be better than these air raids, with the eggs coming hurtling out of the sky, ripping people to pieces. Am almost cured of surgery. Getting this on a gunboat in the hope it will be mailed upriver. Much love to you all.—JANET."

In a telegram received from the Hon. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State, he says: "Dr. Janet Anderson safe, Wuhu. Situation improved." This was on January 10.

The lovely flowers on the altar last Sunday were in memory of Mrs. Matilda K. Gray.

On the Second Sunday after Epiphany, January 16, the Rector and Mr. Irwin baptized Robert Fielding Raynor, son of Benjamin Raynor, Jr., and Edythe Fielding Raynor. Robert was born on November 2, 1937, in the Germantown Hospital. His godparents are Miss Janet Bates, Mr. Joseph Fielding, Sr., and Mr. Benjamin Raynor, Sr.

On January 17 the Rector read the Burial Office for Winfield S. Sheard, whose late residence was 7435 Germantown Avenue. Mr. Sheard died on January 14 and the interment was made at West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

At the Stated Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, held on January 11, Mrs. Francis Murphy was elected President and Mrs. William C. Burk, Treasurer.

The Young People's Fellowship is going to give a Dance at the Germantown Woman's Club on February 25, from 9 to 1. They have secured Roger Kent and his orchestra, and are charging $2.00 a couple.

The Men's Club, in co-operation with the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild and the Young People's Fellowships, is busy preparing for their big night on February 24. It has been our custom for several years to have some one outside the Parish prepare the dinner in order that our ladies may eat with us and be at leisure to enjoy the speaker. This they would be unable to do were they tired out and busy from providing the food. This year the ladies of one of our aided parishes are doing the catering and promise us a delicious Turkey dinner, with all that usually goes with such a dinner. The charge will be 75 cents, and the distribution of tickets is in the hands of our ladies. We are going to have a royal time, the speaker at the dinner being the Hon. Franklin S. Edmonds. Plan now to come and bring all the family!

Confirmation instructions are being given every Sunday evening in the Parish House at 7 o'clock. You are welcome to come, whether you are considering being confirmed, have been confirmed, or "just want to sit in and listen."

The special offering on January 9 for China relief and the diocesan deficit has now mounted to more than $350. This is a fine sum, and your Rector is truly grateful for your response to the appeal.

The girls of Mrs. Walton's and Mrs. Thompson's Church-School classes invite you to meet them in the Green Room of the Parish House on Sunday, January 30, at 4.15. There will be musical selections and a dialogue about China and our missions there, after which tea will be served. Silver offering.

This week we had formally transferred to us Mrs. E. R. (E. Josephine) Gamble, of Mount Pleasant and Chew Streets. Mrs. Gamble was formerly a communicant of St. Stephen's Church, Beverly, N. J.

Confirmation is Only One Week Off! On next Sunday morning, February 27, at eleven o'clock, the Right Reverend H. P. Almon Abbott, D.D., Bishop of Lexington, Kentucky, will come to Grace Church to administer the rite. It is physically impossible for our own Bishop to visit every parish in his diocese every year because there are not Sundays enough to go around. Therefore he calls in other bishops to assist him, and for several years has been fortunate in securing Bishop Abbott as one of them. As a result, Bishop Abbott has officiated in Grace Church at least three times and so is no stranger: he is as one of us. The class we are presenting to him is an unusually fine one, and the service will be very impressive and helpful. We want an unusually large congregation present for three reasons: (1) Because all who come will be stirred to greater devotion; (2) because we want our church family to be present to welcome the new members of their family, and (3) we want to let Bishop Abbott feel how glad we are to have him when we can't have our own Bishop. Let every member of the congregation come and bring his friends. Next Sunday morning, 11 A. M.!

Most of you have had a postcard notice of the Annual Parish Dinner on the evening of February 24th at 6.30 o'clock. The time limit for securing tickets is near at hand, and if you have not already secured yours, Mrs. William Hall, 7014 Crittenden Street, still has some. The cost is 75 cents a plate; the menu is good; no better or more helpful speaker could be heard than the Hon. Franklin Spencer Edmonds, and good fellowship will prevail. As you know, this dinner is a joint enterprise of the Men's Club, Woman's Guild, and Young People's Fellowships.

Last year 275 people enjoyed the evening together; this year we hope to have more than 300. The dinner is not given to make money—we do not make money on these dinners—it is an annual get-together of those who worship in Grace Church with their other friends, and we want You to be with us. Will you?

Social events seems to multiply as Lent draws near. On the night after our Annual Dinner the Young People's Fellowship will give their annual dance, at the Germantown Woman's Club, Germantown Avenue and Washington Lane. The Fellowship has secured an unusually good orchestra,—that of Roger Kent,—and are charging $2.00 a couple. Dancing will be from 9 until 1, and the Fellowship is expecting that many of the older members of the Parish will attend. Here is an opportunity to co-operate with our younger group and have a good time besides. Any member of the Fellowship will be glad to sell you your ticket or, if you prefer, you may secure it at the door. The important thing is to make up your mind now to Be Present. Friday, February 25, Germantown Woman's Club!

On Wednesday, February 23, at 8 o'clock in the evening, the Junior Choir of our Parish, under the direction of Mr. Newell Robinson, will give a demonstration of music suitable to be sung by junior choirs, together with a recital by our organist of organ music proper for use at the Church service. This Demonstration Service, under the direction of the Diocesan Commission on Music, is being widely advertised and will probably be well attended. Many of our own people should be present. We are proud of our Junior Choir—they do good work. We are anxious that all in the Parish be better acquainted with what they are doing. Wednesday, February 23, 8 P. M.

From the Parish Register:

On January 14, Elizabeth Bodine Porter (Mrs. William Hunter) Seyfert was transferred to us from St. John's Church, Montclair, N. J.

On January 15, Mr. Benjamin Franklin Pedrick was transferred to us from the Church of the Advocate, Philadelphia.

On January 28, Josephine K. (Mrs. John F.) Horrisberger was transferred to Grace Church from St. James' Church, Kingsessing, Philadelphia.

On January 25, the Rector read the Burial Office for Florence E. Cooke, who died on January 23. Interment was made in Monument Cemetery, Beverly, N. J.

On February 11 the Rector read the Burial Office for Harry Mariot Gwyn, who died at his late residence, 104 West Nippon Street, on February 7. Interment was made at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

On Septuagesima Sunday, February 13, the Rector baptized Linda Mills Coburn, born November 23, 1937, in Lancaster, Pa. Linda's parents are John Walton and Mildred Jackson Coburn. Her sponsors are Jessie Louise Coburn, (Mrs.) Emma Shaw, and John W. Coburn.

The Young People's Fellowship is having an unusually good meeting tonight. They are entertaining the other fellowships of this district, and have secured as their speaker the Rev. Mr. Stimson, Episcopal Student Chaplain at the University of Pennsylvania. All the young people of the Parish are invited to be present whether or not they are members of the Fellowship. The hour is eight o'clock. On next Sunday evening our Senior Fellowship is going to give a Biblical play on which they have been working for some time. This play is primarily for the young people, and, of course, there is no charge for admission. All young people of the Parish are invited to come. The hour again is eight o'clock.

We believe that we have at last solved the lighting problem in our church building. By taking out the old fixtures and substituting a new type of frosted cylindrical bulb, and by fastening these cylinders against reflectors, we have succeeded in erecting very beautiful lights which throw no glare into people's eyes, and at the same time make it possible to read the words of hymns and prayers without difficulty in the side aisles. The appearance of the new lights is pleasing; the added light makes the building seem wider, and we save 600 watts of electricity by the change!

Just a word about the Parish Dinner tomorrow evening in the Parish House at 6.30. The purpose of the dinner is fellowship and inspiration. At the dinner proper there will be no speeches; we are sitting down and eating together to renew acquaintances and dine with our family. Bishop Taitt says that all eating together smacks of something sacred, and many of us feel just the way that he feels, especially when we are dining with those who comprise our own Church family. Our fellowship in Christ lifts up the ordinary every-day practice of eating into something holy.

When the Men's Club was arranging the dinner, it was debated who was to prepare it and who was to do the serving. The conclusion arrived at was that, in order to make this a family affair and have every one sit down together, this year we would secure a caterer and have him not only provide the food, but in addition provide the men to serve it. Mr. Moody and Mr. Burk were selected to choose caterer and menu, and we believe that they have fulfilled their task well. The price of one dollar a plate is exactly what the meal and service cost. There will be no financial profit; necessary expenses will be paid for from the Men's Club treasury. We are very grateful to Mrs. William Hall for the efficient way in which, representing the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, she has taken care of the tickets.

At eight o'clock we will go into church to hear the anniversary number of the talking magazine, "The Lamp." Your Rector at first did not warm up to the idea of having this program in the church building, but on second thought, and after talking it over with the Vestry, he saw that it would be fitting to have this part of the anniversary in the church proper. So he consented. The program in church will be dignified, helpful, interesting, and consist of six articles, carefully prepared. Naturally, we want no hand-clapping, but, on the other hand, sufficient opportunity will be given for every one to have an active part in the program.

Some have asked the Rector whether they will be permitted to attend the Anniversary Celebration in church if they have not attended the dinner. The answer is, "Yes." Of course, we would like to have every one come and dine with us, but, on the other hand, if some cannot do so, they will be cordially welcomed at the eight o'clock program.

And now the plan is arranged; much work has been done by way of preparation. Let's all get into the mood of joyful thankfulness and prepare for an evening that we will all long remember with happy recollection and gratitude!

Call Mrs. Wm. M. Hall, Telephone CHE 1278, for tickets or reservations.

Some time ago in the PARISH NEWS the Rector announced that he was trying to arrange to cooperate with the diocesan plan to have a preaching mission in every congregation during the middle of Lent. He has been unable to secure the right man to conduct the mission, and rather than have an ill-prepared venture, or one which

The New Furnace has been installed and is working for us. Formerly we had two furnaces of five sections apiece; now we have one large furnace, with twelve sections, all in the same boiler. In addition, we have also installed an oil burner of large capacity, together with a fuel tank with room for fifteen hundred gallons of oil. Besides this, we have purchased and placed two thermostats, one in the Church proper and one in the Parish House. Taken all in all, we have one of the most modern heating plants in the city. But—the cost has risen above our first estimate of what it would be. We said, "two thousand dollars," but later the Fire Marshall came in and ordered the erection of a brick chamber to inclose furnace and burner. Of course, we are carrying out his orders; we want to do everything we can to protect our valuable church property. But the new room we are building adds materially to the cost of the new plant.

Meanwhile, our people are beginning to respond to our quiet appeal for financial aid. They feel, as your Vestry feels, that we must not go into debt, even for a major improvement such as this. It has always been the policy of your Vestry not to buy anything unless all the money to pay for it were in sight. However, in this case we just had to go ahead, and for the time being forget how we were going to secure the necessary funds to pay for what we were buying. We had to order the installation at once; there was no time to work out a way for raising the money, and then, at our leisure, go ahead in replacing the heating system. The emergency made immediate replacement necessary; our excellent credit rating made it possible.

And now the work is practically completed; all that we need to do is to pay for it. And you who read this can do your part right now by contributing what you can, right away. We want every member of the congregation to have a part in this endeavor. You will do your share, won't you?

Shrove Tuesday, the day before Ash Wednesday, for centuries has been celebrated with mirth and song, as a last gay day before the solemn observance of Lent. Shrove Tuesday is no longer observed generally because Lent itself is not observed so strictly by people in general as it once was. When we were planning over formal production of the "Dramateurs" for this season, it seemed very fitting that we should have it on Shrove Tuesday, and so we are going to give "The Youngest" on Tuesday evening of this week. A "write-up" of the play follows; do come!

On Tuesday, February 21, the "Dramateurs" will present, under the able direction of their new director, Mr. Harvey Corcoran, Phillip Barry's "The Youngest." The cast of this amusing comedy will include the following: Misses Beatrice Buchanan, Mary Jane Hall, Marjorie Hanna, Marjorie Amos, and Messrs. Heyward Stone, Addison Thomas, Robert Ward, Alfred Herschberg.

"The Youngest" promises to be very worth while and we're looking forward to a huge success. Don't YOU miss it! For tickets, contact any member of the "Dramateurs."

On Wednesday of this week we will begin the solemn season, Lent. There is no need to present a justification of this custom; centuries of Christian experience has proven its worth. See our daily Schedule of Services. There is a time for every one who cares to, to attend special services. In addition, every one should make up a special program of what he is going to do to observe Lent. Unless one has a plan, the season slips by without doing you any good. Make your plan now; don't undertake overmuch at the first; deepen your devotions as the season wears on, and a glorious Easter will be yours. Make your plan now!

On Good Friday last year we tried an experiment: instead of having the customary Three-Hour Service, with prayers and meditations and the Seven Words from the Cross, we used all the Good Friday services from the Book of Common Prayer and confined our meditations to a few, and not on the customary Words. Many of our people told us that the change was very helpful to them, and we ourselves were pleased with the change. This year, because we like to vary the types of services we offer our people, lest they become stereotyped and formal we are going back to the usual type of Three Hour Service, with preaching on the Seven Words from the Cross. And just as we were preparing this article for the press we had word from the Rev. Theodore O. Wedel that he would come on Good Friday and lead our devotions. Unless you know Mr. Wedel, you have no idea how fortunate we are in securing him for our leader. Until very recently he was Secretary for College Work of our whole Church in this country, and he did an excellent work, too. Now he has accepted an appointment to be Director of Studies at the College of Preachers in Washington, D. C., beginning his new duties in January. He is one of the outstanding young men of the Church, and the only way that we can show our gratitude for the blessing that we are to receive in his coming is to make sure that we shall be present on Good Friday ourselves and to go out as missionaries, bringing in men and women from far and wide to share the service with us. It would not be fair to such a man to give him a small handful of people for a congregation. Let us begin now to advertise the service among our friends!

Confirmation is different in the nearby diocese of New Jersey. A bishop is obliged by canon law to visit every congregation under his jurisdiction at least once every three years. The new Bishop of New Jersey, the Rt. Rev. Wallace Gardner, inspired by this law, has decided to make an official visit to the various congregations of his diocese only once in three years. He has planned this deliberately, because he desires to have the various congregations under his care realize that they are not isolated units, confining within their boundaries the whole religious interests of their people, but that, on the contrary, they are small outposts of a great Church, and that their strength is infinitely greater than the strength of the local parish. Each year, therefore, in arranging his confirmation schedule, he picks out a central parish in which the service is to be held and then bids two other nearby congregations bring their confirmation candidates and congregations to this central parish for a glorious, inspiring service for all three at the same time. The next year he selects another of the three to be the place of meeting, and on the third year, requires all to go to the third church for their confirmations. There was a little grumbling when the plan was first introduced, mainly because of local pride and because it had never before been done that way, but now, year by year, as great congregations mass together under the new plan, opposition is dissolving and the whole diocese is beginning to feel a solidarity it never experienced before.

Such a plan would not be feasible in our own diocese—certainly not in large suburban parishes such as ours is, for if it were attempted there would not be room enough to accommodate all the people who would come. Our Bishop visits congregations every other year, and in the intervening year calls in some outside bishop to aid him, the Rt. Rev. Charles Fiske, Retired Bishop of Central New York, being the man who is assisting our Diocesan at the present time.

Fortunately for us, this year is our year to have our own Bishop. We want to give him as large a congregation as he would have were he using the New Jersey plan. We want Grace Church packed to the doors on Sunday a week, the evening of March 5, at eight o'clock, when Bishop Taitt comes, not only for worship, but also to greet our own beloved Bishop and welcome the newly confirmed. I want every one who reads this to take this summons to attend to heart. Please make up your mind now that nothing will prevent your being present. I count on you.

And now—Lent! How are we going to invest it? There are so many ways to make it count as no Lent ever counted before. Services at the Locust Street Theatre; services at St. Stephen's Church and Christ's Church at noonday; great preachers every Thursday evening at the Church of the Holy Trinity, brought here by Bishop Taitt's committee, for the whole diocese; daily services in Grace Church; Sunday evening services in Grace Church, with choir and address; a choir on Saturday afternoons for brief, sung Evensong, a fifteen-minute organ recital preceding at 4.15—a service which promises to set the mood for Sundays; Wednesday evening services with choir and interesting addresses, etc. All these are good and deliberately planned to make you feel what other men have found out about God. But there is something even more to be desired, learning to know Him better one's self, by personal experience. Let us take for Lent the motto, "Be still and know that I am God"; at early communions, at our bedsides, at odd intervals during the day, let us shut out the world and listen." "Speak, Lord; for thy servant heareth." And we will then at Easter be able to rejoice as Job rejoiced, "I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear, but now I know." Be alone much, with God.

church. They are free.

In many congregations it is the usual custom for grown-ups as well as younger people to use mite boxes during Lent for saving up the money one acquires by denying one's self luxuries that we indulge in during other seasons of the year. Why can't we adopt this practice in Grace Church? Take a mite-box now (you will find them at the main doors of the church), use it diligently, and return it at Easter to be added to the Children's Lenten Offering!

Grace Church turned out in numbers last Sunday for the Confirmation Service. The Rector's goal has not yet been reached—that of having as many present at Confirmation as at Easter—but we are doing better each year, 431 being present last Sunday. And what a beautiful, impressive service it was! One could almost feel God's Holy Spirit descending upon the candidates. It will be a day long to be remembered. In order that you may know and welcome the new members of our family, we are printing below the names of the newly confirmed, with the hope that you will pray for them that they may continue God forever and daily increase in His Holy Spirit more and more until they come into His everlasting Kingdom. Their names:

Martin Amsler, Marjorie Louise Amos, Roland Graham, Lucy Eleanor Haines, Alan Heller, Ralph Heller, John B. Hesser, George Kingeter, Meredith Jones, Winifred Leighton, Mary Lees McKinney, C. Warren Ortlip, William Powell, Anne Rausch, Suzanne Ross, Mary Elizabeth Schurch, Alan Staats, Ina L. Ainsworth, Helen G. Broom, Mildred A. Bruen, Barbara Buckley, Naomi F. Caldwell, Anna L. Dill, William A. Dill, Emmett B. Dunn, John J. Forde, Florence W. Gerhardt, James D. Gerhardt, Katherine C. McCullen, Clara Lillian Peddrick, M. Aveline Pile, Ruth K. Ross, M. Gertrude Schott, William C. Wright.

At the early service last Sunday the Rector dedicated and blessed a lovely silver salver to be used on the Credence Table to hold wine and water cruets. On the obverse side are chased the letters I. H. S., and on the reverse side, "In Memory of Susan L. I. Darlington and Benedict Darlington, 1938." The memorial is a gift of their daughter, Helen.

On Sexagesima, February 20, after the eleven o'clock service, the Rector and Mr. Irwin baptized Barbara Coate Buckley, an adult whose witnesses were Verona Haines, Marion Buckley, Raymond Buckley, and Elton Buckley.

At the same service was baptized Helen G. Broom, whose witnesses were Mary Custis and Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Fell.

Also at the same service was baptized William Arthur Dill, Horace Fortescue and J. Howard Fell acting as witnesses.

Ann Leschey Dill was baptized at the same service. She was born on August 1, 1932, in Philadelphia, her parents being Anna Lenhart and William Arthur Dill; her godparents, Helen and Harriet Leschey, and her father, William Arthur Dill.

William Thomas Broom, born October 9, 1923, son of Thomas W. and Anne Thomas Broom, was baptized also on Sexagesima. His godparents are John T. Custis and Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Fell.

During the Lenten season the Fellowships meet at 7 P. M. instead of at 8 P. M., because of the Lenten Sunday evening services in church at 8 P. M.

We have had quite a late report that our Dr. Anderson, together with another woman missionary and two priests of our church, are safe in Wuish, China. Keep them in your prayers.

The daily prayer-books (The Forward Booklets) are to be had at the rear of the church. They are free.

There will be an all-day meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, with luncheon, at 12.30 on Thursday of this week.

The Accounting Warden desires to call to the attention of our contributors that March 27th will end the first quarter of the year 1938. He would appreciate it greatly if all subscriptions are paid up to date by that time.

Your Clergy are going to change the Good Friday three-hour service this year in Grace Church. Usually it has consisted of seven meditations on the words from the cross, with suitable prayers. This year we are going to use Prayer Book services, with Psalms, Lessons, Epistle and Gospel, and three sermons. The three hours of worship will be made up of three-hour services and we think will do much good.

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

There will be an all-day meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild on next Thursday.

Instead of the Mission Study class held one day each week during Lent, we are trying a different method this year—we are having an Institute Day, on Wednesday, March 23, commencing at 10 A. M., and lasting into the afternoon, with a luncheon, for which there will be no charge. Our leader will be Mrs. Frank Bonyng, and the subject of this year's study will be Rural Work.

Some of the women who helped prepare our Parish Dinner on February 24th and cleaned up afterward remarked that it was a joy to clean dishes and towels in Philadelphia "because the water is so soft and makes one's task so easy." To many, such a remark would seem like sarcasm, for, as a matter of fact, no water could be harder or more difficult to use than our local water. However, those women were not making derogatory remarks—our water in the Parish House is a joy to those who have occasion to use it. Thereby hangs a tale: Last year, when the confirmation classes were over and the newly confirmed had been absorbed into the congregational family, one of the members of the class came to your Rector and offered to install a water-softening system in the Parish House as a thank offering. It must be confessed that while your Rector had heard of such systems, he had never given them much thought. So he asked the engineer who was offering the system to explain, and learned that "hard" water is really hard because it contains many particles of hard mineral matter in solution; that it is injurious to one's health because it irritates the delicate membranes of the body; that it is not nearly so able to absorb fats as soft water, and therefore leaves unsightly marks on porcelain; and that beauty-parlors, laundries, high-class hotels, and many other public institutions regularly use water-softening systems for the utility and comfort of their patrons. With your vestry's permission, Mr. Apeldorn was invited to go ahead and install his system. He did. It has been in use since early summer, to the joy of the women who use the kitchen in the Parish House for cleansing dishes and towels, and to the delight of those of us who know about it and like our water with the carbolic-acid taste removed. We could not help thinking of Mr. Apeldorn's business when Mr. Edmonds was speaking to us at the Annual Dinner, for it seemed to us that, with air-conditioning and other new businesses, water-softening is a new industry which will help to take up the slack of unemployment when labor-saving devices and greater efficiency in the employment of machines already in use threaten to increase the number of unemployed. We are convinced that in a very short time the American public is going to become "water-softening" conscious. We hereby thank the donor in your name for his very much appreciated gift, and we know that the women from Hulmeville were not making fun of us when they remarked that it was a joy to cleanse dishes and towels in our kitchen "because the water is so soft and makes one's task so easy."

The noonday preachers at the Locust Street Theatre this week will be Bishop Gardner, of New Jersey, from Monday to Friday inclusive, and the Rev. Charles H. Urban, of St. Barnabas Church, West Philadelphia, on Saturday.

The Bible-play, "Saul and the Witch of Endor," was so well rendered several weeks ago that the Rector has requested Mr. Eiseman and the cast to repeat it on some Sunday night in Lent. They have consented, and it will probably be given again on April 3, which is the evening the Fellowships conduct the Lenten service in Church. Plan now to come.

Words of this morning's anthem:

"Ye that do your Master's will,
Meek in heart, be meeker still.
Day by day your sins confess,
Ye that walk in righteousness,
Gracious souls in grace abound
Seek the Lord whom ye have found.

"He that comforts all that mourn
Shall to joy your sorrow turn.
Joy to know your sins forgiven,
Joy to keep the way of Heaven.
Joy to win His welcome grace,
Joy to see Him face to face."

As Lent deepens we ought to be using the season in ever greater degree. There is one Lent privilege which all of us ought to prize more than we do, and that is the opportunity to receive the Holy Communion frequently. If this be the greatest blessing ever vouchsafed the soul, and the chief means of grace, surely no chance of coming often should be missed. Were we living far away from a church where the Holy Communion could be received, how we'd long for the opportunities being offered in places like Grace Church! Carefully prepared for, there is no act of worship which will be found more precious, fuller of spiritual comfort, more peaceful, more uplifting. Form the 7.30 A. M. Sunday habit. Try it this Lent and prove my words.

Instead of the Mission Study Class held one day each week during Lent, we are trying a different method this year—we are having an Institute Day, on Wednesday, March 23, commencing at 10 A. M., and lasting into the afternoon, with a luncheon, for which there will be no charge. Our leader will be Mrs. Frank Bonynge, and the subject of this year's study will be Rural Work. Kindly notify Mrs. Frank P. Brooke of your intention to have lunch with us.

Episcopal Day, in connection with the eleventh Educational Week for the Blind, will be Monday, March 21. Luncheon and tea will be served. Mrs. Frank Bonynge has asked for a number of women from Grace Church to assist with the selling. Please give your name to Mrs. Gawthrop and be sure to attend. You'll find it most interesting. On Thursday there will be a little box in the Green Room and later on the window-sill of Brown Room during lunch, for any donations. We have been in the habit of sending five dollars.

On April 7, at our all-day meeting, Mrs. John Loman will talk to us about Daily Vacation Bible Schools.

On Thursday, May 12, two days after the stated meeting, Mrs. John Lownes will give a card party at her home for the benefit of the treasury of the Woman's Auxiliary. Keep this date open, as we want a large crowd.

One of the especial concerns of the Church School during Lent is the Mite Box offering. It is one of the objectives of each class to endeavor to put across some project, representing service, sharing, and sacrifice, which will help to make our missionary offering one of which our clergy may be proud.

On Institute Day, March 23, two classes, Mrs. Thompson's and Mrs. Walton's, will have a sale of appetizers and good things to eat—and other surprises. Please come and buy. You will have an added joy not only in the eating of our good foods, but in knowing that you have helped to make our efforts fruitful. Date—Wednesday, March 23, all day.

The noon-day preachers in central Philadelphia this week are as follows: At the Locust Street Theatre, Dr. Joseph F. Newton, and on Saturday, Dr. Joiner; at Christ Church, Dr. Houghton (Monday and Tuesday), Bishop Sterrett (Wednesday and Thursday), the Rev. H. Montgomery (Friday) and the Rev. L. E. Fifer (Saturday); at St. Stephen's Church, Dr. Luke M. White (Monday to Friday inclusive) and Dr. John Hart (Saturday).

Dear Parishioner: I often wonder how many of our people really understand from what source are derived our "Communion Alms," also known as "Rector's Discretionary Fund." This fund is composed of the loose collections from all the services held on the first Sunday of each month. I am afraid that most of us—and I confess I am one—who put in only weekly envelopes never have the privilege of contributing to this fund, which permits Dr. Eder to do those many helpful acts of kindness and mercy about which no one ever hears.

By dropping something in the plate on the first Sunday of each month, in addition to our envelopes, we could all have a share in swelling this fund for the work of our Rector.

Faithfully yours,

ALBERT C. BRAND
Accounting Warden

There are several treats in store for you today:

● (a) At 6 o'clock this evening, a delicious supper will be served in the Parish House at 45 cents a person, the profits to be given to the Church School Lenten Offering. If you are coming and have not made a reservation, tell the Rector after the morning service.

● (b) The Evening Service tonight will be conducted by members of the Young People's Fellowship! The Reverend Albert F. Fischer, Jr., Rector of Grace Church, Hulmeville, will preach. We are glad to have him back home, and hope he will have a large congregation to welcome him.

● (c) After the evening service, a group of Young People will give a Bible play, "Saul," in the Parish House. This play is devotional in character, and fits in with the evening worship. It will do you good!

At a meeting of the vestry of Grace Church on Tuesday, March 8, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the means of access to the altar of the church are so restricted as to invite confusion, and

Whereas, it is important that the service of the Holy Communion be administered with due reverence,

Be it Resolved: That the congregation be requested to observe the following conventions:

1. That, in so far as possible, the aisles of the church shall be kept open in order to facilitate access to and egress from the communion table.

2. That communicants who are seated in the front portion of the church shall come to the table first; that they shall be followed by those in the middle sections, and they in turn by the communicants who are seated in the rear.

3. That communicants shall so time their approach to the altar that those who are standing while awaiting the service of the communion shall occupy the chancel only.

Resolved: That the rector be requested to publish these resolutions to the membership of the church and to urge cooperation in making the suggested procedures effective.

Office of the Presiding Bishop: The Foreign Missions Conference of North America, in which our church participates, asks the people of all communions to join on Passion Sunday, April 3, in prayer for the people of China and Japan, and for peace in the Far East. I trust that it may be practicable for you and your people to offer intercessions unitedly on Passion Sunday for the foregoing objects.

—HENRY ST. GEORGE TUCKER, Presiding Bishop.

On Thursday, April 7, there will be an all-day meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary. Our speaker at the luncheon will be Mrs. John Loman, who will talk about Daily Vacation Bible Schools.

On the day of our Stated Meeting, Tuesday, May 10, we will have a covered-dish luncheon. Mrs. Anderson will be in charge. Please tell her what you will be willing to bring.

The Auxiliary is planning to send a box of rummage to Milbank, S. D., as we did last year. All who heard Mrs. Gregory's letter of appreciation and thanks will be anxious to help these people with their work. So, please save your rummage when you are house cleaning and either send it to the Parish House (marked Milbank), or notify Mrs. Jenkins (Phone: Chestnut Hill 5864) that you have some and she will see that it is collected.

The Annual Election of officers of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese will be held on Tuesday, April 26, at Holy Trinity Parish House, followed by the Annual Luncheon at the Penn Athletic Club at 12.30. Tickets for this luncheon can be obtained from Mrs. Jenkins—$1.25.

The Auxiliary is selling Mazda electric bulbs at the same price one pays at retail stores, all profits going into the Auxiliary treasury. Order through Mrs. F. P. Brooke, 302 East Gowen Avenue. Phone: CHE 0724.

From the Parish Register: On Saturday, March 26, the Rector read the Burial Office for Wallace F. Martindale, who died on March 23. The interment was made at West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

Noon-day preachers this week: (1) At the Locust Street Theatre: All week, Bishop Woodcock, of Kentucky; (2) At St. Stephen's Church: Monday to Friday, the Rev. W. A. Roberts, of Monkton, Md.; Saturday, the Rev. W. B. Stabler, University of Pennsylvania; (3) At Christ Church: Monday and Tuesday, the Rev. John M. Groton, of the Philadelphia Divinity School; Wednesday to Friday, Dr. Sheerin, of Chattanooga; Saturday, the Rev. R. C. Hubbs, of St. Ambrose's, Philadelphia.

The Convocation Garden Party is to be held this year on Wednesday, June 1, in Mrs. George Woodward's lovely gardens.

Every Communicant is expected to make his communion on Easter Day!

If you were on Grace Church Vestry and were called on to help decide where we should send our Easter Offering, what would you suggest? There are so many good causes and so many pressing needs! As a matter of fact, your Vestry does have to make such a decision each year, and this year, as usual, it was unanimous in concluding that we should send our Easter Offering to the Episcopal Hospital for every-day expenses. The more your Rector learns about our hospital, the more he, too, is convinced that it merits our support to the limit of our giving power. Situated as it is, among a group of people whose depression started long before 1929,—a people industrious, self-respecting, and worthy,—our hospital provided a unique opportunity of witnessing to those fine people that "People Count," that "SOMEONE CARES"! Only last week a Kensington clergyman told your Rector of a member of his parish who has always been a steady, hard worker and generous churchman. This man, at the age of forty-four, is losing his home because he is unable to pay back taxes and accumulated penalties. He cannot obtain work because, although he is skilled and bears a good reputation among mill foremen, his firm and others that are engaged in the same line of business are moving South, where labor costs are lower and taxes are not so burdensome. His wife is very ill with cancer in our hospital. The man is almost crazy with anxiety and discouragement. The only bright spot in the situation is the fact that our hospital is ministering to his dying wife without charge and with loving care. Now, his plight is one that might be multiplied by hundreds. We said that his wife is being ministered to "without charge"; by that we mean without cost to him. But her care mounts up, whether or not he can pay for her. That is where you and I come in. The loose offerings that we put into the alms basins on Easter Day, and the gifts that we place in the special envelops, care for her and others like her. Could any cause pull harder on one's heart-strings? I know of none. In the midst of a community demoralized because of economic distress, where man's efforts at providing a bridge between food and workers has failed, our hospital stands as a symbol that the Church cares and is doing her part. And we may well be proud of it. Therefore, make your Easter Offering generous and sacrificial!

From the Parish Register:

On Thursday, March 31, at 7320 Bryan Street, the Rector read the Burial Office for (Mrs.) Mary Virginia Muzzey, who died on March 28, at her late home, Shepherdstown, W. Va. Interment was made at Laurel Hill Cemetery.

On March 31 the Rector received by letter of transfer from Epiphany Church, Carpenter, Phila., (Mrs.) Verona J. Haines. She is, therefore, now a communicant in good standing of this Parish.

Twenty-three hundred years ago there lived in Greece one of the greatest men that ever blessed the world. So wonderful were his ideas that ever since men have held them precious and many have based their own ideas of life on what he taught and said. Socrates lived four hundred years before the Lord Christ came into the world as man. Therefore it is all the more remarkable to realize that Socrates, by his reason alone, came to believe in many of the things that Jesus later revealed from God. Especially is this true concerning the hereafter. Just as the writer of the Twenty-third Psalm and other great religious leaders of the Old Testament thought through to much that Jesus later revealed to us about life after death, even so Socrates, in far-off Athens, also arrived at many of the same conclusions. Socrates, too, was condemned to death, and when he stood before his judges, in a brief and most memorable speech said to them that, while they had not so intended it, in reality they were doing him a great kindness. "For," said he, "if death is an endless sleep—as you suppose—then it will bring me relief from many trials and cares and crown a life which I am inclined to look back upon without regret. But I do not agree with you that death is an endless sleep. It is a new life in 'Hades' (the world beyond). I look forward to having an opportunity of conversing with Rhadamanthus and with the heroes and sages of all past ages." So convincing were Socrates' arguments for the happiness of life in the world beyond this one that one of his disciples committed suicide in order to enjoy it at once. Calm in his assurance of life after death, Socrates lived the thirty days that, under the unusual conditions of his sentence, he had to live, received his friends, conversed on high themes, refused all proposals made by his friends that would have enabled him to escape, and met death on the high plane of a serene confidence that all was well. If his life, teachings, and example mean much to men, how much more should be our assurance of Immortality, coming as it does from One who not only spoke persuasively, but added to argument and belief His own reappearance on Easter Day!

Several years ago, on Easter Day, one of our clergymen, standing in his pulpit, began his Easter sermon by saying: "How do you do, everybody; I am glad to see so many people here today that I have not seen since last Easter; although I did see some of you at Christmas time." Every clergyman feels what he felt that day, but the rest of us do not say it. If you are one of those who are regular church attendants,—attending "regularly" every Christmas and Easter,—we bid you welcome and invite you to come more frequently. We are glad to have you worship with us today, even though we haven't had the same privilege for a long time.

Today's Easter Offering will be sent to the Episcopal Hospital at Front Street and Lehigh Avenue. The only money that our hospital receives, other than what it obtains from legacies and patients' fees, comes from free-will offerings of congregations in this diocese. The diocese itself does not give the hospital a cent; neither does the State, city, or Community Fund. All that the hospital receives comes from the churches. Today's offerings, loose and what comes in the Easter envelopes, will be sent to our hospital to pay their very heavy everyday expenses. As the need is great, please be generous. Your Rector counts on you!

This afternoon, at 3.30, we will present in church our new Easter Pageant. It is the Easter story acted out, with lights and costumes, appropriate music, and words of Scripture. We give this pageant (in connection with the Church School Carol Service and Presentation of the Children's Lenten Mite-Box Offering) not as a spectacle, but as a worship project, hoping that in the reverent acting out of the Resurrection Story all of us will enter into it more deeply. Don't forget: this afternoon in Church, three-thirty o'clock!

Tomorrow afternoon, Easter Monday, from 4 to 6 o'clock, in the Parish House, we will hold our annual election of members of the Vestry. On Wednesday evening, at 8 P. M., the Vestry will meet for reorganization.

On April 8th, at 7207 Lincoln Drive, at 12.30 o'clock noon, the Rector united in Holy Matrimony Sedgwick D. Tourison and Elizabeth Martindale.

The women of the Auxiliary have decided to make a spring collection of garments, both old and new, some to be sent to our City Mission for use among the worthy poor in Philadelphia, some to be sent to Milbank, South Dakota. Mrs. E. W. Jenkins is in charge; her telephone number is CHE 5864.

The spring ingathering of the United Thank Offering is now being made, and already the blue envelopes are beginning to come in on the church alms basins. Is yours in yet?

Beginning this evening, the regular meetings of the Young People's Fellowship (seniors) will be held at eight o'clock instead of seven o'clock.

Daylight Saving Time begins today.

The Rector is presenting from week to week a series of notes written by one of our men. He commends them to your attention.

Missionary Note No. 1.

"YOU COULD NEVER GET HIM TO GO TO CHURCH"

But are you sure? The Church takes us where it finds us and helps us to grow spiritually. That friend of yours who never darkens the door of a church from one year's end to another—why not invite him to come with you?

He may be curious to see our service—most people are.

If people understood what the Church really stands for, more of them would come. It is not an organization of saints, but one of ordinary people who want to learn what life is all about and what they can do to make things better.

Talk Grace Church!

Some have asked for a copy of the prose poem the Rector used in his Easter sermon. Here it is:

I am standing upon the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean.

She is an object of beauty and strength, and I stand and watch her until at length she is only a ribbon of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other. Then some one at my side says:

"There! She's gone!"

Gone where? Gone from my sight—that is all.

She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side, and just as able to bear her load of living freight—to the place of destination.

Her diminished size is in me, not in her, and just at the moment when some one at my side says: "There! She's gone!" there are other voices ready to take up the glad shout: "There! She comes!"

And that is dying.

At the Easter Monday election Messrs. Holman D. White, Walter W. Sibson, and Stanley L. Thornton were elected to serve as Vestrymen for three years.

From the Parish Register: On Easter evening the Rector and Mr. Irwin baptized:

1. Marietta Renée Henry, born June 5, 1937, daughter of John Burton Henry and Marguerite Virginia (Pfaff) Henry. Her godparents are Robert W. Wolf and Marietta T. Wolf.

2. Gretchen Stansbury Parkinson, born October 25, 1934, daughter of Arthur B. S. and Ruth Louise (Stansbury) Parkinson. Her parents acted as godparents.

3. Phyllis Thornton, born February 14, 1938, daughter of Stanley L. and Bernice W. (Fooks) Thornton. Her godparents are Mrs. Oliver Thornton, Mrs. John C. Williams, and Robert MacDonald, Jr.

4. On Easter Day the Rector baptized Penelope Hill, born July 8, 1937, daughter of Frank P. Hill, Jr., and Nettie Louise (Brown) Hill. Her godparents are Elva M. Brown, Harry B. Brown, and Helen M. Thomson (Winifred H. Rossiter, proxy).

On Tuesday, April 12, the Rector read the Burial Office for Walter T. Taggart, whose late residence was 607 E. Phil-Ellena Street, and who died on April 9. Interment was at West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

On Thursday, April 14, the Rector read the Burial Office for Carrie E. Tomkinson, whose late residence was 6736 Sprague Street, and who died on April 11. Interment was at Northwood Cemetery.

On Wednesday in Holy Week the Rector accepted into full communicant membership in Grace Church Mrs. O. F. Pfizenmaier, of 166 West Durham Street. Her membership was formerly in the Church of the Holy Apostles, Philadelphia.

On Easter Monday, in Grace Church, at four o'clock in the afternoon, the Rector united in Holy Matrimony William Edgar Parker and Elisabeth Binney Roper.

The lovely flowers on the altar on Easter Day were in memory of Thomas Allsop, John Mackin, Harry Mariot Gwyn, Elizabeth Sheble, and Dr. and Mrs. Lovejoy. The lilies in the vestibule were in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. North.

Next week's Parish News will tell you in detail about the meeting of the Men's Club in the Parish House on Monday a week, May 2.

On Friday morning next, April 29, 1938, at St. James' Church, Twenty-Second and Walnut Streets, at 11 o'clock, the Mothers' Union of the Diocese of Pennsylvania plans to welcome Mrs. Woodward, one of the important officials of Sumner House, London, England, the Home of the Mothers' Union. We cordially invite you to be present, so that we shall have a good Diocesan representation. The service will be very simple, as we do not wish it to last more than one hour. Mrs. Woodward will tell us just what the Mothers' Union is doing in England and the world. As you probably know, there are now over 590,000 members who have pledged themselves to uphold the marriage vow; give Christian care and training to their children; and to continue in intercessory prayers for all the mothers of the world.

The Spring Presentation service of The United Thank Offering will be held in St. James' Church, Twenty-Second and Walnut Streets, on Thursday, May 5, at 10.30 A. M. I hope many of our members will be able to attend this service.

After consultation with numerous groups in the Diocese, and on the recommendation of the Department of Missions, the Church School Commission and the Bishop of the Diocese, it has been determined by the Department of Religious Education to have the Children's Lenten Offering presented at one central service this year. The service will be held in Holy Trinity Church on Sunday, May 15, at 4 o'clock.

We are planning to have the Rt. Rev. Goodrich Robert Fenner, Bishop-Coadjutor of the Diocese of Kansas, make the missionary address. You will recall that he is the author of "The Episcopal Church in Town and Country." We feel that he is especially fitted to present this subject in which we have all been interested this Lent. Let's have a large delegation present from Grace Church.

On the First Sunday after Easter, April 16, we baptized Edith Rebmann Ambler, daughter of Harry Conard Ambler and Edith R. Ambler, of 516 W. Ellett Street. The godparents were Helen R. Ingersoll, Elizabeth A. Boak, and Harry J. Robinhold, Jr. The baby was born in Philadelphia, September 22, 1938. On the same day we baptized Charles Moffett Whitehead, son of Walter Thomas Whitehead and Annetta Moffett Whitehead. Charles was born on November 22, 1938, resides at 402 Allen Lane, and his sponsors are Edythe Kilcup and Charles R. Moffett.

This week we had formally transferred to us from St. Alban's Church, Cleveland Heights, Ohio, Mrs. Beatrice Marrin Davies and her daughter, Miss Marjorie M. Davies. They are now communicants in good standing of Grace Church, Mt. Airy.

We made a mistake by giving you the wrong address of the Treasurer of the United Thank Offering in a recent issue of the Parish News. Her name is Mrs. Horace Fuller, and her address is 6834 Anderson Street. Blue envelopes may be sent direct to her or deposited in the alms basins at any service.

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

The Lenten Mite Boxes continue to come in, and we do not yet know how much our Lenten offering for missions amounts to. We have just had word that the offerings of all the church schools in the diocese will be presented at another wonderful service, such as was held last year. The service will be in Holy Trinity Church, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets, and it will be on the afternoon of Sunday, May 7, at 4 P. M. Last year our own Girls' Choir took part, and the great edifice was so filled that children were even seated on the kneeling cushions at the altar-rail and on the stairs leading up to the pulpit. It was a sight not soon to be forgotten, and all who attended enjoyed it much. We expect to take even more of our own Church School this year, and will soon be asking for transportation.

The following are the Committees of the Vestry for the coming year: Finance: Messrs. Fortescue, Brand, Greaves, and Fell. Buildings and Grounds: Messrs. Fell, Farnham, and Dorwarth. Choir: Messrs. Meehan, Sibson, and Wagner. Memorials: Messrs. Fortescue, Thornton, and White. Church School: Messrs. Thornton, White, and Wagner. Missionary: Messrs. Thornton, White, Wagner, and Burness.

A Spring Meeting of the Altar Guild of the Diocese will be held on Wednesday, April 26, in St. James's Church, Twenty-second and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia. Evensong will be sung at 7.30 P. M. The Rev. Dr. Frederick S. Seymour, Vicar of St. George's Church, Ardmore, will make an address. All the women of the Parish are invited; those who can attend are asked to notify Miss M. W. Bayard, 105 E. Johnson Street, by April 19. Refreshments will be served in the Churchwoman's Club after the service.

In the Palm Sunday issue of the PARISH NEWS we asked for flowers for the altar for Easter Day. Over twenty generous contributors responded to our appeal, and the altar was very lovely on the festival. Many of the flowers were "in memoriam," and we thank those who gave them and want them to know how much they did to help make our Easter enjoyable. We remembered by name those who were memorialized, and feel that somehow they know, too, that we were thinking of them.

On the eve of Diocesan Convention, May 1, there will be a service for all the people of the Diocese at 8.15 P. M. in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets, when our Bishop will read his Annual Address to the Convention of the Diocese. No ticket of admission is required.

On looking over our records your Rector discovered that the justices of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania granted us our charter (our corporate title being "Grace Church, Mt. Airy") on March 12, 1859. That makes our incorporation just eighty years old.

Religious affiliation of patients at our Home for Consumptives, as of April 1, 1939: Baptist, 9; Greek Orthodox, 3; Hebrew, 4; Lutheran, 6; Methodist, 11; Presbyterian, 11; Episcopal, 22; Reformed, 2; Roman Catholic, 58; United Brethren, 1.

The number of hospital days for the year 1938 was 33,612. In the Children's Department the number was 7,812.

Missionary Note No. 2

"YOU WOULD RATHER STAY AT HOME, BUT—"

Once each month deliberately leave your own fireside. Call on one of your neighbors and endeavor to interest him in our church.

You will be surprised what it will do for you, but, more important, what it will do for your neighbor and for Grace Church.

There is nothing so invigorating churchwise as a spontaneous expression of Christian friendliness.

~~Make a call~~ this week!

Call For Grace Church!

Next Monday night, May 2, the Men's Club will hold its final meeting of the year. The speaker will be Mr. R. A. N. Hillyer, Senior Career Vice Consul of Great Britain, who will speak on "The Chinese Soldier and His Characteristics." There will be refreshments. All the men of the Parish and their friends are cordially invited to be present.

The Reorganization Meeting of Grace Church Vestry was held on Wednesday evening, April 20, in the Parish House. Dr. Eder, the Rector, reappointed Horace Fortescue, Rector's Warden. Mr. Albert C. Brand was re-elected Accounting Warden, and Mr. John E. Greaves, Deputy Accounting Warden. The Rector announced the appointment of the following standing committees:

Finance: Messrs. Fortescue, White, Ball, Greaves, and Brand.
Buildings and Grounds: Messrs. Ball, Fell, and Farnham.
Choir: Messrs. Meehan, Sibson, and Wagner.
Memorials: Fortescue and Farnham.
Church School: Thornton, White, and Wagner.
Missionary: Thornton, White, Ball, and Wagner.

Mr. John E. Greaves was re-elected Registrar. Messrs. Brand, Greaves, and Wagner were elected delegates to the Diocesan Convention; Messrs. Meehan and Thornton were elected Alternate Delegates. Mr. Charles H. Voorhis was appointed Clerk to assist the Deputy Accounting Warden. Permission was given the Young People's Fellowship to add to the depth of the stage. On motion, duly seconded, the Secretary was instructed to write to Mr. N. Robinson and thank him for the excellent Easter music. He was also asked to write a letter of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. John Eiseman for their lovely Easter Pageant.

The children of the Episcopal Church each year during Lent save money and present it at Eastertide for missionary work. Our own Church School follows this good custom, many of our pupils earning the money they give; for example, one of our girls "minded" children on various evenings and put her pay in her Mite Box. Many classes unitedly "made money" for their class offering. As a result, even now, with all the returns not yet in, our Church School raised more this Lent than it has since 1930! Here is the total of our offerings:

1927	420.00	1933	223.89
1928	434.59	1934	264.62
1929	464.87	1935	275.17
1930	403.18	1936	292.96
1931	353.45	1937	366.42

1938.....$371.70 (not complete)

The Senior Group of the Young People's Fellowship held their annual elections last Sunday evening, with the following results: President, Albert Buchanan; Vice-President, Willet Brand; Treasurer, Alvin Powell; Corresponding Secretary, Dorit Wadley; Recording Secretary, Sarah Mary Onderkirk; Editors of "The Pratt," Roberta Raynor, William Sattler.

There will be a service tomorrow evening, May 2, for all the people of the Diocese, at 8.15 P. M., in the Church of The Holy Trinity, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets, when the Bishop will read the Annual Address to the Convention of the Diocese.

All members and friends of the Church Periodical Club are asked to make the first Sunday in May a day of remembrance. Will you not pray, especially at the celebrations of the Holy Communion today, that the members may have faith and perseverance, and the work of the Club be a means of bringing many into the Kingdom of God?

From the Parish Register:

On the Sunday after Easter, at three o'clock, in Grace Church, the Rector baptized Barbara Chisholm Borda, who was born in Abington, Pa., on July 10, 1932. Her father is George Dallas Borda; her mother, Dorothy K. Chisholm Borda. Her sponsors are Elizabeth Vandevere, Katharine K. Borda, and Andrews K. Borda.

Missionary Note No. 3

ARE YOU A PARASITE?

Are you the type of so-called churchgoer who takes all and gives nothing?

If your first thought was to answer this question by the money test, the church psychologists say, you are! But are you?

Here is one simple question for a "yes" or "no" on the whole subject:

Have you actually tried to influence one person unacquainted with all Grace Church has to offer to come to Grace Church for any purpose since January 1, 1938? If the answer is no, well, you are!

ACT FOR GRACE CHURCH!

In every congregation are many persons whose hearing is below normal. They are not deaf, any more than a person who has to wear glasses is blind. Most are sensitive and long suffering. They are deprived of much in life. (On the other hand, they are also spared much.) We have many in our own congregation whose hearing is below par. Some are irregular in church attendance because, when they do come, they can hear so little; others come regularly, even though they are unable to follow the Service with fellow-worshippers. Your Rector has long been mindful of them, and has come to the conclusion that we should wire the church with microphones on altar, pulpit, and prayer-desk, and a number of outlets in various pews in the church. The cost of a satisfactory system is surprisingly low when one considers how much one receives for the money expended. The Rector would like to know how you feel about installing such a system, and would be glad to receive donations toward putting it in if it is decided upon.

The day after tomorrow, Tuesday, is the day of the Stated Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild of Grace Church. Every woman in the Parish should be present! There will be a Covered Dish Luncheon at 12.30 noon, and the meeting will begin promptly at 2 o'clock.

A Dessert Bridge and Games will be held by the Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. John B. Lownes, 321 East Durham Street, on Thursday of this week (May 12th), at 1 o'clock noon. Tickets, 50 cents. Profits go into the Auxiliary treasury.

Porch Parties will start on Tuesday, May 17, the first one being held at the home of Mrs. Guy Apeldorn, 222 East Highland Avenue. Sewing will be done for the Episcopal Hospital. Light luncheon at noon. Proceeds will be used toward the purchase of kneeling cushions for the church.

Next Sunday afternoon is the time set for the Presentation of the Lenten Offering of the Church Schools of the Diocese. Grace Church has been honored by the committee in charge in that our Girls' Choir is to lead the procession and sit in the choir stalls. We would like to have parishioners who own cars provide transportation for our choir and others of the children who would like to attend but have no means of going or returning. The time is 4 P. M.; the place, Holy Trinity Church, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets; the service will last one hour. Tell the Rector at the end of Service that you will care for some of our children.

At the Vestry meeting on April 20 Mr. William F. Wagner was unanimously elected Secretary of the Vestry, succeeding himself.

Last week Mrs. May Pile, of 615 Vernon Road, was received by us as a Communicant in good standing. Formerly she was of the Church of England in Barbados, British West Indies.

On Friday, April 29, the Rector officiated at the funeral of the Rev. Charles Sydney Goodman, Vicar of St. John's Church, West Oak Lane. Interment was at Emmanuel Church Yard, Holmesburg, Philadelphia.

The Fellowship will present a three-act comedy, "The Only Girl in Sight," coached by Mr. John Eiseman, on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of this week (May 12, 13, 14), in the Parish House. Dancing will follow the performances. Tickets are 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Do come out and support our young people!

Often we urge you to be generous in your special offerings; quite often we have neglected to inform you of results. Lest this be so this year, here are some figures: Our Ash Wednesday Offering is for "Work among the Deaf"; Good Friday, for "City Mission"; Easter, for the Episcopal Hospital.

Ash Wednesday	$86.14	$65.71
Good Friday	68.12	109.74
Easter	386.25	534.02

Missionary Note No. 4

IS THE CHURCH DOOMED?

There is no hope for the Church of tomorrow if we neglect the Church School of today. We realize what a large percentage of boys and girls never attend Church School anywhere. This is what helps to make criminals and, even worse, men in prominent positions who are false to their trust. You who are reading these few words, how many children have you brought to our Church School?

There are right in your neighborhood children of your friends who are enrolled in no church school. There is no organized plan, no large quota demanded of you—we ask your constant voluntary cooperation. If you induce one family to send its children to Grace Church School during the year, you will have rendered a real service.

TALK GRACE CHURCH SCHOOL!

The Children's Lenten Offering for Missions has now grown to $377.91, a gain of $11.49 over last year! And that reminds us that we have so far had very few automobiles offered us for transporting our Church School pupils to the great Presentation Service at Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia, this afternoon. The time of service is 4 P. M.; the place, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets—the service will last an hour. How many are willing to take four or five young people and bring them back? Tell your Rector, now!

On the Third Sunday after Easter the Rector baptized Stuart William Longworth, born January 19, 1938, in Philadelphia, son of Stuart William and Augusta Hawkins Longworth. Stuart's godparents are Bertha Gleason Simons and Joseph Simons. His residence is 262 East Meehan Street.

Porch Parties begin the day after tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Guy Apeldorn, 222 East Highland Avenue. Come early! Light luncheon at noon. Sewing for the Episcopal Hospital!

A recent dispatch from China reads as follows: "Three hundred children died in one day in a Chinese refugee camp, too undernourished to resist a measles epidemic. In the mission compound at Wuhu, where they had seventeen foundlings to care for at last report, ten had previously died from measles and more would have died if Dr. Janet Anderson and her nurses had not been right on the job."

Bishop Goodrich R. Fenner will speak on Rural America at Holy Trinity Parish House, 217 South Twentieth Street, on May 16, at 8 P. M. This is the final meeting of the Mission Study Classes. An offering for the purchase of cars for the Diocese of Nevada will be received.

On Tuesday, May 10, in Grace Church, the Rector read the Burial Office for William W. Clarke, a communicant of this parish, whose late residence was 128 East Durham Street, who died on May 7. Interment was at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

The flowers on the altar today are in memo hel Marie (Mrs. Thomas) Hall, who entered into the World Beyond on October 21, 1937.

You are invited to enjoy Mrs. George Woodward's lovely gardens on June 11, from 3 P. M. to 7 P. M. Transportation will be provided from Allen's Lane and Germantown Avenue to her estate. Ladies of the Convocation will serve refreshments. The charge of admission is twenty-five cents.

THOSE MEN'S CLUB MEETINGS ARE USUALLY STUFFY AFFAIRS

But are they?

Let us answer it this way. Can you attract from 80 to 100 men to a stuffy evening affair month after month? And will the same men come back for more of the same? Absolutely not!

But we do get from 80 to 100 regularly. Why? Because they are enjoyable—a good program, a friendly chat, refreshments.

What an outlet for your missionary spirit!

Have you brought a friend to a meeting lately?

TALK MEN'S CLUB OF GRACE CHURCH!

The Rector is desirous that the Spring Festival to be given on June 5 will be "the best yet." Year after year these festivals are held and all who come have a good time. But enough do not come! Why shouldn't every member of the Parish attend? Nowhere else could one have as much enjoyment for so little expenditure. And every cent of profit is put in bank toward the cost of our new Parish House. This year the sponsors hope to clear $500, and there is no reason why they won't if every one co-operates by coming. Please!

The Young People's Fellowship (Seniors) is going visiting this evening, instead of meeting in the Parish House. They will leave from in front of Grace Church at half-past seven o'clock to meet with the group at Calvary Church, Manheim and Pulaski Streets, Germantown, at eight o'clock. The Rev. Dr. P. Haughton, Executive Secretary of the Diocese, is to be the speaker. There will be automobile room for all.

The Junior division of the Young People's Fellowship of Grace Church held its annual election on Sunday, May 8, with the following results: President, Margaret Morrison; Vice-President, James Haines; Corresponding Secretary, Margaret Oakman; Recording Secretary, Muriel Barton; Treasurer, Barbara Shallcross.

Mrs. Stout will be glad to sell you a ticket of admission to the Garden Party to be held at "Krisheim," the lovely estate of Dr. and Mrs. George Woodward, on Wednesday a week, June 1, from 3 to 7 P. M. Transportation will be provided from Allen Lane and Germantown Avenue to the Gardens. In case of rain, the party will be held in the Parish House of St. Martin-in-the Fields. Tickets cost twenty-five cents. The whole affair is being given by the Germantown Convocation of our church. Mrs. Woodward is hostess.

We were very pleased with the compliments paid our Girls' Choir for their singing at Holy Trinity Church last Sunday afternoon. Bishop Fenner called your Rector aside to ask what choir it was, and when he learned it was of Grace Church, he said that it was the most inspiring Junior Choir he had ever heard. And they enjoyed the service, too! There were about 3,000 present, our own Church School being numerically well represented. The whole amount raised by the Church Schools of the Diocese this Lent was more than $42,000—a slight advance on what was given last year. Holy Apostles headed the list, with $3,200; its chapel, the Mediator, was a close second with $3,007; our own final offering is $381.16, and while we are pleased that we did better than we did last year, we are going to aim at $500 in 1939. The Rector was fearful lest he would have difficulty getting our young people to the service, but about fifteen volunteers came with their automobiles and there was room enough and to spare. He might have known that you would not fail. To the ones who responded to the appeal for cars—much thanks!

For many years we have been giving our Easter and Thanksgiving offerings to the Episcopal Hospital. In addition, for several years our Woman's Auxiliary and Guild has been doing much sewing for the institution. Some of our people have been patients in the hospital, but the majority of the people in Grace Church have never been near it! Now, that should not be. We believe that the more you know about the Episcopal Hospital, the more you will care for it. So—attend the annual May Fête to be held there on Wednesday of this week, May 25, from 12 o'clock noon to 9 P. M. Lunch and supper will be served at moderate prices. There will be a sale of farm produce, cake, candy, etc., and an exhibition of flower arrangements, but, above all, there will be an opportunity to look around and know your hospital. The place is Front Street and Lehigh Avenue; the date is Wednesday, May 25.

Our Church School will hold its annual Commencement on Sunday, June 5, at half-past three o'clock in the afternoon. It is always inspiring and gratifying to discover afresh the good work your own Church School is doing. We will be looking for you.

On May 16, at her late residence, 709 West Mt. Airy Avenue, the Rector read the Burial Office for Mrs. James (Mary J.) Taylor, a communicant of this Parish for many years. Mrs. Taylor died on May 13, and her body was interred at Laurel Hill Cemetery.

On the same day he read the Burial Service for Mrs. T. Fernley (Ida M.) Brooks, who died in Florida on May 11. Interment was at Ivy Hill.

"It has been a mystery to know where Sister Constance (with whom our Dr. Janet Anderson is working) has been finding space for the number of refugees who have been sheltered on St. Lioba's not remarkably spacious compound in Wuhu, China. Finally someone saw a copy of the list showing where they were disposed. It read: bathhouse, 28 persons; laundry, 21; dining-room, 45; chicken-house, 6, etc."

Miss Bessie Sims, normally of Nanking and now refugeeing in Shanghai, has had a first-hand report of her house in Nanking since the Japanese occupation. She writes:

"My house is unlivable at present, for it has been looted of everything valuable and easily portable. All the bedding, linen, chinaware and winter clothing, all gone, and the mattresses and sewing-machine.

"And if looting and burning were the worst things, it would not be so bad. The plight of the people is heartrending, and the problem of the unwanted little babies is looming large at present. It is difficult to make these mothers realize that all life is from God, and that the babies, regardless of the fact that their fathers are Japanese soldiers, are not responsible for the wrong and should not be made to bear the blame. I am afraid that many, many, of the innocent little things will be destroyed or abandoned. I wish I could establish a home for them where they might grow into Christian men and women.

"Even though I cannot get back to my beloved work in Nanking, I am finding myself occupied in Shanghai. I work three days and Sunday afternoons in a refugee camp, and one day in the wards at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, have charge of the foreign Sunday school at St. John's, and am compiling another teachers' manual for our diocesan religious education committee, and I do odd jobs for the Bishop. Bishop Roberts is the busiest man I have ever seen in my life. I hope he will be able to stand up under the burden.

"Recently I said to some friends that if ever I get back to Nanking, not even bombs will make me leave, and some one said, 'But the Bishop's word would make you leave.'

Christmas Day

6.00 A. M.—Holy Communion
7.30 A. M.—Holy Communion
11.00 A. M.—Morning Prayer and Sermon

Christmas Eve Services: These begin at eleven o'clock in the evening, and consist of special music and a reenactment of the Pageant of the Nativity, slightly changed from the way it was given at the Children's Service in the afternoon. If you attend and allow yourself to enter into the spirit of this service, you will find that it serves as a splendid preparation for the midnight service which immediately follows and is the outstanding service of the Holy Day.

The Midnight Service: This consists of a solemn celebration of the Holy Communion, with suitable musical accompaniment and a five-minute address by the Rector. The Church is usually crowded for this service, and that is as it should be, for there could be no worthier beginning of the Holy Day than a sacrificial remembrance of Him whose birthday it is, at the one service that He Himself instituted. In some circles there is open criticism of midnight services, because it is said that those who come at this midnight hour are worn out by worldly duties, in no mood for worship, and only come at midnight because of the novelty of the hour or to get Christmas attendance at Church over with, etc. We have little patience with such criticism, and the answer is obvious: a misuse of a holy thing is possible; one can pervert anything, and one can come to the midnight service carelessly and unworthily, but, on the other hand, one can come as prepared in spirit and just as receptive and worthy at midnight as one could come at five o'clock in the morning or at any other hour. I mention this criticism in order that we who enjoy the midnight service may be particularly on our guard against careless participation, not only for our own sakes but also for the good of others who judge the service by our way of taking part. Our people are to be trusted.

On Christmas Day, at 6 and 7.30 A. M.: There will be the usual services of Holy Communion at these hours, thereby affording an opportunity for those who cannot come at midnight or who prefer to make their communions at the morning hours, to worship the infant Jesus.

On Christmas Day at 11.00 o'clock in the Morning: There will be a service of Morning Prayer, with full choir and sermon. This service is an innovation, and we are having it this year because Christmas Day falls on Sunday and we do not like to have a Sunday pass without holding our regular eleven o'clock in the morning service.

The Christmas Offering will be used, this year, to defray the cost of parish maintenance. The stained glass in the church has been repaired, at a cost of $250. The roof has been made water-tight, at a cost of $750. As a result, we need a generous Christmas Offering to meet these heavy obligations.

Christmas Services: Christmas at Grace Church begins with a Church School Carol service at four o'clock next Saturday afternoon. So well does this service serve to bring out the true spirit of Christmas that people come from long distances every year to receive the lift that this service imparts. We need such a lift. The keeping of Jesus' birthday has become so commercialized of late years that one need not be old-fashioned or pessimistic in temperament to long for the good old days when the members of a congregation went into the woods, gathered laurels and strung their own Christmas greens for their church building; when families threaded their own popcorn as decorations for the Christmas tree; when presents were few and simple, and the birthday of Jesus was made the theme of the feast. It was Christ Mass, not Xmas. Well, we cannot change back to or recover the old days, at once. But we can do something: as Christians we can endeavor to recapture some of the awe, wonder, and gratitude that the keeping of the day was designed to give. And there is no better way to bring into the front part of our minds the fact that the Living God, the Very Lord of Heaven, was born on Christmas Day in human flesh, than by beginning our intensive observance of Christmas at the Carol Service on Christmas Eve. Grand old carols will be sung, there will be a beautiful, lighted Christmas tree, emblematic of the light and hope that the coming of Jesus brought and still brings to a weary, disspirited world, and again there will be a dignified, reverent pageant, a representation of the Christmas story, accompanied by words from the Gospels. The Church School will be present, and each child is asked to bring a Christmas present for Jesus, which we will send in His name after the service to some poor children in other parts of the city. Adults may also bring Christmas presents for needy children, and if they do, they are requested to mark on the outside of the package whether it is a gift for a boy or a girl, and what age child the present is designed to please. Remember the hour: Saturday next, four o'clock in the afternoon.

Christmas among the Worthy Poor of Our Parish: Our Social Service Committee at Christmas time sends out baskets of food to our own needy ones. They are going to keep up their good work this Christmas. If you want to share in their work and can afford to do so, you may help in various ways: (1) By placing imperishable foods, such as canned goods, tea, coffee, flour, sugar, etc., in the barrel which is in the vestibule of the church building, or (2) by sending Mrs. Frank Sheble, 311 Roumfort Road, money with which her committee may purchase necessities of life, or (3) secure from Mrs. Sheble the name of some worthy family and have your grocer deliver your food gift directly to them. Our Young People's Fellowships also make much of Christmas giving to the poor, providing Christmas baskets of food for poor people outside the parish who have been looked into and found needy.

And so we leave our Christmas schedule before you. All has been done by way of preparation that can be done. The rest is up to you. The Great Feast is at hand. Use it as though you were convinced that never again would you have such opportunities of worship. May God grant to each of you a holy, joyous Christmas!

No one knows the exact year when our Lord was born, although scholars are generally agreed that it was about 6 B. C. Likewise, no one knows the exact day of Jesus' birth, His birthday not being considered nearly so important by early Christians as His baptism day, which they celebrated on the sixth of January. "Epiphany," the anniversary of His baptism, was kept as a fixed holy day as early as the later part of the second century. The first known reference to December 25 as the birthday of our Lord occurs in a Latin work dating from 354 A. D., and shortly after, at about 400 A. D., the Emperor Honorarius speaks of the date as being kept in Rome as a "new Festival." It was legalized as the official day on which to commemorate the Lord Jesus' birth in 534, and has been so kept by European Christians ever since.

According to an ancient Syrian church father, the reason why the fathers transferred the celebration of Jesus' birthday from January 6 was that it was a custom among the heathen to celebrate on December 25 the birthday of the sun. Accordingly, when the doctors of the Church perceived that Christians had a liking for this festival, they resolved that the true nativity should be commemorated on the same day. Therefore it became the Church's obvious duty to give Christian significance to an ancient pagan rite.

The Eastern churches of Syria and Armenia at first were horrified by the keeping of the pagan date, and they severally accused the Western church of sun-worship and idolatry, apparently forgetting that their own choice of January 6 was itself originally the pagan feast of Dionysius and Osiris. Augustine urged his fellow Christians "not to regard the new date as sacred because of its connection with the sun, but on account of Him who made the sun."

Northern Europe made of it a joyful holiday because it signified that the sun had turned in its course northward. Southern races did not celebrate it as merrily, as they felt less the need of the sun's returning. The Venerable Bede, in the eighth century, commented on how the English were accustomed to speak of December 24 and 25 as "Mother's Night." Later, England identified Christmas with joyous but pagan "Yule" festivities or "jollifications." They kindled fires, which have survived in the burning of the Yule Log and in the placing of lighted candles upon our Christmas trees. The Christmas tree itself, however, is thought by some to have been derived from the tree hung with toys mentioned by Virgil as a feature of the Saturnalia—a great Roman festival celebrated on December 17, but this feast has always been regarded by scholars as quite separate from Christmas.

Historically, therefore, though our Christmas as now celebrated on December 25 was never in early times thought of as the exact anniversary of our Lord's birth, but as the birthday of the sun, yet the Church has filled this old pagan date with new significance, so that the new faith, though shut up in the same old pagan alphabet, has coined, as it were, a new vocabulary with which to express Christian verities.

We said in last week's issue of the PARISH NEWS that the Christmas Offering this year would be used toward defraying the cost of certain unusual and expen-

Christmas: Services were unusually inspiring and well attended, people coming from far and near to worship with us. At the afternoon Carol Service 436 were present; at 11 P. M., 518; at 6.00 A. M., 17; at 7.30 A. M., 58; and at 11.00 A. M., 173! These figures represent almost double those of a year ago. An innovation this year was having two casts for the Pageant, the younger group appearing at the afternoon service. All was reverently and worshipfully done. Another innovation was the illumination of the exterior of the church building. Shortly before the holidays several men of the Parish offered to illuminate the exterior of our church at no cost to the congregation. We accepted their offer, and as a result of their good taste Grace Church was a silent sermon, night after night, to the throngs of motorists passing our doors. The blue color, splashed on the stones of the building by means of giant reflectors, gave the church an ethereal appearance, resembling a fairy palace suspended in air. Strangers called us on the telephone to thank us for the beauty of the effect. The ministry of music was also notable during the season: and the beauty of this ministry was that one felt that everything that was sung or played was offered up to God as a tribute of love. Truly it was a holy Christmas!

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

The New Year: Promises to be one of the most active in our history. Yet we must beware lest the very appearance of success itself be a snare, for it is paradoxically true that the failure of success lies in the fact that it seems so successful. We cannot afford to sit idly by and expect our spiritual lives or church organizations to move forward automatically. We must plan our work and work our plan. This applies to all organizations, whether they be Men's Club, Woman's Auxiliary, Boy Scouts, Young People's Fellowship, or any other group. Unless we see to it that the average is raised, we shall fall below the average. No group can afford to rest upon its laurels. Let us plan and work together to make this year's average average higher than the average! Spiritually, especially, we must go ahead. To that end the Diocese is planning to have a week's preaching mission in every congregation throughout the Diocese during Lent. We are going to have such a mission in Grace Church, beginning on Passion Sunday. Begin now to pray for the success of this endeavor. Another important announcement is that we are going to hold our annual Confirmation Service on March 5. As you know, Bishop Taitt is able to visit each parish only in alternate years; this year it is our turn to have him. At first we were scheduled to have Confirmation on a mid-week evening, but we have been able to have that changed so as to have him come on Sunday evening. March 5 is not so far away as it sounds; therefore we are going to begin Confirmation instructions next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. As usual, the Reverend Mr. Irwin will prepare the younger group and the Rector will prepare the others. Any one interested is invited to attend the older group. Some years ago, while your Rector was conducting a mission in Troy, N. Y., it was brought out that when a clergyman announces that "on such and such a day the Bishop of the Diocese is coming to administer Confirmation," many people say to themselves, "I wonder how many he is going to have confirmed this year," whereas they should be asking themselves, "I wonder how many souls I can bring to the Lord Christ through Confirmation this time." The first purpose of the Church is to make disciples, but often we twist this and come to believe that the first purpose of the Church is to nurture and care for those who already have found God in Christ. "Go," said the Lord, "make disciples." That is our commission; unless we take the command to heart, we are slackers. So—between now and March 5 especially, let every one try to bring others to God through His Church.

The Financial Outlook: Not so good! We have not completed our canvass, but can foresee that we are considerably behind last year. During the year just closed we lost to the World Beyond a number of fine people who were not only generous, but also able to give large amounts. We miss their gifts much, for usually it takes many new subscribers to make up for one such. Although we have enrolled many new givers, the slack has not been taken up by several thousands of dollars. "Are we worried?" No, for we are convinced that if we continue as a parish serving as best we can, somehow, in a way now unforeseen, our financial needs will be taken care of. Meanwhile, in case this message reaches one who has not yet sent in his expectation of what he hopes to give during the year, let him immediately write to Mr. Albert C. Brand, 301 E. Durham Street, telling how much we can count on.

Specific Notes: The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will hold its Stated Meeting on Tuesday of this week, after having luncheon together at 12.30. All women in the Parish are invited to be there. Mr. Robinson, Choirmaster, needs more boys' voices, preferring younger boys from the immediate neighborhood. If you know any likely candidate, let us know. The choir will broadcast over station WFIL on January 18. A Blessed New Year to all!

The Men's Club: The December meeting, at which the Reverend Robert Frazier spoke intimately of his life among the Sioux Indians of South Dakota, set a high goal. The talk, coming as it did from so good an authority, and so full of human interest stories, held us spellbound, leaving us really sorry when he ended. Indeed, numbers of the men encircled him afterward and spent a long time asking him questions and exchanging views. Those who were present had a "grand" time. But—that is just the catch—"those who were present" were not nearly so many as usual. Perhaps it was the fog, followed by the heavy rain, that diminished our usual crowd. It may have been the lack of "working up the meeting" by personal solicitation that brought the attendance down to only a few more than half a hundred. It may have been a combination of several other factors that made some of us a bit depressed because there were not more there to hear so fine a talk. But the fact remains that the meeting was very poorly attended, even though those who did come out were amply repaid for the discomfort in going to and from the meeting. It was an evening well worth while.

Now, tomorrow evening, we are going to hold another meeting of the Club and we are anxious not to have the attendance slump again. The program arranged is fine: motion pictures of the hurricane that swept through thickly populated New England a few months ago, and how the telegraph and telephone company rushed in its best brains and equipment to restore, as soon as possible, a suffering people to normalcy. Your Rector was in the hurricane, and knows how thrilling the story is. Those who come tomorrow evening will be thrilled by the visual enactment of man fighting against nature in her ugliest mood. "Those who come" will. And we want "those who come" to be many—in number. You will do your share in making the evening a great success by—(1) coming yourself; (2) "talking the meeting up"; and (3) bringing a friend along to share your good time with you. Remember: Parish House; Men's Club; Tomorrow Evening, 8 P. M. Come!

The Dramateurs: Last summer some live-wire members of the Parish conceived the idea of drawing a large group of our people into an organization which they named "The Dramateurs." The purpose of the association was to tie up every member of the congregation and their friends, who cared to come in, into a group for the giving of plays and pageants. It was obvious to them, of course, that not every one can act on the stage or direct a play, but it was just as apparent that, in addition to the hidden talent yet unearthed, there were many who could design sets, create costumes, work on stage lighting, carpentry, help in "make up," care for the business end of productions, or do some or other of the thousand and one things that enter into the successful production of good, clean plays.

That organization was begun in the autumn and has done a good job. The group meets once a month for a "get together" and for talking it over. The last "get together" set a high mark, consisting as it did of a description and singing of unusual and not so well-known Christmas carols. There will be another meeting of this character for members and their guests soon, and a more formal play given before Lent. Don't YOU want to come in with us and enjoy the fellowship and fun we are having? We take in people of all ages, for we need them. Speak to Mr. or Mrs. Eiseman, Miss Preston, Mrs. Walton, or to the Rector if you are interested.

Confirmation: Tonight we will begin our instructions for Confirmation, meeting at seven o'clock in the Parish House and dividing into two groups: older and younger. All are invited to attend the older group, whether they have been confirmed, are "thinking of being confirmed," or "just want to come." There will, of course, be no high-pressure methods used to try to force those who attend to become members of the class; indeed, the clergy reserve to themselves the right to decide whom they will present for the rite. There is then no obligation in coming, and all are welcome. The service of Confirmation itself will be held on the evening of Sunday, March 5, our own Bishop, the Rt. Reverend Francis M. Taitt, being the administrator. We hope that there will be many confirmed, for there are many in the congregation who ought now to decide to stand out for God in these troublous times. Never were earnest Christians needed more than they are today. But whether there be many or few in the class that we present to Bishop Taitt, we hope that many will come out from Sunday evening to Sunday evening to talk over the meaning of the rite and of the Church that administers it. You will be welcome!

"The Lamp": Several years ago, under the direction of a very competent editorial staff, from month to month we put out an issue of a talking magazine which we called "The Lamp." It was a success, and many of us learned more via this method of painless education than we could learn in so short a time in any other way. Besides, we always had a good time when we attended the issuing of the magazine. In process of time, the magazine suspended publication for the time being because we thought it wise to spare the editors so much effort and because we also feel that we need changes of programs in our parish planning. For more than two years there has been no issue of "The Lamp."

While we were thinking about this, it came to us that although the cornerstone of our present church building was laid in 1888, as a matter of fact services were not held in it until 1889, just fifty years ago. That makes 1939 actually the fiftieth anniversary of using our present beautiful church. Then we asked ourselves how we could fittingly commemorate that fact, and the idea arose, "Why not tie up the annual Men's Club Dinner of February with the Fiftieth Anniversary of the use of our Church, and why not mark the occasion by issuing a special edition, an anniversary edition, of "The Lamp"? We consulted the Editor-in-chief, the Men's Club, and the Vestry, and all thought that it was a grand idea. Therefore, in February, on a date to be announced later, there will be held the annual Men's Dinner of Grace Church, having for its special purpose the keeping of our Fiftieth Anniversary. After the fellowship and joy of dining together we will go down into Church and listen to the Fiftieth Anniversary special edition of "The Lamp." The issue will be strictly timed and will last just one hour.

Woman's Auxiliary and Guild: At the annual stated meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, held on Tuesday afternoon, January 10, Mrs. Thomas Anderson was elected Vice-President; Mrs. Carl Lundelius, Recording Secretary, and Mrs. Horace Fortescue, Corresponding Secretary.

Parish Envelopes: If any one is desirous of giving regularly to God through His Church, envelopes may be secured by getting in touch with Mr. A. C. Brand, 301 East Durham Street.

Bishop Taitt will be with us to administer the rite of Confirmation on the evening of March 5. This is of significance not only to those who are to be confirmed and to their friends, but also to the whole congregation. For our Bishop will come to us to confirm and speak to his flock. He comes not only to confirm, but to speak to us as our Chief Pastor. Have you ever considered how much it would mean to the newly confirmed if all the church family were present to greet and welcome them after they had been received by confirmation? Arrange now to be present! Meanwhile, Confirmation Instructions are being given every Sunday evening at seven o'clock. It is not yet too late to make a decision to come into the class and openly ally oneself on the side of God and His righteousness. Come!

Boy Scouts: Years ago, Grace Church had one of the finest Boy Scout troops in Philadelphia. Under the leadership of Mr. Robert MacDonald it made a name for itself and did a really worthwhile job in producing the fine type of character that the Scout movement aims to inculcate. But as time wore on, the boys grew into young manhood and began to go away to college or business and a new group came in under new leadership. For a while the troop went on, but finally went out of existence. For some years we had no Scouts, but by and by the boys began to ask for a troop, and the Rector looked about to secure good leadership, his idea being that the troop's success or failure depends to a great degree on the kind of leadership given it by the Scout Master. After several years the right man was found, and early last autumn the troop began to reorganize. We know now that our choice was wise, for the new troop is advancing rapidly, having received its charter (No. 318) several months ago, and most of the boys are taking test after test and passing. Mr. Joseph Van Dusen is Scout Master; Messrs. William Klopp and Howard Algeo are Senior Assistants, and Mr. Hubert Klopp is Junior Assistant.

On March 15 the troop is planning a "Father and Son Dinner," with the presentation of a troop flag by Mr. and Mrs. Betz, and a talk on the history of the American Flag by Mrs. H. H. Burrell.

The chief handicap that the troop has had has been that there is no special room which they could use for their very own. So the Troop Committee decided to build one for them, and with the consent of the Vestry are now cementing, paneling, and ceiling the room in the basement of the church tower. This committee has been outstanding in its interest and care for the troop, meeting frequently and giving much time and thought to its organization and welfare. It consists of Mr. Caldwell, Chairman; Messrs. Van Dusen, Burrell, Dill, Hunter, Betz, and the Rector. Troop meetings are held on Wednesday evenings at 7.30.

A cast from "The Dramateurs" are meeting almost nightly, busily rehearsing for their next play, "The Youngest," which they purpose giving on Tuesday evening, February 21. We are told that the play is brimful of fun and will fittingly be given on Shrove Tuesday, ending the festal season preceding Lent.

A Parish Calendar has been prepared by Mrs. Edward L. Hunter, which is attached to the Bulletin Board in the Green Room and contains a schedule of meetings, special events, etc., in our Parish life. In the past there have been embarrassing conflicts of dates, and it is hoped that under the new arrangement, before an organization schedules any special event, it will consult the calendar, and if the date is free, make an entry of what is purposed and inform Mrs. Hunter. We hope to have a two-month schedule arranged, covering the current and coming month.

A Letter from the Accounting Warden:

We have just about completed our Every Member Canvass, and while we have tried to reach all our parishioners, some may have been missed.

If any have been overlooked, the ushers will be glad to furnish them with subscription cards. Procure one and send it to me and I will see that envelopes are forwarded at once.

ALBERT C. BRAND, Accounting Warden,
301 E. Durham St., Mt. Airy.

Confirmation: The Diocese of Pennsylvania is not coterminous with the State of Pennsylvania. Bishop White, the first bishop having jurisdiction in this area, did include within his diocese all the State in which we live and much additional territory besides. But as population increased, one by one people dwelling in other areas of the State than Philadelphia, finding themselves in need of more Episcopal supervision and care, and being adventurous enough to believe that they could find the man power and the money to maintain their own diocese, duly petitioned General Convention for permission to set up new ecclesiastic subdivisions and one by one were granted that permission. As each new diocese came into being, it chose its own name, usually that of the chief city within its area. In process of time there arose in this State the dioceses of Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Erie, and Bethlehem, the original diocese retaining its own name, Pennsylvania. This is an honorable name, but misleads many people who, when they hear "Diocese of Pennsylvania," immediately jump to the conclusion that the State and diocese cover the same geographic territory, whereas in reality our diocese includes only the county of Philadelphia and the four surrounding counties of Delaware, Chester, Montgomery, and Bucks.

In this area are about 80,000 confirmed members of the Episcopal Church, and a large group of people who look on our Church as their church, even though they have never been confirmed. When they are in trouble, they come to us; our Bishop is their Bishop.

And over this area, with almost 300 congregations of our Church in it, there is only one Bishop, the Rt. Rev. F. M. Taitt. It is obvious that he can not visit every one of his congregations every year, and so the diocese brings in bishops from other dioceses annually to supplement the Episcopal functions of our own Bishop. Each congregation has a visit from its own Bishop every other year.

This is our year to have our own Bishop come to us not only for Confirmation, but as chief pastor of the flock. He is coming on the evening of Sunday, March 5, and we want every one connected with Grace Church to be present to welcome him and the newly confirmed, and to hear his message. DECIDE NOW THAT NOTHING WILL PREVENT YOU FROM BEING PRESENT ON MARCH 5 AT 8 O'CLOCK.

Confirmation classes are going along smoothly, meeting every Sunday evening at 7 P. M. in the Parish House. Some who have been confirmed are attending to refresh their memories; others who are going to be confirmed are attending in growing numbers. We hope that if any who read this are feeling promptings within to come, they will at once obey that impulse! God's promptings do not continue indefinitely. Come tonight!

"The Monday afternoon Auxiliary" meets weekly from 1.30 to 3.30 in the Green Room, Parish House. At present they are sewing for the Episcopal Hospital, and they will gladly welcome any who care to come and work with them.

Church school teachers are urged to set aside the evening of Monday, February 6, for a pre-Lenten meeting of the Sunday School Association of the Convocation of Germantown at Christ Church and St. Michael's, Tulpehocken and McCallum Streets. The program promises to be very interesting, beginning with a survey of Lenten work in the Church School at 5.30; supper at 6.30; and an address by the secretary for Church Schools of our National Council at 7.30, followed by a brief Devotional Service.

Those lovely snapdragons on the altar of Grace Church two Sundays ago were given in memory of Mrs. Matilda K. Gray by her children. Last Sunday's calla lilies and snapdragons were given for the wedding of Mr. Sidney W. Hampson to Miss Sarah Mary Ouderkirk.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild have succeeded in securing Mrs. Grafton Burke of Alaska to speak at the meeting on February 16, at which time there will be a luncheon. Mrs. Burke is the widow of Dr. Burke, of Fort Yukon, and our Auxiliary has pledged $25.00 a year for five years as a memorial of the fine work that he did up in the frozen North. We are announcing this February 16 meeting thus far ahead because the Auxiliary would like to have the room filled with people to hear Mrs. Burke's fascinating message.

On Friday a week ago our furnaces cracked in so many sections that it is necessary to replace both boilers at once. At the present time we are heating with patched-up sections in the boilers. The expense will probably run close to $2,000 for replacement and your Vestry are naturally concerned about this emergency expense. They have instructed the Buildings and Ground Committee to go ahead and replace the worn-out heating system at once, and it may be necessary to close Church and Parish House for the first five days of this week while the old tubes are removed and the new system is installed. Notice will be given from the Chancel Sunday morning.

The Men's Club for a number of years has been giving a Parish Dinner annually, about the middle of February. They are going to continue their custom this year on the evening of February 13, at 6.30. A caterer is being engaged to prepare and serve the dinner, and instead of having an outstanding orator, as has been their custom, this year the Club is going to sponsor a special anniversary number of "The Lamp," the talking magazine. This feature will be given in the Church proper immediately after the dinner, and will be in charge of the Editor-in-Chief, Mrs. H. H. Burrell—which guarantees that it will be good. Admission to the dinner will be by ticket, and because we have to give the caterer a fairly accurate estimate of how many to provide for, it is necessary that we distribute the tickets well in advance. Mrs. William Hall, of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, who handled the tickets so well last year, has consented to do so again this year. The cost will probably be $1.00 a person, and tickets may be secured from Mrs. Hall at 7014 Crittenden Street. LAST YEAR'S ATTENDANCE WENT WAY PAST 300: LET US DO EVEN BETTER THIS YEAR. REMEMBER: FEBRUARY 13, 6.30 P. M.!

BISHOP TAITT will CONFIRM AND PREACH in GRACE CHURCH TONIGHT AT 8 O'CLOCK COME!

Bishop Taitt's official visit to our Church has been the theme of this Parish News for weeks, and tonight he is coming! Allow nothing to keep you away from Church this evening; you owe it to your Bishop, to your parish, to those about to be confirmed, and to yourself, to be present.

The candidates to be presented are an interesting group; there are more than thirty, most of them adults, and for weeks they have been coming to instruction classes, preparing themselves for the gift of the Holy Spirit in Confirmation. When you say your prayers please remember them, praying that they may remain Christ's faithful soldiers and servants unto their life's end.

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

If you have time, remain a bit after the service and greet them and your Bishop in the Green Room.

It is customary that the offerings taken at Confirmation be given to the Bishop for his "Discretionary Fund." This fund corresponds to the "Rector's Discretionary Fund" in a Parish, and is a sum of money entrusted to the Bishop to be used by him in caring for some of the many needy cases that come before him in his capacity as Chief Pastor of the Pastors. There are many demands on this fund and we of Grace Church have always been generous in contributing our full share. I depend upon you this evening to be as generous as you usually are. Don't forget! Tonight! Bishop Taitt: 8 P. M.!

The Children of Church Schools during the Lenten season raise a large sum of money for the spread of Christianity. They do this all over the Church, the pupils of our own Church School being very zealous in this good work. Their method of raising money varies, from doing extra chores at home, saving the money that they receive as pay and putting it into their Mite Boxes, to minding people's children in the evening, at so much per hour and adding this to their offering. No doubt some of them already have approached you to purchase this month's copy of the "Spirit of Missions," or else to take a year's subscription for it; that is one of the ways that they are making money, for they receive a commission on each copy they sell and on every subscription they take in. Many of them are working hard on more novel lines. A project that you might be interested in is their plan of gathering old gold, silver, or platinum and selling the metal for cash, using profits for the Lenten offering. Almost every household has discarded, put aside, and forgotten spectacle-rims, brooches, pins, and assorted jewelry. Some of you intend to sell them when you have accumulated enough and "get down to it," but the chances are that you will keep putting it off. Wouldn't it be a nice gesture if you were to gather this discarded lot together now and give it to one of the Church School pupils for his Lenten project? You'll be surprised how much money is salvaged in this way; several years ago we took in more than fifty dollars in just such an effort. Won't you help them this year? Do it now!

The newly-confirmed will make their first communions on next Sunday morning at the half-past seven service, making their corporate preparation tonight before Confirmation. After their first Communion next Sunday morning, they will take breakfast with the Young People's Fellowship, who are postponing their monthly corporate Communion from today until next Sunday, in order to commune and breakfast with them. If anyone else in the parish cares to breakfast next Sunday with us, please let Mr. Buchanan or the Rector know so that provision may be made.

Money and pledges have begun to come in as a result of your vestry's appeal for help to pay for our new heating system. As soon as we have a fair idea of how much has been given, we shall inform you in the PARISH NEWS; we know that you are just as interested as we are. Meanwhile, have you mailed your reply?

On Thursday, March 9th the Woman's Auxiliary will conduct an Institute Day under the able leadership of Mrs. Frank Bonyng. Her subject will be the subject of the Mission Study groups, INDIA. All the women of Grace Church are urged to avail themselves of this opportunity to hear this enthusiastic and well-informed leader. Sessions commence at 10 A. M. Lunch at 12.30, and an afternoon session.

Although we aim to keep the viewpoint of the PARISH NEWS pointing toward coming events, we cannot refrain here from speaking of the notable Service we enjoyed together last Sunday evening when our Bishop was with us for Confirmation. The crowded church, well-loved and well-sung hymns, the beautiful anthem sung by the choir, with its lovely tenor solo, the Bishop's message, and the fine type of manhood and womanhood represented by the candidates themselves—these made an impression on us we shall not soon forget. There were thirty confirmed, and two received from the Roman Catholic Church. The names of the members of the class follow:

Tonight in Grace Church

SERVICE AT 8 P.M.

Conducted by The Young People's Fellowship

SPEAKER: REV. W. B. STIMSON

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

COME!

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

It has been a custom of some years' standing for our Young People's Fellowship to have charge of an evening service during the Sundays of Lent. The same custom will be continued this year. Tonight the service will be read by young men of our Fellowship. When the service was being arranged, the Rector gave the Young People permission to invite a clergyman of their own selection to make the address. Taking advantage of this offer, they have secured the Reverend William Burnham Stimson, a young clergyman in charge of student work among Episcopalians at the University of Pennsylvania, to be their speaker. Mr. Stimson is an able and forceful man, and we would like to have a large congregation present to greet him and take to heart his message. The unfortunate thing is that arrangements for his coming were made so recently that we have not had a chance until now to give the service publicity in the PARISH NEWS. Won't you help us make up for this last-minute notice by coming yourself to Church tonight and by bringing others with you? You will be amply repaid.

For the twelfth consecutive year organizations for the blind are joining forces for the Philadelphia Educational Week for the Blind. This annual exhibit is made possible by the co-operation of women from various church and club groups and by the donation of adequate space and facilities by Mr. Gimbel, the Episcopal Church being responsible for much of the work on the first day, tomorrow. On each of the five days, in the Auditorium of the Gimbel Store, you will find interesting exhibits of blind-made products, which are also for sale; you will hear and see a variety of special programs featuring blind artists; you will see the activities of each organization graphically displayed; and adjoining the Auditorium you may be served at a nominal cost tasty luncheons and afternoon tea.

Last Sunday evening, when your Rector was complaining to Bishop Taitt about the breakdown of our old heating system and the heavy expense of replacing it with a modern plant, the Bishop replied: "Yes, I know it's expensive to keep a Church property in good repair, and occasionally, when some costly and necessary part of one's equipment gives out, he is inclined to bemoan the fact and lament at the unusual expense, but whenever that occurred in my former parish I used to console myself with the thought of how lucky I was not to have everything break down at once." The Bishop's remarks are right to the point, and ought to console us now that the new system is installed and giving such good satisfaction. But we are having trouble with some of the steampipes which were installed thirty years ago, and one by one are beginning to give out. In fact, the engineers tell us that many of them will have to be replaced at once, especially those which, because they are buried beneath the ground, have been acted on by the sulphur in the ashes that surround them, and have disintegrated into thin, tissue-sized sheets of metal. That replacement will add to the cost of our new system. On the other hand, many fine sacrificial gifts have been coming in to defray the cost of the new heating plant, and we know that many of you who read this, and have not yet replied to the vestry's appeal, will send in your contribution as soon as you can. As soon as we have enough money in hand to pay for the system we will let you know where we stand financially in the matter.

On Tuesday evening of this week our Scout Troop is to have a dinner, with the mothers and fathers of Scouts as guests. After the dinner, Mr. Ross Davis, head of the Philadelphia Fire Department, will make a brief address, and will be followed by Mrs. H. H. Burrell, who will give the boys her famous talk on the "Story of our Flag." Before dismissal there will be the presentation of a Troop Flag, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Betz.

The Rector has much admiration for the canvassers in the United Campaign who are now making their annual rounds. This community fund cares for many of our own church institutions in their non-sectarian work, and deserves our generous support and backing. Were it not for this united drive there would be continuous drives throughout the year by the several agencies. And the canvassers are the ones who do the hard work and deserve great credit. We bespeak for them your generosity and warm welcome when they come to your home.

March 26; 11 A.M.

FAMILY SUNDAY!

Family Sunday is being observed a week late by us this year because we like to keep the observance on a day when children can enjoy the service, and we prefer to have it on a "Morning Prayer" Sunday. At this time of the year our church services on Sunday mornings are well attended, but FAMILY SUNDAY is a day on which the building should be packed to the doors. In Grace Church, FAMILY SUNDAY differs from the "Mothering Sunday" of England in that we attempt to have a FAMILY service for all our people, and want the little ones as well as the grown-ups. If you are not accustomed to sitting with the members of your family at the eleven o'clock service, won't you do so today, please? We want it to be what its name implies, FAMILY Sunday.

The Dramateurs will hold their monthly meeting tomorrow evening in the Parish House at eight o'clock. This is not a general meeting, but a monthly get-together for the members of the society. It will consist of a business meeting, a Green Room gathering, and a short religious drama, "Jair's Daughter." Curtain at eight o'clock. Every member is entitled to bring a guest.

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

Friday, March 24: We mail each issue of the PARISH NEWS out early in the week in order to be sure that it will reach our people before the Sunday it is meant to cover. Therefore you will probably receive this issue today, Friday, two days before Sunday. The reason that we are calling your attention to this is because it is not too late to inform you that to-night, at eight thirty o'clock, Miss Bruen's Church School Class is giving a Musical Tea at her home, 330 Roumfort Road, the proceeds to be added to the Church School Lenten Offering. Admission is open to all, and costs twenty-five cents. Following the Lenten topic, the program will be based on "Music Around the World," and will include many interesting and well-known selections. Come!

We are optimistic enough to believe that at last our heating plant is in first-class condition! When the late boilers went bad, we expected that our problem consisted in replacing them with satisfactory boilers as soon as possible and our task would then be ended. But we decided to change from coal to oil fuel, and that added considerably to the cost. Then the Fire Marshal ordered us to build a walled-in enclosure around the boilers and to plaster the ceiling of the new boiler room with a special safety compound. Of course, we had to comply with his ruling, and indeed were glad to, for our property is to us a trust and we feel the responsibility of doing everything we can to prevent any loss, whether by fire or anything else. So far so good. Then we found that the pipes buried under ground had rusted to the point that they were giving out, one by one, and our engineers advised us that we would have to replace them with new ones. We were glad to do this also because the old pipes were so arranged that, under the terrific heat of our new system, whenever pressure arose in the pipes, there ensued a terrific hammering that made attention to worship almost impossible. And now that is done—and all that we have to do is pay for it all! We have had generous responses from more than 84 people, and although the total cost of the new installation amounts to almost $2800, we now need only a little more than $500 to meet the whole bill. We have been cheered by the many who have contributed small sums, representing all that they could give, and, of course, we are very thankful for those who gave larger sums in these difficult days. Now, if those "who mean to and have not yet gotten down to it," will step in and contribute what they can, we will be able to pay off our debt without going into debt at all. Why not now, while you are in the mood, send in what you can afford toward this permanent improvement? Put your contribution in the alms basin at any service, plainly marked; or else send it direct to the Accounting Warden, Mr. A. C. Brand, 301 East Durham Street.

On Easter Monday, from five to six o'clock in the afternoon, in the Green Room of the Parish House, will be held an election to choose four vestrymen for Grace Church to serve for three years. Messrs. William Walton and Nicholas Moody have been appointed by the Vestry to be judges of the election.

The Easter Offering this year will, as usual, be given to the Episcopal Hospital; the Good Friday Offering will be given to the City Mission for work among the blind, among tuberculosis patients, among prisoners, shut-ins, and for relief of the worthy poor.

Thursday, March 30, the Tenth Grade Girls of Mrs. Walton's class will hold a cake and candy sale in the Green Room. Proceeds for the Lenten Offering.

House of Rest Project: Last Sunday three Sunday-school classes (Mrs. Thompson's, Miss Buck's and Mrs. Walton's) took a trip down to the House of Rest. After singing several hymns, the girls told the house guests several interesting facts about China, the Philippines and our own Dr. Janet Anderson. The women enjoyed it very much, and afterward the girls served tea, sandwiches, cakes, candies, etc., which they had made themselves. Every one inside had a lovely time, although it was a miserable day outside.—Written by one of the girls.

Flowers for our altar provide a happy way of remembering some dear one in Paradise. If you care to commemorate one you love on the Easter Day, which, above all others, proclaims Christian confidence in the life beyond this, get in touch with Miss Margaretta Bayard, 105 East Johnson Street, at once and tell her of your desire. Her telephone number is GER 3872. Let her know by Tuesday.

On Easter Monday afternoon, from 4 to 6 o'clock, in the Parish House, we will hold our annual election of vestrymen. On Wednesday in Easter week the Vestry will meet for reorganization.

On Easter Day our Parish gives all loose offering of the day's receipts, and all the money that comes in in the special Easter envelopes, to the Episcopal Hospital for its running expenses. And we do this year after year because we believe so thoroughly in the work our fine old hospital is doing. Think of it! we receive more than 8,000 bed-patients into our hospital every year—35 per cent of them so poor that they can not pay a cent toward their cost; 31 per cent a little better off, paying as much as they can, although much less than the regular rate, and only 24 per cent paying full costs in the wards—$3.56 a day. Statistics are stuffy and unimpressive, but these ought to impress any one—133,191 worthwhile poor people were cared for by our doctors last year in the out-patient department who otherwise would have had to go without the service of a physician. Those who could, paid what they could, but even at that, this service alone cost the hospital $35,500. Besides its care for the sick, the Harrison Home in the hospital has an average of 80 old people cared for at a nominal cost, one of the patients there now being a member of this Parish. The Episcopal Hospital receives no money from Community Fund nor State, relying for its existence on endowments, on the fees that patients can pay, and on the churches of this diocese who give annual offerings for upkeep. Won't you be as generous as you can on Easter Day in your thank offering? One can think of no better manner of expressing one's Easter joy than in giving money to care for those who are not so well off financially as we are, and who are ill in the bargain.

The Church School will not meet at its usual hour on Easter Day; instead, it will assemble at 3.30 in the afternoon to present its Lenten Offering and to take part in a "Pageant of the Resurrection." As with other pageants, so with this: we give it not as a spectacle, but as an object of worship, hoping that in the reverent acting out of the Resurrection story all will enter into its truths more deeply. Don't forget: Easter afternoon; three-thirty o'clock!

Good Friday we will have as leader of our devotions one of the most helpful men in our ministry. The service will last from 12 o'clock noon until 3 P. M. You may come for part or for all, but come!

Easter Even is historically the proper time for baptisms. If your child is not baptized, why not telephone the Rector before Saturday and arrange to have your child baptized with others who are to be baptized then?

There will be no meeting of the Monday Auxiliary on April 3. There will be a business meeting on April 10. Members are asked to come at one o'clock and bring a box lunch. Coffee will be served.

At a meeting of the vestry of Grace Church, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, the means of access to the altar of the church are so restricted as to invite confusion, and

WHEREAS, it is important that the service of the Holy Communion be administered with due reverence,

Resolved, That the congregation be requested to observe the following conventions:

1. That, in so far as possible, the aisles of the church shall be kept open in order to facilitate access to and egress from the communion table.

2. That communicants who are seated in the front portion of the church shall come to the table first; that they shall be followed by those in the middle sections, and they in turn by the communicants who are seated in the rear.

3. That communicants shall so time their approach to the altar that those who are standing while awaiting the service of the communion shall occupy the chancel only.

Resolved, That the rector be requested to publish these resolutions to the membership of the church and to urge cooperation in making the suggested procedures effective.

The Easter Story was told to most of us when we were children at our mother's knees. As we grew older, it was interpreted, expounded, and turned into homilies so many times that the danger is that for some of us it may have lost its sparkle. We have heard with our ears and our fathers have told it to us so often that its acceptance may have become merely an intellectual assent, rather than something that motivates one's whole life. What we need is to give it entrance via some of the other senses. For example, those of us who saw the motion picture, "King of Kings," were moved to tears when we viewed these long-accepted truths enacted on the screen. We realized its significance afresh, and cried unashamedly, feeling that our emotions had a right to assert themselves when confronted with a fresh presentation of the stupendous truth that the Lord Jesus died for us and rose again. We need to warm up our devotion and become aflame with zeal for Him who died for us. That is why we approve of Christmas and Easter pageants enacted in Church, because such vivid tellings of the story awaken us out of our humdrum acceptance of religious truths and cause us to feel their living reality: it did happen; Christ our Lord did suffer and die for us; He did return on Easter Day to take away our fears and assure us of everlasting life. Allelujah! So we bid you come to our pageant this afternoon in the Church at half-past 3 o'clock. Bring the children with you, for we are combining the pageant with the Church School Lenten festival. Bring also your friends and neighbors. Help the Spirit of God make His presence felt in your soul. Don't forget: this afternoon; in Church; half-past 3 o'clock.

Tomorrow afternoon, from 4 to 6 o'clock, in the Parish House, we will hold our annual election of members for the Vestry. The Vestry will meet on Tuesday evening for its reorganization meeting.

Today's offering, whether loose or in special Easter envelopes, will be given to the Episcopal Hospital for current needs and expenses. We have spoken to you so often and in such detail of the valuable work that our Hospital is doing among the worthy poor, and we have told you so many times, in season and out of season, how many sick people are being cared for who would otherwise have nowhere else to turn to, that there is no need to go into that again. Instead, I want you to realize how good it is to do something about your Easter joy. For it does help drive home a truth when one does something about it. Every one needs to capitalize his good intentions and turn his thanks for the Easter truth into something tangible and unselfish. What we do about anything when it stirs us is an index of the reality of our emotions. Perhaps that is the principle that Stephen Girard went on in the well-known story. You will recall that one day he came across a crowd of people gathered about a poor man, who was weeping bitterly. He asked what had happened, and a bystander told him that the crowd had gathered because of excitement attendant upon a poor huckster's horse having fallen down and died, and because they felt so sorry for the man. "Well," remarked Stephen Girard, "I am sorry five dollars' worth, and here is the money that I am going to give to our unfortunate friend, as an earnest of the reality of my compassion. How much are you sorry?" Well, we're glad this happy Easter Day that our dear Lord came back from the grave, but how many dollars' worth are we glad? Of course, if we were to evaluate that truth in dollars, no one could pay the amount required. But we can give some tangible evidence of our Easter joy. And our generosity will help some unfortunate along life's way take fresh heart to carry on. Be as generous as you can, won't you?

You are invited at your convenience to visit and inspect the nearly completed Boy Scout Room in the basement of the Church, just under the Tower. Your Scout Council members have been working on it for several months, and it is fast rounding into shape. The raw materials they used consisted of cement, lumber, wrought iron, ceiling board, electric light materials and fixtures. All work was done by men interested in Scouting and the boys themselves. Nothing had to be paid for labor, although the raw material cost considerable. The total will amount to about $200, some of this being provided by the Men's Club, and much of it being still due. The problem of the Scout Council, therefore, is how to secure this amount and pay the people who supplied the goods. They do not want to solicit contributions because Scouting is not run that way; Scouts are trained to work for what they get. So—it has been decided to give a motion-picture entertainment in the Parish House, and through the courtesy of one of our public utility companies, we are securing the entertainment free of charge. The picture that you are being offered is a picture that will appeal to the spirit of adventure latent in each one of us; it is Admiral Byrd's "Little America," the representation of his latest trip to the Antarctic. The film will be shown on Wednesday of this week in the Parish House at 8 P. M. Your Scout Troop invites you to come, enjoy the fine picture, and make a contribution toward the cost of their room. Wednesday of this week; 8 o'clock; Parish House!

The Young People's Fellowship, beginning this evening, will again meet at 8 o'clock. The program tonight will be attractive, and all are asked to make a special effort to attend. Next Sunday evening the Rev. Mr. Stevenson, of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, will be the special speaker. Come and bring some friends.

There will be an all-day meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild on Thursday of this week. Holy Communion at 9.30; sewing and surgical bandage folding at 10; intercessions at 12 noon; luncheon at 12.30; speaker at 1.15. Come!

The Treasurer of the United Thank Offering, Mrs. Horace Fuller, 6834 Crittenden Street, announces that the Spring Ingathering of the United Thank Offering is about to be taken. Women of the Parish will shortly have a written reminder from her, and all are urged to send in the contents of their Blue Boxes as soon as possible. Envelopes may be placed on the alms basins at any service, marked "United Thank Offering," and also the name of the contributor.

THE TENANT

This body is my house—it is not I:
Herein I sojourn till, in some far sky,
I lease a fairer dwelling, built to last
Till all the carpentry of time is past.
When from my high place viewing this lone star,
What shall I care where these poor timbers are?
What, though the crumbling walls turn dust and loam—
I shall have left them for a larger home.
What, though the rafters break, the stanchions rot,
When earth has dwindled to a glimmering spot!
When thou, clay cottage, fallest, I'll immerse
My long cramped spirit in the universe.
Through uncomputed silences of space
I shall yearn upward to the leaning Face.
The ancient heavens shall roll aside for me,
As Moses monarch'd the dividing sea.
This body is my house—it is not I,
Triumphant in this faith I live, and die.—F. L. Knowles.

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME BEGINS TODAY!

When the heating system broke down in the middle of winter, we were deeply concerned over the heavy expense we would run into replacing it. Even at that, and fortunately for our nerves, we didn't realize how very expensive such a plant is. At once the Vestry authorized the Building and Grounds Committee to spend not more than $2,000, with the idea in mind that they were giving the committee a leeway of at least $500. When, however, we went into the matter, one by one expensive additions had to be made, and also we decided that the time had come to change from coal to oil. That cost something extra. Then, because of the terrific heat generated by the new system, old conveyor pipes began to burst, and they had to be replaced. The Fire Marshall, too, did his bit by ordering us to enclose the new furnace in a fireproof room with non-inflammable ceiling. Before we were through, the total cost mounted to $2,817.89.

Meanwhile, while the Building and Grounds Committee was busily doing its part—and it was an exacting task, involving, as it did, technical knowledge and consulting many other experts—a small committee approached some generous givers and solicited gifts for the replacement. Then the rest of the congregation were informed of the need by a letter from the Vestry and by articles in the PARISH NEWS. Considering the present tightness of money, results were way beyond what one would expect. The response was splendid.

And now we are almost finished with the matter; the system is installed, and we believe that it will care for our people for many years to come. And we are within $328.89 of having enough money to pay for the plant in full! We could have secured the full amount easily long ago if we had been willing to solicit every member of our Church family personally, but we preferred to make it a voluntary offering, and adhere to our principle of one canvass only each year, in December. The fine result obtained from allowing the family to make offerings of their own initiative

The Lenten Mite Boxes continue to come in, and we do not yet know how much our Lenten offering for missions amounts to. We have just had word that the offerings of all the church schools in the diocese will be presented at another wonderful service, such as was held last year. The service will be in Holy Trinity Church, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets, and it will be on the afternoon of Sunday, May 7, at 4 P. M. Last year our own Girls' Choir took part, and the great edifice was so filled that children were even seated on the kneeling cushions at the altar-rail and on the stairs leading up to the pulpit. It was a sight not soon to be forgotten, and all who attended enjoyed it much. We expect to take even more of our own Church School this year, and will soon be asking for transportation.

The following are the Committees of the Vestry for the coming year: Finance: Messrs. Fortescue, Brand, Greaves, and Fell. Buildings and Grounds: Messrs. Fell, Farnham, and Dorwarth. Choir: Messrs. Meehan, Sibson, and Wagner. Memorials: Messrs. Fortescue, Thornton, and White. Church School: Messrs. Thornton, White, and Wagner. Missionary: Messrs. Thornton, White, Wagner, and Burness.

A Spring Meeting of the Altar Guild of the Diocese will be held on Wednesday, April 26, in St. James's Church, Twenty-second and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia. Evensong will be sung at 7.30 P. M. The Rev. Dr. Frederick S. Seymour, Vicar of St. George's Church, Ardmore, will make an address. All the women of the Parish are invited; those who can attend are asked to notify Miss M. W. Bayard, 105 E. Johnson Street, by April 19. Refreshments will be served in the Churchwoman's Club after the service.

In the Palm Sunday issue of the PARISH NEWS we asked for flowers for the altar for Easter Day. Over twenty generous contributors responded to our appeal, and the altar was very lovely on the festival. Many of the flowers were "in memoriam," and we thank those who gave them and want them to know how much they did to help make our Easter enjoyable. We remembered by name those who were memorialized, and feel that somehow they know, too, that we were thinking of them.

On the eve of Diocesan Convention, May 1, there will be a service for all the people of the Diocese at 8.15 P. M. in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets, when our Bishop will read his Annual Address to the Convention of the Diocese. No ticket of admission is required.

On looking over our records your Rector discovered that the justices of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania granted us our charter (our corporate title being "Grace Church, Mt. Airy") on March 12, 1859. That makes our incorporation just eighty years old.

Religious affiliation of patients at our Home for Consumptives, as of April 1, 1939: Baptist, 9; Greek Orthodox, 3; Hebrew, 4; Lutheran, 6; Methodist, 11; Presbyterian, 11; Episcopal, 22; Reformed, 2; Roman Catholic, 58; United Brethren, 1.

The number of hospital days for the year 1938 was 33,612. In the Children's Department the number was 7,812.

SPRING FESTIVAL

THIS WEEK, SATURDAY, MAY 27

See Details on Reverse Side

One of our neighbors, who is not a member of this congregation, recently remarked to us that our Parish House seems to be busy all the time; that every night when he looks over at our buildings they are "lighted up and buzzing with activity." This is as it should be. We not only want our young people to grow up with the realization that the Church believes in good clean fun, and that the best times that they ever had were spent right in their own Parish House, but also we want our older members to feel that the Parish provides a community of interests and that right at home, in Grace Church Parish, there is an adequate outlet for their need of self-expression and for fellowship. In addition, because our Parish House is exempt from taxation (although we have to pay taxes on the Rectory and the rear lot), we feel an obligation to the community to pay back adequately for what they are spending on us. That is one of the reasons, although not the main reason, that we are so interested in the Boy Scouts. We put much emphasis on the Parish House because we are proud of the fact that we have a building where we can meet others socially, where we learn to work together, and where we can bring outsiders to share with us the talent we possess in our own membership, for every time we put out an issue of "The Lamp," and every time one of our own members gives an illustrated talk, we are proud of our people and believe that there is no other parish where such programs could be duplicated. Perhaps we are biased, but we do not believe so.

All this is by way of introduction (not an apology, but an explanation) of the fact that we are going to announce several fresh activities in the Parish House. The one right at hand is a Motion Picture Entertainment which our Scout Troop has prepared for Wednesday of this week, May 24, at 7.30 P. M. You will recall that recently they showed Admiral Byrd's "Little America"; that was so successful that this time they are going to give us another outstanding subject: Frank Buck's

"Bringing Them Back Alive." There will be no offering, but an opportunity will be given for making donations because the Scout Room cost much money and the Scout Committee is busily engaged paying off its debt. If you like motion pictures, especially if you like unusual jungle scenes, then come out this Wednesday evening at half-past seven o'clock.

And while we are speaking of extra-church activities, may we call your attention to the Spring Festival that is to be held on Saturday, May 27, on our lawn and in our Parish House. Some years ago the young people of the Parish decided that we needed a new Parish House so much that they were going to do something about getting it. So they organized an annual Spring Festival, and every year have worked hard, making it a success. They say that this year they aim to raise $500 for the Building Fund and toward the purchase of a new carpet for the Green Room. They have secured the co-operation of the Woman's Auxiliary and the Men's Club, and begin their day at 3.00 P. M., with games and entertainment, following it up with supper from 5.30 to 7.30, and two one-act plays and dancing after supper. The Festival will be held on Saturday of this Week, May 27, rain or shine. Do come!

We have had so many transfers to our Parish lately, and a few away, that sometimes it seems that we are ministering to a "procession" rather than to a congregation. However, we are always glad to welcome newcomers, even though some are not newcomers but oldcomers who have not affiliated until they had been with us a long while. This week we welcome two such: Mrs. Lucy Welsh and her daughter, Mrs. Lucy M. Haines, of 119 E. Tulpehocken Street. They formerly were members of St. Luke's Church, Germantown, but are now communicants in good standing of our own Parish.

The flowers on the altar today were given by the Kindergarten Department of the Church School.

Mrs. Horace Burrell's Garden Card Party will be held on June 7 in her lovely gardens, 404 East Gowen Avenue.

The membership of the churches in the United States increased twice as fast as the population in 1937, there being a gain of 963,396 members. The churches' total membership is 64,156,895; membership of persons thirteen years old or older amounts to 52,379,579; the number of churches is 248,410. Ninety-seven and three-tenths per cent. of the total membership is in 50 larger bodies—all with membership of 50,000 or more. The small bodies—approximately 160—account for only 2.7 per cent. of this great church population. Moreover, the former total of 212 national bodies has been reduced by "mergers and disappearances" to 200. These data were put out recently by the Information Service of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, and indicate how tremendous would be our strength if we could all co-operate in working together to make America truly a corner of the Kingdom of God.

Next Sunday will be Whitsunday, the third of the great holy days of the year. Our Church has never dictated how many times her members must make their communions, but she has said that she expects them to come to the Holy Table at least three times annually—Christmas, Easter, and Whitsunday. Your Rector would like every faithful follower of the Master in this Parish to come to Communion next Sunday, expecting to be filled with the Spirit of God and to go forth in the strength of that experience to work with the Lord in making our Church a "living" Church. Perhaps up until now many of us have been "dead." Let us change that by allowing God to fill us with the breath of life. Life will be so much richer, finer, more telling, than ever before if we do, for we shall be fulfilling our destiny. Recently a noted psychologist discovered that it is human nature to be happy and self-satisfied after doing a good job. No wonder so many of us are so miserable so much of the time. Let us apply his findings especially to our religious life, and we shall find unlimited opportunities of soaring instead of creeping.

Our Men and Boy Choir won first place in the Cultural Olympic competition at the University of Pennsylvania recently, and yesterday, at the Irvine Auditorium, had bestowed upon them the Award of Merit. We congratulate them in your name.

Next Sunday afternoon we shall close our Church School until September. It would be fine if we did not have to close at all, and from time to time we have made attempts to keep open all summer long, but were unsuccessful. One by one teachers went away on vacation; Sunday after Sunday the number of pupils in attendance dwindled, until we were reminded of "Little Black Sambo": "and then there were five"; "and then there were three"; "and then there was one"! Even this early in the summer attendance drops off and there is an underlying unrest, manifested by requests to "go up into the tower" (the Rector has never figured out what "going up into the tower" has to do with Church School, but it must have some connection, for every year at this time the request comes many times); others ask permission to hold sessions on the lawn, etc. Even many teachers are tired. So in view of our experience we think it wise to close early and open up in the autumn with fresh vigor and enthusiasm. May we at this time publicly express our appreciation and gratitude to the many loyal teachers of the Church School who week after week carefully prepare teaching material, and week after week get up early every Sunday morning to nurture our children? It is no easy task that they carry on, and we do want to say publicly, both for you and for ourself, how much we value what they are doing for the younger members of our church family. Commencement, then, for our Church School will be held on Sunday next, at 3.30 in the afternoon. We would appreciate it much if many not connected with the Church School were to attend the closing service. If you come, you will be amply repaid in added interest for your coming.

We live in the midst of great natural beauty. Our homes are set in the midst of one of the loveliest sections of the land. At this season of the year it is particularly pleasing. One of the most attractive areas in this vicinity is "Krisheim," the estate of Dr. and Mrs. George Woodward at Mermaid Lane and McCallum Street, in the Cresheim valley. The Woodwards are very generous in allowing the public at all times to visit and enjoy part of their beautiful grounds, but at special times of the year they throw all open to certain chosen guests, even to the first floor of their home. One of the special times will occur on Thursday of this week, at a season of the year when nature is at her best. Mrs. Woodward has offered your Rector, as Dean of the Convocation of Germantown, the use of her house and grounds for a "Garden Day," and he has gladly accepted. The "Woman's Aid of the Convocation" has accepted charge of the occasion, and will sell country produce, ice cream, candy, cake, flowers, books, etc., and in addition will display beautiful floral arrangements. Also they will provide a simple Cafeteria Supper at low cost, with tables in a grove where one may eat outdoors. If the weather is fine, this plan will be carried out as outlined; if it rains, the Garden Day will be held in the nearby Parish House of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields.

An admission of 25 cents will be charged, and the profit will be given to two of our worthy churches that are struggling to pay off mortgages on their property, the arrangement being that they are to match dollar for dollar all moneys that we give them, and that the sum obtained will be used to amortize their mortgages. The whole plan is one in which everybody gains, and we are glad to ask you to have a part in it. Mrs. Morris Stout, of 37 East Gowen Avenue, is our representative, and will be glad to sell you your ticket of admission. Automobiles will be waiting at Allen Lane and Germantown Avenue to convey you to the grounds; later they will be available to return you to Germantown Avenue. There is no charge for this courtesy. The hours of the fête are from 3 to 7.30 P. M. Do yourself a favor and secure your ticket now.

Mrs. Burrell's Garden Card Party will be held on June 7, at 2.30 P. M. Tables sell for $2.00. Proceeds will be used for expenses of the Scout Room. Call Che 2039 for tickets.

The benefit performance given by our Monday Auxiliary Saturday a week ago at the Germantown Theatre Guild playhouse was a huge success. The performance was excellent, the crowd was good, and so far we have a profit of $63.00 toward the cost of our new Green Room carpet—with more to come in. That's fine! The Monday Afternoon Auxiliary has now adjourned its meetings until the third Monday in September. In the short time it has been in existence it has done excellent work.

The flowers on the altar today are the gift of the Primary Department of the Church School.

On Monday, May 22, the Rector read the Burial Office for Florence Mary (Mrs. Charles H.) Schurch, who died on May 19, at her residence, 417 East Phil Elena Street. Interment was at Northwood Cemetery.

The new kneeling cushions in church are a gift to the Parish of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild. They raised the money to buy them last summer at their Porch Parties.

In our Prayer Book, Whitsunday is written as one word, except in the Octave, when we find Whitsun Week. This confuses the derivation, and we have a choice of three guesses, for learned men disagree as to the right one. Some contend that the word ought to be Whitsunday, and that Whitsun is derived in this way: Pentecost, in German, Pfingsten; old German, Whingsten; old English, Whitsun. Or you may prefer White Sunday, so called from the candidates for baptism, Whitsunday having been in olden times a great day for baptizing. Or you may incline to Wit-Sunday, as marking the day on which the "wit" or wisdom of the spirit was given to man. This last guess is attractive. In the Roman Church it is called "Pentecost," and the Sundays which we call Sundays after Trinity are called Sundays after Pentecost.

The day commemorates the coming of divine wisdom into the hearts and lives of the Apostles of Christ, which took place when they were all together in a room on the Jewish Feast of Pentecost. And filled with that wisdom, aflame with ardor and zeal, they went forth to win a large part of the world for the Lord Jesus. Because of this divine inflowing, these men of little education and narrow Jewish prejudices were enlightened with the great plan of salvation, and inspired to tell it everywhere—to tell it right, to tell it convincingly, to tell it so that generation after generation of men could take it to heart and rise out of the dust of appetite and sin, into the clearer air of high resolve and noble achievement.

Today we leave the Sundays of the Church Year that illustrate events in the life of our Lord and commemorate instead the great doctrine of the nature of God which we call the Trinity. This teaching about God is rich in associations: the noblest minds of the Christian Church gave to it the whole wealth of their intellects; great Councils of the Church, in which the whole Christian world was represented or which that world afterward accepted, pronounced upon it. But, after all, all that they could do was to state what the Apostles and Evangelists had written, and the convictions of the early Christians as to what they said. They could not explain the doctrine, for the simple reason that man cannot explain God. Just as a horse can understand certain traits about humanity, that man is master, that he is gentle or cruel, that he must look to him for shelter, food, etc.; but just how little a horse can understand about that wonderful thing, the body, the soul, the spirit of man. So we, being men, made in the image of God, can understand to some degree His Fatherly care; His sympathy; His power; but how little we know of the whole awful being of God—what He is, His nature, His essence! All that you and I can do is to accept the statements of God's Word as interpreted by God's Church from the earliest ages and believe in God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, Three Persons in one Godhead, feeling all the time that we are expressing ourselves only in the best possible words human skill could furnish for the statement of unfathomable things, and with very great tolerance for those who feel they must use other terms in speaking about God. The doctrine is incapable of explanation, but not contrary to reason: it comes to us with all the force of our Lord's own teaching, and is therefore the last word as to the nature and being of God.

This afternoon, at 3.30, in church, we shall hold Commencement for our Church School. The program will be interesting, short, and the Choir will help with the singing. The more seriously the grown-up rank and file takes the matter of Christian nurture, the more the pupils in the Church School will realize the importance of religious education. Our method of showing how seriously we adults look on the matter of religious knowledge is to attend Church School celebrations. Therefore we ask all of the congregation who can attend this afternoon, to attend. The hour is 3.30!

There was a Corporate Communion of the Young People's Fellowship at the early service this morning. They will close their regular Sunday evening meetings next Sunday with a Reunion Dinner.

Several years ago, at this time of year, we made a fervent plea to parishioners who were going on vacation, asking them to try to turn in their summer church-subscription envelopes before they went away, rather than after they returned, as had been the custom with many. We pointed out in that PARISH NEWS item that parish expenses go on just the same in summer as in winter, and that because our people didn't realize this we were annually put to the necessity of borrowing from a bank and paying interest money on the loan, whereas if our people paid up before they left for vacations, we would save trouble and considerable money. The response to our appeal was splendid. Our people did pay ahead, and ever since not once have we had to borrow money in the lean summer months. That is as it should be, and this little item is to remind you once again how important it is for those who are going away to pay up before they leave. Please!

The Spring Festival of last Saturday was an unqualified success. Not for many years has there been a day so suitable, the weather being just right for eating out-of-doors yet not too warm for going inside to enjoy the evening entertainment. The afternoon games were well patronized and enjoyed; some children who were fortunate enough to ride on the pony are still dreaming and reminiscing about it. Several minor tragedies occurred, but were quickly changed into mere incidents when the pocketbooks were found and restored. Supper tasted unusually good because it was well prepared, eaten outdoors, and shared with congenial company. The evening performance was well acted before a large audience, and the door prizes caused much interest and amusement, even though it worked out right in that a woman received the compact and a man received the lighter. The young people who worked many nights in preparation, the women's group, and the representatives of the Men's Club who cooperated wholeheartedly, all deserve thanks and congratulations. We don't yet know how much money was made, but believe that profits will mount high, but, after all, that is a comparatively unimportant matter. What matters is that we made friendships, that all groups worked splendidly together, and that we learned to know each other better.

The Philadelphia Electric Company has been good to us this year. Twice they have sent their representative to show their films without charge for the benefit of our Scout Troop. The last time they came was a week ago, when they thrilled a large crowd with jungle pictures that had been taken in the Malay Peninsula, in what is still one of the most primitive parts of the world. The many "shots" of wild animals stalking their prey, savage conflict between tiger and python, a "killer" leopard about to attack, grazing antelope being driven away and severely punished by the old patriarch of the herd who was on guard-duty for just such a contingency, and, above all, how the fierceness and ferocity of wild animals are being overshadowed by the ingenious mind of men—all these were presented to our attention in a manner that we shall long remember. The Scouts and their friends enjoyed themselves, and in addition banked about $18.00 toward the cost of the Scout Room, which reminds us that before the season closes there will be one more event to aid Troop 318 clear up indebtedness incurred in building its Club Room. On Wednesday of this week Mrs. Horace Burrell is throwing open her lovely grounds at 404 East Gowen Avenue for a Garden Card Party, and the money taken in will be used toward expenses of the Scout Room. The affair is under the auspices of a group of women interested in our Troop, and Mrs. E. S. Burrell is managing the party. You can reach her by telephoning Chestnut Hill 2039, and tables are being sold at $2.00 a table. As the number of tables is limited, it would be advisable to telephone at once.

There will be two outstanding events in Grace Church's social life this week: (1) THE MEN'S CLUB will open its season tomorrow evening with motion pictures and talk by a well-known traveler, teacher, mountain-climber, and air pilot, Mr. Victor Fritz. His presentation will include motion pictures and "stills" of Mont Blanc; the Matterhorn; an eighty-five mile pack trip to Mt. Assiniboin; and scaling the Grand Teton.

The meeting is open to all who care to come, and while the object of the Club is primarily to provide an opportunity for men of the congregation to meet socially and get acquainted with one another, a secondary purpose of the Club is to bring together our neighbors, no matter what their religious affiliation may be, and make them feel at home in this growing community. So successful has our Club been in its object and methods that they are being imitated in other communities.

There will be refreshments and good fellowship, and every man who reads this is invited to come, bring his friends with him, and enjoy a well-worth-while evening with us. Don't forget: tomorrow evening—eight o'clock.

(2) The second outstanding event of the week will be the HARVEST FESTIVAL in the Parish House on Thursday.

For some years the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild has been augmenting its treasury by "Personal Effort" money, i. e., members have been doing things individually, such as selling "white elephants" and candy, repairing strings of beads, etc., giving the profits to the Auxiliary. But this year they thought it wise to have a grand, concentrated, collective effort on one day, calling it a "HARVEST FESTIVAL" and making a gala occasion of it. The day they chose is Thursday of this week, and the Festival will be held in the Parish House from ten in the morning until ten in the evening. There will be Christmas Gifts, Cards, Wrappings, Kitchen and Pantry Equipment, Food, Novelties, Plants, "Parcels Post," Dolls, Handkerchiefs, "White Elephants," Knitted Articles, etc. Luncheon, Afternoon Tea, and Supper will be served. A Fashion Show will be given at eight o'clock in the evening. There will be "grabs" for the children and something for everyone. Do come! Thursday—this week—everyone out!

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

For several years we have had a custom of printing in the autumn numbers of the PARISH NEWS, from week to week, statistics from the Parish Register. We present herewith a list of Grace Church weddings since last May:

May 20, 1939, Stephen Paul Mathers and Naomi Fraser Caldwell.
June 3, 1939, William Edward Lunt, Jr., and Dorothea Walker.
June 24, 1939, George Edwin Davis and Dorothy Kathryn Schwefler.
August 31, 1939, Conrad O'Shaughnessy Curell and Ruth Elma Zimmermann.
September 1, 1939, Ralph Derr, Jr., and Georgia Springsted Stiles.

Several people have asked concerning the first lesson read at the Morning Prayer service last Sunday. It was the regular lesson appointed for the day, and was from the Book of the Wisdom of Solomon, found in the Apocrypha of the Old Testament, chapter 3, first nine verses.

Mr. Irwin is absent today, attending the meeting of the House of Bishops in the mid-West, which he is covering for the Department of Publicity of the National Council.

The writer was once asked to become Rector of a wealthy congregation in another State. In describing the parish, their vestry reported, among other details, that there never was any difficulty about money matters; whenever the year rolled around and a new fiscal year was about to begin, several of the vestry would get up a subscription list and begin to call on members of the parish, starting with those whose names began with the letter A and continuing alphabetically until enough money had been signed up for, on an open sheet of paper, for the year's needs and a little over in case of an unforeseen contingency. They told me that it took two years to get as far as the letter N. No offerings were ever taken in church unless it was for some neighborhood project. Money didn't have any part in their parish life.

That's one way to finance a parish, and while it may sound like an easy and an ideal way, as a matter of fact it is a very poor way. For the giving of money and the presentation of one's sacrifices to God are an integral part of real worship. It was so in the early Church; it was so during the Middle Ages; it is so today.

Money is one's life, in the sense that he who toils and receives money for his labors in reality is exchanging part of his allotted time in return for this symbol of exchange. If he receives a dollar an hour pay, when he gives back to God in church some of the dollars that he has earned, he is in reality giving back to God some of the hours of his life. In this sense money is a sacred element. That is why we dare to offer up money on the altar where the only thing else we offer is the bread and wine of the Holy Communion. Money is not filthy lucre, nor is it a sordid, material thing—if looked upon as part of a man's life; it is ourselves, and when we give it back to God through His Church we are offering up ourselves.

This thought should be in our minds more and more as we again approach the time of the annual canvass. The good men and women who are going to accept our pledges (of how much time we hope to give back to Almighty God in 1940, as symbolized by our dollars) are helping us to worship our Heavenly Father in spirit and in TRUTH. Worship always involves sacrifice. There can be no worship in merely receiving. We must give if we are to get, for that is an inexorable principle of life. Let us, therefore, face the problem of what we ought to give in 1940 as we face any other religious problem: in prayerful receptivity to the promptings of the Great Spirit. So shall our canvass and our sacrifices remain on the high plane that God meant them to be.

Last Sunday we baptized Anthony Ewing Weiss, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Anthony was born in New York City on July 1, 1939, his parents being James and Dorothea Weiss; his godparents, Dr. Henry J. Gideon and (Mrs.) Mary Henning.

The son of Bishop Burleson has taken some excellent motion pictures in color of the work of St. Michael's Mission at Ethete, Wyoming. This is an Indian missionary enterprise that our Church can well be proud of and the pictures are good. We have engaged Mr. Burleson to show his pictures to our Church School, upper grades, at 10 o'clock this morning. Any one who cares to come will be welcome.

Mr. Newell Robinson, F.A.G.O., our choirmaster and organist, has consented to give us three Sunday afternoon programs during Advent. The opening program will take place on December 3 and the choir will sing, "Come, Redeemer of Our Race," by J. S. Bach. Recitals will be given on December 10 and 17, consisting of organ music with vocal solos.

On Wednesday of this week the Rector read the Burial Office for (Mrs.) Mary D. Folwell, who died at Allentown, Pa., on November 5. Interment was made at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

The Annual Every Member Canvass is now being made. It is not just an ingathering of pledge cards, but an every member visitation to acquaint our people with the opportunities and needs of Grace Church, the canvassers having been carefully chosen and informed. We do need more workers in our various fields of activity, and we do need more money. As our opportunities for service increase, so do our financial and man-power needs. A going concern has to spend more money from year to year because it is a going concern. Grace Church people have plenty of money to finance our program, and the splendid group of business men whom you have elected to run your financial affairs are running our work as economically as they can.

Bishop Taitt recently told your Rector that to him it was noteworthy that it was the automobile industry that had led the country out of the depression, and many of the people who purchased cars did so not because they needed new automobiles for business reasons, but because they wanted them for pleasure: their desires led them to spend the money. "If one desires anything enough, he will be able to finance it." Arguing from this, our good Bishop concluded that what is needed is not more money in the Church, but more desire to further the things of God. It is tommyrot, continued he, to say that you can lead a horse to water but you cannot make him drink; the thing to do is to feed the horse plenty of salt and then he will demand some way of assuaging his thirst. So if men have the desire, they will surely finance their religious work. Let them feed on heavenly things, and they will desire to give generously. Compare your givings to God through His Church with other items on your budget and put first things first!

In last week's "Parish News" we called attention to the fact that many Episcopalians look on themselves as members of Grace Church who are not considered so by us because they have neglected to bring a letter of transfer from the parish in

Our Bishop is able to visit each parish in this great diocese (which includes Delaware, Chester, Montgomery, Bucks, and Philadelphia counties) every other year. Last year was our turn to have him; this year we are due to have a Visiting Bishop. The date for confirmation in Grace Church is usually set for a Sunday late in February; this year we were informed it was set for a week-day evening. We did not like this, because we want to give the Bishop a large congregation, such as gathers together on Sunday mornings. Therefore we got in touch with headquarters and, after some difficulty, had the date changed. But, unfortunately, in order to have the Bishop come on Sunday we had to accept an earlier date. The arrangements now are that Bishop Charles Fiske, formerly of Central New York, will be with us for confirmation on Sunday, February 4. That means that we shall have to begin our preparation classes soon and do more intensive work than usual. Many have spoken during the last year to the Rector, saying that they would like to be confirmed. This is a preliminary notice to them and to all other interested ones that we shall begin to get ready for the next confirmation in Grace Church on the first Sunday of 1940.

On Sunday, November 26, the Rector baptized Olga Lummis Wagner, daughter of William F. Wagner, Jr., and Olga Lummis Wagner. The child was born on August 14, 1939, in the Germantown Hospital. Her godparents are Schuyler P. Briggs and Gertrude F. Lummis.

On November 27 the Rector read the Burial Office for William Whitaker Allen, who died in Florida on November 19. Interment was at Ivy Hill.

This week we added to our rolls from other parishes Mr. William S. Stevenson and Mrs. Lucy J. (William S.) Stevenson; Mr. Herbert Wilson Poole and Mrs. Blanche Will (Herbert W.) Poole.

We have been asked for the beautiful prayer ascribed to St. Ignatius, which we used last Sunday. Here it is:

"Teach us, Good Lord, to serve thee as thou deservest,
To give and not to count the cost—
To fight and not to heed the wounds—
To toil and not to seek for rest——
To labor and not to ask for any reward,
Save that of knowing that we do thy will."—Amen!

The Monday Auxiliary will have its monthly business meeting Monday, December 4, at 1 P. M. Bring a box lunch and coffee will be served.

"Demonstration of High Voltages and Electric Arcs," by courtesy of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, represented by R. A. Cook and Wm. Heard, at the meeting of the MEN'S CLUB OF GRACE CHURCH, MT. AIRY, on Monday next, January 8, 1940, at 8 P.M., in the Parish House. Refreshments.

Confirmation instructions begin tonight. Bishop Fiske will administer the rite on the evening of February 4, in Grace Church. That brings to mind two thoughts to share with you: (1) Usually, just after Confirmation, people come to the Rector and tell him that they wish that they had been confirmed with the class—they were thinking of Confirmation; they were debating with themselves whether or not to join the group; somehow they kept putting the matter off and so the opportunity passed and they lost out. Doubtless there were others in the same case who were not so vocal about it. And the point of this thought is that if you are considering Confirmation, the time to decide is now. Come to instruction classes, prepare spiritually and mentally with those who have been looking forward to this important step—and we promise you that you will always be glad you took such a stand once for all and received the Church's gift. (2) The second thought is: How old should a person be before he is old enough to be confirmed? That depends. Our Lord was twelve years of age when He went up to Jerusalem to become formally a Son of the Law. But then, in the Orient, children mature early. But so do some in the Occident.

All depends. But do not overlook the fact that one important factor is desire. For desire may be but the response to the guidance of God's Holy Spirit. That prompting to assume religious duties and receive religious help in the Holy Communion often does come from God. And it is a terrible wrong, fraught with perilous consequences, to withstand the urgings of the Spirit. And if you are in doubt about your child being old enough, remember this: It does much good for young people to attend preparatory classes and consider deep religious matters, whether or not they are immediately thereafter to be confirmed. The final decision will rest with your clergy.

So—classes begin tonight at 7 o'clock. If you know some one who is thinking about this matter, speak to him now about it. That is your Christian duty. Remind him that no one will be importuned to receive the rite: it is too sacred and precious for that. But urge him to come to the classes. And if you yourself have been confirmed and would like to come to our meetings, by all means do so. Of course, you will be welcome. Remember the hour: Tonight, at seven.

Since the Christmas number of the PARISH NEWS went to press we have had two formal letters dismissory from rectors, transferring to Grace Church, Mt. Airy, former members of their flock. One is from the Rector of St. Mary's Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., giving to us Ida L. (Mrs. Standish L.) Stiles; the other is from the Rector of the House of Prayer, Branchtown, Philadelphia, giving to us Edith Mary (Mrs. George F.) McGrory. Both have been duly entered on our records and are now communicant members in good standing of this Parish.

Last Summer's Diocesan Conference at Ursinus College was so successful that it has been decided to run a winter extension course at the Church House, beginning on January 16, and running to February 13, in the evenings. The program has been designed to cover the needs of every one; there is none in Grace Church who will not find something in the program that would almost seem designed mainly for him. The topics range from music to recent Church history; from a study of the Eastern Orthodox Church to methods of Church School teaching and studies in comparative religion. The Rector would be very happy to have a large group of his people attend the Conference, for one of the greatest needs of church people today is learning more about religion and the Church. Mrs. Pratt Thompson will be glad to confer with any one who is thinking of attending, and there is plenty of printed matter available for those who desire to see what the Conference may have for them. Posters have been placed in the Parish House for those who care to consult them.

Our choir participated in the Cultural Olympics Radio Broadcasts on Thursday evening of last week, over station WFIL, at 9.15 o'clock!

During the past week the packets of Church Offering envelopes have been distributed to those who requested them in the canvass. There are still some who have not yet asked for this opportunity of giving regularly to God through His Church. Some may have been overlooked. The Accounting Warden, Mr. A. C. Brand, 301 E. Durham Street, will be glad to send packets to those who apply for them. And while we are on the subject of maintenance, may we remind those who are behind in their envelope payments for 1939 that we hope that they will make every effort to clear up their accounts as soon as possible? We gather in pledges and then allocate money for expenses, depending on our expectations to cover our expenses. If our expectations fall far below the promises that were given, from which we made them up, then our books close with a deficit. Of course, there are always losses caused by people being unable to keep up their pledges; we make allowances aforetime for that. But, on the other hand, if all who can will pay up their back pledges as soon as they can, our treasury will be in good shape and an overburdened Accounting Warden will be relieved of much unnecessary work. PLEASE!

Some time ago we gave notice in the Parish News that Bishop Charles Fiske, formerly Diocesan of Central New York, will come to Grace Church to administer the rite of Confirmation on Sunday, February 4, at 8 P. M. In preparation for that service a number of candidates came together for preliminary instruction last Sunday evening. The group that assembled was good both in quantity and in quality. But the Rector is not satisfied. There are many who worship in Grace Church who have for a long time now been thinking of being confirmed. They have said so to the Rector, and we know that they are ready. Probably all that they need to get them to take this important step is for some one or something to remind them that one cannot put such things off indefinitely without losing much and giving a wrong bent to one's character. There is no need to remind ourselves that time passes more and more rapidly as one grows older, and that opportunity does not wait upon one forever. We see that clearly all about us. But we do need to be reminded that procrastination, "putting a thing off," is in itself very often an adverse decision. If you see a person drop a package in a crowded department store and do not hasten to pick it up and restore it to its owner, you will probably soon lose sight of the owner and be unable to find him. So in many affairs of life: the time to decide is right away when the question arises. Putting off an important decision often means that you will never get to it. So with Confirmation: we do not importune people to come to the rite itself, but we do emphasize the fact that they should come and hear what it is all about. If you feel that the above refers to you, we would be glad to have you meet with us tonight at 7 o'clock in the Parish House.

Every year the Men's Club gives a dinner in February to which they invite all members of the congregation and their friends to meet with them. The custom will be followed this year. Our annual Men's Club Dinner will be held on Thursday, February 1, in the Parish House. The meal will be furnished by a firm of caterers because we want to have our women dine with us. The cost will be one dollar a plate, the Men's Club making up from its treasury whatever more the dinner will cost. Mrs. William Hall has consented to care for the tickets again, and that means that that end of the matter will be well taken care of. Her address is 7014 Crittenden Street—in case you care to send in your acceptance right away. The speaker will be Dr. Luther Harr, and we shall tell you more about him and his subject in next week's PARISH NEWS. Reserve the night now: Thursday, February 1.

On Friday, January 5, the Rector read the Office for the Burial of the Dead and had a celebration of the Holy Communion for Lizzie Ann Miller, who died on January 2. Interment was made at Ivy Hill Cemetery. On Wednesday, January 10, the Rector read the Burial Office for Elizabeth Burnett, who died at the Leamy on January 8. Interment was at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

The Monday Auxiliary will hold its regular weekly meeting on Monday, January 15, at half-past one o'clock, in the Parish House. All women of the congregation who do not attend the other auxiliaries are urged to attend.

—ADELAIDE A. MACKIN, Secretary.

Regularly now for some weeks we have been receiving transfers from other parishes of communicants who have decided to make Grace Church their church home. There are still many who, for no good reason, have neglected to "bring their letters" here. This is the last time we shall remind them for a long time. It would be helpful to the whole Church if all who look on this as their church home but have not yet formally transferred to us would do so now! Will you?

The Young People's Fellowship is anxious to have a good attendance at their eight o'clock meeting this evening. Mrs. Edgar L. Hunter is going to speak on "Preparation for Marriage." All who care to come will be welcome.

At the Stated Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, held on Tuesday of last week, Mrs. Henry Gideon was elected Treasurer of the United Thank Offering, and Mrs. Pratt Thompson was elected Educational Secretary.

On January 8 the Rev. Wallace Conkling, of St. Luke's Church, Germantown, formally transferred to our Roll of Communicants in Good Standing Mary H. (Mrs. John B.) Clapham, of 7451 Sprague Street. She is now a member of our family.

You will want to know how we fared with the Thanksgiving and Christmas Offerings; here are the results: Thanksgiving, 1938, $224.14; 1939, $230.35. Christmas, 1938, $362.00; 1939, $366.32. These sums are not large, but when one considers how generously our people give from week to week so that we do not have to have drives for money on the great Holy Days to pay our running expenses, they are good. Also it is gratifying to realize that while the increase from year to year is small, nevertheless there is an increase.

Mrs. Murphy, President of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, is anxious to have more women come out from week to week to fold surgical dressings for the Episcopal Hospital; she is also desirous of having people who can work on sewing machines making new cassocks and cottas for our choir men and boys—garments which they sorely need. The workrooms are open immediately after the Holy Communion service every Thursday—at 10 A. M.

May we remind those who have not yet turned in all their envelops for 1939 that it would help our hard-worked financial officers much if every one would try to straighten out his account as soon as possible? We are trying to get everything in ship-shape for 1940, and this is one way in which many can help. Mr. Albert C. Brand, 301 East Durham Street, is Accounting Warden.

Every year now for several years the members of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild have been saving the pennies that they receive in change and turning them in at this season of the year for some worthy cause. Last year and the year before they decided to give the receipts to the House of Rest, our diocesan home for aged women, on Wayne Avenue. This year the women have again been gathering together "Epiphany Pennies," and have again voted to send their accumulated pennies to the House of Rest. This year's hoarding of pennies began several weeks ago, on January 6, and will continue unto February 8, at which time they will be collected at the 9.30 Holy Communion service and presented for God's blessing at the altar. Not only members of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, but any interested person in the congregation may share in this worthwhile plan. The collection will continue for several more weeks, as we have said, until February 8.

Last Sunday morning the Rector preached on the need of getting away from people and being only with God; of retiring from the world of men to cultivate the world of the eternal. When one spends sixteen hours in paying attention to temporal matters and only five minutes a day in paying attention to eternal matters, it is no wonder that the world tends to crowd out the "another" world. Consider this quotation: "It is not only in going about doing good that the Christian must follow the example of his Lord. He was not always doing that. There were times when He was in retirement alone with the Father. It is surely most significant that He spent the Wednesday in Holy Week in that way—just two days before He was to be killed. There was much to be done that He alone could do. In the Temple there were many waiting and watching for Him, and there were doubtless some that desired to ask Him questions, not that they might entangle Him, but that they might be helped. Yet He stayed at Bethany. It was impossible to do everything, and to stay there was the one thing that could not be omitted. He did not regard it as wasted time, and we must learn from Him that such times of quiet retirement are essential, that our souls may be refreshed and strengthened for service. Apart from this kind of inactivity our activity will be little worth. If we are to be helpful to others to live the Christian life, we must have time to help ourselves to live it." It is better to have a daily time for meditation and prayer than to wait and every once in a while give up a longer time—if one has to make a choice. But we must, both for our own sake and for the sake of others, see that nothing is allowed to interfere with our time alone with God.

The Executive Committee of the Men's Club met last Monday to perfect details for the coming dinner of the Parish. They decided to have it catered by McCallister; to charge one dollar a plate; to make up extra costs from the Club treasury; and to set as the deadline for procuring tickets, Tuesday, January 30. The speaker is to be the Hon. Luther A. Harr, City Treasurer and Professor of Finance, University of Pennsylvania. Tickets are to be had from strategically situated ticket centers—from Mr. E. L. Hunter, 153 West Allen Lane; from Mrs. Francis Murphy, 136 West Sedgwick Street; from Mr. Albert Buchanan, 7014 Germantown Avenue; and from a representative of the Monday Auxiliary, yet to be appointed. The chief distributor, however, is Mrs. William M. Hall, 7014 Crittenden Street, whose telephone number is CHE 1278. Tickets are being distributed now, and as our capacity is less than 300, it would help much if you would telephone now and secure yours.

The speaker at the meeting of the Young People's Fellowship this evening will be Mr. Ellis Cook, a young man who, for many years, was a member of our group, and who has established a thriving printing business at 8139 Germantown Avenue, under the firm name of "The Eldon Press." His subject will be, "The Intriguing Profession of Printing." The meeting promises to be most interesting.

The Accounting Warden, Albert C. Brand, 301 East Durham Street, phone, Chestnut Hill 1228, will, upon request, furnish all who desire to contribute to the maintenance of the Church with subscription cards.

In three weeks we shall have Confirmation, and there is still time for adults to join the class. In Confirmation we emphasize Mental Preparation (class instruction and private reading); Spiritual Preparation (church attendance and private devotions); and Desire (wanting to be confirmed), as the three elements that should precede receiving the rite. Mental Preparation can be made up by private reading; Spiritual Preparation may have been going on in one unconsciously through God working in us; but Desire to be Confirmed is the main prerequisite, for desire may be, and usually is, the Holy Spirit of God guiding us to become a member of the Beloved Community, God's Church. That is why we still leave the way open for adults to enter the class, i. e., because we place such importance on one's desire to join. If you want to be confirmed, or are "just considering it," speak to the Rector soon and come to the class at seven o'clock this evening in the Parish House.

Because the Parish Dinner on February 1 will entail the use of the Parish House all day by way of preparation, the Woman's Auxiliary will not have its usual all-day meeting on February 1, as they would normally have it, that Thursday being the first Thursday in the month. Instead, they have postponed their all-day meeting to February 8, when they will have luncheon together, and also some one from the mission field to speak. Meanwhile meetings are held every Thursday, beginning at ten in the morning, with coffee at 12.30 noon, members bringing their own lunch.

Lent will be with us in about ten days—on February 7—a week from next Wednesday. It comes early this year, because Easter comes so early—on March 24. One of the tools we try to use during Lent is self-examination, so that we may really know ourselves. For it is surprising, when you come to think about it, that so few people have any idea of what they are really like. It is strange that we can be so abysmally ignorant of serious defects in our own characters, and that we pride ourselves so often on virtues which exist only in our own imaginations. For example: A clergyman was asked by a parishioner of importance to tell him his faults. The rector was reluctant to accede to the request, and asked, "Do you seriously wish to hear, not what I but what all who know you think of your character?" "Yes." "And you will promise not to be angry?" "Yes." The clergyman then painted for him a picture of what people agreed was a good portrait of him, leaving nothing out by way of extenuation nor adding anything by way of malice. And even while he was talking the seeker flew into a violent rage, and exclaimed, "It's absolutely absurd. I am nothing like that." I do not believe that he ever forgave his rector, and it cured the clergyman of telling people their faults unless compelled to do so in the line of duty.

You will hear it said that every one knows his faults only he does not like to think about them, and if he can help it never opens the door of the closet where they are concealed. This may be true, but generally, as in disease, there are symptoms which the person notices, but never connects with any grave malady, until his physician tells him, "You have such and such a malady." For example, a person may notice that he gives unwillingly, that he calculates how little he can give without a twinge of conscience, that he is not interested in causes where much giving is required, that he sets much store by that sweet phrase, "Charity begins at home." But when those symptoms are all presented to an expert and he says immediately, "You are stingy and set too much store by money," the man is very much ruffled and thinks the verdict most unjust. So with lying, and with even more serious offenses. The facts cannot be denied, but the circumstances leading up to the facts are draped and gilded and disguised to so great a degree that the guilty one cannot believe that he is guilty of deliberate dishonesty; i. e., that he is a plain, everyday liar, etc.

Well, Lent is a time when the Christians of the world try to be honest with themselves and see what they really are. If one takes the Ten Commandments and asks questions carefully, such as, for instance, the first commandment, which prohibits idols, he asks himself, "Am I making an idol of money, or pleasure, or popularity?" I am sure that he will know much more about himself after the examination than he has ever known before. If one uses Lent as helpfully as this, one will never regret using the opportunity.

Would you like to know the enrollment of our Church School? Here are the figures as of January 1, 1940:

	Pupils		Teachers		Officers
	Boys	Girls	Male	Female	Male	Female
Kindergarten	17	26	..	5	4	3
Primary	30	27	..	9	..	..

On Tuesday of this week the Rector assisted in the Office for the Burial of the Dead in Christ Church and St. Michael's, for the Rev. Charles Henry Arndt, D.D., Rector Emeritus of that parish. Dr. Arndt was beloved by thousands and will be much missed. He died on January 18; his body was interred at West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

We hope for a crowded church next Sunday evening when Bishop Charles Fiske comes to us for the rite of Confirmation. Bishop Fiske is well known in this diocese, having been one of the Lenten preachers at Brotherhood of St. Andrew services for many years, and whenever he was announced to preach, the theater was packed to the doors. He will preach for us, in addition to confirming our candidates, and we can promise you a stirring, helpful message. We hope that many will remain after service to welcome our new members and to meet the Bishop. The hour of service is eight o'clock, and the offering taken at the service will be given to Bishop Taitt for his "Discretionary Fund." Let next Sunday evening's service be a high-water mark for attendance. Make up your mind now to come!

The Vestry had a meeting on Wednesday evening of last week and spent much time planning necessary repairs and setting up a budget for 1940, based on the returns of the Every Member Canvass recently completed. Expenditures for 1940 will be about the same as for 1939, except that more money will have to be used for repairs in and about the buildings. We are about to paint the Green Room, the hallway leading to the Green Room, and the Brown Room. And when the Green Room is freshly painted, we shall secure and lay the new carpet which is now being purchased. As far as we can see, there is a sum of about $160 that has been raised so far specifically for the new floor covering. The proper committee is at work trying to eliminate the noises that annoy us so much when steam crackles and bangs in the radiator pipes. It was reported that last year was the high-water mark in the history of the Parish in numbers of those who, by confirmation and transfer, became members of our congregational family. Truly we have much to thank God for in Grace Church.

If any who are not yet regular contributors care to assume some share of the cost of maintaining our buildings and services, they can do so by dropping a post card to our Accounting Warden, or giving him a telephone call. His name is ALBERT C. BRAND; residence, 301 East Durham Street; telephone, CHE 1228.

Because the Parish Dinner on February 1 will entail the use of the Parish House all day by way of preparation, the Woman's Auxiliary will not have its usual all-day meeting on February 1, as they would normally have it, that Thursday being the first Thursday in the month. Instead, they have postponed their all-day meeting to February 8, when they will have luncheon together, and also some one from the mission field to speak. Meanwhile meetings are held every Thursday, beginning at ten in the morning, with coffee at 12.30 noon, members bringing their own lunch.

On Wednesday of this week we shall begin observing Lent. And in a great diocese like ours Lent is outstanding as an opportunity to attend many worthwhile inspirational services. For example: Daily, at 12.30 noon, at the Locust Street Theater, men aglow with stirring messages will share the thoughts of their hearts with audiences who have given up part of their lunch hour to share the speaker's experiences with God. Also, on Thursday evenings at eight o'clock in Holy Trinity Church, great Christian leaders, gathered from various points of the East, will give their best to help us follow the Lord Christ, this week's preacher being the Right Rev. M. E. Peabody, formerly Rector of our neighboring parish, St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, and now Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Central New York. So, daily, in Old Christ Church, and in St. Stephen's Church, in the heart of the city, well-known clergymen will deliver helpful messages to large audiences. In addition, in our own parish church will be held daily services of Evening Prayer (except on Mondays), Sunday evening services with choir and sermon, and Wednesday evening services with singers and addresses by the Rector. If one were residing in remote rural regions, he would miss much of these opportunities, and wish that he were near where they were available. Because they are provided so abundantly, annually, and are so accessible, we tend to take them for granted and neglect attending them. This ought not so to be.

On the other hand, many of us need just what remote areas help to provide, opportunities of being much alone with God. If one were to attend classes under the world's greatest teachers, and do no "home work," he would in the end be little better off in the realm of secular education. It is mulling over what has been shown us; studying; thinking; making it our very own, that counts. So in the realm of religion; what most of us need is to shut out extraneous interests and do some religious "home work"; cultivate God; learn to know Him rather than know more about Him, and gain first-hand relationship with our Lord. Through meditation, through making our communions well prepared, through slipping into Church between services and listening to Him, through getting into the right atmosphere before bursting into His presence in prayer, through long walks with Him, and through many other time-tested ways—let us use Lent to put first things first; knowing God for Himself. Let us use this Lent as if we would never have another. Let us make it "the best yet."

TONIGHT
8 P.M.
CONFIRMATION!

COME AND WELCOME THE NEW MEMBERS OF OUR FAMILY

On January 21, the Rector and Mr. Irwin baptized Kenneth Green Wood, adult son of Russell S. and Melvina C. Wood.

Tonight, Bishop Charles Fiske will come to us to administer the Apostolic rite of Confirmation and preach. Confirmation is always a joyous and solemn occasion in Grace Church, and every member of our congregation should be present tonight, not only to take part in the rite, but also to welcome the newcomers into our fellowship and to greet the Bishop. We have never heard Bishop Fiske preach a dull sermon (and we have heard him many times); he has always helped us and we look forward to hearing his message tonight. Although we have been limited in the time we have had for preparing them, we feel that this year's class has been unusually attentive and has absorbed much. They are a fine group. We want you to help us make them feel at home in our Church family. One way is to be present and greet them tonight. Remember, then, TONIGHT: eight o'clock: everyone present! Come!

This week we received from Christ Church and St. Michael's, Germantown, the formal transfer of Eleanor Rosen (Mrs. Charles) King. She is now duly enrolled on our Parish Register as "a Communicant in Good Standing."

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will hold an all-day meeting on Thursday of this week. At the 9.30 services of the Holy Communion we will collect and bless the "Epiphany Pennies," which will then be given to the House of Rest, our diocesan home for the aged. There will be sewing and folding surgical bandages; prayers at noon; luncheon at 12.30; a talk after luncheon on fiscal methods by the Rector, and more work in the Green Room afterward. All women are invited.

Our Choirmaster, Mr. Robinson, is asking all men who will, to sing in a special choir at the services on Wednesday evenings during Lent. The first rehearsal of the group will be held on Wednesday, February 13, at 7.30 P. M.—just before service. If you like to sing or feel the call of loyalty, come!

The monthly business meeting of the Monday Auxiliary will be held on Monday, February 5. Coffee will be served at one o'clock, members bringing their own lunch.

Our Church does not lay down specific rules for Lent, but on Page xxxv of the Book of Common Prayer she does say in so many words that the days of Lent are days "on which the Church requires such a measure of abstinence as is more especially suited to extraordinary acts and exercises of devotion." She demands a Lenten program of each one of us, but she leaves the details to our own consciences. Perhaps it would be easier if she were to require that we eat no more than so much butter or meat per day; perhaps if the Church were to say, "You must do so and so and abstain from so and so" we could rest content and obey her mandate, but the danger in such a program lies in the fact that one could scrupulously obey every detail of the command and still fail to grasp the grand principle the Church was endeavoring to inculcate. It might be easier to have one's program drawn up in great detail for himself, but nowhere in the Gospel did our Lord promise or advocate an easy life.

But because Mother Church leaves the details in our own hands, we must not fail to arrange such details. We must not fail to build a program or fail to "keep" Lent. Because she trusts us and puts us on our honor, we must be all the more careful to vindicate her confidence in us and make good. That is the kind of stuff Grace Church people are made of.

And taking Bishop Fiske's advice, let us endeavor for reality—not centering our program on outward observances, but rather on the things of the Spirit. So shall our Lent be blessed.

As we go to press we have just received word that the Reverend Daniel McGregor will lead our devotions from 12 o'clock noon to three o'clock on Good Friday. He has been with us before for this service: we look forward to having him again.

This year the Saturday afternoon Lenten Services will begin with a short organ recital, followed by Choral Evensong led by the choir. Such a service affords a helpful preparation for Sundays.

Every Sunday evening during Lent we shall have a complete evening service with sermon and choir. Come!

Wednesday evening services will begin this week. Mr. Robinson is asking the men of the congregation who care to sing in the Wednesday evening Lenten choir to meet for rehearsal at 7.30 this Wednesday.

There will be no meeting of the Monday Auxiliary on Monday, February 12, due to the holiday—Lincoln's Birthday.

Confirmation services in Grace Church are always occasions of great joy, and at the same time occasions of great solemnity. They challenge one's imagination. On the one hand, you recall the many who have made their vows at God's altar and have taken them seriously. Day by day, month by month, and year by year they bring forth fruit an hundredfold. They are the salt of the earth. On the other hand, as the candidates one by one have the Bishop's hands laid on their heads, after the example of the Holy Apostles, an earnest person cannot fail to remember many of past years who likewise have received the gift of the Holy Ghost but resemble the rock on which the good seed fell in our Lord's parable, who "when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and, in time of temptation fall away." They burn themselves out. Last Sunday evening's Confirmation Service was wonderful. Bishop Fiske gave a personal charge to the candidates which will remain in their minds for many a day. His sermon was helpful for all—a résumé of our Lord's constant demand for reality and genuineness. There were 33 in the class, and although the Rector was disappointed that there were only a few more than 300 at the service, the rite was so solemn and the candidates so earnest that all felt that God was very near indeed. The names of the candidates follow: Betty McCallion, Peggy Nichuals, Daniel Jackson, James Snyder, Roy Hand, Jr., Betty Carpenter, Sybil Diane Swan, Lydia Todd, Kenneth G. Wood, James F. Powell, Richard H. Lehman, Jean L. Lenz, Robert R. Mawson, Joan L. Schimpf, Sally G. Schleyer, Muriel Swanburgh, Barbara Davis, Hope Pfaff, Susan Jones, John R. Waechter, Lorraine G. Waechter, Matilda Mortimer, Roy Hand, John Vinton Miller, Jr., Ann Powell, Anna Ruth Bracken, Ruth M. U. Doelp, Edward Adam Doelp, Gertrude Emma Skiotis, Eleanor Anderson, Winston Anderson, Margaret Helen Nichuals, Herbert Dever Clopp.

From the Parish Register: On Saturday, February 3, the Rector read the Burial Office for Hood McKay, who died at his late residence, 214 Fairhill Avenue, Glenside, on February 1. Interment was at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

On Quinquagesima Sunday, February 4, the Rector baptized John Vinton Miller, Jr., an adult, whose parents are John Vinton and Jeanne Stewart Miller. The witnesses were Mrs. Charles Carrigan and Mrs. Alec R. Amos, Jr.

MR. EISEMAN'S CHURCH SCHOOL CLASS

IN THE PARISH HOUSE

BENEFIT OF LENTEN OFFERING

Charge, 35 Cents

This week we are making the experiment of mailing the Parish News third class (1½ cents) instead of first class (2 cents), thereby saving a considerable amount of postage, as our mailing list is nearly 350. However, the important thing is that the paper should be in your hands by Sunday. If this number is not delivered to you before Sunday, please notify the Rector at once when it does reach you.

The Young People's Fellowship is meeting at 7 o'clock Sunday evenings in the Parish House, instead of at 8 o'clock. This change of hour is necessitated each Lent because there is an 8 o'clock Church Service during Lent and the Fellowship may not meet at the same hour. Many of the group come to the Fellowship meeting and attend church together afterward. The group is planning to have the Church Service read by its members on one of the coming Sunday evenings.

From the Parish Register: On Ash Wednesday, February 7, the Rector read the Office for the Burial of the Dead for Frank V. Chambers, who died at his late residence, 7321 Boyer Street, on February 3. Interment was made at West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

On the first Sunday in Lent the Rev. Mr. Irwin baptized Ronald Turville Ward, son of C. Taylor Ward and Gertrude P. Ward. Ronald was born on December 9, 1939, in Philadelphia, and his parents are his sponsors in baptism.

Members of our Men's Club will remember vividly the missionary-monk from Africa who talked to them several years ago about his fourteen years' experiences in the hinterland of Liberia. He had just returned to America, being obliged to leave his beloved black men because he had been elected Superior of his Order. Men's Club members will remember him because of his inspirational talk and because the group was so interested that they kept him until midnight answering questions. Well, Fr. Whittemore is still in America, and is going to preach next Thursday evening in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets, in a series of Lenten sermons being given there weekly, and we know that many of our people will want to hear him. The hour is 8 o'clock.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild hold all-day meetings every Thursday during Lent: Holy Communion service at 9.30; sewing and folding surgical bandages until 12 o'clock noon; at 12 o'clock, prayers and intercessions; at 12.30 luncheon and a short talk on some phase of the Church's work. All women are invited to come.

One of the very first references that we have to Christianity from a non-Christian source is a letter from Pliny, Governor of Bithynia, to the Emperor at Rome. The Governor had been asking how he should treat the Christians, and his Emperor in turn had asked him to make a report on them and their habits. So Pliny went to great trouble to discover what Christians were and what their belief was. In his letter to the Emperor he says that Christians are quiet, peaceable people who meet together at daybreak on the first day of the week to partake of a simple ceremonial meal, in which they worship a certain Jesus as their God. They bind themselves not to cheat nor commit fornication, and after singing a simple hymn, they disperse. In Acts 20, verse 7, we read: "And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread . . ."; this was in Troas, and St. Paul stopped off from his missionary journey to make his Communion with the brethren there and to preach. But the important point is the sentence—"Upon the first day of the week when the disciples came together to break bread," indicating that it was the common practice of early Christians to make their Communions weekly. This is one Lenten privilege which all of us ought to prize more than we do, the opportunity more frequently to receive the Holy Communion. If this be the greatest blessing ever vouchsafed the soul, and the chiefest means of grace, surely no chance of having it should be missed. When your Rector was a lad one could not commune more than once a month, and in some parishes not more than once in two months, for frequent celebrations were unknown; the pioneers in weekly Communions were called papists and other unpleasing names. Now, in almost all churches, there is at least an early Communion every Sunday. In our own Grace Church we have services of Holy Communion much more often. Carefully prepared for, there is no act of worship which will be found more precious, fuller of spiritual help, more peaceful, more uplifting. Why not in your Lenten program include a resolution to come out every Sunday morning during Lent and make your Communion at the half-past seven service?

The Rector's sermon last Sunday morning brought out the fact that the Gospels for Lent were selected upon the principle of so presenting the earthly life of Jesus as to bring forth again the response which He received from His disciples in the days of His flesh. The disciples did not know Him theologically; it did not once enter their heads that He was God of God; Light of Light; Very God of Very God. Not at all. It was the human Saviour whom they loved. Deeply and sincerely they cared for this delightful human Jesus who allowed them to adventure through life with Himself. It was only after the resurrection that they identified Him with God. "And," continued the preacher, "this personal relationship to Jesus was and still is at the bottom of the Christian religion. We come to Christ not via theology, but via companionship with Him. Dogmas, teachings, have their place, and a very important place it is. But the basis of the Christian faith is personal and living. It is a Person who is the object of this faith, a Person who can be known, and whom to know, is to love. This differentiates Christianity from every other religion in the world. It shows how wrong men are who refuse to accept Christianity until all their intellectual doubts are dissolved. One, first of all, cultivates friendship with the Living Jesus, and then one by one the theological implications of His Being begin to make themselves clear. Christianity is not arguing about theology: it is a fellowship with the Second Person of the Trinity. Unless one's religion consists in this fellowship, it is dreary, unproductive, and unreal. But when one's religion consists in fellowship with the same Jesus that changed the lives of the Apostles, life holds little more to be desired."

There are two parts to Lent—the outward part and the inward part; that which you do with the body and that which you do with the spirit. Think now about the outward part. One often hears that the principal duty of Lent is fasting, and the general idea of fasting is that it means changing one's diet. Indeed, some people think that if they substitute fish for flesh they are keeping Lent. That is absurd. If you enjoy fish as much as many people do, and substitute fish for flesh, you deserve no credit for abstaining from one and consuming the other. The reason that fish came to be thought of as a substitute for flesh was because Queen Elizabeth of England, desiring to raise up a group of seafaring men who could man her ships in time of war, decreed that her people should eat fish at least one day a week, thus giving employment to thousands of fishermen who overnight could take over her ships of war and oppose the enemy. Fish was then eaten on Fridays, which were fast days, and people somehow got it into their minds that eating fish was virtuous and that it fell in line with the precept that one should fast on Fridays.

But fasting from food means just what it says—abstaining. But there are degrees of abstinence. For some of our fellow countrymen abstaining from much food is a year-round economic necessity. But for the most of us who are not in this class, some lessening of our food will do us good physically. We Americans eat too much anyway, and any physician will tell you that many of his cases are connected with overeating. But putting aside any medical advantage that ensues from eating less, our own individual experience tells us that we cannot pray, or think, or listen, or do any mental work half as well under heavy eating as under light diet; and Lent is a time for a great deal of thinking and praying.

All over, wherever our Church conducts Sunday schools, pupils of these schools put forth special efforts during Lent to raise a large sum of money for the general missionary work of the Church. Our own diocese inaugurated this custom many years ago, and annually raises tens of thousands of dollars. Grace Church School has its share in this interesting undertaking. Year by year its members save money from their allowances, give teas, suppers, sell the "Spirit of Missions" (now known as "Forth"), and do a number of other tasks to increase their offering. They are now in the midst of this annual effort. Not only because the cause of missions needs money now as it hasn't needed it for many years, but also because our young people deserve our cooperation in every good work that they undertake, we ask you to back them up in all that they are doing during Lent to build up a larger sum of money this year than usual.

All women of the Parish are invited to come out to the all-day meeting being held next Thursday in the Parish House. Work will go on from ten o'clock until after luncheon, and we expect to have an interesting speaker talk to us at the 12.30 o'clock meal. Come and get acquainted with your neighbors.

We have had no complaints about delayed delivery of the PARISH NEWS due to our mailing it third class rather than first. For the time being we shall continue the experiment. Let us hear from you if you don't receive your copy before Sunday.

For years the Parish has loaned worthwhile religious books to all who cared to read them, especially during Lent. Miss M. Bayard has fostered this good work and is continuing it this year. She reports that some books have been out for a long time and should now be returned; also that Mrs. Frank Brooke will act as librarian on days when Miss Bayard cannot be present.

During Lent the women of the Church are studying Christianity and the World Community. In Grace Church every Thursday interesting papers on what Christianity has done for different nationalities in our Mission Field will be read by different members of the Auxiliary. Those who are writing the papers are Mrs. A. C. Brand, Mrs. William Walton, and Mrs. Frank Sheble.

Tonight our Young People's Fellowship is going to have charge of the Church Service. Evening Prayer will be read by different young men of the congregation, and the group is securing an outstanding young clergyman to preach a sermon for young people. We hope that many older members of the congregation will attend, not only to worship, but also to encourage our fine group of younger people, the future leaders of Grace Church.

Next Sunday evening Integrity Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, is coming to Grace Church for the Evening Service. We hope that many of our own people will make a special effort to be present. Integrity Chapter has its headquarters at Elkins Park: our own Mrs. John Lownes is its Matron. Your Rector has met with the chapter at their annual birthday banquet for the last five years, and feels very close to the members of the Order. They in turn have been most generous in caring for the needs of some of our poor. We are very glad that they are coming.

The Monday Auxiliary will hold its monthly business meeting Monday, March 4, at 1 o'clock, in the Green Room. Dessert and coffee will be served.

MRS. ROY HAND, President

Church School Project: Missionary Quiz—Musical Selections. Sunday, March 3, at 3.30. Tea will be served. Hostesses: Ninth and Tenth Grade girls. In the Green Room.

The custom of keeping a fast just before Easter is of very early origin. Just as a mother who has received a kidnapped child back from its captors is filled with joy at his restoration, yet from time to time hugs the child closer and shudders as she recalls the dreadful hours when he was lost and she thought that she would never see him again, so the early disciples looked on Easter as the most joyous occasion of the year because it marked the day on which they received back their Lord from the dead, yet when they relived Easter they could not forget the gloom and sorrow they had endured during those dreadful forty hours between Jesus' death and the first intimations that they had that He was gloriously alive. Naturally, and without aforethought at first, they kept forty hours of quiet and fasting between Passover and Easter. This observance proved so helpful that it spread throughout the Christian Church. A forty-hour Lent was universally kept. But it didn't prove long enough for the many pious acts they tried to crowd into it, and so was lengthened from time to time until, at the end of the sixth century, under the suggestion of the same Gregory the Great who sent Augustine the monk to England in 596 A.D., the season of Lent was definitely made forty days long, the season being begun on Ash Wednesday, forty-six days before Easter; the Sundays being made days "in" but not "of" Lent. The season has been observed for forty days ever since. From time to time there have been sporadic efforts made to shorten the season because to many the season seems too long to be observed faithfully. But the movement to shorten Lent never gained much backing, and probably the season will continue to last for forty days for centuries to come. On the other hand, some wise pastors have suggested to their people that they begin the season lightly, demanding more and more of themselves as the observance progressed, until Holy Week—at which time they should observe it with full rigidity. Your own Rector believes this to be a good plan, and inasmuch as we are within a few weeks of Easter, he suggests that each one of us should begin to deepen our observance and then, in Holy Week, keep the week as if it were our last opportunity to draw near to the Christ in His sufferings.

In addition to the singing of Evensong by a choir on Saturday afternoons during Lent, Mr. Robinson gives a fifteen-minute Organ Recital before the Service. His selections for 4.15 next Saturday are: Intercessions, Seth Bingham; Prelude on "Pangua lingua," A. P. F. Boely; Adagio, F. Mendelssohn.

On February 23 the Rector read the Burial Office for Louise M. (Mrs. Samuel) Porter, of 60 West Sharpnack Street, who died on February 19. Interment was in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

On February 26 the Rector read the Burial Office for James Howard Fell, who died on February 22. Interment was in Westminster Cemetery.

On February 27 the Rector read the Burial Office for Mary Lloyd (Mrs. James Clark) Whedon, who died on February 24. Interment was in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

Tonight, "Integrity Chapter," Order of the Eastern Star, will come in a body and worship with us. We are glad to have them, for they are a fine group. The Order of the Eastern Star is a woman's sororal organization, founded sixty-four years ago, and is loosely affiliated with Free Masonry. The organization had approximately 13,000 chapters ten years ago, and more than 2,005,000 members, and has been growing steadily ever since, so that today, in numbers alone, it is one of the most powerful groups in the land. But the Order is more than just a great company of outstanding women grouped together; those who have had much experience working with the worthy poor will remember the Order primarily for its good works. It does stress fellowship, comradery, and mutual aid, but those on the outside know it, first of all, for its quiet and unostentatious work among the needy. That is why the Church is glad to honor the organization. We do hope that many of our own people will be in Church this evening to make our guests feel welcome by their presence. The service will not be overlong, and there will be an appropriate sermon. The hour is eight o'clock. Come!

May we remind you again that during Lent the 4.30 Saturday afternoon Choral Evensong Service is preceded by a fifteen-minute organ recital? On March 9 Mr. Robinson will play: (1) Prelude on "Fairest Lord Jesus," by G. Edmunson, and (2) Second Organ Sonata (first and second movements), by F. Mendelssohn. On March 16 he will play: (1) "Priere a Notre Dame," by L. Boellmann; (2) Prelude, "O Sacred Head," by M. Reger, and (3) "All Glory, Laud and Honor," by J. S. Bach.

So many activities are going on all the time in the Parish House that it has become necessary to post a schedule on the Green Room bulletin-board telling what has been planned, lest there be conflicts and several groups make the mistake of planning their affairs for the same room and the same night. The responsibility of drawing up such schedules was given to Mrs. Edgar Hunter, of 153 West Allen Lane, and she has taken her task seriously to heart, always having posted on the bulletin-board two schedules, one for the current month and one for the month just ahead. It is obvious that every organization of Grace Church should appoint one of its members to keep Mrs. Hunter informed of the meetings that they are arranging, so that the representative may find out whether the Parish House is available and if it is, then Mrs. Hunter can at once preempt the rooms for the desired meeting. Such schedule planning is workable only if every one cooperates. Please!

Are you a girl younger than fourteen and older than ten years? If you are, you will probably be interested to know that we are starting a branch of the Girl Scouts. We have had such an organization in mind for a long time, and now it is to become a reality. All depends on whether there will be enough girls to justify the effort and time that it will take to run such a troop. If you are of the right age and want to join, let the Rector know at once.

Two weeks from today we shall observe Easter. This Holy Day has been observed from very early times as THE great Holy Day of the year. In the primitive Church it was one of the special days for administering Holy Baptism, and the Latin name for the Sunday after Easter, "Dominica in Albis" (White Sunday), is a relic of the custom of the newly baptized wearing their robes during the octave of the feast. In Grace Church we make a point of having baptisms on Easter Even, just before Evensong. At Easter in the early Church the faithful greeted each other with the kiss of peace and the salutation, "Christ is risen," and the response was, "He is risen, indeed."

The proper time for celebrating Easter has caused much debate. As early as the second century a bitter dispute on this very subject arose between the Eastern and the Western Church, the great body of Christians celebrating Easter on the Jewish Passover, thinking of Christ as the Paschal Lamb; the Western Church observing it on the following Sunday, declaring the feast to be the annual commemoration of the resurrection of Jesus. The issue was decided at the Council of Nicea in 325 A.D. in favor of the Western usage. Easter is now commemorated on the first Sunday after the spring full moon, i. e., after the first full moon following March 21, the first day of spring. It never occurs before March 22 nor after April 25. In 1818 Easter fell on March 22, and this will not happen again in our century. The latest Easter in this century will occur on April 25, 1943. Next year Easter will occur on April 13, three weeks later than it does this year.

On Wednesday, March 13, at 10.30, Mrs. Norman Perkins will be our guest and conduct an all-day institute for the women of Grace Church. Her subject will be, "Christianity and the World Community." May we not have a large attendance? Luncheon will be served at 12.30.

The pupils of Miss Bruen's Church School Class will give a Musical Tea on Friday evening, March 15, at 8.30, at 330 Roumfort Road. There will be a silver offering, and all proceeds will go for the benefit of the Lenten offering. An interesting and entertaining program of recorded music is promised.

The chief stumbling-block that stands in the way, preventing many people from having the joy that comes from believing wholeheartedly in the continuance of life after death, is the fact that they are unable to see how consciousness can continue after the brain structure is destroyed. To them, brain structure and consciousness are so intimately associated in this body that they cannot picture how one can be destroyed without the other being destroyed also. Nor can they visualize the continued existence of one, after the other, which always heretofore was associated with it, has ended its work forever.

But it is a fairly well-established principle in modern psychology that the sum of all physical processes does not give us the fact of consciousness. In every case, consciousness transcends the physical organism where it resides. This can be made clear by a simple illustration. With the x-ray one is able to see through the flesh which clothes one's forearm, to study the two bones and all the hidden articulation of wrist and hand. One can note their condition and detect injury or disease. In other words, it is possible for a man to watch the movements of his own body under the muscular action which he himself initiates. And in all this, one is reviewing them as something objective to one's own consciousness! Now suppose that we had some more powerful and more delicate form of x-ray which would enable us to witness those atomic changes and molecular movements in the brain which accompany our changing emotions. By such aid one could stand before a mirror and watch the physical changes taking place in the brain when he passed from a mood of despondency to one of benign feeling. In that case who would be doing the watching? Certainly not the brain itself, for the brain is the organism that is being watched. It, itself, is being studied and observed by an intelligent witness of its movements. And what is that something that views the brain itself as a thing objective to its immediate surroundings? That something is the human soul, which survives the physical change that men call death.

Of course, the removal of this stumbling-block is not final proof of immortality. We offer the above considerations merely to help clear the ground for those who are trying to think the problem through and have to overcome in their minds what we have had to overcome in ours. Our real confidence in life after death comes from our faith and belief in God as revealed in the Lord Jesus. Without that faith and belief, our attitude would be only a wishful "hope to goodness"; with that faith it is a belief that colors all our lives and makes our faces shine with hope and expectancy when otherwise we could not bear to go on. That is why Christians are so joyous on Easter Day.

The Bible was not written chapter by chapter, but paragraph by paragraph, and not divided up into chapters until many years after the contents of the Bible were written. If you remember this, noting how the subjects were summed up in groups of verses called "chapters" by mediaeval printers, and then note how the writers' minds went on naturally from one subject to another, you will find it very enlightening to consider what things were associated in the authors' minds which have been disassociated by the arbitrary grouping into chapters. Today's message on immortality, which we read in the fifteenth chapter of St. Paul's first epistle to the Corinthians, affords a telling example. St. Paul has been trying, with all the eloquence of his eloquent pen, to convince his readers of the sureness of life after death: as he goes on he gets more and more worked up, coming to a grand climax in verse 57: "But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." Then with fervor he proceeds to drive his lesson home, saying, "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord." The chapter ends there, but St. Paul did not end there. Not at all, he continues (chapter 16): "Now since this is so, I want to talk to you about your duty to give generously for those in need, through the Church." There is no hiatus here in St. Paul's mind. Between Easter joy and Easter giving of dollars and cents there exists no let down. The two go hand in hand.

Now you make the point for yourself, from this consideration. We are giving our Easter offerings to the Episcopal Hospital, which in turn gives the money out in service for God's needy poor who are also sick in body. Let's tie up our Easter joy (as St. Paul tied the two up in 1 Corinthians, 15) with the giving of money, as an outlet for our joy. Make your Easter offering big, generous, worthy! All loose

The Young People's Fellowship will hold its meeting tonight at 8 o'clock, and meet at that same hour from now on. From now until June is the last lap of the Fellowship year. Let's make it outstanding in attendance, interest, and programs.

An annual election of vestrymen will take place in the Parish House on Easter Monday, between the hours of five and six o'clock in the afternoon. "Every adult member of said Church who shall appear on the Vestry Books to have contributed during two successive years immediately preceding the time of such election to the support of said Church under any system of pledges which may from time to time have been by it adopted, in accordance with his pledge, sums aggregating not less than five dollars in each of said years, shall be entitled to one vote at any such election. A majority of such members present and voting shall be sufficient for such election." (Article 1, By-Laws of Grace Church, Mt. Airy.) The vestry will meet on Tuesday evening for its Reorganization Meeting.

Attendance at our Easter Services again passed the 1400 mark and 1400 constitutes a large group of people. While all who came on Easter Day do not belong to us, the figures indicate that at least that many people attend Grace Church when they go to Church, and look on your Rector as their minister in times of spiritual need. In terms of salesmanship, they are "good prospects." Bishop Taitt facetiously told some of us on Easter Monday that we ought to precede our Easter sermons by wishing every one in the congregation "a merry Christmas," lest we do not see them again until next Easter. Seriously, this large group of worshippers at Easter-tide presents a great opportunity. If every member of our congregation were to take his responsibility seriously, these people—practically all of them—could be brought nearer to God through his Church. This is not an idle conjecture, for we know a congregation not many miles away from here that was without a pastor for a year and a half. During that period the members of that group went to work assiduously gathering in new people, and when a new man was called and came to assume leadership over them, the congregation had grown from 700 to 1400, and the average attendance at services had increased from less than 300 to more than 650. There were two factors in that increase: first, the people took their responsibilities as home missionaries seriously, and, secondly, they followed the injunction set down in the Offices of Instruction in our Book of Common Prayer (page 291): "My bounden duty is to follow Christ, to worship God every Sunday in his Church; and to work and pray and give for the spread of his kingdom."

Of course, numbers of themselves are not an index of spiritual success; we have known great clergymen who never ministered to large congregations, but who so inspired the outstanding men and women that they did minister to that these men and women went out individually and won hundreds of thousands in other places for the Christ. Nevertheless, we owe it to our Lord to share our blessings with others. To make this sermonette specific: Ha e you tried to bring some one regularly to God through His Church?

It may seem strange to some of you that the Church is observing the Feast of the Annunciation tomorrow, for the announcement of Jesus' birth was made exactly nine months before his birth, i. e., on March 25. But March 25 this year fell on Easter Monday, and in the Book of Common Prayer, page xxxii, we have the rule that "Easter Day and the seven following days" (the octave of Easter) "have precedence over other Holy Days," and "if any other Holy Day fall on any day noted in the preceding Table, the observance of such Holy Day shall be transferred to the first convenient open day." Hence we shall observe the Annunciation tomorrow.

On Easter Day the Rector baptized Carla Diane George, daughter of Thomas Carl and Martha Helen George. Carla was born in Philadelphia on December 31, 1939. Her godparents are Urquhart Ward, Jr., and (Mrs.) Winona Henderson George.

On March 21 the Rector read the Burial Office for (Mrs.) Amanda Spencer, who died at her late residence, 625 East Allen Lane, on March 18. Interment was at Hillside Cemetery.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will hold an all-day meeting on April 4, Thursday of this week. The speaker will be Mrs. Francis Packard, her subject being "The United Thank Offering." Luncheon will be served at 12.30 noon.

Tonight our Young People's Fellowship will meet with the Young People's Fellowship of St. Paul's Church, Doylestown. Automobiles for Doylestown will leave from in front of Grace Church at 7 P. M. There will be a Corporate Communion of the Fellowship next Sunday morning at the 7.30 service; this will be followed by breakfast provided in the Parish House.

Easter attendance was as follows: 6 A. M., 45; 7.30 A. M., 172; 9.30 A. M. (Leamy Home), 31; 11 A. M., 664; 3.30 P. M., 471.

At the Easter election the following named gentlemen were elected to serve for four years: Messrs. Albert C. Brand, John E. Greaves, William F. Wagner, and Dr. Henry J. Gideon. At the Reorganization Meeting of the Vestry on Easter Tuesday, Mr. Horace Fortescue was reappointed Rector's Warden; Mr. Albert C. Brand was re-elected Accounting Warden; Mr. John E. Greaves was re-elected Deputy Accounting Warden and Registrar, and Mr. William F. Wagner was re-elected Secretary of the Vestry. Messrs. Brand, Greaves, and Wagner were elected Deputies to the Diocesan Convention; Messrs. Meehan and Thornton were elected Alternate Deputies. The following committees of the Vestry were appointed for the coming year: FINANCE: Messrs. Fortescue, Brand, Greaves, and Thornton; BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS: Messrs. Farnham, Dorwarth, and Burness; CHOIR: Messrs. Meehan, Sibson and Wagner; MEMORIALS: Messrs. Fortescue, Thornton, and White; CHURCH SCHOOL: Messrs. Thornton, White, and Gideon; MISSIONARY: Messrs. Gideon, White, Wagner, and Burness; in each case the first named gentleman is Chairman of his Committee.

There will be no meeting of the Monday Auxiliary on April 1, but we will meet with the Thursday Auxiliary on April 4 at 10 o'clock. Luncheon will be served at 12.30, and there will be sewing in the afternoon.—ADALAIDE A. MACKIN, Secretary.

On Tuesday, April 16, there will be a Parish Social Evening. Please mark it on your calendar now and look for further details in next week's issue of the PARISH NEWS.

We did not observe Family Sunday this Lent, the reason being that while we were preparing to keep the day, a great loss fell on the Parish in the death of one of our most loved vestrymen, and we didn't have the heart to go ahead with our plans. However, inasmuch as we observe "Family Sunday" and not "Mothering Sunday," there is no reason why we should not keep the day later in the year. This we intend to do and will tell you of it later. We hope to keep the day at some time near Whitsunday.

From time to time we hear of young people who decide that, having absorbed enough religious education, and not liking the idea of getting up comparatively early on Sunday mornings, for "Saturday nights are nights for jollification and it is just impossible to get to bed at a reasonable hour on Saturday night, and as a result I am too tired to get up for Church School on Sunday morning," as a result, I say, of this attitude, they have decided "to give up Church School and go to Church instead." Usually these same young people have been so irregular in Church School attendance that they haven't absorbed much religious education. Bishop Taitt, in speaking of them, remarked that they remind him of a woman who, on being introduced to a certain professor, said to him, "Oh, you are the man from whom my son took mathematics"; to which the teacher replied, "No, madam, he was exposed to it under me, but he really never took it." So these youngsters have often been exposed to religious education, but really haven't taken it. Now, religious education is not a matter for those of tender years only, but for men and women of all ages: one can never absorb enough religious education. But the fundamental mistake these young people make is not in assuming that, when one reaches a certain age, he has acquired enough religious education: the real mistake that they make is in assuming that attending Church is a substitute for attending Church School. Attending Church and attending Church School are not in opposition to each other, but complementary. In Church School one learns about God; in Church one comes in contact with God Himself. There can be no opposition between learning and worship. Both are needed. The Rector trembles when he realizes what would happen to our young people and to this land if every boy or girl who felt like quitting school at adolescence were permitted to do so. We feel the same way about religious education. One can never learn enough or outgrow the need for more. People are more ignorant about Christianity and what it stands for than they are about any-

Church let no one say, "I'm going to quit going to Church School and go to Church instead," for, apart from the fallacies implied in the position thus taken, as pointed out above, as a matter of experience we have come to believe that when a parent agrees to such a position, the matter ends up by the child attending neither Church School nor Church.

At our last diocesan Convention a resolution was passed requesting each congregation to make an annual offering for the House of Rest for the Aged. Most of you know much about this home, because our own women have been so actively interested in the institution for many years and have brought the matter to our attention. Bishop Taitt followed up the resolution of Convention by asking the various congregations to accede to Convention's resolution, and he has asked us to take up such an annual offering in special envelopes to be provided and placed on the alms basins, on some Sunday set aside for that purpose. Your vestry concluded that because the need is great and many of our women are interested in the work, they would concur with Bishop Taitt's appeal and have such an annual offering. This offering is to be taken on the Third Sunday in October, because there are no other special offerings at that time of year. The collection, therefore, will be taken on October 20.

The Young People's Fellowship will have a Corporate Communion, followed by breakfast, this morning. This evening their special speaker will be Dr. Richard Blizard, who will talk on "Medicine as a Profession." This is in line with a series of interesting talks our young people are having with regard to choosing one's life-work. The date of the Spring Festival has been set for May 25.

Every year, soon after Easter Day, the Church Schools of the Diocese hold a great Diocesan Service for the presentation of the Lenten offerings of the Church Schools. This year the service will be held as usual at Holy Trinity Church, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets. The day set for the service is Sunday, April 28, and the hour is 4 P. M. The speaker this year will be the Reverend Dr. Charles W. Sheerin. All Junior Choirs of the diocese are asked to come, vested. We shall need many automobiles to transport our children.

On March 28 we received the Canonical transfer of Dr. Garrett A. Berry, and added him officially to our list of Communicants in Good Standing. Dr. Berry comes to us from St. Paul's Church, Mt. Lebanon, Penna.

On March 29 we also received the Canonical transfer of Mrs. Marie E. Davis, and she in turn has been added to our official list of members in good standing. Mrs. Davis comes to us from Christ Church Cathedral, Hartford, Conn.

On March 28 the Rector read the Office for the Burial of the Dead for Samuel James Porter, who died suddenly at his late residence, 60 West Sharpnack Street, on March 25. Interment was made at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

The Green Room carpet that we have been needing and planning for over a course of several years has been secured and laid. It is now in use, and everyone who sees it admires it much. It was just what we needed. Now all that we have to do is to pay for it. But that is not so easy. When we began to think about purchasing a carpet, different individuals and organizations went to work to help secure the necessary money. The Monday Auxiliary gave a benefit theater party; a member of the Woman's Auxiliary ran a card party in her home; the Young People's Fellowship made a substantial donation, and has promised $30.00 more; at Eastertime one of our parishioners sent in $25.00 toward the project, and the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild has promised to do all it can to make up the difference between what we have and what we need. But the hitch is that their treasury is almost flat. Due to a very large, unexpected bill coming in, they haven't enough to make good their promise without allowing other claims on their treasury to go unpaid. So we are presenting this report to you generally with the idea in the back of our minds that some who read this might be able and like to make a generous contribution toward the cost of the carpet. Mr. A. C. Brand, of 301 East Durham Street, will be glad to receive your contribution, and we would all be especially pleased if the whole matter could be closed—soon! The cost of the carpet was $478.00.

Parishioners, One and All! Be sure to save Tuesday, April 16, for the Parish Social Evening, in the rejuvenated Green Room, where you will be entertained by musical numbers under the direction of Mr. Newell Robinson, and dramatic readings by Miss Adelaide Sheble and Mrs. William Bishop. Every one welcome!

Said Bishop Stewart in his recent Convention Address to the Diocese of Chicago: "This year General Convention will meet at Kansas City. Many important matters will come before that body. But there is one central vital, most important subject which, I hope—and I know the Presiding Bishop hopes—may be dominant. It lies at the core of all our problems, because it is at the very heart of our discipleship. How shall I name it or describe it? It is very personal, very vital, very mystical, very practical, very real. Sometimes it has been called 'conversion'; sometimes 'being aglow with God.' John Wesley knew what it meant. Methodists have just been celebrating the two hundredth anniversary of that experience in Aldersgate Street, London, when a priest of our Church, John Wesley, 'felt his heart strangely moved' and went out to turn the world upside down by his flaming witness. Francis of Assisi knew what it meant, for he was changed from a dry stick of a Christian to a flaming torch which lighted Assisi and Lodi and Sienna and Spoleto, and finally a whole Western World with his witness. St. Paul knew what it meant: 'I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me,' and so the flame of his living leaps and burns in witness across the continents and across many centuries. What, then, shall I call it? I shall call it the typical witness of a Christ captured Life, and the Will to Witness to Him. This Church of ours needs—how it needs!—this experience in all its clergy and people."

We are respectable—frozen stiff with respectability: so were the Scribes and Pharisees. We are smug—disgustingly so, with an assumption of social superiority. We have enormous wealth in our constituency, yet our per capita giving for all purposes is less than that of the Presbyterians and the United Presbyterians, while our per capita giving to church causes outside of the Parish is below almost all of the larger communions. The per capita average giving to missions and benevolences by the United Presbyterians is $29 per year; by the Seventh Day Baptists, $26; by the Methodist Church of the South, $25; by the Northern Baptists, $24; by the Dunkers, $22; by the Moravians, $21. Our average is $11. We are third from the bottom of the list!

We have beautiful churches, well-ordered services, an incomparable Liturgy (how we dote on that phrase!), but are the poor, the halt, the maimed, the blind, the illiterate, the great ruck of the unchurched, pressing for a share in our worship? They are not. And yet we greatly admire ourselves. We are not guiltless of the charge of Narcissism. Let us listen to the stern words of the regnant Christ: "I know thy works. . . Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee . . . be zealous therefore, and repent. Behold I stand at the door, and knock."

Behold I stand at the door, and knock."

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME BEGINS NEXT SUNDAY!

On Wednesday, May 1, the Boy Scouts will entertain, in the Green Room, the parents and friends of scouting. Among the many features being planned are an exhibition of each boy's hobby, demonstrations of scoutcraft, motion pictures, and an investiture service. Although the gathering is planned primarily to better acquaint the parents with the activities of Troop 318, an invitation is extended to every one.

The Church School teachers held a meeting last Sunday evening, and, among other things, discussed how to prevent the slump in attendance that usually takes place at this time of year. It was decided to ask the Student Council to suggest what can be done, and to request the parents to cooperate with the School by seeing to it that their children attend regularly at each of the six teaching sessions that still remain before Commencement, on June 2. The Worship Service; curriculum; special events to make the sessions of the School more interesting; all these and other problems were discussed. Plans were made to improve them. It might be interesting to know the record of our School in its Lenten givings for Missions. Here it is for the last decade:

1932.....	$291.55	1937.....	$366.42
1933.....	$223.89	1938.....	$381.16
1934.....	$264.62	1939.....	$353.57
1935.....	$275.17	1940.....	$355.97

We need transportation to convey members of the Church School to and from Holy Trinity Church next Sunday afternoon. Please, right away, as soon as service is over, tell the Rector how many of our young people you will transport.

On April 13 we received a formal letter of transfer for Elsie Irene (Mrs. George) Berry, of Nolen Street. Mrs. Berry was transferred to us from Calvary Church, Conshohocken, Pa., and is now a Communicant in Good Standing of Grace Church.

Almost every one likes motion pictures, especially authentic outdoor sport pictures. That is why we hope for a crowded Green Room tomorrow evening when the Young People's Fellowship will have a showing of deep-sea fishing off the West coast of Mexico. The title isn't attractive ("Fishes from Hell"), and was probably attached to the pictures because these fish were caught at great depths, on the ocean's bottom. But they are unusual; were made by professionals, and equal anything seen on the screen in the better commercial theaters. We are told that they will keep one on the edge of his seat with excitement. To make it possible to sleep when one returns home after the show the Fellowship will top the evening off with a Mickey Mouse, a Popeye, or a Donald Duck. There will be no admission charge, but there will be a container in which you are asked to give a substantial offering which will be used by the Fellowship to make good their pledge toward the cost of the Green Room carpet, and to do their share in a Convocational project. So—Come! Have a good time with us! Back up your young people tomorrow, Monday, evening, at 8 o'clock!

The Diocese of Pennsylvania will run another Summer Conference at Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pa., beginning with supper on Sunday, June 23, and ending after breakfast on Friday, June 28. So successful was the first Conference held last year that this year it will be necessary to limit the number accepted because so many are desirous of going, and the facilities for eating and sleeping are limited to 180. That means that registrations must be in early for those who want to attend, because the committee has decided that people will be accepted according to the priority of their applications. Mrs. Pratt Thompson, who represented our Parish last year, will be glad to answer any questions any one might have to ask concerning the Conference. The age limit is from sixteen years up.

The Young People's Fellowship held its annual election last Sunday evening, with the following results: President, Wallace Stilz; Vice-President, William F. Bishop; Recording Secretary, Roberta Morrison; Treasurer, Blodwyn Wipplinger; Corresponding Secretary, Isabella S. Gammons.

Last week, Albert Buchanan, retiring President of our Fellowship, was elected Treasurer of the Diocesan Fellowship.

The Parish Fellowship will have a Corporate Communion this morning at 7.30 o'clock. Members are requested to remain in the church building after service for the Installation of Officers, which will be held immediately after the Communion Service. Breakfast will then be served in the Parish House by Mr. John Eiseman and his associates, and a tasty, unusual meal is promised.

The Monday Auxiliary will hold its monthly business meeting next Monday, tomorrow, May 6. Dessert and coffee will be served at one o'clock.

—ADALAIDE A. MACKIN, Secretary

There will be a service tomorrow, on May 6, for all the people of the Diocese, at 8.15 P. M., in the Church of The Holy Trinity, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets, when the Bishop will read the Annual Address to the Convention of the Diocese.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will hold an important Stated Meeting on Tuesday of this week, and invites all women of the Parish to attend. Luncheon will be served at 12.30 noon, and the Business Meeting will be held afterward.

Mrs. Horace Burrell says that, in response to our recent appeal for contributions for Pennsylvania Flood Relief, she has received $25.00 from the congregation, and wishes here to say, "Thank you!"

All men of the Parish are asked to keep Monday evening of next week open, to attend the regular meeting, at which a most unusual and unique motion picture will be shown. Remember: Monday, May 13, at 8 P. M.!

The Church expects the faithful to make their communions at least three times a year, preferably on Christmas, Easter, and Whitsunday. Next Sunday will be Whitsunday!

Miss Bayard, Librarian for our Parish of the Church Periodical Club, is asking for books to be sent to a Community Center at Orkney Springs, Va. The library is to be given as a tribute to our beloved Presiding Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Henry St. George Tucker, D.D. Books of all kinds are desired—standard works, recent biographies, history, travel, children's books, etc. All parishes are joining in this gift. Please send books to the Parish House this week.

On Rogation Sunday, April 28, the Rector baptized John William McSweeney, son of John McLaurin and Vera Deming McSweeney. John was born in Florida on August 12, 1938; his godparents are James Lindsey Muir and Eurith Wachter Muir.

On Saturday, April 27, the Rector read the Burial Office for Nellie D. (Mrs. Harry D.) Holloway, who died in the Graduate Hospital, Philadelphia, on April 22. Interment was at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

On the same day, April 27, the Rector read the Burial Office for Bertha Block (Mrs. Harold S.) Shertz, who died suddenly at her late residence, 7201 Lincoln Drive, on April 24. Interment was at West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

The flowers on the altar today are placed there to the glory of God, and as a memorial to their parents, by Mr. and Mrs. Morris A. Stout.

Trinity Sunday is one of the few holy days of the Christian year wholly devoted to a doctrine, and any one who is not an expert theologian hesitates to write about this teaching of the Church lest he be accused of being a Sabellian, or a Monophysite, or a Monothelite, or something of the sort. Do not bother to dig out the derivation of these big words, for if you do you will think that you belong to one of them, just as young medical students, when they read about diseases, are very apt to imagine that they have all the symptoms themselves. Of course, if you should happen to be one of those things, you could not be burned or tortured for it as your ancestors were, but you would be far off from the teachings of the Christ. For the Doctrine of God as the Blessed Trinity came not from men, but from our Lord. All that the doctrine does is to formulate what the Apostles and the Evangelists had written. They could not explain the doctrine, for the simple reason that man cannot explain God. Nevertheless, the doctrine is reasonable, satisfying, and comes to us with all the weight of centuries of profound Christian thinking and acceptance. I hope that you, my people, are as I am, good orthodox Trinitarians, and that you say, with all your heart, your Litany and your Glorias and indulge in no useless speculations. We accept Jesus' explanation of the Godhead because we accept the word of our Lord in everything.

The Rector is in receipt of the following telegram that carries its own message: "The American Red Cross appeals today to the public for contributions to a War Relief Fund of a minimum of ten million dollars for European relief to mitigate suffering and horror to be endured by women, children, and the aged, such as human mind has never before conceived." This was announced by Norman H. Davis, National Red Cross Chairman. "Philadelphia's quota is seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Please announce this appeal to your congregation and urge sending contributions to 511 North Broad Street. Every dollar raised will be spent on relief."—J. Howard Pew, Chairman, European Relief Committee, S. E. Penna. Chapter, American Red Cross, May 10, 1940.

On Wednesday, May 8, the Rector read the Office for the Burial of the Dead for Nicholas H. Moody, a faithful communicant of this Parish, who died on Saturday, May 4, at his residence, 59 East High Street. The body was cremated at Chelten Hills Cemetery.

It is time to consider seriously whether you will attend the Conference of the Diocese at Ursinus College on June 23–28. The number of people who will desire to be in residence will far exceed the accommodations available and consequently many who defer making up their minds about attending are doomed to disappointment. Those who register will be accepted until the quota is completed, and then the committee in charge will have to begin saying, "No, we're sorry; there's no more room." Mrs. Pratt Thompson is in charge of registrations for Grace Church, and will be glad to explain courses, costs, and anything else you would like to know. Those who have the faintest idea that they might attend should see her at once. This year, at the request of your Rector, the committee has arranged for two meetings for men—one on Monday evening; the other on Wednesday evening. The idea is that late in the afternoon a group of men from Grace Church will motor together to Collegeville, take dinner together at the Conference, and then spend an hour with an able leader discussing "The Layman's Place in the Church." Then the group will motor home, arriving about half-past nine o'clock. The leader of the hour will be Mr. Louis N. Lukens, Vestryman of St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, and Chairman of the United Campaign.

We have no idea how you will feel at the end of the meeting if you attend St. Paul's Church this evening, May 19. Your Rector usually comes away from such meetings highly indignant at the one-sided presentation of a case that usually characterizes such meetings. Most pacifists ascribe all wars to economic causes alone. Of course, such a position is untenable; economics do have a major influence in bringing wars into being, but other causes have due weight also. Leaders may be swayed by the necessity of securing daily bread for their people, but they are also swayed by compassion for little nations whose liberties have been snuffed out, and whose people have been subjugated under the pretense of their need of protection. And the masses of men who fight are certainly not militant imperialists, but idealists who give up everything that men hold dear—except honor—because they hope to win for future generations a better world to live in. We may be mistaking what will be said tonight at St. Paul's—we hope we are. But whether or not we are, those who are deeply in earnest about applying the Lord Jesus' way of life to the running of this world, owe it to our religion and ourselves to hear what Miss Muriel Lester is going to say. She is England's Jane Addams, and represents the International "Fellowship of Reconciliation." Her topic is, "America, Keep Out of the War." The hour is 8 o'clock; the place, St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Avenue.

A Diocesan—Sweet Briar—Shrine Mont—Conference Rally will be held on Monday, May 20, at Holy Trinity Parish House. Supper will be served at 6.30 P. M., at 50 cents per person. Attend with your friends. Meet those who have been to conferences and those who are going this year.

Spring Festival

(Next Saturday)

Afternoon and Evening!

On Saturday, May 25, the Men's Club, Woman's Auxiliary, Boy Scouts, and Young People's Fellowship will again present the Annual Spring Festival. During the afternoon there will be numerous games to play and prizes to be won. Beginning at 5.30 and continuing until 7.30, dinner will be served by the Woman's Auxiliary, and following that there will be an entertainment.

At 8 P. M. Ellis H. Christman, the eminent magician, pupil of the renowned Thurston, and a member of the American Society of Magicians, will give an hour's performance of magic. Mystery after mystery will follow in rapid succession—magic of his own making which cannot be seen elsewhere. Come one, come all, and enjoy an evening of supreme entertainment. Door prizes will be given out at this time.

The Church School Commencement will be held this afternoon at half-past three o'clock, there being no session of the School this morning. Because of the inclement weather we have had lately, it may seem that we are closing early this year, but that is not so. Usually by this time of year the weather is very warm and our people begin to scatter far and wide on their summer vacations. We usually close on the first Sunday in June. The Rector would be very happy were the Church filled with friends and parents of the Church School pupils this afternoon. He promises you that the exercises will be helpful and enjoyable, from the singing of the little tots to the formal awarding of diplomas to the graduating class. Those who will graduate this afternoon are: John Caldwell, Donald Atkiss, James Garrett, Robert Fischer, James MacVaugh, John Ludwig, Robert Bowen; Sara Snyder, Mary Anne V. Harned, Barbara Swanburgh, Shirley Jean Eder, Margaret Marks, Roberta Morrison, Barbara Buckley, Ruth Powell, Marcia Murdock, Blodwyn Wipplinger.

The altar flowers last Sunday were provided by Miss Mary Jane Hall in memory of her mother, Ethel Marie. Today's altar flowers are a gift from the Church School graduating class.

Summer Porch Parties: The first of a series of summer porch parties will be held on Tuesday, June 4, at the home of Mrs. Holman White. They will be continued every Tuesday until the end of September at the homes of various members of the Parish. To date the following parties have been scheduled: June 11, Mrs. W. C. Burk; June 18, Mrs. H. G. Leighton; June 25, Mrs. M. Stout; July 2, Mrs. C. Eder; July 9, Mrs. W. Wagner; July 16, Mrs. S. M. Meehan. Any one desiring to entertain please communicate with Mrs. William M. Hall, CHE 1278.

Bishop Taitt says: "We are all aware of the terrible condition that exists in all of Europe, a condition, I do not hesitate to say, that has never been equalled for atrocity in the history of the world. May I ask that you offer your prayers for these suffering fellow-Christians of ours, offering supplication to Almighty God for their relief, and to the bringing of peace again to this troubled earth?"

Spring Festival: The committee in charge of the supper at the Spring Festival hereby thank all who helped, by donations of food and personal service, to make the supper a success, even though it was such a rainy day. The profits amounted to almost a hundred dollars.

Conscientious Objectors: Both by official resolution and by statement in pastoral letters, the Protestant Episcopal Church has recognized the right of freedom of conscience for those who, though willing to risk their lives in non-combatant service, are unwilling, for conscience' sake, to take human life in war. Therefore, the National Council of our Church has set up a register, under the care of the Executive Secretary of the Department of Christian Social Relations, whereon all those who supply evidence of being baptized or confirmed members of the Protestant Episcopal Church may record their convictions as conscientious objectors. It should be clearly understood by any one registering as a conscientious objector that the mere registration of this fact carries with it no assurance that he will not be subject to conscription for military service or some form of non-combatant military service. The Rector, if you so desire, will secure a blank registration form for you to fill in, which he will attest. But if you desire to register as a conscientious objector, you must do it very soon.

Baptisms: On May 18 the Rector baptized Helen Mae Bromwell, daughter of Robert B. and Helen Mae Bromwell. The child was born on February 4, 1940, in Philadelphia. Her godparents are Margaret McCauley and Herbert Haigh.

On May 26 the Rector baptized Anna Marie Doris Tyler, daughter of Francis B. and Mary McBride Tyler. The child was born in Philadelphia on November 16, 1939, and her godparents are Doris A. Showaker and Roy E. Showaker.

On May 26 the Rector baptized Edmund Whitney Woodbury, son of Herbert Arthur and Dorothy Crosman Woodbury. The child was born in Philadelphia on August 14, 1936, and his godparents are Amanda D. O'Neill and Elmer W. O'Neill, Jr.

Garden Day: On Thursday of this week, from 3 P. M. to 7.30 P. M., Mrs. Woodward will throw open her beautiful estate, "Krisheim," for those who care to enjoy the flowers, pools, trees, and planting with her. "Krisheim" is one of the show places of Chestnut Hill, and only at rare intervals does the general public have the privilege of entering and taking pleasure in leisurely walking about the grounds and manor. Mrs. Woodward is inviting the public for two reasons, viz.: she likes to share her beautiful estate with those who find joy in natural beauty, and she desires to aid the Convocation of Germantown, of which your Rector is Dean. The charge of admission is twenty-five cents, and members of the Convocation will sell country produce, ice cream, cake, flowers, and candy. A Cafeteria Supper will be served. Free automobile service will be provided between the grounds and Germantown Avenue at Allen Lane. In case of rain, the fête will be held at St. Martin-in-the-Fields, Willow Grove Avenue and St. Martin's Lane, Chestnut Hill. Mrs. Morris Stout will be glad to sell you your ticket of admission.

8.00 P. M.—The Young People's Fellowship

At the eleven o'clock service this morning, after the second lesson is read, we are going to dedicate a polychrome Processional Cross to the glory of God and in memory of Elizabeth R. Meehan, whom God called home on December 29, 1928. The cross was purchased by a group of her friends, under the leadership of Mrs. Albert C. Brand, and is being used today for the first time. The artist who designed and wrought the Cross describes it as follows:

> "The carved Processional Cross is Latin in design. A conventional leaf motif of turquoise blue on an incised background of vermilion is outlined in viridian green Gothic tracery. At the transepts radiates the symbol of the Trinity, forming a nimbus in which the medallion of gold encircles the initials, I.H.S.
> "On the reverse, the medallion holds a cross formed of interlaced leaf pattern, supported by a simplified rendition of the transverse in the same colors.
> "The cross itself is supported on a simple octagonal staff of natural wood finish, to emphasize the beautiful carving and color."

With the cross we are being presented, by the same donors, a "Book of Remembrance," in which will be inscribed a list of all memorials given to Grace Church, together with a description of them, the names of those thus memorialized, and any other data deemed important. This book will contain a perpetual record, obviating the necessity of having to put unsightly marks on the memorials themselves as they are given. The two gifts are fitting reminders of a woman who loved beauty and believed in useful gifts, even as her own character radiated beauty and was outstanding in good works. We are glad indeed to have her thus memorialized.

Tomorrow evening, Monday, at 8 o'clock, the Men's Club will hold its first big meeting of the year. The feature of the evening will be a motion picture of the China Clipper making its venturesome flight from this continent to Asia. Those who have seen it tell us that it is one of the most gripping films they have ever seen. Following the showing of the feature picture there will be refreshments and pleasant companionship. All men, whether members of the Parish or not, are invited to come and enjoy the evening with us. Remember: tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock!

The Big Date—Thursday, November 7—is fast approaching. This date marks the Second Harvest Festival, given by the women of Grace Church, to raise funds for their winter work.

The Harvest Festival will function from 10 A. M. to 10 P. M., and includes an Autumn Bazaar, Lunch, Dinner, and Motion Pictures.

The Bazaar will display the following booths: Books, candy, Christmas cards, dime and quarter articles, dolls, fancy articles, food shop, garden, handkerchiefs, household articles, travel, white elephants.

Shop for Christmas at the Bazaar—lunch will be served from 12.30 to 1.30 P. M.; price, 35 cents. Festival workers will be glad of this restful opportunity to enjoy lunch.

Dinner will be handled in two shifts—the first from 5.30 to 6.30 P. M.; the second from 6.30 to 7.30 P. M.; price, 65 cents, including admission to the movies later. An appetizing and well-served meal is promised. Tickets must be bought in advance for reservations.

An outstanding Motion Picture will be presented at 8.30 P. M. A charge of 10 cents will be made for those who do not dine at the Harvest Festival, but wish to attend the movie.

Every Grace Church woman should be working in some way, now, for the Harvest Festival. If no definite assignment has been made, phone and suggest where you will best fit in. If you cannot work actively on November 7, save up to buy at the Festival, or make a contribution of money or of articles to be sold.

For all details as to committees, contributions, information, etc., consult Mrs. Frank P. Brooke, chairman of the Harvest Festival, phone Chestnut Hill 0724.

On your desk pad mark the date—
November 7—from morn 'til late.

Red Cross yarn and knitting directions may be obtained from Mrs. Willard M. Jones, 42 Gowen Avenue. These refugee garments are being shipped to England and to the unoccupied-by-Germany portions of the conquered countries. They are distributed at Refugee Centers by American Red Cross representatives or by local Red Cross agencies that existed prior to the war. The garments are either carried out by hand or worn out on the persons of the refugees, from these centers of distribution.

—STEPHANIE S. BURRELL, Chairman, Grace Church Red Cross.

Tuesday, October 15, at 2.30, Sister Annie Horner will speak to the women of Grace Church about her work with the Indians at Pine Ridge, South Dakota.

A large allotment of knitted garments has just been received by the Southeastern Pennsylvania Chapter, A. R. C. The list includes sweaters for men, women, and children. Socks for men, and children's stockings. Garments are to be delivered by December 15. Please report for work to Mrs. Jones at once, and ask your friends and neighbors to do likewise.

The Men's Club of Grace Church has had an unusually large number of outstanding men interest themselves in its welfare and work for its advancement. As one looks back over the records, remembers that it has had a relatively short span of life, and comes across the names of the really great men who gave so much of themselves to it, one is impressed by the richness of its heritage. Many of these men have already entered into Paradise. And, as one by one they died, the question has come up, "Why doesn't the Club get together some money and erect permanent memorials to them?" Finally, last season, the matter came to a head and an excellent committee was appointed to bring in recommendations. The committee went to work and decided against erecting a memorial for each man, but, instead, to have a yearly remembrance of all and to give it a spiritual meaning. They suggested that each year, on the fourth Sunday in October, at the early service, there be a Corporate Communion of all the men of the Parish, and at that time the names of outstanding leaders of the Club who have died be read; that suitable prayers be said; and that the flowers on the altar for that day be provided from the funds of the Club, in memory of those fine men "who having finished their course in faith, do now rest from their labors." The recommendations of the committee were enthusiastically adopted, and the first memorial will be held next Sunday morning at the half-past seven o'clock service! Your Rector was deeply touched by the action of the committee, and hopes that their desire that this become an annual corporate communion of ALL men of the Parish be carried out. Let's get together and make this a real turnout of our men. Next Sunday morning, at half-past seven o'clock!

The Annual Every Member Canvass will be held in Grace Church Parish early in November. Mr. Brand, in charge, has been working hard for months back getting details into shape. (No one has any idea how many details are involved unless he has headed up such a movement.) And we owe him much thanks. One way in which to show one's gratitude would be to volunteer to be one of the canvassers. We need many more than have offered, especially women. The more canvassers we have, the less work will devolve on each individual. Let's back up Mr. Brand and make his work easier by offering to help him next month. Tell him today that he can count on you!

The House of Rest is the only official home for the aged in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. And we have neglected it shamefully. Although the Home was conceived and planned by officials of our Diocese, it has never had a penny of direct diocesan support. Even a few weeks ago, when the tentative budget of the Diocese for 1941 was under consideration by the Executive Council, it refused to admit an item of $500 for the Home because its probable income would be so relatively low, it simply could not permit the addition of any new item.

However, last year our Diocesan Convention requested each congregation to take up an annual offering for the House of Rest—even as for years the parishes and missions of the Diocese have been taking up an annual offering for our Episcopal Hospital. This motion to request the congregations of the Diocese to secure such an annual offering was carried by a good majority, even though there is a strong feeling on the part of our churches in convention assembled against recommending special offerings for any purpose. Diocesan sentiment is overwhelmingly with the House of Rest.

In accordance with the vote of Convention, your Vestry voted to have such an annual offering and decided upon the third Sunday in October as the date, because it does not come near any other special offering. TODAY IS THE DAY OF THE OFFERING! You will find special envelopes in the pews marked, "For the House of Rest," and moneys received in these envelopes will be turned over promptly to this worthy charity, in which so many of our people are interested. The long waiting list at the Home and the type of women who are applying for admission, were you to know these facts intimately, would exert a strong pull on your heart-strings. May they have just as strong a pull on our purse-strings. Give generously!

The flowers on the altar last Sunday were in memory of Pratt Thompson; those on the altar today are in memory of Robert W. Wilkinson.

November 7, the day of the Harvest Festival, is less than three weeks ahead! From what preparations we have seen and heard of, it will be an outstanding event. The hours are from 10 A. M. to 10 P. M. Luncheon and dinner will be served. Books, candy, Christmas cards, dolls, fancy articles, food, garden supplies and flowers, handkerchiefs, household articles, white elephants, etc., will be on sale. Motion pictures will be shown in the evening. Mrs. Frank Brooke, Chestnut Hill 0724, is in charge.

The poster on the Bulletin Board in front of Grace Church was sent us by the National Council of our Church in preparation for the Every Member Canvass to be held early in November, not only in Grace Church, but also in practically every other congregation in the land. And with the poster comes the following explanation: "Youth is bewildered today: perhaps he can't find a job after finishing school; perhaps he hasn't gone ahead as rapidly as he expected in the job he has held; perhaps he's about to be called into military service. Many youngsters, even though they have had good training, have lost faith in or contact with the Church. Here is a father who is giving his son the best advice any father could give: 'Wherever you go, whatever happens, regardless how dark the days ahead, keep in touch with your Church; attend services regularly; the Church will help you out in times of difficulty, because, son, Your Church is Your Friend.'"

Today is the day appointed for the Men's Club's Memorial Service. The origin of the idea of such a service and an explanation of what it is about will be found in the following report of a Committee of the Club:

"The Committee of the Men's Club, appointed to prepare and report recommendations for a suitable memorial for those members of the Men's Club, now deceased, who have rendered outstanding and conspicuous service to the organization and their Church, submitted the following Preamble and Resolutions (which were unanimously adopted):

unanimously adopted):

Preamble

"In His infinite wisdom, the Great Ruler of the Universe has removed from our midst those whose names are hereinafter mentioned; their memory is enshrined in our hearts and will be cherished and held forever as a beacon light to guide those who shall follow, their loyal service and devoted interest to the Men's Club and their Church shall be an inspiration to us to live more constant and deserving lives in God's cause. Therefore, there is for us today a new meaning in the Apostle's words, 'Death is swallowed up in victory.'

"'O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine,
Yet all are one in thee
For all are thine.
'Alleluia.'

"RESOLVED: That in memory of those members of the Men's Club of Grace Church, Mt. Airy, now deceased, who have rendered outstanding and conspicuous service to the organization and the Church, a memorial be created in the form of a permanent record to be kept by the Secretary of the Men's Club, wherein there shall be listed the name and date of death of such outstanding members, which list shall be added to from time to time under the procedure hereinafter mentioned.

"RESOLVED: That the name of any deceased member of the Men's Club who has rendered outstanding and conspicuous service to the Men's Club and the Church for a period of at least two consecutive years shall be eligible to be placed upon such permanent memorial record, to be kept by the Secretary, upon petition signed by ten members of the Men's Club addressed to the Executive Committee of the organization, and upon approval of said petition by the Executive Committee.

"RESOLVED: That a corporate communion service be held at 7.30 A. M. on the fourth Sunday of October in every year for the members of the Men's Club and all men of the Parish, in honor of the memory of those whose names appear upon the memorial record. At such service the foregoing Preamble, or one of like import, shall be read, and thereafter the names of those who have been inscribed upon the said memorial, with the date of death, shall be announced at the service. The flowers for the chancel at such service shall be furnished by the Men's Club, not to exceed in cost the sum of five dollars.

"RESOLVED: That, in addition to the memorial service provided for in the foregoing Resolution, at a regular meeting of the Men's Club, on some occasion during each year, a five-minute period of prayer in remembrance and in honor of those whose names appear upon the said memorial shall be held; the time, occasion, and procedure at such service to be left to the joint discretion of the rector and the officers of the Men's Club."

In pursuance to the Resolutions adopted and approved by the Executive Committee of the Men's Club of Grace Church, Mt. Airy, the following names are presented to be inscribed upon the permanent memorial in honor of those who have rendered outstanding and conspicuous service to the Men's Club and Grace Church of Mt. Airy:

Names: Edward I. Webb, A. L. E. Crouter, J. Wilson Bayard, C. Murray Rice, Pratt Thompson, Henry M. Brown, Charles S. Pease, Thomas Allsop, Thomas H. Ball, Nelson Mayhew, J. Howard Fell, Nicholas Moody.

From the Parish Register: On October 15, the Rector read the Burial Office for Douglas Leese, who died on October 12. Interment was at Westminster Cemetery.

On October 17, the Rector read the Burial Office for Mrs. Emma Sinclair Brown, who died at the Leamy on October 17. Interment was at Mt. Peace Cemetery.

The Young People's Fellowship will meet in front of Grace Church this evening at 7.15 o'clock. Automobiles will be provided by members of the Group, and the Fellowship will attend a rally of all the Groups in the Convocation, at Holy Trinity Church, Lansdale. William Bishop is in charge of transportation.

We were thinking the other day of the Every Member Canvass going to be made in all Episcopal churches, including our own, next Sunday, and as we thought about that canvass, it came to us how steadfastly men should stand behind their Church these days when they realize, as one must realize, how sorely the world needs the Church and the everlasting truths that it stands for. For, apart from the injustices of the Versailles treaty and the economic tensions that brought about the present war in Europe—apart from them and underlying all is a conflict between irreconcilable ideas and ideals.

On the one side you have a system in which the nation and one's own race stand supreme; the nation and one's own race are god. Under such a system of ideas there can be no individual liberty; human freedom is jeered out of court, and freedom of speech is sneered at as a sign of national weakness. On the other side, men believe in the value of every single individual, they fight and will die for their belief in the right of human freedom, they look on the goal of world brotherhood as one of the finest ideals of men. These are the two systems of thought opposing each other in Europe today. Long before the present conflict broke out openly these two systems were battling for the soul of civilization. What we are witnessing today is an outward and visible display of this inward and spiritual struggle. And the Christian Church is and always has been lined up with all its might behind the latter system of thought, because that way of thinking is the way that our Lord Jesus laid down. The real battlefront is in the region of men's minds and souls.

And so the Christian Church and its teachings take on special significance today. We see clearly now what would happen if the ideas behind the Church were to lose out. No longer can one stand aside and wait for the Church to prove its worth and the meaningfulness of its message. Right before us, in the opposing ideals of the forces fighting it out in Europe, one sees what would happen were the Church to fail.

Therefore, anything that strengthens the Church means taking sides not only with humanity, but also with God. And for us the methods of fighting the good fight are by worship, work, and giving. In other words, the Every Member Canvass is a phase of the fight being fought on all fronts, at home and abroad.

Let me quote from a recent page of the "Forward" booklet: "Those Nazis are true believers. These young fellows are splendid men-at-arms, but it is a spirit which provides both their superb weapons and the reason for using them. They honestly believe that Nazism will save the world, and they are willing to die to prove it. No dervish has more fanatical faith than these young Nazis. The sluggish, divided democracies did not give their troops a faith to die for. So they succumbed."

Sometimes it seems as if the world can be compared to a huge, sensitive net—such as one spun by a spider. Touch one point of the net and the vibrations get going, affect every particle, even to the farthest point. So it is in the world today—a little bit of zeal here, a little more realness in worship there, a great deal of hard work throughout the Church everywhere, and more sacrificial giving of money to God through his Church—these are your part and mine in today's list of tasks to be done. May God help us see this clearly, now!

This is the last call in the PARISH NEWS for the Harvest Festival. The Date? Next Thursday, November 7, from 10 A. M. to 10 P. M. The Object? To raise funds for the work of the Woman's Auxiliary. This includes the whole gamut of Church activity, from kitchen equipment to far-flung missions. The Program? A bazaar, a platter lunch, afternoon tea, a Parish dinner, and motion pictures.

An excellent dinner is promised for 65 cents. Tickets must be purchased in advance, either for the first seating at 5.30, or the second at 6.30. Buy dinner tickets from Mrs. Frank P. Brooke, Festival Chairman (CHE 0724), or from Mrs. F. W. Dauphinee, Chairman of Festival Dinner (CHE 4821).

Come and bring someone with you.

The Rt. Rev. Henry St. George Tucker, D.D., our Presiding Bishop, will broadcast a nation-wide message to our Church originating in Station WABC, New York City, on Sunday next, from 10 to 10.30 A. M. Tune in.

The Men's Club asks the men of the Parish to keep tomorrow night a week open for their monthly meeting. There will be a talk bearing on the significance of Armistice Day, 1940, and appropriate motion pictures to show what is being done by the Government in one line of remembrance. The date is November 11. Arrange now to come!

From the Parish Register: On October 23, the Rector read the Office for the Burial of the Dead for (Mrs.) Catherine Ritter Rodd, who died on October 20. Interment was at Ivy Hill.

On the same day he had the Committal Service in the Churchyard of St. Luke's Church, Germantown, for the ashes of Louis Raymond Schellenberger, who died in Denver, Colorado, on October 8.

The Regular Business Meeting of the Monday Auxiliary will be held November 4, in the Green Room. Dessert and coffee will be served at 1 o'clock. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.—GERTRUDE M. WEBB.

The altar flowers last Sunday and on All Saints' Day were provided by the Misses Bayard, in memory of members of their family departed; today's flowers were given by Miss Gertrude Darlington and Mrs. Clifford Whyte, in memory of Benedict and Susan Darlington.

About fifty men and women are beginning today to visit every member of the congregation to secure their pledges for 1941. Such a canvass not only makes sure that every member of our family has a chance to bear his share of the running expenses of the Parish and in the world-wide work of the Church, but it also gives the Vestry a fair idea of how much money they can reasonably count on when they make up their budget for next year.

Your Vestry is economical; they spend money carefully, knowing well that because our buildings are over half a century old and our Parish House is busy many nights a week, the cost of maintenance and upkeep is bound to grow from year to year. For example: this year we have had to pave along Ardleigh Street and a long distance on Wadsworth Street; in the middle of the summer the roof over our valuable organ sprang several leaks and had to be replaced; after putting it off as long as we could, we had to paint the interior of the Parish House because it had grown shabby—the wood was rotting for need of paint. Many other minor repairs had to be made and we have had to spend more than $2500 this year on keeping up our property. (Any one who owns even a small property knows how expensive it is to keep real estate in good condition and how quickly costs mount if one neglects minor repairs.)

And because it is our policy to ask only once during the year for money from our people, all the costs of repairs had to be taken from weekly and regular givings. Due to the generosity of many of you, we shall be able to end the year without any deficit or borrowing from the bank. We have more contributors than we have ever had before. On the other hand, most of our people are not able to give the large sums that many individuals used to give. Our rich contributors have died, and we have to depend on the generosity of the many for our running expenses. That we are able to get along so well now is due to the number of faithful, weekly contributors to Grace Church.

I have said that "due to the generosity of many of you" we have been able to get along. That is true. Now if we could only get those who do not give so generously, we should be able to go ahead faster. An extra twenty-five cents a week would not make much difference to many who give small sums now, but if many were to increase their contribution by that amount we would be sailing along with a little money over for that extra need that might arise at any time.

It is all up to you. God has blessed us richly. We are better off than any other country in the world today. Most of us now see clearer than ever before that we must make God and His will for men count for more in this world or else, instead of being part of a cosmos, it will end in being a chaos. Never was religion and the things that it stands for needed more than it is today.

So, when your fellow-churchman comes for your pledge, receive him cordially, realizing that what he is doing is something for you and your church. Write your promise as generously as you dare. And then let's all set to work to make the year 1941 the greatest year yet in the history of our beloved Grace Church.

1941 the greatest year yet in the history of our beloved Grace Church.

Men's Club: Tomorrow—Monday Evening: A motion picture by Pathe in collaboration with the E. G. Budd Mfg. Co., "STREAMLINED," followed by a splendid talk by Mr. Frederick Ulberg on "Railway Transportation."

Good Fellowship; Refreshments—Come!

The Rector, on Monday, November 4, read the Burial Office for Miss Matilda Auer, who died at her late residence, 5020 Newhall Street, on November 1. Interment was at Westminster Cemetery.

Mrs. Anna Hall, who died on October 17, 1939, left Grace Church two hundred and fifty dollars for the Parish House Improvement Fund, and two hundred and fifty dollars to the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild for missions. The legacy has now been paid. We appreciate this gift much. On page 320 of the Book of Common Prayer there is a rubric which says: "The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the People, whilst they are in health, to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and, when of ability, to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses."

On Thursday of this week your Rector presented to Bishop Taitt Mr. Charles E. Ehly, for ordination to the Deaconate. The Rev. Mr. Ehly is now serving at Trinity Church, Buckingham, Bucks County.

The preacher this morning is the Reverend Dr. William Colin Lee. Dr. Lee is a member of this Parish, and was ordained Deacon in June of this year, sponsored by your Vestry and Rector. He will be made Priest shortly before Christmas. Dr. Lee is now serving at St. Anne's Church, Willow Grove.

Thanksgiving Day will be observed in Grace Church on Thursday of this present week. This is in accordance with the instructions issued by our Bishop, and also in accordance with what will obtain throughout the Diocese. There will be two services in church, and, as usual, the second service will be an hour earlier than the hour we begin services on Sundays. For the hours of services please look at the schedule of services on this paper. With regard to the observance itself, I would refer you to an editorial in this month's issue of the "Church News of the Diocese of Pennsylvania." The gist of the writer's point of view may be gained by thinking of his names for the Festival: "Turkey Day"; "Cornell-Pennsylvania Football Day"; "Harvest Festival Day," etc. We hope and expect that many of our people will attend one of the services in Grace Church on "Thanksgiving Day," and that at that service they will thank God for His many blessings. It may seem difficult in these trying days to be thankful, but it will not be so if one centers his thoughts on God's constancy, His orderly and faithful care for our material needs, and His unchanging love ever brooding over us. No one can charge God with having failed us; what has gone wrong is man's ability to dwell together as brothers, and man's disregard of the open and specific command of God to love Him and our neighbor. Let us of Grace Church be different: let us take our stand openly with the men of God, and on Thanksgiving Day openly acknowledge our dependence upon Him and say, "Thank you, Lord, for all you mean in men's lives, especially in mine."

Day openly acknowledge our dependence upon Him and say, "Thank you, Lord, for all you mean in men's lives, especially in mine."

The Thanksgiving Offering.—At Thanksgiving time we take up a special offering. This gives us an opportunity to express our thanks in a tangible way; it is an earnest of our gratitude. Grace Church, in turn, expresses its thanks by giving the whole offering away. Usually, with the other congregations that make up our Diocese, we send the money to the Episcopal Hospital. It will be so this year. All the loose offering that comes in on Thanksgiving Day, together with the money that comes in in the special Thanksgiving Day envelopes, will be sent to our hospital.

In doing this we are not altogether as unselfish as we may seem to be. For each year Grace Church is asked, at the beginning of the year, by the Diocese, to give a relatively large sum of money for extra-parochial purposes. At the beginning of the year we are asked, "Will you assume this amount as the least we may expect from you during the current year?" And we always say, "Yes." To make good our promise we have to turn in from time to time as much money as we can. This money is then credited to us. And what we give in the Thanksgiving Offering counts on this pledge. Because we still owe much on our promise for 1940, we shall have to strain every effort between now and the end of the year to make good. That is the selfish reason that we are pleading for an extra-generous Thanksgiving Offering this year. Such an offering will lighten the burden of raising what we still owe, by just as much as we give at Thanksgiving time.

But it isn't an altogether selfish motive that prompts us to appeal for generous giving. We are proud, and justly proud, of the hospital that bears our name. Last year 8,505 patients were treated there, and 8,505 is a large number of people. These patients received 129,867 days' care—many of them being unable to give much or anything toward the cost of their healing. When we give to our hospital, then, we are sharing with God's poor, acting vicariously as physicians, nurses, pharmacists, hosts. The sick, the halt, the maimed, and the suffering of all ages come to the doors of our hospital for help. When we give our money to enable the hospital to care for them, we are acting as careful stewards of the money that God has entrusted to us. Be generous!

Confirmation, 1941.—Bishop Taitt has notified your Rector that he will visit Grace Church officially to preach and administer the rite of Confirmation on Sunday, February 23, 1941. Classes in preparation for Confirmation will begin soon after Christmas, on Sunday evenings at 7 o'clock. Many have told the Rector during the year that they are thinking seriously of being confirmed. They and all others interested are invited to attend classes. There is no urging of people to be confirmed; the rite is too sacred for that. Think it over now and arrange to attend the Sunday evening instruction periods, beginning on the first night of getting together.

From the Parish Register.—On November 14 the Rector read the Office for the Burial of the Dead for Edward G. Budd, 3d, who died on November 12. Interment was at West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

On November 14 the Rector read the Office for the Burial of the Dead for (Mrs.) Jennie D. Wiswell, who died on November 11. Interment was at Westminster Cemetery.

The altar flowers last Sunday were the gift of Mrs. Mary R. Cowell.

Thanksgiving Baskets.—As usual we shall deliver baskets of food to those with whom we share our good things. A barrel will be placed in the vestibule of the Church on Sunday to receive any contributions of non-perishable food you'd like to give for this good purpose. Mrs. Frank Sheble, 311 Roumfort Road, will be glad to receive contributions of money.

"MANAGING A GREAT CITY ZOO"

DR. ROGER CONANT

Curator*, Philadelphia Zoological Society

ALL MEN WELCOME

COME!

Christmas, 1940: Have you noticed how gradually there has grown up about us a new kind of observance of Christmas? Not very long ago, the day came on gradually and quietly, beginning with the sombre note of Advent Sunday, continuing with thoughts about the great Last Things, and finally breaking forth into the rejoicing of Christmas Day itself. But of later years, under high-pressure efforts of big business, from Thanksgiving Day on one is assailed on every side by blaring noises that have something to do with the giving of gifts, and by secular adaptations of the Christmas story. The result is that when the great day finally comes, we are so fed up with it all that, unless we do something about it individually, it loses its appeal. Even as we are wearied, when Christmas comes, of the grand old carols of the ages because they have been hurled at us from radio, street bands, and department store loud-speakers, so the whole tendency of modern times is to give us such an overdose of certain forms of an emotional observance of Christmas that when Christmas Day really comes we are numb and forget whose birthday we are supposed to be keeping.

What can we do about it?

There is one thing that we can do about keeping Christmas, and that is to seek for solitude and quiet. We must try to get away from all this playing of artificial lights on the manger scene, and instead concentrate on the great truths symbolized by that scene, the Incarnation of God Himself. And one can concentrate best in quiet. Now, Grace Church is open every day of the year from morning until night. Why not drop in from time to time and meditate on the mystery of God dwelling with us? Especially during the Christmas season it is suggested that every parent, bringing his children with him, come to Church when there is no service going on, walk around, look at Christmas decorations and symbols, sit down for a few minutes of silence, say a prayer together before leaving, and then go quietly home. Will you?

Special Advent Services are being held under the sponsorship of the Diocesan Commission on Evangelism every Thursday evening until Christmas, at Holy Trinity Church, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets, at 8 P. M. Outstanding preachers are delivering helpful sermons in preparation for the commemoration of the coming of our Lord. If you make the effort to attend, you will be amply repaid.

Advent Sunday afternoons in Grace Church: Organ recitals at four o'clock. For today's program see the schedule of services on the front page of this PARISH NEWS. Come!

Business and Professional Women: There are many of them in Grace Church, and although they are members of our congregational family, many do not know each other. This ought not to be so. We would like to have all our people acquainted with one another. So we are going to do something about it. We hereby invite all employed women to be our guests at a Supper-Meeting in the Green Room, on Monday evening a week, December 16, at 6.30 o'clock. After supper we will have a get-together and discuss plans for a permanent organization. All employed women are invited to attend, but, please let the Rector know soon that you intend to come, so that we may have a place for you at the table.

From the Parish Register: On November 29 the Rector baptized George Edward Painter, an adult. His witnesses were Bessie M. Thissell and Marie Dittmann.

On November 30 the Rector united in holy matrimony Henry Clay Kennedy, Jr., and Helen Bowden.

On December 1 the Rector baptized Way Kenworthy, daughter of Thomas Kenworthy, 3d, and Mary Way Wells Kenworthy. Way was born in Abington on September 23, 1939. Her sponsors were Jane Kenworthy and Charles Dearnley.

Christmas, 1940. How can one say "Merry Christmas," when so many nations are at each other's throats? "On earth peace, good will toward men"—the song of the Christmas angels—sounds like the mockery of some fiend from hell. We look back on the years 1919–39 with longing. Sometimes it seems as if the Spanish proverb were indeed true, that "God gives us plenty of nuts when our teeth are too old to crack them"; we didn't appreciate the peace of yesteryear as we should have appreciated it, and now we would give our good right arm to fetch it back. To this mood Christmas speaks, for Christmas is beyond time. Isn't that the basis of the Christmas story? Isn't it that, centuries ago, when things seemed at their blackest, heaven broke through to assure us that there is a world beyond and that there is a God who is friendly, who understands, and who yearns to help us whenever we need Him? Isn't the gist of the Christmas message the fact that this world is not the end, but only a preface; that there is a world beyond in which are a loving God, the angels, the blessed saints, and our own dear departed? In comparison with the innumerable years ahead of us in eternity, our days have hardly begun. Ask any very old person and he will tell you that he is often surprised when some one refers to him as old. In heart he is still twenty-one. No, God has not mocked us by planting the sense of eternity in our hearts. While we must not give up believing in this world and working to make it into the Kingdom of God, on the other hand we must not lose the sense of another world, which gives meaning and sense to this. We have been born into this world while it is still in its infancy; if we do our part, and if those who come after will do their parts, the time will come when men will be able to say "Merry Christmas," without feeling a heaviness of heart for their brothers "over there"! As for this year, let us rejoice that at the first Christmas God assured men who had been looking up at the sky, wistfully saying, "If there is a God, why doesn't he show himself," by doing that very thing. On Christmas day, 1900 years ago, God came in the flesh for us men and for our salvation. Let us rejoice in the Incarnation of God. So will our Christmas be holy.

The Christmas offering will be used for putting our buildings and grounds into first-class condition. Weekly envelops' money cares for salaries, for heating and lighting, and for our property; maintenance. But beyond maintenance there is always the need for special repairs and improvements. (This year we had to lay sidewalks, purchase a new heating plant for the Rectory, repair a large section of roof above the organ, and care for several other special needs.) Ahead of us we see the need of much repointing, of resetting the floor tiles in the church building, and of other costly improvements. We can count on current income to care for current expenses, but we have to have occasional extra offerings to take care of these extra needs. That is why your vestry has allocated the Christmas offerings for the purpose of extraordinary parish repairs. Please make a very generous Christmas gift to your church, whether you have special envelops or not. All Christmas offerings not otherwise designated will be used to put our property into good shape.

The barrel in the vestibule is there to receive groceries and non-perishable goods to be distributed by our Social Service Committee to the worthy poor.

If any one was overlooked in our annual canvass and would like to have Offering Envelops for 1941, Mr. Brand, 301 East Durham Street, will be glad to supply them.

The Executive Committee of the Men's Club met on Monday evening, and by canonical procedure added the name of Horace Fortescue to the list of its members who are memorialized at the Annual Communion Service in October, the same action having been taken several months ago for William F. Fell. It was also decided to hold the annual Men's Club Dinner on Thursday evening, February 20, in the Parish House. This annual dinner has become an occasion for the gathering together of the whole Parish, the men securing a caterer to provide and serve the dinner so that the ladies of the congregation can eat and enjoy the fellowship with their families and friends. There will be a good speaker at the dinner, and tickets will cost one dollar. Tickets can be obtained from any member of the Club.

The Aid-to-British Missions offering of last Sunday, including a check for $125 from the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, totalled $374.72, with money still coming in!

Confirmation.—Every year, when Confirmation is over, people come to the Rector and say that they wish they had joined the class and been confirmed. They had "been thinking on the subject, but just hadn't made up their minds." The time to remedy that is now. If you are at all interested, come to the informal Sunday evening talks at seven o'clock in the Parish House. You will enjoy the discussions and will learn much. Why not come out tonight?

The Accounting Warden, Mr. A. C. Brand, 301 East Durham Street, telephone CHE 1228, will be glad to furnish pledge cards and offering envelops to any who would like to contribute to Grace Church.

From the Parish Register:

On January 25 we received by letter of transfer from the Church of the Resurrection, Philadelphia, Mrs. J. Burton Henry, of 7232 Sprague Street.

On January 26 we baptized Joseph Charles Douglas Marshall, born September 16, 1940, in Philadelphia, son of William Kerr Marshall and Frances Charlotte Marshall. His sponsors are his parents and Robert Thomas Lowry.

On January 18 we read the Order for the Burial of the Dead for Charles Kirk Lukens, who died on January 14. Interment was at West Laurel Hill.

On January 21 we read the Order for the Burial of the Dead for Anna Moyer, who died on January 18. Interment was at Mt. Moriah Cemetery.

On January 25 we read the Order for the Burial of the Dead for William H. Gardner, who died on January 23. Interment was at Burlington, N. J.

On January 27 we read the Order for the Burial of the Dead for Horace Fortescue, who died on January 25. Interment was at Ivy Hill.

Boy Scouts.—On Wednesday, February 12, our troop will have an evening for its friends. The Good Citizen award will be conferred; the Scout Investiture Service will be held, and advanced ratings will be published. Also, the Scouts will put on "Grin and Bear It." There will be refreshments. No admission will be charged; no offering taken. It will be a gala night for Scouts and all who are interested in boys. Come!

Woman's Auxiliary and Guild.—We hope, sincerely, that every woman in the Parish has read the Auxiliary News and has found something in it that has appealed to her enough to make her want to attend the meetings every Thursday. The first week of each month there is a morning meeting, followed by a lunch, after which some interesting person tells us about his or her particular work, and, of course, it is discouraging to the speaker if the audience is small. Other weeks our working hours are followed by a very informal sandwich lunch, for which no special charge is made, and the members may bring their own sandwiches if they prefer. Why not join us next Thursday?

At a special meeting of the Executive Committee, Mrs. Arthur L. Rogers was elected Treasurer of the United Thank Offering, and it is hoped that she will receive the co-operation of all the women of Grace Church in making our future ingatherings a great success.

There will be an all-day meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild on Thursday of this week, with luncheon and speaker at 12.30 noon.

Flowers for the altar for January 26 were given by the Misses Gray in memory of Mrs. Matilda K. Gray; for February 2, by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. King, and for the Confirmation Service, February 23, by Mrs. H. H. Burrell.

Confirmation.—Bishop Taitt, our own Diocesan, will come to visit this Parish and administer the rite of confirmation next Sunday evening, February 23, at eight o'clock. Bishop Taitt comes not only to confirm, but also to make an official visitation of the Parish. We want every member of the congregation to be present. Your Bishop wants to worship with you and preach to you. Let nothing interfere with your coming. Bring your friends along. The hour is eight o'clock.

The Clergy of the Convocation of Germantown are going to have a conference about the Presiding Bishop's "Ten Year Plan," in Grace Church on Tuesday morning of this week. They will begin their day with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 9 A. M. We hope that some of our parishioners will take advantage of the occasion to make their communions with us.

By the will of the late Charles Kirk Lukens, who died at his residence, 8051 Stenton Avenue, on January 14, Grace Church, Mt. Airy, was left a bequest of one thousand dollars.

The Accounting Warden, Mr. Albert C. Brand, 301 East Durham Street, telephone CHE 1228, will be glad to furnish offering envelops to any who would like to contribute to Christ through Grace Church.

On the walls of Chester Cathedral in England is this inscription:

Give me a mind that is not bored,
That does not whimper, whine or sigh;
Don't let me worry overmuch
About the fussy thing called "I."

On Monday (Tomorrow) Evening, February 17, at 6.30, the Business and Professional Women will hold their monthly dinner meeting in the Parish House. Mrs. Horace H. Burrell will give a talk on "The Evolution of the American Flag," displaying her unusual collection of early flags bearing upon our nation's history. Miss Anna W. Wiswell is Chairman, with Dr. Eleanor Goal, Secretary, of this new group. All women in the congregation who are interested are cordially invited to attend. Please make dinner reservations by calling Mrs. J. Howard Fell, CHE 2364.

From the Parish Register:

On February 2 we baptized Constance Marie Seitz, an adult, daughter of F. Irving Seitz and Mildred Adele Seitz. Her witnesses were her parents and Miss Marie Hemphill Hagar.

On January 29 we read the Order for the Burial of the Dead for Thomas Ernest Lewis, whose late residence was at Ridley Park, Pa. Mr. Lewis died on January 26, and his body was interred at Arlington Cemetery.

On February 8 the Rector and the Rev. Elias B. Baker, in Grace Church, united in holy matrimony Elias Bloxom Baker and Marjorie Ayres Credo.

The Monday Auxiliary is very much pleased with the increasing attendance every week and the increasing amount of Red Cross work that is being completed. Come to the Green Room every Monday at 1.30 and help with this worthy sewing. You will be very cordially welcomed.—GERTRUDE M. WEBB, Secretary.

The Confirmation Service last Sunday evening will long be remembered. It was good to have our own Bishop with us and have him talk so helpfully and so simply of the things of the Spirit. The chief shepherd of the diocese fed us well. Three hundred and forty-five were present to greet him and take his message to heart. The choir sang well; the hymns were full of fervor, and altogether it was a wonderful evening. Now what are we going to do about it? (The Rector has a pet motto—"No emotion without resulting motion.") What are we going to do for God to justify such a service? There is one thing that we can do right away and that is to keep Lent along the lines suggested by our good Bishop, choosing to accept the good and reject the evil; keeping under our bodies and convincing them that our souls are in the saddle; and worshipping God every Sunday in His Church. Another and specific thing that we might do would be to attend the early service at 7.30 next Sunday morning, making our communions with the newly confirmed. That would help much—both them and us.

There were forty-six confirmed: thirty-two for Grace Church and fourteen for St. John's Church, Lansdowne. The names of our own confirmed follow: Margarete H. Wilson, Fern F. Murray, W. Alice Dickson, Harold M. Shaw, Juliette E. Thorn, Samuel F. Etris, William F. Broom, Katherine Loudenschlager, Carl Sachs, Emily Formicola, Samuel Formicola, Flora Hammer, William C. Schleyer, Scott N. Hunter, David B. Jockers, Elizabeth L. Harris, Nancy Thornton, Mary L. Murdock, Sarah E. McKinney, Katherine F. Maxwell, Mary K. C. Frey, Constance M. Seitz, Theodore T. Jockers, George O. Frey, Jr., Arthur H. Etris, Harold M. Shaw, Jr., Donald R. Barstow, Camille J. Dawson, Elizabeth R. Burrell, Patricia H. Thomas, Nancy Jane Stroh, John W. Caldwell.

Philadelphia's fourteenth annual Educational Week for the Blind will begin tomorrow in the auditorium of Gimbel's store. The primary aim of this annual "week" is to demonstrate to the citizenry of Philadelphia just what activities are carried on by and for the blind. As the Rector pointed out in his sermon last Sunday morning ("Behold, we go up to Jerusalem"), every individual is somehow caught up in the guilt of the days in which he lives; one cannot live in a specific period of time without being individually responsible for the evils committed by the Body Social of his day. All the evils of our day reflect upon us. We are guilty, even though we personally have had no active part or parcel in the wrongs that exist. A Christian congregation cannot shrug it from its shoulders and, while deploring the evils that exist, rejoice and soothe itself with the feeling that "there is another world ahead in which the inequalities and sins of this present order will be ironed out." A Christian congregation habitually worshipping together must regularly carry out some common enterprise for the general good, whether it be a continuing attack on corrupt politics, slum housing, malnutrition, or some other social wrong. It must dare to go forth in the name of the Lord Christ and fight boldly to make this world into the kind of world that He desires.

This work for the blind is in line with this thought; it is an enterprise of the religious people of Philadelphia; an attempt to help some of God's physically unfortunate children, carried on by the religious forces of the community. The Episcopal Church sponsors tomorrow's program, serving an attractive lunch for forty cents; later serving refreshing afternoon tea, and during the course of the whole day greeting and directing the many visitors. Our own Grace Church women will be there to cooperate in the good work. Your part and mine is to attend. Tomorrow: Gimbel Brothers Auditorium, fifth floor, Chestnut Street side; all day. The demonstration will continue throughout the week.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild writes: "We are delighted to see so many of our old friends taking new interest in the work of the Woman's Auxiliary. Meetings have been very well attended lately, and 'yet there is room' for many more. The 'Epiphany Pennies' turned in and blessed at last Thursday's Holy Communion service will be given to the treasurer of our diocesan house for the aged, the House of Rest, to be used toward the care of these fine elderly ladies. On Thursday of this week, March 6, we will make our communions together at 9.30 and then have an all-day meeting with luncheon at 12.30. Speakers at the luncheon will be Mrs. Roland Evans and Mrs. Fenno Hoffman, of the Supply Bureau at the Church House. Come!"

The Secretary of the Monday Auxiliary, Gertrude M. Webb, writes: "The meeting tomorrow, March 3, will include a Business Meeting at one o'clock. Coffee and dessert will be served. Don't forget to come!"

From the Parish Register:

Baptized—February 2, 1941: Constance Marie Seitz, an adult whose witnesses were her parents and Miss Marie Hemphill Hagar.

February 23, 1941: Carl Sachs, an adult whose witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Heller and Marion Sachs.

February 23, 1941: Susan Elizabeth Achenbach, of 507 Murdock Road, who was born in Philadelphia, April 30, 1940, the daughter of B. Rowland Achenbach and Elizabeth Achenbach. Her godparents are Dorothy Hoover, Susan McGillicuddy, and Robert Hoover.

We are desirous of having a men's choir sing at the Wednesday evening services in Lent. Any man who would care to sing in such a choir is asked to get in touch

Good Friday.—We have been very fortunate in securing as our leader for the Three-Hour Service for Good Friday the Rev. Dr. Walter Klein, of the Philadelphia Divinity School. Dr. Klein comes to us highly recommended. Now it is our pleasant duty to give him a congregation large enough to warrant his coming. Good Friday congregations have not been so large for many years as they should have been. This in spite of the fact that from year to year we have had as our leaders the most helpful men one could hope for. Let it not be so this year. Let every one who is free to do so come to the service. Do not allow the duration of the service to keep you away. When one is deeply immersed in such a service, three hours seem as a little while. If you cannot remain for the whole service, come when you can and remain as long as you care to. No disturbance is created when some one leaves quietly between meditations. The main thing is to come. The Rector expects every loyal member of the Parish to be present.

It is required of those who would be "communicants in good standing" in the Episcopal Church that they receive the Holy Communion at least three times a year, preferably at Christmas, Easter, and Whitsunday. A good way to prepare for one's Easter Communion is to attend the corporate preparation on Good Friday, at 8 P. M.

The Easter Offering.—As usual, we are asking for a large, generous Easter offering, and as usual we are going to give all the money that comes in unearmarked for some other cause on Easter Day to the Episcopal Hospital. Hospitals are fallen on hard times these days. There are not so many rich people to give large amounts of money as there used to be, and there are more and more sick people unable to pay when in need of hospitalization. Hospitals are, therefore, faced with shrinking incomes and greater demands for free service. Because our State and city give no money to our Hospital, and because the Episcopal Hospital receives no part of "Community Funds," the amount needed to carry on must be raised in other ways. One of these ways is the free-will offerings of the congregations of the Episcopal Church in and around Philadelphia. That is where we—you and I—come in. We help twice a year in Grace Church by giving our Thanksgiving and Easter offerings to our Hospital for current expenses. When we give next Sunday, as we place our money on the alms basins, let us think, "Here goes a day's care for some sick child"; "Here is enough anesthetic to carry a good workman through an operation"; "Here is a day's coal for the Children's Medical Ward," etc. So shall our gifts be compatible with our Easter joy.

An annual election of vestrymen will take place in the Parish House on Monday in Easter week, between the hours of five and six o'clock in the afternoon. "Every adult member of said Church who shall appear on the Vestry books to have contributed during two successive years immediately preceding the time of such election to the support of said Church under any system of pledges which may from time to time have been by it adopted, in accordance with his pledge, sums aggregating not less than five dollars in each of said years, shall be entitled to one vote at any such election. A majority of such members present and voting shall be sufficient for such elections." (Article 1, By-Laws of Grace Church, Mt. Airy.)

There will be no meeting of the Church School on Easter morning. Instead, the School will assemble at 3.30 in the afternoon in church to present their Lenten Offering for missions and to partake of their own Easter service. Adults as well as children who do not belong to the Church School will be heartily welcomed at this Easter afternoon service.

Easter Even for centuries has been considered an appropriate time to have baptisms. We have arranged such a service for Saturday next, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Telephone the Rector if you have some one to be baptized at that time.

From the Parish Register: On Saturday, March 29, the Rector read the Office for the Burial of the Dead for Grace Hall Gifford, who died on March 26, at her home, 301 Bethlehem Pike, Ambler. Interment was at Mt. Peace Cemetery.

The Woman's Auxiliary wishes to express sincere appreciation of the splendid musical work given by Mr. Robinson and the Choir on Sunday evening, March 30. Week after week we are rather inclined to take their efforts for granted, and give little thought to the enormous amount of preparation needed, until a time comes, like Sunday, when the results are so outstanding that we waken to the fact that we are most fortunate to have such a musical organization with our services.

Attendance at the regular Auxiliary meetings has increased steadily, but there is plenty of room for more workers and we need them each week. Try to save that time for your church work and help with the sewing and surgical supplies.

Nominations are in order for officers for the Monday Auxiliary. At the Business Meeting to be held April 7 the Nominating Committee will present names of new officers to be elected in May. This is an important function of the Auxiliary and deserves your cooperation. Everyone is busy these days, but do plan to spend an hour or two with us every Monday afternoon. There is still Red Cross work to be finished, and we also want to do our share of sewing for the Episcopal Hospital.

Whatever one's theory of the Resurrection may be, Jesus' survival is the only fact that accounts for the rescue of eleven men from utter and complete despair. If the Resurrection is another ghost story, it is a new thing in ghost stories which turns abject terror into flaming courage, and cowards into heroes and martyrs. It drove ordinary shrinking men like ourselves, as Miss Kirkland says, to go shouting a message to an audience as derisive as some men are today, a message punished with lashes and crosses and red-jowled beasts, yet persisting, indomitable, on and on down the echoing centuries, until a pagan world was conquered by a handful of Jewish fishermen, and a great Church raised its pinnacles to heaven, to enshrine that message flung to the wind on the first Pentecost, "Jesus Christ is alive."

The Easter offering will be given to our Episcopal Hospital to help pay current expenses. Be generous!

From the Parish Register:

On April 2 the Rector read the Order for the Burial of the Dead for John Kern Thorn, who died on March 29. Interment was in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

On April 2 the Rector read the Order for the Burial of the Dead for Louisa D. Lovett, who died on March 31. Interment was in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

On Palm Sunday the Rector baptized LeRoy George Weber, born October 26, 1940, son of Albert LeRoy Weber and Florence M. Weber. The sponsors were Pearl Weber and Robert McConaghy.

On Palm Sunday the Rector also baptized Susan Wills Tyson, born December 17, 1940, daughter of James Miller Tyson, Jr., and Nancy Wills Tyson. Susan's parents were her sponsors.

The Children's Easter Service will be held this afternoon at 3.30 in church. Come!

The members of the Woman's Auxiliary are working hard to finish the annual allotment of sewing before the end of the present season and will welcome more workers each Thursday.

Those who have filled their dime banks are turning them in and asking for more. It is so easy and painless a way to save money, and the amount received so far has been used for paying for the new cushions which are appearing on the pews. Don't you think they improve the appearance of the church? Apply to any officer of the Auxiliary or to Mrs. Lownes, and you, too, may have a part in the renovation of the church.

An opportunity for all women of Grace Church: A Corporate Communion will be celebrated on Thursday, April 24, at 9.30 A. M. Bring your blue envelope and make this a real United Thank Offering, uniting our gifts and our prayers.

The men on the Grace Church Boy Scout Committee have arranged with the Germantown Theatre Guild to present a play for the Scouts' benefit, to be held Tuesday evening, May 13, at the Theatre, 4823 Germantown Avenue. The play, "Arsenic Annie, or the Mystery of the Poison Pickle," is a mysterious comedy, such as was enacted in the Gay Nineties. Aside from the pleasure and laughs promised, the Scouts will profit by having their rooms further equipped and assisting some in going to camp this summer. Tickets of admission will be $1.00, and may be procured from Mr. E. L. Hunter or any Scout or member of the Committee.

The Business and Professional Women's Group will hold a Buffet Supper on Monday evening, April 21, at the home of Mrs. Henry J. Gideon, 215 East Sedgwick Street. The time is 6.30, and will be followed by a Social Evening. This organization is bringing together an interested and congenial gathering of our church women who are unable to attend the Monday and Thursday Auxiliary meetings, and the average attendance has been about 50.

A Stated Meeting of the Vestry of Grace Church was held in the Parish House on Easter Tuesday evening, in accordance with the by-laws of the Vestry. The judges of the election held on Easter Monday reported that Messrs. Edward J. Dorwarth, Walter B. Sibson, Stanley L. Thornton, and Dr. Holman White had been duly reelected to be Vestrymen for a period of three years. The Rector then appointed Dr. Holman White to the position of Rector's Warden. The Vestry then proceeded to elections and reelected Mr. Albert C. Brand, Accounting Warden; Mr. John E. Greaves, Deputy Accounting Warden and Registrar; and Mr. William F. Wagner, Secretary of the Vestry. The Vestry then elected Delegates to the Diocesan Convention and selected Messrs. Dorwarth, Greaves, and Wagner as Regular Delegates, and Messrs. Meehan and Thornton as Alternate Delegates. The Vestry chose Mr. Samuel Algeo to continue as Sexton. The Rector then appointed the following Vestry Committees, the first named gentleman in each case being Chairman of his Committee:

Finance: Messrs. White, Greaves, Thornton, and MacDonald.
Buildings and Grounds: Messrs. Dorwarth, Burness, and Sibson.
Choir: Messrs. Meehan, Burness, and Wagner.
Memorials: Messrs. White and Thornton.
Church School: Messrs. Thornton and Gideon.
Missionary: Messrs. Gideon, White and Wagner.

At a special Meeting of the Vestry held on March 30, Mr. Robert MacDonald, Jr., was elected to the Vestry to fill the unexpired term of the late Horace Fortescue.

The Young People's Fellowship will meet in the Green Room this evening at eight o'clock. The special order of business will be the election of officers for the coming year. The Fellowship will hold a Corporate Communion on Sunday next at 7.30 A. M. This will be followed by the installation of the new officers and breakfast. All present and former members of the group are urged to attend.

The Men's Club is arranging another of their delightful Smokers for Monday a week, May 5th. As this will be the last of these happy get-togethers of the current season, the program will be exceptionally good and an unusually large gathering is hoped for and looked for. Further details will be given in next week's Parish News.

The Monday Auxiliary is meeting regularly on Mondays at 1.30 P. M. in the Parish House, the leaders being somewhat concerned about completing a large amount of Red Cross and Episcopal Hospital work still on hand. This work is urgently needed, and even though this is the season of spring housecleaning and most members are busy as bees in their own homes, we urge all to take time off to help us catch up on this work for others! At the May 5 meeting officers for the new year will be elected. Whether you have been coming out regularly or not, decide now to come out regularly from now on, to help do this work for the needy for which we are being pressed. Make this a weekly engagement.

The Church School Lenten Offering for Missions will probably exceed the amount raised last year, which is a step in the right direction. Over forty-two dollars came in in pennies! The Diocesan Presentation Service will be held at the Episcopal Academy on the afternoon of Sunday, May 18, and we plan to have not only our Girls' Choir, but many others, both pupils and friends, attend. There will be plenty of room for everyone. Mark the date down now—May 18.

If you know the name and address of any one in the congregation who is entering the army, navy, or marine corps, please send full details at once to Mr. Edward Dorwarth, 108 East Sedgwick Street, who has charge of this list for the Men's Club.

From the Parish Register: On April 10, Maundy Thursday, the Rector read the Office for the Burial of the Dead for Mr. Robert Farnham, one of our vestrymen, who died suddenly at his home, 7126 Cresheim Road, on April 8. Interment was in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

The Boy Scout benefit will be held at the Germantown Theatre Guild on May 13. Tickets may be secured from Mr. Edgar L. Hunter, or any Scout.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild announces that the first porch party of the season will be held at the home of the Chairman, Mrs. Chas. H. Voorhis, 113 West Washington Lane, on May 20, at 10.30 A. M. Mrs. Voorhis will be assisted by Mrs. Thomas Anderson and Mrs. John Caldwell. The following week, May 27, Mrs. Wm. Walton, 118 East Durham Street, will be the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Pratt Thompson and Mrs. Chas. Russell.

At these "parties" we work for the Episcopal Hospital, the Red Cross, and other worthy organizations. All women of the church are cordially invited. There are dates open for any woman or group of women who would like to entertain. Please call Mrs. Voorhis at Germantown 8454.

"Speak to the children of Israel that they go forward" (Ex. 14:15) was the Rector's text last Sunday. His main points were: (1) The blackness of the present hour. (2) Yet, while we are troubled on every side, we are not distressed; in the long run, God's will will be done. (3) It is not enough, however, to sit back and piously murmur, "God's in His heaven; all's well with the world." We must do something to hasten the time when God's will will obtain on earth as in heaven. (Science, economics, education, will not save us. Our problem is in human relationships.) (4) When God wants action, He generally intrusts the task to some one or group on earth. The Church is His body: "Church members are members of His body." (5) The present times indicate a call to "go forward." Presiding Bishop, General Convention, individual Bishops, and all dioceses accept the times as a challenge. (6) Therefore we are beginning a "ten year plan" of service. The present duty is to "Call the Roll." Each parishioner will be given an opportunity of rededicating his life to our Lord. On Whitsunday, June 1, we are going to offer up our pledges of allegiance at the altar and make our communions together. We will then be embarking on a plan which will be unfolded as we go along. "The task will require endless effort; serious sacrifice; daring devotion. But we need not be afraid. Ultimate victory will be ours if we go forward in service."

The Men's Club will hold a meeting tomorrow evening, May 5, at 8 o'clock. This is the last of our happy get-togethers of the season, and the program committee has been fortunate in securing Dr. Milton C. Cooper to give his interesting motion pictures on the "Pennsylvania Dutch Country." Let's come out in numbers, bringing our neighbors with us. Refreshments will be served. The hour is eight o'clock.

We are anxious to have many attend the performance at the Germantown Theatre Guild on Tuesday a week, May 13. The money we make will be used for the benefit of the Scout Troop of our Parish. The Guild produces good plays, and the one we are to see is a comedy. (It isn't bad psychology to see a comedy now and then, these days.) Mr. Edgar L. Hunter has charge of the tickets—all Scout Committee members and Scouts are distributing them. You should obtain yours at once.

The Diocesan service for the Presentation of the Children's Lenten Offering will be held on Sunday a week, May 18, on the grounds of the Episcopal Academy. Plan to attend.

From the Parish Register:

On Saturday, April 26, the Rector officiated at the wedding of Edith Holland Hanson and Joseph Coors, in Grace Church.

On Sunday, April 27, the Rector baptized Suzanne Spencer Mahan, born November 6, 1940, daughter of Frank and Sarah Lang Coleman Mahan. The sponsors were Herbert Heston, Nancy Dismukes, and Jean Bennett.

On Wednesday, April 30, the Rector read the Burial Office for Carry Levering Doelp, of 46 West Mount Airy Avenue. Mrs. Doelp died on April 26. Interment was at Ivy Hill Cemetery.

The Young People's Fellowship held its annual election of officers last Sunday evening, with the following results: President, Willet Brand; Vice-President, William Bishop; Treasurer, Samuel Etris; Secretary, Marjorie Amos; Corresponding Secretary, Addison Thomas. Messrs. Buchanan and Sattler were selected to be official representatives of our group at the coming Youth Conference at Orkney Springs, Va. The Fellowship is having a Corporate Communion this morning at the 7.30 service. Breakfast will follow. The new Fellowship year begins with the 8 o'clock meeting tonight.

The Annual Convention of our Diocese will open tomorrow evening in Holy Trinity Church, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets, at 8.15 P. M. The Bishop of the Diocese will read his Annual Address to the Convention, and the Dean of the New York Cathedral will preach. All people of the Diocese are invited to attend.

The Monday Auxiliary will elect officers at a business meeting to be held in the Parish House tomorrow at 1.30 o'clock. The following have been nominated: President, Mrs. Roy Hand; Vice-President, Mrs. Charles W. Carrigan; Secretary, Mrs. E. J. Webb; Treasurer, Mrs. F. T. Sanson.

A Stated Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held on Tuesday, May 13, in the Parish House. Luncheon will be served at noon, followed by the meeting at 1.30. All women of the Parish are welcome and we urgently desire that those who, until now, have taken very little interest in this work, will make an especial effort to be present and hear of the amount of work that has been accomplished during the past year. It is distressing to know of the many women who miss the joy of helping others, and we want them to come on May 13 and see for themselves how much they are needed and wanted.

Messengers of the FORWARD IN SERVICE project will begin calling on fellow members of our Church family on the day after tomorrow.

REDEDICATION, SUNDAY, JUNE 15!

We of Grace Church are a little behind schedule in putting into effect the Forward in Service program, other congregations having already finished the Roll Call. We are going to begin on Tuesday. That gives us the advantage of finding out what the results have been in other parishes. And the unanimous opinion of the clergy who have conscientiously carried out the program, as we are carrying out the program, is that the results have been most heartening and amazing. For example, the Vicar of Holy Trinity Chapel reports that it "has accomplished results that he had believed impossible" and the Rector of St. Thomas's Church, Whitemarsh, told our group the other evening that it had done more for his parish than anything that had transpired for many a year. So say many other clergymen. This enthusiasm on the part of those who have gone ahead on the road before us brings to our minds a motto which we might well make our theme at this time: "Do great things for God; Expect great things of God!"

At a recent meeting of Grace Church Vestry, Mr. Charles H. Voorhis was elected Deputy Accounting Warden. In printing the names of members of Vestry Committees a name was inadvertently omitted—the Finance Committee consists of Messrs. White, Brand, Greaves, Thornton, and MacDonald.

At the recent benefit for the Boy Scouts given at the Germantown Theatre Guild, a net profit of $59.00 was made. The Committee is well pleased, and appreciates the backing of those who attended.

It is customary at this time of year for our Young People's Fellowship to give a Spring Festival, with games, outdoor entertainment, etc. This year they plan to do something different. On June 5, Thursday of this week, they are giving a dinner, play, and dance in the Parish House, beginning at 6.30 P. M. The dinner will be prepared by a caterer. Inclusive tickets cost $1.00; the profits will be given to the Parish House Improvement Fund. Come!

Mrs. Woodward is again throwing open her estate for a "Garden Day" on Tuesday of this week, June 3, from 3 to 7.30 P. M. Admission costs 25 cents, and the lovely gardens will be at their best. Profits will be used to help two worthy missions build rectories. Free transportation will be provided from Allen Lane and Germantown Avenues. In case of rain, the fete will be held in the Parish House of St. Martin-in-the-Fields.

From the Parish Register:

Baptized: May 11, Robert Charles Mortimer, born January 3, 1941, son of Edward Wilson Mortimer and Mathilda V. Mortimer. The sponsors are Jane Morrison, Robert Morrison, and Edward W. Mortimer.

Wedding: May 10, in Grace Church, Walton Brand and Oakley Warrant Van Nostrand.

Burials: May 5, Frank Boughton Fox, who died May 3. Interment was at Arlington Cemetery, Va.; May 10, Francis E. Emory, who died on May 8. Interment was at North Laurel Hill; May 12, Martha Rodman Harkness, who died on May 8. Cremation at West Laurel Hill; May 26, Mrs. Margaret Kempton, of 3623 North Bouvier Street, who died on May 22. Interment was at Hillside Cemetery.

Memorial flowers on the altar for May have been given by the following: Miss Mary Jane Hall, Mrs. Morris Stout, Miss Anne Wiswell, The Kindergarten.

The Young People's Fellowship of the North West Convocation held its annual meeting in our Parish House last Sunday evening and honored us by choosing as Chairman for the coming year Mr. Joseph Lee, and as its Treasurer, Mr. Willet Brand, both members of our own Fellowship.

The Business and Professional Woman's Club has elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Miss Florence Fitzpatrick; Vice-President, Mrs. Sydney Hampson; Recording Secretary, Miss Roberta Raynor; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Marjorie Hanna; Treasurer, Miss Anne H. Clarke.

Your Clergy wish you a Holy Christmas

Recently, Dr. Henry P. Van Dusen, of Union Theological Seminary, New York City, had the privilege of spending considerable time abroad, making a scholarly survey of conditions in England in the third year of war. Contrary to what one would expect, he found the general health of the people better than it had been for many a day. As he walked about city streets and country roads, Dr. Van Dusen perceived a clearness of eye, an elasticity of step, an uprightness of posture that was not there before the war. Nor was this wishful thinking. Psychiatrists reported a gradual falling off of patients requiring their care; the suicide percentage was at a new low; physicians unanimously agreed that the general health of people was far above what it had been for many a year. All health authorities agreed with them. And this desirable condition they ascribed not only to balanced rations and absence of overeating and overdrinking, but especially to the fine spirit that obtains everywhere. People no longer grouse at their own petty troubles; they are not self-centered or enervated by self-pity. On the contrary, all are absorbed in the great task of working, sacrificing, and living for the common welfare. They are immersed in what they believe to be a great cause. Like Eleazer of 2 Samuel 23:10: "He arose and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword," i.e., fought so absorbed in what he was doing that he forgot all about himself and didn't even perceive the physical pain that was stinging his hands, so the people of England have risen above personal worry and anxiety and have attained a peace, a serenity, and a confidence that were sadly lacking in the piping times of peace.

Now this much-to-be-desired condition does not justify war nor make up for its horrors. But it does point a moral for us who have so recently and so unwillingly been thrust into the conflict. And the moral is this: If the people of England—people in whose veins flows the same kind of blood that flows through our veins—after three years of hardship and suffering have emerged into this serenity and absence of fear, why should we, who haven't been called on to go through anything like they have been called on to go through, look forward with despair?

We should not. Christmas is an annual reminder that God Is, and God Cares. Men were looking up into the brazen heavens for many centuries and asking themselves the question, "Why, if there is a God, doesn't He make Himself known? Why doesn't He come down and let us see unmistakably that He rules over the world of men?" God answered that prayer on Christmas Day. He did come and dwell among us. And by that loving act, He has stamped the world forever with the words, "This is mine." He rules. He has the last word. Therefore Christmas Day in the year of Grace 1941 should speak to us saying, "Fear not, I am with you." Let us not look forward with hysteria, sadness, or black despair; on the contrary, now is the time to show Christian confidence and faith. Now is the time for all good men to lift up their heads. The Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

The Christmas Offering: Quite appropriately the envelops parishioners have in their packets for Christmas Day are designated, "For Current Parish Expenses." We say "quite appropriately" advisedly, for this year more than for many a year we need a large sum of money between now and New Year's Day lest we end the year in debt, and the Christmas Offering affords an appropriate opportunity for every one to turn his Christmas joy into something visible by giving an unusually generous sum of money to his Church on Christmas Day.

This has not been an easy year for your Church from the standpoint of money. Our regular income has been hard hit by the deaths of unusually generous and able givers; it has suffered because others who ordinarily can be counted on for large gifts have had to curtail their givings, they themselves having had their incomes cut radically; and, in addition, we are financially poor because we have been obliged to make extensive and unforeseen repairs which ran into thousands of dollars. The result is the need for a great outpouring of gifts on Christmas Day to Grace Church.

Make Your Christmas Offering large!

Bishop Beecher, of Nebraska, is coming to us on Wednesday evening, March 4, for Confirmation. Classes will begin on the first Sunday of the New Year.

We hope that all have received the Grace Church calendars which went out in the mail during the busy holiday season. If you haven't received yours, speak to the Rector soon—for there are only a few left—and he will give you yours.

Good Friday.—We have been fortunate in securing as the leader for our Three-Hour Service for Good Friday, the Rev. Dr. William H. Dunphy of the Philadelphia Divinity School. Dr. Dunphy is well known to some of our people who have taken work under him at the Ursinus Conference and at the Winter Conferences at the Church House. They recommend him highly. Such a leader deserves a good congregation and we hope for a large attendance for this very helpful service. Some people cannot remain for a service three hours long. Very well: let such come when they can and leave when they will; each of the meditations is helpful in itself and it is better to come for part than to stay away altogether. On the other hand, for many of us the time seems as a little while: we are surprised when the last prayer is said and 3 o'clock has come. But whether you begin at 12 o'clock and remain until 3, or whether you come for only part of the time, the important thing is to come. Enter or leave between meditations.

At a special meeting of Grace Church Vestry, held on Sunday, March 22, Mr. Frank W. Brady was elected to the Vestry to succeed Mr. W. W. Sibson, deceased, whose term was to expire Easter, 1944.

On March 22 we received Mr. Arthur Brinton Jopson, Miss Helen E. Jopson and Miss Rachael H. Jopson by letter of transfer from Calvary Church, Germantown.

There will be no Red Cross or First Aid classes this week.

The Easter Offering.—As usual, we are asking for a large, generous Easter offering, and as usual we are going to give all the money that comes in unearmarked for some other cause on Easter Day, to the Episcopal Hospital. Hospitals are fallen on hard times these days. There are not so many rich people to give large amounts of money as there used to be, and there are more and more sick people unable to pay when in need of hospitalization. Hospitals are faced with shrinking incomes and greater demands for free service. Because our State and city give no money to our Hospital, and because the Episcopal Hospital receives no part of "Community Funds," the amount needed to carry on must be raised in other ways. One of these ways is the free-will offerings of the congregations of the Episcopal Church in and around Philadelphia. That is where we—you and I—come in. We help twice a year in Grace Church by giving our Thanksgiving and Easter offerings to our Hospital for current expenses. When we give next Sunday, as we place our money on the alms basins, let us think, "Here goes a day's care for some sick child"; "Here is enough anesthetic to carry a good workman through an operation"; "Here is a day's coal for the Children's Medical Ward," etc. So shall our gifts be compatible with our Easter joy.

An annual election of vestrymen will take place in the Parish House on Monday in Easter week, between the hours of five and six o'clock in the afternoon. "Every adult member of said Church who shall appear on the Vestry books to have contributed during two successive years immediately preceding the time of such election to the support of said Church under any system of pledges which may from time to time have been by it adopted, in accordance with his pledge, sums aggregating not less than five dollars in each of said years, shall be entitled to one vote at any such election. A majority of such members present and voting shall be sufficient for such elections." (Article 1, By-Laws of Grace Church, Mt. Airy.)

There will be no meeting of the Church School on Easter morning. Instead, the School will assemble at 3.30 in the afternoon in church to present their Lenten Offering for missions and to partake of their own Easter service. Adults as well as children who do not belong to the Church School will be heartily welcomed at this Easter afternoon service.

Easter Even for centuries has been considered an appropriate time to have baptisms. We have arranged such a service for Saturday next, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Telephone the Rector if you have some one to be baptized at that time.

It is required of those who would be "communicants in good standing" in the Episcopal Church that they receive the Holy Communion at least three times a year, preferably at Christmas, Easter, and Whitsunday. A good way to prepare for one's Easter Communion is to attend the corporate preparation on Good Friday, at 8 P. M.

The Grand Master of the Masonic Jurisdiction of Pennsylvania writes:

"I urge every Mason in this Jurisdiction to attend Divine Service Sunday morning, May 31, that we may, 170,000 strong, offer up prayers of praise and thanksgiving for the many blessings bestowed, implore Divine guidance in the restoring of a disordered world, praying that men's hearts may be filled with the spirit of righteousness and that the Comforter may descend upon the sorrowing and the heavy-hearted."

The Young People's Fellowship made a Corporate Communion last Sunday. Afterward the newly elected officers were installed with appropriate ceremonies. They are: President, William F. Bishop; Vice President, David Schofield; Treasurer, Samuel F. Etris; Secretary, Mary E. Fischer. You are all invited to their play, "Here Comes Charley," on June 13.

Your vestry are securing estimates on retiling the church building, painting the interior, erecting radiator heat-deflectors, and cleansing the discolored stone in the chancel. We want the building we worship in to be immaculate and in perfect condition. This work will cost much money, but we are confident that, with the help of our organizations and the cooperation of generous individuals, we will be able to complete these very necessary repairs.

The summarized Annual Report of Grace Church, as submitted to the Diocese for 1941, is as follows:

For several years, at Diocesan Convention, Bishop Taitt has urged his hearers to have an annual offering in parish churches for the Diocesan Home for the Aged, the "House of Rest." Many congregations acquiesced in the Bishop's request and do have such an offering. Grace Church is one of them. And today is the day! You will find special envelopes in the pews, marked "For the House of Rest." Please make a generous offering to help these old ladies, and, if you can, be extra generous this year because the cost of living has risen. If you are not prepared to make this extra offering today, take the envelope home and put it on the alms basin at any service when you are prepared. The cause is worthy. Please do your best!

Several years ago the Men's Club inaugurated the very beautiful custom of attending an early Communion Service on a Sunday at this time of year and remembering before God their friends of the Men's Club who have entered into Paradise. This year they have very appropriately chosen to renew their fellowship on next Sunday, All Saints' Day, at the half-past seven service. Members of the Club will meet in the Green Room, walk into church in a body, and worship together. During the service an appropriate hymn will be sung and the list of our departed brethren will be read. Members of the families of the deceased are invited to Commune with the Club. Thus we shall keep in memory our own friends among God's Saints.

During the summer Mr. Charles Bright Mauch, B. D., was confirmed by Bishop Taitt and made a "Postulant for Holy Orders." At a recent meeting of Grace Church Vestry he was recommended to the Bishop and Standing Committee to be admitted "a Candidate for Holy Orders." He is entering the Philadelphia Divinity School and hopes to be ordained Deacon next June.

Craig Eder, having secured his Bachelor in Art degree at college last June, has also become a Postulant for Holy Orders in this Diocese. He is studying at the Seminary in Alexandria, Va., and will graduate in 1944, expecting to be ordained that year. Pray for both these young men—that God will bless them in their preparation to give their lives to Him.

On the evening of April 4, 1943, Bishop Taitt will visit Grace Church for the last time as its Bishop, to administer Confirmation and talk to his children in God. Begin now to pray and work to present to him an outstanding group of candidates for Confirmation.

Keep Monday evening, November 23, open. Very important! Everyone! Details later.

The Church School for many years has been in the habit of sharing presents at Christmas time with children outside and in our own city. We have kept up this happy practice this year. In November we sent a check for fifty dollars from our Church School treasury to a deaconess in the southern mountains, to be used in purchasing gifts for the young people under her care. And on Christmas Eve, at the Carol Service, our Church School members are going to bring presents and place them reverently near the manger scene. After the service these presents will be gathered and distributed to the young people of a Polish and an Italian mission in Philadelphia. We do not do this in the spirit of giving of our overabundance and conferring favors on those not so well off as we are. No, we do it in the spirit of sharing what we have with others, so that at Christmas time none shall be without gifts to make him happy. Every pupil in the Church School, then, is expected to bring a nicely wrapped gift to the Carol Service and to mark on it whether it is for a boy or for a girl, and what age boy or girl it will be appropriate for. We have been told that older boys predominate in the missions where our presents are going, and therefore we hope that there will be many presents marked "for older boys." If any of the adults who customarily attend this lovely service care to bring presents also, we shall appreciate it and send them with the others.

Do come to this inspiring service! There will be a Christmas pageant given by our Young People's Fellowship, and wonderful carols, and just the right note struck to sound the beginning of our Christmas celebration.

Mrs. Sheble is again taking charge of Christmas baskets. She has had a barrel placed at the vestibule of the Church, so that if anyone cares to give canned goods or other food that will keep he will be able to place them in the container and be sure that they will be used carefully. Mrs. Sheble also needs money with which to purchase Christmas baskets. You may send your gift to her at 301 Roumfort Road, or to the Rector. You have always been generous in this matter; we know that you will continue to be so this year.

The Men's Club has done itself proud in securing as speaker for the meeting to be held the Monday evening after Christmas a man who held the Club spellbound when he was with us two years ago. This man is a Frenchman who graduated from the French West Point, becoming an officer in the mighty French army. Being dissatisfied with the conservatism and reliance on worn-out methods in warfare that characterized the Commanders of the French army, he transferred to the diplomatic service and became a career man, and when the war broke out, was French Consul to Philadelphia. When France fell under the Nazi heel, he could not in conscience continue to represent a government with which he so radically disagreed, and he refused to take orders from Vichy. His opposition to what was going on in France became so absolute and effective that the Germans put a price upon his head. If they get hold of him, he will be "liquidated".

Dr. Pazery, the last time he was with us, told of the underground patriotic movement that was going on beneath the surface in France, illustrating his remarks with inside stories telling how the French people resent their arrogant conquerors, predicting the actual coups that have since come to pass. The men of the Club were so interested in what he had to tell them that they kept him here very late, pressing questions that had long been casting about in their minds.

Since that meeting two years ago Dr. Pazery has been on a secret mission abroad, working for the liberation of France, and preparing for the events now transpiring in North Africa. He has covered 3,700 miles within the dangerous borders of Nazi-held territory, and he returns to us filled with first-hand knowledge of what is going on behind the scenes.

Wouldn't you like to hear him so as better to understand just what is going on? Then come out on December 28 and bring some men you like with you. All men, no matter what their religious affiliation may be, are welcome. Remember: Monday a week—December 28, 8 P. M.!

The Christmas Offering this year will be used for current expenses of our own Parish. Does that sound selfish? It isn't! We give our Easter Offering and our Thanksgiving Offering and our other Holy Day offerings away to others, and these offerings are generally quite generous, and we are proud that Grace Church has so much to do in helping the many worthy causes that turn to us for help in their financial need. But we use the Christmas Offering for our own needs because, at this time of the year, we require extra money to clean up our bills, and start the New Year with a lit.'e money in the treasury to care for special needs. We do not make much ado about the Christmas Offering, but we do advertise its purpose hoping that when you realize what it is used for, you will dig down a little deeper and give a Christmas present to your Parish Church. All undesignated moneys, then, that come in on Christmas Day, will be used for paying our own bills. Be generous!

A new and beautiful custom has arisen an 'ng people of our Church all over this land. They have decided that eve'y evening at 6 o'clock they will go into prayer for a few minutes, remembering the men in the Armed Forces, and praying that God will keep them safe and good. To remind those within earshot, they ring church bells exactly at 6 P. M. If you hear our bells ring at that time, you will know that it is a sign that our young people are keeping faith with those who have gone ahead. Add your prayers to theirs, and together we shall be doing not only a beautiful thing, but also adding to the forces that will end the war.

We now have 59 men in the Army, Navy, and Air Force, and we need more correspondents to keep in touch with them. If you are willing to write regularly to our men, tell us so and we will assign you your man and his military address.

On April 11, the Rector baptized Frances Hackett Dittmann, daug Major Matthew Carton Dittmann, Jr., and Frances Hackett Dittmann. The was born in Lawton, Oklahoma, on January 2, 1943, and her godparents are H garde Preston Wise, Sophia M. Morris, and Captain John Wesley Frazier, III.

Tonight the Young People's Fellowship will conduct the Church Service. The various parts of the Service will be read by different members of the young people's group. The Reverend Charles Henry Long will preach. We hope for a large congregation.

Easter flowers for the altar are provided by various members of the Parish. If you care to have a part in making the altar lovely with flowers next Sunday, send your contribution soon to Miss M. Bayard, 105 East Johnson Street.

The Easter Offering in Grace Church will, as usual, be given to our Episcopal Hospital to help pay current bills. The hospital receives neither State aid nor money from the Community Fund. It relies on income from endowments, on the small share that its thousands of patients are able to pay toward their own maintenance, and on offerings from Episcopal churches in and around Philadelphia, to balance its budget. And those amounts are not sufficient! Constantly your hospital has to use "undesignated" legacies to finish the year out of debt. All major repairs and im-ovements have to be paid for from money taken from endowment. And living costs in addition to hospital supply costs have been sky-rocketing for years! There is urgent need for more money. We of Grace Church, who unselfishly give our Easter offering away rather than use it on ourselves, should be as generous in our giving to others as we would be if we were raising money for our own needs. When you give money on Easter Day in Grace Church, you are putting yourself among those blessed ones our Lord praised, saying, "I was sick and ye visited me." Let's have a real expression of our Easter joy in our Easter offering!

Every year on Good Friday we have the very best men that can be secured to lead our Three-Hour Services. For years now we have had the most outstanding spiritual leaders of the land direct our devotions. But, strange to say, attendance has been only fair. This year we have fortunately succeeded in securing Dr. Brown-Serman, of the Alexandria, Virginia, Seminary to lead our Passion Service. Won't you come yourself and bring others with you on Good Friday? You may not be able to remain for the whole time. That is all right. Worship with us as long as you can. A great spiritual Feast is prepared. "Come, for all things are now ready!"

The Good Friday Offering this year will be given to our own "City Mission." Most of you know of its work—in running a Hospital for Consumptives, a Home for Convalescents, work among the blind, among the needy poor, in the prisons, and at the great hospitals of our city. You have heard its workers tell of their duties and successes, their hopes and aims. And you have been deeply impressed by their zeal and proved ability. The City Mission is supported partly by endowment, partly by the Diocese, partly by grants from the Community Chest, and partly by contributions such as we are going to make on Good Friday. Here is a real chance to set your money to work vicariously in caring for God's needy and worthy children right on your own doorstep.

The Annual Election of Vestrymen for Grace Church will be held in the Parish House on Easter Monday, between the hours of five and six o'clock in the afternoon. Four men are to be elected for a term of three years. Those nominated have had their names posted on the door of the Tower Room.

There will be no morning session of the Church School next Sunday. Instead, there will be a happy Festival in Church at 3.30 in the afternoon, to which all are invited to come. The Lenten mite-boxes will be taken up and glad Easter carols will be sung.

At the Business and Professional Women's Club tomorrow evening, Miss Ruth North will give an illustrated talk on the "Cathedrals of North America." Dinner will be served at 6.30 P. M. Those who cannot come to dinner are invited to come to the "Pictures."

On Easter Monday evening the Men's Club will have as its speaker Imre Kov'acs, B.A., Ph.D., D.D. His topic is, "The Challenge of Being an American." Dr. Kov'acs has spoken twice before the Engineers Club of Philadelphia, and some of our members were so impressed by what he had to say there that they went to work to get him for our Club. We look for a large meeting. Bring a friend along with you.

On March 24 the Rector baptized Pamela Scott Tucker, born in Philadelphia on October 14, 1942, daughter of Alden Robert Tucker and Marie Elizabeth Tucker. Pamela's godparents are Katherine L. Wiener, Virginia Egbert, and Henry Wiener.

The Fourth Grade girls of the Church School cordially invite you to a Show of Foreign Dolls for their Lenten project on Palm Sunday afternoon at 3.30.

The girls are dressing dolls in South American and West Indian costumes in line with their Lenten study. Through the courtesy of several members of the Parish there will be dolls from many foreign lands as well as the flags of these nations.

Christmas to All Mankind

★ IN A WORLD torn by strife, filled with anxiety, pain, sorrow, the Angels' Greeting of the first Christmas falls on human ears with startling emphasis:

> Behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

Christmas is the story of the wondrous manifestation of the heavenly Father's love as it was revealed in the Babe found lying in a lowly manger at Bethlehem.

Today we may see that Infant, destined to become the center of all human history, and, by His career, to revolutionize the thinking of the world.

In the miracle of the first Christmas, God identified Himself completely with mankind. The result was a revolution in human thought and the world witnessed the most perfect demonstration of God's love that has ever been known.

As Christians come reverently and again take their places around the Manger where God's miracle was brought to pass, they may find the assurance of a faith invincible; that His birth and life and work and redemptive plan have not failed.

As Christians gather again to participate in His festival, hope may revive beneath our lurid skies and faith may discern again the coming of the Son of God, whose Kingdom shall have no end.

Unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given.
And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us.

"I just can't get up any enthusiasm for Christmas this year. I don't feel the Christmas spirit. My heart just isn't in it."

Have you heard this complaint uttered by different people during the last few weeks? What do you reply when they speak thus to you? What can you say to them? How can you help them get the Christmas spirit?

First of all, I would ask them, "How does this year differ from other years?" Certainly, God's goodness to us and His watchful care over us have not been withdrawn. Springtime and summer, harvest and winter, have succeeded one another in orderly sequence. The fruits of the earth, the wealth of vineyards, the product of pastures, the harvest of the sea, the riches of the mines have been poured out upon us in unusual abundance. We have reaped more than usual. There have been rain and sunshine and sustenance for all. No one in our land is hungry or unclothed. Nor have the beauties of God's world been withdrawn. Still shine the stars; still delight the ocean waves; still bloom the flowers; still sing the birds.

The Christmas story has not turned out to be a myth; indeed, more and more the deeper meaning of what happened in the cattle-shed in Bethlehem on that first Christmas night is unfolding itself. It means more and more as age succeeds age. It seems too good to be true. Yet, it is true.

Granted that many of our fine young men are away, many of them in dangerous places, does that rob the Christmas message of any of its poignancy? No, it serves only to emphasize the fact that the good God is all the more lovable because He is the One that we can turn to in our hour of need. He has not failed. The failure has been entirely on our side—on the side of man. Our failure has consisted in not being able to get along together. It is man that must be changed—not God. Thank God, He is unchangeable!

Now, what can change mankind from being so stupidly selfish, so racially arrogant, so offensively belligerent, so disregardful of the welfare of others? Only the message of Christmas Day. And the message of Christmas Day is that God loves us so much that He made Himself known to us in the person of our Lord Jesus. If God had now shown Himself unmistakably at some time in history beyond the peradventure of a doubt, then we might complain that there is nothing to justify the Christmas spirit. We wouldn't know any better. We would have a perfect right to give up, withdraw into our shells, and seek personal peace by ignoring the untoward things that happen about us.

But—God has made Himself known. Christmas itself is an earnest of God's interest in us. He has not failed us, nor left us ignorant of a way out of our unhappy predicament. As soon as mankind as a whole takes to heart the way of life outlined by Him who came on the first Christmas Day; as soon as we Christians take seriously our universal responsibility as individuals and as a group to see to it that God's will is done on earth as it is in heaven, then we shall right the ideology and the economic discrepancies and the social evils that bring wars to pass. If it were not for God, most of us could not stand this life; but because God is and cares, we will not mind overmuch temporary setbacks, nor be too much moved by our own ephemeral sufferings, but go bravely on, glad to fight, sacrifice, work, to get men everywhere to take the Christmas message to heart.

"WHAT'S NEW IN AIRPLANES"

All Men Welcome!

Youth Angelus.—Here is a poem dedicated to the practice of ringing the church bell daily at 6 P. M. and praying for our men and women in the Armed Forces:

The Youth of the Nation
Their church bells are ringing
At six in the evening
To call us to Prayer;
O God, Our Great Father,
We pray for our loved ones,
O guard them and keep them
In Thy loving care!

Confessing our weakness,
Imploring God's guidance,
We open our hearts to
The true and the good
May warfare be ended,
God's family united,
In Christ the foundation
Of world brotherhood.

The flowers on the Altar last Sunday were in memory of Ernest L. Schaeffer and his wife, Elizabeth P. Schaeffer.

Men's Club.—Because so many young men these days are interested in airplanes (most young people can "spot" different types of airplanes as readily as we used to distinguish different makes of automobiles), the Men's Club is throwing tomorrow night's meeting open to men as young as sixteen years of age. The talk is by an expert on planes being made of plywood, and represents an entirely new departure in the aircraft industry. This ought to fill the room with interested hearers. Come and bring a friend! Eight o'clock.

Confirmation Classes are meeting on Sunday evenings at 7 o'clock in the Parish House. The rite will be administered on the evening of April 4 by our beloved Bishop Taitt. As this is the last time he will be with us officially, we are anxious to make his visitation noteworthy, not only in having the Church filled to overflowing, but also in presenting to him an unusually large group of outstanding candidates. This can be done if every loyal member of the Parish will help. All about are people who need but an encouraging word to give them the courage to come. We often refrain from saying that word for fear we will give them the impression that we are intruding on their private affairs, or for fear lest they resent our suggestions. More often than not we are wrong. Many need only a word to tip the scales on the right side. All of us have been trying to make them welcome into our Church group as guests. But that isn't enough. We want more than that. We want them to be full members of the family, sharing in its manifold privileges and responsibilities. And it is your and my happy privilege to extend the invitation. Will you?

This year we have more time than usual to get ready for the Bishop's coming. Usually, we are assigned a Sunday early in the year for Confirmation, and because we cannot organize our group until after Christmas, we have to rush our preparation and cover so much ground in so little time that there is bound to be confusion and inadequate training. This year we have more time than usual. But even twelve weeks are not too much. There is much to find out, and from now until April 4, will pass by quickly.

That means that it is your Christian duty to look around you now for possible candidates and to see to it that they come to classes at the earliest Sunday possible. Put them in your prayers, and then God Himself will show you the right moment to approach them and will let you know what to say.

So much for candidates over sixteen years of age; for candidates younger than that, the urgency for you to do something is even more a matter for your conscience. There used to be an admonition in the Office for Infant Baptism which enjoined the godparents to see that "the child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him so soon as the child could say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments." Today sponsors in Baptism are asked, "Wilt thou take heed that this child, so soon as sufficiently instructed, be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him?" To which the godparents answer, "I will, by God's help." It is a most solemn vow. It must not be broken.

And so we hope for many more additions to the class of candidates from Sunday night to Sunday night. All are welcome. Do not neglect your part. Try now to think of someone to bring along.

Heating.—The Government has sent a form-letter ordering us to convert from oil to coal as soon as possible. We are working on the problem and hope to change over successfully in a reasonable time. Even though we secure the necessary parts for the change, it will entail quite an expense. And we don't have overmuch money. However, because such a change will be in line with the war effort, we are not grumbling. We are telling you because we know that you are interested.

of the race and the worth of the individual, and here is a confirmation of our faith. Here is another fact to set over against the fact of the death of the body. Here is a revelation of God to the soul of man. Christ says: "Because I live, ye shall live also; he that liveth and believeth in me shall never die." The sight of Him, victorious over death and alive forevermore, is the final assurance of our immortality.

No Church School today! Instead, the Church School and all others who care to attend will hold a Fiesta—a lovely Easter Carol Service—at 3.30 this afternoon. Bring in your Mite Box.

A Corporate Communion will be celebrated in Grace Church next Thursday morning at 9.30 for the spring ingathering of the United Thank Offering of our Parish. Bring in your Blue Envelope and give thanks for your many blessings.

On April 18, the Rector baptized:

FRANK DAVIS COX, III, born in Philadelphia on February 7, 1943, son of Frank Davis Cox, II, and Lieselotte Bimler Cox. The godparents are Vernon D. Cox, Grace M. Cox, Otto J. F. Bimler, and Frieda Bimler.

CYNTHIA VAN OESTEN LEIGH, born in Philadelphia on February 1, 1943, daughter of John L. Leigh and Dorothea Van Oesten Leigh. Cynthia's godparents are Frederick C. Field and Margery Friend.

WILLIAM HARRIS STEVENS, III, born in Philadelphia on December 17, 1942, son of William Harris Stevens, Jr., and Ruth Longstreet Harris. William's godparents are John Blair Stevens, Richard Campbell Stevens, Julia Longstreet Stevens.

JANE ANN MCCALL, born in Philadelphia on November 21, 1942, daughter of James Walter McCall, Sr., and Anna Firth McCall. Jane's godparents are Elizabeth Firth, Ruth Firth Arrison, Edwin F. McCall.

The Business and Professional Women's Club has elected for next year the following officers: President, Doris Haldeman; Vice-President, M. Gertrude Schott; Treasurer, Anne H. Clarke; Corresponding Secretary, Lucy Haines; Recording Secretary, Anne Kerr.

Today's offering in Grace Church will be given to the Episcopal Hospital to help pay their bills. We are glad that in Grace Church we don't have to have a "drive" to balance our own budget at Easter time, and that we have the privilege of spending our Easter offering for a cause so good. But we must not be less generous for that reason. And of recent years our Easter offering has not been outstanding. Let us change that this year. We can do it if we realize that what we give turns into medicine and beds and dressings; into food and heat and nursing care of God's worthy poor. Make your offering an index of your Easter joy!

On Saturday the Rector read the Office for the Burial of the Dead for (Mrs.) Clara Auer Schimpf, who died at her late residence, 5020 Newhall Street, on Wednesday, April 14. Interment was at Westminster Cemetery.

On Tuesday, April 20, the Rector read the Office for the Burial of the Dead for Arthur D. Graham, who died on April 16. Mr. Graham's residence was at 325 East Durham Street. Interment was in Ewing Cemetery, Trenton, N. J.

The annual election of four vestrymen will be held in the Parish House tomorrow, Easter Monday, between 5 and 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

The whole Christian movement to this day goes back for its explanation to the experience of the disciples. They said: "We have seen the Lord." They said: "The thirst and desire of all the race is at last answered. Out of the regions of death one has come back to tell us in plain words that our faith is valid. Christ is risen from the dead; we shall rise also. He lives and His life is our assurance that, after death, the soul of man goes on into life eternal." This message they immediately brought to their neighbors, and it confirmed the universal human hope. Thus it comes to us. We always knew that the fact of bodily death is an unconvincing argument against the life of the spirit. We see that our common experience discloses the expectation

There will be a Special Service in Church tonight, and our guests will be members of the Germantown Purple Star District, Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 3. We are holding a Special Memorial Day Service for our guests, and we hope that many members of the Parish will be present to worship with them. The hour is eight o'clock; the date is tonight.

Because Ascension Day always falls on a weekday, it is not observed as it ought to be observed. For Ascension Day falls into the category of a holy day of obligation —a day on which every Christian should be in Church to become mindful of the meaning of Jesus' ascension. We are providing two celebrations of Holy Communion for next Thursday—one at 7.30 and another at 9.30. Prepare now to attend one of the opportunities we are providing.

Today is commonly called Rogation Sunday. "Rogation" comes from the Latin and means "prayer"; here, prayers for God's blessing on the work of the farmer. It is the prayer we use in spring, for which we say "Thank You" on Thanksgiving Day. Monday and Tuesday of this week are also Rogation Days. Here is the Church's prayer for these three days: "O Gracious Father, who openest thine hand and fillest all things living with plenteousness; We beseech thee of thine infinite goodness to hear us, who now make our prayers and supplications unto thee. Remember not our sins, but thy promises of mercy. Vouchsafe to bless the lands and multiply the harvests of the world. Let thy breath go forth that it may renew the face of the earth. Show thy lovingkindness, that our land may give her increase; and so fill us with good things that the poor and needy may give thanks unto thy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord." Surely in these days of food rationing and of starvation abroad we will take these days seriously.

Are you interested in boys? Do you realize that two out of three high-ranking officers in the army and navy of the United States were once Boy Scouts and attribute some of their success to their Boy Scout experience? Do you know that a judge in the Philadelphia Juvenile Court remarked, in the presence of your Rector, that it is very rare for a Boy Scout to come up before him for having gotten into trouble. Are you aware that there is an alarming rise in juvenile crime in Philadelphia at the present time and that the authorities are quite concerned about it, and that Scouting is one of the answers?

Well, we do not look on our own Boy Scout Troop as a feeder for the army and navy. Our particular task is not to prepare men to become efficient army or navy officers. Nor are our boys the type who get into the clutches of the law. But we are concerned that our young men shall become good citizens and learn the valuable lessons that Scouting provides. That is the reason we have a troop of Scouts in Grace Church Parish. And that is why we expect you to be interested, too.

Now, one of the ways to indicate your interest is to come to the "Parents and Friends Night" our Scout Troop is giving on Wednesday evening of this week at 8 o'clock in the Parish House. The ceremonies will be impressive, and some of the success of the evening will depend on your interest as evidenced by your presence. We have a good troop and we want them to know that we care about them. The program will be short, and starts at 8 P. M. promptly. Come!

No morning session of the Church School will be held next Sunday. Our Church School is closing for the summer, and instead of having a regular session next Sunday we will have Commencement at half-past three o'clock in the afternoon. The program will be good, and we never have a Church School program more than an hour long. You will enjoy it if you come, and your attendance will add to our enjoyment. Make your mind up now to be present.

The Business and Professional Women's Club meets every Monday evening to sew and make surgical bandages. As our hospitals are so busy these days because of the shortage of nurses and of other paid workers, they have to depend on volunteers to do some of the work they sorely need. Surgical dressings come under this category, they take time to prepare, and our young women are taking the time to prepare them in order to release hospital employees for other work. They are not hard to make, but they are essential. We would like to have any women who care to do their part join with us on Monday evenings. The hour is eight o'clock; the place, the Parish House.

The flowers on the altar on May 16 were in memory of Ethel Marie (Mrs. Thomas) Hall, who died on October 21, 1937.

FELLOWSHIP REFRESHMENTS

All Men Welcome!

WANTED! Men to Sing in Our Choir! See Mr. Robinson.

At the 7.30 service this Sunday morning the Men's Club will hold a brief Memorial Service and make a Corporate Communion in fellowship with the members of the Club who, having finished their course in faith, do now rest from their labors.

"A Just and Durable Peace." On the evening of Sunday, November 7, in Grace Church Parish House, the Honorable William Draper Lewis will make a brief address and answer questions pertaining to the above subject. We are very fortunate to secure the Chancellor of the American Bar Association to speak to us on his favorite subject, and inasmuch as the future of the world lies in the decisions soon to be made, we all owe it to our country and to ourselves to build up an enlightened public opinion in the matter. Jot the date down now: Sunday, November 7, 8 P. M.

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

Dr. Henry J. Gideon, of the Vestry, has accepted the Chairmanship of the Annual Every Member Canvass soon to be made in Grace Church.

Last Sunday evening, Holy Trinity Church was crowded to the doors by a congregation that had come from the five counties comprising the diocese of Pennsylvania to hold a service in memory of our late Bishop, Francis M. Taitt. During the course of the service an offering was taken, made up mostly of large sums of money secured by taking special offerings in the various churches of the diocese. Grace Church people were present, including your Rector, but when the alms basins were passed we had no parish offering to give and had to be content to make our own personal offerings only. This was not the fault of Grace Church, but was due to the fact that the Rector had had to be away from his Parish, attending General Convention, on the Sundays when other clergymen of the diocese were presenting the matter to their people and taking up the offering. However, we are not to be denied the privilege of giving a tangible symbol of our appreciation and affection for Bishop Taitt. Enclosed you will find an envelope in which to place your offering on the alms basins in Grace Church next Sunday, or at some other service. When the envelopes are all in, we shall send our money to be added to the offering taken up last Sunday evening.

"What is the money to be used for?" It is to be used, in accordance with Bishop Taitt's wish, to add to the fund whose income pays part of the Bishop's salary. Bishop Taitt expected to be alive and present at this service, which was planned last spring, and which was to mark the end of his Episcopate and the beginning of Bishop Hart's. When Bishop Taitt was asked what the offering money was to be used for, he replied, "To increase the Endowment of the Episcopate, so that Bishop Hart may have an Assistant Bishop to help him carry on the diocese." When Bishop Taitt died, it was decided to make the service a Memorial Service, and to devote the offering to the purpose for which he had designated it.

And that purpose is eminently worth while! We do have a very small endowment, the income of which is used to help pay the Bishop's salary, but the income falls short, by thousands of dollars, of providing what is needed. The rest of our Bishop's salary is raised by assessing each parish and mission of the diocese a proportion of what needs to be raised.

And we need another Bishop! From now until next July, Bishop Hart has scheduled at least two confirmation services per Sunday, and on many Sundays a third such service. Also, he has scheduled for him at least two more services every week, of the same nature, and on many weeks a third Confirmation and Parish Visitation. There are no Sundays off to catch his breath. In this work of Parish Visitation and Confirmation alone an Assistant Bishop would halve Bishop Hart's burden. But we feel that Bishop Hart would be reluctant to ask for an Assistant Bishop if the added cost had to be prorated among the parishes and missions of the diocese, in addition to the amount that now has to be assessed to make up his own salary. So—this Bishop Taitt Memorial Fund is being raised to augment the amount in the Endowment Fund, and if it mounts to a large sum, it will not only make it possible for our overworked Bishop to have Episcopal help, but also it will aid every parish and mission by cutting down the amount that they would otherwise be assessed for the Bishop's salary.

To sum up: We ought to give a money tribute to symbolize our love and appreciation for the work and life of our late Bishop. This Memorial Fund will not only provide such a tribute, but will also fall in with Bishop Taitt's wishes, and aid the diocese which he served and loved so well. THE ENCLOSED ENVELOPE IS THE ANSWER.

Please put envelope in the alms basin in Grace Church at any service. You will then be doing your part. YOUR RECTOR AND VESTRY COUNT ON YOU!

The Young People's Fellowship, at its regular meeting last Sunday evening, elected the following officers: President, Margaret Long; Vice-President, Anne Wright; Secretary, Hope Pfaff; Treasurer, William Powell. Tonight the Fellowship will assemble in front of Grace Church at 5 o'clock to go together to a Supper and Youth Rally at Calvary Church, Manheim and Pulaski Avenue, Germantown. The latest member of the group to enter into the enlisted service of our country is Private George O. Frey. His number in the army is 13,200,800, and he is in the A.S.T.R.P., Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pa. Mr. Newell Robinson is our new adviser.

If a wounded sailor or soldier lay before you in pain and an attending physician were to tell you that a blood transfusion would save his life, you would not hesitate a moment in offering to donate your blood to him. Such a man is now in need of your blood! Through the alchemy of modern science it is possible to give one's blood in Mt. Airy and save a life in the remotest part of the world. But this alchemy has removed the sight of the man in need. Yet it requires but a little imagination to envision that, as the war deepens, more and more men and women will be in need of help from each one of us. It is only because we do not allow ourselves to picture the emergency, and our own duty in trying to meet it, that our Red Cross Blood Donor stations are not overwhelmed with eager contributors. Let it not be so any longer with us of Grace Church. Many of our men and women have already given generously, not once, but several times, and will give again. But many who could, have not given at all. And the opportunity is now here, for on Wednesday, December 1, and Thursday, December 2, from 1:15 to 6:15 P. M., a Mobile Unit of the Red Cross Blood Donor Service will be at the Jenks School, 8301 Germantown Avenue, to make it easy for us of Mt. Airy to do our part. All you have to do is to telephone Wissahickon 1210 or Wissahickon 3437 and make an appointment for the hour when you are to be there and do your part in salvaging the best of our American youth. It would be a good thing to telephone right away if you are so minded, so as to help the Red Cross be ready to receive you at an hour convenient to them and to yourself. Not only does your Rector urge you to make this contribution, but also your Bishop is appealing for Episcopalians to help in this great need.

On Saturday of this week, at 10 A. M., Mr. Charles Mauch, of our congregation, is to be ordained Deacon in St. James' Church, Kingsessing, 6838 Woodland Avenue, Phila. Your Rector is to be the Preacher. Two others will be ordained at the same time, one to the Diaconate, the other to the Priesthood. In our Communion we do not always realize how necessary it is to provide an ever-increasing number of educated, godly men to carry on the work of the sacred ministry. Outside the Diocese of Pennsylvania the need of Ordained Clergymen is so great that many parishes are without Rectors, and many missionary stations are unmanned. So many of our clergy have become Chaplains in the Army and Navy, and during the last few years very few have had the privilege of studying for Holy Orders, that the need is desperate. We must have more men to take care of our growing work all over the country. That makes us realize how important an Ordination is. I hope that many from this Parish will attend the service next Saturday morning; I expect every one of our faithful members to pray for God's blessing on Mr. Mauch's ministry. It is only as the Church of Christ goes forward that the terrible wars, hatreds, animosities, and tensions that now plague the world will relax and disappear. Every parent who reads this notice should ask himself, "Is God waiting on me to suggest to my son that he consider making the ministry his life's work?" We congratulate the parents of the man soon to be admitted to Holy Orders that God has honored them by setting aside their son for this sacred and important vocation. Remember Mr. Mauch at your bedside prayers, and especially at the services of Holy Communion.

On Sunday last we baptized Stephen Minter Scholl, son of Wilbur and Gladys Scholl. The godparents are Elizabeth Louise Harris, William W. Gilmore, and Wilbur Scholl. Stephen was born in Philadelphia, Pa., on December 12, 1942.

It has been our policy in Grace Church for many years to make but one appeal for money each year. We do not hold bazaars, suppers, entertainments, or dances to secure money for current expenses, but, on the contrary, tell our people that we rely on them to be generous enough in their regular envelope giving so that the subject of money need not be frequently on our lips.

Of course, we have special offerings from time to time—such as the recent one for the Diocesan Endowment Fund, so that we need not wear out our Bishop by overwork, and the War Fund, which we raised to help our Chaplains care for our parishioners in the Army, Navy, etc., but these are not regular offerings, and we look on them as emergencies, putting the matter before you without high-pressure methods, simply stating the need and leaving it to your consciences whether you ought to give and how much the amount should be. Generally, we do not mention money at our worship services.

But this mode of procedure makes it all the more imperative that we make a thorough canvass when we do gather in our annual pledges. If we are to meet our salaries when they are due; if we are to pay the tradesmen for coal, light, and other necessary supplies when we have to have them; if we are to do our share for the Forward work of the General Church; if we are to pass on to future generations a property not only as worthy as the one that was passed on to us for our use, but also improved buildings for growing congregations—then we must do a thorough job when we go out to our people annually to secure their contributions for the year that lies ahead.

Therefore we ask you to be as generous as you can when the representative of your Church comes to you within the next week. Make your 1944 pledge consonant with God's goodness to you. Some may have to curtail the amount of their givings; others will be really generous when they sign up for 1944 the same amount that they are giving in 1943; but most should give much more in their new pledge than they are giving now because their incomes have increased. Remember: The more you give in proportion to your income, the more you will receive, for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

So we leave the matter to your conscientious consideration, and we know from past experience that you will do what is right.

The Business and Professional Woman's Club will have as its Guest Speaker tomorrow evening Deaconess Stewart, of China. She will talk to us after supper and we promise all who come a real treat.

The memorial flowers on the altar lately were given by the following:

October 3, Mrs. Charles Pease; October 10, Mrs. Pratt Thompson; October 17, Mrs. R. W. Wilkinson; October 24, The Men's Club; October 31, Mrs. Joseph B. King; November 1, The Misses Bayard; November 7, Mrs. Brooks Barlow; November 14, Miss G. Darlington and Mrs. C. R. Whyte; November 21, Mrs. Anderson.

Men's Club: ALL MEN ARE WARNED TO PUT DOWN IN THEIR ENGAGEMENT BOOKS NOW THAT THEY ARE GOING TO ATTEND THE MONTHLY MEETING ON NOVEMBER 22. WE HAVE SECURED A GREAT AUTHORITY, WHO LIVED UNTIL RECENTLY IN JAPAN, TO TELL US WHAT WE ARE EAGER TO KNOW ABOUT OUR FORMIDABLE ENEMY.

Please take note that the late service on Thanksgiving Day will be held at 10 A. M., one hour earlier than our usual Sunday hour, and that the Thanksgiving Offering will be given as usual to our own Episcopal Hospital for paying current expenses. Be very generous, please; the Hospital is crowded with needy sick who have very little money to pay for their own care. It is our Lord Himself who will ask, "When I was sick and in the hospital, did you help care for me?"

Tomorrow Evening, 8 P. M.

Men's Club, Parish House

ROBERT F. MOSS

"JAPAN"

As our faithful ones go forth to gather in your contributions in the Every Member Canvass, your Rector's heart goes out with them. He thinks about the homes in which our people dwell; he imagines the various conferences and conversations that are taking place, and he prays that the canvass will have a deep spiritual effect on the whole Parish, for that is its primary object.

But he also thinks of the money element in the canvass and wonders whether many realize how closely interwoven money and religion are. When you turn to your New Testaments to find out what our Lord had to say in the matter, you will discover that in the New Testament there is more said about money than about anything else. Does this surprise you? Then read your New Testaments over again and see if it isn't so. It is! Problems of poverty, problems of getting and spending, problems of securing one's daily bread, problems of stewardship, and kindred problems absorbed a very large proportion of the time of people in the New Testament, as they absorb a very large proportion of the time of the people of today. Few of the evils of our social order are not rooted in the use and abuse of possessions. Behind the pressing international and industrial problems of Jesus' day, as behind the pressing industrial and international problems of our own day, we find the primary question of the acquisition and distribution of money or of the possessions that money symbolizes.

Please keep this leaflet for careful reading and reference

That is why our Lord spoke so much about it. For those who, like us, see in Jesus the Lord and Saviour of human life, there cannot be any more urgent study than that of His teaching upon money and its applications to the modern world. Even the tendency that most of us have to soften down His teachings in the matter is an example of "the deceitfulness of riches." One immediately thinks of the First Beatitude, which in St. Luke reads, "Blessed are ye poor," and in St. Matthew reads, "Blessed are the poor in spirit," as illustrations of this tendency to soften down our Lord's feeling in the matter. Most scholars are now agreed that St. Luke's version is the earlier and probably represents the real words that Jesus said.

No, Jesus never regarded men as disembodied spirits. He recognized that our lives here are dependent upon matter, as also our earthly bodies are dependent upon spirit. Our Lord's teaching is equally removed from the doctrine that behavior and religion are entirely conditioned by material surroundings, as it is from the false spirituality that would regard material surroundings as irrelevant. He saw that in poverty and in wealth alike the soul might starve. Money itself is neither bad nor useless—ALL DEPENDS UPON THE USE ONE MAKES OF IT!

But—the use that one makes of money is the acid test. It brings out what is going on within one's soul. Think of this when you figure out what you should fill in when you sign your Every Member Canvass card.

On December 7 there will be a Quiet Day at St. Margaret's House, 5419 Germantown Avenue, the Conductor being Bishop Hart. Holy Communion at 8.30; First Meditation at 10.15; Closing at 3.15 P. M. Make reservations with Sister Ethelwyn, VICtor 4612.

Men's Club: We honestly believe that our Men's Club has the most interesting and helpful programs of any club in the city. And tomorrow evening's program is even above our average. Mr. Robert F. Moss is coming to us from Elizabeth, N. J., to speak.

He is a civil engineer, graduate of the University of Missouri, 1904; spent five years in government engineering work in the Philippines, and after a short engagement in Kansas City went to Japan in 1910 as representative of the Truscon Steel Company. In 1920 he organized the Truscon Steel Company of Japan (later the Oriental Steel Products Company), with combined United States and Japanese capital. This company employed over a thousand people and was quite successful. Since 1936 he has also represented the Republic Steel Corporation.

In 1940 he returned to the United States on vacation, but never got back to Japan. He has always been interested in community activities and was president of the American Association of Tokyo; for seventeen years he was chairman of the board of trustees of the American School in Japan, a school run for the education of American children. Mr. Moss is therefore a great living authority on Japan. Give yourself a treat! Come to the Men's Club tomorrow evening at eight and bring some men along with you!

Second call for Blood Donors: Telephone WISsahickon 1210 or 3437 at once to make an appointment for your gift to our wounded men and women. The days are December 1 and 2; hours from 1.15 to 6.15 P. M.

Two addresses, "What's Wrong with the Church?" and "What's Right with the Church?" will be given by Dr. Leicester C. Lewis, of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, at Holy Trinity Church today, November 21. The first address will be given in the church at 5.00 P. M.; the second, at 7 P. M. Supper will be provided in the Parish House at 6.00 P. M. for those who make reservations ahead of time with Mr. Spencer Ervin, 901 Provident Trust Building. No charge for addresses; supper costs 75 cents.

Under date of November 7, our Diocesan sent us the following letter:

To All the Members of the Diocese:

On Thanksgiving Day you are given the chance to help extend Christ's healing ministry through the Episcopal Hospital. Facts about the needs and opportunities of the hospital have been given to you in circulars. The hospital wants your prayers, your interest, and your support.

Here is one way in which we can serve. The Episcopal Hospital is one of the Church's contributions to the community. Your Thanksgiving Day offering will help to determine how effective that service is to be.

Sincerely yours,

OLIVER J. HART,
Bishop of Pennsylvania

The Business and Professional Woman's Club will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Gideon, 215 E. Sedgwick Street, at 6.30 P. M. Supper will be served and afterward the Club will fill ditty bags for the guests at the Diocesan Home for Women, the House of Rest. The rest of the evening will be spent in singing Christmas carols.

The Social Service Committee of the Parish rarely makes appeals for financial help. However, they break through this rule at Christmas time because they need money to fill Christmas baskets and do other gracious things in your name. Not all Grace Church people are poor but there are some who live close to the subsistence level. The little that we do for them from time to time, especially at this season of the year, does much to brighten up lives. If you care to help, call up Mrs. Frank Sheble at Roumfort Road and Ardleigh Streets, and she will be glad to count on your contribution. Better do it right away! (Che. 0972.)

"How often should one make his communion?" That depends. In the early Church it seems to have been the custom to do so once a week. During the Middle Ages many people made Communions daily. (The Rector has seen old Spanish crucifixes which contained six spaces in which the communicant received six consecrated wafers, enabling him to make his Communion daily, even though he would be far away from Church at the time.) After the Reformation many Christian churches observed the rite but three times a year; in fact, the Anglican Church had such a custom and this obtained throughout the first half of the nineteenth century. But the pendulum has been gradually swinging back to the custom of the early Church and today most of our parishes provide an opportunity to receive the Sacrament once a week and on Holy Days. But all through the ages the Church has insisted that every faithful member must receive at least three times a year: at Christmas, at Easter, and at Whitsuntide. "How often should one make his Communion?" That depends. But all are agreed that Christmas (The Holy Communion on Jesus' birthday) is one of the must days.

The Men's Club debated whether it would hold its regular meeting on the fourth Monday in December and adhere to its regular schedule. Two days after Christmas seemed to some to be too near Christmas to ensure a good attendance. But after thinking it over, the Executive Committee decided that it would hold its meeting on the regular date because it had been able to procure an outstanding program and because it was sure that many men would come on the regular night. So the committee secured Mr. Charles Love, an expert on carrier pigeons—those strange birds noted for their remarkable ability to make their way home from great distances —and Mr. Love will bring with him some champion birds and tell us of the strange use that our government is making of this homing instinct, in this war. He will bring with him some homing pigeons, "broken to harness," and give us a demonstration of their prowess. The Club hereby invites all men and any of the older boys who hear of this, to be present. The date is December 27 and the hour is set at eight o'clock. Come!

Many congregations make it a practice to work for months for a large Christmas Offering with which to pay their current expenses. They have to do this, they say, to clear their running expenses. Grace Church has not in recent years talked much of the Christmas offering, because its members have given generously and regularly through envelope contributions. However, we do use the Christmas offering for ourselves. There are always unforeseen repairs that have come up unexpectedly, and unexpected deficits in our regular givings for the general work of the Church. These are met from our Christmas offering. So—be generous, please.

The pupils of the Church School bring gifts to the Carol Service on the afternoon of the day before Christmas. These are later distributed to the needy. This year our gifts will be taken to St. John's Settlement House, 1332 N. 12th Street, Philadelphia. Usually we bring toys, but this year we are asked to bring articles of clothing because they are needed more. Each pupil is asked to bring some article of clothing marked "for a boy" or "for a girl," and is asked to indicate on the wrapping what aged child the gift is intended for.

For your information: The Special Offerings this year have been generous, the Accounting Warden tells us. The fund for the Army and Navy Commission amounted to $579.22; the Bishop Taitt memorial, $161.28, and the Children's Easter Offering for Missions, $410.00. The Committee on the Every-Member Canvass tells us that they have secured a small increase in pledges for 1944, and with the Christmas Offering we shall end the year out of debt. For this generosity, much thanks.

There will be a Tea in honor of Mrs. Eder on Wednesday afternoon, December 22, from 3 to 6 o'clock at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Gideon, 215 E. Sedgwick St. All women of the Parish are invited.

MR. CHARLES LOVE of "The Evening Bulletin"

A TALK AND DEMONSTRATION:

"Homing Pigeons in This War"

COME!!

The Christmas Offering: The Accounting Warden, Mr. Brand, tells us that if we have a good offering on Christmas Day we will not only end the year with all debts paid but also have a balance with which to begin 1944. Considering the fact that we have more than a hundred away in Army, Navy, and Air Force, and that most of our people are on settled income not affected by war salaries, this condition is excellent. Now let us make good the Christmas Offering, which is one of the rare special offerings allocated to our own Church, and end the year in an enviable financial condition.

Grace Church calendars went out during the busy holiday season. It may be that you were inadvertantly overlooked or your calendar was lost in the holiday rush. If you haven't received yours, speak to the Rector. He will have one for you.

Your Clergy wish you a Holy Christmas.

NEXT SUNDAY MORNING
April 2, 1950—11 A.M.
The Rt. Rev. O. J. Hart will Preach and Confirm in* GRACE CHURCH!

We welcome Bishop Hart to Grace Church this morning, welcome not only because he is our Diocesan but also because we like him personally. After service we will have Tea and Coffee together in the Green Room. Please do not rush home but remain a few moments to greet the newly confirmed and say "How do you do" to your Bishop.

The day before Easter has from early days been considered a particularly appropriate time for baptizing. Easter Even through the centuries has been marked by the custom of receiving candidates into the Christian Church by baptism. We of Grace Church like the custom and have continued it, and will do so this year. At four o'clock on Saturday of Easter week we will administer the sacrament in Church. If you have an unbaptized child, telephone the Rector and make arrangements to have the service with us on April 8th, at 4 P.M.

Dime Banks are now being distributed for the benefit of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild. Almost every woman in the parish has one. Also many outside the Parish accept and fill them. If you have been overlooked and have not yet had yours sent you for the year ("for that little extra that will go far"), telephone Mrs. Martin E. Hartley, HA 4-1684.

There will be no Church School on the morning of Easter Day; instead the school will have its happy Carol service on the afternoon of Easter Day at 3.30 P.M. at which time the pupils will turn in their Mite Boxes. All are welcome, of course!

If you care to share the expense of supplying Grace Church's altar with flowers for Easter Day, telephone your wish to Mrs. William C. Wright, Ch 7-3900.

The NURSERY HOUR. Children are cared for every Sunday during the 11 o'clock service by competent adults. This is done to provide an opportunity for parents to worship together in Grace Church. Why not avail yourself of the opportunity?

When your Rector was a lad he had a habit of attending services among many sects including the Salvation Army. He remembers vividly how they used to be disappointed at the amount of the offering. Usually they would count the collection and say something like this: "The offering amounted to $1.13. We need and had hoped for $10.00. So we'll pass the plates around again and give you the chance to make up the difference! If we don't get the full amount this time, we will probably pass the alms basins around again." The offering in Grace Church on March 12th in response to the Presiding Bishop's appeal, amounted to $934.40. Our share in the whole amount is $2,000 (40% of our annual givings of $5,000). Since March 12, we have received $212. That makes a total of $1,146.40; $853.60 less than we need. Shall we pass the plate around again or will you send in more now, so that Grace Church may have the honor of having made good?

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS OF INTEREST: The Vestry announces that at a regular meeting on October 14th, they unanimously elected COLONEL W. WILLIS GILMORE to take the place on the Vestry of STANLEY L. THORNTON, ESQ., who resigned on moving away....Do not forget! Services today will be held on STANDARD TIME....At its October meeting, the Vestry recommended the REV. MR. BOSBYSHELL to the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese, to be advanced to the Priesthood. It is hoped that he will be so ordained before Christmas....As this goes to press, the tentative date for the annual PARISH BAZAAR has been set for Saturday, December 6th....Many have complained that they miss the inspiring music of our carillon; so have we. Some mechanical defects arose during the summer, and we have been writing the manufacturer to repair them. They have promised to get busy soon, and we hope to enjoy them before long....One of our outstanding clergymen is the REV. KENNETH HEIM of the Seminary in Alexandria, Virginia. Through the influence of some of his good friends, and on our invitation, he has promised to preach at the eleven o'clock Sunday Morning Service on November 9th. We are planning to issue the PARISH NEWS regularly—weekly—from now on. Look for it in its new format.

PSALMS 92:1, 95:2

The United Thank Offering is a day-by-day offering made by the women of the Church in recognition of God's goodness to them in particular instances. It is used primarily for the women's work of our Church all over the world. At General Convention on October 10th, the last three years ingathering was turned in and blessed. The three-year total amounted to $3,869,958.38, bettering the 1955 total by $660,000.

Your Bazaar Committee is busy planning for the fair on Saturday, December 6th. It is headed up by Messrs. Taylor, Foulkrod and Josephs. Be prepared, please, to donate White Elephants, Candies, Cakes, etc., when they call on you to do so. Also plan to do much of your Christmas shopping at the Bazaar — if you do, it will solve much of your buying problem and save you from getting over-tired during the Christmas holidays.

Remember the COFFEE HOUR - Second Sunday of each month following the 11:00 a.m. Service.

"The Armor of God"

Ephesians 6: 10-17 by Leo Sowerby

Be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, for we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against rulers of this present darkness. Stand therefore, having girded your loins with truth and having on the breast-plate of righteousness. And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace, above all taking the shield of faith, wherewith you shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked, and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the spirit, which is the word of God.

Today we are observing "Loyalty Sunday," and Loyalty Sunday is the name we give to that Sunday in the fall of the year on which we gather in the written promises of our people, telling us how much money they expect to give to God through Grace Church during the year just ahead. We used to send a canvasser to every member of our church-family to secure pledges. Now we set aside a certain Sunday on which you are asked to bring your promise to church yourself. We send canvassers to those who are not present on the day of ingathering. You have had letters from your Wardens, Messrs. Brehm and Gotwals, and from your Rector about our church needs and how to determine how much is your due. We do need much more money than we have been receiving during the last year if we are to put our property in first-class shape and prevent it from growing shabby. We want to remain proud of our buildings, and not to have to make apologies for our lack of up-to-date facilities. That is where you and your pledges come in. If you are conscientious in this matter of increasing your subscription, Grace Church will continue to forge ahead. Will you? —We depend on you!

On next Sunday, at the 7:30 Holy Communion Service, the Men's Club will be present in a body to make their communions together and remember by name those who, having rendered distinguished services to the club, were called by God to join Him in the world beyond. It is one of the moving services of this year. Come and commemorate them with us.

Thursday, November 13th is the last chance you have to hear Mrs. Marion Kelleran, Director of Christian Education in the Diocese of Washington, speak at St. Martin-in-the-Fields, 7:45 P.M. Christian Education for all children of God is a primary concern of the Church. How are we at Grace Church to fulfill this responsibility? Come, hear Mrs. Kelleran and maybe we can find out!

Martin Luther was so obsessed with a sense of his own sinfulness that he spent many hours making his confession, wearying his confessor, until the fatigue became almost unbearable. He suffered from "scruples," a well-known morbid condition of the anxious soul, discussed in a whole literature of moral theology. (The word "scruple" comes from the Latin "scrupulous" and means a small sharp stone, as in a man's shoe, causing discomfort, small trouble, difficulty.) The symptoms of this psychological disease can be recognized as readily as a modern physician recognizes Measles.

One method of treating over-anxious souls was to put their offenses in more cheering proportion. The advice given by Gerson, Luther's spiritual doctor, proceeded along these lines. Said he, "There is a type of vanity which loves to parade its own shortcomings. For such the old rhyme, (here set in English) is salutary:

"Once in a saintly passion, I cried with desperate grief,
'O Lord my heart is black with guilt, of sinners I am chief,'
Then stooped my guardian angel and whispered from behind,
'Vanity, my little man, you're nothing of the kind.'"

Sermon by The Rev. K. E. Heim of the Episcopal Theological Seminary in Virginia

Last Thursday, October 30th, at the Corporate Communion and Memorial Service for the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild, the Rector consecrated a beautiful, white Antependium (Pulpit Hanging) which matches the lovely Altar Super-Frontal recently dedicated to the memory of Gladys M. Scholl. The Antependium was designed by our Altar Guild and given in memory of Julia B. Wagner by her sons. To make our new set of Altar Vestments complete, we still need three Stoles (one Eucharistic, and two Preaching) and a silk Veil - to match the Super-Frontal and Antependium. The approximate cost will be $150.00. If anyone is interested in giving all or some of these most desirable memorials - and we want them to be memorials - please speak about it to the Rector.

The flowers on the Altar today were given by the Men's Club in memory of their members who, having finished their course in faith, do now rest from their labors.

A modern parable: A certain man worked hard to make a living and lay aside some money for his old age. He was fairly successful and began to invest in the Stock Market. Unfortunately, the stocks he purchased rose so quickly in value, and he made large sums of money so rapidly that he gave up his job and "playing the market" became an obsession with him. He could think of nothing but making more and more money. He was interested in nothing else. When a canvasser for the United Fund came to secure his contribution, he turned abruptly away. ("Maybe some day when he had amassed a great fortune he would make a worthwhile gift, but not now, for he needed every cent he had to purchase more stock.") One day he had a strange experience. A stranger convinced him that for a modest sum he would obtain for him any one thing he wished. Quickly closing the bargain and paying the stipulated cost, the money-mad man said, "I want a copy of the financial sheet of the local newspaper as it will be exactly a year hence." Said the stranger, "No sooner said than done," and gave him the requested newspaper. Overjoyed, he looked at the market price of his favorite stocks, made a quick calculation as to how he might so manipulate his holdings as to become a millionaire, and as he beamed with a miser's joy, happened to see the obituaries on the opposite page. There in plain view was a notice of his own death!

Parents - God-parents - everyone in Grace Church.....
You can't afford to miss this!!! Mrs. Marion Kelleran will speak twice more at St. Martin-in-the-Fields. If you are concerned about the future of your Church, she will bring you up-to-date on Christian Education for all ages. Thursday evenings, November 6th & 13th, 7:45 p.m.

If your address changes, would you do Grace Church a favor? Please inform the Parish Office of your new location, so you will continue to receive the Parish News.

The Rev. Thomas Yocum, who was assisting at Christ Church, supplied services on Sunday afternoons. By November, 1864, it was necessary to enlarge the building, which was done at a cost of $2,255.47. At this time, the Rev. Mr. Yocum resigned, and the Rev. J. Saunders Reed was elected at a salary of seven hundred dollars—Christ Church furnishing three hundred of the amount. The Rev. Mr. Reed having declined, the Rev. J. R. Moore was elected and declined. Then the Rev. Dr. Shiras was elected. Dr. Shiras apparently declined, so did the Rev. John E. Ames. Finally, the Rev. Edward Hale, in May—1866, accepted the Rectorship at a salary of one thousand dollars a year, but remained only two months. On August 12, 1866, the Rev. R. A. Edwards was elected Rector. On February 6, 1874, the resignation of Mr. Edwards was accepted, he having been called to Holy Trinity Memorial Chapel. The Rev. S. C. Hill was elected to fill the vacancy on February 24, 1874, but declined. On March 14, 1874, the Rev. E. A. Reddles was elected Rector and resigned in February, 1875. On April 15, 1875, the Rev. S. C. Hill was elected Rector and remained until 1912. Since then there have been but two men as Rectors: the Rev. Dr. Thomas S. Cline (1912-1924) and the present incumbent.

In writing to the local newspaper, the Rev. Dr. S. C. Hill, who supplied the above narrative, added: "The Parish needs a larger church building and desires another location; and it is to erect a new church on a lot on the Gowen estate, at the southwest corner of Gowen Avenue and Main Street. The building will be built of stone from the vicinity and will be 100 x 78 feet in size. It will have a nave, aisles and baptistry, also a tower 90 feet high. The vestibule will be under the tower. The interior will be diversified by colored bricks. Steam heat will be used. The cost will be about $18,000. The old church will be utilized for the Sunday School until a year after the new church is completed, when it is expected that a parish building will be built at the new location."

This was in 1888, and the new project was completed by the consecration of Grace Church on November 13, 1889.

The Rummage Sale Committee (Mrs. Emilie H. Allen, Chairman) wishes to thank all who gave generously of their time and donations in helping to make the sale an outstanding success.

When Grace Church was being planned in November, 1858, and the Sunday School was just starting, one of the first projects the baby congregation undertook was handled by the women. It was a bazaar held in Town Hall. With a few cash donations added by the men, the fair turned over to the treasurer the sum of nine hundred dollars — enough to begin the building of our first church. And that, in spite of the hard times that preceded the Civil War! We are still having bazaars, but now every organization of the parish is working hard on the annual fete. We do not use the money raised, on ourselves; now we turn it over to the National Church to help other congregations to get started and carry on. Grace Church gives $7,500 a year "for others." And $7,500 is a large sum of money. Some of it comes via an annual gift from the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild; some comes from our general parish offerings; some comes from the money made at our annual bazaar. The more we make on December 6th, the more the likelihood we will be able to end our year in Grace Church in the black. Make up your mind now to attend; buy Christmas gifts, and back up your parish!

The flowers on the Altar today were given by Mrs. Alfred J. Snyder in memory of her father and mother, Morris and May Stout.

It is our custom on the Sunday nearest All Saints Day to read from the chancel the list of those for whom your clergy read the Burial Orrice since the last All Saints Day. Here is this year's list—

EVENING WOMAN'S AUXILIARY — meets Tuesday, November 11th, 8:00 P.M. Bring new toys to be wrapped and sent as Christmas gifts to the Indian Mission in Mobridge, South Dakota. Also, there will be a quiz on the General Convention.

The Men's Club will hold its next meeting on Monday evening, November 24th, at 8:00 P.M. The speaker will be Mr. Frank Lauscher; his subject, "AFRICA."

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP - CORPORATE COMMUNION
Sunday, November 9th at 7:30 A.M.

All young people of Grace Church are invited to attend 7:30 Holy Communion Service and the breakfast that will follow. COME — Worship God and break your nightly fast with us.

Do you realize that Saturday, December 6th, is less than two weeks ahead? Does the date strike a note? Well, here is a memory jog anyway: Saturday, December 6th, is the day of our Church Bazaar. Beginning before noon and ending before dark, we will hold our annual Fair, with Cakes, Pies, Candies, Books, White Elephants, Dolls, Flowers, Perfumes, Writing Paper, Snacks, Games, Fancy Articles and a room full of other desirable Christmas presents for sale. Right now we need to know that you are going to give us cakes, candies, etc., to sell. Telephone the Parish Secretary (CH 8-2950) about your gifts to the fete.

The Committee for the Doll Booth of the Bazaar would like all dolls to be ready by December 3d. Anyone desirous of having dolls picked up, please contact Mrs. John Asher, CH 7-6454.

Teacher's Corporate Communion and Breakfast Sunday, November 23 at 7:30 a.m. All Church School teachers and assistant teachers are urged to come, worship God and enjoy a delicious breakfast served by ladies of the Evening Woman's Auxiliary.

Church School pupils, on Sunday, November 23d, we have our Thanksgiving Service. Remember to bring jams, jellies and fruit (Primary & Kindergarten Depts.) which we will present to God as symbols of our thankfulness for His many blessings and gifts to us. Jams and jellies will be taken by the Ninth Grade Class to All Saints' Hospital. The Third Grade Class will take the fruit and favors they make to the House of Rest, an Episcopal home for aged women.

At Christ Church and St. Michaels, Tulpehocken & McCallum Streets, on Monday evening, November 17th, at 6:30 P.M., the Dept. of Social Relations of our diocese will hold a Dinner Meeting. The speakers will be Stephen Kneisel of the Crime Prevention Association and the Rev. C. Edward Hopkins, Ph.D. Make dinner reservations before Wednesday, November 12th, at $2.00 a plate to Miss Davies at the Church House, LO 7-6650.

Before a candidate may be ordained in the Episcopal Church, he must first be recommended by the Standing Committee of the diocese to the Bishop for ordination. The Standing Committee of our diocese met on October 28th and acted favorably on the recommendation of your Vestry. The Rev. Mr. Bosbyshell will be advanced to the Priesthood on Saturday, November 29th, at ten o'clock in the Church of the Good Samaritan, Paoli.

Do you realize that our great Parish Bazaar will be held on December 6th, less than a month from now? That means that all of us must get busy at once looking up books, "white elephants" and other articles we can turn in to make the fete financially successful. Telephone Mr. Harry Taylor, CH 7-8251, if you have any suggestion to make or anything you want collected.

A young man ran for the legislature of Illinois. He was badly beaten. He tried for nomination to the United States Land Office but failed. His candidacy for the United States Senate was unsuccessful. He tried for the office of Vice-president and was defeated. In all, he was defeated in seventeen political campaigns successively. Abraham Lincoln's first success was his candidacy for the presidency! "Success is a necklace on which are strung many failures but clasped with a final achievement." A resume of the sermon on "the beginnings of Grace Church" preached by the Rector on Loyalty Sunday:—"On the 18th day of May, 1858, several gentlemen met at the Rectory of Christ Church, Germantown, (now "The Church of Christ and St. Michael") to take steps for forming a parish in Mt. Airy. Mr. W. E. Stone was elected Secretary, and the following persons were nominated as the first Vestrymen: C. S. Carstairs, Henry Berry, Thomas H. Powers, A. S. Robinson, S. L. Crentzberg, W. E. Stone, P. E. Hamm, Clem Tingley, Eli Burrhouse and Beckman Potter. "The Church of the Messiah" was first selected as the name but was finally changed to "Grace Church." (Our Corporate title is "Grace Church, Mt. Airy.") A charter was procured, and steps were taken to erect a Chapel—with the aid of the ladies through a Fair held in the Town Hall of Germantown. As subscriptions amounted to $900., they were able to accomplish their object.

HISTORY OF GRACE CHURCH (Continued from November 16, 1958)

"On Wednesday, November 13, 1889, Bishop Whitaker consecrated the new, substantial and symmetrical edifice of Grace Church at Gowen and Ardleigh Avenues, Mt. Airy. Rev. S. C. Hill is Rector of the Parish. More than sixty clergymen in surplices attended the service; those to whom parts of the service were assigned being the Rev. Drs. Atkins, Upjohn, Harris, Perry, Watson, Murphy, Falkner and R. A. Edwards. The sermon was by the Rt. Rev. Cortland Whitehead, Bishop of Pittsburgh. After thanking his seminary classmate, the Rector, for the invitation to preach, and congratulating him and the Bishop of the Diocese upon the erection of this and so many noble churches which are rising in this region, he announced the text, Esther 5:2; 'And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favor in his sight; and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. So Esther drew near and touched the top of the scepter.' Picturing the timid approach of the queen, forfeiting thereby, under custom, her life, but being graciously received, the Right Reverend preacher used the event as illustrative of the Doctrine of God's Grace, a subject suggested by the name of the church. Our thought of God determines what kind of worship we offer Him. St. Peter declares him to be the God of all grace, and we recognize it as the language of experience and penitence. The Church has never narrowed the message of God's grace. She ever stands bidding men reach out their hands to touch the Incarnation. Observation shows that men will naturally believe anything rather than the abundance of God's grace. The bearing of the message fully has its effect on the worship of the Church. Each church building becomes a witness of grace. The sacraments assume the chief place in worship, and their celebrations become even gorgeous. Those who minimize Christian doctrine are most afraid of what they call "externals of worship." The Church is not merely the messenger, but the very Body of Christ, herself filled with His grace. In conclusion, the Bishop involked the richest blessing upon rector and congregation in the use of this church, saying: 'The Lord hear thee in the day of trouble; the Name of the God of Jacob defend thee, send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion, remember all thy offerings and accept thy sacrifice; grant thee thy heart's desire and fulfill all thy mind.' After the service, the clergy were invited to luncheon at the residence of Mr. Franklin B. Gowen." (From "Ancient and Modern Germantown, Mount Airy, and Chestnut Hill," by the Rev. S. F. Hotchkin, M.A.)

The flowers on the altar today are given by Miss Anna Wiswell, "in memory of Donald R. Bornman, Jr., and all little children."

The Thanksgiving Day flowers are given in memory of Catherine and Samuel Matlack by their daughter, Mrs. Leonard Davis.

On Tuesday, November 11th, the Rector officiated at the funeral of Christine Bertha Flaig who died at the Einstein Medical Center on November 7th. Interment was in Greenmount Cemetery.... On Wednesday, November 12th, the Rector officiated at the funeral of Carolyn Drew Manning who died in Ocean City, N.J., on November 8th. Interment was in Mt. Vernon Cemetery.... On the same day, the Rector read the Burial Office for Mary Ackley Eynon who died in the Chestnut Hill Hospital on November 8th. Interment was in West Laurel Hill Cemetery....On Thursday, November 13th, the Curate read the Burial Service in the Church for Susan Ellen Heydt, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Richard Heydt. Susan died Sunday, November 9th, in St. Christopher's Hospital. Susan, a member of the first grade class in Church School, would have been six years old in December.

For many years now the Keeping of Thanksgiving Day has been perverted. It is set aside annually by our President and Governors as a day on which to go to Church and thank God for our blessings. It is a harvest festival. But look at what has happened! In every large city of our land, business tycoons have taken over, turning our religious holy day into a meaningless parade day to whip up enthusiasm for Christmas buying, with the end result of perverting the meaning of Christmas itself. In smaller towns, the authorities often set up annual games between rival football teams and schedule them at the very hour Thanksgiving Day Church Services are being held. This ought not so to be. Perhaps we of the Church are much to blame because we have not made enough of the solemn Advent Season that precedes Christmas. Such a solemn season—when we take to heart that our Lord is going to come again to judge the living and the dead, and that each of us faces Judgement Day—is too valuable to fritter away on mickey-mouse floats and tiresome shopping to purchase gifts for those who gave us presents last year, although we forgot them. Let us KEEP Thanksgiving Day and Christmas!

The Offering on Thanksgiving Day will go to the Episcopal Hospital. Says Bishop Hart in a recent letter, "May I ask you with good will to present the annual Thanksgiving appeal of the Episcopal Hospital to your people. The hospital sorely needs the interest and support of the Diocese in its work." Accordingly, our Thanksgiving Day Offerings will be given to our Hospital to help it carry on. On Thanksgiving Day, come to Church, worship God, Give!

In the Parish News, November 2d, we suggested that someone in the parish might like to give three Stoles (two preaching stoles, one Eucharistic) and a Silk Veil and Burse to complete our new set of white altar appointments. The Superfrontal is in memory of Gladys Scholl, and the Antependium in memory of Julia Wagner. One of our parishioners read the suggestion and has told us to go ahead and secure them as a memorial to her husband. We are now working on the project.

Our Curate, the Rev. Mr. Bosbyshell, will be ordained to the Priesthood on Saturday morning, November 29th, at ten o'clock in the Church of the Good Samaritan, Paoli, together with four other men. Bishop Hart will officiate, and the Rev. Emmett P. Paige of St. Mark's Church, Phila., will preach. You are all cordially invited to attend.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL of Grace Church is in the midst of its Advent preparation for the coming of our Lord at Christmas. "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God," is the message from Isaiah that proclaims the coming of our Lord. We are getting ready for His coming by thoughtful watching and prayerful waiting. Advent reminds us why we are so busy at Christmas.

Some children have ADVENT CALENDARS which are a tangible means of aiding in the devotional preparation for Christmas. Each day of the Advent Season is marked with a special prayer, hymn, symbol or scripture reading that adds to the unfolding story of the Nativity of our Lord and the preparation each one of us makes to receive Him anew in our hearts at Christmas time.

ADVENT WREATHS are being used in many families. This charming medieval custom is a wonderful means of helping children learn the tremendous excitement of spiritually preparing for Christ's coming at Christmas. At the Family Service, a large Advent wreath is lighted before service by one of the children. The wreath, in the form of a circle, symbolizes Eternity. God was, is and always will be. The wreath is made of evergreens, which are a symbol of Everlasting Life. Four tall, white candles are placed in the wreath. They stand for the four Sundays in Advent. The wreath may be hung from purple ribbons, each pair of ribbons forming a triangle with the base. The triangle symbolizes the Holy Trinity and, attached to the circle of the wreath, reminds us of the Eternity of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The ribbons are purple, color of our penitance, which reminds us that one of the ways to get ready for the coming of Christ is to show Him we are sorry for our sins. When the family Advent Wreath is finished, the Curate visits the home to bless the wreath.

A FAMILY EUCHARIST on December 14th, at 9:15 A.M., is another aspect of our preparation. All fathers and mothers are urged to attend; sit with your children and worship God as a family. Children of all ages will attend; those not yet confirmed will come to God's Altar and receive the Church's blessing. We hope all Church School families will make a conscientious effort to attend the Family Eucharist with their children.

DURING ADVENT, because it is a somber season, we do not have flowers on the Altar. Nor do we use the seven branch candle sticks which are a symbol of joy. The seasonal color for Superfrontal, Antependium and Stoles is purple, the sign of contrition. The theme of the season, which lasts until Christmas, is the COMING of Christ. Nineteen and a half centuries ago he came down to live with us and let us know what God is like, and he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick (living) and the dead.

Plato in his "Protagoras" says that "because a man is a good flute player, that is no reason to consider him an authority on politics." Before you allow a successful novelist, or an excellent Hollywood actor, or a widely read columnist to impose on you his undigested views on medicine, codes of behaviour, religion or politics—think of what Plato thought out a couple of centuries ago.

Our Curate, after being ordained to the Priesthood on November 29th, in the Church of the Good Samaritan, Paoli, will celebrate his first Eucharist at seven-thirty in the morning on Sunday, November 30th, in Grace Church.

EVENING WOMAN'S AUXILIARY meeting on Tuesday, December 2d, will feature Mrs. Karl Beyer, Vice-president of the Pennsylvania Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. Mrs. Beyer will present a lively account of the General Convention and the Triennial meetings held during October in Miami Beach, Florida. Mrs. Beyer is a fascinating speaker and a charming lady. You will enjoy this meeting, IF YOU COME!

The yearly PARISH BAZAAR will be held next Saturday in our Parish House. You have been hearing about it for a long time, and now it is upon us. Do come. We need the money, it is true, "for others," but that is not the underlying reason for holding the fete. A parish is a congregational family, and it is hard in this busy world to get one's family together. So, when we have such a get-together, your Rector is anxious to make the most of it. Let everyone come out and mingle with the rest of the family. Do your Christmas shopping early — at Grace Church Parish House next Saturday.

On Monday, November 17th, in Grace Church, the Rector read the Burial Office for Louis Henry Gray of 45 East Seymour Street who died on November 13th. Interment was in Ivy Hill Cemetery.... On Tuesday, November 18th, the Rector read the Burial Office for Gretchen (Mrs. G. L.) Amrhein, who died in her home at 723 East Phil-Ellena Street on November 14th. Cremation was at West Laurel Hill.

The New England settlers were Oxford and Cambridge men representing the best blood, brains and accumulated culture of Old England. Landing in the forest, they clustered their cabins around the building that was at once church, school, library, and town meeting hall. Rising up early and sitting up late, they plied their youths with ideas of liberty and intelligence. They came together on Sunday morning at 9 o'clock to listen to a prayer an hour long, a sermon of three hours, and after a cold lunch they heard a second brief sermon of two hours and a half. Those who did not die became great.

On Saturday, November 29th, the Rector read the Burial Office for Charles E. Hartranft of Wildwood, New Jersey, who died in Roxborough Memorial Hospital on November 25th. Interment was in Northwood Cemetery.

The Services during Christmastide will be held at the same hours they have been held of late years. Beginning with the Church School Carol Service at half-past three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, the mid-night service will follow at eleven o'clock in the evening. On Christmas Day, there will be a Communion service at six o'clock in the morning, and another similar service at half-past seven. This will be followed by a quarter-after-nine-o'clock Communion service at the Leamy Home on Roumfort Road and Boyer Street, to which all who care to come are invited. The last service on Christmas Day will be held in Church and will consist of Morning Prayer and Sermon. There will be a short address at the midnight service. On Friday (St. Stephen's Day), the day after Christmas, and on Saturday (St. John the Evangelist's Day), the next day, there will be Holy Communion services at nine-thirty in the morning. This schedule is hard and ambitious but is so arranged as to give every communicant an opportunity of attending at least some service. Come to the Feast.

SIN IS SEPARATION

Sin is a condition of separation of man from man, and of man from God. This is the basic condition in which man finds himself. Sin does not have to do with acts of immorality. It is estrangement or separation. Anne Frank, in her "Diary of a Young Girl" described this situation when she said: "Here I am surrounded by so many wonderful people, and we can't seem to get any closer together. This is the root of the trouble." This separation is sin; and sin is the root of the trouble.

During Advent, which is a penitential season, we do not have flowers on the Altar.

In response to our article in the November 2d Parish News, suggesting that someone in the Parish might like to give as a memorial, three stoles, a silk veil and burse to add to our new, white superfrontal and antependium to make a complete set of altar vestments, we had several replies. The new vestments are now in process of being designed and in a short time will be duly dedicated and blessed in memory of our late parishioner, Mr. Robert E. Lee, who died in Carlisle, Pa., in the late summer.

The officers of the Men's Club of Grace Church are—President, W. Willis Gilmore; Vice President, Tinius Olsen, 2d; Recording Secretary, George Harbison; Corresponding Secretary, Samuel Tomkinson; Treasurer, Laurence S. Whyte.

The Men's Club meetings—on the fourth Monday of each month at 8:00 P.M.—feature men outstanding in their profession with timely, informative and entertaining presentations. No December meeting, because of proximity to Christmas, but plan to come in January and bring a friend.

The Women's Business and Professional Club meets the third Monday of each month at 6:30 P.M. in the Parish House. All women are invited to attend.

THE CHRISTMAS OFFERING. During the last few years, our income has been hard hit by the number of generous contributors who, having moved away from Mt. Airy, settled down as members of adjacent parishes and rightly make their contributions there. Also, as you will notice in our Parish News, we have had an unusually large number of parishioners die. That, too, is a blow to our finances. So, at the end of the year we face a sizeable deficit, as we did last year. Last year we made an appeal for a large Christmas Offering "for ourselves" to pay up our debts, and by dint of your generous response, and by using some contributions paid in advance for 1958, we managed to break even by New Year's Day. Now we are in the same fix as last year. Therefore, we here and now plead, "Please send us an extra check at Christmas time for current expenses. We need it sorely. Let everyone dig down deep and help start the new year in the black."

Speaking of generosity, on Thanksgiving Day the Rector told the following story from India. "A man at sea in a small boat, in his fear of a terrible storm which was threatening momentarily to engulf and drown him, made a solemn resolve to give the Gods twenty yoke of oxen if he should be saved. He WAS saved by a sudden twirl in the movement of the storm and reached land as good as new. But when he was standing safe on dry ground, the danger over, he felt that he had promised more than was necessary. So he reduced his gift to a few nuts. Indeed, they were so good that he ate them one by one until he had nothing to offer but a few shells." Isn't that like human nature?

The memorial windows we have been planning for several years to be installed in the clerestory on each side of the crossing are being designed by the J. & R. Lamb Studios of Tenafly, New Jersey. They represent the four archangels: Uriel, Rafael, Michael and Gabriel; and because each is commemorated at a different season of the year, each is delineated against color backgrounds appropriate to spring, summer, autumn and winter. You will like them.

On Wednesday, November 26th, in Grace Church the Rector read the Burial Office for Helen Lavin Bowden, widow of the late Charles W. Bowden. Mrs. Bowden died on November 24th. Her body was cremated.....On Friday, November 28th, at 2:00 P.M. the Rector read the Burial Office for David J. Phillips who died at Cape May Court House on November 24th. Interment was at Ivy Hill.

The Christmas meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club will be held Monday, December 15th, at the home of Mrs. Henry Gideon, 215 East Sedgwick Street. The activity of the evening will be the preparation of the Christmas boxes for the House of Rest. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. Cost is $1.25. Please make reservations by phoning VI 3-9334. All women of the church and their friends are cordially invited.

During the last few years, one of our graceful Pin Oak trees in front of the Church has been slowly dying. We called in tree surgeons who dug holes down to the roots, filling them with sustenance; but medication was of no avail. The tree, planted by the Rev. Dr. Cline some years ago as part of the Church School's Rogation Sunday observance, finally died and had to be taken down this week, after a life span of about thirty-eight years. We also had to have a rotting Maple, standing between the pavement and street, cut down. Replacements will be made in due time.

Ralph Waldo Emerson tells of coming home one night from a meeting where he had been passionately defending his point of view. He was tense, emotionally disturbed, nervous. Then he looked into the heavens, and the bright stars looking down seemed to say, "Why so hot, little Man? Why so hot?" Such an experience, as it shifts man's attention from his own little self to the holiness of God, alters man's sense of inferiority to humility. This for many is the starting point for the discovery of mental health, since emotional disturbances are, basically, the illness of self-centered persons.

Says the Negro Spiritual:

"Slow me down, Lord,
I'm going too fast.
I can't see my brother
When he's walking past.
I miss a lot of good things day by day.
When they come my way
Slow me down, Lord, I'm going too fast."

The Christmas Offering is the only offering taken up on any Feast of the year which we use for ourselves. We would much rather give it to one of our outstanding church agencies as, for example, the "Episcopal Community Service" (it used to be called the "City Mission") for work among the blind, among prisoners, etc. But we can't, if we are to remain solvent. Unless we took in a large Christmas Offering, we'd go into debt. And, we have a horror of that. So we not only use the Christmas Offering to pay our debts, but we also unabashedly ask you to remember your church generously when planning your Christmas gifts. This we are doing here and now; and we suggest that you do it right away, lest your good intention peters out...remember the man of India who vowed twenty yoke of oxen as a Thanksgiving Offering if the Gods would save his life; and how when his life was miraculously saved, he decided to give nuts instead; and how having eaten the nuts, he had nothing left to give but empty shells. Please!

We need a big Christmas offering. Yes, we know that we made the same request last year and that you made good, making it possible for us to close our books on January first in the black, with all debts paid. We don't like to keep on asking you every Christmas to get out your check book and send in an extra large amount so that we can continue to remain solvent. We would be much happier if enough money came in from pledges and plate offerings to meet our needs. But it doesn't. In front of me is the Accounting Warden's report from the beginning of the year until the first of December. The cost of heat, light, insurance, taxes, operating expenses, and extraordinary repairs have zoomed up. In proportion, our income has gone up very little. We still owe several thousand dollars which must be paid before 1959. You can, therefore, understand why we HAVE to make this appeal.

Several years ago we said, "It would mean much if at Christmas one of you would say to your Rector or Accounting Warden, 'Don't worry about the expense (you entailed in) lighting up the abysmal darkness around the church at night by installing auxiliary lights. I want to do something for my church. Here's a check for a thousand dollars.' Or, 'God has been very good to me this year in healing me of my sickness. Here's a good sized check to prove my gratitude. Use it to pay up what we owe.' Or, 'I can afford it and I'd like to do something to show my appreciation for the good, onerous job the treasurer of Grace Church is doing, and to make his task easier. Here's an extra $100.'" Well, some of you did just that, and we were greatly heartened. Not all of us can give such large sums but everyone can do something. Let's do it. We need a big Christmas offering.

Each year The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild pledge $1,000. to missions. Part of the income is derived from our monthly envelopes. We are desirous of more women of the parish contributing through envelopes. They may be obtained by phoning Mrs. William M. Hall, CH 7-1278.

If you are unable to come to church during Christmastide to receive Holy Communion, the Rector or Curate will be glad to bring the Sacrament to you at your home. All you have to do is call either of them or the Parish Secretary and make an appointment.

For once we had a pleasant day for our Parish Bazaar. The weather was bitter cold, but the sun shone all day, and the clear weather was reflected in increased attendance. There were no dull hours. We do not yet know how successful the fete was, from the standpoint of how much money we made. We do know that the whole affair was an outstanding success when one thinks of the fellowship among those who participated, the happy atmosphere and the enthusiasm. "A good time was had by all." And we believe we took in a lot of money. As soon as we find out how much, we'll let you know.

Your offering envelopes for 1959 may be had by picking them up after any service in the Tower Room, as you leave. They are arranged alphabetically for your convenience.

Our present Christmas Day on December 25th only began to be kept in the fourth century. Before that, the day kept was January sixth, and even then it was rather what we now call the Epiphany. The idea centered on the appearing of Christ rather than that merely of his birth. But, of course, the doctrine of the Incarnation was no new thing. The day may have been chosen to provide a Christian counter attraction to some pagan feast, such as "dies Lotis invicti," the Mithraic "day of the unconquered sun." Many scholars believe that the day was chosen because it was nine months after March 25th, the supposed day of the Annunciation. The Eastern Church, even today, observes it on January 6th!

In his book, I Saw England, the late Ben Robertson, an able war correspondent, wrote of a Christmas Eve during World War II..."It was Christmas Eve, and we were in Lisbon. That evening at the bar of the Avenida Palace, we drank eggnogs and listened to the Archbishop of York, William Temple, broadcasting from London. When we look back over human history, we take no joy in the periods of wide-spread, uninterrupted comfort. The pleasures of our fathers have no value for us, but their pains and the fortitude with which they bore them are part of the treasure of the race, and an abiding inspiration. To endure pain, of body or of mind, for a great cause or out of love for men, has a nobility far surpassing in value any kind of comfort...

"Here in Lisbon we had lights, and butter, and sugar. And in Lisbon we realized how little such things meant to us. In Lisbon we turned our thoughts back to a country that was fighting in darkness—to a great generation of British people who, like the Lord in Green Pastures, had learned through suffering. They had learned, and I, too, had learned by being with them through those months. In the depth of the British blackout I had seen the stars."

In another place, Ben Robertson speaks, out of the depths of his own experience..."There never was in the history of the world an August as that August in Dover. Those were wonderful days in every way—they changed me as an individual. I realized the good that can often come from death. We were where we were, and we had what we had, because a whole line of our people had been willing to die. I understood Valley Forge and Gettysburg at Dover, and I found it lifted a great weight off your spirit to find yourself willing to give up your life if you have to — I discovered St. Matthew's meaning about losing a life to find it. I don't see how, why, I ever again should be afraid."

What an experience does to you externally is not nearly as important as what you make inwardly of that experience. To put it another way, the important concern is not what an experience does to you but what it does in you.

A CHRISTMAS PRAYER

"O Christ, grant us grateful hearts today for Thee, our choicest gift, our dearest guest. Let not our souls be busy inns that have no room for Thee and Thine, but quiet houses of prayer and praise, where Thou mayest find fit company, where the needful cares of life are wisely ordered and put away, and wide sweet spaces kept for Thee, where holy thought pass up and down, and fervent longings watch and wait Thy coming. So, when Thou comest again, O Holy One, mayest Thou find all things ready, and Thy family waiting for no new Master, but One long loved and Known. Even so come, Lord Jesus." Forward Movement.

CHRISTMAS DAY would be a SAD day if there were no toys under your tree. There are some children in Philadelphia whose parents can not provide them with gifts. Grace Church is going to help the children at St. Barnabas Church, 3d & Dauphin Sts., have a joyful Christmas. To do this, we need your help. If each pupil in the Church School brings a gift—either toys or clothing—for a person his or her age, we will have 150 gifts. OUTSIDE, put a tag which says for boy or girl and age. Put NOTHING INSIDE to tell who it is from. Bring them on SUNDAY, DECEMBER 21st. Our Christmas will be more joyful for having brought joy into life of another. "...inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

The flowers on the Altar today were given by Mrs. Henry Schimpf, Jr., in memory of her father and mother, Walter and Louise Sibson.

We do not yet have a complete list of the donors of Altar flowers on Easter Day. We will have a supplemental list published in a later issue of the Parish News. Here is a partial list, as we have it so far:

Mr. Francis Murphy, in memory of his wife, Mary; Mrs. Bessie R. Landis, in memory of her husband, Carl B. Landis; Mrs. C. Dixey Dahl, in memory of her father and mother, Mr. & Mrs. John Kern Thorn; Mrs. Florence Haddon and son, Frank, in memory of her son and his brother, Donald Haddon; Miss Grace Parkinson, in memory of her parents, Elizabeth and Martin Parkinson; Miss W. Elizabeth Schaeffer, in memory of her parents, Elizabeth and Ernest Schaeffer; Mrs. Janet B. Olsen, in memory of Paul Bates and Mr. & Mrs. T. Y. Olsen; Mr. George Buron, in memory of his wife, Edith; Mrs. Lillian M. Brooke, in memory of her husband, Charles M. Hazzard; Miss Dorothy DeG. Jenkins, in memory of her mother, Mrs. E. Wheeler Jenkins.

Everything worked together on Palm Sunday to make it one of the most meaningful services we have had in Grace Church. The weather was perfect, the congregation filled the church, the music was inspiring, the Confirmation class was outstanding, and Bishop Hart — was himself. His sermon, "For their sakes I sanctify myself", from St. John 17:19, will long linger in our hearts. Here is a list of the newly confirmed and of those received from sister churches—

The 175th Anniversary Service of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will be held in the Academy of Music on Monday, May 4th. Attendance at this service is a "must" for members of the diocese. The Academy holds 3,000 persons. Bishop Hart is very desirous to have it filled. Naturally, our 300 clergymen will be present; Lay delegates from the 200 Parishes and Missions will add about 500 more. Wives of the clergy will take up 250 seats. Two or three outstanding women and as many men from each congregation would add 1,000 more. This totals up to 2,000 persons, totaling ten from each parish, in addition to the Rector. There will still be room for 1,000 more! Some parishes would have more than ten interested persons, some might not. Admission will be by ticket until 7:45 P.M., at which time the doors will be open to the public. How many will go from Grace Church? Shall your Rector be bold and ask for 50 reservations? He'd like to have that many from Grace Church attend. Think it over!

During the last thirty-four years, Grace church has never been without one of its members studying to become a clergyman. When your present Rector took charge in 1925, he inherited such a man—the Rev. Henry Dimmick Baldy, now Rector of St. Jude's Church, Buffalo, N. Y. We have never been without a candidate since; and between now and June, another fine young man from this parish will be ordained. Mr. Ralph Wesley Bayfield, who is going to serve in Cleveland in the Diocese of Ohio. This is a good record, and we pray God that it may continue. In this congregation today are a number of outstanding young men who could make good in Holy Orders. We hope that their parents and close friends, when they discuss with them their life's work, will see to it that they will not overlook the call to serve God directly as a priest in His church. Said Jesus, "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest that he send forth laborers into his harvest." Pray, also, for our own young man, now on the threshold of the ministry.

At the March meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club, the following officers were elected: President—Gertrude Ward, Vice President — Edna Hughes, Corresponding Secretary — Ellen Thames. Recording Secretary—Bertha Hazzard, Treasurer—Florence Fitzpatrick.

Have you noticed that during sermon-time in Grace Church, the chancel is darkened gradually and the lights come on after the sermon, not with a sudden blinding glare, but just as slowly as they died down? It is because one of our good parishioners, annoyed by the old way of turning the lights on or off suddenly, recently purchased a new dimmer and had it installed at his own expense. Now we enjoy his benefaction. In your name we thank him.

At the annual election on Easter Monday of four Vestrymen to serve on the Corporation of Grace Church, Mount Airy, for three years, the following gentlemen were duly elected: Messrs. Guy S. Apeldorn, W. Willis Gilmore, Sidney S. Hampson and Dr. Roy Hand.

Among the donors of flowers for beautifying our altar on Easter Day were "The Thames"; "The Herzogs"; Mrs. Edith B. Dorwarth; Mrs. Eleanor M. Barton; Mrs. C. Dixey Dahl, in memory of her mother and father, Mr. & Mrs. John K. Thorn; Mrs. J. A. Franke, in memory of her sister, Mrs. White; and "The Doelps".

We feel very happy that attendance in church on Palm Sunday, Good Friday and Easter Day was much larger than normal and that more people made their communions than on other years. We owe a debt of thanks to Bishop Hart for his presence and Confirmation service on Palm Sunday, to Canon Martin for his outstanding Good Friday leadership; and to our own ex-Rector, Dr. Thomas S. Cline, for helping administer the Holy Communion at eleven o'clock on Easter Day. It isn't often that one can feel nearly satisfied with such important services. We do this year.

Some time ago in the Parish News we asked for a sum not to exceed one hundred dollars with which to purchase a new antependium—a veil that hangs in front of the pulpit—to match the set of purple stoles and altar frontal we now have. We have not yet had a donor present himself. Knowing what a satisfying memorial such a gift would make, we again bring the matter to your attention. Act quickly. The time before we made this last appeal, three people claimed the privilege!

The meeting of Mary with Jesus on Easter is one of the most touching incidents of that day. It was in the dark and chill of early morning, and Mary was standing alone weeping. A terrible cry of desolation had fallen from her lips: "They have taken away my Lord and I know not where they have laid him."

After she had spoken these anguished words, Mary looked around and saw in the shadows, dimly defined by the first struggling rays of light, a figure whom she took to be the gardener. Distraught, she asked him a question which it would be natural for her to ask of the gardener. "Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him and I will take him away." Instead of answering this, the voice which had already spoken, spoke just one word—Mary's name. In her bleak despair and confusion, the first words by which she was addressed had left her cold and stirred no chord in her heart, but now that she had heard her name mentioned with an accent and inflection known and loved, she recognized Jesus; and when she spoke the word "Master", her sorrow turned to joy. She knew in a flash when that familiar voice spoke her name that Jesus was alive—not some attenuated ghostly Jesus, but Jesus himself, real and personal, a Jesus whom she could hail and recognize. Thus, Jesus who spoke to her in the shadows of early morning was in everything that mattered, the same Jesus who had claimed her loyalty and understood her need and redeemed her life from muddle and triviality, the same Jesus who had received her offering of precious spikenard in the home of Simon the Pharisee when the other guests were shocked, and he had welcomed her desperate act of despair.

Note that she had come, "WHILE IT WAS YET DARK unto the tomb and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre." God alone knows how much the world owes to those courageous faithful souls who go out while it is yet dark and blaze the trail for the multitudes who will come that way in other days.

The flowers on the altar today are in memory of Mary E. (Mrs. Francis) Murphy who died on January 18, 1953. There will be flowers on the altar next Sunday, also, but none after that. During Lent we do not deck the altar with flowers, nor do we, until Easter, use the seven-branch candlesticks—because the season is penitential, while flowers and lights indicate joy.

The annual Washington's Birthday Corporate Communion and Breakfast of the men of the diocese will be observed on Saturday, February 21. The observance, in order to accommodate the crowds that attend, will be held in ten host churches. The main service will be in the Cathedral at Roxborough; other nearby host churches for us are St. Lukes, Germantown, and the Church of the Messiah, Gwynedd. Reservations for breakfast must be made in advance. If you care to go, consult your clergy.

On Monday, January 19, the Rector read the Burial Office for Mrs. Elizabeth H. Firth of 608 East Wadsworth Street, a long-time communicant of Grace Church, who died in the Germantown Hospital on January 15. Interment was in West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

At the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Guild of Grace Church, the following were re-elected to office for a term of three years: President—Mrs. Newell Robinson, Treasurer—Mrs. Harry Dursch, U.T.O. Treasurer—Mrs. George Rockett.

Half the time we do not know the coin in which we are paid. Some of our finest compensations come to us so naturally, that we do not even know that we have received them. Some of our most tragic punishments are things we missed and never knew. The man who keeps his body clean and active feels zest in resilient muscles and joy in the woods and wind and open air. But to him it is merely a matter of course, a natural pleasure in nature and its environments. He does not think of it as compensation. But it is, and there is none finer. In what better coin could nature pay a man for treating her wisely than to give him added pleasure in living and doing? And the man who keeps his mind clean and open, and in tune with healthful growing forces, receives even greater unconscious compensation. In a thousand ways there comes to him, day after day, fine mental pleasures—the apprehension of subtle wit, the delight of real humor, the stimulation of active thought, the ability to think, the pleasure of perception, the power of appreciation. All day he is alive to the goings-on around him. All day he is stimulated and stirred and delighted by new impressions. Life is progress to him. There is something interesting all the time. He can enjoy subtle distinctions and feathery fancies that escape a million lesser minds. He does not think of this as compensation; but it is. And what richer gift could be bestowed in return for openminded thought and clean fine emotion than the power to enjoy more and more? So it is with punishment. The man who abuses his body finds himself physically uncomfortable and unfit. He abuses the weather, or bad food, or anything but the real cause. And yet, this malaise which he feels is the lesser punishment. The greater punishment arises from what he is missing and does not know. The fact that he lives coarsely blunts his tastes and faculties so that the fine flavours that he might savor pass him by. He, literally, does not know what he is missing. He brings his punishment on his own head. Half the time we do not know the coin in which we are paid.

This year Ash Wednesday falls on February 11; it is just around the corner, less than two weeks off. On that day we will have two Communion services, one at 7:00 a.m.—to make it possible for employed persons to come; the other, at the usual hour of 9:30 a.m. In the evening we will have a service of Choral Evensong, with choir and sermon. Ash Wednesday is a holy day of obligation, i.e., a day when every Christian should feel not only the duty but also the privilege of worshipping God in church. During Lent, after the first week, we are adding an extra service of Holy Communion at 7:00 a.m. every Thursday. Also, on Sunday evenings we are going to have Choral Evensong and sermon at 8:00 p.m. Plan your Lenten schedule now.

The Evening Woman's Auxiliary meets on the first Tuesday of every month. In February, on the 3rd, at 8:00 P.M., Mrs. Laycock from the Church of the Redeemer in Springfield is giving a talk on "Alaska". Her husband was an Episcopal Priest in this Mission field.

The Church School Covered Dish Supper will be on February 8, from 5 to 7 p.m., in the Parish House. All Church School parents, teachers and pupils are most cordially invited to come and enjoy an evening of fellowship. There will be cartoons for the children after supper.

On Sunday, January 25th, the Rector baptized Robert Morrison Corley, son of Jacob B. Corley and his wife, Margaret Corley (nee Morrison) of Levittown, Pa. Robert was born in Lower Bucks Hospital, Levittown, Pa., on October 23, 1958. His Godparents are Mrs. June Bates, Robert Bates and LeRoy Bates.

One of our generous parishioners has presented us with a new signboard to be used in our outdoor Bulletin Board in front of the church on Gowen Avenue. With it he has also given us new letters to be used on it. We are deeply grateful and you will be, too, when you see how much it enhances our property.

Bishop Wilson tells of a new Rector who came to a parish at the beginning of Lent. The vestry told him that the Bishop was coming for Conformation right after Easter. The Rector said that he would ask to have the visitation postponed until he was better acquainted with his new field and had gathered together a Confirmation class. The vestry objected. They asked him to announce a time for instruction and leave the rest to them. With many misgivings, he gave in, announced a meeting for instruction and came to the parish house at the appointed time. He was met by more than a hundred people, the majority of whom were communicants of the parish who had brought their friends to hear about the church. A few weeks later, a large class was presented to the Bishop for Confirmation. Do you see what I am driving at?

The World Day of Prayer Service will be held on Friday, Feb. 13th, at 10:30 a.m. at the Chestnut Hill Methodist Church, 8810 Germantown Avenue, Chestnut Hill.

So we come to Lent! And many people do not like Lent because Lent requires self-discipline. Even though discipline means "discipling", they question whether it is necessary or desirable. "Life", so they argue, "brings us quite enough rubs and unpleasantnesses to satisfy most people and keep them well chastened. Why, therefore, need we go out of our way by submitting ourselves to such things as fasting, renunciations and acts of self-denial? Is asceticism really any part of the joyous religion of Christianity?" Because of the excesses and extravagances which have sometimes been practiced by religious devotees, the word asceticism has come to have distasteful associations for many people. But the abuse of a good thing by those who go to excess does not prove that the thing itself is not good. Like so many other words in our language, asceticism comes to us from Greek. In its original sense, it means nothing more than the necessary training to which every Greek athlete submitted himself if he intended to enter any contest in the Olympian games. So in religion: It represents a real human need. There is in our human nature a lower element which needs to be restrained and brought into subjection if we wish to be at our best and to be masters of our desires, passions and appetites. Otherwise, they will inevitably become masters of us. It is truly a striking fact that not only do all the great religions of the world, but also all the great thinkers and sages from Plato onward take this same view. Buddhism may be said to be based on asceticism: The Moslem religion has its fast of Ramadan just as Christianity has its lent. It seems unlikely that what we may describe as the collective wisdom of the ages is likely to be mistaken on this point. A river kept within its bounds and restrained can be made to irrigate the land, carry traffic and run mills. Allowed to do as it likes, it becomes a devastating flood of muddy waters which work untold destruction. Right now, unrestrained waters flooding their banks at Pittston and its environs have caused Governor Lawrence to declare that area a disaster area, and to ask the State Legislature to appropriate three million dollars to help care for some of the devastation brought to pass by the undisciplined river. Self-discipline looks, I know, distasteful at the first glance, but if we have the common sense and courage to overcome our fear of it, we shall very soon come to find that it brings us the joy that arises from knowing that we have the mastery over our appetites and are captains of our soul. Try it.

The Church School families are having a Covered Dish Supper on Sunday evening, February 8th, 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. Cartoons will be shown to the children in the Memorial Room after they eat their suppers. All Church School parents and children are cordially invited. The Kindergarten and Primary Depts. are bringing salads and vegetables; Intermediate Dept., 4th to 8th grades, are bringing main dishes; Senior High is bringing desserts; Church School is supplying beverages.

If any one in the parish knows any boy or girl of our parish who is in the service or in college, and would like to receive the Parish News, we would be glad to send it to them. Please send their names, addresses, and what college or service they are in, to the Church Office.

We have always tried when we brought in a clergyman to conduct Good Friday, Three Hour Service, to secure the best man to be had. And we have succeeded. If you think back over the years, you will recall that the men who came to us on Good Fridays have become the outstanding leaders of the Church. This year, again, we have been fortunate in securing Dr. Charles Martin, Headmaster of St. Albans School, Washington, D.C., who is also a Canon of the Washington Cathedral, to come to us. He was our first choice and is "tops". Arrange your schedule now so that you can be present that afternoon.

If you care to attend the Washington Birthday Corporate Communion for Men and Boys at St. Luke's Church, Germantown, or at the Cathedral at Roxborough on February 21st at 8:00 a.m., and intend to remain for breakfast afterward to hear Vice Admiral James L. Kauffman, U.S.N., let the Rector know at once. The charge for breakfast will be $1.25 for men, 75¢ for boys.

On January 28th, the Rector read the Office for the Burial of the Dead for Henry M. Walter who died suddenly at his home, 632 E. Allens Lane on Jan. 25. The Rector officiated also at the interment at Palisadeses Cemetery, Weehauken, New Jersey, on January 30th.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild announces the 1959 Lenten Programs, which are to be held in the Parish House at 12:45 p.m. on the following Thursdays:

February 19th	The Rector
*February 26th	Mr. James McKendrick
March 5th	The Rector
March 12th	The Rev. James A. Trimble

* The speaker on February 26th, Mr. James McKendrick, is a Philadelphia Divinity School Seminarian, who has spent five summers among the Indians in Canada. He will show slides and talk about his work there.

These programs are for all the women of the Parish, and it is hoped that many will be able to attend. You are cordially invited to come early for lunch—12 noon. Just bring a sandwich. Dessert and beverage will be served.

We hope that you like the appearance of the new Parish News. On the back page is a list of our Vestrymen. It is incomplete now; for at a meeting on Sunday, February 1st, the entire Vestry being present, they elected Mr. Geoffrey Tattersfield to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Charles Henry Robbins, resigned. We congratulate Grace Church. Mr. C. H. Robbins, Stanley L. Thornton, Esq., and Mr. Frederick A. Burness are now Vestrymen Emeritus, having been duly elected to that status.

We have before us the final report of the Parish Bazaar. It is outstanding, having now reached the sum of $1,318.49! Thank you. This good sum enabled us to pay our full $7,500 for the work of the Diocese and General Church for 1958. At the beginning of 1958 we had $416.23 in bank in our general church account; on January 1, 1959, we had $1,529.99 with all bills paid. This was due to your generosity at Christmas time. Our endowment Fund on January 1, 1959, amounted to $40,409.62. Total receipts and expenditures during the year were $80,603.88.

The Business and Professional Women will meet on February 16th. They will have as their speaker, at 8:00 p.m., Mrs. Florence Newcomb, who will speak on "Havana". She will give a first-hand account of her experience there during the revolution.

The World Day of Prayer Service, under the auspices of the Council of Church Women of Chestnut Hill and vicinity, will be held on Friday, February 13th, at 10:30 a.m. at the Chestnut Hill Methodist Church, 8810 Germantown Avenue, Chestnut Hill. Mrs. U. Grant Beath will speak on the theme "Lord, I Believe."

Confirmation classes for children are being held during Lent on Friday afternoons from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. and on Sunday mornings during the Church School instruction period. Any child 12 years old who would like to be confirmed, speak to the Curate and come to the instruction classes.

earned through studying primitive people that when you have done a favor or given them a gift, instead of saying, "Thank you", they "Do it again!" Recently in the Parish News, we asked for stoles, tar-veil and an antependium to complete our white set for altar,
y and pulpit; and before a week had transpired, we were embarrassed ving three readers offer to pay for the desired vestments. Needless y, we accepted the first offer, had the lovely memorial made, and ed them. They are now in use. At the risk of being classified as ive, we now say, "Do it again." In other words, your Altar Guild tly came to the conclusion that our purple antependium is worn out, d repair. In their need, they asked the Rector to write this request new one. We intend to salvage the lovely cross from the worn-out hanging we are discarding, and to incorporate it into the new one.
stimated cost is less than a hundred dollars. So—"Do it again!"

OMORROW EVENING — FEBRUARY 23, 1959 — PARISH HOUSE

MEN'S CLUB SUPPER

XCHANGING IDEAS:——"EXCHANGE STUDENTS"

A newspaper in White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., in a column labelled "Mountaineer Topics", says—

> Big Ed started a pay-your-bill campaign last week in Charleston and ended up with a slightly red face. Ed's been our Water Commissioner for ten years, and for ten years now, he's been getting riled up over slow payment of bills. So, he finally decided to do something drastic about it. Last week he sent notices that if the slackers didn't pay up by Friday, he'd shut off their water supply. Naturally, some still didn't square up accounts. Ed ordered their water turned off, and fourteen homes went without all the weekend—the Commissioner's among them!

...from where I sit, Ed's mistake is one we all make at times—balling out others for the very same fault we tend to make.

Sir Thomas More, 1478-1535, Chancellor of England, having been condemned to death in a high-handed court on specious grounds, addressed his judges thus!

> "More have I not to say, my Lords, but that St. Paul held the clothes of those who stoned Stephen to death, and as they are now both Saints in heaven, and will continue there, so I verily trust and shall most heartily pray that though your Lordships have here now on earth been judges to my condemnation, we may nevertheless thereafter cheerfully meet in heaven in everlasting salvation."

This utterance illustrates a magnanimity of spirit and a divine faith which is the divine fruit of the forgiving Spirit. There is a law of reciprocity in life. It is the one Jesus stressed when he said, "Forgive and ye shall be forgiven. Give and it shall be given you, for with the measure ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again." Oh, I know we are always hearing about exceptions to this general rule. We are ever being reminded that there are persons and peoples who will not respond to gorgiveness and magnanimity. (They executed Sir Thomas More.) But, are we going to make ourselves bitter by looking always to the exceptions to God's laws, or are we going to make ourselves better by looking at God's law of forgiveness and obeying it? (From the Rector's sermon on February 8th, based on St. Mark 2:2-12.)

On entering the church, whether for public worship or private devotions, always kneel and pray something as follows—

> In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, Amen. ...
> Then, pray slowly the Lord's Prayer ...
> Then, pray one or more prayers from the Book of Common Prayer, such as——"Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen." ...
> Then remember your own and your friends' needs and hold them up to God.

Mr. Charles Taylor, who resided on the northeast corner of Gowen Avenue and Ardleigh Street, was a high school classmate of your Rector. When he died several years ago, he left one thousand dollars, unrestricted, to Grace Church. In due time, we received this legacy. It is now in our treasury. At the same time, he left ten thousand dollars to the Presbyterian Hospital, 51 North Thirty-ninth Street, Philadelphia, to endow a bed for a woman, preferably a working woman, who needed the room during an illness. The occupant was to be selected by your Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen. The Trustees of the Hospital accepted the legacy; the bed is now available, and the amount set aside will cover the room costs of a comparatively long illness. In case of need, consult your Rector.

Last week, we received into our congregation via a canonical letter of transfer from St. Paul's Church, Elkins Park; Ellen (Mrs. Richard) Heydt, of 8078 Fayette Street, Mt. Airy. We have felt for a long time that she really belonged to us. This letter of transfer makes our feeling a fact, and we here welcome her formally.

Even though Easter is more than a month off, we are making preparation now to adorn our altar with flowers lovely enough to be worthy of the occasion. Easter flowers are not given by any one person. They are provided by many people who want to have a part in beautifying our chancel for the great Festival of the Resurrection. If you care to have a share in this project, get in touch with the Rector or a member of the Altar Guild soon.

The Evening Woman's Auxiliary meets on Tuesday, March 3d, 8:00 p.m.

TOPIC—"WHERE WE ARE IN THE MOVEMENT TOWARD CHURCH UNITY"

SPEAKER— MR. BOSBYSHELL

This will be a very interesting evening and we wish to have all our members present. All the women of the parish are invited to our meetings. Refreshments will be served.

On the First Sunday in Lent, your Rector preached on "I believe in the forgiveness of sins." Like Jonah and the Prodigal's brother who did not want to believe this, there are many Christians today who are utterly hopeless about men in general. They look for the second coming of Christ in the near future. These sincere people almost delight in distress of nations and darkness upon the face of the earth; for they believe that the world will gradually grow so wicked that even God himself will not be able to take it any longer. Therefore, He will bring an end to all things and save the elect. During the war, an eminent premillenarian declared, "As awful as conditions are across the water today, the darker the night gets, the lighter my heart becomes." On the other hand, we have the Barthian pessimism that man is a stench in God's nostrils and that more of us are worthy of saving from the downfall of the world. It is hard to reconcile the Adventist's cheerfulness and the Barthian gloominess with the Sommission recorded by Jesus: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because He has anointed me to preach the Gospel unto the poor; He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted; to preach deliverance unto the captives; a recovering of sight unto the blind; to set at liberty them that are bruised; to preach the acceptable year of the Lord." Back in the twenties it would have been well to warn the Utopian of a Gospel to come. Today it is equally important to warn the followers of Barth of a judgment and forgiveness to come. When you get right down to it, can we preach Christ without preaching good tidings? We are saved by hope. Hope is one of the virtues God implants in us. So, forgiveness is "a natural". A hard-of-hearing, speechless man, when asked what forgiveness is, took a pencil and wrote his answer: "Forgiveness is the odor which flowers give off when trampled upon."

Realism should not be made completely synonymous with pessimism. Some of our so-called "realists" are so submerged in their pessimism that they get only a submarine outlook. The view from the periscope of a submarine is not necessarily more realistic than from the bridge of a liner. The difference is in the range and in the horizon. When St. Paul took a periscopic point of view of his inner state, he cried, "O wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from this body of death?" (Romans 7:24) But when he swept the horizon of history, he cried, "Where sin abounded, grace did much more abound." Both views were realistic. But, there is a difference between deflating a man's self-sufficiency and shattering a person's self-respect. Jesus ever observed this distinction. We are saved by grace; it is also true that we are saved by hope.

The result of wide-spread success propaganda has come to be that America is filled with people—particularly young people—who think success, plan success, dream success, and who unfortunately define success in terms of money, real estate, social position, and release from effort. It was to such an individual that one of our contemporary exponents of prosperity recently addressed this almost incredible appeal: By not listening in 1923 to the "Silence which Creates", I lost an opportunity to make $22,000. But, by heeding during the next two years that "Silence which Creates", I increased my net equity in several parcels of real estate 300%. You can do as well. For instructions, remit $4.68!

TO ALL BOYS IN THE ACOLYTE GUILD....Corporate Communion and Breakfast on Sunday, March 8th, 7:30 a.m. Please mark your calendars, and also let Mrs. LaBelle know by March 1st that you are going to attend the Communion and Breakfast.

On February 18th we received into our congregation, by formal letter of transfer from the Church of the Advocate, 18th and Diamond Sts., Phila., Mrs. Florence Haddon and her son, Frank Haddon. They are now Communicants of Grace Church—we extend a very warm welcome to them.

On February 24th we had transferred to us by canonical letter of transfer, Mrs. Esther Virginia Berry—from St. Bartholomew's Church, St. Petersburg, Diocese of South Florida. Mrs. Berry resides at the Leamy, and we are very glad to have her as a member of our family. She, too, is now a Communicant of Grace Church in good standing.

Tonight at eight o'clock, the Choir will sing Handel's "Passion of Christ." This should be very helpful spiritually and make the remainder of Lent more full of meaning. Do come. The other day one of our congregation asked what F.A.G.O. means — this appears after Mr. Robinson's name in the Parish News. The letters are a degree awarded by the American Guild of Organists and means "Fellow of the American Guild of Organists." Mr. Robinson is Regional Chairman of the Guild and has been appointed a member-at-large of the National Board of Examiners. He is on the Faculty of the Philadelphia Divinity School and the Eastern Baptist College at St. Davids, Pa. Mr. Robinson ("Fess" to his intimates) came to Grace Church in January, 1922, thirty-seven years ago, and has not missed one Sunday because of illness. Several times, other churches have tried to lure him away. We are glad that he always said, "No". We congratulate Grace Church on his excellent record.

There is still time to send in money to help provide flowers for our altar on Easter Day, in memory of someone you loved, whom God has called home. Get in touch with Mrs. LaBelle, the Altar Guild or the Rector.

Visitors to Japan are eager to see its famous Fujiyama; however, they may easily spend a month or more within sight of its snow-capped dome and never have a glimpse of it. Fog, haze, clouds may wrap it from their eyes. They will see Fuji pictured on a thousand articles—fans, tea cups, postcards, screens — the representations of it differing according to the skill or taste of the artist and the point from which he took his view. Many of the pictures are conventionalized Fujis, drawn at second or twentieth hand by men who have not put down what they had seen with their own eyes. But there the mountain is, portrayed again and again as Japan's chief glory. They will hear certain places praised for their outlook upon it, and they find teahouses built at points said to command lovely or majestic prospects. They will read advertisements of arrangements for ascending it at certain seasons, and they can talk with those who have themselves climbed to its top. They may not see it with their own eyes, and none may be able to show it to them at the moment; however, there is convincing testimony to its existence and, trusting that evidence, if they will set their faces toward the right direction and possess normal eyes and will wait, they shall see Fuji. So a man may have no personal assurance of the living God, and no man may be able to help him at once to that certainty. Then let him look about and see evidence of religious faith all around him — the face of God in human lives, more or less skillfully produced as men have the will or the power at first-hand or at second-hand to enter into fellowship with Him. Let such a man particularly notice God's face and see one life, who millions agree was closest to Him. Let him take knowledge of men and women who claim that friendship with God is the inspiration of the best—the most useful and the fairest things about them. Let him observe institutions founded, arrangements maintained, methods commanded — to assist intercourse with the most Highest. Let him talk with those who have themselves found in Him their strength, their peace, their exceeding great joy. Then let such a man set himself trustfully and obediently toward God, as they describe him; let him live on thus, and if his heart have eyes, he shall see the living God.

Men seldom come head-first to Christ; they come heart-first!

Bishop Hart will come to us next Sunday to preach and administer the Apostolic rite of Confirmation. The hour will be eleven o'clock. The Church School will not meet at 9:15, but will attend the Confirmation service. It will be Palm Sunday. Come early and secure a seat.

The Business and Professional Women of Grace Church will have their Corporate Communion today at the 7:30 a.m. service. Their regular meeting will be held tomorrow evening, March 16, 1959, beginning with dinner at 6:30 p.m. followed by a musical program by the N. E. Accordian Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Jerry Snyder.

On Tuesday, December 30th, the Rector read the Burial Office for Martha M. Howland of 156 Manheim St., who died on December 27th at her home at the age of 86. Interment was in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

On the last day of the year at the Leamy Home, the Rector read the Burial Office for Bertha Maude Rockefeller who died at Chester Heights, Pa., on December 29, 1958, at the age of 74. The body was cremated at Chelten Hills Crematory, and the ashes are to be interred in the Odd Fellow Cemetery, Danville, Pa.

When at the close of the Civil War, General Lee was indicted for treason—in violation of the surrender terms—a minister of the community came to see him and spoke very bitterly about it. General Lee replied, "It matters little what they may do to me. I am old and have but a short time to live, anyway. Doctor, there is a good old book I read, and you preach from, which says, 'Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you and persecute you.' Do you think your remarks this evening were quite in the spirit of this teaching? I have fought the North, for I believe that they were seeking to wrest from the South her dearest rights. I have never cherished bitter or vindictive feelings against them, nor seen the day when I did not pray for them."

Parade Magazine cites some actual instances where the printer's devil raised hob with some church publications—with startling results: Take the weekly bulletin of a Presbyterian Church in West Chester, Pa., which included this appetizing note:

"Ushers will eat those who are waiting."

Or the bulletin of a church in the Pacific Northwest which reported that during the rector's absence his assistant would "take care of all pastoral cuties."

A Methodist church in Pennsylvania once announced that the congregation would sing

"Best Be The Tie That Blinds"

And a West Virginia pastor's sermon was billed as

"How to Change Your Wife Through Prayer"

A large church in a large city noted in its bulletin that its office handled thousands of letters and telephone calls. It added this assurance:

"We conscientiously fake an interest in every one of them."

YOU DID IT AGAIN! From the time of the Vestry meeting in November (when the Accounting Warden reported that from the way things looked then, he would have to close his books for 1958 owing considerable money on January first) until last Sunday morning when he roughly estimated that we had received enough money to enter the new year free from debt, your Vestry and Rector were really worried. We felt somehow we would just have to do something to make ends meet. And we came up with the idea of sharing our anxiety with you. The last two issues of the Parish News, as a consequence, were given over to a statement of our needs, how they had arisen, and a fervent plea for a large Christmas offering to enable us to start the new fiscal year "in the black". And you responded! Several organizations raided their treasuries and sent in some extra funds to help out; some of our parishioners did "write an added check" and sent it in to help us out into the clear; many added extra dollars to their regular contributions; others paid up what they owed in back envelopes. In short, our Christmas offering (not counting what people sent in for back dues) arose from last year's unusual high of $1,100 to this year's total of more than $1,850! The Te Deum used to be sung only on great festival occasions, when a war was ended, or an heir to the crown was born, or on some other unusually glad day. So, now we'd like to sing such a Te Deum to God. He and you have made us very happy. Thank you——much.

Newspapermen say that often, when they approach a football coach just before the season begins, they try to pry out what is going to happen by "needling" him. "Is this going to be a successful season and a winning team?" "Will the varsity place first or second in the number of games won?" "Does the coach feel that his team will be chosen to compete in the Rose Bowl, etc.?" "Or is this a year when the emphasis will not be placed primarily on winning, but on building character among the players," and "after all the game is designed to build He-men, etc." In other words, sportswriters are out for facts, not alibis. Not long ago when we looked back at our annual bazaar, we found ourselves rationalizing and unconsciously thinking up alibis, i.e., "no way of raising money will continue to be successful year after year." "People have to have new methods to attract them." More people came out this year than ever before and that is all to the good; for a bazaar is a parish get-together where people work in groups and grow in fellowship. While we do need the money, money-gathering is not the underlying purpose of having such an affair: the real purpose is to galvanize the parish into a sense of oneness, and to see to it that the people who kneel before the same altar, worshipping the same Heavenly Father, get to feel more interested in the rest of their congregational family. That is the way we looked on the 1958 bazaar. In fact, we felt quite smug about the whole matter. Certainly we appreciated the hours of dedicated work the Messrs. Taylor, Foulkrod, Josephs and their co-workers put into the affair. Certainly, it was one of the most colorful affairs ever held in the Parish House. But last week when we learned that we had equalled or even bettered the amount taken in the year before, our attitude changed and we asked ourselves if we had been unconsciously making excuses right along or really been sincere. We think we were sincere. Nevertheless, we are glad that the festival was a financial success and our gratitude goes out to all who made it so. Thanks!

At the January meeting of the Evening Branch of the Women of Grace Church, the following were elected as officers for the year 1959:

President	Sarah Mary Hampson
Vice President	Roberta Kenkelen
Secretary	Ruth Doelp
Treasurer	Lynn Foulkrod
Program Chairman	Josephine Horrisberger

(starts June 1959 to June 1960)

On the Second Sunday after Christmas, January 4th, the Rector baptized Herbert Harold Herzog, III of 330 East Gowen Avenue. Herbert is the son of Herbert Herzog, Jr. and Suzanne Compton Herzog. He was born in the Lankenau Hospital in Philadelphia on December 7, 1958. Herbert's God-parents are Barbara H. Karl, George H. Herzog and John H. Dingee, Jr.

I have a rendezvous with life
Within the Blessed Sacrament
When over me the priest is bent
And Jesus comes exceeding fair
I have a rendezvous with life
For He has promised to be there.

I know I am not worthy thus
To take His life mysterious;
My sins are higher than a hill
His mercy deeper than the sea,
And so in my communion still
I find His love and it healeth me
And I to my pledged word am true,
I shall not fail that rendezvous.

A number of men were digging a ditch in one of our large cities. The shoring fell in and several men were buried beneath the dirt. A crowd quickly gathered at the scene of the disaster. Then one man said to another calmly looking on, "Bill, your brother is down in there." What a difference that made! Off came his coat; grabbing a shovel, he went to work feverishly to rescue his brother at the risk of his very life. Rufus Choate, while delivering an oration in Boston on the completion of a building for reforming delinquent and wayward boys, said, "All the money that you have put into this building would be far more than compensated for if only one boy were reformed." "Did Mr. Choate exaggerate?" said a critical listener. "No, not if it were your or my boy," was the answer.

There is nothing new in living in a changing world. Nor is there anything new in a changing order. When some years ago your Rector and some of his Grace Church people visited the Museum of Antiquity in Constantinople, we came upon a glass case in which was an old piece of papyrus, the oldest bit of writing paper in the world. What interested us most was not so much the faded paper with its brittle edges, but the sentence that was written on it. Here is how it reads: Alas, times are not what they used to be—children no longer obey their parents, and everybody is writing a book about it.

Do you have a set of Church Envelopes in which to place your offerings for Grace Church from week to week in 1959? We have been distributing them for several weeks now but may have overlooked someone. If you would like to become a regular contributor, speak to the Rector or Accounting Warden after service.

On December 20th, at one o'clock in the afternoon, the Rector officiated in Grace Church at the wedding of Frank C. Harris and Maria J. Luci. Mr. Harris is the head of our ushers committee. The newly married couple will reside at 938 East Dorset Street.

During the Christmas season we used for the first time, together, the lovely set of white altar vestments recently given to Grace Church as memorials to well loved Parishioners. The superfrontal is in memory of Gladys M. (Mrs. Wilbur O.) Scholl; the antependium is in memory of Julia (Mrs. William F.) Wagner; and the Burse, Veil, and three Stoles, dedicated on St. Thomas' Day, are in memory of Robert E. Lee. The three memorials comprise a very beautiful set.

The Evening Woman's Auxiliary will have their monthly meeting on Tuesday, January 6th at 8:00 P.M. The film "Light of the North" will be featured. This is about the Missionary District of Alaska. All the women of the parish are invited to attend.

A giant Sequoia tree was recently cut down in California. Scientists were called in to make a study of this tree's life cycle, and they published its biography: "The Sequoia was a seedling in 271 B.C. 516 years later it was severely damaged by a forest fire. Nature immediately set to work to repair the damages and began to fold successive layers of living tissues over the gigantic scar left by the flames. By 350 A.D. the wounds had been completely healed. In later centuries, two other fires damaged the tree badly. But when the tree was finally cut down, the scar left by the first of these fires had been completely obliterated, and the scar left by the second was in process of being covered. That last scar was a tremendous wound, 18 feet wide and 30 feet high; but had nature been given a chance, even that would have been entirely healed." Here is one of nature's truths: the God of Nature heals the wounds of trees! So God heals the wounds of sin left in the lives of men.

On December 15th in Christ Church and St. Michaels, the Rector and the Rev. Dr. Aulenback read the Burial Office for Helen Falkner Arndt who died on December 12th. Mrs. Arndt was the widow of the Rev. Dr. Arndt, formerly the Rector of Christ Church, Germantown, and was a communicant of Grace Church at the time of her death. Interment was in West Laurel Hill...On the same day, the Rector officiated at the funeral of Benjamin Turner Sharp, son of Mr. & Mrs. William Morris Sharp of Valley Hill Road, Malvern, Pa. Benjamin was only one day old when he died. Burial was in Laurel Hill Cemetery...On the next day, December 16th, the Rector read the office for the Burial of the Dead for Peter D. Burgess, who died at his home at 72 Bogart Ave., Port Washington, Long Island, N.Y. on December 11th. Interment was in Whitemarsh Memorial Park...And on the same day, December 16th, the Rector again read the Burial Office—this time for John Stuart Westney, Esq., who died at his home, 1701 Harris Road, Laverock, on December 14th. Interment was made in Whitemarsh Memorial Park.

THE FLOWERS on the Altar this Sunday are given in loving memory of Nettie and Thomas Anderson by Mrs. John Dingle.

REMEMBER THE INSTITUTION SERVICE here in Grace Church next Tuesday (22nd) at 8:00 P.M. At that time, The Rt. Rev. Oliver J. Hart, Bishop of Pennsylvania, will formally institute Mr. Bauder as the Rector of Grace Church. Every member and friend of this parish is urged to attend, for we are hopeful that the church will be filled, to witness this historic service which is always rich in symbolism and meaning for all Episcopalians. The Office of Institution, of course, is seldom seen in any parish, since it occurs only in the beginning of each Rector's ministry to the parish. In the case of Grace Church, Mt. Airy, it has been even rarer than usual; for the forthcoming service of Institution will be the first here in 34 years, and only the third one in over 80 years! So, plan to be with us next Tuesday evening.

THE PARISH COUNCIL MEETS this coming Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Parish House. Since this is the night before the Institution, it will be brief, but we must have a representative from each parish organization to adequately fulfill the council's function. Please make certain that your group is represented that night.

FAMILY SERVICE AND CHURCH SCHOOL go into full swing this Sunday at 9:15 a.m. Families, come to Church Service with your children and worship God together. Nursery and Kindergarten children ONLY will go directly to their Classrooms. At the sermon hymn, pupils will go to their classes. The Adult Class will also meet at this time. After the exodus of children, teachers and the Adult Class; the sermon, closing prayers and hymn will conclude the Family Service. Classes and Family Service will finish by 10:30 a.m. It may be confusing for a few weeks, but as we become accustomed to the full Family Service, it should prove helpful for all. It means we will have a complete Church Service including Sermon at 9:15 on Sundays. All children, first grade and above will attend Family Service with their parents. Parents, when you accompany your children, you will have the choice of attending the Adult Class discussion group or remaining in church for the sermon and conclusion of the Family Service.

YOUR VESTRY wishes to inform those who may not already know, that the Apeldorn residence at 7445 Sprague Street has been purchased and will become the new Rectory of Grace Church sometime in October. After the present Rectory is vacated next month, it will be then adapted for use as additional Parish House space, particularly for much-needed offices for the clergy and secretary of the parish, as well as moving several of our Church School classes from their present location in the Parish House.

Unfortunately, most of the improvements and renovations necessary for the most effective use of this building are impossible at this time, due to a lack of funds. The same is true of the long-overdue modernization of our old Parish House, as most of you well know. Something must be done quite soon to remedy these problems; for the Christian Education facilities here are woefully inadequate, not to mention out-dated! Every one of our parish organizations can point out many problems in our present Parish House which must be corrected if they are to meet the needs of our people.

Many members have already asked your Rector and Vestry what will be done to bring our Parish House facilities up to a par with neighboring parishes, and WHEN this will be done! Your Vestry and Rector are in unanimous accord that this must be done, and as soon as possible! But, the final answer as to when is one that can only be given by all the members of Grace Church, working as one united body of Christians toward this goal whole-heartedly.

A PARISH PLANNING COMMITTEE has already been established by the Vestry at the request of the Rector, and this is the first step toward this goal. This group will study the needs of our parish so far as our buildings are concerned and then make recommendations for the renovation of both the Parish House and present Rectory buildings. After that, we will need only the full-fledged campaign to raise the funds for that purpose, and then the work will be begun.

We are fully aware of the many problems involved, but your Rector is convinced with the Vestry that these problems must be met and solved; that the goal above must be realized as soon as possible, if Grace Church is to be a vital force in carrying on God's work among our members, our community, and our Diocese! And by your loyal and enthusiastic support, it shall be done!

OUR 'LOYALTY SUNDAY' EVERY MEMBER CANVASS on Sunday, October 18, in Grace Church is another important step toward that goal of modern and functional church buildings. For, we cannot point realistically toward such a goal unless we first provide for the normal maintenance of our parish for the coming year!

Details of Loyalty Sunday on October 18th will be coming to you by means of this News and letters from the Wardens and the Rector in coming weeks. Read them carefully, and plan now to be here that day.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP opening party will be held Sunday, Sept. 20th, 7:30 p.m. in the Parish House. All young people of the Parish in Senior High School are cordially invited to come help start the Y.P.F. year off successfully. The Y.P.F. officers have planned many wonderful activities to make this a great year for Y.P.F.'ers at Grace Church. See you there!!

OUR SUMMER SERVICE SCHEDULE ENDS after this coming Sunday. Please note that, effective Sunday, September 13th, we will resume our regular schedule of three services every Sunday: 7:30, 9:15 and 11:00 A.M.

MAILING OF OUR WEEKLY BULLETINS resumes with this issue. Please read the following items carefully, since many forthcoming activities and events for this busy month have to be called to your attention in this first issue.

CHURCH SCHOOL OPENING EVENTS will take place on Saturday and Sunday, September 12th and 13th. Saturday afternoon, on the 12th, will feature an informal gathering of all Church School pupils, parents, and teachers on the lawn in the rear of the Parish House for hot dogs, potato chips, soda, and coffee. The time: 4:00 to 6:00 P.M. We'd like very much to see ALL members of our Church School families present at this, for your Church School staff feels this is an excellent opportunity to get to know each other as we begin a new Church School year.

The following day, Sunday, September 13th, Church School officially opens with a Family Eucharist at 9:15 A.M. For this opening service, we ask all pupils of 1st grade and above to attend this service in Church with their parents. Children of Nursery and Kindergarten age are to go to their classes in the Parish House at 9:15 A.M. as usual.

After the Family Eucharist, pupils will meet with their teachers in the Parish House to register for the coming year. While this is being done, all parents will be meeting informally for a cup of coffee in the Parish House. The children will join us as they finish their registration. Let's have every parent and every child together in Grace Church on Sunday, September 13th, at 9:15 A.M.

A CHURCH SCHOOL STAFF DINNER will be held in the Parish House on Wednesday, September 16th, at 6:30 P.M. This will be a catered dinner for all teachers and Church School workers. If you have not yet returned your reservation card, please call the Church Office to tell us you'll be there.

THE EVENING AUXILIARY, which normally meets on the first Tuesday of each month, will meet this month on Tuesday, September 15th, at 8:00 P.M. in the Parish House.

THE SERVICE OF INSTITUTION of The Rev. Richard K. Bauder as Rector of Grace Church will take place here on Tuesday, September 22d, at 8:00 P.M. The Rt. Rev. Oliver J. Hart, Bishop of Pennsylvania, will be the Institutor and will also preach the sermon at this historic service. This Institution Service is always an important occasion in the life of a parish, but it is even more so for Grace Church, due to the fact that it has been many years since the last Institution of a Rector here. It is sincerely hoped that every member will make a special effort to be present that evening.

OUR CURATE, The Rev. William A. Bosbyshell, has accepted a call to the Cathedral Church of St. Luke in Orlando, Florida. There he will become an assistant to the Dean, The Very Rev. Francis C. Gray, and share the ministry to the Cathedral congregation. In order to begin his new duties in Orlando by October 1st, he and Mrs. Bosbyshell will leave for Florida after the services here on Sunday, September 27th.

A PARISH COUNCIL MEETING is scheduled for Monday evening, September 21st, at 8:00 P.M. in the Parish House. The Rector asks that each organization of the parish be represented at this meeting by one of its members, preferably one who is familiar with that organization's program for the coming year. Thus, the Parish Council will be better able to fulfill its purpose, that of coordinating the many activities of our various organizations into the coming year's parish program as a whole. After this first meeting, the Parish Council will normally meet on the first Monday evening of each month.

DATES TO REMEMBER for future events here at Grace Church are given below, and we urge you to mark your calendars now. Details on the following will be given during the coming weeks.

LOYALTY SUNDAY . . . . . Sunday, October 18th
PARISH BAZAAR . . . . . Saturday, November 7th

PLEASE RETURN QUESTIONNAIRES as soon as possible if we have not yet received yours. These were mailed to all members early last June, and we thank the many members who responded promptly to our request for needed information to bring the Church files up-to-date. However, there are still some questionnaires that have not been returned; most of these are probably from members who had already gone away for the summer, by the time they were mailed. If your questionnaire is still at home, please return it to us this week.

August 23d - Open
August 30th- Mrs. Francis Porter, in memory of Helen Vanderheuson.

If you are interested in having flowers on the Altar on the open dates, please contact Mrs. Edward Webb, GE 8-6835.

AFTER THE 10:00 a.m. service on June 28th, there will be a Refreshment Hour. We hope all who attend this service will come into the Green Room in the Parish House. This is the last one for the summer before many people go away.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP elected officers for next season at their meeting Sunday evening. They are—James Trout, President; Hilton Gieseke, Vice President; Pamela Kurz, Treasurer; Suzanne Widmer, Secretary. The Y. P. F. representative to the Parish Council is Suzanne Widmer, and their representative to the Bazaar Committee will be Hilton Gieseke. The Y. P. F. officers will be officially installed at a family service in the fall.

GRACE CHURCH STAFF MEMBERS will be away on their vacations at various times over the summer months, but please note that there will be someone in the Parish Office every Monday through Friday, from 9:00 a.m. until noon, throughout the summer. We urge you to keep in touch with us over the summer, particularly if anyone is entering a hospital or ill at home, or on any other matters of concern to you and your parish.

Also, your clergy have arranged their schedules so that at least one of them will always be on call here throughout the whole summer. Please do not hesitate to contact them whenever the need arises. The telephone numbers to call are listed in every issue of the Parish News. Since this is the last regular one until the fall, you might find it convenient to keep this information near your home telephone.

THE RESPONSE to our questionnaire for information that is needed for the church files has been very encouraging. We thank every one for his prompt cooperation. One of our major summer projects will be bringing our files up-to-date from the information we receive on the questionnaire. If you have not yet returned yours, will you help us by doing it this week before you go on vacation.

If you regularly attend Grace Church and would like to be a full communicant member here, we urge you to have your letter sent here from the Episcopal Church where you are now a communicant. The rector will be more than delighted to send for your letter of transfer if you give him permission to do so. You may write him a letter and enclose the following form which you fill in and sign.

This is to authorize the Rector of Grace Church to send for my letter of transfer from:

SUMMER SERVICE SCHEDULE - BEGINNING JUNE 14, 1959
7:30 a.m. and 10:00 a.m.

PLEASE NOTE the change in service time for the summer months. The earlier hour will enable all of us to attend Church before setting off on a Sunday outing. Families may come and worship with their children. A nursery will be available for children under 6 years. Make a note so you will remember... Services at 7:30 and 10:00 a.m. from June 14th to September 6th, inclusive.

A DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL for boys and girls from 4 to 14 years will be held from June 26th to July 10th at Mt. Airy Presbyterian Church. Grace Church is cooperating with Mt. Airy Presbyterian, Mt. Airy Methodist and Ascension Lutheran Churches in sponsoring the Bible School. Parents, take advantage of a wonderful opportunity for concentrated Christian Education and fellowship within our community during the early summer weeks. Registration forms are available in Church at the 9:15 and 11:00 a.m. services on June 7th.

A QUESTIONNAIRE for information which the clergy need to bring the church files up-to-date has been mailed to everyone on our mailing list. We will greatly appreciate your cooperation and help in filling out the questionnaire completely and returning it promptly to the Church Office. If you did not receive a questionnaire form, speak to the clergy and we will see that you have one.

VACATIONS ARE WONDERFUL as summer comes, but in the Church they can sometimes be disastrous! Not only does attendance at services drop off as many of our members go away, but the income from pledges for the Church's support also tends to decrease, sometimes alarmingly. We, therefore, urge every member of Grace Church to make provision for that summer portion of his or her pledge in advance of going off on that vacation! Please remember that the services and ministrations of your Church continue all through the summer, too; likewise, the operating expenses for the same must be met during this period as well as the rest of the year. Many people find it most difficult to catch up on their pledge after letting it fall behind during the summer, but all this can be avoided by a little forethought, and everyone, including the giver, will be the better for it. Grace Church will greatly appreciate your sincere cooperation in this serious matter.

Also, let us not forget our basic Christian obligation and privilege of worshipping Almighty God every Sunday, and this ought to include the Sundays we are away on vacation. We would not expect or want God to take a vacation from His continuing, loving concern for us. Certainly no Christian should use his vacation as a time to vacate himself from God! Wherever you may go this summer, chances are that there will be another Episcopal Church fairly near to you, and you can surely find an hour each Sunday to spend with Him in His House. A vacation should give each of us the needed opportunity for physical and mental refreshment, but we must be doubly careful at such time that we do not neglect our constant need for spiritual renewal and refreshment! So, let us spend our vacations with God — not away from Him!

MANY THANKS to the teachers, assistant teachers and staff members of the Church School for the hours of dedicated effort they have willingly given in the past year. The Christian training of our children is a primary task of the Church. We could never begin our educational work without the faithful service of many unnamed saints who serve our Lord through teaching His children. Grace Church is more than grateful; we are greatly endebted to you. May you enjoy a well earned rest and a blessed summer vacation.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP ACTIVITIES

Sunday, June 7th, 7:00 p.m. Final business meeting and election of officers for next year.

Saturday, June 20th. All Day Trip to Ocean City. We will leave from the Church at 8:30 a.m. Bring your lunch and bathing suit.

THE PRESIDENT of the Business and Professional Women still is Miss M. Aveline Pile, not Mrs. E. Taylor Ward as indicated on back of our Parish News. Mrs. Ward will assume her duties as President in the fall.

MEMORIAL DAY SERVICE

A service will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, May 30th. We will have a celebration of the Holy Communion, with special prayer for those men from Grace Church who gave their lives in the service of their country.

THIS WEEK AT GRACE CHURCH

Sunday, May 31st, 7:30 p.m.——Young Peoples Fellowship Mtg.
Tuesday, June 2d, 6:00 p.m.——Evening Woman's Auxiliary Covered Dish Supper
Saturday, June 6th, 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.——Church School Picnic at Valley Forge Park
Sunday, June 7th, 7:00 p.m.——Y.P.F. Final Business Meeting. Election of officers for next year.

SUMMER SERVICE SCHEDULE—7:30 and 10:00 a.m.
Beginning Sunday, June 14th, the Sunday services will be at 7:30 and 10:00 a.m. As many Episcopal Churches in the area have done, we will conduct the main Sunday morning worship beginning at 10:00 a.m., instead of 11:00 a.m., for the summer months. Holding the service an hour earlier will avoid the heat of the day, when the church building becomes overly warm and uncomfortable. By having the service at 10:00 a.m. in the summer, rather than 11:00 a.m., those families who enjoy Sunday outings will be able to join in the worship of God before they leave for a picnic or fishing trip. There will be a nursery for children under 6 years, so their parents can worship together. Older children are expected to join their parents for the Church service. Mark your calendar — June 14th to September 6th, inclusive — services at 7:30 and 10:00 a.m.

NUCLEAR RESEARCH REACTOR:

GENERAL CONVENTION MEETING in Miami Beach in 1958 authorized the gift of a nuclear research reactor to St. Paul's University in Tokyo, Japan, in the name of the whole church in the United States for our sister Church, the Holy Catholic Church in Japan, on the occasion of the one hundredth anniversary of her founding. Through this gift, American Christians have an opportunity to share the potential and realized blessings of atomic energy with a people who in the past have known little of its blessing but much of its curse. Through this gift, Christian brethren in Japan will be enabled to render a vitally important service to all their countrymen, Christian and non-Christian alike, and a Christian university will be given a unique means to meet a pressing need of the whole nation which she serves. Special offering envelopes for this extraordinary missionary project will be placed in the pews on Sunday, May 31, 1959. When you contribute, you may use the envelopes or send a check made out to Grace Church—marked for Japan. This is your opportunity to have a share in sanctifying this great new power — which Americans have had such a special part in realizing — to the service of our Lord and His Church.

FORWARD-DAY-BY-DAY for the summer months may be found in the North Porch. This small pamphlet is an excellent guide to daily Bible reading and meditation. Take one on your vacation with your Bible!

A QUESTIONNAIRE requesting information urgently needed for our Church records will be sent to all members of the Parish next week. The information will help us bring the records of the congregation up-to-date. All the questionnaire forms will be handled in strict confidence. You will greatly assist the clergy and staff of Grace Church if you will fill in the questionnaire forms completely and return them promptly. We thank you in advance for cooperating with us.

YOUNG PEOPLES FELLOWSHIP ACTIVITIES

May 31st, 7:30 p.m.—After Chapel service we will listen to a tape recording of the play. Recreation after the meeting.

June 7th, 7:00 p.m.—Final Business Meeting, Election of Officers for next year. It is important that we are all there!

June 20th, Saturday—All-day-trip to the Shore.

FATHER AND SON NIGHT AT THE MEN'S CLUB - Monday, May 25th, at 8 p.m. "Fishing and Trapping in Canadian Wilderness", the 1958 adventures of Mr. David Jarden, will be the program. These are magnificent color movies showing wind-up of the trapping season in northern Ontario. Also, an unusual fishing trip in northern Quebec that any business man could enjoy. All men are urged to come. Bring your son!!!

CHURCH SCHOOL FINAL ACTIVITIES....

FAMILY EUCHARIST - Trinity Sunday, May 24th, at 9:15 a.m.
Classes will follow the Family Eucharist.
CLOSING EXERCISES - Sunday, June 7th, at 9:15 a.m.
CHURCH SCHOOL PICNIC will be Saturday, June 6th. Bus will leave the Church for Valley Forge at 10 a.m. Bring your lunch—we will supply punch, ice cream, coffee and tea. Fun, games and prizes for the whole family.

Is your physician's phone number handy to the telephone? If so, it is easy to contact him in case of illness. Remember, also, to make the second call to your parish priest. The clergy of Grace Church are most anxious to visit the sick in hospitals or at home. To do this we must know when people are sick. The Parish Office is open from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. daily. The home phones of the clergy are on this Parish News. Private Communion will gladly be given to any sick person or shut-in who is unable to worship God in Church.

PLEASE MAKE A NOTE OF THE NEW RECTORY PHONE NUMBER

PARENTS AND CHILDREN: What are you doing the summer mornings from June 26th to July 10th? There will be a Daily Vacation Bible School at Mount Airy Presbyterian Church, sponsored by Grace Church, Mt. Airy Methodist, Ascension Lutheran and Mt. Airy Presbyterian. Classes for Kindergarten through 8th grade will be held daily from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. More publicity and registration forms will be ready soon. Why not take advantage of an opportunity for concentrated Christian Education within an ecumenical setting during the early summer weeks?

The Rector and Mrs. Bauder wish to express to all the members of Grace Church their sincere appreciation for the warm welcome they were given at the Coffee Hour on Sunday, May 10th. It is never an easy matter to begin anew in another parish, but the genuine friendliness with which you received us into your midst has already helped us to feel at home here with you in Grace Church.

It is to be hoped that this same warmth will always be shown to all newcomers here, so that Grace Church may always be known as a "friendly" parish where visitors may feel at home and want to come back again and again. Toward that end, all members of this parish are urged to make themselves known to strangers. Never hesitate to take the first step in speaking to someone you do not know; for in doing so, you alone may be instrumental in bringing a new member into our fellowship.

AT THE TIME OF DEATH, people always wonder what to do about arrangements for the funeral. Call your priest first. He has responsibility for the care of souls in life and in death. The undertaker's only concern is for the physical arrangements of the funeral, and his plans should be subject to approval of the clergy. Call the undertaker after the priest has been notified. Funerals for all baptized and confirmed Christians are to be in Church. The House of God is the most suitable place for the Burial Office. Entrance into eternal life in the loving care of our Heavenly Father, which is our belief and our sure trust, is wonderfully symbolized to us in Church. A funeral home has not the Christian association that our Parish Church has for us. At the time of the funeral, flowers will be placed on the Altar in Church, as is customary in Christian worship. Apart from the altar flowers, no other flowers are to be placed in the Church. Many Christians find that a more fitting and longer lasting memorial to the deceased may be established, if in place of flowers friends contribute to a memorial fund. Then a proper permanent memorial can be placed in their Parish Church. Burial Office in the Church is always conducted with the casket closed and the same practice ought to be followed when the service is held in a funeral home. Some of you may wonder why in Church the casket is always covered with a funeral pall. We are equally loved in the eyes of God, and our beautiful pall covers equally the most ornate or a more simple coffin. The Christian way to express your sympathy to the family of the deceased is to attend the Church funeral and join them in prayer for the soul of our brother departed. These customs, our Church's teachings on Christian burial, help us understand that God's love and care for us continues through death into everlasting life.

The flowers on the Altar today are given by Mr. Rush Whiteside, in memory of Susan Whiteside.

This Sunday we welcome our new Rector, the Rev. Richard K. Bauder, to Grace Church. The prayers of all of us are with him, that God may richly bless his ministry among us. The 11:00 a.m. service this week will be the Holy Communion. At the Coffee Hour, after the Eucharist, each of us will have the opportunity to meet and greet the Rector and Mrs. Bauder.

Beginning this Sunday, Grace Church Parishioners will be sporting NAME TAGS. Mr. Bauder desires to learn people's names as quickly as possible. Everyone will be given plastic name tags today at each service. Please print your name in large, clear letters and wear the tag at every Grace Church function for the next two months. Please remember to wear your tag. It will help our new Rector to know us.

The Evening Woman's Auxiliary will have a dinner and quiet evening on May 14, 1959, at the Conference Center in Radnor. They will leave from the church at 5:30 P.M. The Rev. Christopher J. Atkinson, Rector of St. Faith's Church, Havertown, Pa., will lead the meditations.

The Y.P.F. Play "Mother is a Freshman" will be presented Friday and Saturday, May 22d & 23d, at 8 p.m. in the Parish House. Donation for a ticket is one dollar. This riotious collegiate comedy will be a delightful evening's entertainment. The Y.P.F. Play is the annual fund-raising endeavor the young people undertake to raise money for their own treasury. Support the Y.P.F.! Buy tickets to the play! They are the future of Grace Church!!

The Woman's Auxiliary and Guild will have a Covered Dish Luncheon, Thursday, May 14, 1959, at 12:15 p.m. All the women of the parish are invited to attend. Stated Meeting will follow.

Food for thought relevant to our changing times and new leadership. From "The Church News", Diocese of Pennsylvania, April, 1959. . . . .

An article appears in the Bulletin of the Memorial Church of the Good Shepherd, Germantown, relative to a Preacher's qualifications: A letter received purporting to have come from an applicant for a position, stated among other things: "I have left town after my work has caused riots and disturbances. I have been in jail three or four times. My health is not too good. I have not gotten along too well with religious leaders in towns where I have preached; some have threatened and even attacked me physically. However, if you can use me, I shall do my best for you."

"Shall we hire him?" a committee member of the parish asked.

"Hire an unhealthy, trouble-making, absent-minded ex-jail bird? Who is this man, anyway?"

"Oh," said the man, in possession of the letter. "It's just signed 'Apostle Paul'."

SOME SUGGESTIONS FOR THE LAITY . . .
by the Rev. John Heuss, Trinity Church, New York

1. Have respect for all Holy Orders whoever the ordained man may be.
2. Don't aspire to call the Priest by his first name.
3. Look upon him as a spiritual leader first and require him to be that.
4. Show him the courtesies that reflect respect for his office.
5. Expect him to emphasize religion and to teach.
6. Meditate on his good points. Talk him up, not down.
7. Don't monopolize him. He is not your private Chaplain.
8. Don't judge him for his preaching alone.
9. Welcome his calls and talk religion with him.
10. Pray for him.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP activities in the wind. . . .

SUNDAY, MAY 10, 1959—The EYC of St. Matthias Church, West Oak Lane, will visit us for supper, Evening Prayer, and a program. Mr. James McKendrick, a student at the Phila. Divinity School, will have slides and comments on his experience "With God and Indians in the Canadian North Woods"! All young people of Grace Church are most welcome. A Covered Dish Supper will begin the evening at 6:30 p.m. Come, join the fun. Bring a dish to feed six healthy teenagers and help us welcome the people from St. Matthias.

SUNDAY, MAY 17, 1959—Supper, Evening Prayer and a program on "Love and Marriage - A Christian Ideal". Supper will begin at 6:00 p.m. All young people invited.

SUNDAY, MAY 24, 1959—We will visit Mt. Airy Presbyterian Church. Youth groups from the Methodist and Lutheran Churches in Mt. Airy will be present. The minister from each of the four churches represented will present a short talk on—The distinctive aspects of the church in which he ministers.

The flowers on the Altar today have been given by Mrs. John Machin, in memory of her father and mother, Thomas and Louise Allsop. The flowers on the Altar on April 12th were given by Mrs. Charles Kenkelen, in memory of her mother, Lena R. Lorenzen. Mr. & Mrs. Thomas R. MacFarland, Jr. also gave to the Easter flowers, in memory of their love ones.

No memorial flowers have been offered as yet for June 21st, July 28th, Aug. 2d, 9th or 30th. If you would like to provide flowers for one of these Sundays in memory of one well-loved, get in touch with Mrs. Agnes Lundelius, 330 East Allens Lane, Telephone CH 7-3787.

We were a bit disappointed recently when having made a request in the Parish News for an antependium, a hanging for the pulpit, to round out our purple set and make it complete. No response came in. (You have spoiled us by responding so promptly to such requests.) So, we renewed our appeal in a more recent issue of our weekly paper and lo, and behold, the day this news sheet was delivered, we had a telephone call from one of our parishioners, saying that she and her husband would be glad to give the needed hanging if we would accept it. We replied, "Yes", and now the lovely article is being made, embroidered, and in due time will be blessed and put in use. The names of the donors will then be made known; in addition, the names of those in whose memory the antependium is being given. Thank you.

Last summer we had the privilege of attending the 65th wedding anniversary of two long-time parishioners, Mr. & Mrs. William H. Betz, at their summer home in Longport, N.J. Because we were fond of the Betzes and because a 65th wedding anniversary is so unusual, the event made a deep impression on us. Early this month, Mr. Betz fell, had a brain concussion, never regained consciousness; and on April 6th, died in the Germantown Hospital. We read the Office for the Burial of the Dead for him last Friday, April 10th. Interment was in Hillside Cemetery.

Recently we reported to you that a young man who grew up in Grace Church was being graduated in June from the Protestant Episcopal Theological Seminary in Virginia. He is Ralph Wesley Bayfield. Now we have been informed that Bishop Hart has set his ordination to the Diocanate for June 13th — in Grace Church! This is a high honor for our parish, and we are very happy for it. Mr. Bayfield is to serve his diaconate in Christ Church, Shaker Heights, Cleveland, Ohio; and then expects to be accepted as a Chaplain in the Armed Forces of our country. That, too, makes us glad; for there is a great need for able Chaplains. Let's all turn out on June 13th at his ordination and pray God's blessing on his ministry.

The Rector and Mrs. Eder want to thank all who had anything to do with the touching Reception you gave us on April 12th. Frankly, we dreaded the occasion, fearing taffy and epitaphy. We know that it is more blessed to give than to receive. A lifetime in the ministry has demonstrated that. But most of us have not learned the courtesy of receiving graciously. And we sorely need that virtue. Also, we have known you so intimately that saying goodbye was like saying goodbye to one's family. But—your committee did such a good job; the whole affair turned out not to be sentimental but more like a happy reunion, so that Mrs. Eder and I had "a whale of a good time". And your gift was most generous. The day was a high spot in our lives. Thank you — much!

Your new Rector, the Rev. Mr. Bauder, will take over on May 5th. He will conduct services on May 10th.

The Rector's sermon on April 12th was based on Jesus' words, "I am the Good Shepherd", from St. John 10:1. After bringing out what he believed our Lord meant in that chapter, the preacher told of a New York Society woman who entertained at dinner, and afterward had the noted reader, Charles Laughton, read to her guests. It was a wonderful treat. The eloquent actor ended by reciting the 23d Psalm so touchingly that when he ended, his audience rose and applauded for minutes. When they had ended their clapping, the hostess' Rector slipped in quietly, having been detained in a hospital caring for a dying parishioner. He was very tired and made his apologies for being late. His hostess excused him and asked him to close the evening with a prayer. Responding, he said that he was still under the spell of the hospital experience, and if they didn't mind he'd say the 23d Psalm, as he had just used it in the hospital, as a prayer. This he did, and when he finished there wasn't a dry eye in the room. Then Mr. Laughton arose, saying to the assembly, "I know the poem, he knows the Shepherd." "That," said your Rector, "is what Jesus would have us receive from the Gospel."

LADIES NIGHT AT THE MEN'S CLUB WILL BE APRIL 27, 1959. The annual Ladies Night at Grace Church Men's Club will feature "A Trip to Europe." Beautiful slides of famous European sights and wonderful shots of the World's Fair in Brussels will be shown by one of our members, Mr. Conrad F. (Pete) Bond. Ladies, have your husband bring you to this delightful program.

YOUNG PEOPLE ATTEND: The YOUTH CONVENTION of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will be held at the Conference Center in Radnor on Saturday, May 2d, from noon to 9:30 p.m. There will be a business meeting, a speaker, picnic supper, and dancing and entertainment. All who want to attend, speak to the Curate.

The altar flowers today are being given by Mr. William Scholl and Colonel and Mrs. W. Willis Gilmore, in memory of Gladys Minter Scholl.

Your new Rector, who will take charge on May 5th, is the Reverend Richard Kenneth Bauder, B.D. He was born in Hellertown, Pa., on October 29, 1927. After being graduated from the Hellertown High School, he entered Franklin and Marshall College and received the Bachelor in Arts degree on his graduation in 1950. From college, he entered the Philadelphia Divinity School to study for Holy Orders. In 1953 he was graduated from the Seminary, being awarded the degree of Bachelor in Divinity. He was ordained Deacon in May, 1953, and Priest the following December. Because he was a candidate from the Diocese of Bethlehem, Bishop Sterrett, the Diocesan of Bethlehem, officiated at both ordinations. In 1953 he married Claire Louise Judd, and is now the father of two children. His first work as a clergyman was as Curate in St. Stephen's Church, Wilkes-Barre, a parish of more than 1,342 communicants where he served for two years. In 1955 he was elected Rector of Emmanuel Church, Quakertown, Diocese of Pennsylvania, and has had a blessed and happy Rectorship in that Parish. Your Vestry took six months looking over the records of the men being considered to be their and your Rector. Finally, they unanimously elected the Reverend Mr. Bauder, and in turn, after prayerful consideration, he consented to come. He will be in charge from May 5th on, and will conduct his first services in Grace Church on May 10th. We know that you will like him and bespeak him the same love and cooperation you have given your retiring Rector, who at the Vestry's request and Bishop Hart's consent will carry on until the new Rector comes.

On Monday, April 6th, at 3:30 p.m. in the Church House, Miss Patricia Carmine, who had been unable to be with this year's Confirmation class on Palm Sunday, was confirmed by Bishop William Roberts, being presented by the Rector.

At the stated meeting of your vestry on Easter Tuesday, Mr. Edward J. Thomas resigned as vestryman and was duly elected Vestryman Emeritus. At the same meeting, Mr. Tattersfield, having headed up our Every Member Canvass for this year, reported that you had responded generously and more money was pledged than last year. The Accounting Warden, Mr. Gotwals, informed us that our Endowment Fund now amounts to $40,409.62. So far this year we have paid $3,124.53 for Insurance, Taxes and Operating Expenses. So far, we are credited with $7,262 toward the Campaign for helping to establish new work in our own diocese.

We have more happy news to tell you. Mr. Ralph Wesley Bayfield, a candidate for Holy Orders from this parish, will be ordained to the Deaconate during the second week in June. Bishop Hart has chosen Grace Church to be the place where the ordination will take place! Mr. Bayfield is to become one of the Curates of Christ Church, a parish of 1,104 communicants in the suburb of Shaker Heights, Cleveland, Ohio.

Don't forget the great 175th Anniversary Service of the Diocese of Penna. to be held in the Academy of Music on Monday evening, May 4th. Your rector will soon have reserved seat tickets for you. There is no charge! All you have to do is ask for them. Our new presiding Bishop will be present and will speak!

We are sorry about the errors in the April 5th Parish News: Mrs. Lillian M. Brooke gave to the Easter Flower Fund, in memory of her husband, Frank P. Brooke; Mrs. Bertha Hazzard, in memory of her husband, Mr. Charles M. Hazzard; Mr. George Burton gave in memory of his wife, Edith May Burton. Mr. Joseph B. Higham was confirmed; not Hingham.

The regular meeting of the Business and Professional Woman's Club will meet on April 20th, preceded by a dinner at 6:30 P.M. All the women of the parish are invited to come hear the speaker of the evening, General Byron Lee Milburn, U.S.A. Ret.

CALENDAR FOR THE COMING WEEK

(November 29 to December 5)

(Sunday)—THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will meet at 7:30 P.M. at the Parish House. A tour through Holy Cross Roman Catholic Church in Mt. Airy is planned for this meeting.

(Tuesday)—THE WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, EVENING GROUP, will meet in the Parish House at 8:00 P.M. The evening's program includes a guest speaker, Mrs. C. C. Heyl, whose topic will be "The Christmas Story in Italian Art". All women are invited to attend.

(Thursday)—THE WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP, will hold their regular weekly meeting after the 9:30 A.M. Holy Communion. All women of the Day Group are particularly urged to attend regularly this service prior to their meeting each week.

NOTE: The Day Group will have their regular monthly Luncheon on the second Thursday of December (10th) instead of the first Thursday of this month. They will wrap Christmas packages for the women in the J. C. Smith Memorial Home and men in the Philadelphia General Hospital that morning. The Luncheon will be at 12:15 P.M. Please call for reservations to Mrs. J. W. Caldwell at CH 7-5643, or the Parish Office at CH 8-2950.

(Thursday)—CHURCH SCHOOL TEACHERS of the Nursery, Kindergarten, and Primary Departments will meet with the Rector in the Parish House at 7:30 P.M. It is important for all teachers of this group to be present for these monthly meetings!

PRAYER BOOKS AND BIBLES which were sold at our recent Bazaar are still available and on sale at the Church Office during the week. These books make appropriate gifts for Christmas.

THE PARISH BAZAAR COMMITTEE REPORTS that proceeds from our Bazaar held three weeks ago are expected to exceed $1,200 by the time all the money has been turned in. Considering the fact that the weather seemed to be completely against us on our Bazaar date, this is a quite gratifying result, and we are thankful that many of our members came out and supported the Bazaar that Saturday, despite the elements. Most important of all to remember is the fact that it was a thoroughly enjoyable parish activity in which we all had the opportunity of meeting informally with each other and getting to know one another better.

THE PHILADELPHIA DIVINITY SCHOOL will present two Medieval Christmas plays on the nights of December 4th, 5th, and 6th at the School. These plays are—"The Birth of Christ" and "The Wakefield Shepherd's Play". Mr. Fred Trumbore, the Seminarian from P.D.S. who assists us here each Sunday, reports that tickets will be sold only at the School each night of the plays for $1.50 each. Time is 8:00 P.M. On Sunday, the last night of the plays, tickets for Y.P.F. members will cost only fifty cents. Plan now to attend one of those nights; we know you'll enjoy it.

THE BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE of the Vestry lists below the many repairs and improvements that have been made here just in the last seven months, since May 1, 1959. The average parishioner is seldom really aware of the tremendous and costly task of properly maintaining a parish plant the size of ours, and since most of the items here listed are not easily visible to the average member, the Rector feels all members of Grace Church would want to know of these basic and necessary items of maintenance.

Repairs and improvements during the last seven months include: sidewalk repairs on Ardleigh and Wadsworth Sts., rehabilitation of our outside signboard, renewal of the main water line, various repairs to the heating system such as radiators, furnace controls, ignition wiring, cleaning and servicing of the system, and the replacement of a worn-out boiler section. In the Choir Room: new lockers and filing cabinets, tiered benches installed and refinished, the room was patch plastered and painted, new lighting fixtures are on order, a de-humidifier installed, and a piano moved there. Electrical improvements made: new switch and breaker panel in Sacristy, Chancel dimmer, additional lighting in Sanctuary, and the rehabilitation of the exterior floodlighting system. To the buildings: stone pointing of Tower, Chancel walls, and one wall of Parish House, repairs to Parish House roof, Rood Screen and Pulpit repairs, and repairs to the floor tile in the Chancel. In the new Rectory, alterations are being made to convert a sun porch into the Rector's Study, and three rooms have been re-papered. To the grounds at the Church: regrading around Parish House wall, weed-killing, fertilizing, and re-seeding.

As you can see, much has been done, and much more still needs to be done! As the funds are available, other items on the waiting list will be accomplished. We must remember that these buildings and the grounds that surround them will not take care of themselves, that we have the responsibility to maintain them properly for those who follow us, and we ought to be pleased that our Building and Grounds Committee is giving this matter constant and careful surveillance!

CALENDAR FOR THE COMING WEEK
(November 22 to 28)

(Sunday)—THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will meet in the Parish House at 7:30 P.M. for a scheduled Informal Meeting.

(Monday)—THE MEN'S CLUB will meet at 8:00 P.M. in the Parish House, and another very interesting program has been planned. The very well-known Cy Peterman, Columnist and International Correspondent, will speak to the Men's Club on the timely subject, "Today's World in Crisis—And The Christian Citizen". As always, all men are invited to attend and bring a friend. Refreshments will be served.

(Thursday—Thanksgiving Day)—THANKSGIVING SERVICES will be held in Grace Church as listed in the block above. Every member is urged to keep this day in its true Christian spirit by attending one of the services here this day.

SPECIAL CHURCH SCHOOL NOTE FOR THIS COMING SUNDAY... Our Church School children, for many years now, have given Jams and Jellies to All Saints Hospital in Chestnut Hill, and Apples to the House of Rest, Germantown, on the Sunday preceding Thanksgiving. The people at both these places are always most appreciative of our contributions toward making their Thanksgiving Day more complete.

This coming Sunday, November 22d, is the day that all Church School children are to bring their contributions to the Family Service at 9:15 A.M. Children of the Kindergarten and Primary are asked to bring the apples, and those in 4th Grade and up are asked to bring a jar of jam or jelly to the service. The gifts will be delivered later on Sunday.

1960 PLEDGES TO GRACE CHURCH NOW TOTAL—$44,868.10!!! This is the "Good News" of our recent Every Member Canvass for 1960, and your Rector is certainly most grateful to be able to pass on to the whole parish this heart-warming report, as just given to him by our E.M.C. Chairman, Mr. W. Willis Gilmore. The figure above represents the total amount pledged as of last Sunday, November 15th, when the Canvass was officially concluded and this final tabulation made.

You may recall from the attractive and informative brochure mailed to you shortly before Loyalty Sunday, that the last page set forth our projected needs for the work of Grace Church in 1960 and that, in order to do that work effectively, a minimum of $44,000 in pledges would be needed. As you can see by the present Canvass total of $44,868.10, this first forward step has been realized, and we truly rejoice that the loyal concern of Grace Church's parishioners has made this possible! But while we are rejoicing, let us keep in mind that this figure in the brochure was the minimum which was needed to carry out the normal care and proper maintenance of our parish. It does not provide for the large-scale improvements and major repairs needed in the near future.

Nevertheless, what has just happened here in Grace Church through our recent Canvass is a most encouraging step forward in the right direction, and it is fitting for us to be thankful that we have met this first challenge as dedicated Christians seeking to increase our faithful stewardship to Almighty God. The mere fact that our giving through our 1960 pledges represents an increase of almost $7,000 over the amount pledged in last year's Canvass ought to give us all renewed faith in what we of Grace Church can do for our Lord's Work, so long as we do these things together in His Name for the spread of the Kingdom!

And so, to our E.M.C. Chairman, Mr. Gilmore—without whose dedicated and tireless efforts we could not have succeeded, to his Co-Chairmen, Arthur Parkinson, Wilbur Scholl, and Geoffrey Tattersfield, who assisted him so ably and unselfishly, and indeed to all the many faithful members who gave freely of their time as Captains and Canvassers that all might be contacted and followed up, this parish owes a most heart-felt vote of deep gratitude. On behalf of Grace Church and her many hundreds of loyal members who responded to the Canvass so well, the Rector would say to all these people simply, but most sincerely, "Thank you, and well done!"

IF YOUR 1960 PLEDGE IS NOT IN YET, for there are still a few that we have not heard from, we would appreciate your sending it to us as soon as possible. Although the Canvass has officially concluded, naturally any pledges made during subsequent months, as in the case of new members just moving in, will be needed and used in our coming year's program here.

SLEEPING QUARTERS ARE NEEDED throughout our area for 200 boys who will be attending a Senior Hi-Y Conference on December 4-5 at the Germantown Y.M.C.A. and First Presbyterian Church. Boys will be staying at various lodgings in pairs and will need sleeping facilities for that Friday and Saturday night, as well as breakfast in your home on Saturday and Sunday mornings. If you are able to meet these needs for two boys in your home on those dates, please call Mrs. Charles Ormiston at GE 8-4531, or Mrs. George Bennett at WA 4-4318, or Mrs. Charles Super at CH 7-4077. Help to give these visiting boys from Southeastern Pennsylvania a warm and long-lasting memory of that weekend.

SOME GRACE CHURCH QUESTIONNAIRES from last June are still out! A new Communicant Register is to be filled in shortly, and we need this information. Extra forms are in Church Office. Please give us yours now.

CALENDAR FOR THE COMING WEEK

(November 15 to 21)

(Sunday)—OUR YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will meet here at 7:30 P.M. to be the host to the visiting Y.P.F. from St. Matthias, West Oak Lane. An interesting program is planned. Refreshments will be served.

(Monday)—BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL WOMEN will meet in the Parish House for dinner at 6:30 P.M. After a business meeting, Mrs. Nina Marie Gideon, of our parish, will speak on her interesting work with the Episcopal Community Services, Church Work Among The Blind.

(Wednesday)—THE BAZAAR COMMITTEE meets at 8:00 P.M. in the Parish House for the purpose of settling up the financial affairs of the recent Bazaar. A final tabulation of the results will be made then.

(Thursday)—WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP, will meet, as usual, in the Parish House following the 9:30 A.M. Holy Communion.

(Thursday)—CHURCH SCHOOL TEACHERS, Senior Department, and members of the Church School Staff will meet in the Parish House at 7:30 P.M.

1960 EVERY MEMBER CANVASS OFFICIALLY CLOSES THIS SUNDAY, Nov. 15th, and a final tabulation of all pledges for the coming year will be made on this day! The total amount pledged to Grace Church for 1960 will then be published in next week's Parish News, and we trust that you, as a loyal member of our parish, will pray with us that the final figure may be one which will be sufficient for the growing needs of Grace Church next year.

If your pledge has not yet been received, please see that we have it by this Sunday, so that it may be included in the final tabulation!

A PAIR OF NEW ALTAR VASES for the Altar in the Kindergarten Room will be dedicated this Sunday at the 9:15 A.M. Family Service. These Vases are being given by Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Heydt as a loving memorial to their departed daughter, Susan Ellen Heydt. As a most appropriate and fitting memorial to Susan, the Vases will be used regularly for the flowers on the Kindergarten Altar. We thank Mr. and Mrs. Heydt for their thoughtful memorial gift.

THE PARISH BAZAAR LAST SATURDAY was certainly a jovial occasion for all who participated and attended, despite undesirable weather conditions, both outside and inside the Parish House building. The latter condition was due to a breakdown in our heating system, but neither that difficulty nor the constant rain outside seemed to have any effect upon the warm and friendly spirits of the people at the Bazaar.

While it is still too early to have any figures on the degree of the financial success of this year's Bazaar, this parish event was certainly a wonderful success from the Rector's viewpoint, in that the many members of the parish who came out seemed to be genuinely enjoying themselves and their informal association with the others they met there. This would seem to be the key to the success of any all-parish event—that we enjoy and appreciate the opportunity of being together and doing things together as one parish family, whether it be worship, work, or recreation!!!

To William Josephs, Howard Foulkrod, and Kenneth Wood, who guided the Bazaar Committee so effectively, and to the many others who cooperated with them and worked so well for this big day, the whole parish of Grace Church extends a most sincere 'Well done!', in grateful appreciation to them all for having given us a Bazaar which will long be remembered for its grand spirit. In accomplishing that, an invaluable contribution was made to the ever-increasing friendliness of the Grace Church fellowship, and we could wish for no better success than that!

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE AND PARISH OFFICE have been moved recently into the former Rectory building, adjacent to the Parish House. Both offices are now on the first floor, in the front part of the building, just inside the main entrance to the old Rectory. The Parish Office telephone number remains the same, as listed on the back of the Parish News.

Now that this building is being used for additional Parish House space, the Nursery will also be moved into it, effective this coming Sunday, as will some Church School classes and the Adult Study Group. These changes will help greatly to relieve the congestion in some areas of the Parish House. Also, the Coffee Hour after every 9:15 Family Service each Sunday will take place in this building from now on, so that we will not be disturbing the classes still in session in the Parish House. In these ways and many others, such as the well attended Men's Corporate Communion Breakfast on All Saints' Day, the addition of this former Rectory to our Parish House facilities already has proven quite effective.

NOTE: This building stands in need of several items in the way of furnishings, such as rugs, occasional chairs, a long table for meetings, etc. If you would care to donate anything in this category that is in good, serviceable condition, please contact the Parish Office at CH 8-2950.

TWO BLOOD DONORS ARE NEEDED to replace two pints of blood at Chestnut Hill Hospital for one of our parishioners. If you are able to be one of these, please contact Mrs. Thomas McFarland at TU 6-8411 for details. The need is urgent!

CALENDAR FOR THE COMING WEEK

(November 1 to 7)

(Sunday)—REHEARSAL FOR NEW ACOLYTES will take place in the Church at 7:00 P.M. More members are still needed in our Acolyte Guild.

(Monday)—THE PARISH COUNCIL will meet at 8:00 P.M. All organizations are to have a representative present. Bring information on your group's future activities, especially for the Christmas season.

(Tuesday)—THE CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN will hold its Fall Meeting at the Cathedral, starting at 5:00 P.M. Dinner will be served there at 6:15 P.M. Delegates from Grace Church will attend.

(Tuesday)—WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, EVENING GROUP, will meet in the Parish House for their Stated Monthly Meeting at 8:00 P.M. All women of the parish are invited to attend, especially those who are not able to attend the Day Group. Please bring a small gift, costing around $1.00, for a child for the Missionary Christmas Box Project, which goes to a Mission in Mobridge, South Dakota.

(Thursday)—WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP, will meet in the Parish House, as they do every Thursday after the 9:30 A.M. Holy Communion. Featured this week will be a luncheon at 12:15, followed by a guest speaker, Mrs. Drury Hinton, who will speak about the Episcopal Community Services, illustrated with color slides on that topic. All women are invited to attend.

NOTE: COIN BANKS!...now is the time for all women of Grace Church to participate in "that little extra that goes so far" by returning your Coin Bank at the above luncheon, or before.

(Thursday)—CHURCH SCHOOL TEACHERS of the Nursery, Kindergarten, and Primary Departments meet in the Parish House at 7:30 P.M.

(Saturday)—ALL-PARISH BAZAAR in the Parish House, 10:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. (See next page for more details.)

Y. P. F. CAR WASH, postponed from last Saturday due to rain, will now take place this coming Saturday, October 31st, and we again urge your cooperation with our Young People in having your car washed here or at your home that day. So that they might know how many cars to plan for, please call CH 8-2950 this Friday from 7:30 to 10:00 P.M., or Saturday morning from 9:30 on. Your support is needed. In the evening of this same Saturday, there will be a Halloween Dance here for all our Young People, from 7:30 to 11:00 P.M.

ALMOST HERE!!! THE ALL-PARISH BAZAAR, SATURDAY, NOV. 7th!!! After much planning, hard work, and extensive advance publicity, the big day of our Bazaar is only a week away. Your Bazaar Committee consists of William Josephs, Howard Foulkrod, and Kenneth Wood; and you can contact them at CH 7-9032, CH 7-9237, CH 7-5873, respectively, for any information, pick-up of contributions, and to volunteer to help with the work of setting up the Bazaar. And when all is said and done, the real key to a successful Bazaar is YOU —how you are willing and able to help with the preparation, and especially how you support the Bazaar by coming out with us on that day! Many non-members of Grace Church will be here that Saturday, and we heartily welcome them; but YOU as a member must also come out —all of you— if it is to truly be an All-Parish Bazaar! So we'll certainly be looking for everyone of YOU next Saturday from 10:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., November 7th.

The Coupon Books for the Bazaar are for sale in advance of the day of the Bazaar only, and they will not be sold after November 1st. So plan on getting yours now while they are still available. Each book is worth $5.50 at the Bazaar, but costs you only $5.00. They are available at the Church Office or by calling Mrs. Mildred Ninos at CH 7-4763.

Our Bazaar Chairman, Mr. Josephs, has described very well the great opportunity and privilege all of us have together at all such parish-wide events, for he writes:

"Loyalty Sunday has reminded us once more of the immense variety and breadth in the lives of our congregation: we are young people, old people, tradesmen, businessmen, bankers, all the professions; happy, sad, lonely, or gay people; tall, short, talkative, or thoughtful...and every one of us has something important to contribute to the rest. Provided, that is, we come together and share what we have. Individually, we are only John Jones and Mary Allen; together we are the Congregation of Grace Episcopal Church. This is the genuine and lovely miracle which always happens when we gather together in the name of the Lord; and it happens, as He promised, when even two or three are gathered in His Name. But when the strength of the parish is assembled for some great occasion, being lifted out of one's humdrum concerns into the rich and colorful life of the Church can be a strange and moving personal experience. The moment may be grave and purposeful, as at Loyalty Sunday, or it may be festive and bantering at the Parish Bazaar; but suddenly the whole world shines and all the faces about you are beautiful."

OUR NEWSPAPER PUBLICITY CHAIRMAN is Mrs. Howard Foulkrod, and she may be reached at CH 7-9237. Please contact her about any items for newspaper publicity, particularly those activities of various parish organizations. It is important for us to let our community know what we are doing at Grace Church, and we are thankful to Mrs. Foulkrod for volunteering to handle all such parish items for newspaper purposes.

TWO RECENT BIRTHS bring our hearty congratulations to: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bargans, 451 Wellesley Road, on the birth of David James on October 8th; and to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brown, 512 Wellesley Road, on the birth of Laurie Shepherd on October 18th. May God bless and keep them always.

CALENDAR FOR THE WEEK OF OCTOBER 25th

(Monday)—THE MEN'S CLUB DINNER will be held at 6:30 P.M. in the Parish House. A large turn-out is expected for the excellent meal at the very reasonable price of $1.50 a person. Col. LeRoy Greene will be the speaker. A man with a fascinating background as a soldier, executive, and noted author, he will address the men on the subject, "A Newspaperman's Reminiscences". All men are invited.

(Wednesday)—THE ALTAR GUILD CORPORATE COMMUNION is scheduled in the Church for 9:30 A.M. Following the service, the members of the Altar Guild will meet in the Parish House for coffee and buns, and a short meeting will be held. All women on the Altar Guild are urged to be present.

(Thursday)—CORPORATE COMMUNION FOR THE WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH will be held in the Church at 9:30 A.M. Every woman of Grace Church is invited to attend this service, just as all women of the parish are always cordially invited to become active participants in either of our two very active organizations for women, the Day and Evening Groups.

(Saturday)—YOUTH ADVISORS CONFERENCE for District 1 of our Convocation of Germantown will be meeting here in our Parish House. The meeting will start at 9:30 A.M. and conclude after lunch.

(Saturday)—THE Y.P.F. HALLOWEEN DANCE will start at 7:30 P.M. in the Parish House and will last until 11:00 P.M.

NEED FOR CHOIR BOYS between the ages of 7 and 15 is still urgent. Please speak to the Rector or Mr. Robinson about any prospects.

THE LOYALTY SERVICE LAST SUNDAY at 11:00 A.M. was a most moving and beautiful service, and it was a magnificent witness to our Lord and His work here at Grace Church. The records indicate clearly that, of the Loyalty Services held here since the first one in 1955, last Sunday's set a new attendance mark, with over 425 members of our parish present at that service! A total of 623 people attended our three services of worship last Sunday.

The Rector extends his gratitude to all who planned for and took part in this 1959 Loyalty Sunday at Grace Church, with a special vote of thanks to this year's Every Member Canvass Chairman, Mr. W. Willis Gilmore, who, along with his dedicated Co-Chairman, Captains, and Canvassers, devoted so much time to the splendid effort of making this Loyalty Sunday such a memorable experience. A sincere 'Well done' to the Altar Guild, the Organist and Choir, the Acolytes, and the Ushers, for without their consecrated services, as always, much would have been lacking in the richness and joyfulness of our worship together.

IF YOU HAVE NOT YET MADE YOUR 1960 PLEDGE to Grace Church because you were not able to be with us last Sunday, please do so as soon as possible. All Canvassers have been urged to make their follow-up calls promptly, and if you were not in Church last Sunday, you have probably been contacted already by your Canvasser, or will be in the next few days. Please send in your pledge now, for we cannot plan well for 1960 at Grace Church until we hear from you!

DEDICATION OF THE WILHELMINA F. EDER MEMORIAL WINDOWS will take place this Sunday, October 25th, during the 11:00 A.M. service. These are the four beautiful Clerestory windows installed last summer, which were given in her loving memory by members of the parish. Our former Rector, the Rev. Charles E. Eder, D.D., has agreed to assist in the dedication of these windows, and it is hoped that all members will be present to witness this memorable event. (Since this is the fourth Sunday of the month, a Coffee Hour will follow in the Parish House.)

THE OFFERING PLATES that are used every Sunday have just been replated and refinished through the generosity of The Women of Grace Church, Day Group, who financed this restoration project. We are indeed grateful to them for having this needed work done.

THE Y.P.F. CAR WASH this coming Saturday, October 24th, needs your support. If your car can use an expert washing, you are asked to call CH 8-2950 on Friday evening from 7:30 to 10:00, or Saturday from 9:00 A.M. till Noon. For a reasonable price, our young people will wash your car on Saturday here at the Parish House or at your home. Simply call in, according to the above, and they'll arrange the rest.

COUPON BOOKS FOR THE PARISH BAZAAR are now available. These books are worth $5.50 at the Bazaar, but cost only $5.00! They may be purchased at the Church Office, or from Mrs. Mildred Ninos, 8511 Michener St., CH 7-4763. Make checks payable to Grace Church. NOTE: No coupon books will be sold after November 1st, so buy yours now!

A MEETING OF THE BAZAAR COMMITTEE will be held Wednesday, October 28th, at 8:00 P.M. in the Parish House. Everyone in charge of a booth is to attend this important meeting, as it will be the last one before the Bazaar. It will give everyone a chance to get all the loose ends together and make final arrangements with the Chairman and committee.

CALENDAR FOR THE WEEK OF OCTOBER 18th

(Sunday)—THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP leaves here at 6:15 P.M. to go to St. Martin's Church, Oak Lane, where they will be the guests of St. Martin's Y.P.F. at a Supper Meeting.

(Monday)—THE BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN will hold their October meeting at the Diocesan Conference Center in Radnor. They will meet at 6:30 P.M. for dinner, followed by a Quiet Evening led by The Rev. Paul C. Kintzing, Rector of St. John's, Bala Cynwyd.

(Tuesday & Wednesday)—THE RUMMAGE SALE, sponsored by the Women of Grace Church, will be held in the Parish House on both these days: Tuesday, from 7:00 to 9:00 P.M. and Wednesday, from 9:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. This is a major project of our Women of the Parish, and the support of all members is urged, both in attending the Rummage Sale and donating items to be sold there. Please bring any articles for the sale to the Parish House as soon as possible.

(Saturday)—A Y.P.F. CAR WASH is scheduled all day, the 24th, as a project by our young people to bolster their treasury. Cars will be washed here at the Parish House or at the owner's home, as desired. They will also rake leaves at homes that same day. If you can use either of these services that day to support our Y.P.F., please call in at CH 8-2950 anytime next Saturday morning, October 24th.

(Saturday)—DISTRICT CONFERENCE FOR YOUTH ADVISORS will meet here in our Parish House, starting at 9:30 A.M., lasting through lunch.

"Every Member in Grace Church this Sunday, October 18th, at 11:00 A.M."

THE LOYALTY SUNDAY SERVICE AT 11:00 A.M. on October 18th will be one of the major services of the year at Grace Church. Except for the sick and shut-ins, we hope to see every member of this parish in the congregation of the faithful this coming Sunday! For this great service is truly one of deepest obligation for all who consider themselves loyal members of Grace Church.

Of our members who normally come to earlier services each Sunday, we ask a special favor this one Sunday—that they also plan to be at the 11:00 A.M. Service to participate with all the other members in this one, corporate act of loyal witness to God and His Church.

For the parents who will be coming to the 9:15 Family Service this coming Sunday as usual, we have made arrangements for competent personnel to keep your youngsters in the Parish House during this 11:00 Loyalty Service, so that you will be free to attend this service with all other members. It is recommended that parents have all children from infants to those in Third Grade remain in the Parish House under such supervision, and that all older youngsters from Fourth Grade on up attend the Loyalty Service with the parents.

Thus, by careful planning and much advance publicity, we have done our best to make it possible for ALL MEMBERS to attend together this coming Sunday's Loyalty Service at eleven o'clock. As a loyal and concerned member of Grace Church, we know that you ought to be there, and it is our hope that YOU WILL BE THERE WITH US!

THE DEDICATION OF THE NEW CLERESTORY WINDOWS, given in loving memory of Wilhelmina F. Eder by members of the parish, will take place next Sunday during the 11:00 A.M. service, on October 25th. These four beautiful stained-glass windows were installed last summer, and a mimeographed explanation of the various features of the windows will be given out at that service. The Rector has requested Dr. Eder to assist in their dedication on the 25th, and he has kindly consented to do so. We know the members will want to be present to witness the formal acceptance and dedication of these windows.

A MEN'S CLUB DINNER MEETING will be held in the Parish House on Monday, Oct. 26th, at 6:30 P.M. $1.50 per person. Colonel LeRoy Greene, noted author, executive, and soldier will be the speaker. His subject, "A Newspaperman's Reminiscences". Membership in the Men's Club is not limited to members of Grace Church; all men are welcome as members of the Club. If you have a friend who would be interested, we will be happy to include him on our mailing list. There is no obligation entailed in membership, except to come out and enjoy the fellowship and entertainment of our meetings.

THE COIN BANKS of the Women of Grace Church are to be returned by November 5th. All women are urged to participate in 'that little extra that goes so far' by seeing that their Coin Banks are turned in before or by this date. They may be put on the Offering Plates at any service. There will be a Luncheon on Thursday, Nov. 5th, at 12:15 P.M. All Women of Grace Church are invited.

COUPON BOOKS FOR THE PARISH BAZAAR are now available. These books will be worth $5.50 at the Bazaar, but they cost only $5.00! They may be purchased at the Church Office, or from Mrs. Mildred Ninos, 8511 Michner St., CH 7-4783. Make all checks payable to Grace Church. Note: No books will be sold after November 1st.

THE FLOWERS on the Altar this Sunday are given in loving memory of Mildred Louise Townsend by Miss Muriel Townsend and Mrs. Martha L. Koffel.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP meets at 7:30 P.M. in the Parish House this Sunday evening. A film on the life of Martin Luther will be shown as part of the program. Some people have responded to the appeal of the Y.P.F. for parts for the building of a sound system, and we thank them for their generosity. Thus far, we have not heard anything from the members on giving a ping-pong table to the Y.P.F. for use in the Parish House. Can you help on this item? Please contact Mr. Bauder this week if you have anything to offer.

A MEETING FOR ALL CANVASSERS will be held next Wednesday in the Parish House at 8:00 P.M. The date is October 14th, and we urge all canvassers taking part in our forthcoming Every Member Canvass to keep this date open so they may all attend that evening. The task of preparing well for the Loyalty Sunday Canvass can only be properly accomplished if every single canvasser fulfills his or her responsibility by being present at this most important meeting. If you have accepted a canvasser's role, this meeting next Wednesday night is a must for you!

ALL CHURCH SCHOOL TEACHERS of the Senior Department will meet with the Rector in the Parish House next Thursday at 7:30 P.M. This includes the teachers from Ninth Grade on up. In order that they may plan ahead, teachers of this department are advised that they will normally meet on each third Thursday of the month.

WHAT DO YOU HAVE FOR OUR RUMMAGE SALE? Please bring any items for the sale to the Parish House as soon as possible, and make sure they are marked for that purpose. The Women of Grace Church need your help to make this sale a success. It will take place here on Tuesday, Oct. 20th, from 7:00 to 9:00 P.M.; and Wednesday, Oct. 21st, from 9:00 A.M. until 4:00 P.M.

LOYALTY SUNDAY IS ALMOST HERE! OCTOBER 18th is the date, and your Rector sincerely hopes that every member of this parish will attend the 11:00 A.M. service that day as an act of loyal witness to Almighty God and His Work in Grace Church.

In recent years, many Episcopal Churches have been conducting their annual Every Member Canvass by this 'In Church-Loyalty Sunday' method, believing that the annual offering of our pledges for God's Work in parish, diocese, nation, and the world is nowhere more rightly done than in God's House. Your Rector is pleased that our Grace Church is one of these parishes. For where could we better and more reverently offer our financial pledges for God's Work, than here in His House, where we regularly offer up to Him our prayers and praises?

Thus, at 11:00 A.M. on October 18th, Grace Church certainly ought to be filled to capacity, as all our faithful members come together to give witness to their loyalty toward God and this parish for the coming year. And they will do so in one great corporate act of worship. What an inspiring sight and moving experience this will be! And it will be—if YOU are there with us!!!

THE GRACE CHURCH BAZAAR was no more than a creative idea of the Church School Staff only a few short years ago. Once established, however, it soon drew into its orbit various projects of the other church organizations, many of which are now well integrated with it, so that at the present time nearly everyone who is active at Grace Church is connected in some way with this Bazaar. It is a happy situation. There is something about rolled-up sleeves and long hours on a worthy project that brings out the best in people. Moreover, this underlying scene of Christian brotherhood extends far beyond those who have known the fellowship of working side by side, to include our families and friends, to include all the members of Grace Church, for whose pleasure and profit these labors are intended. That is why we call it the All-Parish Bazaar.

THE TEN MOST WANTED, not by the F.B.I., but by this Bazaar, continue to be contributions of cakes, candy, toys, dressed dolls, white elephants, books, jams, fellies, and preserves. And most especially—YOU!

PLEASE CALL THE RECTOR is an almost constant plea from clergy to parishioners in every church, and it continues to be your Rector's urgent request in all cases of sickness and emergencies! There is simply no magical or automatic method by which your illness, accident, or forthcoming operation can be known by him. A hospital seldom notifies him of the admission of one of his parishioners, and in a city of such size, it is virtually impossible to follow the many various hospital notes in all papers.

The best way is still to tell the Rector that someone of his flock is ill at home or in the hospital. He will gladly make a call on this person when he knows, but he must know first! Also, promptness in calling such cases to his attention is much desired, and it is particularly important in all serious illnesses or emergencies. Never hesitate to call, no matter what the hour. For your Rector wants to know immediately, just as your doctor does!

THE FLOWERS on the Altar this Sunday are given in loving memory of John and Clementine Klofach by Mrs. William Irwin.

THE PARISH COUNCIL meets this coming Monday, October 5th, at 8:00 P.M. in the Parish House. Every organization is again reminded to have a person there to represent them. The Parish Council will meet on the first Monday evening of each month.

THE STATED MONTHLY MEETING of the Women of Grace Church, Evening Group, will be held on Tuesday, October 6th, at 8 o'clock in the Parish House. All women of Grace Church are invited to attend, particularly if they are not able to attend the Day Group. Please bring a thimble for work on the Bazaar projects.

CHURCH SCHOOL TEACHERS of the Intermediate Department will have a Teacher Training meeting with Mr. Bauder on Thursday evening, October 8th, at 7:30. This group includes all teachers of the Fourth through Eighth Grades, and this department will continue to meet at the same time on the second Thursday of each month. Teachers of the Nursery, Kindergarten, and Primary Departments will have their regular training session every first Monday, and the Senior Department (Grades 9 to 12) will meet each third Thursday of the month.

The Rector cannot emphasize too much the importance and value of these monthly meetings for teacher training. The responsibility of Christian Education in the parish is an enormous one, and we can only attempt to meet this challenge as we continually and faithfully train ourselves for it. For the teachers, these respective monthly meetings will give ample opportunity to all to present their problems and share their experiences, as well as learning various methods in Christian Education. Every dedicated teacher will certainly gain much by attending regularly.

A RUMMAGE SALE on Tuesday, October 20th, from 7:00 to 9:00 P.M., and Wednesday from 9:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M., will be held by the Women of Grace Church. This is an event that needs the support of the whole parish. To help this Rummage Sale, do a little rummaging in your home for suitable items that can be sold here, and then bring them to the Parish House—marked specifically, "Rummage Sale."

OUR ALL-PARISH BAZAAR is set for Saturday, November 7th, and will be an all-day event here at the Parish House. William Josephs and Howard Foulkrod, who assisted Harry Taylor in last year's successful Bazaar, have undertaken to direct it this year with the assistance of Kenneth Wood. Mr. Wood, one of the newer members in Grace Church, is also a member of our Choir. This is an excellent example, by the way, of how to bring more recent members into our established parish activities and organizations, and we hope to see it repeated many times. Meanwhile, Ralph Affleck, who is by way of being Grace Church's unofficial art advisor, promises to supervise a thorough revision of the Bazaar decorations. Just what is planned is a great mystery, but on November 7th we'll be able to see for ourselves.

PUBLICITY IN OUR PARISH NEWS on the many activities of our various organizations and other items of interest to the Parish is a necessity if all members are to be informed of our varied program. So that such desired publicity may be given here constantly and accurately, the Parish Council urges each organization to make sure that it has a person appointed to provide the Church Office with regular news items. Thus, if each parish group will be responsible in seeing to it that its own publicity items are forwarded to the Office, the effectiveness of this parish communication will be greatly increased, and no organization will be overlooked in our coverage. Written copy or data on the event is much preferred, to avoid errors, but information may also be given to the Parish Secretary by telephone at CH 8-2950. Please remember that this Parish News goes to the printer by noon every Monday. Therefore, we must urge that all news items be submitted by 10:00 A.M. each Monday of the week preceeding the week in which such activities will take place!

THE RECTOR WISHES TO THANK the many, many people who attended the Institution Service last week and all the hard-working women of the parish who helped put on the excellent and very successful reception after that service in the Parish House. The same was true of the reception for the Bosbyshells last Sunday. Also, an equally sincere 'Thank You' to the Vestry of Grace Church for the fine work that was done in sending out the invitations to the Institution Service to the members and area clergy. In all these events, the Rector has been gratified to observe the fine spirit of all those participating, and he hopes that such warmth and friendliness may always be characteristic of the whole fellowship of Grace Church.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP would appreciate any donations of the parts needed for the construction of their own sound system. Following are some of the new or used parts they need: changer, speakers, baffles, amplifier, and wall speakers. Your cooperation in helping them secure these parts will be a great help in the success of this project, and you are asked to contact Mr. Bauder if you have any of the above parts.

Another need of this group is for a ping-pong table that might be stored away in your home and not used anymore. Of course, any of the accessories like paddles and a net are also needed.

OUR 9:15 A.M. FAMILY SERVICE every Sunday is for the whole family! We continue to emphasize this because it is vitally important that both the parents and children attend as a family unit at that service. If it is to be truly a family service, that means that all members of each family are worshipping together! Our newly revised Family Service not only makes it possible for each family to worship as a complete family in Grace Church each Sunday, but also that the parents remain for the complete service in Church, after the children have gone to their Church School classes. After the service, the parents gather informally for coffee until the classes end. Thus, you come as a family, and return home as a family.

THE FLOWERS on the Altar this Sunday are given in loving memory of Pratt Thompson and Edgar Hunter by Mrs. Pratt Thompson and Mrs. Benjamin W. Taylor.

OUR CHOIRS need boy and girl singers to fill the places of those moved on. Every boy or girl between 7 and 15 who likes to sing and wants to devote his services to God and his talents to Mr. Robinson's excellent instruction, kindly speak to Mr. Robinson or the clergy.

OUR NURSERY at the Family Service is much busier this year than last year. We have many more toddlers and babies than we have cribs and playpens. You can help us out, if you will look around home and LEND or GIVE us any nursery equipment you are not using.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP future events....September 27th, 7:30 p.m.—The Rev. Richard K. Bauder will address the Fellowship on "Young People in the Church." October 4th - 7:00 p.m., Grace Church Young People will attend District Youth Conference at the Cathedral in Roxborough.

TEACHER TRAINING NIGHT in Grace Church is Thursday at 7:30 p.m. Each Thursday evening, teachers in one department of the Church School will meet with the Rector to discuss ways in which our teaching can become more effective. Teachers will have a chance at this monthly meeting to bring up questions concerning their own class. First Thursday of month (October 1) teachers in Nursery, Kindergarten and Primary will meet. Second Thursday (October 8) will be the night for teachers of the Intermediate Department. The third Thursday (October 15), Senior Department teachers. Teacher training sessions will begin next week, Thursday, October 1, at 7:30 p.m., with the Nursery, Kindergarten and Primary teachers.

THE REV. & MRS. WILLIAM A. BOSBYSHELL will be leaving for their new work in Florida immediately after the Coffee Hour which will follow the 11:00 A.M. service this coming Sunday, September 27th. As previously reported, Fr. Bosbyshell has accepted a call to become an assistant to the Dean of the Cathedral Church of St. Luke in Orlando, Fla., and will begin his duties there on October 1st.

Though the Bosbyshells have been with us for only fifteen months, they have made many friends; and it is with mixed emotions that we say farewell to them this Sunday...sadness, that they will be leaving our parish family, but tempered with our joy for them in their larger calling to do God's work according to His Will.

So we invite all members to come to the Coffee Hour after the 11:00 A.M. service this Sunday to join with us in wishing William and Caroline our sincere 'Godspeed'. Grace Church shall miss them, and they will take with them our prayers and best wishes for continued success and happiness in the ministry of our Lord and His Church.

SECURING ANOTHER CURATE for Grace Church is virtually impossible before next June, but we have been fortunate in arranging for some part-time assistance from two men. First, Mr. Fred Trumbore, a senior seminarian from the Philadelphia Divinity School, will be with us on Sundays to work with our Young People's Fellowship and teach a senior class in our Church School. Mr. Trumbore's home is in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and he is the son of the Rector of St. Clement's Episcopal Church there.

Also, The Rev. Douglas M. Spence, a recently ordained Deacon from Pasadena, California, will be assisting in our larger services, particularly at the celebrations of Holy Communion at the 9:15 Family Service and the 11:00 A.M. Service, where a second clergyman is almost a necessity with our short altar rail. Mr. Spence will also assist as needed during the week with such duties as visiting the sick and parish calling. He was graduated from the Church Divinity School of the Pacific last June; he is married and has a son four months old.

The Rev. Mr. Spence will begin his work with us on the first of October, and Mr. Trumbore has already begun, as of last Sunday. To him, as well as to Mr. Spence, his wife Diana, and son John, we give a sincere and cordial welcome into the fellowship of Grace Church and the whole parish family.

LOYALTY SUNDAY IS OCTOBER 18th here, and that important day for Grace Church's Every Member Canvass is just three weeks from this coming Sunday. This year's Canvass Chairman, Mr. W. Willis Gilmore, reports that all plans for that major event are just about completed, and the remaining weeks will find each member receiving several informative mailings designed to show you how very important this forthcoming Loyalty Sunday will be to the future of Grace Church in 1960, and how vital a role you will have in that future.

Above all, prepare now to be with all your fellow parishioners in Grace Church at 11:00 A.M. on Loyalty Sunday, October 18th!!!

CALENDAR FOR THE COMING WEEK

(December 6 to 12)

(Sunday)—OUR YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will meet at 7:30 P.M. in the Parish House. Following the business meeting, there will be a brief talk by the Rector, the first of a series, and a discussion on the Episcopal Church.
NOTE: All young people are urged to attend these December meetings to help plan for the Y.P.F.'s big Christmas Dance to be held in the Parish House on December 29th, 8 P.M. to Midnight. A five-piece orchestra has been hired for this dance!

(Monday)—THE PARISH COUNCIL meets in the Parish House at 8:00 P.M. Every organization is, as usual, requested to have a representative present. There is much to do; please be prompt.

(Tuesday)—THE VESTRY OF GRACE CHURCH will meet at 8:00 P.M. in the Parish House for the regular monthly meeting. Our Vestry now meets every month on the second Tuesday, except July & August.

(Thursday)—THE WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP, meet at 10:15 A.M. in the Parish House. The monthly Luncheon will take place at 12:15 P.M., and reservations can be made by calling Mrs. J. W. Caldwell at CH 7-5643, or the Parish Office, CH 8-2950.
NOTE: At this meeting the women will wrap Christmas packages for the women in the J. C. Smith Memorial Home and men in the Philadelphia General Hospital.

(Thursday)—ALL CHURCH SCHOOL TEACHERS of Grades 4 through 8 will meet with the Rector for their monthly meeting at 7:30 P.M. in the Parish House.

St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, is planning a play, "The Sign of Jonah", for January 25th. Anyone interested in trying out for a part in it is asked to attend the try-outs Sunday, December 6th, from 3 to 5 P.M. and from 7 to 9 P.M.

IS GRACE CHURCH INCLUDED IN YOUR WILL? This may seem to be a blunt and somewhat personal question, but it is certainly in accordance with the rubric on page 320 in our Book of Common Prayer, which states:

> "The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the People, whilst they are in health, to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and, when of ability, to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses."

The question above, therefore, ought to give each member of this parish something to think about. Very often parishioners go through life with the very best intentions on this matter of 'someday' making a Will and remembering their particular parish church in it, but all too often just don't seem to get around to it! The intent of this rubric is that of reminding us of the importance of making adequate provision for our material possessions while we are still able to do so. As a loyal member of this parish, certainly one of the provisions of your Will ought to include Grace Church, so that future generations may find a strong and sound Grace Church in Mt. Airy, as we have found it to be! Think seriously about this rubric, and act upon it, won't you?

THE REVEREND RALPH W. BAYFIELD was ordained to the Priesthood at St. Paul's Church, Cleveland Heights, on Friday, November 20th. The Rev. Mr. Bayfield was ordained to the Diaconate here in Grace Church last May. He is the most recent of many fine young men of our parish who have entered the ministry in years past, and we fervently pray that Grace Church will always continue to give such capable men to the Priesthood of our Church in the years to come. We extend to Ralph our continued prayers and warmest congratulations, and to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bayfield, who are faithful members of this parish.

FOUR NEW COMMUNICANTS were added to our Register last Monday when the following persons were confirmed in the Bishop's Chapel at the Church House, Rittenhouse Square: Dorothy Horning Buehler, Charles Albert Buehler, Lillian Buehler Foulkrod, and Catherine Mary Costello. The Rector presented them for Confirmation and, on behalf of the whole parish, warmly welcomes them into full communicant status here at Grace Church, as well as into a deeper relationship with our parish family.

BOYS BETWEEN THE AGES OF 8 AND 12 NEEDED URGENTLY for the Choir of Grace Church!!! Rehearsals are scheduled weekly on Monday and Wednesday afternoons and Friday evenings. Transportation costs to and from rehearsals are provided by the Church, in addition to a small remuneration for services. And most important is the fine opportunity for the excellent training given each boy by Mr. Newell Robinson, our accomplished Organist and Choirmaster for many years! If you have a son in this age group, discuss this with him, and urge him to become a member of the Choir—it will be an experience he'll never regret.

SERVICEABLE FURNITURE IS NEEDED in the old Rectory which is now a part of our Parish House facilities. Such articles in good condition as rugs, chairs, tables, a refrigerator, etc., can be put to immediate use there. If you have anything in this category that you feel might be suitable, please check with the Church Office.

CALENDAR FOR THE COMING WEEK
(December 13 to 19)

unday)—THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will be attending a Choral Evensong at St. Paul's, Elkins Park, this evening. The service will be sung by the Seminary Choir of the Philadelphia Divinity School. Immediately after the service, there will be a dance. All young people are to meet at our Parish House on later than 6:30 P.M. londay)—THE PARISH COUNCIL will meet at 8:00 P.M. in the Parish House, since the regular meeting last Monday was postponed due to snow.

uesday)—THE BUILDING COMMITTEE will meet in the Parish House with the Rector at 8:00 P.M. Unless otherwise stated, this committee will normally meet on the third Tuesday of each month.

hursday)—THE WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP, will hold their weekly meeting in the Parish House, following the 9:30 A.M. Holy Communion.

nursday)—THE SENIOR DEPT. CHURCH SCHOOL TEACHERS, Grades 9 to 12, meet with the Rector from 7:30 to 8:30 P.M. Be prompt, please, for this will be only a brief meeting.

nursday)—A CHURCH SCHOOL STAFF CHRISTMAS PARTY will be held in the Parish House at 8:30 P.M. immediately following the above meeting. An enjoyable evening is planned, with refreshments, of course.

A REMINDER ON THE COIN BANKS, for those women who have not yet urned theirs for this year. It is requested that all Coin Banks be turned as soon as possible!!! They may be placed on the offering plates at y service, or you may bring your Coin Bank to the Day Group meeting Thursday.

THE BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB will meet on onday, December 21st, at the home of Mrs. Henry Gideon, 215 East dgwick Street. Dinner will be served at 6:30 P.M. For reservations, ll AD 3-3107. After dinner, Christmas boxes will be prepared for the omen at the House of Rest.

THE MAILING OF OUR WEEKLY PARISH NEWS has been done for the last two weeks under our new Second-class mailing permit, which was recently approved by the Post Office for Grace Church. All copies of the Parish News are mailed on the same day each week—every Wednesday. This means that, under normal circumstances, all members living in the greater Philadelphia area should certainly receive their copy by the following Saturday, at the latest, so that they have it in time for that Sunday and the week's activities listed therein.

The Rector would like to hear from anyone who is not receiving the Parish News in accordance with the time schedule above! Two members have thus far indicated that they haven't, and we are interested in knowing if this is true of many others, and, if so, who they are. Please let us know by calling CH 8-2950 os that we can look into this matter with the Post Office!

ADVANCE NOTICE OF CHRISTMAS SERVICES here at Grace Church is being given in this issue, since mail delivery service on the Parish News may vary greatly during the coming holiday mailing rush. Please take careful note of these Christmas Services, particularly the time of each one!

(DEC. 24)—CHRISTMAS EVE:
3:30 P.M.—Church School Christmas Pageant
11:00 P.M.—Christmas Eve Celebration of Holy Communion

(DEC. 25)—CHRISTMAS DAY:
7:30 A.M.—Holy Communion
10:00 A.M.—Holy Communion

Please note that the late service on Christmas Day is at 10:00 A.M., not 11:00 A.M.! Realizing that many families with small children would not be able to attend the Christmas Eve Eucharist, and that they would want to come as a family on Christmas Day, this 10:00 A.M. service was scheduled with that group in mind, for this hour enables the whole family to come to Grace Church together and still have ample time to return home for Christmas Dinner.

CHRISTMAS COMMUNIONS FOR SICK AND SHUT-INS who are not able to come to Grace Church on Christmas will be taken to such members. It is imperative, however, that the Rector know who those sick and shut-ins are! He asks, therefore, that anyone who is unable to come to church for the Christmas celebrations of Holy Communion, or the family of such a person, please contact him with such information so that he may arrange a time to take the Sacrament to each sick and shut-in member of the parish.

The Rector has set aside the whole day of December 26th, Saturday, for the purpose of bringing Christmas Communion to these people. Since he will have no assistance in this, it is important to arrange a time for that date with him so that he may set up a schedule of calls for that whole day. Please call him as soon as possible!

OUR Y.P.F. 'WINTER WONDERLAND DANCE' is set for Tuesday evening on December 29th, from 8:00 P.M. until midnight. Tickets are now being sold by all our young people of the Y.P.F. at $2.00 per couple, and the dance is open to everyone, of course. It is semi-formal, and the music will be supplied by a fine five-piece orchestra, Herby Baird and the Skylarks. This promises to be a most enjoyable evening, and we urge the support of all our members be given to our Y.P.F. for this event.

CALENDAR FOR THE COMING WEEK
(December 20 to 26)

(Sunday)—REHEARSAL FOR CHURCH SCHOOL CHRISTMAS PAGEANT will be held in the Church today at 2:00 P.M. All persons having a part in this Pageant are to attend this rehearsal.

(Sunday)—DECORATION OF THE CHURCH for Christmastide will take place at 7:30 P.M. this evening. Mr. William Josephs is the Chairman of this project and will be assisted by our Young People's Fellowship. Since there is much to be done in a large Church like this, we would like to have help from any others who can come! We hope to make this an enjoyable evening for adults and young people alike, so plan to be with us. Refreshments will be served later in the Parish House.

(Monday)—THE BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB will meet in the home of Mrs. Henry J. Gideon, 215 E. Sedgwick St., at 6:30 P.M. A dinner will be served; please call AD 3-3107 for reservations. After the dinner, the women will prepare Christmas boxes for the women at the House of Rest.

(Thursday & Friday)—CHRISTMAS SERVICES—(SEE SCHEDULE ABOVE)

(Saturday)—CHRISTMAS COMMUNIONS FOR SICK AND SHUT-INS will be taken to those members who will be unable to make their communion at any of our Christmas services. The Rector has set aside this whole day after Christmas to bring the Sacrament to them. NOTE: It is important that such persons, or a friend or member of the family, call the Church Office as soon as possible to enable the Rector to set up his schedule for that day.

A SPECIAL CHRISTMAS OFFERING ENVELOPE is included in each set of the offering envelopes you have been using for this year, and the Rector and Vestry urge each member of Grace Church to be as generous as possible in that Christmas Offering this year! For those who do not have one, extra Christmas Offering envelopes will be provided at each Christmas service.

This is a most URGENT request to every member of our parish!!! We hope to be able to start the year 1960 by having met all our 1959 obligations, and it is most important that this be done if our budget for the coming year is to be a realistic and working one. But we need YOUR help in making next week's Christmas Offering the most generous one ever received here, and in this way Grace Church will not have to begin the new year with a deficit. So, please use your Christmas envelope and let your special offering therein reflect your genuine gratitude to Almighty God for His many blessings to all of us this Holy Season!

THE CHURCH SCHOOL CHRISTMAS PAGEANT will again take place at 3:30 P.M. on December 24th in the Church. It will be a brief but beautiful drama, lasting less than forty-five minutes, and we hope that all young people, parents, and members will share it with us. Our children will bring toys for needy boys and girls at St. John's Settlement House. All members of the Church School are to meet in their classes in the Parish House by 3:15 P.M. before the Pageant.

MAKE YOUR CHRISTMAS COMMUNION at one of the three Christmas celebrations of Holy Communion in Grace Church: Dec. 24—11:00 P.M., and Dec. 25—7:30 and 10:00 A.M. Certainly no Episcopalian needs to be reminded that one of his deepest obligations is to celebrate the Birth of Christ by meeting Him at the Altar each Christmas! There can be nothing more important in our lives that day that should keep any member of the parish from receiving Holy Communion here in Grace Church. If you will be away from home that day, there will certainly be an Episcopal Church near you, or if you are sick or shut-in, your Christmas Communion can be brought to you. God's greatest gift of His Son, Jesus Christ, awaits you—do not refuse to accept His Gift!

MEMORIALS RECEIVED AT GRACE CHURCH recently are a pair of Candlelighters and Snuffers given anonymously in memory of Charles A. Coburn, and two trees already planted on the parish grounds, a Varnish Tree and a Sweetgum Tree, one of which is given in memory of Charlotte B. Schwenk by her husband, Carl Schwenk; the other given in memory of Mr. & Mrs. Samuel Brown by their daughters, Margaretta Logue, Jennie Brown and Sophie Haycock. Grace Church is grateful to the donors for these appropriate memorials.

BLOOD DONORS ARE NEEDED to replace large quantities of blood already given to The Rev. Harold Kellogg who is a patient at the Bryn Mawr Hospital. Please call that hospital for information. The Rev. Mr. Kellogg went into the ministry from Grace Church, as many of you know, and we're sure that his many friends here will want to help in this appeal, as well as offer their continued prayers for his recovery.

OUR Y. P. F. DANCE, "WINTER WONDERLAND", ON DEC. 29th promises to be a grand affair, but our young people are in need of some donated refreshments such as sandwiches, fruit, cookies and cakes for the occasion. They will appreciate greatly any donation you can make toward their affair, and you are asked to call Miss Linda Mathers at CH 7-6578. Please try to help.

(Thursday)—THE WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP, will hold their weekly meeting in the Parish House, following the 9:30 A.M. Holy Communion.

(Thursday)—THE SENIOR DEPT. CHURCH SCHOOL TEACHERS, Grades 9 to 12, meet with the Rector from 7:30 to 8:30 P.M. Be prompt, please, for this will be only a brief meeting.

(Thursday)—A CHURCH SCHOOL STAFF CHRISTMAS PARTY will be held in the Parish House at 8:30 P.M. immediately following the above meeting. An enjoyable evening is planned, with refreshments, of course.

A REMINDER ON THE COIN BANKS, for those women who have not yet returned theirs for this year. It is requested that all Coin Banks be turned in as soon as possible!!! They may be placed on the offering plates at any service, or you may bring your Coin Bank to the Day Group meeting on Thursday.

THE BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB will meet on Monday, December 21st, at the home of Mrs. Henry Gideon, 215 East Sedgwick Street. Dinner will be served at 6:30 P.M. For reservations, call AD 3-3107. After dinner, Christmas boxes will be prepared for the women at the House of Rest.

THE MAILING OF OUR WEEKLY PARISH NEWS has been done for the last two weeks under our new Second-class mailing permit, which was recently approved by the Post Office for Grace Church. All copies of the Parish News are mailed on the same day each week—every Wednesday. This means that, under normal circumstances, all members living in the greater Philadelphia area should certainly receive their copy by the following Saturday, at the latest, so that they have it in time for that Sunday and the week's activities listed therein.

The Rector would like to hear from anyone who is not receiving the Parish News in accordance with the time schedule above! Two members have thus far indicated that they haven't, and we are interested in knowing if this is true of many others, and, if so, who they are. Please let us know by calling CH 8-2950 os that we can look into this matter with the Post Office!

ADVANCE NOTICE OF CHRISTMAS SERVICES here at Grace Church is being given in this issue, since mail delivery service on the Parish News may vary greatly during the coming holiday mailing rush. Please take careful note of these Christmas Services, particularly the time of each one!

(DEC. 24)—CHRISTMAS EVE:
3:30 P.M.—Church School Christmas Pageant
11:00 P.M.—Christmas Eve Celebration of Holy Communion

(DEC. 25)—CHRISTMAS DAY:
7:30 A.M.—Holy Communion
10:00 A.M.—Holy Communion

Please note that the late service on Christmas Day is at 10:00 A.M., not 11:00 A.M.! Realizing that many families with small children would not be able to attend the Christmas Eve Eucharist, and that they would want to come as a family on Christmas Day, this 10:00 A.M. service was scheduled with that group in mind, for this hour enables the whole family to come to Grace Church together and still have ample time to return home for Christmas Dinner.

CHRISTMAS COMMUNIONS FOR SICK AND SHUT-INS who are not able to come to Grace Church on Christmas will be taken to such members. It is imperative, however, that the Rector know who those sick and shut-ins are! He asks, therefore, that anyone who is unable to come to church for the Christmas celebrations of Holy Communion, or the family of such a person, please contact him with such information so that he may arrange a time to take the Sacrament to each sick and shut-in member of the parish.

The Rector has set aside the whole day of December 26th, Saturday, for the purpose of bringing Christmas Communion to these people. Since he will have no assistance in this, it is important to arrange a time for that date with him so that he may set up a schedule of calls for that whole day. Please call him as soon as possible!

OUR Y. P. F. 'WINTER WONDERLAND DANCE' is set for Tuesday evening on December 29th, from 8:00 P.M. until midnight. Tickets are now being sold by all our young people of the Y. P. F. at $2.00 per couple, and the dance is open to everyone, of course. It is semi-formal, and the music will be supplied by a fine five-piece orchestra, Herby Baird and the Skylarks. This promises to be a most enjoyable evening, and we urge the support of all our members be given to our Y. P. F. for this event.

CALENDAR FOR THE COMING WEEK

(December 6 to 12)

(Sunday)—OUR YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will meet at 7:30 P.M. in the Parish House. Following the business meeting, there will be a brief talk by the Rector, the first of a series, and a discussion on the Episcopal Church.
NOTE: All young people are urged to attend these December meetings to help plan for the Y.P.F.'s big Christmas Dance to be held in the Parish House on December 29th, 8 P.M. to Midnight. A five-piece orchestra has been hired for this dance!

(Monday)—THE PARISH COUNCIL meets in the Parish House at 8:00 P.M. Every organization is, as usual, requested to have a representative present. There is much to do; please be prompt.

(Tuesday)—THE VESTRY OF GRACE CHURCH will meet at 8:00 P.M. in the Parish House for the regular monthly meeting. Our Vestry now meets every month on the second Tuesday, except July & August.

(Thursday)—THE WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP, meet at 10:15 A.M. in the Parish House. The monthly Luncheon will take place at 12:15 P.M., and reservations can be made by calling Mrs. J. W. Caldwell at CH 7-5643, or the Parish Office, CH 8-2950.
NOTE: At this meeting the women will wrap Christmas packages for the women in the J. C. Smith Memorial Home and men in the Philadelphia General Hospital.

(Thursday)—ALL CHURCH SCHOOL TEACHERS of Grades 4 through 8 will meet with the Rector for their monthly meeting at 7:30 P.M. in the Parish House.

St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, is planning a play, "The Sign of Jonah", for January 25th. Anyone interested in trying out for a part in it is asked to attend the try-outs Sunday, December 6th, from 3 to 5 P.M. and from 7 to 9 P.M.

IS GRACE CHURCH INCLUDED IN YOUR WILL? This may seem to be a blunt and somewhat personal question, but it is certainly in accordance with the rubric on page 320 in our Book of Common Prayer, which states:

> "The Minister is ordered, from time to time, to advise the People, whilst they are in health, to make Wills arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, and, when of ability, to leave Bequests for religious and charitable uses."

The question above, therefore, ought to give each member of this parish something to think about. Very often parishioners go through life with the very best intentions on this matter of 'someday' making a Will and remembering their particular parish church in it, but all too often just don't seem to get around to it! The intent of this rubric is that of reminding us of the importance of making adequate provision for our material possessions while we are still able to do so. As a loyal member of this parish, certainly one of the provisions of your Will ought to include Grace Church, so that future generations may find a strong and sound Grace Church in Mt. Airy, as we have found it to be! Think seriously about this rubric, and act upon it, won't you?

THE REVEREND RALPH W. BAYFIELD was ordained to the Priesthood at St. Paul's Church, Cleveland Heights, on Friday, November 20th. The Rev. Mr. Bayfield was ordained to the Diaconate here in Grace Church last May. He is the most recent of many fine young men of our parish who have entered the ministry in years past, and we fervently pray that Grace Church will always continue to give such capable men to the Priesthood of our Church in the years to come. We extend to Ralph our continued prayers and warmest congratulations, and to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bayfield, who are faithful members of this parish.

FOUR NEW COMMUNICANTS were added to our Register last Monday when the following persons were confirmed in the Bishop's Chapel at the Church House, Rittenhouse Square: Dorothy Horning Buehler, Charles Albert Buehler, Lillian Buehler Foulkrod, and Catherine Mary Costello. The Rector presented them for Confirmation and, on behalf of the whole parish, warmly welcomes them into full communicant status here at Grace Church, as well as into a deeper relationship with our parish family.

BOYS BETWEEN THE AGES OF 8 AND 12 NEEDED URGENTLY for the Choir of Grace Church!!! Rehearsals are scheduled weekly on Monday and Wednesday afternoons and Friday evenings. Transportation costs to and from rehearsals are provided by the Church, in addition to a small remuneration for services. And most important is the fine opportunity for the excellent training given each boy by Mr. Newell Robinson, our accomplished Organist and Choirmaster for many years! If you have a son in this age group, discuss this with him, and urge him to become a member of the Choir—it will be an experience he'll never regret.

SERVICEABLE FURNITURE IS NEEDED in the old Rectory which is now a part of our Parish House facilities. Such articles in good condition as rugs, chairs, tables, a refrigerator, etc., can be put to immediate use there. If you have anything in this category that you feel might be suitable, please check with the Church Office.

Sat. June 25 - Agnes & William Hackenberg, Wheelpump Lane, Zone 18

REMEMBER—SERVICES THIS SUNDAY ARE 7:30 A.M. & 10:00 A.M., and this Summer Schedule of Sunday Services will continue through Sept. 4th. During this period, the Holy Communion will be celebrated every Sunday at the early service and on the first and third Sundays at 10:00 A.M. We will return to our regular three-service schedule on Sunday, September 11th.

THE GRADUATING SENIORS, listed in last Sunday's service leaflet, also should have included the name of Miss Nancy C. Mutch, 345 E. Gowen Ave., who is a Church School teacher in our Primary Department. Due to her teaching duties in that area of our Church School, Nancy's name was mistakenly omitted from the Twelfth Grade roster when the graduating crosses were being presented. Nancy has now received her graduating cross which she most certainly has earned by her faithful teaching service in our Church School. Our sincere apologies for this unintentional error last Sunday.

ALTAR FLOWERS ARE NEEDED FOR THREE SUNDAYS during this summer period, our Altar Guild reports. These Sundays are:

July 17th---------August 14th--------August 21st

If you are desirous of having one of these Sundays put aside for you, so that you will have the memorial flowers placed on the Altar for a Sunday, please notify the Parish Office as soon as possible. These are the only open Sundays for the rest of this year.

A NEW PRIVATE COMMUNION SET WILL BE DEDICATED this coming Sunday at the 10:00 A.M. Service. This Communion Set is being given by Mrs. John B. Lownes in loving memory of her husband, Dr. John B. Lownes. This memorial gift will be used often in years to come for the purpose of taking the Holy Communion to the sick and shut-ins, and we are most grateful to Mrs. Lownes for this appropriate memorial.

THE RECTOR WILL BE AWAY FOR TWO WEEKS immediately following this coming Sunday's services, as he goes on active duty as an Army Reserve Chaplain and will be attending a training course at Ft. George Meade in Maryland. He will return to the parish on July 2nd. During his absence, The Rev. Douglas M. Spence, Assistant, will be in charge and should be contacted in the event of illness, death, or any emergency. If you are not able to reach Mr. Spence at the Parish Office, then call his home at CH 8-1274. Remember, too, that if you are ever unable to reach either the Rector or the Assistant in the event of an emergency, you are then directed to contact the Rector's Warden, Mr. Richard H. Brehm II, at GE 8-5055.

THE NURSERY WILL BE OPEN each Sunday this summer for the 10:00 A.M. Service and will be manned by volunteers so that parents and older children can attend the late service while the youngest ones are in the Nursery. Volunteers are needed to take charge of the Nursery on different Sundays throughout the summer—please call the Parish Office and tell what Sunday you'll be willing to give your services in the Nursery! You will not be expected to do it for more than the one Sunday you specify!

CONSTRUCTION OF A PERMANENT RECTOR'S OFFICE has just begun this week, in accordance with a decision of the Building Committee and the Vestry that such an office should be established now, before the major work of modernization of the Parish House and old Rectory buildings is undertaken. We have every hope that the latter work will be begun next year. The present work of making the front porch of the old Rectory building into the new Rector's Office will be completed this summer. The Rector feels this new office would make a most appropriate memorial for some member or members of the parish to give, and he would like to hear from anyone interested in this as soon as possible.

CALENDAR FOR THE COMING WEEK
(SEPTEMBER 18 TO 24)

(Sunday)—THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will meet at 7:30 P. M. in the Parish House Memorial Room for a business meeting to organize the various committees for the coming year's program. The first meeting of our Y. P. F. last Sunday evening was very well attended, and all young people are urged to be present at this next meeting to help get the Y. P. F. year off to an active start. Recreation and refreshments will follows.

(Tuesday)—THE BUILDING COMMITTEE will meet at 8:00 P. M. in the old Rectory building.

(Wednesday)—THE PARISH BAZAAR COMMITTEE will meet at 7:45 P. M. in the Parish House. Mr. Howard Foulkrod, Chairman, requests that all members of this committee be certain to attend this meeting, so that final plans can be made for the Parish Bazaar to be held here on November 11th and 12th.

(Thursday)—THE WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP, will meet in the Green Room following the 9:30 A. M. Holy Communion. As always, all women of the parish are cordially invited to attend the Day Group each Thursday. Please bring a sandwich for lunch; a beverage and dessert will be provided.

(Saturday)—THE NEW BOY SCOUT TROOP will meet at 9:30 A. M. in the Parish House. All boys, aged 11 and up, are invited to join.

KEEPING CHURCH RECORDS UP TO DATE is always a constant task in parish administration, and it becomes particularly important each fall as we resume our normal schedules of services and parish activities. During the summer months the members of the parish family usually become scattered, and now as we come back together again, we are aware that quite a few members have changed addresses, some have entered college, telephone numbers may be different, etc.

Since much research and work have been done during the past year to build accurate parish records, we are naturally anxious for your cooperation in helping us to keep them up to date. If, during the past few months, you have had any changes in address, telephone number, or if you have a son or daughter entering college or the service, please call the Parish Office at once to advise us of such changes!

Also, if you now regularly attend Grace Church but have never officially transferred here from your former parish, we shall be happy to assist you in writing for that transfer. The Parish Office is again open Monday through Friday, from 9:00 A. M. to 3:00 P. M.

THIS WEEKLY PARISH NEWS is meant to be an informative, interesting, and accurate means of communication from Grace Church to all her members over quite a wide area. Since a considerable amount of time and effort is involved each week in bringing this Parish News to publication and into your home, we certainly want it to be as effective as possible. Any suggestions for its continuing improvement will be appreciated and considered.

Notices from parish organizations on their various activities are always requested to be in writing for insertion in the Parish News so that the details of those events and activities may be accurately reported. Please remember that such information should be turned in to the Parish Office at least a week in advance! The Parish News goes to press each Monday prior to the Sunday for which it is intended.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL resumed last Sunday with registration of pupils after the opening Family Service. Despite the heavy rain, attendance was quite good, and 106 pupils were registered in the Church School. Of course, those who were not able to be present will be registered this Sunday as the Church School begins regular classes. Due to the increased interest and concern of many members, we are fortunate to have an excellent Church School Staff this year, with a teacher and observer for every class in our Church School! With such a dedicated group and the faithful attendance of each pupil, we need only the constant support and interest of every parent to realize here a most effective and vital program of Christian Education. Our deepest gratitude to all who are giving of themselves to make this possible.

RUMMAGE SALE ARTICLES are needed now for the forthcoming Rummage Sale next month which is sponsored by the Day Group. You are requested to bring such items to the Parish House anytime during the week, and please make sure that they are clearly marked for that purpose.

Tues. Sept. 27 — Frances & William Marshall, 39 Carpenter La., Zone 19
Fri. Sept. 30 — Edith & George Harbison, 511 E. Willow Grove Av., 18

THE PARISH COUNCIL will meet again this year on the first Monday of each month at 8:00 P. M. in the Parish House. The first meeting for the fall will take place on Monday, October 3d, and every parish organization is urged to make sure that a representative is appointed to attend the monthly meeting of the Parish Council regularly! The Parish Council, which came into being last year, has shown itself to be a most effective means of coordinating the various organizational activities with the total parish program, and we can continue to do this only if every organization is regularly represented at this monthly meeting.

A RUMMAGE SALE will be held here on Tuesday, October 18th, from 7:00 P. M. to 9:00 P. M., and also on Wednesday, October 19th, during the same hours. Every one is asked to help support The Women of Grace Church with this event. Bring your items marked "Rummage" to the old Rectory building week-days between 9:00 A. M. and 3:00 P. M., or they may be placed in the Parish House at other times. Please be sure they are marked for this purpose. The women will appreciate your help in this project.

NEW KNEELING CUSHIONS FOR THE SANCTUARY have been purchased through an anonymous gift to the Altar Guild, and they will be dedicated at the Thursday Holy Communion this week. These beautiful new cushions will be used along the Altar Rail and inside the Sanctuary, and we wish to thank the donor for the generosity that made this possible.

MARK DOWN THE DATE OF "LOYALTY SUNDAY" NOW, so you will be reminded of a very special and important appointment you have with Grace Church on Sunday, October 23d, at 11:00 A. M. As last year, we are making a special request that all members of Grace Church plan to attend that particular service that day, so that our annual Every Member Canvass may be accomplished in the most effective way possible. The response of our members to this request last year was most gratifying, and the result of our Church being filled with her dedicated and loyal members was a most inspiring and memorable experience for us all! We trust you will agree that this annual "Loyalty Sunday" service is important enough to the future of our parish, that you will consider your personal attendance on that date as the most important thing you will do on October 23d.

VOLUNTEER CANVASSERS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME for the Every Member Canvass each year, and we have posted a list on the bulletin board in the Parish House for the registration of all persons who would be willing to assist the Canvass Committee this year. All Canvassers are asked to attend only one meeting, Thursday evening, October 20th, at which time their duties are fully explained and the assignments given. We urge you to consider this request and then sign your name on this list next Sunday, or sometime the following week.

NOVEMBER'S "COUNTRY FAIR" is another important event coming up on our parish calendar, for this is the name of this year's all-parish Bazaar. This will be held on November 11th and 12th, and Chairman Howard Foulkrod reminds us that it's once again time for all of us to roll up our sleeves and get out those toys and 'white elephants' in our attics or basements, so they can be sold at this "Country Fair". Those members with toys to donate are asked to contact Mrs. Betty Heine at CH 7-0693. In the case of 'white elephants', please call Mrs. Dorothy Putney at AD 3-1422, or Mrs. Helen Elliott at AD 3-1485, or Mrs. Josephine Rockett at CH 8-2776. Those women who would like to sew for this event are asked to call Mrs. Anne Snyder at AD 3-2285. There's something for everyone to do, so let's all pitch in and make this Fair a credit to our parish.

Sat. Oct. 8 - Ruth and Edward Doelp, 1042 E. Gorgas Lane, Zone 50

THE NEW 'FORWARDS' FOR LATE TRINITY have arrived and will be found in the Tract Rack in the North Porch this coming Sunday. You are invited to take one of these excellent little devotional booklets along home with you, for your use there day by day. If you have a friend who is shut-in, please feel free to take along an extra copy for his or her use too. Contained in the Forward is a brief text and message for each day of the coming weeks before Advent, and the inspirational thoughts expressed therein are more than worth the few minutes it takes to read the one page for that day.

MANY MEMBERS HAVE ASKED recently about the prices of the many and various types of pamphlets and booklets found in our Tract Rack. Some of our members point out that in their travels to other churches over the summer months, the price of the pamphlet was marked on each one. We have chosen here not to do this, for our primary concern with these various informative materials is that anyone interested will feel free to select any of these to take home for careful reading and future reference. You may wish to make some sort of a small offering in the Tract Rack container from time to time to help cover the purchasing and mailing of these materials, but we emphasize again that there is no specific price set by us on any literature found in the Tract Rack. All we do ask is that you read carefully what you select, for many questions on the Church and the Christian Faith will be clearly answered and discussed by competent authorities in these areas.

BOYS ARE NEEDED FOR OUR CHOIR, and our Organist and Choirmaster, Mr. Newell Robinson, asks that any interested boys from 8 to 10 years of age please contact him personally, or call the Parish Office, in the immediate future. Choir rehearsals for this group are held on Monday and Wednesday afternoon each week. Parents of boys in this age group are earnestly requested to discuss this possibility with them. From past experience, we can sincerely recommend the excellent training these boys receive under Mr. Robinson's most capable supervision, and we would hope that no boy in this age group fails to take advantage of this existing opportunity to serve Grace Church in this very special way.

THE PARISH COUNCIL will hold its first meeting of the year on Monday, October 3d, at 8:00 P. M. in the Parish House. It is most important that every parish organization have a representative present at this meeting. This council has proved to be a most effective means of coordinating the total activities of the parish, but this effectiveness depends upon full representation at these monthly meetings!

ALL WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH are invited to lend a hand in preparing for November's "Country Fair." Every Wednesday from 11:00 A. M. to 3:00 P. M. a group is meeting in the Parish House to help make items to be sold at the Fair. Any woman who can sew, knit, etc., is cordially invited to join with this group. Bring your lunch with you; coffee, etc. will be furnished.

A REMINDER — THE "LOYALTY SUNDAY" SERVICE will be held in Grace Church on Sunday, October 23d, at 11:00 A. M. Every member of Grace Church is asked to be present at this Service.

VOLUNTEER CANVASSERS are needed for the Every-Member Canvass. Due to the size of our parish, it would be difficult to acquire the necessary number of canvassers through personal contact, and thus we must depend to a great extent on volunteers. Please sign the list on the bulletin board in the Parish House if you are willing to assist the Canvass Committee this year.

Thurs. Oct. 13 - Annetta & Walter Whitehead, 107 Chesney Lane, Zone 18
Fri. Oct. 14 - Elizabeth and Harold Bird, 317 E. Gorgas Lane, Zone 19

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will attend a District Youth Meeting this Sunday, October 9th, from 3:00 P. M. to 7:30 P. M., at St. Martin's-in-the-Fields, Chestnut Hill. Our Y. P. F. will meet here at our Church at 2:30 P. M. before leaving for the meeting. Please bring a box lunch, but a beverage and dessert will be provided at St. Martin's. The registration fee will be 25 cents. The theme of this district gathering will be, "Visions in the Light of Our Decisions." All young people are invited. There will be no regular meeting here this Sunday evening.

THE BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB will begin their monthly meetings on Monday, October 17th, in the Parish House. The meeting at 8:00 P. M. will be preceded by dinner here at 6:30 P. M. Call Miss Elizabeth Eynon at AD 3-3107 before October 13th for reservations. After the business meeting, Miss Ann Kaufmann will show her pictures of the Far East. The following officers were elected for 1960-61: President, Mrs. C. Taylor Ward; Vice President, Miss Mary Leopold; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Bertha K. Hazzard; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Edna Hughes; Treasurer, Miss Florence Fitzpatrick.

REMEMBER THE BIG RUMMAGE SALE to be held in the Parish House on Tuesday, October 18th, and Wednesday, October 19th. The hours of the sale on both days will be the same, 7:00 P. M. to 9:00 P. M. The Women of Grace Church ask for everyone's support of this project. Bring your items to either building here, and please make sure they are marked "Rummage." Don't delay, for there is very little time left before the Rummage Sale.

"LOYALTY SUNDAY," OCTOBER 23rd, is now only a little more than two weeks away. As you know, we have emphasized this date frequently during the past month, and with good reason, for the success of this great day in our parish calendar depends upon each one of YOU in a very real way! Your attendance at the 11:00 A. M. Service on October 23rd is most important for you, your fellow-parishioners, and the future of our whole parish, and we urge you to allow no other plans to interfere with your being present with us here in Grace Church that day.

The Loyalty Sunday method of conducting our annual Every Member Canvass is well named, for on this Sunday we ask all members to give active witness to their loyalty to Grace Church in two ways:

(1) By being present in the Church for that 11:00 A. M. Service.

(2) By making a pledge of financial support to Grace Church for 1961.

You may wonder why we urge all members to attend that same 11:00 A. M. Service on Loyalty Sunday, when, of course, we shall have the two earlier services that day as we do each Sunday. The reason is simply that, in a parish this size, all of us seldom have the opportunity to gather together for worship as one complete parish family. When we are able to do this, it is usually a very memorable and moving experience, and Loyalty Sunday each year not only gives us this opportunity, but it also provides us with a most dedicated purpose as we corporately offer up to God our individual gifts in gratitude for what He has given each of us. Therefore, if it is your practice to attend one of the earlier services here each Sunday, please do so on October 23rd as well, but also plan to return and attend the 11:00 Loyalty Service with your fellow-members of this parish.

THE CHAIRMAN OF OUR 'COUNTRY FAIR,' Mr. Howard Foulkrod, urges all members not to overlook those books they may have in basements or attics, for if they are no longer being used, the Men's Club needs them very much for their booth at the November 'Country Fair.' If you have any books to donate for this, please call Mr. Harry Taylor at CH 7-8251, and arrangements will be made to pick them up. Remember the 'Country Fair' dates, November 11th and 12th.

Tues. Oct. 18 - Mae and Reginald Hardy, 505 Murdoch Road, Zone 19
Sat. Oct. 22 - Viola and Richard Brehm, Scotforth Road, Zone 19

DON'T FORGET THE RUMMAGE SALE this Tuesday and Wednesday in the Parish House Memorial Room. This Rummage Sale is again sponsored by the Women of Grace Church and is one of their major projects each year. The sale will be held from 7:00 P. M. until 9:30 P. M. on both Tuesday and Wednesday. The women hope for the support of all members of the parish, both in donating items to be sold at the Rummage Sale and in attending one of those two evenings. If you still have something to give for this event, please see that those items are brought in as soon as possible.

"OPERATION LAMP-LIGHT" STARTS THIS THURSDAY, October 20th, and all members of Grace Church are urged to participate. For the next eight weeks, this operation will provide an excellent refresher course of religious instruction for all interested people throughout the whole Diocese of Pennsylvania. The purpose of this instruction will be to stimulate the spiritual life of each layman so that he can talk intelligently and helpfully with others about his Church, as well as apply what he learns at these sessions to his business, social, church, and family life. This eight-week course is open to all parishioners, the men, women, and teen-agers of every parish in the Diocese. Many of us feel a great lack of understanding about our Church and our Faith, and this "Operation Lamp-Light" provides us with an excellent opportunity to improve greatly our knowledge of this important area of our lives.

Along with other parishes in this area, Grace Church has been assigned to the sessions of instruction to be given at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Glenside. Starting this Thursday, we are to attend the session there from 8:00 to 10:00 P. M., and the course will continue there for the next seven Thursday evenings at the same hours. St. Peter's, as the host parish, would like to know how many are coming from each parish in this area, and members of Grace Church are asked to call our own Parish Office to make a registration for this course as soon as possible! There is also a registration sheet on our Parish House bulletin board which you may sign anytime during the week. You are urged to attend this course regularly, for you will find it most rewarding and stimulating. There is no cost to register or attend.

REMEMBER "LOYALTY SUNDAY" IS OCTOBER 23rd AT GRACE CHURCH, and your attendance at the 11:00 A. M. Every Member Canvass Service that day is of the utmost importance to you and your parish! By the time you read this Parish News, you will have received a reminder of this date from our Every Member Canvass Chairman, Mr. W. Willis Gilmore. Within another few days, you will also receive a very informative brochure which is designed to acquaint you in every detail of your parish's progress in the year past and the plans for the year to come. Read it carefully and thoughtfully, for a vital part of that report is you and your share in this parish. After you've read it, please take a few minutes to think seriously of your share in Grace Church for the year ahead. Then make definite plans to be with all of us at 11:00 A. M. on October 23rd!!

A MEETING FOR ALL CANVASSERS will be held Thursday, October 20, at 8:00 P. M. in the Green Room. Since this is the only meeting prior to Loyalty Sunday, we emphasize that all canvassers must be present, so that they can receive their assignments and understand thoroughly the procedures to follow.

THE NOVEMBER "COUNTRY FAIR" needs donated jams, jellies, and conserves. If you have same, contact Mrs. Walton at CH 7-1216, Mrs. Thompson at VI 4-0768, or Mrs. Josephs at CH 7-0932. Also, Miss Townsend needs aprons and pin bags for that booth, and anyone wishing to help in this should call her at VI 4-5294.

"EVERY MEMBER IN GRACE CHURCH AT 11:00 A.M. THIS SUNDAY."

THE LOYALTY SUNDAY SERVICE AT 11:00 A. M. this Sunday is one of the major services of the year in Grace Church, just as it was year. For this is the day of our annual Every Member Canvass, a have every good reason to know that the most effective and intelligent way to conduct this annual Canvass is by some one who is a member at the 11:00 A. M. service of Church worship next to our Church.

The testimony of Loyalty Sunday is this annual way of [illegible] Member Canvass is given wisely, by every Vital parish must know to [illegible] how many loyal and [illegible] members are on hand [illegible] at the strengthening of [illegible] week as a local, national, and [illegible] personal level. A 'growing' parish is [illegible] one that grows in [illegible] or [illegible] numerically, unless [illegible] one whose members [illegible] daily. Your whole [illegible] that the parish of Grace Church will [illegible] as immediate concern with that [illegible] Every Member Canvass [illegible] fail. It does not have to [illegible] it is common that [illegible] Every Member Canvass [illegible] some one [illegible] fear. So it is common that any Every Member Canvass [illegible] When this happens, the [illegible] of the annual [illegible] the pastor, [illegible] and [illegible] Grace Church, Mt. Airy, [illegible] members to attend this [illegible] (Sunday morning) for [illegible] the presentation of the Loyalty [illegible] at 11:00 A. M. this Sunday, [illegible] the pledge to take [illegible] of this forthcoming [illegible] to your parish for the [illegible] year. It also [illegible] of us will join [illegible] and [illegible] these new pledges, we all have taken another [illegible] one sense of that word.

In the few days remaining before Loyalty Sunday, [illegible] will give some [illegible] Canvass Workers are [illegible] to the work, [illegible] all give some [illegible] any [illegible] Stone [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES IN THE PARISH THIS WEEK

Sun. Oct. 30 - Elizabeth & Charles Carrigan, 7811 Crefeld St., Zone 18
Fri. Nov. 4 - Marguerite & George Kingeter, 7838 Fayette St., Zone 50

IF YOU HAVE NOT YET MADE YOUR 1961 PLEDGE to Grace Church, we urge your consideration in doing so as soon as possible! If you were not able to attend the Loyalty Sunday Service last week to present your pledge in person, your Canvasser should have contacted you by the time you receive this Parish News for the purpose of seeing that you receive a pledge card to be filled in and returned. You may return this card by placing it on the offering plate at any service this Sunday, or you may mail it directly to the Every Member Canvass Chairman, Mr. W. Willis Gilmore. Please let us know if you have not been contacted by the Canvasser by this Sunday.

Your kind cooperation last year enabled us to bring that Every Member Canvass to a rapid and successful conclusion, and we want very much to see the same results again this year. Our Canvass Committee has worked hard in preceding weeks to make this possible, and nothing is more frustrating or discouraging to all concerned than to see an Every Member Canvass lag and take many weeks to complete, when, with the prompt cooperation of all concerned members, it can be concluded in one week! Help this happen in Grace Church—BRING OR SEND IN YOUR 1961 PLEDGE THIS WEEK!!!

REMEMBER TO BRING THOSE COIN BANKS to the Monthly Luncheon of The Women of Grace Church, Day Group, next Thursday, November 3. The women of the parish are reminded that, in returning these Coin Banks, it's that little extra that does so much! If you find you will be unable to attend on Thursday, your bank may be put on the offering plate on Sunday, or you may mail it to Mrs. Mae Hartley, 6849 Ogontz Ave., Zone 38, or to Mrs. Newell Robinson, 7319 Oak Lane Road, Zone 26, or to Miss Gertrude Knapp, 7222 Sprague St., Zone 19.

THE PARISH INGATHERING of the United Thank Offering will be held on Sunday, November 6th, at the 11:00 A. M. Service. Alms basins will be at the Rood Screen, and the blue envelopes may be placed in these as we go to the Altar in thanksgiving to make our Communions. The U. T. O. Chairman, Mrs. George Rockett, informs us that the Diocesan Presentation will be held on Wednesday, November 16th, at 8:00 P. M. in the Church of the Holy Trinity.

A QUIET MORNING FOR ALL WOMEN of the parish will take place in the Church on Thursday, November 10th, from 10:00 A. M. until Noon. This will follow the regular 9:30 A. M. Holy Communion that day, and all women who plan to be present for the Quiet Morning should first attend that Holy Communion in preparation for that quiet period. The meditations will be led by The Rev. Christopher J. Atkinson, Rector of St. Faith's, Brookline. Fr. Atkinson is a most gifted leader of quiet periods, and the Day Group urges all women not to miss this splendid opportunity for a morning of spiritual refreshment and meditation.

THE GRACE CHURCH "COUNTRY FAIR" is now only two weeks away, and all indications are that it will be a gala event indeed. Mr. Howard Foulkrod, the Chairman, and his committee have put in a tremendous amount of time and effort to make this possible, and the whole-hearted support of all parishioners is a must for the success of this event. From the cooks and bakers in the parish we need cakes, cookies, pies, homemade candy and fudge. If you will donate anything in the way of baked goods, please call Mrs. Edith Harbison at AD 3-0676, or Mrs. Lewis at GE 8-9465. For candy donations, please call Mrs. Josephine Horrisberger at CH 7-1578. Another pressing need is for all books you no longer need or use, to be sold at the Men's Club booth. Please call Mr. Harry Taylor on this and he will gladly make arrangements to pick them up at your place.

We hear that Coupon Book sales are moving along nicely. Many of us will want additional books at that saving for use at the "Country Fair" here on November 11th & 12th, and these may be secured by calling Mrs. Mildred Ninos at CH 7-4763.

THE FALL PARISH INGATHERING of the United Thank Offering by the women of the parish will take place at the 11:00 A. M. Service this Sunday, November 6th. We will have offering plates placed at the Rood Screen, and the women are asked to put their blue envelopes in these as they go to the Altar for Holy Communion. By doing this, our women share in the United Thank Offering with all women of the Episcopal Church throughout the country, and this gift of thankfulness is put to use for God's work all over the world. If you are unable to attend this service on Sunday, you may mail your envelope to our U. T. O. Custodian, Mrs. George Rockett, 8208 Douglas Rd., Phila. 18. The Diocesan Presentation will be held at 8:00 P. M., November 16th, at Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia.

THE DAY GROUP'S RUMMAGE SALE two weeks ago was most successful, and Mrs. George R. Kingeter, Jr., Chairman, and her committee members, wish to thank the members of the Church and their friends for those generous contributions to that sale. Also, their very special thanks to the Husbands who stood by nobly and helped in so many ways.

HEIGH-HO! COME TO THE FAIR... The crispness of autumn and the smell of burning leaves remind us that the Grace Church "Country Fair" is close at hand. There is work aplenty for all, and the hustle and bustle indicates lots of good things for all of you. Don't disappoint us! Remember the dates:

Friday, November 11th .... 7:30 P. M. to 10:00 P. M.
Saturday, November 12th...10:00 A. M. to 5:00 P. M.

Anyone wishing to donate things to be sold for this bazaar (books, white elephants, toys, etc.), please call the Parish Office, CH 8-2950, on this day—Tuesday, November 8th—and arrangements will be made to pick up such items that same day. Also, please send in the money for the coupon books, or return them here by November 8th, so the committee can get the records in order before the "Country Fair" begins.

NOTE: A SQUARE DANCE, sponsored by our Y. P. F., for all members of the parish will be held here the following Saturday, November 19th. Please keep this date open! Complete details in next week's Parish News.

THE ELECTION OF A BISHOP COADJUTOR for our Diocese of Pennsylvania will be held in Holy Trinity this coming Monday, November 7th, and Grace Church's three lay delegates, Messers Bond, Gilmore, and Tattersfield, will be in attendance with the rector. Provision for this election was made at the 176th Convention of the Diocese last May. This coming election is a most important concern of every Episcopalian in this Diocese, and Bishop Hart has Authorized this prayer for use in every parish:

"Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who knowest the needs of Thy Church in every place; look graciously, at this time, upon the people of this Diocese, and so guide and govern the clergy and laity, that they may faithfully and wisely make choice of a fit person to serve as Bishop Coadjutor; and to him who shall be ordained to this holy function, give Thy grace and heavenly benediction that he may serve before Thee in all diligence and lowliness of heart, and, by Thy blessing, bring many souls to the joys of Thy eternal kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

OUR VERY ACTIVE BOY SCOUT TROOP has already had its first overnight camping trip, along with the boys of neighboring Troop 388, and we hear that everyone had a grand time. If you have a boy eleven years old or more, urge him to join our Troop 319 so he can participate in the wholesome Scouting experiences planned for the future. Troop 319 meets every Saturday from 9:30 to 11:00 A. M. in the Memorial Room.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES IN THE PARISH THIS WEEK

Tues. Nov. 15 - Margaret & George Gawthrop, 113 W. Mt. Airy Ave., 19
Sat. Nov. 19 - Evelyn & William Widmer, 50 W. Rockland St., Zone 44
Sat. Nov. 19 - Josephine & Henry Schimpf, 7100 McCallum St., Zone 19

ADVANCE NOTICE — THE BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB will have their regular monthly meeting on November 21st preceded by dinner at 6:30 P.M. For reservations to the dinner, please call Miss Elizabeth Eynon, Ad 3-3107, by Thursday, November 17th. After the business meeting, Mr. Spence will talk on his travels and work in the Near East.

REMEMBER THE SQUARE DANCE next Saturday, November 19th, in our Parish House from 8:00 P.M. to 11:00 P.M. This Square Dance is being sponsored by our Y.P.F. and is really a sequel to this week's "Country Fair," since the funds raised by the dance will be included with the proceeds from the all-parish bazaar. A professional caller will be in charge and we are urged to point out that this Square Dance is for all ages! Refreshments will be available, the decorations from the "Country Fair" will remain up for this festive evening, and casual clothing is the order of the night. All in all, it promises to be a most enjoyable evening for all members of the parish. Tickets at $1.00 per person or $1.75 per couple are available from any member of the Y.P.F., or they can be purchased at the door that evening.

THE ANNUAL CLOTHING DRIVE of the United Church Women of Chestnut Hill and vicinity (for the Church World Service) will take place on Sunday, November 27th, from 2:00 to 4:00 P.M. Please save your clothing, shoes, bedding, soap, and pieces of material. Wrap and put bundles on your doorstep—they will be collected on November 27th if you live in the area bounded by Mermaid Lane, Towanda, Northwestern Ave., and Stenton Ave. If you live outside this area, please bring bundles to the Acme parking lot, Bethlehem Pike and Germantown Ave., between the hours above. Donations of cash are also needed to cover cost of shipment.

BOY SCOUT TROOP 319 was presented with a new American flag last Saturday by the Regent of the local chapter of the D.A.R., Mrs. Watson Scarborough, with Mrs. Albert Brand in attendance as a member of that chapter and also our parish. Witnessing this presentation, in addition to the boys of the troop, were the Scoutmaster, Assistant Scoutmaster, the Institutional Representative, members of the Troop Committee, and the rector. All are most grateful to the D.A.R. for their generosity.

Grace Church is proud to be the sponsoring institution for this newly formed Troop 319 which, for the moment, is a fairly small but very active troop, full of spirit and enthusiasm. All boys from eleven years and up are urged to join now and participate in this activity. Our parish can also be justly proud of the many men who, out of sincere interest and dedicated concern for a Boy Scout Troop in our own parish, have stepped forward to assist in the guidance and leadership of Troop 319. They are —

Scoutmaster: William Widner — Ass't Scoutmaster: Robert Hewitt
Institutional Representative: Arthur Parkinson
Troop Committee Chairman: Richard Furman
Secretary & Treasurer: William Scheib
Other Troop Committee Members:
— H. Heine, K. Wood, W. Josephs, W. Koffel Sr. and R. Kaller —

Much initial help and valuable guidance was given by another member of our parish, Vincent Pasceri, Troop 388 Scoutmaster, which aided all of us in our troop's formation. All of these men are members of Grace Church. To them, and to all members of our concerned Vestry who readily gave permission for this troop's formation, Grace Church is grateful!

COME AND HEAR DR. SAMUEL SHOEMAKER at the opening meeting of the annual Layman's Week in Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square, on Monday, November 21, at 8:00 P.M. Dr. Shoemaker is the well-known rector of Calvary Church, Pittsburgh, and the author of many inspiring books on the Christian Faith. He will speak on the layman's obligation in daily life with a realistic and forthright approach you will long remember. All members of every parish are invited. Don't miss this!

(Sunday)—THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will attend a "Square Dance" at St. Thomas', Whitemarsh. They will meet at Grace Church at 6:30 P.M.

(Monday)—THE BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB will have their regular monthly meeting preceded by dinner at 6:30 P.M. Following the business meeting they will have as their speaker at 8:00 P.M. Mr. Spence who will talk on his experiences, etc. in the Near East. All women are cordially invited.

(Tuesday)—"COUNTRY FAIR" COMMITTEE will meet in the Parish House at 8:00 P.M. to close-up the bazaar for this year. All members are urged to attend so the grand total may be announced.
Note: Any children in the Church School that still have some of the stationery, please return it or the money for same as soon as possible.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES IN THE PARISH THIS WEEK

Mon., Nov. 21 - Evelyn & Herman Frank, 1096 Randolph Road, Meadowbrook, Pa.
Tues., Nov. 22 - Helen & Leon Tyler, 5436-A Hermit Terrace, Zone 28
Sat., Nov. 26 - Ruth & Gordan Crosby, 600 E. Allens Lane, Zone 19

SPECIAL CHURCH SCHOOL NOTE FOR THIS COMING SUNDAY...Our Church School children, for many years now, have given Jams and Jellies to All Saints Hospital in Chestnut Hill, and Apples to the House of Rest, Germantown, on the Sunday preceding Thanksgiving. The people at both these places are always most appreciative of our contributions toward making their Thanksgiving Day more complete.

This coming Sunday, November 20th, is the day that all Church School children are to bring their contributions to the Family Service at 9:15 A.M. Children of the Kindergarten and Primary are asked to bring the apples, and those in 4th Grade and up are asked to bring a jar of jam or jelly to the service. The gifts will be delivered later on Sunday.

TWO PARISHIONERS DEPARTED THIS LIFE last week. Lillian M. Brooke died at Pennsylvania Hospital on Thursday, November 10th, and was buried from Grace Church on Monday, November 14th, at 2:00 P.M. She last resided at the Chatham Apartments, 20th and Walnut Streets. Albert C. Brand, a Vestryman of this parish for the past 33 years, died at All Saints' Hospital last Saturday, November 12th. The Burial Office was held in Grace Church last Tuesday, November 15th, at 10:00 A.M. Mr. Brand resided at 301 E. Durham St. in Mt. Airy. He was the senior member of our present Vestry, both in years of service and in age. Both of these members were faithful communicants of Grace Church for many years. While we shall surely miss them here, we rejoice in the good examples they have set for us to follow, and we know that Almighty God has called them both to a larger life of more perfect service with Him.

PLAN TO ATTEND HOLY TRINITY CHURCH, Rittenhouse Square, next Monday at 8:00 P.M. for the opening meeting of Episcopal Laymen's Week. The date is November 21st, and the inspiring speaker of the evening will be The Rev. Samuel M. Shoemaker, Rector of Calvary Church, Pittsburgh. Many of you know Dr. Shoemaker from his many popular writings and books on the Christian faith, and he is one of our Church's outstanding dynamic preachers of today. Everyone is invited to attend Monday evening, and we urge you not to miss this opportunity to hear Dr. Shoemaker's prescription for the spiritual anemia of modern, everyday life.

OUR FESTIVE "COUNTRY FAIR" LAST WEEK was indeed a most successful all-parish event, and the many people who attended on Friday and Saturday were constant in their praises of all those who had worked long and faithfully to make this bazaar such an attractive and enjoyable one. Regardless of what the final accounting reveals as to the financial returns, this year's parish bazaar, as last year's, was a tremendous success, in that it gave all of us a splendid opportunity to come together informally in an atmosphere of warmth and friendliness. Nothing is more encouraging to your rector and others than this aspect of the parish family of Grace Church—that we enjoy being with one another in all phases of our parish program, be it worship, work, study, or recreation. May this grand spirit always characterize the members of Grace Church and all that they do together!

Some of us may not be fully aware of the tremendous amount of time and effort that goes into the building and execution of such an all-parish event as this recent "Country Fair." It involves much advance planning and the loyal cooperation of all concerned. The names of all those who gave so unselfishly of their time, talents, labors, and contributions are far too many to be listed here, and the wonderful thing about them all is that they have given these services, not for the sake of public credit, but as free-will offerings to God through His Church. So to each one of them, through their splendid chairman this year, Mr. Howard Foulkrod, all grateful members of the parish join in hearty congratulations and sincere thanks for a good job well done!

REMEMBER THE CLOTHING DRIVE of the United Church Women of Chestnut Hill for the Church World Service on Sunday, November 27th, 2:00 to 4:00 P.M. Please consult last week's Parish News for the complete details.

OUR 1961 EVERY MEMBER CANVASS CLOSES SUNDAY, November 27, and we urge all members who have not yet turned in their pledges for next year to do so before that date!! Your Vestry cannot plan effectively for 1961 until your pledge is in. Please give prayerful consideration toward increasing your pledge, so that the growing needs and larger opportunities of your parish may be met adequately in the coming year.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES IN THE PARISH THIS WEEK

Tues., Nov. 29 - Gertrude & Edward Webb, 6835 Gorsten Street, Zone 19

OUR 1961 EVERY MEMBER CANVASS CLOSES THIS SUNDAY, November 27th, and at that time a final tabulation will be made by the Canvass Committee of the pledges for the coming year. This must be done at that time so that your Vestry may have the closing weeks of this year to plan a realistic and accurate budget for Grace Church to follow through 1961. As you may or may not know, your Vestry does not plan and adopt a parish budget before our Every Member Canvass each year, for it would be most impractical to do so until the Canvass officially closes and it is known what our expected income will be for the coming year. In a very real sense, therefore, the 1961 pledge of each member of this parish helps to determine just what our parish budget shall be for the year ahead. What the budget of Grace Church can be for any given year is directly related to what our pledges enable it to be!

Mr. W. Willis Gilmore, Every Member Canvass Chairman, informs me that, as of this writing, there are still some members of Grace Church that have not sent in their 1961 pledges. If you consider yourself a concerned and loyal member of this parish, I'm sure you can see from the above paragraph why it is so important to you and your parish that the pledges of all such members be received by this coming Sunday. Certainly in the five weeks that have now passed since Loyalty Sunday, all of us have had more than ample opportunity to consider prayerfully the matter of our 1961 pledges to Grace Church and to take action in presenting them. If you have not done so, please let us hear from you by this coming Sunday at the latest!! And remember that God's work through this parish can only be as effective as your continued and faithful support help make it so!

NOTE: For those persons who have just recently affiliated with Grace Church and were not therefore contacted in our Every Member Canvass, there are pledge cards available in the Tract Rack of the North Porch. These may be put in the offering plates on Sunday.

HAVE YOU A SON OR DAUGHTER at college or in the service whose name is not listed below? If so, please notify the rector in that case and give him the name and address of your son or daughter, for he is interested in seeing that contact is maintained with such members of the parish while they are away from this parish area. Our present list of those away at college includes: Marilyn Clapham, Suzanne Widmer, William Widmer III, Nydia Pasceri, John Maine, Meade Rose, Charles Smith, L. Beatrice Benner, Pamela Chicone, Hilton Gieseke, Judith Tattersfield, Douglas Marshall, Thomas Dingle, John Dingee, Jr., Paul Hardy, Sandra Hampson, Janet Berry, James Trout. Those in the service are: John F. Horrisberger, Jr. (Navy), Robert C. McGrory (Air Force), and C. Edmunds Rhoad (Air Force).
Our weekly Parish News is being sent regularly to all persons listed above, so that they may remain informed as to the news and activities of their parish during the periods they are away from Grace Church. Please let us know of any others that ought to be included in this weekly communication. We are looking forward to seeing many of these members again when they return home for the forthcoming holidays.

OPERATION LAMP-LIGHT CONTINUES each Thursday at 8:00 P.M. at St. Peter's Church, Glenside, with an excellent program of religious instruction open to all interested persons. The last session will take place on December 15th. Some members of Grace Church have been attending regularly since the first session in October. If you have not yet been able to be present, you are still most welcome to attend the remaining ones, and you will surely find these evenings most informative and stimulating.

BOY SCOUT TROOP 319 RECEIVES ITS CHARTER this coming Sunday at the 9:15 A.M. Service, and Grace Church, as the sponsoring institution, rejoices with those of the troop on this important occasion. Present will be the boys, leaders, members of the Troop Committee, Institutional Representative, a representative of the Philadelphia Council, and friends of Scouting. We hope you'll be present to show these people that Grace Church is certainly proud of her new troop and that we support their efforts in furthering the worthy principles and goals of the Scouting movement.

Wed. Dec. 7 - Barbara & Reginald Lowe, 135 E. Mt. Airy Ave., Zone 19

ONE OF OUR COLLEGE STUDENTS was inadvertently omitted from last week's list in the Parish News. Miss Alice F. Rittenhouse is a student at the University of Delaware, and she has been receiving the Parish News regularly. We are pleased that this omission was called to our attention, and we urge all parents to check last week's list to make certain that the name of any son or daughter in college or in the service is included. Please call the Parish Office with any such information, as well as for any future changes of address.

OUR RECENT PARISH BAZAAR, the "Country Fair" of two weeks ago, was certainly a festive occasion which was enjoyed by all who attended it. Mr. Howard Foulkrod, the chairman, now reports that the net proceeds of that event have amounted to $1,320.00. This represents an increase over last year's bazaar, and all of us are encouraged by this report, since a great amount of time and effort is given by many members each year to make this parish event the delightful experience it is and should be for all members of our parish family who enjoy getting together in an informal setting. Our only regret is that not all members of Grace Church found it possible to attend and share in this year's "Country Fair" and Square Dance, for they missed a grand time, and we missed them! Once again, Grace Church is most thankful to all who helped so faithfully to make this a success.

THE 1961 EVERY MEMBER CANVASS, which was concluded last Sunday, shows that as of that day, we have received pledges totalling $43,934.00 toward the support of Grace Church in the coming year. Our E. M. C. Chairman, W. Willis Gilmore, reports that this figure is about nine hundred dollars below what it was a year ago at this time! While your Canvass Committee and your rector are disappointed that we cannot report a substantial increase, as we did last year, we are still encouraged to learn that many members of this parish did increase their pledges for 1961, and some of these did so quite substantially. The fact that the over-all total of 1961 pledges is not presently as large as it should be, is explained partially by the report, in that there are still quite a number of communicants from whom a 1961 pledge has not yet been received! Also, the deaths of a number of our faithful communicants this past year is obviously another part of this picture.

While your rector is quite hopeful that we will still equal or slightly exceed last year's pledging by the time 1960 ends, the point that deeply disturbs him is that the total giving of this parish is still much below what it is capable of giving. The goal of every member of Grace Church, in this area of pledging, ought to be that of becoming a tithing Christian! This is certainly the hope and prayer of the rector for his people here, as each member of this parish surely knows by this time. When Grace Church becomes a family of tithing Christians, and when all of us do this freely out of our love and gratitude to Almighty God, then nothing can be impossible for Grace Church as a dedicated people in His Service! It is true that we have been going forward in many phases of our parish life together, and I trust it has been to the glory of God, but it will be a tragic day for us and our parish when we come to feel that it is sufficient for us to stand still as givers for the spread of His Kingdom here on earth. Let's make certain that this never happens at Grace Church!!!

IT IS IMPERATIVE that every parish organization be represented at next Monday's Parish Council meeting in the Green Room! Not only have we much to discuss concerning the coming Christmas season here, but there also will be very important planning for the early part of next year.

C. Edmunds Rhoad ..... 2/Lt., U. S. Air Force

The above list, with complete mailing addresses, will be posted on the parish bulletin board in the hallway of the Parish House. It will remain there for future reference, and we hope that the persons listed there, or their parents, will keep us advised promptly of any future changes of address, so that the weekly Parish News may continue to reach them. The rector hopes to see most of the above persons in Grace Church during the coming Christmas season; to those who will not be able to come home this year, he sends the prayers and best wishes of the parish for a blessed Christmastide!

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP is looking for members of our parish who would be willing to speak to the Y.P.F. members some Sunday evening on an interesting hobby they have or on some aspect of their career or profession. They are particularly interested in setting up a program in which people representing different professional or occupational spheres would speak on the subject of "Christian Principles As Applied To My Career." Anyone interested in helping out with this program in any way is urged to please contact Mr. Spence!

CHRISTMAS COMMUNION WILL BE TAKEN TO THE SICK AND SHUT-IN on the first two days after Christmas. As always, it is important for you to let us know, as soon as possible, of any communicant who will be unable to come to one of the Christmas celebrations of Holy Communion here in Grace Church! Every Episcopalian should make a Christmas Communion, and if any person is physically unable to come to church that day, then your parish has made provision for bringing the Sacrament to a home or hospital. Please call the Parish Office about such persons, so that a schedule of calls may be set up for December 26th and 27th.

WOULD YOU BE INTERESTED in the formation of an Adult Study Group next January? This group would meet monthly in an informal atmosphere, in one of the homes, for the purpose of group discussion about any questions or thoughts in the areas of the Christian Faith, with particular emphasis on relating the same to our own lives. If you want to hear more about this, please add your name to the list on the Parish House bulletin board.

SINCE CHRISTMAS FALLS ON A SUNDAY THIS YEAR,

PLEASE NOTE CAREFULLY THE HOURS OF OUR CHRISTMAS SERVICES.

LET'S MAKE IT A FAMILY NIGHT when we decorate the Church this Sunday evening for Christmas. Mr. William Josephs is again in charge of this project and will be assisted by members of our Y. P. F., but we'd also like to have any other individuals, parents, and children who can make it. The decorating will start at 6:00 P. M., but if you find that you cannot arrive that early, please feel free to join us later that evening. We do need your help, for the decorating of our large Church takes quite some time. Refreshments will be served later in the Parish House, and any who care to remain are invited to view the Y. P. F. film that evening. This is always an enjoyable event, and we'll hope to have you with us this Sunday.

THE 1961 OFFERING ENVELOPES ARE NOW READY. They are arranged alphabetically in the Tower Room, and you are requested to take yours home with you after next Sunday's Service. If you do not find a set there assigned to you, please let us know immediately. Also, we have still not heard from some members of Grace Church as to their pledges for the coming year. If you are one of these, we urge you to give this matter your immediate attention, for we would much appreciate receiving these before the end of the year!

THE CHURCH SCHOOL CHRISTMAS PAGEANT will again take place at the Church at 3:30 P. M. on December 24th. Every Church School pupil is reminded to bring a suitable gift to that pageant, and these gifts will be brought to the Creche during that service. As last year, these gifts will go to the many needy boys and girls at St. John's Settlement House in Philadelphia. You are asked to make this a personal gift, thinking of how the boy or girl receiving it may feel, and what would be the best gift for him or her. Suggested gifts are mittens, sweaters, books, toys, etc. Bring this gift marked for a boy or a girl and the approximate age for whom it is intended.

NOTE: This Church School Pageant is a brief but beautiful drama, and it is hoped that all members of Grace Church will attend that afternoon, for these 45 minutes provide all of us with a needed opportunity to prepare ourselves for the Christmas Communion we come to receive here at one of the three services for that purpose.

DO NOT FAIL TO MAKE YOUR CHRISTMAS COMMUNION at one of the three Christmas celebrations of Holy Communion in Grace Church!! (These are listed on the preceding page, and it is recommended that you retain this copy for future reference, since next week's Parish News may be quite late, due to the jam of Christmas mail in the Post Office.) Your Christmas can hardly be any more than a merely secular festival if you fail to attend your Church on this great Christian festival. Except for the reason of illness, no Episcopalian should be absent from his Church that day. For it is a poor Episcopalian and a poor Christian who remains home and does not come to God's House to thank him for the Birth of His Son, and our Saviour, Jesus Christ! Make your attendance at one of these Christmas Services here your most important act that Holy Day.

FOR THOSE UNABLE TO COME HERE ON CHRISTMAS, because they are sick or shut-in, we are planning now to bring the Sacrament of Holy Communion to them on the first two days after Christmas. However, please remember that we must know who those people are before we can schedule a visit to them. Therefore, it is most important that such persons, or a friend or relative, call the Parish Office as soon as possible to give that information, so that your clergy can set up their schedule of visits those two days.

PLEASE USE YOUR SPECIAL CHRISTMAS OFFERING ENVELOPE when you attend a service this Christmas, as well as your regular Sunday one. Let your offering in this special envelope be a special one indeed, so that it may truly reflect your genuine gratitude to God for His many blessings to you this whole year and through this coming Holy Season!

FROM THE CLERGY AND STAFF OF GRACE CHURCH to every member and friend of the parish, our very warm wishes for a most Blessed Christmastide, with the earnest prayer that God may grant you true happiness in the year to come.

THE REGULAR THURSDAY HOLY COMMUNION at 9:30 A. M. will not take place this coming Thursday, December 29th, since the women of our Day Group will not meet that day. Instead, we shall have a celebration of Holy Communion at 9:30 A. M. this Wednesday, December 28th, which is Holy Innocents' Day.

PLEASE REMEMBER THAT CHRISTMAS COMMUNION will be taken to all sick and shut-ins on Monday and Tuesday, the first two days after Christmas. But remember also that you must give us the names of such people, so that no member of the parish is overlooked! Simply call the Parish Office with the name of any member who cannot make it to Grace Church for any of our three Christmas celebrations, and we will be happy to schedule a visit to that person at home or in the hospital. Please do so now, for your clergy must have advance notice in order to arrange their schedules on these two busy days.

NEW YEAR'S DAY FALLS ON SUNDAY this time. We call your attention to the list of services for that Sunday on the opposite page. Please note that we will have our normal Sunday schedule of services that day. The only change that day is that, in lieu of regular Church School classes, the Church School pupils will view an excellent film entitled, "The Guest."

THE CHURCH HAS BEEN DECORATED for Christmas, and we're sure you will agree that it has been done most effectively and beautifully. This major task was accomplished last Sunday evening under the leadership of Mr. William Josephs, with faithful assistance from our Young People's Fellowship and many other adults and children of the parish. Many thanks to all who came out and shared the evening with us, for it was an enjoyable event, and we were particularly pleased at the large turn-out of members. Our beautiful Church is certainly still more beautiful because of their efforts.

DON'T FORGET YOUR 1961 OFFERING ENVELOPES in the Tower Room. These have been placed there in alphabetical order, and you are requested to take your own envelopes home with you at the next opportunity. If you do not find a set there assigned to you, please let us know immediately, and you will have a set assigned promptly. Also, there are still 1961 pledge cards in the North Porch Tract Rack for any new members of the parish who were not with us last October when we conducted our Every Member Canvass. All such persons are invited to fill in a pledge card and place it in the offering plate at any future service.

HAVE YOU FILLED YOUR CHRISTMAS OFFERING ENVELOPE?

GRACE CHURCH REALLY NEEDS YOUR GENEROUS OFFERING in the special Christmas envelope that you will find in your present year's set of envelopes! 1960 has been a particularly heavy year financially, with many necessary but costly items of repairs and maintenance to our parish plant. These could not be postponed without running the risk of far more costly repairs in the year ahead, just as is the case with your own home.

All we ask is that you bring this envelope to one of the Christmas Services and that you let your special offering inside be as generous as your gratitude to God for His Gift guides you to be. Just as we find joy in giving special gifts to loved ones on this Holy Day, certainly all of us should find joy in giving such a special gift to God's Church. Let each one of us, therefore, use this special envelope in this spirit, and Grace Church will then be able to enter 1961 free of any deficit from this current year!

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES IN THE PARISH THIS WEEK

Wed., Jan. 4 - Martha & Walter Koffel, 8338 Forrest Avenue, Phila. 50

ADVANCE NOTICE: THE WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP, will have their Annual Meeting next Thursday, January 12th, in the Green Room at 1:00 P.M. The Monthly Luncheon will be served at 12:15 P.M. All women in the Parish are invited. Mark your calendars now.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES AT GRACE CHURCH were quite well attended, despite the adverse weather conditions. As a matter of fact, the total attendance at these services was considerably higher than last year, and we rejoice that so many members of the parish rightly put Christ first in their Christmas festivities. It was particularly gratifying to see many more parents come with their children this Christmas, for this is still the most effective way of teaching our children that Christmas is, first and foremost, our Lord's Birthday. Once again, the music offered by our Choir and Organist greatly enriched our worship, and the Altar Guild's floral arrangement in the Chancel provided our services with a setting of dignity and beauty. Also, all of us who attended the Pageant prior to these services were again moved by the beautiful and reverent portrayal of the Nativity as accomplished by our young people, and we were certainly the better prepared for the truth of Christmas for having been there. To all who helped in many ways with our commemoration of Christmas here, the parish is most grateful.

IF YOU FORGOT to bring your special Christmas offering envelope to the service you attended, we would appreciate your putting it in the offering plate next Sunday, or mailing it in at your first opportunity. Whatever you can give for this special Christmas intention is important to you and your parish, and we urge you not to let that envelope go unused!

SIX MEMBERS OF GRACE CHURCH completed the full course of "Operation Lamp-Light" which was held recently throughout the Diocese of Pennsylvania. We have just received certificates noting this fact for these members of our parish: Mrs. Edith Harbison, Mr. and Mrs. William Josephs, Miss Grace Parkinson, Miss Edith Rohrman, and Miss Ann Wiswell. Our heartiest congratulations to each of these persons, and we know that they were fully rewarded by the experience they shared and the knowledge they gained of the Christian Faith.

EVERY FAMILY OF THE PARISH will receive in the mail early this month the first issue of the Diocesan communication, "The Church News." The most important feature of this revised monthly communication is that every family of every Episcopal parish in the Diocese will now receive this automatically each month in the home. This greatly increased coverage means that all Episcopalians of this parish and this Diocese will be able to stay in constant touch with the latest news of the Episcopal Church throughout the Diocese, this nation, and the world. For many years, one of our Church's greatest enemies has been the lack of knowledge and understanding that the average Episcopalian possesses about his Church and her widespread missionary efforts around the world; indeed, too often we are not even aware of the splendid works begun and continued with our own giving right here in our own Diocese of Pennsylvania! Certainly if we care enough to give, we should care enough to find out where it goes and how wisely it has been put to use for our Lord's work.

"The Church News" will now come to you in newspaper form, and you are urged to take the time to read it each month. If you will do this faithfully, you will never again have to admit, "Why, I never knew this about my Church!", or, "Why didn't someone tell me that about the Episcopal Church?" Let's remember that a better-informed Episcopalian will make a far better Christian, in his home, his work, his community, and his parish!

M. by the ANNUAL MEETING which is always held on the second Thursday of January. All women of the parish are cordially invited.

(Saturday)—THE BOY SCOUT TROOP #319 will meet in the Memorial Room at 9:30 A. M.

ADVANCE NOTICE OF ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

Our first Annual Parish Meeting of Grace Church will be held on Sunday, February 5th, at 7:30 P. M. in the Parish House. All adult members of the parish are invited and urged to attend this meeting of the congregation. Details will follow shortly, but we urge you to reserve this date now so you can be present with your fellow members that evening!

CONFIRMATION CLASSES WILL START THIS MONTH. As last year, Mr. Spence will direct the Junior Class and the rector will hold the Adult Class. The Junior Class, for all young people in Seventh Grade and above, will meet first on Saturday, January 21st, from 11:00 A. M. to 12:30 P. M. This group will continue to meet each Saturday morning at the same time through March 25th. The Adult Class will meet first on Sunday, January 29th, from 7:30 to 9:00 P. M., and this group will continue to meet each Sunday evening at the same time through March 19th. As we stressed last year with these Sunday evening sessions, all adults are invited to sit in and participate, whether or not they are already confirmed Episcopalians. This invitation met with a splendid response last year, for we had from 35 to 50 adults regularly attending those sessions, many of whom were confirmed and using this opportunity for a refresher course. Note: Confirmation this year will be Palm Sunday, March 26th.

LETTERS OF TRANSFER RECEIVED into Grace Church during the second half of 1960 were for the following persons:

Esther H. B. Cotterill—127 E. Mt. Pleasant Ave., Philadelphia
John H. Dingle—208 Glendalough Rd., Erdenheim
Thelma M. Furman—Cedar & Susquehanna Rd., Ambler
Doris P. R. Maida—952 E. Johnson St., Philadelphia
Mabel A. Meng—904 E. Vernon Road, Philadelphia
Helen Oglevee—The Leamy, Roumfort Road, Philadelphia
Charles Roche—939 E. Allen's Lane, Philadelphia
Grace Roche—939 E. Allen's Lane, Philadelphia
Diana B. P. Spence—123 W. Mt. Pleasant Ave., Philadelphia
S. Katherine W. Wescott—33 Roumfort Road, Philadelphia

Also, Mrs. Katherine L. McCaffrey, 7422 Devon St., Philadelphia, became a communicant of Grace Church when she was confirmed by Bishop Tsu here on December 15th. Her name, along with all those above who were received by transfer, has been entered into the Communicant Register of the parish. To each of the above members, Grace Church extends a warm welcome into the full fellowship of the parish family.

HAS YOUR LETTER OF TRANSFER BEEN RECEIVED by Grace Church? Quite often Episcopalians overlook this important act when they move to another area and attend a different Episcopal Church. Your official Letter of Transfer to your new parish is not automatically forwarded. Unless you have sent for it, or have asked your new parish to send for it, then your transfer has never been accomplished. If you have any doubt as to whether or not Grace Church has ever received your Letter of Transfer, please call the Parish Office. If it has never been received, we shall be pleased to assist you in requesting it. As an Episcopalian who now attends Grace Church regularly, certainly your name should be included on our Communicant Register.

THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY will be observed throughout the whole Episcopal Church on Sunday, January 22nd. On this special Sunday each year, Episcopalians everywhere are given an opportunity to support directly the training of men for the ministry of our Church. So that we may become better informed of the nature of this training, we have arranged for one of the students of the Philadelphia Divinity School to speak to our congregation on the Sunday preceding the above date, and you are urged to plan on hearing him. The response of our members to this special offering last year was most encouraging, and Dean Lucas of P. D. S. was most grateful for our faithful support.

Broad Axe, Ambler
Fri., Jan. 20 - Eve & Roy Hand, 117 Rice's Mill Road, Wyncote, Pa.

TWO MEMBERS OF GRACE CHURCH have departed from this life during the past week: Marion Wilder Stem, 1007 Cromwell Road, Wyndmoor, died on January 1st, and the Burial Office was read on January 4th. Another faithful communicant of many years at Grace Church, Mary Mitchell Clapham, 227 Gowen Avenue, passed away on January 7th. The Burial Office was held in Grace Church last Tuesday, January 10th. Grace Church shall miss them, but we may rejoice that Almighty God has called them to a life of more perfect service in His Church Triumphant.

A MEMORIAL GIFT of a new high fidelity Tape Recorder has been made to the parish. Given in loving memory of Allan E. Shubert by his wife and family, this fine memorial will prove most useful in the work of our parish, particularly as an aid to our program of Christian Education, as well as to the clergy and choirmaster in their work. We are indeed grateful to the family for this splendid memorial gift.

THE PROGRAM for the Business and Professional Women's Club will take place at 8:00 P. M. on Monday, following their dinner in the Parish House. The speaker will be Mr. Bernard J. Maguire, Field Representative of the Social Security Administration, Germantown Office. A short film will be shown, and Mr. Maguire will present information on recent changes in the Social Security system. A question period will follow. All women of the parish are invited.

SPEAKING THIS SUNDAY at both the 9:15 and 11:00 A. M. services will be Mr. Richard C. Maddock, a seminarian at the Philadelphia Divinity School. We have invited Mr. Maddock here to help us become better informed of the nature of a young man's training for the ministry of our Church so that we will be better prepared for the annual observance of Theological Education Sunday. Mr. Maddock is in his second year of training at P. D. S., and all members are urged to be here this Sunday to hear him and meet him after the services. We also call your attention to the Presiding Bishop's message on Theological Education which is posted on the Parish House bulletin board.

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF MISSIONARY WITNESS will be held on Friday evening, Jan. 20th, 8 o'clock, at Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square. The Rt. Rev. Stephen F. Bayne, Jr., Anglican Executive Officer, will preach. This service is part of the Overseas Mission Society Conference taking place in Philadelphia that weekend. This Society is an association of many Episcopalians, lay and clergy, devoted to the furtherance of the missionary spirit of our Church. Bishop Bayne, the preacher at the above service, is well known to most of you as the author of one of our Church's Teaching Series books, "Christian Living," which he wrote while he was Bishop of Olympia, Washington. His present post as Executive Officer of the Anglican Communion is a most important one. All persons are invited to attend this service in Holy Trinity that Friday evening.

REMEMBER THAT CONFIRMATION CLASSES begin shortly. The Junior Class will meet every Saturday from 11:00 A. M. to 12:30 P. M., beginning January 21st. The Adult Class will meet Sundays from 7:30 to 9:00 P. M., starting January 29th. Both classes will meet in the Parish House.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES IN THE PARISH THIS WEEK

Tues. Jan. 31 - Enid & Richard Bargans, 451 Wellesley Road, Zone 19.
Thurs. Feb. 2 - Doris & Harry Beaumont, 422 E. Durham St., Zone 19.
Thurs. Feb. 2 - Mary & Francis Porter, East Tennis Avenue, Ambler, Pa.

ADVANCE NOTICE — THE WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, EVENING GROUP, will have as their speaker at their next meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 7th, Mr. Spence, who will discuss his slides on Archeology in the Far East. All women are cordially invited, so mark your calendars!

SPECIAL PARISH MEETING: SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 5TH

A special meeting of the parish will be held at 7:30 P. M. in the Parish House on the above date. All adult members are urged to attend! This meeting will be held for the purpose of:

(1) Hearing the annual reports of the Wardens and Rector on the state of our parish.

(2) Considering the amendment of the century-old Charter of this Corporation so as to conform the same with the form of the Articles of Incorporation recommended by the Diocese of Pennsylvania for all parishes located therein.

(3) Hearing the report of our Building Committee concerning our present Parish House facilities and the pressing need to improve the same in the immediate future. Most of us have long been aware of the fact that these facilities are quite inadequate, and in many ways outmoded, for the purposes for which they are required. Our Church School program is certainly restricted at present, as well as the many various organizational and congregational uses of the same facilities. Recognizing this fact and the need to improve this part of our physical plant for the future strength of our parish, your Vestry established, more than a year ago, a Building Committee to give comprehensive study to this situation and to make concrete recommendations for the improvement of the same. With the unanimous authorization of the Vestry, this Building Committee has been meeting with Mr. Charles Talley, a most experienced church architect, since last October. As a result of his able assistance and the dedicated efforts of the committee, serious recommendations have come forth for the future renovation and modernization of our Parish House. Certainly every concerned member of Grace Church will look forward with great interest to hearing this report of the Building Committee at our Parish Meeting!

Knowing you share with us a deep concern for the present and future of this parish, your Vestry and Rector urge your presence at our Special Parish Meeting here on Sunday, February 5th, at 7:30 P. M. !!

FIRST ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASS meets this coming Sunday, January 29th, in the Green Room, from 7:30 to 9:00 P. M. With the exception of the Sunday evening set aside for our Parish Meeting above, this Adult Class will meet every Sunday evening at the same starting time. In each session we allow ample time for questions and discussion, and all adults are cordially invited to join us.

JOINT LENTEN SERVICES will be held at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, this year on five Tuesday evenings during Lent, beginning February 21st and going through March 21st, at 8:00 P. M. Grace Church has accepted an invitation to join in this year's joint Lenten services with three neighboring Episcopal parishes: St. Paul's — Chestnut Hill, St. Martin-in-the-Fields, and St. Thomas — Whitemarsh. The host parish this Lent will be St. Paul's, and all five services will be held there, with the members of all four sponsoring churches attending. Each parish will have a turn to be in charge of one of these Tuesday services at St. Paul's and will on that night provide the clergy, organist, choir, acolytes, ushers, etc., for that particular service. Following each service, all persons attending will go to the Parish House there to hear an outstanding speaker; refreshments will be served at the conclusion. By all four of our parishes sharing in this combined venture, everyone concerned is assured of a far more effective and meaningful Lenten observance, and we are happy to be a part of this Lenten program.

Note: This does not affect the Ash Wednesday and Holy Week evening services of Grace Church. We will still have our own services here in Grace Church on those occasions.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES IN THE PARISH THIS WEEK

Wed. Feb. 8 - Clara & John Dingle, 208 Glendalough Rd., Erdenheim
Sat. Feb. 11 - Ruth & Norman Baumm, 315 Woods Road, Northwoods
Sat. Feb. 11 - Dorothy & Laurence Whyte, 509 E. Gravers La., Wyndmoor

REMEMBER THE SPECIAL PARISH MEETING THIS SUNDAY AT 7:30 P.M.

All adult members of Grace Church are urged to attend this important meeting of the parish this coming Sunday evening, February 5th. We will meet in the Parish House and will begin promptly at 7:30 P. M. Last week's Parish News carried a formal notice and explanation of this meeting and its purpose. It is hoped that you have read this carefully and that you, as a member with deep concern for the future of our parish, will certainly be present with us next Sunday evening!!

A NEW BAPTISMAL SHELL has been presented to Grace Church as a memorial gift in loving memory of The Rev. Harold C. Kellogg by his wife and son. We are most appreciative to both of them, for this beautiful shell for use in Holy Baptism is not only a much-needed addition but also a most thoughtful and appropriate memorial.

ANOTHER COMMUNICANT of this parish departed from this life last week after a long illness. Miss Hazel M. Foulke, of 5496 Quentin St., died last Friday in Presbyterian Hospital. The Burial Office was read on Monday, January 30th. "The souls of the righteous are in the hands of God."

FOUR NEW ACOLYTES will be admitted to our Acolyte Guild this coming Sunday during the 9:15 A. M. Service. Mr. George H. Sudlow, Director, has prepared and trained these four young men for this important office, and he will present them for admission at the above service. They are:

John A. Affleck — Robert W. Douty
Robert H. Clapham — Eugene R. Martin

We look forward to their formal admission as Acolytes of this parish on Sunday and congratulate each of them on their decision to serve God and this parish in this very special way.

CONCERNING LENTEN SERVICES this year for members of the parish, you will find below several helpful reminders which will enable you to begin planning now for the extra services you will want to attend for the purpose of keeping a good Lent. Lent gives everyone the opportunity to set aside a larger portion of time each week for meditation and worship of our Lord. From this increased time in His presence comes a richer and more meaningful spiritual life, as well as a physical life lived in closer attunement to His Will. From these notes on the extra services, plan your personal Lenten rule of worship:

(1) Joint Lenten Services will be held at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, on the first five Tuesday evenings in Lent (February 21 through March 21) at 8:00 P. M. Grace Church will be participating with three other Episcopal parishes in these joint services at St. Paul's, and all our members are urged to attend.

(2) A brief service of Evensong will be held in Grace Church at 7:30 P. M. on each of the first four Sundays in Lent. The fifth Sunday evening will be the sung Passion Service. The Adult Confirmation Class will meet immediately after each service.

(3) We will have three services here in our Church on Ash Wednesday: 7:00 & 9:30 A. M. Holy Communion and the Penitential Office at 8:00 P. M.

(4) A 7:00 A. M. celebration of Holy Communion on these Thursdays in Lent, February 23 through March 30. The usual 9:30 A. M. Holy Communion on these Thursdays will also continue.

(5) All Holy Week Services here in Grace Church, ending with our three-hour Good Friday Service, will be listed later.

(6) Always check carefully the schedule of services for Sundays and weekdays in your weekly Parish News to avoid confusion.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES IN THE PARISH THIS WEEK

Wed., Feb. 15 — Gretchen & Bruce Emmons, 7432 Devon Street, Zone 19

CHARTER AMENDMENT AND BUILDING PROGRAM APPROVED!

AT THE SPECIAL PARISH MEETING in the Parish House last Sunday evening, the members present unanimously approved the two proposals above. This formal action of the Parish Meeting now begins a new and challenging chapter in the long history of Grace Church, one which shall call for the best in each one of us as dedicated members of this parish. Since this meeting was of importance to every member, the following brief summary is listed for the benefit of those members who were unable to be present.

The meeting opened with the reading of annual reports for 1960 by the Accounting Warden (Mr. Gotwals), the Every Member Canvass Chairman (Mr. Gilmore), and the Rector. Following these, the Charter Committee Chairman, Mr. Schimpf, read in full the proposed amended Charter, after which the meeting voted unanimously to accept and adopt the same.

Next, Mr. Bond gave the report of the Building Committee. This group has been meeting for several years and most intensively during the past year to prepare concrete recommendations for the improvement of our inadequate Parish House facilities. Mr. Bond reported that the Building Committee has been meeting with a noted church architect, Mr. Charles Talley, during the past three months, by authorization of the Vestry, and that definite recommendations for renovation of the old Rectory and Parish House had now been made. Included in these would be a new extension to join together the present two buildings. Mr. Bond noted that the Building Committee members all felt that these improvements were long-overdue and most necessary to the future of our parish.

Finally, Mr. Brehm, Rector's Warden, reported to the meeting that the Vestry, in complete agreement with these recommendations, had taken preliminary steps toward establishing a special campaign for funds to make these necessary improvements possible. He announced that, after careful research and consideration by the Vestry, the firm of Warren E. Tucker Associates, Inc. had been selected to direct such a campaign. Mr. Brehm reminded everyone that such a campaign for funds in the immediate future would require the sincere efforts and work of every member during the six-week period needed for the preparation and fulfillment of such a drive, and that such a Building Campaign and modernization program was now subject to the approval of this Parish Meeting. Following a period for questions relating to the proposal for immediate action on this matter, the motion was duly made and seconded from the floor that Grace Church should now proceed with such a campaign and program. The succeeding vote of the Parish Meeting was unanimous in its approval of such action!

The Special Parish Meeting was then adjourned, and your Rector is certain all of us went home strengthened by the knowledge that we had done, at long last, that which had to be done for the future of Grace Church, Mt. Airy, as well as for the sake of her present and future generations!

NOTE: THE SIX-WEEK PERIOD of preparation mentioned above will begin next Monday, February 13th. On that date, Mr. Russell F. Stephens, of the Tucker Associates, will join us here and begin his six weeks of constant assistance to guide and direct us in the preparation for and successful conclusion of our forthcoming Building Campaign. Mr. Stephens is also an Episcopalian and a vestryman of his own parish, and we look forward to welcoming him into our fellowship for that period.

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICES in Grace Church are listed on the opposite page. You are urged to attend one of these services as a good beginning of this 1961 Lenten Season, which now has even more significance for all of us.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES IN THE PARISH THIS WEEK

Mon. Feb. 20 - May & George McGrory, 2926 Cheltenham Avenue, Zone 50
Sat. Feb. 25 - Dorothy & Donald Putney, 217 Terminal Avenue, Zone 18

OUR BUILDING CAMPAIGN PREPARATION PERIOD is now underway! With the arrival last Monday of our Campaign Director, Mr. Russell F. Stephens, of Warren E. Tucker Associates, the preparatory work of making plans and forming the various committees needed was begun immediately. The weeks to follow will be busy ones for all of us, but we know they will be weeks well invested toward the successful fulfillment of our goal of a modern Parish House for the present and future needs of Grace Church. Within the next day or two, you will receive a letter from your Rector about the forthcoming campaign with some very important dates to be remembered. You are urged to read this letter carefully and reserve these future dates for Grace Church!

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP this Sunday, Feb. 19th, at 5:00 P. M. will join other young people from this area and attend a Youth World Day of Prayer service at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill. The service will emphasize the coming unity of the Church. The Rev. Richard P. Fowler, Associate Rector of the Church of Our Saviour, Jenkintown, will be the guest preacher. Following the service, there will be a supper, the cost of which will be 75¢ per person. Then a discussion and entertainment will round out the evening's program. This should be a time of real importance to the young people, as it will give them a chance to investigate, on our community level, some of the applications of this renewed interest in Christian unity.

EVENSONG THIS SUNDAY EVENING at 7:30 P. M. in Grace Church will be the first of five such Sunday evening services here during this Lenten Season. This brief and beautiful service is Evening Prayer set to music and will be no more than twenty minutes in length. It is hoped that you will find it possible, as a special Lenten devotion, to attend this brief Sunday evening service here during Lent, particularly since we do not have such an evening worship opportunity here at any other time of the year. As noted on the preceding page, the Rector will meet with the Adult Confirmation Class immediately after Evensong, and all members are invited to join this group in the Green Room for stimulating discussion on the Church and the Faith.

JOINT LENTEN SERVICES with three of our neighboring Episcopal parishes will be held at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, on each of the next five Tuesdays in Lent (Feb. 21 through March 21) at 8:00 P. M. Grace Church has accepted an invitation to participate in this year's Joint Lenten Services, and all members of our parish are urged not to miss this splendid Lenten opportunity. Each of the four parishes cooperating in this venture will take turns in presenting the evening service at St. Paul's on various Tuesday evenings. On Tuesday evening, March 7th, the service at St. Paul's will be in charge of our clergy, organist, choir, acolytes, ushers, etc. Following the worship service each of these Tuesday evenings, all those present are invited to participate in the lecture program in St. Paul's Parish House. The same excellent speaker will present all five of these programs there, and this year's speaker will be a clergyman, The Rev. Dr. Ernest Gordon, Dean of the Chapel at Princeton University. The title of Dean Gordon's lectures is "Yes I Believe", and the topics for the five Tuesdays are as follows: "Yes I Believe", "Where Faith Begins", "The Conflict of Ways", "God and History", and "The Source of Hope". Following the speaker each Tuesday evening, refreshments will be served. You are urged to plan now on attending these Lenten services and programs at St. Paul's, for your Lent and your life will be much the richer for it!

NOTE: Dean Gordon's biographical sketch is posted on the Parish House Bulletin Board. Don't fail to read it, for this man has a fascinating background, both in war service and the ministry!

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES IN THE PARISH THIS WEEK

Mon. Feb. 27 - Nancy & Raymond Bracken, 615 E. Allens Lane, Zone 19
Wed. Mar. 1 - Marjorie & George Sudlow, P. O. Box 135, Penllyn, Pa.
Thurs. Mar. 2 - Ruth & Paul Koch, 12 E. Sedgwick St., Zone 19
Thurs. Mar. 2 - Janet & Elwood Stead, 230 W. Mt. Pleasant Ave., Zone 19

OUR BUILDING AND MODERNIZATION PROGRAM has now entered its second busy week of the campaign stage, and a large and vital organization of men and women parishioners is still being formed. Mr. Russell F. Stephens, our Campaign Director for this six-week period, has already proven to be an invaluable asset to the numerous facets of conducting such a campaign, and we are indeed fortunate to have expert guidance from a man who is also a loyal member and vestryman in his own Episcopal parish.

Our first week of intense preparation saw much 'midnight oil' being consumed, but in evaluating the events and results of that week, your Rector finds it was all well worth it. Although I have served in this parish for less than two years, I felt a warmth and closeness toward my flock last week that usually only comes after a longer ministry in a large parish. This happens when all of us are drawn more closely together to meet a challenge of such stature as we now have before us! And I rejoice that those people listed below accepted their working part of this challenge in humble dedication and devotion to their Church.

Thus far, the organization of men consists of:
General Chairman—Richard H. Brehm, II
Special Gifts Chairman—John B. Clapham
Publications Chairman—Harry E. Taylor
Speakers Chairman—George F. McGrory
Building Fund Treasurer—W. Willis Gilmore
Division Leaders—Conrad Bond, Edward Doelp, William Hackenberg, Donald Putney Team Captains—Guy Apeldorn, Jack Clark, William Davis, Charles Elliott, George Haines, Sidney Hampson, George Harbison, William Mead, Arthur Parkinson, William Probst, Albert Rittenhouse, Henry Schimpf, Geoffrey Tattersfield, William Widmer, William Wilkerson, Richard Wilson

The women of the parish are:
Hostess Co-Chairman—Mrs. Richard Lilley and Mrs. Newell Robinson
Publicity Chairman—Mrs. Howard Foulkrod
Hostess Division Leaders—Mrs. Norman Baumm, Mrs. J. William Caldwell, Mrs. Nicholas Ninos, Mrs. Edward Webb, Jr.

The full organization, when completed, will involve almost two hundred men and women of the parish, and we trust that those members yet to be asked to serve will do so with the same spirit of enthusiasm and dedication.

NOTE: THESE TWO IMPORTANT DATES are for every member of Grace Church! Please keep these dates open now for your parish.

Tuesday, March 14th, 7:00 P. M. —PARISH DINNER, to be held at the Cathedral Parish House, Roxborough.

Sunday, March 19th, 2:00 to 6:00 P. M. —STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY, when a canvasser shall call upon you in your home.

THE INGATHERING OF THE EPIPHANY PENNIES by the Women of Grace Church, Day Group, will take place this coming Thursday during the 9:15 Holy Communion. This money will be used for the support of the House of Rest. If you have not done so already, please send in your pennies—or better yet—bring them in person to the Communion Service that morning. At 11:00 the rector will address the women as part of their Lenten Study Program. At 12:15 the monthly luncheon will be served. All women of the parish are cordially invited to these events. Please mark your calendar!

OUR BUILDING AND MODERNIZATION CAMPAIGN has now entered its third week of preparation, and the formation of a large organization of men and women workers is near completion. In the complex task of forming such an organization, it is quite important that we have volunteers from the parish to help on either the men's team or women's team. At all services yesterday, we made such a request. If you were not present and are willing to volunteer your services, please call the Parish Office immediately!

Invitations for the Parish Dinner on March 14th will be mailed to all parishioners on Thursday of this week. It is hoped that all members of Grace Church, 18 years old and above, will be able to attend this dinner. After you have received the written invitation, you will be personally contacted by one of the women of our Hostess Committee, and you will be able to make your reservation for the Parish Dinner through her. We fully expect this to be the largest Parish Dinner in the history of Grace Church. Inevitably, this date may conflict with the plans of some members at this time, but we have published the date many weeks in advance with the hope that this would give everyone ample time to plan to be present with us that evening.

A LASTING MEMORIAL TO DR. EDER has been decided upon by the Vestry, in appreciation of his thirty-four years of devoted and faithful service as Rector of this parish from 1925 to 1959. Appropriately, this memorial will be the former Rectory building, the house in which he lived during his long ministry here. Upon the successful completion of our current Building Campaign, this building will be completely modernized to provide for various Church School classrooms, a committee meeting room, a Curate's apartment, and the administrative offices of the parish. Upon the completion of this work, the building will be dedicated as the Eder Memorial Hall. It is our understanding that many people who are no longer members of the parish have expressed the desire of making a contribution toward some specific memorial for Dr. Eder. Some of these people are no longer on our mailing list and would want to know that such a memorial is now being established. If you know of such a former member, please call the Parish Office as soon as possible with that information, or mail it to us. Your prompt consideration and cooperation on this matter will be greatly appreciated.

NEXT TUESDAY'S JOINT LENTEN SERVICE at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, will be conducted by the clergy of Grace Church, assisted by our own organist, choir, acolytes, and ushers. The refreshments after the service will be prepared and served there by a group of our own women. Even though all five Tuesday evening services are held at St. Paul's this Lent, each parish cooperating takes a turn at supplying the personnel for one service, and next Tuesday, March 7th, is Grace Church's turn. It is hoped that many members of our parish will continue to attend these services which begin at 8:00 P. M. Dean Gordon's topic next Tuesday will be "The Conflict of Ways."

A RED EUCHARISTIC STOLE HAS BEEN GIVEN to Grace Church in loving memory of Dr. Charles E. Eder, former Rector and Rector Emeritus. This new red stole was given thoughtfully by his wife to replace the other stole which had become quite worn through many years of use. It was dedicated at the celebration of Holy Communion last Friday, St. Matthias' Day, and the parish is most grateful for this very fitting memorial to a faithful priest and pastor.

OUR CHOIR IS IN NEED of boys, ages 8 to 11, and girls, ages 8 to 14. If your son or daughter is interested in receiving this excellent training, please speak to our Choirmaster, Mr. Robinson, or call the Parish Office.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES IN THE PARISH THIS WEEK

Thurs., Mar. 16 - Josephine & George Rockett, 8208 Douglas Rd., Zone 18

BUILDING AND MODERNIZATION CAMPAIGN NEWS

A LARGE ATTENDANCE AT OUR PARISH DINNER next Tuesday evening, March 14, at the Cathedral Parish House is indicated by advance reports already received. The enthusiastic response to the invitations for this affair have been most gratifying. All in all, it promises to be an evening that we shall remember long after our immediate challenge has been met, and we sincerely hope that you will be present next Tuesday to share in this Parish Dinner with your fellow-members. For there, as one large parish group—together in fellowship and singleness of thought for the needs of our Church—we shall see and hear the summary of our entire program!

REMEMBER: THE DINNER STARTS AT 7:00 P. M. SHARP! We must start promptly at that time so that we may keep our promise to you of concluding this affair by 9:30 P. M. at the latest.

FOR ALL CHILDREN UNDER 18 YEARS, your Hostess Co-Chairmen have arranged adequate supervision and entertainment right here in our own Parish House for next Tuesday evening, while their parents are at the dinner in Roxborough. Light refreshments will be served to the children here around 8:30 P. M. Those in charge of the supervision here will be on duty from 6:00 P. M. on next Tuesday, so that it will be convenient for all parents to leave their children here in our Parish House and then continue on their way to the Parish Dinner.

ON STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY, MARCH 19th, it will be our privilege to accept a great opportunity for God and His Church. Each person in our parish will need to look deep and prayerfully within his heart and soul to discover what is his true, personal commitment to Christ. In the light of His Self-giving on the Cross for our redemption and salvation, certainly we should find within ourselves an eagerness to manifest our love and gratitude to Him in this outward way!

Only in this initial giving of ourselves, 'our souls and our bodies,' can we properly offer Him our wordly goods as well. In this spirit, our building program for Grace Church can and will be accomplished!

CONFIRMATION HERE WILL AGAIN TAKE PLACE ON PALM SUNDAY, as it has in the past. The Rt. Rev. J. Gillespie Armstrong, Bishop Coadjutor, will visit us for the 11:00 A. M. Service on March 26th and will administer the Order of Confirmation to those persons in the Adult and Junior Classes at present. Since it is most important that all parishioners be present for the annual visitation by the Bishop, there will be no 9:15 A. M. Service here on Palm Sunday. Rather, we ask that those who normally attend that earlier service make plans now to attend the 11:00 A. M. Confirmation Service that day! And by all means, bring your children to that special service, for this is a splendid teaching opportunity for them to witness this historical rite in action in their own parish Church!

ABOUT EASTER FLOWERS

It has been the custom in Grace Church for many to participate in the giving of Easter flowers for the Sanctuary. If you wish to do so this Easter, please send your contribution now to the Parish Office, in care of our Altar Guild. Also, remember to give the names of those persons in whose memory the flowers are to be given. Please act promptly!

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES IN THE PARISH THIS WEEK

Wed., Mar. 22 - Emily and Edwin Ward, 124 Haws Lane, Philadelphia 18

BUILDING AND MODERNIZATION CAMPAIGN NEWS

THIS SUNDAY IS "STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY" — the crucial day toward which we have been pointing throughout these five weeks of intense preparation! Certainly it is no exaggeration to say that this Sunday, March 19th, may well be the most decisive date for Grace Church in our lifetime. In a very real sense, Sunday will be "D-Day" for all of us in this parish, for it represents for each one of us a Day of Decision!

Each member must make his own individual decision, and this should be done carefully and prayerfully. By the pledge you decide upon this Sunday, you are also deciding for yourself what place of importance you will give to God and His Church in your life! How well you will make that decision as a faithful Christian and responsible member of this parish, only you can answer. But let us hope that the decision we make will be one about which we feel no need for apology.

What you decide as an individual member here will either deny or witness most effectively to the corporate decision we are about to make together. Your parish will be just as weak or strong as you are in your own decision. Truly, as individuals, each one of us now holds the key to open the door of our future together here in Grace Church!

THE TIMETABLE FOR "STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY" is as follows:

11:00 A. M. — A Commissioning Ceremony for all men of the Campaign Organization will be held in Grace Church during this Service of Holy Communion. More than eighty men will come forward to dedicate themselves to the important task of that day. All members are urged to attend this 11:00 A. M. Service, even if they have already gone to an earlier service that day, for it would be a thrilling witness to our Faith to have the Church filled at that time. Also, what better way to prepare ourselves for our decision of stewardship than to first receive our Lord's gift of Himself in the Holy Communion!

2:00 to 6:00 P. M. — Personal Canvassing of all members will take place during this period. You are asked to be sure that you are home during these hours so that your Canvasser, who is volunteering his time, will not have to make a second call at your home. At the very most, you are asked to remain home for four hours until he calls, and in many cases it will be a shorter period. Surely this is not asking too much, and your cooperation will greatly lessen the time and effort needed to bring this venture to a successful conclusion.

8:00 P. M. — All Canvassers will report in the Green Room for the results of their calls made earlier. When the Chairman and Director have received all the reports, a summary will be made and the total amount pledged will be announced to all present. Every member of the parish is invited to join us in the Green Room at that time to hear the announcement of the total. Following the Report Meeting, everyone present will enjoy refreshments and fellowship together.

THUS, "STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY" WILL BE A BUSY DAY for Grace Church and her dedicated members, but also a day long to be remembered by all who will have had a part in shaping the future of God's work in this parish. Your Rector is well aware that this will be a day of challenge to every one of us, yet we approach this Sunday in courage and faith from the very name our parish bears — that by the GRACE of God and our willingness to be guided and uplifted by this, His Gift, we shall succeed!!!

GOOD NEWS!

BUILDING & MODERNIZATION PROGRAM PLEDGES TOTALING $120,035.00 were received at the time of the Report Meeting last Sunday evening! Also, by the time you read this issue of the Parish News, the total amount pledged will be considerably more, since there were still 66 unreported pledges as of the conclusion of Stewardship Sunday. We are hopeful that these pledges yet to come in will follow the same dedicated pattern of stewardship that we have set, and, that with their help, we will have had a tremendously successful campaign for the strengthening of Grace Church!

Apart from the fact that the great majority of members here have seen the need and stepped forward to take their share in meeting it, we are tremendously encouraged by other good results of our venture together during these past weeks. Members have been meeting and getting to know one another for the first time in many cases. Others have mentioned that, for the first time in many years, they really feel a vital part of this parish. Truly, all who have accepted this challenge have found themselves united much more firmly with their fellow-members, and this congregation has really come alive with the joy that Christians generate when they work together in our Lord's vineyard! By the inspiring enthusiasm and spiritual warmth that has so characterized our parish family during these past months, I know we will carry this work forward to its fulfillment. To all good and faithful servants of Christ—"Well done!!"

NOTE: If you know of any former members of Grace Church who would be interested in receiving the brochure, "Our Heritage and Our Future," and learning about our current program, please give us their names and addresses immediately! Call the Parish Office now, and we shall be prompt in sending a brochure to each person given us. Your cooperation is necessary on this matter, for there are certainly many former members, now away from this area, who would be pleased to know about the program of their former parish and the plans for the Eder Memorial Hall.

THIS SUNDAY IS CONFIRMATION in Grace Church, and every member is urged to attend this historic rite at 11:00 A.M. on Palm Sunday. Our new Bishop Coadjutor, The Rt. Rev. J. Gillespie Armstrong, will be officiating and will administer the Order of Confirmation to all those who have been prepared through the Adult and Junior Confirmation Classes. Following the 11:00 A.M. Confirmation Service, a reception will be held for the Bishop and the newly confirmed members in the Green Room, and all members are invited to attend and meet Bishop Armstrong and our new communicant members. Don't miss this service, for it is certainly one of the most beautiful of the whole year.

REMEMBER: NO 9:15 A.M. SERVICE THIS SUNDAY and no Church School classes will meet at that time. The Nursery and Kindergarten will meet at 11:00 A.M. this one Sunday only—all other Church School children are to attend the Confirmation Service with their parents. We hope that these special arrangements will enable all parents to attend at 11:00 A.M. this Palm Sunday.

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY THE SCHEDULE OF SERVICES listed on the opposite page for Holy Week and Easter Day so there will be no confusion as to times of service during that important week! Note especially the three Holy Communions on Easter Day will be held at 6:00—9:15—and 11:00 A.M. (No 7:30 A.M. Service on Easter.)

PLEDGES TO OUR BUILDING & MODERNIZATION FUND have now reached a total of $126,100. with 41 pledges still unreported. It is now most important that we hear from those still unreported as soon as possible so that we may complete planning of the building project and see the work begun before another year has passed. Needless to say, the most intelligent and comprehensive planning can be done only when we know more completely what the total pledging to the Building Fund is going to be. If your pledge has not yet been received, we will appreciate your cooperation in attending to it immediately. Also, if there is any member or friend of Grace Church who was never contacted in the recent campaign, please let the General Chairman, Mr. Brehm, know this at once. Our Building & Modernization Campaign will not be completed until we have heard from the remaining 41 individuals or families above.

THE CONFIRMATION SERVICE LAST SUNDAY was certainly a most joyous and inspiring occasion, and this was due in no small part to the fact that Grace Church was filled with 441 people to witness and participate in it! Bishop Armstrong administered the Order of Confirmation to twenty-two persons and received one into official communicant status in the Church. We rejoice to have these new members with us, and we are thankful that so many were present to welcome them into our fine parish family. A sincere vote of thanks to all who gave superbly of their services to make it such a memorable and enjoyable experience, both at the service and the excellent reception afterwards.

A MEMORIAL GIFT of a new Paschal Candle and Candlestick will be placed in service for the first time this coming Easter Day. This most recent memorial gift to Grace Church has come to us by the generosity of Mrs. William C. Wright and is given in loving memory of her husband, William C. Wright. This memorial will be placed in the Sanctuary each year on Easter Day and will remain there throughout the forty days of Eastertide until Ascension Day. The light of this Paschal Candle will serve to remind us of the important truth that Easter is a most joyous season of forty days' duration, not just one day each year! We are pleased to receive such a timely and useful memorial gift.

PLEASE NOTE CAREFULLY THE EASTER DAY SERVICES, as scheduled on the opposite page. As last year, there will be NO 7:30 A. M. SERVICE for this one day, and we ask that those who normally come to that service each Sunday plan to attend the earlier Sunrise Service or one of the two later Holy Communions. Remember that every Episcopalian is to make his Easter Communion on this day commemorating the Resurrection of Jesus Christ! If you are prevented from doing so by illness, please notify the rector at once, and the Sacrament of Holy Communion will be brought to you. The clergy have set aside next Monday and Tuesday for taking the Easter Communion to all sick and shut-ins, but it is most important that you notify us promptly to prevent any such member from being overlooked!

CHURCH SCHOOL CLASSES WILL NOT MEET EASTER DAY at 9:15 A. M. All children from First Grade and up are to attend the Family Eucharist with their parents. But, note that the Nursery and Kindergarten will be open for those children as usual at 9:15 A. M.! In addition, there will also be a Nursery in operation during the 11:00 A. M. Service on Easter Day. Following the conclusion of the 9:15 Family Eucharist, all children are to report to the Parish House to pick up their Easter gifts from the Church School.

(PLEASE BE AS GENEROUS AS POSSIBLE IN YOUR SPECIAL EASTER ENVELOPE!)

ADVANCE NOTICE: ANNUAL DESSERT CARD PARTY - April 27, 1961 - 1:30 P. M. Given by The Women of Grace Church, Day and Evening Groups. Mark your calendars now!

A TOTAL ATTENDANCE OF MORE THAN 2,300 has been recorded in the Service Register of Grace Church for the services held here during the past two weeks! A check of yesterday's Easter Services reveals that 496 persons received the Holy Communion on that day alone, and there were almost 150 others who attended and did not receive. While our joy over such figures is always tempered by the knowledge that there were some others who should have been with us, it is nevertheless deeply gratifying to see so many members putting God first in their lives! During our recent Building Campaign, two or three members expressed a doubt that Grace Church had much of a future in the years ahead. We hope that such people were present here on Stewardship Sunday, Palm Sunday, and Easter Day to see for themselves that this is still a growing parish and very much alive. If the individual and corporate spirit which we have experienced here within these past weeks is any indication of what lies ahead, then there can be no doubt that Grace Church, Mt. Airy, does have a future in serving our Lord—and this future will be a most wonderful and exciting one for all of us!

IF YOU WERE OUT OF TOWN last week-end and received your Easter Communion in another church, please remember to fill out an Easter Communion card here next Sunday indicating this fact. You will find these cards in the Tract Rack in the North Porch. Please give it to an usher or the rector at any service. Remember, also, to bring your special Easter Offering envelope, or it may be mailed in during the week. We realize how easy it is to forget to use this special envelope in the set, but we urge you to make such a special offering out of deep gratitude to God in this Holy Season, in the knowledge that it becomes us to help do for others what He has already done for us!

NOTE TO ALL BUILDING CAMPAIGN CANVASSERS! Please make every effort during the coming week to complete any follow-up calls you may yet have to make on members of the parish for their Building Fund pledges. When this has been done, remember to report to your Captain that you have completed your calls. It is urgent that you complete such follow-up calls as soon as possible, for we cannot plan effectively for the coming Building Program until all pledges have been received and reported!

YOUR WEEKLY BUILDING FUND ENVELOPES ARE READY and will be waiting for you in the Tower Room of the Church this coming Sunday, April 9th. If you made a pledge to our Building Fund and indicated you wished to fulfill it by the weekly method, a set of such envelopes will be there with your name on it. All sets will be arranged alphabetically for your convenience in locating your own on that table in the Tower Room. Those sets not picked up this Sunday will have to be mailed out early next week, so you can help save us a considerable mailing charge by personally taking your set along home this Sunday after any of the three services!

NOTE: Pledges to the Building Fund begin Sunday, April 16th, and will continue for a three-year period. Many of us will be fulfilling these pledges on a weekly basis, and two things will be important for us: (1) To begin promptly on April 16th. (2) To make sure that we keep that pledge up-to-date at all times!

ALL CHECKS TO GRACE CHURCH BUILDING FUND should be so made out for easy identification. Please do not include amount for Building Fund and amount for regular giving on the same check! They are separate accounts, with different Treasurers in charge.

ADVANCE NOTICE: ANNUAL DESSERT CARD PARTY - April 27, 1961 - 1:30 P. M. - given by The Women of Grace Church, Day and Evening Groups. Donation $1.25. Call the Parish Office or write a request for tickets, if you have not been contacted by anyone, and we will send them to you.

OUR BUILDING FUND PLEDGES BEGIN THIS SUNDAY, April 16th, and these pledges made on a weekly basis are to continue for the next 156 weeks, or three years. The best way to make certain that your three-year pledge will be completely fulfilled at the end of that time is to make your first contribution in your first envelope this coming Sunday! After that, it's simply a matter of keeping your pledge up to date at all times. If all of us who have made our Building Fund pledges on a weekly basis will be careful to make regular contributions each Sunday in those envelopes, then the financial problems of our coming Building Program will be greatly lessened. These next six or seven months are most important, for the more we receive on our Building Fund pledges during that period, the less we shall have to borrow to start the actual work later this year! The same is true, of course, for all other members who have chosen to meet their pledges on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual basis. Let's all join together to get our First Sunday of the Building Fund off to a good start!

SETS OF WEEKLY BUILDING FUND ENVELOPES have now been given to all persons who indicated their pledge was to be met on a weekly basis. If you made a pledge on this basis and do not receive your set by Saturday of this week, please call the Building Fund Treasurer immediately: Mr. W. Willis Gilmore at CH 7-2597. If you made a pledge on a different basis, but still desire such a set of weekly envelopes, please request same. We want to be sure that all sets are properly assigned and any errors corrected.

SOME PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS are listed below to guide you in the matter of payments to the Building Fund. Your cooperation in following these suggestions will expedite greatly the processing and recording of all such payments and will make the task of the Building Fund Treasurer much easier.

(1) All checks should be made out to: "GRACE CHURCH BUILDING FUND." It is important that all contributions to the Building Fund be designated as such, since this account will be completely separate from the regular Church account to avoid unnecessary confusion.

(2) Never include on the same check your giving to both the Building Fund and your giving to the regular Budget of the parish! Since each is a separate account, there is a different Treasurer for each one. If paying by check, make it a separate check.

(3) The Building Fund Treasurer is Mr. W. Willis Gilmore, 312 East Gowen Avenue, Phila. 19. If you are mailing in a contribution to the Building Fund, mail it directly to him at the above address, or send it to the Church address marked for his attention.

(4) Weekly Building Fund envelopes may be placed in the Offering Plates at any service here in Grace Church. These will be turned over to the Building Fund Treasurer each Sunday.

(It is also suggested that you save this copy of the Parish News for your reference and assistance in the future.)

THE MEN'S CLUB OF GRACE CHURCH will hold their semi-annual Ham and Oyster Dinner on Monday, April 24th at 6:30 P.M. in the Parish House. The price--$1.50. The speaker for the evening will be Vice Admiral Ephraim R. McLean, Jr., USN (Ret.), a U.S. Naval Academy graduate and naval flyer who served aboard the USS Langley and Saratoga. Following a distinguished career during World War II he rose in rank and responsibility, and upon retirement was Commandant, Fourth Naval District and Commander, Philadelphia Naval Base. This promises to be a great evening! All men of Grace Church, their friends, and their neighbors are cordially invited. If you have not done so already, please return your reservation card which was mailed last week.

A MEETING OF THE GERMANTOWN CONVOCATION of the Diocese of Pennsylvania will be held on Tuesday, April 25th at 5:30 P.M. at St. Mark's, Frankford. The meeting will open with a Service of Evening Prayer. Dinner will then be served at 6:15 followed by the regular Convocation meeting. In addition to the Rector delegates to the Convocation from Grace Church are the Messrs. Edward A. Doelp, Sidney W. Hampson, and W. Willis Gilmore.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will hold a dance in the Parish House on Saturday, April 29th from 8:00 to 11:00 P.M. The cost of admission will be 50¢ and soft drinks and refreshments will be sold. Entertainment and music will be provided by "The Earthquakes," a popular group of six teen-agers well-known and well-liked in high school circles. This promises to be a gala evening and is open to all young people, both those young in age and those young in heart. Bring your friends and let's make this dance a huge success.

THE PRESENTATION OF THE CHURCH SCHOOL MISSIONARY OFFERING for the Diocese of Pennsylvania will take place at the Cathedral Church of Christ on Sunday, May 7th at 4:00 P.M. This event is still over two weeks away, but it is imperative that we find out immediately how many people from Grace Church are planning to attend this colorful and inspiring Service. Our Girl's Choir will represent Grace Church, and if enough parents and other young people can be with us the Church School will provide bus transportation to and from the Cathedral. Every church in the Diocese will be represented there, and the choirs from all the churches will march in procession. Bishops Hart, Armstrong, and Tsu will be there to receive the "Mite Box" offering, and Bishop Armstrong will preach. We urge all who can to attend. If you plan to be there and would like to go with us on the bus, please give your name to either Mr. Spence, Mr. Hampson, or Mr. Putney this coming Sunday.

IT HAS BEEN BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION that there are some damaged and defective Prayer Books and Hymnals in the Church. Missing and torn pages can be most frustrating when one is trying to follow the Service. If you should run across such a book please turn it in to the usher following the Service so that it can be disposed of. We are hoping to acquire some new Prayer Books and Hymnals for the Church, and if these defective ones can be removed it will better enable us to determine how many new ones are needed.

A REMINDER --Arrangements for baptisms, weddings and funerals should never be made until after you have checked with the clergy. This would seem to be obvious, and yet a great many people will set a date for a wedding or a funeral and then call the clergyman to see if he is available. To avoid possible conflicts and disappointments see your clergyman first!

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES THIS WEEK

Mon. May 1 - Sarah & Thomas Mortimer, 7005 McCallum Street, Zone 19
Tues. May 2 - Grace & John Asher, 424 East Durham Street, Zone 19
Thurs. May 4 - Thora & Theodore Linton, 410 E. Allen's Lane, Zone 19

THE ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA will open Monday, May 1st, at 4:00 P. M., in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square. At 8:00 P. M. that evening a Mass Meeting will be held in the Church of the Holy Trinity to which the communicants of all the churches in this diocese are invited. Please note, this meeting is not restricted to convention delegates, and we would therefore like to have a good representation present from Grace Church. There will be a procession of vested clergy, and addresses will be made by the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor. On Tuesday morning at 8:00 A. M., Holy Communion will be celebrated for delegates to the Convention at Saint Peter's Church, 3rd and Pine Streets. This Service will be held in commemoration of the 200th Anniversary of Saint Peter's Church. The Convention will then reconvene at 9:30 A. M. in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square. In addition to the Rector delegates to the Convention from Grace Church are the Messrs. Geoffrey Tattersfield, Guy S. Apeldorn, and Henry L. Schimpf, Jr. Dr. Roy H. Hand is our alternate delegate.

THE PRESENTATION OF THE CHURCH SCHOOL MISSIONARY OFFERING will take place next Sunday at 8:00 P. M. at the Cathedral Church of Christ in Roxborough. As was stated in last week's "Parish News," the Church School was planning on providing bus transportation to and from the Cathedral if there was enough response from parents and young people. What response we have received has been negative, and therefore there will be no bus transportation provided. We nonetheless urge all who can to be present for this colorful and inspiring Service. The total of our "mite box" offering here at Grace Church was $103.57. This figure is lower than it has been in previous years, and is certainly much lower than it should be. Our goal for next year is therefore quite clear—to publicize and promote this project in order that Grace Church realize her full capabilities in the promotion of the Christian Faith.

RECEIPTS ON BUILDING FUND PLEDGES during the past two weeks well indicate the enthusiasm and concern of the parish for our new venture together. The initial distribution of Building Fund envelopes was made only to those people who made their pledges on a weekly basis. Since then several people who pledged on a monthly or quarterly basis have asked if they too could have envelopes. They most certainly can! If for any reason at all you did not receive a packet of Building Fund envelopes and would like to have same, please contact the Church office and arrangements will be made to send a packet of envelopes to you.

A BROCHURE AND LETTER concerning our Building and Modernization Program is being mailed to all former members of Grace Church who may be interested in the work we are planning to do here. If you know of anyone who should receive such a brochure and letter, please contact Mr. William Hall, chairman of the Development Committee, or the Parish office.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SUMMER CONFERENCES AT DENBIGH are scheduled for the following dates: June 18th to 24th — 10th, 11th, and 12th grades; June 25th to July 1st — 11th and 12th grades; July 2d to July 8th — 10th and 11th grades; July 9th to July 15th — 9th grade; July 16th to July 22d — 8th grade. If you want to be sure of a place at one of these sessions, see Mr. Spence or Mr. Bauder now for an application form.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES THIS WEEK

Wed. May 17 - Mary Anne & Thomas Mackin, 1200 Highland Av., Ft. Wash.
Thurs. May 18 - Mildred & Willis Gilmore, 312 E. Gowen Ave., Zone 19
Fri. May 19 - Catherine & Lawrence Costello, 340 E. Gowen Ave., 19
Fri. May 19 - Anna & Arthur Dill, 406 E. Wadsworth Street, Zone 19
Fri. May 19 - Lillian & George White, 7427 Bingham Street, Zone 11
Sat. May 20 - Margaret & Claude Bennett, 732 Spring Lane, Zone 28
Sat. May 20 - Edwin & Elmira LaBelle, 19 W. Mt. Airy Ave., Zone 19

REMEMBER THE "STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL" ON MAY 19th & 20th! Since our first Strawberry Festival last May was so thoroughly enjoyed by the many who attended, we are looking forward to next weekend and the occasion of our second one. The festival again will be held outside on the parish grounds in back of the Parish House on both Friday and Saturday evenings, from 6:30 P. M. to 8:30 P. M. (Should it rain on either evening, we will move indoors to the Parish House.) For a very reasonable cost of 35¢ per person, you will be served a delicious dessert of strawberries, ice cream, and home-made cake! Although many other strawberry Festivals charge quite a bit more, we have kept ours the same as last year so that all members of all our families would be able to enjoy this event with us. This is truly an occasion for every member of Grace Church, regardless of age, and you are most certainly invited to bring along your friends on either evening. So plan now to be with us here next Friday, May 19th, and next Saturday, May 20th, for a tasty dessert and a pleasant evening at our second annual Strawberry Festival!

Following the Festival on Friday evening, our Boy Scout Troop #319 will present a "Movie Night" on the second floor of the Parish House. Starting at 8:30 P. M., a feature film and cartoons will be shown, and the donation of 50¢ per person will go toward the Troop Equipment Fund. The tickets will be available from all members of Troop #319.

On Saturday evening, from 8:00 to 11:00 P. M., our Young People's Fellowship will hold the last of their spring dances in the Parish House. The cost of admission is 50¢, and soft drinks and refreshments will again be sold at this dance. This dance will again feature the "Earthquakes."

AT LEAST THREE LAY-READERS ARE NEEDED in the parish, and the Rector would like to hear from any layman of Grace Church who has been a Lay-Reader at one time, as well as from any layman who would be interested in being trained by the Rector for this purpose in the near future. If you are interested, please speak to the Rector at your first opportunity.

CHURCH SCHOOL GRADUATION EXERCISES will take place on Sunday, May 21st, one week before the closing of Church School on Sunday, May 28th. The graduation exercises will be a part of the regular Family Service which will be followed as usual by Church School classes. All awards and presentations will be made at this time. On the following Sunday, May 28th, a Family Eucharist will mark the close of our Church School for this year. This will be followed by a reception in the Green Room to which all parents, teachers, and young people are invited. Please note this change in schedule and plan to be with us on both these Sundays. We would like all family members of our Church School family here with us on these two Sundays.

DYNAMIC FAITH IN MODERN LIFE is the theme of the 1961 Hood Conference which will be held this year from June 11th through June 17th at Hood College, Frederick, Maryland. The total cost, including room and board, will be $42.00 per person for the entire week. The agenda includes daily worship, lectures, elective classes, conferences, and fellowship. The principal lecturer this year will be The Rev. Charles D. Kean, D. D., S. T. D., Rector, Church of the Epiphany, Washington, D. C. and author of many books. This well-known Conference is always most stimulating and rewarding. Your Rector has been there and can recommend it most highly. Any member of Grace Church interested in gaining a deeper insight into Christianity and modern life, please contact the Rector as soon as possible.

(Saturday)—EPISCOPAL YOUNG CHURCHMEN CONVENTION and FUN DAY at the Conference Center in Radnor, 10:30 A. M. to 8:00 P. M. About 25 members of our Y. P. F. will attend this meeting of the E. Y. C. of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES THIS WEEK

Tues. May 23 - Mary & Ramsey McKinney, 520 Wyndmoor Ave., Zone 18
Wed. May 24 - JoAnn & George Samson, 713 Brooke Road, Glenside, Pa.

ADVANCE NOTICE: OUR SUMMER SERVICE SCHEDULE goes into effect on Sunday, June 4th, and will continue through Sunday, September 3rd. During this period, there will be two services each Sunday: 7:30 A. M. and 10:00 A. M.

IF YOU RECEIVE THIS ISSUE by Friday or Saturday of this week, please remember to join us at the Strawberry Festival on the parish grounds from 6:30 to 8:30 P. M. on either evening. Strawberries, ice cream, and home-made cake are yours for just 35¢ per person. Bring your friends along to enjoy this informal event with you and your fellow parishioners. Should it rain on either evening, we will move into the Parish House for this event. So after your evening meal these two days, come out to our Strawberry Festival for your dessert—you'll be glad you did!

CHURCH SCHOOL GRADUATION EXERCISES ARE THIS SUNDAY! Following the various awards and promotions at the 9:15 A.M. Family Service on this coming Sunday, all Church School classes will meet for the last session until September. May we urge all parents to see that all children are present this Sunday for the 9:15 A. M. Service and final classes in our Church School! We want very much to have a complete attendance.

NOTE: The last 9:15 A. M. Family Service, until September, will be May 28th—one week from this coming Sunday. As last year, this closing service will be a Family Eucharist, and all parents and children will remain in church for the complete Holy Communion that day. (The Nursery, of course, will be in operation in the former Rectory as usual.) After the service that day, there will be a reception for everyone in the Parish House. If you normally attend the 9:15 A. M. Service, then please keep in mind that these next two Sundays are important dates for you here!

"E-DAY" IS MONDAY, MAY 22nd, for all Episcopalians throughout the Diocese of Pennsylvania! What is "E-Day"? It is a diocesan-wide telephone campaign, that one day only, for instant sale of $3.00-a-year individual subscriptions to "The Episcopalian," a national monthly magazine of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. A. This one-day, intensive telephone campaign throughout our diocese is being carried out by our Diocesan Committee on Laymen's Work, and it is hoped that many Episcopalians in every parish will call a special telephone number that day to order a year's subscription of this fine magazine. That number to call is LOcust 8-2600—merely give your name, address, and the name of your parish. Please remember to give the name of Grace Church, Mt. Airy, when you call! This is important, for the cost of the subscription to each one of us in this parish will be only $2.50 if 24 persons or more from this parish call in that day! Surely, Grace Church ought to have many more than that calling in next Monday.

Many of you have already read copies of "The Episcopalian" here in past months and commented what an interesting and informative magazine it is. Here's an excellent opportunity to have your own subscription delivered to your home at a very reasonable price. "The Episcopalian" is the most widely read and discussed national magazine in the history of the Episcopal Church. To be better informed about your Church in the nation and the world, subscribe to this magazine by calling LOcust 8-2600 on "E-Day," Monday, May 22nd!

THE 1961 HOOD CONFERENCE, meeting at Hood College, Frederick, Maryland, from June 11th to 17th, is open to all Episcopalians. Those who attend this grand week of worship, study, and fellowship never forget it and go back year after year. The total cost is $42.50 per person, and our Convocation of Germantown makes it possible for any woman from this parish to attend this week there on a half-scholarship! Any man or woman interested in attending is urged to speak to the Rector shortly, for the Conference is less than a month away.

(Saturday)—ANNUAL PARISH PICNIC at Valley Forge Park. Everyone in the Parish is invited to come. Bring your own lunch. Beverages and dessert will be supplied by the Church. Bring your portable grill. A flyer is being sent out with a map to show how to get to the Park. Let's make this a "big day" for everyone.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES THIS WEEK

Mon. May 29 - Grace & Sidney Hammonds, 804 Forrest St., Conshohocken
Fri. June 2 - Marguerite & Harry Dursch, 337 E. Cheltenham Ave., 20

THE SUMMER SERVICE SCHEDULE goes into effect next Sunday, June 4th. Commencing on that date and continuing through Sunday, September 3d, there will be but two Services each Sunday. The 7:30 A. M. Holy Communion will continue as usual, while the 9:15 and 11:00 A. M. Services will be combined in a 10:00 A. M. Service. On the first and third Sundays of the month, the Holy Communion will be celebrated at this 10:00 A. M. Service. Please note this change on your calendar.

We plan to continue to provide nursery care during the 10:00 A. M. Service as we have done in the past. In order that the Nursery be adequately staffed, however, we would like all parents who are interested in availing themselves of this service to leave their name with the Parish Office. In addition, it would be appreciated if anyone interested in helping out in the Nursery would also leave their name with the Parish Office.

OUR ANNUAL PARISH PICNIC will be held this coming Saturday, June 3d, from 11:00 A. M. to 4:00 P. M. at Valley Forge Park. Games, races, and contests will be provided for people of all ages. Bring your own lunch. The Church will supply hot water, coffee, tea, milk, sugar, punch, and ice cream. This promises to be a day of fun and relaxation for everyone. All members of the Parish are welcome and are urged to attend. Please watch the mails for a brochure giving all the details together with a map showing how to get there. If anyone is in need of transportation, please contact the Parish Office and arrangements will be made. No one need miss this gala event, and we trust that no one will. See you at the picnic!

LAST WEEK'S STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL was enjoyed by all who were able to be there. Cool, damp weather forced us to remain indoors on Friday night, but this did not affect the quality of the food or the warmth of the hospitality. The Boy Scout "Movie Night" on Friday was well attended, as was the Y. P. F. dance on Saturday night. We wish to thank Mr. Frank Harris, chairman of the Strawberry Festival committee, and all those who worked with him. In addition, our special thanks go to all those women who made and donated those delicious cakes.

CHURCH SCHOOL GRADUATION EXERCISES were held during the 9:15 Family Service last Sunday. The following people were graduated from the Church School and were presented with a silver cross in token thereof: Betsey Beck, Claude Bennett, Ralph Bradley, Jeanne Doelp, Diane Evangelista, Robert Hall, Russell Johannesson, Ruth Vogel, and Barbara Woltemate. Our sincere congratulations to each of these young people. As they go on to college or out into the business world, we trust that years spent here at Grace Church will serve them well in helping them to find that richer and fuller life which is ours through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Although the Church School does not give attendance awards, we would be amiss not to give recognition to those young people who have been here faithfully every Sunday throughout the past year. They are: John Angle, Kirk Hampson, Suzanne LaBelle, Linda Mathers, David Wood, Debra Wood, and Russell Wood.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP, at their meeting last Sunday, elected the following officers for next season: Richard LaBelle, President; Marjorie Trout, Vice President; Gay Woltemate, Secretary; John Affleck, Treasurer. These new Y. P. F. officers will be officially installed at a Family Service next September.

ATTENTION—ALL YOUNG PEOPLE who are planning to attend one of the Diocesan Youth Conferences at Denbigh (Radnor) during June or July, please send in your application as soon as possible. Every year the Diocese must refuse the late applications of many young people because the conferences are filled to capacity. Full details are posted on the bulletin boards. Application forms are available from the Parish Office. The Church School will provide half-scholarships for anyone who wishes to attend one of these conferences.

THE UNITED CHURCHWOMEN OF CHESTNUT HILL is making another appeal for donations to aid the destitute people of the world. They would like donations of clothing, blankets, material, and soap. Please bring these items to the Parish House marked for the Clothing Drive, and they will be taken to St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, the main pick-up center for this vicinity.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES THIS WEEK

Sun. June 4 - Jeanice & Russell Kaller, 603 E. Hartwell Lane, Zone 18
Wed. June 7 - Isabel & Kenneth Wood, 146 Fernbrook Avenue, Wyncote
Thurs. June 8 - Helen & Wallace Martindale, Jr., 720 Westview St., 19
Fri. June 9 - Eleanor & William Davis, 527 E. Graver's Lane, Zone 18
Fri. June 9 - Mary & St. Clair Shoff, 7018 Ardleigh Street, Zone 19

LETTERS OF TRANSFER RECEIVED into Grace Church for this year — 1961 — as of the end of May were for the following persons:

Lydia Katherine Bancroft, The Leamy, Roumfort Rd., Philadelphia 19
Sue Jean A. Brooks, 6617 Ardleigh Street, Philadelphia 19
Helen L. Bullard, The Leamy, Roumfort Road, Philadelphia 19
Jeanne D. Epperson, 421 E. Gowen Avenue, Philadelphia 19
Paul B. Koch, 12 E. Sedgwick Street, Philadelphia 19
Ruth M. Koch, 12 E. Sedgwick Street, Philadelphia 19
John L. Koch, 12 E. Sedgwick Street, Philadelphia 19
Belva E. Williams, 201 E. Gowen Avenue, Philadelphia 19

We are most pleased to have the above persons now with us as members of the parish family of Grace Church, Mt. Airy.

CHURCH SCHOOL PICNIC THIS SATURDAY, JUNE 3rd, at Valley Forge Park, in the main picnic area—11:00 A. M. until 4:00 P. M. Remember that this annual picnic is for the whole family! The more attending, the more enjoyable time for everyone. Bring a picnic lunch for the members of your family; we'll supply liquid refreshments and ice cream for all. Games and prizes are also on the fun-packed agenda for the day. Private transportation will be used to go and come, and if any person needs transportation to and from the picnic, please call the Parish Office immediately and give us your name. We'll arrange it for you, and you will be asked to be here at the Parish House by 10:00 A. M. on Saturday morning to meet your ride.

THE RECTOR WILL BE AWAY on active duty with the USAR Chaplains' School from June 4th to June 17th. During that two-week period, the Rev. Douglas M. Spence will be in charge. In the event of any emergency or illness during this period, please contact Mr. Spence through the Parish Office during the day, or, if after 3:00 P. M., call him at his home. His home telephone number is listed on the front page of this Parish News. Please keep in mind that one of your clergy is always available at any time, and you should call promptly whenever there is a need in your family for the ministrations of a priest of the Church!

TWO FAITHFUL COMMUNICANTS OF OUR PARISH departed this earthly life during the past week. Mr. Earl C. Trout, Jr. died in Chestnut Hill Hospital on May 23rd and was buried from Grace Church on May 27th. Mr. Harold Mutch died suddenly at his home on May 26th and was also buried from Grace Church on May 31st. We feel deeply their physical absence from our parish family, yet we know that their earthly strife is over, and God has called them to a larger life of more perfect service in His Heavenly Kingdom.

BUILDING FUND PLEDGES TO DATE now total over $131,100. and we are most pleased to see that the payments on these pledges are being made quite regularly. This is most important to your parish, for it means that we shall be able to plan more effectively for the actual work of construction to begin later this year! We are informed by the Building Fund Treasurer, Mr. W. Willis Gilmore, that some members already have made advance payments into the summer, so that they will be kept up-to-date while they are away on vacations this summer. If each one of us will do the same before going away this summer, this would assure Grace Church of maintaining a regular income on these pledges over the usually slow summer period and would expedite greatly our future building program! Remember also that you may mail your payments on your Building Fund pledge directly to Mr. W. Willis Gilmore, 312 E. Gowen Ave., Phila. 19, or put the same in the Offering plate at any service. Your cooperation over the summer months in this important matter will be sincerely appreciated.

Note: Contributions to our Building Fund are now coming in from quite a number of friends and former parishioners of Grace Church! From all who have replied thus far, we have received warm words of encouragement and enthusiasm for what we propose to do here, and they express the wish that they would like to be with us for this important project. We are deeply grateful to each of them for these thoughts and support and know that this parish still holds a warm association for them. It is our hope that we will hear from still more former members in the weeks to come.

ADVANCE NOTICE: THE BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB will hold their June meeting at Monday, June 19th in the Parish House. They will have a "Cold Supper" at 6:30 P.M. followed by a Social Evening.

THE UNITED CHURCHWOMEN OF CHESTNUT HILL are still collecting donations for The Church World Service. Please bring your donations to the Parish House no later than the 18th of June. They will be taken to St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill where they will be picked up by trucks about the 20th of June. Your donations may include clothing, blankets, material, and soap.

THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE OF PHILADELPHIA is seeking to increase its membership, and has asked the Churches of this Diocese to aid them in this cause. Those of you who were in Grace Church at the 10:00 A.M. Service on Sunday, June 4th, received a very informative brochure describing the work of this Institute. Their headquarters at 1222 Locust Street is a home away from home for merchant seamen from all over the world, regardless of race, creed, or culture. The Institute serves a vital need in the community, and, in addition, helps to create a true picture of American life for those from foreign lands. As the brochure stated: "The way we receive these seamen will in a large measure determine the impression of the American way of life they take back to their respective homelands." The Institute's major purpose, of course, is to serve the seaman himself, and in this respect it is the only organization here in Philadelphia to meet his needs. In order to meet increasing costs and the increasing needs of the world's seamen the Seamen's Church Institute is seeking to increase their membership. They would appreciate your help, and hope that you will become a member of the Seamen's Church Institute. Contributions should be sent to the Rev. James F. McElroy, 1222 Locust Street, Philadelphia 7, Pa.

THE "FORWARD — DAY BY DAY" BOOKLETS FOR TRINITY SEASON have for some unknown reason not yet been received here at Grace Church. They were ordered in plenty of time and should have been here by now. We have had many requests for them, and can only say that they will be placed in the tract rack of the North porch as soon as they arrive. We are sorry for this delay.

THE SUMMER SCHEDULE went into effect last Sunday, and we were very pleased with the large attendance at both the 7:30 and 10:00 A.M. Services. Please remember that the Nursery will continue to be in operation throughout the summer months. Each Sunday during the 10:00 A.M. Service child care will be provided for smaller youngsters in order that their parents may attend Church. There is no need to let a baby-sitting problem keep you away from Church this summer. The Nursery will be staffed on a voluntary basis by competent individuals. A list of those in charge will be posted on the bulletin board of the Parish House.

ALTAR FLOWERS ARE NEEDED FOR TWO SUNDAYS during this summer period according to the report of our Altar Guild. These Sundays are:

August 13th ..... August 20th

If you would like to have one of these Sundays reserved for you in order that you might have the memorial flowers placed on the altar for that day please notify the Parish Office as soon as possible. These are the only open Sundays for the rest of the year.

THE SUMMER SCHEDULES OF GRACE CHURCH STAFF MEMBERS are as follows:

Mr. Bauder (Rector)—June 4th to June 17th—Active duty with the USAR Chaplain's School.
August 27th to September 9th (tentative)—vacation.
Mr. Spence (Assistant)—June 16th to August 19th—Leave of Absence.
Mrs. LaBelle (Parish Secy.)—July 24th to August 5th—vacation.
Mr. Robinson (Organist)—August 1st to September 9th—vacation.

On dates other than those listed above all members of our staff will be on duty here at Grace Church.

ADVANCE NOTICE—Our Bazaar next fall will be held on November 10th and 11th. Now, however, is the time to send in those "white elephant" items and toys, games, or books that are in usable condition and can be resold. Do not throw these items away, but from now on drop them off at the Parish House. If this is not convenient, call the Parish Office or Mr. Nicholas Ninos, Bazaar Chairman, at CH 7-4763 and arrangements will be made to pick them up. Remember, too, that home-made and hand-made items are needed. Willing helpers will also be cheerfully accepted. Don't hesitate, and don't let us down — your kind cooperation will be our success.

THE PARISH NEWS in accord with its customary practice will suspend publication for two months following next week's issue. Since there will be no Parish News during the months of July and August any organization desiring publicity or wishing to make an announcement of any kind is asked to have a written request in the Church Office no later than 9:00 A.M., Monday, June 19th. Such information will then be included in the June 25th issue of the Parish News. During July and August wedding anniversaries, altar flowers, and news of events occurring at Grace Church will be listed weekly in the Sunday leaflets. Thus, those of you who will be with us through the summer months can continue to keep abreast of all that happens here at Grace Church.

PARISH OFFICE HOURS beginning on Monday, June 19th, and continuing through Friday, September 1st, will be from 9:00 A.M. until Noon. Of course, your clergy, as always, may be contacted apart from these hours should the need arise. We especially urge you to get in touch with us in the event of illness or other emergency.

MT. AIRY SUMMER VACATION CHURCH SCHOOL will be held again this year at Mt. Airy Presbyterian Church, Mt. Pleasant and Germantown Avenues. The dates of the School will be from August 7th through August 18th. This is a community project, sponsored by the Methodist, Presbyterian, and Lutheran Churches, as well as by Grace Church. One of our own communicants, Miss Suzanne LaBelle, will be assisting in the School this summer. There will be Nursery, Kindergarten, Primary, Junior, and Junior High departments. The study project for this year will be The Church's Ministry of Healing. In addition to study, there will be daily worship by departments and outdoor play schedules, thus making for a well-rounded program. The purposes of the School are to help our children to see Christ as very real and to know Him as the Revelation of God's love, to love Christ and to follow Him, to love one another as He loves us, to have meaningful worship experiences, to have wholesome experiences with their peers under the guidance of Christian teachers, and to feel at home in Church. Such a project as this presents a real Christian witness in the community, and is deserving of our whole-hearted support.

LORD, USE ME

Lord,
In the depth of my heart there is restlessness;
In the depth of my mind there is suspicion.
My nerves are not normal and my head is dull;
My conscience is sad and my love cold,
My efforts fail, I have no strength to proceed.
A feeling of frustration has captured my soul;
Agony is my ever present friend,
And fear my companion.
Is there no escape? The world looks so grim
And men are bent on doing evil.
They talk of war; they war for peace,
And leave my mind in a state of war.
O, wretched man and his world!
I must escape; I must steal away,
But where? . . .
No, Lord, this is thy world;
And I must face it,
If thou couldst use me to show a ray of thy light
And in that effort, burn myself away,
Lord, use me, pouring out Thy strength.

THIS IS THE LAST ISSUE OF THE PARISH NEWS until September 3rd. As you will note on the last page, this weekly publication is not sent out during July and August of each year. During these next two months, such regular items as wedding anniversaries, the memorial altar flowers, and meetings for the coming week will be listed in the Sunday Service leaflets

THE PARISH OFFICE HOURS for the rest of the summer will be 9:00 A.M. to Noon, Monday through Friday of each week. In the event of an urgent matter arising after these hours, please contact us by calling the Rectory telephone number. This number is listed, as always, on the front page of the Parish News.

THE VACATION SCHEDULES OF THE STAFF are listed below, so that you will know when the Staff members will be absent from their parish duties during the coming months.

Mr. Spence (Assistant)—is now in California on a two months leave-of-Absence to pursue some special work there. He will return with his family on August 19th.

Mrs. LaBelle (Parish Sec'y)—will be taking her vacation from July 24th to August 5th. During her absence, the Parish Office will be open as usual.

Mr. Robinson (Organist)—will be on vacation from August 1st until September 9th. We will have a substitute Organist each Sunday during that period.

Note: Your Rector will be unable to take his vacation this summer and finds it necessary to postpone it until later in the year. He will be on duty here throughout the summer months. Therefore, please contact him whenever the need arises!

PLEASE DON'T TAKE A VACATION FROM YOUR CHURCH this summer! It is well to remember that God never takes a vacation from us, even when we are on our summer vacations, and when our Book of Common Prayer reminds us that our Bounden Duty as Christians is to worship Him EVERY SUNDAY, it means also those Sundays when we are away from home on our vacations! The chances are excellent that, no matter where you go on vacation this summer, you will be no more that a few miles from the nearest Episcopal Church. If this is not so, then by all means attend the nearest church of any denomination to fulfill your obligation and privilege as a Christian. Your Sunday and your whole vacation will be the richer for having done this, and you will realize first-hand that the Church of Christ is much larger than your parish of Grace Church, Mt. Airy. Of course, we want to see you here each Sunday this summer when you are not on vacation!

NOTE: Speaking financially, we are now approaching what many churches consider the two leanest months of the year — July and August. This is due to the fact that too many people go away during these two months and forget about their weekly pledges, forgetting also that the bills of their parish must be met as usual. We are fortunate in this parish to have many considerate members who are sending in their regular and Building Fund pledges in advance to cover the weeks they will be away. Such a practice is important both to you and to your parish, and we enthusiastically hope that all members of Grace Church will do the same during these next two months. It will be most appreciated, and you will help your parish continue her big plans for the Fall!

— PLEASE NOTE —

OUR SUMMER SERVICE SCHEDULE ENDS after this coming Sunday, September 3rd. Please note that on Sunday, September 10th, we will resume our regular schedule of three services every Sunday: 7:30, 9:15, and 11:00 A.M.

THE WEEKLY MAILING OF THE "PARISH NEWS" resumes with this issue. We trust that everyone had an enjoyable and relaxing summer. Now that fall is approaching, however, activities once again begin to pick up here at Grace Church. This and the subsequent issues of the Parish News will endeaver to keep you informed of all that is happening here. We therefore urge you to read each item carefully so that you may note your calendars regarding these forthcoming events. Each organization is urged to inform the Parish Office promptly of all forthcoming activities and meetings so that publicity may be accurately given in this weekly "Parish News".

THE REV. THOMAS S. CLINE, D.D., Rector of Grace Church from 1913 to 1924, kindly assisted at the 10:00 A.M. Holy Communions during the summer months. On behalf of the whole parish, the Rector and Vestry want to take this opportunity to express their sincere appreciation to Dr. Cline for his gracious assistance at the Altar Rail during Mr. Spence's absence. Your Rector was particularly honored and pleased to have Dr. Cline present in the Sanctuary during these celebrations of the Holy Communion.

MANY PARISHIONERS HAVE INQUIRED as to the progress of our proposed Building Program during these summer months. We are happy to report that it is moving along on schedule, and we still expect that construction will commence later this year. As some of you know, there are many involved details and preparations to be completed prior to the start of any actual construction work. Your Building Committee has been busy all summer, and several lengthly meetings have been held with our architect, Mr. Talley, and his assistants for the purpose of working out these details. We are pleased that Mr. Talley is actually ahead of schedule with his task of drawing up the final plans, and it looks very much as though the coming year here at Grace Church will be an especially exciting one, with much activity within the old parish buildings, as well as on the new wing to join together the present buildings.

NOTE: Mr. W. Willis Gilmore, Building Fund Treasurer, reports that the total amount pledged to this Building Program is now close to the $134,000 mark. Of this pledged amount, almost $30,000 has already been received since the pledges went into effect last April. This, of course, is an excellent record for the first five months and should greatly encourage all of us in the enormous task ahead of us here. We are most thankful that many of you made a special effort to keep your Building Fund pledges up-to-date during these summer months. Mr. Gilmore reports that quite a few members have also made advance payments, and all of these things are responsible for the encouraging picture of our Building Fund at the moment. Certainly none of us has to be reminded that the final success of our whole Building Program will depend upon such continued loyalty and co-operation of all participating members in the period ahead. We have yet a long way to go, but we have made a good start, and we are definitely going ahead promptly with this program!

PLANS FOR THE OPENING OF CHURCH SCHOOL on Sunday, September 10th, at 9:15 A.M. are now completed. You will note on the previous page that we will open, as usual, with a Family Eucharist, after which all Church School pupils will go briefly to their new classes to meet their teachers and register for the year. The Nursery, of course, will be in operation in the former Rectory building during this service. All parents and children are urged to be present for this opening service.

NOTE: THE CHURCH SCHOOL COOK-OUT, which is open to all members of the parish, will be held on the back lawn of the church from 4:00 to 6:00 P.M. on Saturday, September 16th. This event is being held one week later this year so that more families will be able to attend. We hope to see everyone on this enjoyable occasion, as well as at all the Family Services throughout the coming year.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES THIS WEEK

Wed. Sept. 13—Helen & Charles Elliott, 205 Heatherwood Road, Zone 18.
Wed. Sept. 13—Elizabeth & David Black, 12 Mercer Hill Road, Ambler, Pa.
Sat. Sept. 16—Dorothy & Joseph Quinn, 600 E. Phil-Ellena Street, Zone 19.

SERVICES THIS COMING SUNDAY AT 7:30, 9:15, and 11:00 A.M., as listed on the preceding page. Thus, we remind you again that we return to our regular schedule of three services every Sunday, effective September 10th. The opening 9:15 A.M. Service this Sunday will be a Family Eucharist and will mark the re-opening of Church School for the coming year. Only the Nursery will be in operation during this Eucharist. All other children of Church School age and all parents will attend the opening service in the Church. At the conclusion of the Eucharist, all Church School pupils will report briefly to their classes for registration. Parents are invited to the Green Room for refreshments and informal conversation until their children have been registered. Actual classes will begin the following Sunday. It is most important that you and your whole family be present, for your absence would mean that our opening Family Service would be that much less complete!

IF YOU ARE THE PARENT of one or more of the pupils in our Church School, we urge you to remember that our parish program of Christian Education can be only as effective as your continued interest and support allows it to be. You can hardly expect this program to have much meaning for your children if they come, Sunday after Sunday, with the awareness that one or both of their parents are not interested enough to come along with them on a truly family basis! For most of us, Sunday seems to be the only day left when the whole family can be together, and certainly each family will be the richer for having begun that day by uniting together in God's House for such a Family Service. Don't let your child be a "Sunday morning orphan", while you stay home. In short, don't just send your children to Grace Church every Sunday — instead, BRING THEM WITH YOU!

IF YOU HAVE A SON OR DAUGHTER in college or in the service, please call the Parish Office soon to make certain we have their name in that file along with the correct address. We are continuing our procedure of mailing this weekly Parish News to all students and servicemen away from home, but we must first know of such persons and their proper address. We'll appreciate your help in keeping these records accurate.

THE FOLLOWING APPEAL has been made many times during the past two years, but it remains as important as ever. If you have any items of interest or forthcoming parish activities and projects, please see that the Parish Office receives a memorandum of the same for publication in this weekly Parish News! Never assume that everyone knows about your group's coming meeting or project, for you can realize from the parish calendar on the preceding page that we have many items each week to keep in mind. Remember, also, that such material must be submitted at least one week before the issue for which it is intended! The Parish News still goes to press each Monday morning prior to the Sunday for which it is dated. NOTE: For newspaper publicity, please call Mrs. Howard Foulkrod, whose name and telephone number you will find on the back page of this issue. For notices in the local newspapers, you must give her the copy at least two weeks early.

REMEMBER THE CHURCH SCHOOL COOK-OUT next Saturday, September 16th, on the back lawn of the church from 4:00 to 6:00 P.M. As noted last week, this event is open to all members of the parish. Best of all, you are not asked to bring anything to this enjoyable outdoor occasion, except yourself and family! Be sure to join us that day for an informal get-together with your fellow-parishioners, as well as sharing with us in this outdoor supper of grilled hot dogs and all the trimmings.

WE NEED MORE MEN TO SERVE AS USHERS during the 9:15 and 11:00 A.M. Sunday Services here in Grace Church. Mr. Frank Harris, our Director of Ushers, is most anxious to hear from any man of the parish who would be willing to serve in this capacity on certain Sundays during the year. Please give this appeal your immediate consideration and give your name to Mr. Harris at LI 8-2832, or to the Parish Office. Mr. Harris will see that you are efficiently trained in the duties of ushering before performing the same. Remember that an efficient group of ushers is an integral part of any church service and plays a most important role in enabling people to feel at home in this parish.

TELEVISION IS AN IMPORTANT COMMUNICATIONS MEDIA now being utilized by our Church. The Department of Communications of the Diocese of Pennsylvania has just sent us the following release: "The Rev. William J. Alberts, rector of Christ Church, Media, and the Rev. Joseph Koci, Jr., rector of Saint Peter's Church, Third and Pine Streets, are principals on the television program, 'The Goal of Life,' over WRCV-TV, Channel 3, on Sunday, September 17, from Noon to 12:30 P.M. 'The Goal of Life' is a new WRCV-TV series, and other Episcopal clergymen will be featured in coming weeks." This should prove to be a most interesting and stimulating program. We urge all of you who are able to view it and the other programs in this series.

THE GRACE CHURCH ORGAN plays a vital and important part in the Services of our Church. As a musical instrument, the organ has a long and interesting history. It is the earliest keyboard instrument. In medieval times organs were exchanged as gifts between royalty, and thus the organ became known as the "Instrument of Kings." Mozart wisely reversed this title, however, and called the organ the "King of all Instruments." During the days of Bach and Handel the organ reached its classical period of perfection. By the Nineteenth Century, however, organ builders began to turn the organ into an imitation orchestra, with the result that few composers considered writing for it. Today this situation has changed, and for the past twenty-five years organ builders have been trying to restore the organ to its former classical state. Here in Grace Church we have a Skinner organ which was installed in 1925 to replace the original organ. For several years now your vestry has realized that this organ (now over thirty-five years old) should be examined and evaluated. Dr. A. N. Barnes of Chicago was engaged for this purpose, and his recommendations were as follows: First, the console should be rebuilt or replaced by a new one. Secondly, the organ proper should be rebuilt according to modern standards in order to give the music the sparkle and brilliance our organ is capable of producing. In view of the first recommendation the Vestry has contracted with the Mohler Company to build a new console which will be installed about October 15, 1961. The second recommendation which would cost approximately fifteen thousand dollars has vestry approval. Nevertheless, funds are limited, and it is hoped that one or several persons might be interested in considering this project as a memorial in our rebuilding program. These steps when completed will continue to give Grace Church the fine choir and music which is most desirable in our church worship. (Article by Dr. Roy Hand for the Vestry).

CALENDAR FOR THE COMING WEEK

(September 24 to 30)

(Sunday)—THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will meet in the Memorial Room at 7:30 P.M. There will be a representative from the Bell Telephone Company to give a demonstrated lecture on the story of the Echo balloon satellite. How it will help with the world-wide communications system and what we may look forward to with its many other possibilities in the future. All young people are cordially welcomed!

(Thursday)—THE WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP, are making a tour of the historical houses in Fairmount Park. The bus will be at the Church at 10:30 A.M. to take them to the Art Museum for lunch and will return to the Church after the tour. All women are welcomed. Contact Mrs. George R. Kingeter, II—TU 4-1363. For those not interested in the Tour come as usual to the Parish House to work and bring your sandwich for lunch.

(Saturday)—BOY SCOUT TROOP #319 meets in the Memorial Room at 9:30 A.M.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES THIS COMING WEEK

Sun. Sept. 24—Ruth and Geoffrey Tattersfield, 2901 Woodpipe Lane, Zone 29
Tues. Sept. 26—Ruth and Howard Haines, 7804 Gilbert Street, Zone 50
Wed. Sept. 27—Frances and William Marshall, 39 Carpenter Lane, Zone 19
Sat. Sept. 30—Edith and George Harbison, 511 E. Willow Grove Avenue, Zone 18

PLEASE MARK YOUR CALENDARS NOW FOR TWO IMPORTANT EVENTS in the parish during the next two months:

LOYALTY SUNDAY—October 29th.
COUNTRY FAIR—Friday and Saturday, November 10th and 11th.

BOYS AND GIRLS ARE NEEDED FOR THE CHOIR! Our Organist and Choirmaster, Mr. Newell Robinson, asks that any interested boys from 8 to 12 years of age contact him as soon as possible. The same applies to girls from the second grade on up. Parents of children in this age group are urged to discuss this matter with them, for the training and experience received by the youngsters in our choirs here serve them well in the years that follow. The boys will rehearse Monday and Wednesday afternoons each week, and the girls rehearse every Friday evening. If your son or daughter is interested in this excellent opportunity, please contact Mr. Robinson now at the number listed in the Directory on the opposite side of this page, or contact the Parish Office.

THE CHURCH WORLD SERVICE CLOTHING DRIVE is in progress, and The United Church Women of Chestnut Hill urge your cooperation in helping them collect articles of clothing, blankets, materials, and soap. Please bring such items to the Parish House not later than September 24th. Also make certain that all items are clearly marked for "Church World Service". All such donations will be taken from here to St. Paul's Church after that date, so you are urged to see that your contributions are brought here to our Parish House by this coming Sunday at the very latest. Please give this appeal your Christian concern and attention, as the articles needed above will be joyously received by people of distant lands, and these people desperately need many of the things which we have in abundance.

THE NEW "FORWARDS" for late Trinity have arrived and will be found in the Tract Rack in the North Porch. Contained in this booklet is a brief text and message for each day of the coming weeks before Advent, and the few minutes spent each day reading the same will certainly enrich your hours during the rest of the day. Please feel free to take home a copy for your use at home, and, if you have a friend who is sick or shut-in, you are welcome to take an extra one for that purpose.

PLANS FOR THE "COUNTRY FAIR", NOVEMBER 10th and 11th this year, took form at the first committee meeting last week. Enthusiastic and hard working as the group is, the ultimate success of this year's "Country Fair" still depends upon the entire parish! We know we can count on the support of every member in the weeks ahead. Proceeds last year finally reached a total of $1,501.25, and with increased interest and effort this year, we look forward to still better results. Donations are again needed at almost every booth, and a list will be posted on the Parish House bulletin board giving details. Home and hand-made items are in great demand, but if your talent lies elsewhere, purchased items or cash donations will certainly help. Remember, too, that we will need "white elephants", books, toys, games, etc. For more information, please contact Mr. Nicholas J. Ninos at CH 7-4763.

THE SIXTIETH GENERAL CONVENTION of The Protestant Episcopal Church is now being held in Detroit, Michigan. The work of the Convention takes place daily in sessions of the Church's two-house governing body, the 195 member House of Bishops and the 670 member House of Deputies, as well as in the numerous committee meetings held on various aspects of the Church's life. On September 19, 20, 21, joint sessions of the two Houses are to be held. The Triennial Meeting of the Women of the Church will take place simultaneously with General Convention. Many important issues will be taken up by this Convention. All of us should be aware of what is taking place there these weeks, as these matters will have a real bearing on our lives as members of the Church. We urge you to follow the Convention reports in your daily paper and such Church periodicals as "The Episcopalian" and "The Living Church".

THE TREASURER OF OUR BUILDING FUND, Mr. W. Willis Gilmore, reports several members recently have inquired as to when the first statement on the Building Fund pledges will be mailed out. In answer to that question, these statements will be mailed to us around the middle of October and will cover the first six months of our three-year pledge period. You may recall that these pledges became effective last April 16th. Thus, the first half-year will be concluded as of Sunday, October 8th. Normally such a statement will be sent out on a quarterly basis, However, with so many members away on vacation when the first quarter ended last July, it was decided to postpone mailing the first Building Fund statement until this six-month period had elapsed. Your Rector knows well that many of us have had to make a special effort to keep our pledges up-to-date during these past months, and the fact that an overwhelming majority of members have done so should encourage all of us to continue this effort during the next two and one-half years remaining! In the next two weeks then, let each one of us make certain that each pledge is up-to-date as of the end of our first six-month period on October 8th. Then we will truly see our Building Program get off to an admirable start within the next few months!

BOY SCOUT TROOP #319, sponsored by our parish, is now beginning its second year of existence, having been started here last year. Leading the troop this coming year as Scoutmaster will be one of our parishioners, Mr. William Scheib, and we congratulate him for accepting this important post. Mr. William Widmer, to whom we are most grateful for his devoted and conscientious leadership as the troop's first Scoutmaster, will now become Chairman of our Troop Committee. The troop's able Assistant Scoutmaster, Mr. Robert Hewitt, will continue in that same capacity during the coming year. What pleases us most is the fact that all of these men, together with all the men of the Troop Committee, are members of Grace Church, and we should well appreciate the fact that we have such men of ability and dedication in our midst. Also, in the past week, three more men of the parish have graciously consented to serve on the Troop Committee, encouraging us in this important endeavor all the more. The complete list of Troop Committee members will be published here in two weeks. All boys of Troop 319 are asked to remember that they will meet this year at 8:30 P.M. each Friday on the second floor of the Parish House.

OUR WEDDING ANNIVERSARY FILE on the members of this parish is fairly complete, but we're certain that we still lack the anniversary date for some of our members. The file was started originally on the basis of the information in the questionnaires returned in 1959, but there are still some members from whom we have never received such a date for this file. For the past two years, forthcoming anniversaries of members have been listed in the Parish News. If your anniversary has not been listed there in the past, it means that we do not have your in this file, and we would appreciate your calling the Parish Office at your convenience to call this to our attention.

"LOYALTY SUNDAY" IS OCTOBER 29th THIS YEAR, and that important date for all members of Grace Church is just four weeks away. Each year we publish this date well in advance, in the hope that all members will mark it down just as early and do everything in their power to make certain that they will be here with us at the 11:00 A.M. Loyalty Sunday Service that day! This year's Every Member Canvass Chairman, Mr. Arthur Parkinson, and the whole Canvass team urge YOU to take note of the above date and circle it on your calendar today! Above all, plan now to keep your date with your parish that Sunday at 11:00 A.M.

Sat. Oct. 14—Elizabeth & Harold Bird, 317 E. Gorgas Lane, Zone 19

THE UNITED COUNCIL OF CHURCH WOMEN of Chestnut Hill and vicinity will hold their annual dessert luncheon and meeting at Saint Martin in the Fields Church, St. Martin's Lane and Willow Grove Ave., on Tuesday, October 10th, at 1:00 P.M. All interested women of this parish are cordially invited, and are urged to attend.

THE BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB will resume their monthly meetings on Monday, October 16th, in the Parish House. The meeting at 8:00 P.M. will be preceded by dinner here at 6:30 P.M. Call Miss Elizabeth Eynon at AD 3-3107 before October 12th for reservations. Following the business meeting Deaconess Katharine Putnam will speak of the work of the Church in China. Deaconess Putnam was for many years a missionary there, and her talk should be both interesting and informative. The following officers have been elected for 1961-62: President, Mrs. Humphrey Read; Vice President, Miss Mary Leopold; Treasurer, Miss Florence Fitzpatrick; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Bertha K. Hazzard; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Edna Hughes.

THE ANNUAL RUMMAGE SALE sponsored by the Women of Grace Church, Day Group will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 17th and 18th. The hours of the sale on both days will be the same, 7:00 P.M. to 9:30 P.M. in the Memorial Room of the Parish House. Everyone's support is asked for this project. Please bring any saleable articles — clothing, jewelry, small pieces of furniture, etc. — to either the Parish House or the Parish Office. Please also make certain that such items are plainly marked "Rummage Sale." Don't delay, for there is very little time left.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP is off to a good start again this year. On Sunday, September 24th Mr. Albert S. Barnes of the Bell Telephone Company Public Relations Department gave a demonstration lecture on Project Echo, the communications satellite. It was a very interesting program, and was enjoyed by all. This Sunday, October 8th, Mr. Michael DiSanto will give a talk and show a film on communism. This, too, should be a very interesting program. Other programs planned for the coming weeks include a visit to the Philadelphia Rehabilitation Center, a color film on the Mayflower II, and several speakers on a variety of topics. Several dances are also planned for the coming months. All young people in grades 9 through 12 are cordially invited to attend these programs on Sunday evenings at 7:30 P.M. in the Memorial Room.

FROM TIME TO TIME a poem or quotation comes to our attention which in its own way seems to say a great deal. The following is from the pen of John Donne, the Seventeenth Century Anglican who was one of the truly great preachers and writers of our Church:

I shall not live till I see God; and when I have seen Him I shall never die.

Think about this awhile, not just in terms of a future life, but in terms of the life we live now. Truly, without God we are dead.

(Friday)—BOY SCOUT TROOP #319 meets on the second floor of the Parish House at 8:30 P.M .

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES THIS COMING WEEK

Tues. Oct. 17—Ruth & Richard Wilson, 219 Buck Lane, Haverford, Pa.
Tues. Oct. 17—Edith & Edward Dorwarth, 106 S. Quincy Avenue, Margate, N.J.
Wed. Oct. 18—Mae & Reginald Hardy, 505 Murdoch Road, Zone 19.

"FROM GOD THROUGH ME TO HIS WORLD" is the Every Member Canvass theme throughout the Episcopal Church this fall. You will note this same theme at the top of each of three letters you will receive during these weeks preceding our Every Member Canvass on Loyalty Sunday, October 29th. The first letter is from the Rector, and you should have received this one prior to this Parish News issue. The second letter will reach you during the coming week and will be from Mr. Benjamin F. Gotwals, our Accounting Warden. The following week, you will receive the last letter from Mr. Arthur B. S. Parkinson, this year's Every Member Canvass Chairman for our parish. Please read these letters carefully, for their purpose is to inform and guide you in your important part in the coming Canvass. Your Rector hopes that the most important date on your calendar for the next few weeks is that of this 11:00 A.M. Loyalty Service on October 29th. Guard that date and time zealously for your parish, and let nothing prevent your attendance at that service! For, in a very real sense, this Loyalty Sunday Service each year tells us most clearly how many members of Grace Church, Mt. Airy are willing to take a loyal stand together as dedicated Christians for God's work through this parish all through the year!

DON'T WAIT UNTIL LOYALTY SUNDAY to do some serious and prayerful thinking about what you honestly consider your proportionate share to be for the coming year in the extension of His work through your parish! Before we gather together on Loyalty Sunday, each one of us should have done this carefully and well. In the days remaining until then, let us remember that the basic question that Christian Stewardship puts to each one of us is simply this: "ARE YOU REALLY COMMITTED TO CHRIST?" You and I will have to answer this question individually in our own hearts, and the true answer for the Christian is expressed not only in words, but more truly in our deeds! How well you and I are able to answer this question above in our own hearts will certainly determine how effectively we will be able to witness to our committment as Christians in all areas of our lives. Our combined presence and deeds on Loyalty Sunday is but one area, but it is a most important and responsible one — to you, to your Church, and certainly to Almighty God!

THERE WILL BE NO 9:15 A.M. SERVICE ON OCTOBER 29th. Instead, we ask that all those who normally attend the Family Service come and join us at the 11:00 A.M. Loyalty Service that day. Note that the Nursery, Kindergarten, and Primary Departments (Grade 1, 2, 3) will meet in the Parish House that day only, during the 11:00 A.M. Service. Members of the Church School in 4th Grade and above are to attend that 11:00 A.M. Loyalty Service with everyone else. We will revert to our normal Sunday Schedule the following Sunday.

IN CONNECTION WITH THE "COUNTRY FAIR", boxes of stationery will again be distributed in the Church School, from 4th Grade on up, starting this coming Sunday, so that the students there may again help with the project of selling this stationery to friends and neighbors.

A Reminder — there is a list posted on the Parish House Bulletin Board of some of the booths that are in the need of contributions of home-made, purchased, or used items. Contact people listed if you have any questions about what you can do to help.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES THIS COMING WEEK

Sun. Oct. 22—Viola & Richard Brehm, II, Scotforth Road, Zone 19.
Wed. Oct. 25—Elinor & W. Norton Johnson, Jr. 7428 Devon Street, Zone 19.
Fri. Oct. 27—Dorothy & Lester Pfeifer, 371 E. Gowen Avenue, Zone 19.

THE WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP will hold their annual ingathering of the Coin Banks at a special luncheon on Thursday, November 2nd. This date is only eleven days away, so please mark your calendars now and plan to be present at that time.

LOYALTY SUNDAY, OCTOBER 29th, is now only one week away. You have been hearing a lot about this date in recent weeks, and with good reason, for the success of this great day in our parish calendar depends upon each and everyone of YOU in a very real way. Your attendance at the 11:00 A.M. Service on Sunday, October 29th, is very important for you, your fellow-parishoners, the future of our whole parish, and in a very real way, even the future of the Church itself. The Church can only be as strong as are the individual parishes of which it is comprised. Loyalty Sunday is our opportunity to witness to the faith and strength of the Church. We urge you to allow no other plans to interfere with your being present here with us in Grace Church on that day.

The Loyalty Sunday method of conducting our annual Every Member Canvass is well named, for on this Sunday we ask all members to give active witness to their loyalty to Grace Church and to the Church as a whole. We do this in two ways:

(1) By being present in Church for the 11:00 A.M. Loyalty Sunday Service.

(2) By making a pledge of financial support to Grace Church for 1962. You may wonder why we want all members of Grace Church to be present at the one 11:00 A.M. Service on Loyalty Sunday. The reason is simple. In a parish this size all of us seldom have the opportunity to gather together for worship as one complete parish family. When we are able to do this it is usually a very memorable and moving experience. Loyalty Sunday each year not only gives us this opportunity, but it also provides us with a most dedicated purpose as we corporately offer up to God our individual gifts in gratitude for what He has given each one of us.

In order that everyone may be better able to attend the 11:00 A.M. Service THERE WILL BE NO 9:15 A.M. SERVICE ON LOYALTY SUNDAY, OCTOBER 29th. For the benefit of parents with younger children who normally attend the Family Service the Nursery, Kindergarten, and Primary (Grades 1, 2, and 3) Departments of the Church School will meet during the 11:00 A.M. Service on this one day only. Members of the Church School in Grades 4 and above are asked to attend the Loyalty Service with their parents. We will then revert to our normal schedule the following Sunday.

The 7:30 A.M. Celebration of the Holy Communion will be held as usual on Loyalty Sunday, but we urge those who attend that Service to return at 11:00 A.M. to attend the Loyalty Service with their fellow-members of this parish.

THE MEN'S CLUB WILL HOLD THEIR FAMOUS ANNUAL HAM AND OYSTER DINNER on Monday, October 23rd, at 6:30 P.M. in the Parish House. The price of the dinner is $2.00, and as everyone who has ever attended can testify, it's well worth it. Following the dinner Mr. William E. Strasburg, publisher of the Jenkintown Times Chronicle, will speak on his recent trip to Japan, Formosa, Hongkong, Singapore, India, Pakistan, and other areas of the East. All men are cordially invited and urged to bring a friend.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will hold their annual Hallowe'en Dance on Saturday, October 28th, from 8:00 to 11:30 P.M. in the Parish House. The price of admission is 25c per person. This is a costume affair, and those who show up without a costume will be charged twice the regular admission. All young people are invited to attend-in costume!

"BE IN GRACE CHURCH THIS SUNDAY AT THE 11:00 A.M. LOYALTY SERVICE!"

THIS SUNDAY, OCTOBER 29th, IS "LOYALTY SUNDAY"

HOW ABOUT YOU THIS SUNDAY AT 11:00 A.M.? This Sunday, October 29th, is "LOYALTY SUNDAY" for all members and friends of Grace Church, Mt. Airy, and your attendance at the 11:00 A.M. Service is of the greatest importance to you and your parish! Our Every Member Canvass this year is perhaps one of the most important ever held in this parish. While this forthcoming Canvass is, of course, separate from our present Building Program in every respect, it is only common sense to realize that this year's Canvass for the normal support of our parish in 1962 must be successful, if our progress on the present Building Program is to be maintained! The coming months here will see much exciting activity as our Building Program goes into high gear with the beginning of actual construction and modernization, but we will be able to enter this next phase promptly only if you and I continue to help meet the normal and regular needs of parish operation. We are now on the threshold of a new era at Grace Church — and your attendance at the Loyalty Service this Sunday will tell us all that we are ready to go ahead!

NOTE: SO THAT ALL MEMBERS MAY BE PRESENT AT 11:00 A.M. ON SUNDAY, our Church School will meet during the 11:00 A.M. Service for this Sunday only. Nursery, Kindergarten, First, Second, and Third Grades will meet in their usual locations at that time. All pupils from Fourth Grade on up are asked to attend the Loyalty Service in Church with their parents. Thus, by eliminating the 9:15 Service for this Sunday and re-scheduling the Church School classes, we have done everything possible to allow all members of the parish to gather together at 11:00 A.M. for this one great Loyalty Sunday Service. We'll be looking for YOU and YOURS this Sunday!

ALL WOMEN ARE INVITED to hear Mrs. Charles B. Allen, Vice President of the Department of Christian Education, when she speaks here on Thursday, November 2nd, at 1:00 P.M. Mrs. Allen was a delegate to the recent Triennial Meeting at the General Convention in Detroit and will give us the highlights from the Women's Divisions. The women of our Day Group are pleased to have her here to speak on this most timely subject and invite all women of the parish to attend the Noon Luncheon and the program at 1 P.M.

REMEMBER TO BRING THOSE COIN BANKS on Thursday, November 2nd, to the 9:30 A.M. Holy Communion and Memorial Service for the Women of Grace Church, Day Group, at which time these special gifts will be dedicated. If it is impossible to present your Coin Bank at this Service, please bring it with you to the Day Group's Luncheon that day. If unable to attend at all that day, please mail to Mrs. Newell Robinson, 7319 Oak Lane Road, Zone 26, or Miss Gertrude Knapp, 7222 Sprague Street, Zone 19. All women are reminded that, in returning these Coin Banks, it's that little extra that does so much!

BOY SCOUT TROOP 319 "Court of Honor" and re-chartering ceremonies will be held this Friday evening, October 27th, at 6:30 P.M. in the Parish House. The ceremonies will be preceded by a spaghetti dinner, and the parents and families of the Boy Scouts are invited to attend this most important function. The Troop will have the Fall Father and Son overnight hike on November 4th and 5th at Camp Hart which has excellent camping facilities, including cabins with built-in fireplaces to provide shelter from inclement weather.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES THIS COMING WEEK

Fri. Nov. 17—Margaret and George Gawthrop, 113 W. Mt.Airy Ave., Zone 19

EVERYONE—COME TO THE FAIR! Start your Christmas shopping early this Friday and Saturday at the "Country Fair" in the Parish House. There will be items on sale to suit all ages and all pocketbooks. Plan to have your lunch on Saturday in the Green Room with us, for the usual good things to eat will be available there, and this Saturday lunch is always an enjoyable event at our annual "Country Fair". Remember this year, for each purchase you make of one dollar or more, you will receive a bonus of a numbered double ticket. Half of this ticket will be deposited in a designated box and may entitle you to an attractive door prize at the Fair's conclusion. You are also reminded that the fine stationery sold each year for this event is still available through any member of the Church School from Fourth Grade on up.

NOTE: Your Rector urges all parishioners to remember that the most important feature of this coming "Country Fair", as well as any such all-parish occasion, is certainly YOUR PRESENCE!!! Every year this great event involves much advance planning, a great deal of hard work, and grand offerings of time, talents, and service on the part of all those persons involved. The dedicated Committee and Chairman, Mr. Nicholas Ninos, have proven that again this year. They, with the many persons who have contributed various items to this Fair, have done all possible to insure this Year's "Country Fair" of a successful conclusion. But their faithful efforts need the witness of your attendance and support during this Friday and Saturday—please give it that on at least one of these two days! Don't miss out on this wonderful opportunity to join your fellow-members in this informal and most enjoyable event of our annual "Country Fair." Bring your friends, for they will surely appreciate the opportunity to share in the friendly fellowship that is so vitally a part of our parish family. SO COME TO THE FAIR—on Friday evening from 7:30 to 10:00, on Saturday from 10:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.—all of us will be looking for YOU!

ON SATURDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 18th, A SQUARE DANCE has been planned by our Young People's Fellowship in connection with the Fair. This event will be held from 8:00 to 11:30 P.M. that evening in our Parish House. Everyone is welcome, from six to one hundred and six! As last year, you may come to dance, or just to watch. Either way, you will certainly enjoy yourself. A group of experienced dancers will come with the Caller to show us the steps. It promises again to be a most enjoyable evening. You may purchase tickets from any Y.P.F. member. Tickets will also be sold for this dance during the "Country Fair" this week-end. The cost of these will be $1.75 a couple, $1.00 a person, and 75c for a child.

ADVANCE NOTICE TO THE CHURCH SCHOOL: There will be a special Thanksgiving Offering during the 9:15 A.M. Family Service on Sunday, Nov. 19th. In accordance with our tradition for many years, children of the Nursery, Kindergarten, and Primary Departments are asked to bring apples to that service. These will be given to the House of Rest in Germantown. All pupils of the Fourth Grade and up are asked to bring jams or jellies that day, and these offerings will go to All Saints' Hospital, Chestnut Hill. Please make note of this date now, so that you will not forget to bring your Thanksgiving gift that day. In this way we show our own gratitude to God and help make Thanksgiving Day more complete for all these people at the House of Rest and All Saints' Hospital!

CALENDAR FOR THE COMING WEEK

(November 19 to 25)

(Sunday)—THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will meet in the Memorial Room at 7:30 P.M. Mr. Merrill Brockway, Television Producer and Director on Station WCAU-TV will speak to the Y.P.F.

(Monday)—THE BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB will have their regular monthly dinner at 6:30 P.M. in the Brown Room of the Parish House. For their program at 8:00 P.M. they have Mr. Robert C. Flanders speak on the Seaman's Institute. He is former Editor of the Diocesan Church News and is now associated with the Seaman's Institute. All women of the Parish are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

(Tuesday)—THE 'COUNTRY FAIR' REPORT MEETING will be held in the Parish House at 8:00 P.M. Everyone that had a booth at the 'Fair' please make sure a representative is present at this meeting.

(Friday)—BOY SCOUT TROOP No. 319 will meet in the Parish House on the second floor at 8:30 P.M.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES THIS COMING WEEK

Sun. Nov. 19—Josephine & Henry L. Schimpf, Jr., 7100 McCallum St., Zone 19
Sun. Nov. 19—Evelyn & William A. Widmer, Jr., 50 W. Rockland St., Zone 44
Tues. Nov. 21—Sidney & Frederick W. Sutor, 6710 Anderson St., Zone 19
Tues. Nov. 21—Evelyn & Herman Frank, 1096 Randolph Rd., Meadowbrk., Pa.
Wed. Nov. 22—Helen & Leon E. Tyler, 5436-A Hermit Terrace, Zone 28

THE COUNTRY FAIR CHAIRMAN, Mr. Nicholas Ninos, expresses his thanks to all of you who helped make this year's "Fair" a most enjoyable one—this includes all those who worked so long and hard on preparations, those on duty at the booths on both days, those who contributed the items for sale, and finally all those who supported this affair by their attendance. To each and every one of you a sincere "thank you" from Mr. Ninos and from the staff of Grace Church. The final figure on the proceeds is not yet available, but surely the amount can never equal the time and effort expended by the Committee and the many "helpers."

The concluding event of the "Country Fair" is the SQUARE DANCE which will be held on Saturday, November 18. The profits from this dance will be added to the final total. The Young People's Fellowship has worked hard planning this dance as their contribution to the "Mission Fund"—so please support them! The Square Dance is open to people of all ages—from SIX to ONE HUNDRED AND SIX! Bring your friends and neighbors. Tickets may be purchased from YPF members or at the door on Saturday night. The cost is $1.00 a person, $1.75 a couple, and 50c for children (up to and including 12 years). The time is from 8:00 to 11:30 P.M. A group of experienced dancers is scheduled to come with the caller in order to show us the steps and entertain us with some exhibition dancing. So come to watch—if you dare not dance! This promises to be an interesting and fun-filled evening for everyone.

A FEW CHURCH CALENDARS remain unsold from the Country Fair. Most of you are familiar with these attractive wall calendars which graphically illustrate the seasons and special days of the Church Year. This calendar for 1962 shows a picture of Grace Church and is thus in a very real way our own calendar. There should be one in the home of every Grace Church family. If you have not as yet acquired one, please contact the Church Office or Mrs. William B. Walton, CH 7-1216. The cost of the calendar is 75c.

DON'T FORGET THE THANKSGIVING OFFERING at the Family Service on Sunday, November 19. Children in the Kindergarten and Primary Departments of the Church School are asked to bring apples to the Service. These will then be taken to The House of Rest, the diocesan home for the aged women. The pupils in grades 4 and up are asked to bring jars of jam or jelly which will be taken to All Saints Hospital. This is an important offering— not so much in the value of the gifts, but that by giving to those who are separated from their family on this Thanksgiving Day we are offering in a concrete way our own thanksgiving to Almighty God for the many gifts and blessings He has given us.

HAVE YOU MADE YOUR PLEDGE FOR 1962? If you have not yet done so, we would greatly appreciate your prompt co-operation in this matter. It is now almost three weeks since Loyalty Sunday. If you were unable to be with us here in church that day, your canvasser certainly should have made a follow-up call on you by this time. If he has not done so by the time you read this, we ask that you notify us to this effect by calling our Every Member Canvass Chairman, Mr. Arthur Parkinson, at CH 7-6423, or by calling the Parish Office. Needless to say, the longer it takes to complete this Canvass, the longer your Vestry will be delayed in planning effectively and wisely for our parish needs throughout the coming year.

THE ADVENT CORPORATE COMMUNION FOR MEN AND BOYS will be celebrated on Sunday, December 3, at 7:30 A.M. Following the Service breakfast will be served in the Parish House. Post cards announcing this event are being sent out this week. These cards include a return portion which we urge you to send back as soon as possible in order that those who prepare the breakfast will have an accurate idea of how many will be in attendance. This annual event which is held in parishes throughout the country gives Christian men everywhere a wonderful opportunity to witness to their Faith and to enjoy the fellowship of their brothers in Christ. We would like all the fathers and sons of Grace Church to be present at this Service.

PARISH DATA — The following people have been transferred into Grace Church since June 4, 1961:

We welcome all these new people into the fellowship of the Grace Church family.

THE UNITED CHURCH WOMEN OF CHESTNUT HILL AND VICINITY on behalf of CHURCH WORLD SERVICE are making their last call for used clothing, blankets, soap, and money until next spring. This collection replaces the house to house canvass usually held in November. Please bring these items to the Church any time before Friday, December 8. On that date they will be delivered to St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, our local colllection center. Be sure your donations are plainly marked, "Church World Service."

THE MEN'S CLUB OF GRACE CHURCH will hold their monthly meeting on Monday, November 27, at 8:00 P.M. in the Parish House. The speaker for this meeting will be Marvin E. Wolfgang, A.B., M.A., Ph.D. who will speak on "The Conflicts of Penal Philosophy." Dr. Wolfgang is an Associate Professor of Sociology at the University of Pennsylvania. His subject for the evening should be of vital concern to every civic-minded citizen. Don't miss this meeting!

LOST AND FOUND — During recent months several items have been found around the Church. We have a girl's small red pocketbook, several assorted gloves and scarfs, and other items. If you have lost any of these items please check with the Church Office. If they are not claimed soon they will be disposed of.

THE SEASON OF ADVENT inaugurates a new Christian year. This Sunday, December 3, is the First Sunday in Advent, and is thus the New Year's Festival of the Christian Church. In many respects Advent is the most important season of the Christian Year. It has a unique double emphasis which pulls together the historical past and the as-yet-unknown future. It serves as a liturgical preparation for Christmas, and thus carries a certain joyful note as we recall once again the redemption that has come to us in the Incarnation. Advent, however, is also a season of preparation for the Second Coming of our Lord at the end of time. Its secondary theme is thus one of penitence and awe as we await the coming Judgment. "Yet to the spiritually discerning believer both of these tremendous and signal events of past and future are experienced as eternally present realities."

Here in Grace Church Advent should be a season in which we renew our loyalty to our Lord and to his Church. During the summer and early fall, vacations and other activities have taken us away from Church, and the attendance at our Services here has fallen off. This seems to be the normal pattern, but now is the time for us to reverse the trend. If our Christmas is to be meaningful and truly Christian we must begin now to make ready our hearts and minds that Christ might be born in us.

The Advent Corporate Communion for Men and Boys will be celebrated at the 7:30 Service on this Sunday, December 3, and will be followed by a breakfast in the Parish House. Here is a real opportunity for all the male members of this parish to begin the "New Year" in a truly Christian manner. We would like all the men and boys of Grace Church to be present at this Service.

OUR 1962 EVERY MEMBER CANVASS CLOSES THIS SUNDAY, December 3. At that time a final tabulation will be made by the Canvass Committee of the pledges for the coming year. Mr. Arthur B. S. Parkinson, Every Member Canvass Chairman, informs us that there are still some members of Grace Church from whom we have not heard concerning their 1962 pledges. If you consider yourself a concerned and loyal member of this parish, you must certainly be aware of how important it is to you and to your parish that the pledges of all members be received by this coming Sunday. Certainly in the five weeks that have now passed since Loyalty Sunday, all of us have had more than ample opportunity to consider prayerfully the matter of our 1962 pledges to Grace Church and to take action in presenting them. If you have not done so, please let us hear from you by this coming Sunday at the latest!! Remember that God's work through this parish can only be as effective as your continued and faithful support help make it so.

NOTE: For those persons who have just recently affiliated with Grace Church, and were not therefore contacted in our Every Member Canvass, there are pledge cards available in the Tract Rack of the North Porch. These may be put in the offering plates on Sunday.

REMEMBER THE CLOTHING DRIVE of the United Church Women of Chestnut Hill for the Church World Service. Clothing and other items must be in by Friday, December 8. Please see last week's Parish News for details.

ADVANCE NOTICE: CHRISTMAS SERVICES

Due to the fact that Christmas falls on a Monday this year the Church School Christmas Pageant will not be held in the afternoon of Christmas Eve. Instead it will be presented during the 9:15 A. M. Family Service on that day. This is the only change in scheduling. Following is a complete list of services for Christmas:

Sunday, December 24th
- 7:30 A.M.—Holy Communion
- 9:15 A.M.—Church School Christmas Pageant
- 11:00 A.M.—Litany and Ante-Communion
- 11:00 P.M.—Carol Service and Candlelight Eucharist

Christmas Day
- 7:30 A.M.—Holy Communion
- 10:00 A.M.—Family Eucharist

THE 1962 EVERY MEMBER CANVASS which was concluded last Sunday shows that as of that day we have received pledges totalling $42,458.00 toward the support of Grace Church in the coming year. On the basis of this figure your vestry will now proceed to draw up a budget for the coming year. This does not mean, however, that those people who have not as yet turned in their pledges can forget about same. It is still imperative that we hear from everyone regarding their 1962 pledge to Grace Church. We urge you once again, if you have not done so already, to please turn in your pledge card now!

We would also like to take this opportunity to thank our Every Member Canvass Chairman, Mr. Arthur B. S. Parkinson, and his full team of helpers for the fine job they have done in conducting this year's canvass.

HELP US DECORATE THE CHURCH FOR CHRISTMAS on Sunday, December 17th, starting at 7:30 P.M. As in years past this should prove to be a most enjoyable and informal occasion, and all members of this parish, young and old alike, are invited to come out that evening. The more of us who are present, the more enjoyable the evening will be, and the less time it will take for the Church to be decorated. After the decoration has been completed refreshments will be served in the Parish House. Plan now to be with us that evening.

BOYS AND GIRLS ARE NEEDED FOR THE CHOIR! Our organist and choirmaster, Mr. Newell Robinson, has asked that all boys from 8 to 12 years of age, and girls from the second grade on up, who are interested in singing in our choir please get in touch with him. Parents of children in this age group are urged to discuss this matter with their youngsters. The training and experience received in our choirs here will serve these young people well in the years that follow. The boys rehearse Monday and Wednesday afternoons each week, and the girls rehease every Friday evening. If your son or daughter is interested in this excellent opportunity please contact Mr. Robinson now at the number listed in the Directory on the front page of this "Parish News," or contact the Parish Office.

THE ADVENT CORPORATE COMMUNION FOR MEN AND BOYS which was held last Sunday, December 3, was very well attended. Over seventy men and boys were present for the Eucharist and the breakfast which followed. We wish to thank all of you for your cooperation in making this event such a success. Our especial thanks to Mr. and Mrs. William Wilkinson and the women of the "Evening Group" who prepared and served the breakfast.

OUR RECENT PARISH BAZAAR, the "Country Fair," was a huge success, and was most certainly enjoyed by all who attended it. Mr. Nicholas Ninos, chairman of the Fair, now reports that the net proceeds to date amount to $1,320.00. Again we wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Ninos and everyone else who worked at the Fair for the splendid job they did, and for providing us with the opportunity of having such a grand time together.

PARISH DATA—Baptisms: Steven Drew McLarnon, baptized December 3rd. Suzanne Josephine Lannan, baptized December 3rd.

Transfers into the parish: Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. T. O'Neill, 521 East Wadsworth St. (19).

Mrs. Arthur W. McLarnon, 392 East Upsal St. (19).

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES THIS COMING WEEK

Wed., Dec. 20—Maria and Frank C. Harris, 938 E. Dorset St., Zone 50.
Thurs., Dec. 21—Edna and Charles Robbins, 309 E. Wadsworth St., Zone 19.
Thurs., Dec. 21—Florence and Herbert Newcomb, 548 Paddock Rd., Ambler, Pa.
Sat., Dec. 23—Virginia and Glenn A. Barnes, 109 Cliff Terrace, Wyncote, Pa.

AFTER EXHORTING HIS PARISHIONERS SINCE 1959 to see that all news items for this Parish News are submitted before the Noon deadline each Monday, your Rector is guilty himself of failure to do so! For, at 11:35 A.M. last Monday, December 4th, Mrs. Bauder gave birth to a nine pound, seven ounce son at Abington Hospital. As far as your Rector was concerned at that moment, the Parish News deadline was the fartherest thing from his mind, and, by the time he returned home that afternoon, the copy for that issue had long since gone to the printer. He trusts his parishioners will understand that, from a father's point of view, he had the very best of reasons to be a bit forgetful of 'lesser' things such as the Parish News that day. Mrs. Bauder and son, Todd Jeffrey, are now home and doing quite well, and we thank the many members for their kindness and concern during the past week. God's rich blessing of a new life into a home and family always brings much happiness and deep joy, and it means even more when those around you feel concerned enough to share in this happiness with you!

HELP DECORATE OUR CHURCH AT 7:30 P.M. THIS SUNDAY, Dec. 17th, for this is always an enjoyable occasion for those who participate. As last year, all members of all ages are invited to join with members of their parish family this Sunday evening to prepare the church for Christmas. Upon completion of the decorating, refreshments will be served to all in the Parish House. If you're free this Sunday evening, come out and lend a hand. We know you'll enjoy it, and Mr. Howard Foulkrod, in charge of this project, will appreciate your help.

PLEASE NOTE THE CHRISTMAS SERVICE SCHEDULE on the opposite page and post it in your home for easy reference. This schedule will be in next week's Parish News again, but it is quite possible that you will not receive that issue on schedule, what with the Christmas mail flooding the Post Office, etc. Plan now on which Christmas service you will attend, with the knowledge that it should be your deepest concern and privilege to make your Christmas communion at one of the three celebrations that Holy Day!

THE CHURCH SCHOOL CHRISTMAS PAGEANT will take place in the church at 9:15 A.M. on Sunday, December 24th. All members and their friends are urged to witness this brief but moving drama, regardless of which Sunday service they normally attend. Again under the very able direction of Miss Adelaide Sheble, this Pageant of the Nativity will be beautifully and reverently performed by members of our Church School. Above all else, it affords each one of us the needed opportunity to better prepare for the true meaning of Christ's Birth at Christmas, and you will be the richer for having attended.

NOTE: Every Church School member is reminded to bring a gift to this Pageant at 9:15 A.M.! These gifts will be presented at the Creche during that service. As in past years, these gifts will go to the many needy boys and girls at St. John's Settlement House here in Philadelphia. Suggested gifts are mittens, sweaters, books, toys, etc. When you bring this gift, make sure it is marked for a boy or girl and the approximate age for whom it is intended.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES THIS COMING WEEK

Sun., Dec. 24—Phyllis M. and Wesley A. Ziegler, 1012 W. Heather Rd., Oreland, Pa.

NOTE: The Nursery will be in operation during the 10:00 A.M. Family Eucharist on Christmas Day. All children above Nursery age are to attend this service with their parents.

PROGRESS REPORT ON OUR BUILDING PROGRAM: The Building Committee met with the architect, Mr. Charles Talley, last Monday evening for the purpose of inspecting the plans. This was accomplished, and the meeting closed with the Committee authorizing Mr. Talley to begin seeking bids immediately on these plans. Copies of the plans are now in the hands of the following bidders:

1. Lawrence A. Buck—North Wales
2. Andrichyn & Schnabel—Lansdale
3. Edward Hrabina & Sons—Quakertown
4. Arol Fesmire—Jenkintown
5. C. Raymond Lukens—North Wales

The next step is to await the return of these bids. When this has been completed, your Vestry will then review them and make a decision on the awarding of the contract. Thus, by taking this step last Monday, we have come a long way from the Campaign stage last February, and we are now much closer to the long-awaited day when actual work will begin!

MR. NEWELL ROBINSON'S FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY as Organist and Choirmaster at Grace Church will be observed here with a special evening service at 7:30 P.M. on Sunday, January 14th! During this service, the new Organ Console will be dedicated. Immediately after the service, a reception will be given in Mr. Robinson's honor in the Parish House. Of course, everyone is invited to both the service and the reception, and, if you know of any former choir members who trained under Mr. Robinson here in earlier years, we hope you will inform such persons of this forthcoming celebration of his Fortieth Anniversary. We're certain these former members would want to know of this event and be here if at all possible. Your Vestry and Clergy urge every member and friend of this parish to keep the evening of January 14th open, so that we may all gather together that night in Grace Church in grateful testimony to this man's dedicated and faithful service to this parish during the last forty years. Mr. Robinson began his duties as Organist and Choirmaster here on January 5, 1922. His record since then is truly a remarkable one—for in all these years, he has never missed a single service! We know you'll be looking forward with all of us to this grand and joyous occasion on January 14th!

IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO MAKE YOUR CHRISTMAS COMMUNION here because of illness, please call the Parish Office as soon as possible, so that one of your clergy may arrange to bring the same to you at home or in the hospital! If you are unable to call, please have a friend or relative give us this message for you. Each year, your clergy set aside the first two days after Christmas for the sole purpose of taking the Sacrament of Holy Communion to all sick and shut-ins. It is therefore important that they know who such persons are, and where they are, so that these visits may be scheduled effectively and no one is omitted.

IMPORTANT ADVANCE NOTICE! PARISH MEETING ON FEBRUARY 4th in the Parish House, starting promptly at 7:30 P.M. This will be the first annual Parish Meeting for Grace Church under the provisions of our recently revised Charter and By-Laws. These now provide that the annual meeting and annual election of Vestrymen of this parish shall be held each year on the first Sunday in February at 7:30 P.M. You will receive written notice of this event next month, but we ask now that you mark your calendar and keep open the above date.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES THIS COMING WEEK

Thurs., Jan. 4—Martha and Walter Koffel, 8338 Forrest Avenue, Zone 50.

ADVANCE NOTICE: THE WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP, Annual Meeting and Election of Officers on Thursday, January 11th at 1:00 P.M.

THE ELECTION OF THREE VESTRYMEN, each to serve for four year terms, will take place during our 1962 Annual Meeting to be held in the Parish House on Sunday, February 4th, starting at 7:30 P.M. Under the provisions of our new By-Laws, "those qualified to serve on the Vestry shall be baptized and confirmed, lay persons of the age of twenty-one years and upward, all of whom shall be residents of Pennsylvania and members of the corporation."

We call this forthcoming election of Vestrymen to your attention now, as well as the method for nomination of the same as set forth in these By-Laws, so that all qualified members may begin now to give this important matter their thought and consideration. If you have such a qualified member of this parish in mind for nomination to the Vestry, note the method for placing such a name in nomination! The By-Laws direct: "Nominations for Vestrymen shall be made in writing to the Secretary of the Vestry, signed by five (5) qualified members at least fifteen days prior to the date of the election and the names of the persons nominated shall be posted in the church building on the two Sundays next preceding the date of such election and shall remain posted continuously until the election. No nominations shall be made in any other manner."

NOTE: The Secretary of the Vestry is Mr. Edward A. Doelp. Please make certain that all nominations meeting the above requirements are addressed to him, either at his home address, 383 Bala Ave., Cynwyd, or to the Church address. Remember also, in accordance with the By-Laws, that the closing date for nominations to be received will be Saturday, January 20th, for the 1962 elections. All nominations must be in Mr. Doelp's possession by this date!

THOSE QUALIFIED TO VOTE OR NOMINATE, in accordance with the By-Laws, are all lay, baptized persons of twenty-one years of age or upwards and who shall have been worshipers in this Church as their usual place of worship for one year or more. Also, such persons shall appear by the books of this parish to have contributed to the support of this Church.

A FEW CHURCH CALENDARS FOR 1962 ARE STILL AVAILABLE for those who have not yet obtained them. This year's calendar features a picture of Grace Church and is thus truly our own parish calendar. The essential seasons and festivals of Christ and his Church as observed in the Episcopal Church are all incorporated into this calendar. Its use in the home increases both Christian and Church consciousness by attracting attention and placing in proper order the great truths of Christianity. In an impressive and instructive manner this calendar carries one though the colorful days and festivals of our Lord's life and ministry, and those of the Church in which He is Incarnate. It is our earnest desire that one of these calendars be in the home of every parish family. If you have not as yet acquired one please contact the parish office, or Mrs. William B. Walton, CH 7-1216 .The price of the calendar is 75c.

THE OFFERING ENVELOPES FOR 1962 ARE NOW AVAILABLE, and are arranged alphabetically on tables in the Tower Room. Please pick yours up after any Service or whenever else convenient.

Wednesday—8:00 P.M.—VESTRY MEETING in the Vestry Room—NOTE CHANGE

Thursday—WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP, meet following the 10:00 A.M. service. All are welcome.

FLOWER DATES OPEN:—

There are open dates for Memorial Flowers, July 13th and August 31st. Any one wishing to place flowers on the Altar on either of those days in memory of a departed friend or relative is asked please to communicate with Mrs. Karl Lundelius, 330 East Allen's Lane, CH 7-3787.

MR. HARDWICK PREACHES:—

The Reverend John F. Hardwick was the preacher at both the 9:30 A.M. and the 11:15 A.M. services at Grace Church, Sunday, March 2nd. In addition to preaching, Mr. Hardwick also led the Adult Discussion Group immediately following the conclusion of the 9:30 service.

Those who were able to get out found both considerable interest and challenge in what Mr. Hardwick had to say both in the sermons and in the less formal dicussion which followed at the earlier service. Presently a member of the Bishop's Program Staff in charge of Education and Training, Mr. Hardwick was the Curate of Grace Church from 1953 to 1956.

CAN YOU HELP OUT???:—

Episcopal Community Services needs volunteers, especially in the following situations:

North Philadelphia: Two blind women, living alone, need someone to help them with paying bills, going shopping, and to provide occasional companionship.

The Northeast: A former nurse of Armenian descent, now blind, needs someone with a car to take her banking and shopping twice a month. She is very lonely and would appreciate a visitor.

South Philadelphia: Three elderly men in a nursing home would like the companionship of male visitors, walking companions.
A blind woman walks long distances to a laundromat and grocery store. A visitor with a car could drive her and help her with these chores once a month.

Frankford Area: An 81-year-old diabetic is housebound and needs a person to shop for fresh meat for her. The doctor feels that this is urgent.

If you are able to help out in any of these situations or you would like to know more about the possibilities of volunteer service, please call Mrs. Ruth Dross—WA 5-8110—at the Episcopal Community Services.

A THOUGHT FROM THE HYMNAL 1940:—

Lo! the hosts of evil round us
Scorn thy Christ, assail his ways!
From the fears that long have bound us
Free our hearts to faith and praise:
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
For the living of these days.

Cure thy children's warring madness,
Bend our pride to thy control;
Shame our wanton, selfish gladness,
Rich in things and poor in soul.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
Lest we miss thy kingdom's goal.

—Hymn 524, verses 2 & 3
Harry Emerson Fosdick

Thursday—WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP EXECUTIVE MEETING.

Friday—10:00 A.M.—WORLD DAY OF PRAYER at GRACE LUTHERAN (see below).
7:30 P.M.—WORLD DAY OF PRAYER at St. Thomas', Whitemarsh.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER:—

The local observation of the World Day of Prayer will be held on March 7th at 10:00 A.M. at Grace Lutheran Church, Wyndmoor, Willow Grove and Flourtown Avenues. Dr. Hale H. Cook will be the speaker. A holder of degrees in Medicine, Public Health, and Divinity, Dr. Cook has worked in Public Health in India and is the Director of the Nicetown-Tioga Neighborhood Comprehensive Medical Center. All the Women of the Church are invited.

JOINT LENTEN SERIES:—

The second of the three meetings of this year's joint Episcopal Lenten Series will be held Tuesday, March 4th, at 8:00 P.M. in the parish house of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, West Willow Grove Avenue and Saint Martin's Lane. The topic will be that of YOUTH AND DRUGS.

The speaker in the series, Graham B. Blaine, Jr., M.D. is at present the Chief of Psychiatry of the Harvard University Health Services. He is the author of numerous books and articles dealing with youth and adolescent behavior.

With drug usage by the young so much in the public news these days, this promises to be a most interesting evening. All those with children and those interested in the various problems confronting youth today are urged to come out to hear Dr. Blaine on this topic. The third evening will be held at the same time and place on March 11th.

GUEST PREACHER AT GRACE CHURCH:—

The Reverend John F. Harwick will preach at both the 9:30 and 11:15 services and also lead the Adult Discussion Group after the 9:30 service Sunday March 2nd.

Presently the member of the Bishop's Program Staff responsible for Christian Education, Mr. Harwick was the Curate at Grace Church from 1953 to 1956. He also served as an Instructor at the Divinity School in Philadelphia, as one of the Board of Examining Chaplains of the Diocese, and as Rector of Saint James' Church in Langhorne.

Do plan to attend one of these two services and hear Mr. Hardwick. Those who remember him here or have heard him elsewhere are well aware that his presentation is most interesting.

ORGAN AND CHORAL MUSIC PROGRAM:—

Those members and friends of the parish who found themselves able to come out to the musical program presented Sunday afternoon, February 23rd, by the Choirs and Organist were treated to a very enjoyable and varied program of organ and choral music which some, this writer included, wish had been longer.

The music presented ranged from a motet by Schütz and several chorales by J. S. Bach through settings of the traditional chorale "Herzliebster Jesu" by more recent composers Helmut Walcha and Irmela Baur, to the premier performance of "A Ground Bass with Variations" by Dr. Newell Robinson. Also presented were works in the contemporary style by Andriessen, Petrich, and Phillips.

In these times of rushing and hurrying, it is indeed a pleasure to be able to sit and listen to music such as this arranged in a program for the beginning of Lent and presented by "our own." So much of the great church music was writen almost as matter of course for services and programs in local churches. Let us hope there will be more of the same to come.

FOR LENT: Do without grumbling
Try smiling
Help others
Stop picking on the other fellow
Share your joy with others
Go to church a little more

"HOME PRAYERS"—

Grace Church has begun the use of a weekly program Home Prayers. Originated by an Episcopal clergyman, it is designed to provide an additional contact with the church and the worshipping community for those who are unable to attend services due to illness or incapacitation either temporarily or permanently. Mailed out each week, Home Prayers consists of the Collect for the Day plus other devotional material along with a short sermon. Highly successful elsewhere, it is hoped that it will be found helpful by those receiving it here. Miss Dorothy E. Kohl will administer the program.

If you know of anyone who would appreciate receiving Home Prayers and does not already do so, please speak to Miss Kohl or the clergy, or call the Parish Office.

LENTEN SERIES:—

The first of the three meetings of the joint Episcopal Lenten Series will be held Tuesday, February 25th, at 8:00 P.M. in the parish house of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, West Willow Grove Ave. and St. Martin's Lane. The topic will be YOUTH AND REBELLION.

Graham B. Blaine, Jr., M.D., the speaker at this and the following two meetings, is presently the Chief of Psychiatry of the Harvard University Health Services. He is the author of numerous books and articles on the subject of youth and adolescent behavior.

Those of you who are interested and/or concerned about the problems facing the youth of today are strongly urged to come out to this first meeting of what promises to be a most interesting and informative series. The second and third evenings will be held at the same time and place on March 4th and March 11th.

PRESENTATION OF LENTEN MUSIC:—

On Sunday, February 23rd, at 4:00 P.M. Dr. Newell Robinson and the choirs of Grace Church will present a program of organ and choral music for the Lenten season. The caliber of music offered here is much greater than many of us realize. You are invited to attend this special program and listen to more of it.

LENTEN SERIES:—

The first of the three meetings of the joint Episcopal Lenten Series will be held Tuesday, February 25th, at 8:00 P.M. in the parish house of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, West Willow Grove Ave. and St. Martin's Lane. The topic will be YOUTH AND REBELLION.

THE PRACTICE OF THE PRESENCE OF GOD:—

A little lifting up of the heart suffices; a little remembrance of God, one act of inward worship, though upon a march and sword in hand, are prayers which, however short, are nevertheless very acceptable to God; and far from lessening a soldier's courage, they best serve to fortify it.

Sunday—Feb. 16—Advance Notice: 10:00 A.M. in the Parish House you are invited to hear Mrs. Mattie Humphrey speak on "The Church's Role in the Community."

ANNUAL MEETING REPORT:—

The Annual Meeting of the parish was held Sunday, February 2nd, at 7:30 P.M. with 93 people in attendance. The reports of the Rector, Church Wardens, and the various organizations were presented in mimeographed form and comments made upon them by their respective presenters.

The election of three vestrymen was one of the major items of business with Benjamin F. Gotwals, Robert M. Hewitt, and John L. Leigh elected to four year terms. Their election fills the vacancies created by the expiration of the terms of Howard E. Foulkrod, Nicholas J. Ninos, and E. Russell Schaeffer for whose services the Parish expressed thanks.

Two questions raised under new business, dealt with the future use of the Proposed New Liturgy and the possible combination of Sunday services. The Rector announced that a second trial period of approximately six months had been authorized by both the national and diocesan authorities and that the New Liturgy will again be offered at Grace Church on an as yet undecided basis. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

ALL PARISH MEMBERS:—

You are invited to hear Mrs. Mattie Humphrey speak on the topic: "The Church's Role in the Community" on Sunday, February 16th at 10:00 A.M. in the Parish House. An opportunity to ask questions regarding the talk will follow immediately. Discussion in depth of the talk, the topic, and the questions raised by both will begin the following week following the 9:30 service.

CONFIRMATION CHANGE:—

The rite of Confirmation will be administered at Grace Church, Sunday, February 9th at a combined service at 10:00 A.M. The officiating Bishop will be the Right Reverend Chandler W. Sterling, D.D., former Bishop of Montana, and now resident in Yardley, Pa., not Bishop Tsu as previously announced.

LENTEN SERIES:—

This year the joint Episcopal Lenten Series will be held at Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, 8000 Saint Martin's Lane, Chestnut Hill, on the following Tuesdays at 8:00 P.M.: February 25th, March 4th, and March 11th. The series will feature Graham B. Blaine, Jr., M.D. of Harvard University with the overall topic dealing with the concerns and problems of youth.

Presently Chief of Psychiatry of the Harvard Health Service, Dr. Blaine has had an impressive range of professional experience and is the author of several books and numerous articles dealing with adolescent and college age youth and some of the problems inherent to this age group.

If you have children or are at all concerned about the problems facing the youth of today (quite different ones than even a generation ago) you will find these three evenings of great interest.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING
-:- Sunday, February 2nd, 1969 -:-
Parish House at 7:30 P.M.

DATE OF CONFIRMATION:—

The Right Reverend Andrew Y. Y. Tsu, D.D., Ph.D. will administer the rite of Confirmation at Grace Church, Mount Airy, on Sunday, February 9th at 10:00 A.M. Because this service will be for members of your parish, and because at most Confirmation is held only once yearly in any local parish, it is most important that as many as are able to attend do so and thus participate in welcoming fellow parishioners into full membership in Christ's church. PLEASE NOTE THAT THIS WILL BE A COMBINED SERVICE AT 10:00 A.M. A reception for the Confirmands and the Bishop will follow the service.

THE ORDER OF CONFIRMATION:—

The Confirmation service consists of two parts. In the first, the candidates ratify and 'confirm' on their own decision and responsibility the promises made for them or by them at their Baptism. This section of the service stems from the Reformation and distinguishes the Anglican and Lutheran forms from the Roman Catholic and Orthodox rites. The second part of the service, which begins with the versicles on page 297, continues the ancient and medieval patterns of the Office, in which the candidates are 'confirmed' by God for the fulfilment of their promises by the strengthening gifts of the Holy Spirit imparted to them through the laying on of hands by the Bishop. In present-day usage, it is common to use the Office as a distinct service by itself, or in combination with Morning or Evening Prayer or with the Holy Communion. The older Anglican tradition of preceding the service by the recital of the Catechism or the Offices of Instruction, either in whole or in part, still prevails in some instances. It is also the general custom for the Bishop to give a sermon or address either before or after the Office.

—The Oxford American Prayer Book Commentary
Massey Hamilton Shepherd, Jr.

CHRISTIAN BEHAVIOUR:—

Let not the sun in Capricorn go down upon thy wrath, but write thy wrongs in ashes. Draw the curtain of night upon injuries, and shut them up in the tower of oblivion, and let them be as though they had not been. To forgive our enemies, yet hope that God will punish them, is not to forgive enough. To forgive them ourselves, and not to pray God to forgive them, is a partial piece of charity. Forgive thine enemies totally, and without any reserve that however God will revenge thee.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

-:- Sunday, February 2nd, 1969 -:-
Parish House at 7:30 P.M.

VESTRY NOMINATIONS:—

The following gentlemen have been nominated to serve on the Vestry and have accepted such nomination:

Mr. Anthony C. Chicone
Mr. Benjamin F. Gotwals
Mr. Robert M. Hewitt
Mr. John L. Leigh

Three men are to be elected at the Annual Meeting of the Parish, each to serve a term of four years. The official lists of nominations have been posted by the Secretary of the Vestry in the church buildings in accordance with the bylaws. Only those qualified members present may vote; proxy voting is not provided for.

WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP: ELECTION:—

The Annual Meeting of the Women of Grace Church, Day Group, was held on the ninth of January at one o'clock in the afternoon. Elected to three year terms were Mrs. George Gawthrop as Vice-President and Mrs. George R. Kingeter, Jr. as Recording Secretary. The terms of the President, Mrs. Edwin H. LaBelle, and the Treasurer, Mrs. Charles M. Smith, continue for two more years, having begun in 1968.

The women of the parish are always welcome to attend the 10:00 A.M. services on Thursdays, to work on the service projects following same, and to bring their lunch and join in the informal luncheons. There is always lively discussion and good fellowship.

DIOCESAN CONVENTION 1969:—

Diocesan convention is always an important event. Not every moment of it is always filled with fascination, but the event as a whole is a very interesting one.

Diversity of gifts and opinions . . . The Democratic Process . . . Charity . . . Patience. These are but a few of the concepts which come to mind when reflecting on the affairs of convention This is the once-a-year opportunity when the diocese can be seen as a whole, not always a unity, but a whole. Here one can see the fruit borne by all the committees and reports and questionaires which at times appear only to clutter one's mail. Best of all, one begins to see that because of or in despite of the great divergence of opinions, God's will does get done.

A PRAYER FOR THE CLERGY AND PEOPLE:—

Almighty and everlasting God, from whom cometh every good and perfect gift; Send down upon our Bishops, and other Clergy, and upon the Congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of thy grace; and, that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing. Grant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediator, Jesus Christ. Amen.

-:- THIRD NOTICE OF THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING -:-

The Annual Meeting of the members of Grace Church, Mt. Airy, will be held on Sunday, February 2nd, 1969, at 7:30 P.M. in the Parish House.

The purpose of the meeting will be: (1) to receive the reports of the Rector, Church Wardens, and parish organizations; (2) to elect three Vestrymen for terms expiring in 1973; (3) to transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Those qualified to vote at the Annual Meeting are all lay, baptized persons of twenty-one years of age or more, who shall have been worshippers in this Church as their usual place of worship for one year or more and who shall appear by the books to have contributed to the support of the Church. You must be present at the meeting to vote; there is no voting by proxy. (Those who have been members for less than the required one year are invited and urged to be present and observe, even though they will have no formal vote until the next meeting.)

Nominations for Vestrymen shall be made in writing to the Secretary of the Vestry, signed by five (5) qualified members at least fifteen days prior to the date of the election and the names of the persons nominated shall be posted in the church building on the two Sundays next preceding the date of such election and shall remain posted continuously until the election. No nominations shall be made in any other manner.

—Article 3, Section 2, By-Laws of Grace Church, Mt. Airy

The Secretary of the Vestry is Mr. William P. Wilkinson, 553 Baeder Road, Jenkintown, Pennsylvania 19046. January 18th is the deadline.

WINTER APPEAL FOR MEMBERS OF CHOIRS — BOYS — GIRLS — MEN —

ON THE TRACT RACK:—

In addition to the unusual selection of booklets and pamphlets available for your perusal on the Tract Rack in the North Porch you will also find Church Panorama and Response. Church Panorama is a monthly magazine—format publication which is attempting to fill the communications void in our diocese left by the demise of the Church News. You may not always agree with the articles or the outlooks, but it is imperative that we all try to have at least some idea of events within our diocese. We only get twenty copies of this each month and not all are always taken. Greater demand would increase the supply.

Response, Far and Near is similar to the Forward, Day by Day. Issued bi-monthly, it provides a discourse for each day on one page with explanatory information on the situations and needs of one of the other many dioceses within the Anglican communion. Designed for daily reading, it is a constant reminder that THE CHURCH, goes beyond the limits of our parish, our diocese, and our country. Take a look at a copy, you might be surprised (and interested).

PARISH ORGANIZATION ANNUAL REPORTS DUE JAN. 13th

The Presidents of all parish organizations are asked please to have their reports in the Parish Office no later than Monday, January 13th. It is most important that this date be met.

"MINI-BAG" RECIPIENTS:—

All the women of the parish who received the "Mini-Bags" at the beginning of 1968 are asked please to return them as soon as possible. It is hoped that you have put into the bag the various amounts requested each month. This money will be put into a special account of the Day Group which has been designated as the "Kitchen Fund."

THE COLLECT FOR THE EPIPHANY, OR THE MANIFESTATION OF CHRIST TO THE GENTILES:—

O God, who by the leading of a star didst manifest thy only-begotten Son to the Gentiles; Mercifully grant that we, who know thee now by faith, may after this life have the fruition of thy glorious Godhead; through the same thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

FOR THE YEAR 1969: —

I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year,
"Give me a lamp that I may tread safely into the unknown."
And he answered me.
"Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the hand of God. This shall be for you better than a lamp, and safer than any known way."

ASCENSION DAY, THURSDAY, MAY 15th:—

This Thursday, May 15th, is the day on which we will commemorate the Ascension of Jesus Christ into heaven subsequent to the forty days he spent with the Disciples after his resurrection on Easter. As such, it is one of the major festivals of the Christian year. There will be two services of the Holy Communion — 7:00 .M. and 10:00 A.M. — on Ascension Day. If you care enough to observe this feast day, you will show it by attending one of these services.

THE WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, MOUNT AIRY invite you to attend their ANNUAL CARD PARTY to be held
THURSDAY, MAY 15th AT 1:00 P.M.
Parish House Donation $1.25

THERE IS STILL TIME . . .

There is still time for you to accept the above invitation and attend the Card Party. Tickets can be obtained from any member of the group. The ladies are requesting contributions of S&H stamp books which will be used to obtain door prizes. "White elephants" and baked goods are also being solicited. Those who have gift articles for the Mystery Package Table should contact Mrs. David Fulmer, GE 8-8407, as soon as possible.

THE FOLLIES OF 1969:—

"The Follies of 1969" which was presented on the evenings of May 2nd and 3rd was a great success in many ways. It was a delight to those present in the audience and an enjoyment to all those who worked so diligently to present it. Also, indications are that it will prove a success financially as well.

As primary instigators, the members of the Y.P.F. deserve and indeed have received a resounding WELL DONE from the Parish and its members. The YPF in turn wish to thank the members of the Men's Club and the Evening Group for the assistance rendered by their participation in the program.

Credits were printed in the program, but it would somehow be remiss if the following people's assistance was not acknowleged here: Jack Clark as Master of Ceremonies; Carol and David Faris, Piano accompaniment and interludes; June and Stan Markowski, without whose work and guidance the whole thing would not have materialized.

THE MEN'S CLUB OF GRACE CHURCH, MOUNT AIRY presents
"A NIGHT OF DANCING"
SATURDAY, MAY 24th, 1969

Philadelphia Cricket Club	Cocktails	7:00 P.M.
Flourtown Clubhouse	Dinner	8:00 P.M.
Donation: $16.50 per couple	Dancing 9 P.M. - 1 A.M.

Tickets from any member of the Men's Club

PRAISE:—

To sing to the Lord is to sing every note
With all your mind,
With all your heart,
With all your breath.
This is praise from the beginning of time
To this day.

EVENING GROUP TO DENBIGH:—

On Tuesday, May 6th, the Women of Grace Church, Evening Group, will meet at Denbigh, the Diocesean Conference Center in Radnor, for dinner at 6:30 P.M. followed by a quiet hour conducted by The Reverend Mr. Laird, the Director of the Center. The group will leave Grace Church Parish House at 5:30 P.M. The cost of the dinner will be $2.25 per person. Those wishing to attend are requested to make their reservations with Mrs. Harry Taylor, AD 3-5534, by May 1st at the latest.

WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH CARD PARTY:—

Both groups of the Women of Grace Church will combine their efforts for the Card Party which is to be held on Thursday, May 15th, beginning at 1:00 P.M. in the Parish House. The donation will be $1.25 per person. The ladies are asking for contributions of S&H stamp books which will be used to obtain door prizes. Also needed are "white elephants," and baked goods. Gift articles for the Mystery Package Table should be turned in to Mrs. David Fulmer as soon as possible. If you are approached in person or by telephone about these or other items, please do your best to support your group. Success depends upon you so don't leave it all for someone else to do.

FISH-FIN: CH 7-1000:—

Did you know that there is a FISH group in the Chestnut Hill-Mount Airy area? The Fish is a group of Christians (FIN affiliates are Jewish) volunteers who will help you, care for you, or pray for you whoever or wherever you are and whenever you have need. CH 7-1000 is the number to call from 7:00 A.M. to 7:00 P.M. The Fish helps teen-agers, orphans, those who are troubled; reads to the blind, visits the elderly, just listens etc., etc.

Besides giving help, The Fish can also use help. Call them if you are willing to perform any of these or other similar services or if you would be able to answer your phone one day per month and refer callers to proper helpers for the day (CH 7-1000 is an answering service). Also cash contributions are accepted to help defray cost of the answering service as well as other expenses.

WOMEN'S EVENING GROUP CORPORATE COMMUNION

CHURCH SCHOOL, GRADES 1-3 TO MAKE TRIP:—

Grades 1-3 of the Church School will visit the House Of Rest Sunday, April 20th, during the regular church school time period. To have enough time for the visit, they will leave promptly at 9:30 A.M. and return at approximately 10:45 A.M. For any parents who are anxious to leave in a hurry, it will be possible to have children returned directly to their homes, transportation provided by the Church School. If you desire this however, please notify the teacher when your child arrives.

EPIPHANY PENNIES INGATHERING:—

The Annual Ingathering of the Epiphany Pennies will be held on Thursday, May 1st, at the 10:00 A.M. Holy Communion service. The saving of these pennies during a part of the church calendar has now been done for many years by the Women of Grace Church. The Epiphany Pennies saved make up a part of the $50.00 donated to the House of Rest for use in their dining room.

THE Y. P. F. IS PLANNING A FOLLIES
FRIDAY, MAY 2nd AND SATURDAY, MAY 3rd
AT 8:00 P.M. YOU ARE INVITED!

PARISH COUNCIL MEETING:—

There will be a Parish Council meeting on Monday, April 21st, at 8:00 P.M. in the Vestry Room. IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT A REPRESENTATIVE OF EACH PARISH ORGANIZATION BE PRESENT. Such a representative should have full knowledge of the plans and calendar for his group.

QUOTES FROM THE WAYSIDE PULPIT:—

Service begins when the Service ends.
Our Father in Heaven has no Stepchildren.

Y. P. F. DENBIGH:—

The members of the Y.P.F. are reminded that they must get their money in if they wish to go to Denbigh. We must know how many are going. If you wait until the last minute, it will be too late; you may be left out.

ADULT DISCUSSION GROUP SPEAKER:—

On Sunday, April 14th, immediately following the 9:30 A.M. service, Mrs. Elsie Cross will speak to the Adult Discussion Group on the topic "Problems and Programs in Public School Education in the Urban Setting." A former secondary school teacher, Mrs. Cross is presently a member of the Office of Inter-Group Relations, Philadelphia School District.

Due to the interest and the considerable number of questions of those who heard the last speaker, the program ran over time. In the future, it is hoped that this can be overcome by having a recess at the time for the dismissal of the Church School, and then resuming discussion and questions within about ten minutes. So come out, listen, and bring your questions.

EASTER MEMORIAL FLOWERS:—

The Lilies behind the Altar Cross—In loving memory of Stephanie and Horace Burrell, given by Edward S. Burrell.

The Lilies in the North Porch —In loving memory of Mary C. S. and Ralph M. North, given by Dr. Alice M. North.

The Lilies on the Chapel Altar —In loving memory of the Fell Family, given by Mrs. J. Howard Fell.

The Easter flowers throughout the Chancel and Church are given in loving memory of the following:

Margaretta and Thorsten Y. Olsen, by the Olsen Bequest.

Charles M. Hazzard,
by his wife, Bertha K. Hazzard.

Donald Dorsey Haddon,
by his mother, Florence Haddon and brother, J. Frank Haddon.

Anna E. Clark, William J. Probst, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig A. Probst, by Mr. and Mrs. William J. Probst, Sr.

Mary E. Murphy,
by Mr. Francis Murphy.

Iva W. Smith and Alfred Z. Smith,
by their daughters, Mrs. William H. Potterton and Mrs. J. Theodore Baral, Jr.

Florence DeG. Jenkins,
by her daughter, Dorothy DeG. Jenkins.

Herman Frank,
by his wife, Evelyn Frank.

Mary S. Shoff,
by Mr. St. Clair H. Shoff.

In praise and thanksgiving,
by Mrs. Josephine B. Keene.

Remember, thy servants, O Lord, according to the favour which thou bearest unto thy people, and grant that, increasing in knowledge and love of thee, they may go from strength to strength, in the life of perfect service, in thy heavenly kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end.

2019 Cedar Lane, Flourtown, Penna. 19031

THE PALMS for PALM SUNDAY were given in loving memory of Sue W. and Frederick Schaffhauser by Miss Elizabeth Schaffhauser.

THE FLOWERS for Maunday Thursday were given in memory of Dr. Charles E. Eder, Priest and Rector of this Parish for 34 years, by Mrs. Charles E. Eder.

EASTER PRIVATE COMMUNIONS:—

Easter Communion for the sick and shut-in will be administered by the clergy during the week following Easter. If you are or know of someone who has been unable to make his or her Easter Communion with us in the Church by reason of illness or infirmity, please call the Parish Office so that the proper arrangements can be made.

DAY GROUP CORPORATE COMMUNION:—

The Women of Grace Church, Day Group, will have their Annual Corporate Communion on Thursday, April 10th, at 10:00 A.M. Beverage and coffee cake will be served following the service. All of the women of the parish are asked to attend and to join in this service and the fellowship following it.

Y.P.F. NOTES:—

The members of the Y.P.F. are reminded that they must have their reservations in within the next two weeks if they wish to be part of the group going to Denbigh May 17th and 18th.

There will be a Play rehearsal April 5th at 10:00 A.M.

The next meeting will be on April 13th: 7:00 P.M. Play, 8:30 P.M. Music.

ANNUAL CARD PARTY:—

The Women of Grace Church will hold a Card Party on Thursday, May 15th. Mark this date NOW on your calendars. Donations will be needed for the Surprize Packages Table as well as baked goods. If you are contacted and asked to help, please do your part. The success of these ventures depends upon each person.

AN EASTER THOUGHT:—

The man was dead!
Then he lived!
Believe this and you believe in Easter.

The man was Christ!
The Son of God.
Believe this and your Easter will be joy. ALLELUIA.

N.R.

NOTES ON EASTER:—

The technical term for Easter in the ancient Church was Pascha, a Greek word derived from the Hebrew pesakh or 'Passover,' Our English name for the feast is borrowed from an old pagan festival of the Anglo-Saxons in honor of their goddess of spring, Eostre. Although the Jewish Passover celebration lasted but one week, the early Christians extended their observance over the whole fifty-day period to and including Pentecost (Whitsunday). The season was considered a commemoration not only of the Resurrection, but also of all 'those mighty acts' by which our Lord brought redemption to men—the new Passover from the bondage of sin and the assurance of new life and eternal victory in the Kingdom of God.

EVENING GROUP DISCUSSION:—

The April meeting of the Women of Grace Church, Evening Group, will be held Tuesday, April 1st, 1969, at 8:00 P.M. in the Parish House. The Curate will lead a discussion based upon the play "Dangerfield Newby Moves Uptown" by Richard D. Waters which was presented by the group at its February meeting. Come out and add your "two cents" to the discussion (or maybe even five or ten).

PASSION MUSIC:—

The singing of the Passion, by the choir of Grace Church, under the direction of Dr. Newell Robinson, was again a very moving experience well received by those present. Many of the comments heard afterward centered about the excellent performance of the a cappella work by Tomas Luis de Victoria (1548-1611). This type of work requires a great deal of rehearsal in addition to precision and professionalism. Our choir and organist-choirmaster are to be commended highly.

EASTER SUNDAY SERVICES AT GRACE CHURCH
6:00 A.M. — 9:30 A.M. — 11:15 A.M.
ALL HOLY COMMUNION

NOTES:—

The Nursery will be open for those attending
Palm Sunday at 9:30 A.M.
Maundy Thursday at 8:00 P.M.
Easter Sunday at 9:30 A.M.

The Kindergarten will be open for those attending
Palm Sunday at 9:30 A.M.
Easter Sunday at 9:30 A.M.

There will be a service of Holy Communion on Maundy Thursday at 8:00 P.M. in Grace Church. All are urged to attend this as it marks the annual observance of the institution of the Holy Communion by Jesus "in the night in which he was betrayed."

Palm blessed at the 8:00 A.M. service Palm Sunday will be distributed then, as well as at the two later services.

THE EASTER QUESTION:—

Have you not heard or read
That there was a Resurrection?
Each day is a resurrection of one's self
From sleep to life.
Christ rose after death to bring that life
To every man.

ADULT DISCUSSION GROUP:—

Sunday the 16th found a large number of people out to hear the talk of Mr. Oliver Lancaster, Assistant Director for Intergroup Relations for the Philadelphia School District on the topic "Public School Education in the Urban Setting." While all present may not have been in complete agreement with the speaker, all were interested as shown by the overflow of questions during the discussion period which followed both in the Parish House and at the home of Mrs. Robert W. DeCoursey whither those interested were invited to continue their discussions with the speaker.

Because of Passion, Palm, and Easter Sundays, the group will not meet again until the 13th of April at which time present plans call for further exploration of questions raised by Mr. Lancaster in the form of discussion and/or another speaker. Plan to attend.

THIS SUNDAY, MARCH 23rd
COMBINED SERVICE AT 10:00 A.M. FOR SINGING
THE MUSIC OF THE PASSION

"SMOKER" MARCH 24th:

Monday, March 24th at 8:00 P.M. will mark the second "Smoker" of the year by the Men's Club of Grace Church. All the men of the parish are invited to come out and bring a friend for an evening of games and gas. If you play cards, chess, checkers, or whatever come out and see if you can beat "the experts." Come out if you smoke or if you don't. Cigars and refreshments will be offered gratis. See you there.

MEN'S CLUB GIFT TO PARISH:—

You may have noticed lately that the quality of printed material originating in the parish office has been greatly improved. This is due to the purchase of a new mimeograph machine as well as an also much-needed electric typewriter. At their executive committee meeting March 10th, the Men's Club voted $150 towards the cost of the typewriter. A check in this amount was gladly accepted by the Vestry at their meeting on the 12th. On behalf of the Vestry and parish, we say THANK YOU VERY MUCH to the Men's Club for their generous gift.

PRAYER:

Pray without ceasing. I Thessalonians 5:17.

Such is our dependence upon God that we are obliged not only to do everything for His sake, but also to seek from Him the very power. This happy necessity of having recourse to Him in all our wants, instead of being grievous to us, should be our greatest consolation. What a happiness is it that we are allowed to speak to him with confidence; to open our hearts and hold familiar conversation with him by prayer! He himself invites us to it; and, as St. Cyprian well observes, we may judge how ready he is to give us those good things which he himself solicits us to ask of him. Let us pray then with faith, and not lose the fruit of our prayers by a wavering uncertainty which, as St. James testifies, hinders the success of them. The same apostle advises us to pray when we are in trouble because thereby we should find consolation; yet we are so wretched that this heavenly employment is often a burden instead of a comfort to us. The lukewarmness of our prayers is the source of all our other infidelities.

PARISH DATA:

Burial—Mrs. Jay S. Jones, Jr.—Tuesday, March 11, from Grace Church.

ADULT DISCUSSION GROUP SPEAKER:—

Immediately following the 9:30 A.M. service on Sunday, March 16th, Mr. Oliver Lancaster will speak to the Adult Discussion Group in the Parish House. Presently the Assistant Director for Intergroup Relations for the Philadelphia School District, Mr. Lancaster will speak on the topic "Public School Education in the Urban Setting."

The questionnaire taken from this group indicated that Education was felt to be one of the chief priorities with which the group is concerned — hence this speaker and his topic. Current plans call for another speaker on education and a panel discussion on the same topic for future Sundays. Come, hear, and see what is going on. There will be time for your questions.

CHURCH WORLD SERVICE COLLECTION:—

The next Church World Service collection date will be Friday, June 13th, 1969. The collection center for this area will be in Chestnut Hill at the Church of Saint Martin-in-the-Fields, 8000 Saint Martin's Lane.

WHAT IS NEEDED: Good, clean, used light-weight Clothing for all ages
Clean Blankets and Quilts
Yardgoods and Yarn
Medical Kits and Soap

(Please do NOT send woolens (coats and dresses, hats, neckties, bathing suits, high-heeled shoes, pillows, mattresses or plastic material of any sort.) POSTAGE at the rate of 10c per pound is needed to cover the essential costs of processing, export packing, insurance, and mailing. Monies for this may be sent to Church World Service, Box 220, Elkhart, Indiana, 46514.

ATTENTION: YOUNG MEN OF GRACE CHURCH:—

Have you considered offering your service to your God, and your Parish as an acolyte. Consider this both carefully and prayerfully. There will be a series of Training sessions in the near future. For additional information contact the Rector.

EASTER MEMORIAL FLOWERS:—

The gift of flowers for the altar and church on Sundays and especially at Easter is a beautiful way in which to memorialize friends and relatives. In the interest of efficiency and fairness we make the following requests with regard to ANY AND ALL EASTER FLOWER MEMORIALS:

1. Please make certain that your check, along with the names of those being memorialized reach the Parish Office on or before March 28th, 1969.
2. The check should be drawn to the order of the Altar Guild of Grace Church, and marked "Easter Memorial Flowers."

By observing these two requests, you will greatly assist the work of those responsible for ordering the flowers and preparing the leaflets in addition to providing for the beautification of Grace Church on Easter Day.

THE QUESTION:—

It was from a still, small voice that Elijah heard the question "What are you doing here?" The same voice is still asking the same question of each one of us today. Our search for the answer often provides us with our most thoughtful moments.

CH 8-2950—daily 9:00 A.M. to 12 Noon.

SPECIAL: TO ALL FORMER CHOIR MEMBERS!!! If you plan to be here over Christmas, Dr. Newell Robinson and Grace Church would be pleased to have your vocal talents in the Choir for the 7:00 P.M. Christmas Eve Eucharist. Yes, we really mean it! We feel that this "coming back" to our Choir for this great celebration of Christ's birth would add so much to this festival occasion. Let us know if you are willing to do so by calling Dr. Robinson at ME 5-3854 or the Office at CH 8-2950. Wherever you are, we want you back with us for that Service. Call now!

ADVENT — I COME!

To all Christians, preface your spiritual lights and thoughts, that you may be ready to receive the Christ.

DR. NEWELL ROBINSON

A RECITAL OF ORGAN MUSIC SUITABLE FOR ADVENT

YOU ARE INVITED

Grace Church, Mount Airy — A reception will follow

EVENING GROUP CHRISTMAS PARTY:—

On Tuesday, December 2nd, the Women of Grace Church, Evening Group, will hold their Christmas meeting at the home of Sarah Mary Hampson, 43 Meade Road, Broad Axe, Ambler, Pa., beginning at 8:00 P.M. Each person is asked to bring a $1.00 donation to be given to Dr. Purdie of the Episcopal Community Services as our Christmas project this year. Also, please bring a one dollar Pollyanna gift.

U.T.O. REPORT:—

Mrs. George Gawthrop, the United Thank Offering Custodian for Grace Church, wishes to thank all the women of the parish who contributed to the Fall Ingathering held several weeks ago. The total amount received thus far is $366.91.

THE PRAYER FOR THE NEW CHURCH YEAR:—

Almighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever.

—Prayer Book Collect for Advent Season

GET OUT OF THE WAY:—

We clean windshields when they are covered with road grime or smashed bugs. We scrape mud off our shoes. We get new glasses when the old ones hinder rather than help our vision. We raise the shade the better to see the day. And when we pray, we must remove whatever is obstructing or clouding our vision of God. That hindrance is our own selfish, short-sighted, often rather gritty selves. We often get in the way of God in our own lives with our self-interest, the wants we lay out to blunt the flow of his gifts for us. When we sweep, scrape, and push ourselves aside, God is there, with more than we need and with the strength for our days. It is like casting the mote out of our own eye when we move aside our little selves and get ourselves out of God's way.

ARE YOU A MEMBER OF GRACE CHURCH?

Communicant member status means that you have been confirmed or received into the Episcopal Church at Grace Church or in another parish but have subsequently had a Letter of Transfer sent to us from your former parish. Each year as the Rector reviews the records, he finds that there are a number of Episcopalians who attend Grace Church regularly but have never transferred officially from their former parishes. This means that while you may be active here, your former parish has placed your name on its inactive list or possibly has even sent it to the ecclesiastical equivalent of the missing persons register. If you would like to be officially a member, why not attend to this matter now at the start of the year. Transferring your letter is a very simple process which can be done through the Parish Office with a form-letter. We will take care of the paper-work, but we must have your consent. Just call the Parish Office either to transfer your letter or to be sure that it is here.

FINDING GOD:

A man may go into a field and say his prayer and be aware of God, or he may be in church and be aware of God, but if he is more aware of him because he is in a quiet place, that is his own deficiency and not due to God . . . He knows God rightly who knows him everywhere.

REMINDERS:—

As this is the last issue of the Parish News until September, there are several points which you should keep in mind during the Summer months:

SERVICES at 8:00 A.M. and 10:00 A.M. on Sundays and 10:00 A.M. Thursdays will continue throughout the Summer.

THE PARISH OFFICE will continue its usual hours 9:00 A.M. to 12:00 Noon during June, July, and August.

IN CASE OF ILLNESS OR EMERGENCY, please notify one of the Clergy or the Parish Office. If you can not reach either the Rector or the Curate, please contact either the Rector's Warden, Mr. Richard H. Brehm II, VE 6-5221, or the Accounting Warden, Mr. John B. Clapham, VE 6-4907.

The NURSERY will be open and attended Sundays during the 10:00 A.M. services.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS:—

If you have not completed the form on Tutoring and Activities which appeared in the Parish News several weeks ago, please take time now to do so.

THESE SUNDAYS AFTER TRINITY:—

The early Roman system of reckoning the Sundays of this season was to group them about certain fixed feasts. There was provision for ten Sundays after Easter (exclusive of Pentecost and its Octave), one Sunday before and six after the Apostles, that is SS. Peter and Paul (June 29th), five Sundays after St. Lawrence (August 10th), and six after St. Cyprian (September 14th), with spaces also for the 'vacant' Sundays after the summer and autumn Ember Days. Medieval sacramentaries and missals developed other schemes of numeration, some dating the Sundays after Pentecost, and others after Trinity. The result was a dislocation of many of the propers originally belonging together. The Prayer Book of 1549 made further alterations, so that there is seldom a unity of theme in the propers for these Sundays. In most cases, we have no way of knowing the reason for the selections in the first place, except that the Epistles preserve relics of a course reading.

—The Oxford American Prayer Book Commentary
Massey Hamilton Shepherd, Jr.

SUMMER AND VACATIONS:—

With Summer now upon us, it is not at all strange that some of you will be departing and returning at various times to and from your vacations. The Clergy of Grace Church wish for you an enjoyable vacation, but moreover a safe and happy one. Wherever you find yourself, we trust that you will make the Episcopal Church there your place of worship. We shall be anxious to greet you on your return to Grace Church.

A PRAYER FOR JOY IN GOD'S CREATION:—

O Heavenly Father, who hast filled the world with beauty; Open, we beseech thee, our eyes to behold thy gracious hand in all thy works; that rejoicing in thy whole creation, we may learn to serve thee with gladness; for the sake of him by whom all things were made, thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

ATTENTION ALL PARISHIONERS:

Now that our publication year is almost at an end, it is a good time to let us know if your anniversary date was not listed for any reason. We try to keep our records accurately but if you have joined our family over the last year it is possible that we do not have this information. Office hours are 9:00 A.M. to 12:00 Noon daily. Call — CH 8-2950.

-:- A REMINDER TO ALL GOING AWAY THIS SUMMER -:-

Our parish expenses continue week by week while you are gone. Please keep your pledges current as best you can, perhaps by sending payment in advance for at least half the time you will be away.

NURSERY OPEN:

Throughout the summer season, the Nursery will be open and attended during the 10:00 A.M. Sunday services. Thus a little child will not keep you from coming to church.

THINKING AHEAD:—

During the summer will be an excellent time for you to think over whether or not you wish to offer your services in one of the choirs of Grace Church. Girls, boys, and men will be needed in the Fall for both choirs. Think it over. Talk to someone who is in the choir or speak to Dr. Robinson, the Choirmaster.

ATTENTION ALL Y.P.F. MEMBERS:

THE ANNUAL PROGRESSIVE DINNER will be held on Sunday, June 15th, at 4:00 P.M. Please try to be there. ELECTION OF OFFICERS and a Business Meeting will be held. Remember, in the Parish House at 4:00 P.M.

POINTS TO PONDER:

Let not the sun in Capricorn go down upon thy wrath, but write thy wrongs in ashes. Draw the curtain of night upon injuries, and shut them up in the tower of oblivion, and let them be as though they had not been. To forgive our enemies, yet hope that God will punish them, is not to forgive enough. To forgive them ourselves, and not to pray God to forgive them, is a partial piece of charity. Forgive thine enemies totally, and without any reserve that however God will revenge thee.

– Sir Thomas Browne

O Most loving Father, who willest us to give thanks for all things, to dread nothing but the loss of thee, and to cast all our care on thee who carest for us; Preserve us from faithless fears and worldly anxieties, and grant that no clouds of this mortal life may hide from us the light of that love which is immortal, and which thou hast amnifested unto us in thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

WE NEED YOUR HELP:—

The Educational Committee is trying to find out if there is an appreciable interest in a church-sponsored educational program for children of and associated with the parish. The following are some of the possibilities that have been suggested. Please check on the appropriate lines those activities which you feel would be supported by your child's (children's) participation. PLEASE BRING OR SEND THE COMPLETED SHEET TO THE PARISH OFFICE.

My child would be interested in:

1. Being tutored _____ Subjects: _____
2. Adventure Activities: a. Day Trips _____
   b. Overnight (Scouts) _____
   c. Big Brother, Sister _____
   d. Special Talents (art, drama, etc.) ____
3. Others (please specify) _____
4. Interested, but would like additional information _____
5. Not interested _____

For any activities in which overwhelming interest is shown, every effort will be made to get underway as soon as possible. Otherwise, programs may begin in September.

Child's name: _____ Age: _____
Parent's name: _____ Phone: _____

Obviously, in order to implement this program, ADULT VOLUNTEERS will be essential. This is open to all members of the parish. If you are interested in helping with any of these or other activities please complete the section below and return to the parish office.

I would be willing to serve:

1. Tutoring _____ Subjects: _____
2. Adventure Activities: a. Day Trips _____
   b. Overnight (Scouts) _____
   c. Big Brother, Sister _____
   d. Special Talents (art, drama, etc.) ____

FROM THE RECTOR—

Claire and I are most grateful to the Vestry and all members of our parish family for the beautiful gift of the Silver Tea Service during last Sunday's 10:00 A.M. Service.

We were both surprised and deeply moved by the honor and recognition you good people gave us on the occasion of our 10th Anniversary in your midst. Being able to share your joy in the long-awaited "Burning of the Mortgage" at the same time made the day all the more memorable to us.

Your many gracious comments at the reception uplifted us more than you will ever know. Truly, we thank every one of you for this great moment in our lives amongst you. God bless you all!

WHITSUNDAY 1969 IN RETROSPECT:—

Sunday, May 25th, saw a good deal of activity at Grace Church. The closing exercises of the Church School followed immediately upon the conclusion of Morning Prayer in the church. Mr. Hirshberger was presented with a silver plate in appreciation for his service as Church School Superintendent for the last two years. Mr. Abell now succeeds to this post. Choir awards were made by Dr. Newell Robinson.

Whitsunday also marked the observation of the Rector's tenth year at Grace Church. To fittingly memorialize this anniversary Mr. Brehm and Mr. Clapham, Vestry Wardens, on behalf of the vestry and parish, presented Mr. and Mrs. Bauder with a very handsome silver tea service in thanks and appreciation for his ministry here during these ten years past.

The reception in the parish house which followed these presentations was well-attended by many well-wishers and was itself marked by the long-awaited "Burning of the mortgage" which marked the successful completion of the Building Fund.

TO THE CONGREGATION OF GRACE CHURCH:—

I wanted very much to be with you at the services this Sunday. May I take this method of congratulating you on the fine accomplishments you have made in recent years under Mr. Bauder's leadership. May your great parish continue to grow and develop in service to the community and world.

As ever, your friend
Oliver J. Hart
(Retired Bishop of Pennsylvania)

A MESSAGE ON STEWARDSHIP:—

The Stewardship Committee has reviewed the payment on pledges for the First Quarter of 1969. We were very pleased at the faithful performance of the majority. Some parishioners, however, have slipped behind, and nineteen have up until now done nothing. Quarterly statements were mailed in mid-April.

We urge those of you who have fallen behind to make every effort to bring your accounts up to date, not only because the parish budget becomes upset, but because it is harder for you to make up arrearages the longer you put it off.

If you find that your original pledge was beyond your ability to fulfill, please send the Accounting Warden or Treasurer a brief statement as to what you now find you can actually do. Or, if you are in doubt, Mr. Geoffrey Tattersfield is Chairman of a Counselling Committee set up to assist in any such problems. He will be glad to talk it over with you. In this way the budget can be re-adjusted to be more realistic in the months to come, and you will not worry or be disturbed by excessive obligations.

Theodore Clattenburg, Continuing Chairman
Stewardship Committee

THIS SUNDAY, MAY 25th, 1969 at the
10:00 A.M. JOINT SERVICE

In chronological order we will:

1. HONOR THE GRADUATING CLASS OF OUR CHURCH SCHOOL DURING BRIEF CLOSING EXERCISES.
2. HONOR OUR RECTOR, THE REVEREND RICHARD K. BAUDER, ON THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF HIS MINISTRY AT GRACE CHURCH.
3. CEREMONIOUSLY CONCLUDE OUR BUILDING AND MODERNIZATION PROGRAM BY "BURNING THE MORTGAGE."

Please plan to attend both the service and the reception following and take advantage of this unusual opportunity for the whole parish family to meet together.

EVENING GROUP: INSTALLATION AND SUPPER:—

The Women of Grace Church, Evening Group, will hold their June meeting on June 3rd in the Parish House. This meeting will begin at 6:30 P.M. with a covered dish supper. After the supper, the new slate of officers will be formally installed. Following the installation will be an evening of games.

UNITED THANK OFFERING INGATHERING:—

The Ingathering of the United Thank Offering of the women of the Diocese of Pennsylvania was held at the Valley Forge Military Academy on Wednesday, May 14th. A check for $321.69, representing the contributions from Grace Church was placed on the offering plate.

I wish to thank all who contributed. Your gift will be much appreciated by many I am sure.

Margaret Gawthrop

PHILADELPHIA SCHOOLS 1970 BUILDING PROGRAM:—

On Sunday, May 4th, the Adult Discussion group was shown a movie by Dr. Oscar Knade. This film enabled the group to observe the response of pupils to an experimental first grade program.

In his remarks prior to the showing of the film, Dr. Knade made a personal appeal for support of the Philadelphia School Bond issue which is to be voted upon on May 20th. He stated that if the Bond issue is not approved, it will leave some sections of the city woefully short of classroom space. In addition, it would mean that a great deal of expensive planning already accomplished would be wasted.

CHANGE OF SERVICE TIME:—

Sunday, May 18th, will be the last Sunday with three services before we change over to the 8:00 A.M. - 10:00 A.M. format for the Summer. On May 25th, services will be at 8:00 A.M. and 10:00 A.M.

CHURCH SCHOOL GRADUATION AND PICNIC:—

The 10:00 A.M. service on May 25th will mark the close of the Church School for the summer with fitting awards and presentations being made at this time. Come out to this Graduation Service and visibly demonstrate to these younger members that the older members of their Parish family continue their concern and interest.

At 4:30 P.M., the Graduation Picnic of the Church School begins on the back grounds of the church. As always, ALL MEMBERS of the parish family are invited to come out and join the fun at this event marking the end of Church School and the beginning of Summer. You bring your supper, the Church School will supply the ice cream, soft drinks as well as prizes for winners of the various games.

CHURCH PARORAMA:—

This is a magazine-format publication, issued monthly, which provides news of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. While not an "official" diocesan organ, Panorama does provide a good avenue of communication about and within our diocese.

Presently, twenty copies of this magazine are placed on the Tract Rack each month, free to interested parties. Sometimes, however, not even all of these are taken. At least look over a copy next time you are in the North Porch.

FILM FOR ADULT DISCUSSION GROUP:—

On Sunday, May 4th, directly after the 9:30 A.M. service, Dr. Oscar Knade of the Philadelphia School System, will return to Grace Church, this time to show a film on experimental teaching methods now in progress. Aimed at better and more meaningful learning, such experimental teaching is one of the positive steps being taken to attempt to correct the many and varied problems confronting educators today in Philadelphia and other large urban areas elsewhere. We have talked much about problems. Here we shall see one possible solution.

Many thanks to all those who were Patrons of the Bazaar as well as to the many loyal workers and supporters who helped to make this event as successful and enjoyable as it was. The figures are not yet final, but thus far the total of proceeds received is $1,900.00.

COIN BANK INGATHERING:—

The Women of Grace Church Day Group wish to thank all those who have returned their coin banks. Anyone who was unable to attend the Ingathering may return her coin bank by placing it in the Alms basin at any service or by mailing it to: Miss Gertrude Knapp, 7222 Sprague St., Philadelphia, Pa. 19119.

YOU ARE INVITED:—

On Sunday, November 30th, at 4:00 P.M.
DR. NEWELL ROBINSON
A RECITAL OF ORGAN MUSIC SUITABLE FOR ADVENT
Grace Church, Mount Airy
A reception will follow.

BRIEF THOUGHTS:

"Sprinkler Christians" at appropriate times and intervals have sprinkled on them a little water, a little rice, and a little earth.

It is a mistake to think that God is concerned only with religion.
—William Temple

If you are too busy to pray, you are too, too busy.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY THIS COMING WEEK

November 16—Theodore and John S. Hunter
7805 Roanoke St., Phila., Penna. 19118

ATTENTION ALL PARISHIONERS: Your Parish Secretary knows that there are many Wedding Anniversary dates that she does not have on file. Again, we say, we cannot know these dates unless YOU tell us about them. Please take just a moment of your time and either call the Parish Office any day before noon — CH 8-2950, or drop a Post-Card to the Church Office. It would be greatly appreciated.

ALSO: There are still many addresses of college students that we do not have. We would like to send them the news of their home Church through the Parish News. Please notify the Parish Office of these addresses.

NEW COMMUNICANTS:—

Congratulations are in order for the twelve people who by confirmation are the newest communicant members not only of Grace Church, Mount Airy, but of the Episcopal branch of Christ's Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church. Thirteen were presented for Confirmation to the Right Reverend Chandler W. Sterling who officiated at Grace Church, Sunday, November 9th at 10:00 A.M.

The members and clergy of Grace Church extend a warm welcome to each of these new communicants as they now take their full places in the life and fellowship of the parish family.

CONFIRMATION AT 10:00 A.M.

A combined service.

Your presence is requested both at the service and at the reception immediately following in the parish house.

STEWARDSHIP:—

The Continuing Chairman of the Stewardship Committee is most grateful to the members of the Vestry who have agreed to act as Visitors in the current partial recanvass of the parish. They are not calling on those of you who are living up to your pledges and have not asked to be visited.

The question has been raised as to whether last year's pledge is good for three or five years. The answer is, it is good indefinitely — until you want to change it. We hope, therefore, that those of you who are prospering beyond expectations of a year ago will remember that, as stewards of God's bounty, your pledges could well be revised upwards. This is a matter of conscience, meditation and prayer. Pledge cards will be found in the Tract Rack at the main entrance to the church for those who might want to make such a revision.

CONSIDER THIS:—

Multitudes make a sentimental response to the Infant Jesus and shrink from making a moral response to the Man Jesus.

HOLLY BERRY BAZAAR—NOVEMBER 15th:—

Tell us, did you ever see the product of our sewing bee?
A bee at which are made by hand
The offerings found upon our stand
See hearthbrooms dressed as holly girls
And Christmas decorating pearls
Stuffed animals and placemats too
There's surely something there for you
And you will know that you have paid
For items lovingly handmade
At the Holly-day Workshop

And for the best lunch in town, plan to visit the Holly Berry Buffet. A sumptous spread of delectable dishes prepared by the culinary queens of the Day Group. Don't miss it!!!!

BISHOP STERLING WILL BE OUR GUEST SPEAKER this coming Sunday, November 2nd, immediately after the 9:30 A.M. Service. Our Adult Discussion Group is indeed privileged to have The Rt. Rev. Chandler W. Sterling, retired Bishop of Montana, speak to us in Cline Auditorium on Sunday. All parishioners are invited to be present. Those who come to the 11:15 A.M. Service may wish to come early to hear Bishop Sterling—(about 10:15)—then go to their service at the conclusion of this program. Many of you will recall that he was with us here last February for Confirmation and that we all enjoyed his first visit to Grace Church in every way. Those members who heard his sermon on that occasion will need no urging to be present again this Sunday, Nov. 2nd—those who missed them will certainly want to be with us now!

NOTE: A COMBINED 10:00 A.M. SERVICE FOR CONFIRMATION will be our format on the following Sunday, November 9th. Guess who the officiating Bishop will be? Right—Bishop Sterling again! This will probably be the first time in our parish history that we're privileged to have a bishop present with us two Sundays in a row, and we're looking forward to both dates! As we've done before, we're combining the 9:30 & 11:15 Services into one big 10:00 A.M. for this purpose. Please be with us—you'll be glad you did!

ALL MEMBERS OF OUR CONFIRMATION CLASS—YOU HAVE A DATE with the Rector at 10:30 A.M., Saturday, Nov. 8th. This is the day before Confirmation, and it is imperative that all members of our current Junior Class be present. We will meet in Cline Auditorium, and you will be free to go home at Noon. All parents are urged to make sure that each child to be confirmed will be there promptly that Saturday.

PRAYERS FOR PARISHIONERS DEPARTED THIS LIFE since the last All Saints day will be offered at all services next Sunday. Also, we will be happy to include any names any of you may wish included in those prayers. Please call the Parish Office or the Rector as soon as possible!

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE REPORTS THAT -

Sunday, October 26, 1969, will see the start of our effort to contact those parishioners who have not been able to maintain their pledges for 1969, and who have not already corresponded with the Treasurer on this account. It will also be the day that we will start to offer those who have joined our parish family in this past year an opportunity to pledge, if they have not already done so.

This is not to be considered as a matter of dunning, but as an opportunity to make a review so that our budget forecasting for 1970 may be a more realistic one. We hope those of you who may be contacted will welcome the Visitor who calls upon you and will discuss with him openly and frankly your current position in connection with keeping Grace Church, Mt. Airy, open and operating as a House of God. But remember, the Visitor is more interested in keeping you present at service in person than in increasing financial support. We need all the support you can give, but we need YOU more.

Should you feel that you should be called upon, but perhaps have been missed by a Visitor, please call the Continuing Chairman of the Stewardship Committee, Mr. Clattenburg, at LO 3-3054, or GE 8-0676, or call Mrs. Rosen at the Parish Office, CH 8-2950.

The Churchwomen of the Wissahickon Deanery will meet on Thursday, October 30th at Grace Church, following the 10:00 A.M. Service. All women of the Parish are cordially invited to attend and hear of the work done by this group. Refreshments will be served.

FALL INGATHERING OF THE UNITED THANK OFFERING will be held at the 11:15 A.M. Service on Sunday, November 2nd. This is Holy Communion, and special offering plates will be placed at the Rood Screen for the U.T.O. presentations as the women come forward to receive the Sacrament. Those members coming to earlier services that day are asked to present their offering during the regular Offertory.

MEN'S CLUB CORPORATE COMMUNION will be held on Sunday, November 2nd at 7:30 A.M. Please note time difference for this day only.

The Memorial Service for the women of the Parish "who have gone before" will be held at the 10:00 A.M. Holy Communion Service on Thursday, Nov. 6th.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP is now back in full swing for the Fall, and their first project will be a Car Wash on Saturday, October 25th, from 10:00 A.M. until 3:00 P.M. It will take place right here on our church grounds — (Donation: $1.50). The price is more than right and the quality of their work is always top-notch — so plan now to bring your car on that date. Tickets are available from any member of the Y.P.F. or the Parish Office. Don't wait until it's too late — get your ticket now!

OUR ANNUAL BAZAAR IS NOW ONLY A MONTH AWAY – NOVEMBER 15th! (Saturday: 10:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. in the Parish House). This year we're calling this happy occasion the "Holly Berry Bazaar", and we can promise all parishioners that a grand time is in store for all who attend. Many more details yet to be published, but for now—

"Gingham dogs and calico cats
Dolls and clowns and elephants
All handmade and therefore unique.
Down in the basement a house of spooks
Beads, games, doughnuts and cokes.
See for yourself on November fifteenth!"

Mark down the date now, and plan to be a part of the fun and fellowship at our big "Holly Berry Bazaar".

THIS WEEK'S SPECIAL APPEAL IS FOR OUR CHOIRS—we need men, boys, and girls—and we need them now! Singing in one of our choirs can be a thrilling and meaningful way in which a person offers up a most personal and acceptable gift in the worship of Almighty God each Sunday. Those who have sung in our Choirs here years ago under the extraordinary direction of our Choirmaster, Dr. Newell Robinson, can and do attest to this fact regularly. If you have a son or daughter of 7 years old or above, please don't deny them this great opportunity—but call Dr. Robinson at ME 5-3854 as soon as possible! His proper training of their voices can become a special gift that they will treasure for years to come, and our choirs will be enhanced by the addition of such new voices.

HERE'S ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY FOR SERVICE—we need one couple to deliver the Sunday Altar Flowers to the sick and shut-ins of our parish family. This duty is for only 1 month out of the whole year, but it's so important to the recipients. Please call the Rector if you can help.

Baptism: Heather Radcliff Sprague, October 5th.

OUR SECOND CONFIRMATION IN LESS THAN A YEAR has been scheduled by the diocese for November 9th here at Grace Church, and some confusion has resulted to say the least. This new schedule was not received until last month. Obviously, such a date makes it quite impossible to prepare a class properly prior to Bishop Sterling's visit here on November 9th at 10:00 A.M. (Note: the 9:30 & 11:15 Services will again be combined for that occasion.)

Accordingly, we will be preparing our 7th Grade Class—our Junior Confirmation Class each year—with the basics of Confirmation in the remaining weeks before Nov. 9th. This will be done primarily each Sunday morning in the Church School hour. In addition, the Rector is planning a special session with all members of the class during this month. But the major number of special classes will have to be held after the formal Confirmation on November 9th. Certainly we will need the cooperation of all parents of 7th Grade pupils now and after Confirmation to make certain that our instruction is faithfully attended! Please be assured that we will do our best under these circumstances to make sure that each pupil will be adequately prepared to become communicant members of this great Church!

IS YOUR SON OR DAUGHTER RECEIVING THE PARISH NEWS each week? Do you have someone away at college or in the service? If so, please check with the Parish Office to make certain that we have their current mailing address. Please check on this today by giving us a call!

WE NEED NEW ACOLYTES NOW! Each year we lose faithful and experienced Acolytes as they go away to college or the service. If you have a son 12 years or older, please call the Rector as soon as possible so that the training of new Acolytes may begin promptly.

ADVANCE NOTICE: MEN'S CLUB EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE meeting will be held October 13th, 8:00 P.M. at Residence of R. M. Hewitt, 7318 Bryan St. — CH 8-4416.

STEWARDSHIP:

There will be a partial canvass of the parish, commencing a few weeks from now. As was promised last year, those who pledged to the support of Grace Church at that time and who have been faithfully fulfilling their pledges will not be called upon, unless they specifically request a chance to discuss their pledge with a member of the Stewardship Committee. Normally, their pledges will continue and their 1970 envelopes will be issued automatically.

Those parishioners who have fallen behind and have not kept up with their pledges will be visited to allow an opportunity to discuss the situation and to make any necessary adjustments which will permit more accurate budget procedures for the church's next fiscal year. We know some people have been away during the summer months and have thus fallen in arrears. If you are one of these, please make an effort to bring your account up to date so that a visitor will not be assigned to your name.

Theodore Clattenburg, Chairman
Stewardship Committee

CONFIRMATION AT GRACE CHURCH, NOVEMBER 9th AT 10 A.M.:—

The Service of Confirmation will be held at Grace Church, Mount Airy, on Sunday the 9th of November at a Combined Service at 10:00 A.M. Bishop Sterling will again administer this rite of the Laying On of Hands. Because of the timing this year, the bulk of classes for young people being confirmed must be held after the confirmation occurs. Those young people beyond the seventh grade who are not and wish to be confirmed should make this fact known to the clergy at once. Also, any ADULTS who wish to be confirmed or received should communicate with the Rector without delay.

FOLK MUSIC SERVICE — SAINT PAUL'S — October 12th:—

On Sunday October 12th, 1969, at 8:00 P.M., a Folk Music Service featuring folk singer William Flanders will be held at Saint Paul's Church, 22 East Chestnut Hill Avenue, in Chestnut Hill. This is presented under the auspices of the Music Commission of the Diocese of Pennsylvania and all are invited to attend.

THE NEED FOR THE OLD TESTAMENT?

He who has not felt what sin is in the Old Testament knows little what grace is in the New. He who has not trembled in Moses, and wept in David, and wondered in Isaiah, will rejoice little in Matthew, rest little in John. He who has not suffered under the Law will scarcely hear the glad sound of the Gospel. He who has not been awakened under the mountain will be little delighted with the cross.

—R. W. Barbour

Y.P.F. PICNIC AT MARKOWSKI'S:-

This year, the Young People's Fellowship of Grace Church will again hold its opening meeting as part of a picnic supper at the home of the adult advisors Mr. and Mrs. Stan Markowski, 356 East Gowen Avenue. THIS SUNDAY, September 28th, 1969, is the day; 4:00 P.M. is the time to come. All those in ninth through twelfth grades are urged to attend this event.

MEMORIAL PRAYER BOOKS AND HYMNALS:—

Additional Memorial Prayer Books and Hymnals will be dedicated on the Sunday closest to All Saints' Day. This may seem like there is a great deal of time, but in reality there is less than six weeks. If you wish to memorialize any family member or friend with one or more of these fitting and useful memorials, NOW IS THE TIME to contact the Parish Office. The cost is minimal three dollars each.

CORRECTION:-

The first service on Sundays is at 8:00 A.M. unless specially announced to the contrary.

REGARDING SAINT MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS, SEPTEMBER 29th:—

Michael and Gabriel are the only archangels mentioned by name in the canonical books of Scripture; but Raphael and Uriel are referred to in the Old Testament Apocrypha. The word 'angel' literally means 'messenger,' whether human or non-human, though sometimes in the Old Testament 'angel of the Lord' is used as a synonym for the Lord Himself. Belief in angels of the heavenly realm as attendants upon God's court, ministers of his will, succorers of God's people, and representatives of the powers of nature was a fairly late development in Hebrew religion; though the doctrine was not accepted by the Sadducees, it was fostered by the Pharisees and in general was popular with the people. Among the Jews angels were thought of in very much the same way as 'good demons' were understood by religious pagans. Neither our Lord nor the apostles questioned the existence of angels, though one will not find any systematic doctrine about them in the New Testament. St. Paul warned the Colossian Christians against angel-worship.

THIS SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21st, 1969, IS THE DAY . . .

We return to the three service schedule 8:30 A.M.-9:30 A.M.-11:15 A.M.

The Church School reopens beginning with the Family Service at 9:30 A.M.

The Church School Cook-Out will be held from 5:00 P.M. to 7:00 P.M.

CHURCH SCHOOL OPENING PRESENTATION:—

This year, in addition to the usual opening day registration, there will also be a brief presentation of the Church School Staff and Programs. This will be held in the Parish House immediately following the close of the 9:30 service. Parents are urged to attend the presentation with their children.

CHURCH SCHOOL COOK-OUT:—

The Annual Church School Cook-Out will be held this Sunday afternoon from 5 to 7 P.M. on the Parish grounds behind the church. This traditional event always provides a good chance to visit with old friends, make new ones, and generally discover who has been doing what. Plan to attend. . . . Bring your supper and barbeque grille — Baked beans, milk, and coffee will be provided — Invite and bring along your visiting relatives and those friends you have been meaning to introduce to Grace Church!

ETERNITY, BITE SIZED:—

Today is God's great gift, the right size for us. One day at a time we can accomplish much; or one day at a time we can stay away from harm; or one day at a time we can endure pain or sorrow or fear. "Forever" and "never" aren't words that man handles at all well. It is probably because we don't really know their meaning, as we have a fearsome tendency to hang "maybe" and "I hope" onto words that cannot be qualified.

"Tomorrow" and "yesterday" are also loaded words for us human beings. They are supercharged like some radioactive atoms, supercharged and emitting remorse or nostalgia, hope or fear.

But today is the word that's our size and our speed — neither too long nor too short. We can do anything, endure anything, forego anything for one day. Today is eternity given to us in bite sized pieces by God.

-Please, God

Jean Douglas Andrew

NEXT SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21st . . .

We will return to the three-service schedule
8:00 A.M. - 9:30 A.M. - 11:15 A.M.

CHURCH SCHOOL will reopen at the 9:30 A.M. service. We urge all parents to bring their children for this service and to plan to attend the opening presentation which will follow.

The CHURCH SCHOOL COOK-OUT will be held from 5 P.M. to 7 P.M. on the rear grounds of the Church. Plan to bring your supper and barbecue grille. Baked beans, milk, and coffee will be provided. Not only Church School, but all members of the parish are invited to this event.

ITEMS FOR THE PARISH NEWS:

All organizations please take note! All notices for the Parish News must be received at the latest ten (10) days before the Sunday date of the issue in which you wish them to appear. Preferably such notices should be in writing. Otherwise, inclusion can not be guaranteed. Your co-operation will be appreciated.

SERVICE AND/OR COLLEGE PERSONNEL:—

Do you have a son, daughter, brother or sister who is away at college or in the service? If so, now is the time to make certain that the Parish Office has his or her correct, current address on file. Mail is important when one is away from home, especially for the first time and the Parish News can serve as yet another link with home, but only if it is received. Call now, or better yet, put such an address on a postal card and mail it in.

HISTORICAL NOTE:

One year ago, Grace Church had $8000 to pay on the mortgage for new buildings, and three months in which to pay it. Thanks to the concern of many members of the parish, this was paid on time, with even a bit left over, and the mortgage was burned with great rejoicing by all.

MEMORIAL PRAYER BOOKS AND HYMNALS:–

Isn't there someone whom you would like to remember with a memorial? For several years past, others have been doing just this by providing funds for new prayer books and hymnals to replace those currently in use. Such new books will bear an attractive book-plate with the name of the person being memorialized. They will be dedicated on the Sunday nearest All Saints' Day. The cost is three dollars each. Contact the Parish Office.

IN THE MORNING:—

O God, the King eternal, who dividest the day from the darkness, and turnest the shadow of death into the morning; Drive far off from us all wrong desires, incline our hearts to keep thy law, and guide our feet into the way of peace; that having done thy will with cheerfulness while it was day, we may, when the night cometh, rejoice to give thee thanks; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT WELL RECEIVED:—

The Christmas Pageant, presented to a joint-service congregation at 10:00 A.M. on the 21st of December, was a great success. The Drum—A Christmas Play With Music by Katherine K. Davis was enjoyed by a large number of people who turned out for this service with pageant which has come to be held on the Sunday nearest Christmas. Also a part of this service was the presentation by the members of the Church School of gifts to be sent to St. John's Settlement House in North Philadelphia. A Coffee hour in the parish house followed performance.

MANY THANKS ARE DUE TO . . .

Mrs. David Abell and the Pageant Committee and all those who took part in the pageant both as performers, singers, and behind the scenes.
The Farises for the various goodies served at the Coffee Hour.
Bill Wilkinson and his helpers for the Christmas decorations in the Church.
The Markowski's for the beautiful decoration of the Christmas tree.

CHURCH CALENDARS FOR 1970:—

The Christmas Card Calendars from the Rector are now available in the Tract Rack in the North Porch. The larger Ashby or Episcopal Church wall calendars are available in the Parish Office at the cost of one dollar.

MEMORIAL PRAYER BOOK AND HYMNAL DEDICATION:—

The Memorial Prayer Books and Hymnals which have been given since All Saints' Day of 1968 will be dedicated at the 11:15 A.M. service on Sunday, January 18th, 1970. There was considerable delay in the shipment of the books to us from the publisher, and this has been the cause of the postponement of the dedication. Normally, these are dedicated each year on the Sunday closest to All Saints' Day. A very fitting way in which to memorialize a relative or friend, the donation of these prayer books and hymnals also ensures that all who worship in Grace Church will have a prayer book or hymnal in good condition and with a reasonable size of type.

OFFERING ENVELOPES FOR 1970:—

Envelopes for 1970 are now in the Tower Room. Please remember to pick up yours before the new year begins so that you will have them and also save the parish the cost (twelve cents each) of mailing them out.

DID YOU KNOW THAT . . .

There are 16 churches in the Diocese that are over 200 years old which are still going strong. Eleven are more than 250 years old. More than 100 are more than a century old.

There is at least one church in the Diocese in which people can't sit still. This is, of course, St. Peter's Church at 3rd and Pine. Opened in 1761, shortly thereafter for some unknown reason the pulpit and the lectern were put at one end of the church and the Lord's Table at the other end. The Pews of a box type, have some seats facing the pulpit and others facing the Altar. The minister processes from one end of the aisle to the other as the occasion requires, and the worshippers shift seats to the other side of their pews so they can see and properly worship.

CHOIR CHRISTMAS REHEARSAL:—

The Choir Christmas Rehearsal will be held on Monday, December 22nd, beginning at 6:30 P.M. Those who wish to participate, please be present.

MORE ABOUT THE ADVENT SEASON:—

The Roman Church adopted Advent in the sixth century, not primarily as a penitential season like Lent, but as a liturgical preparation for Christmas. Its Advent rites have always included certain festal features, such as the singing of Alleluia during the season. Moreover the Roman Church seems to have restricted Advent to one month. The Gelasian Sacramentary provides for five Sundays, the Gregorian for four; but in the Roman Missal the last Sunday after Pentecost, called the Sunday next before Advent in the Sarum Missal and in the Prayer Book, is in reality a survival of the ancient flexibility of the Advent season. Not until the eighth century was the Advent season commonly considered the beginning of the Christian Year.

In its developed form the Advent season took on a secondary theme: that of preparation for the Second Coming of our Lord at the end of time. The double emphasis, therefore, on both the first and the second advents of Christ gives to the season its unique mixture of devotional color: joy in the redemption that has come to us in the Incarnation, and awe before the Judgment that yet awaits us. Yet to the spiritually discerning believer both of these tremendous and signal events of past and future are experienced as eternally present realities.

— The Oxford American Prayer Book Commentary
Massey Hamilton Shepherd, Jr.

THE CLERGY AND STAFF OF GRACE CHURCH wish to extend to each of you their best personal wishes for this Christmas season and pray that the Joy and Peace of Christmas will abide with each and every one of you throughout the coming new year.

CHRISTMAS DAY: 8:00 A.M. HOLY COMMUNION

MEMO FROM THE STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE:—

It is now time once more to assign envelopes. The Stewardship committee would like to remind all parishioners who have held sets of numbered envelopes in 1969 that similar sets, with hopefully the same numbers, will be assigned to them for 1970. This will be done unless other arrangements have already been made with a Visitor from this Committee or are made within the next week. Any such changes desired may be made by contacting either Mr. Clapham, the Accounting Warden, Mr. Mead, the Treasurer, or Mr. Clattenburg, the Commitee Chairman. Envelopes will be placed in the Tower Room so that beginning Sunday, December 21st, you may pick up yours before or after a Service. Thus you will be sure to have your envelopes for the first Sunday of the new year and, at the same time, save the parish the expense of mailing them.

NOTES ON AND ABOUT CHRISTMAS:—

Church Decoration Night is set for Friday, December 19th, beginning at 7:30 P.M. Everyone is invited to join in the preparation of the Church for the great festival. Bring yourself, the decorations and refreshments will be here waiting.

Combined Service, December 21st, for Pageant at 10:00 A.M.

Gifts for St. John's Settlement House from the members of the Church School will be presented at the combined service on December 21st, at 10:00 A.M. Each gift should be marked for a boy or a girl, and the age.

Former Choir Members who will be here at Christmas are urged, requested, asked, begged to come and join the Choir at the 7:00 P.M. Christmas Eve Eucharist. "Coming back" for this great feast can be very meaningful both for you and for Grace Church. Call Dr. Robinson, ME 5-3854, or the office — CH 8-2950, and let us know you are willing to join us.

Choir Christmas Rehearsal: 6:30 P.M. Monday, December 22nd, those who wish to participate, please be here.

Christmas Communion for the Sick and Shut-In will be administered by the Clergy in the week following Christmas. Call the parish office if you or any one you know wishes to make arrangements for this.

ABOUT THE ADVENT SEASON:—

The season of Advent (the word means 'Coming') was first inaugurated in the Gallican churches of France and Spain; exactly when is not known, but it was probably the fourth century — before Christmas Day had spread to these regions. It was a penitential season of fasting preparatory to the baptisms administered at Epiphany, and comparable to the Lenten fast and discipline before Easter. In the sixth century it was commonly called St. Martin's Lent, being counted from the feast of St. Martin (the patron saint of Gaul) on November 11th. By this time, however, many of the Gallican churches had adopted Christmas, and the Advent fast was generally counted as a forty-day period (Sundays excepted) between St. Martin's Day and Christmas; relics of the earlier custom, however, still survived in some places: the forty-day fast was reckoned by distributing the fast days among the eight weeks between St. Martin's Day and Epiphany.

-:- THIRD NOTICE OF THE ANNUAL PARISH MEETING -:-

The Annual Meeting of the members of Grace Church, Mount Airy, will be held on Sunday, February 1st, 1970, beginning at 7:30 P.M. in the Parish House.

The purpose of the meeting will be: (1) to receive the reports of the Rector, Church Wardens, and parish organizations; (2) to elect three Vestrymen for terms expiring in 1974; (3) to transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Those qualified to vote at the Annual Meeting are all lay, baptized persons of twenty-one years of age or more, who shall have been worshippers in this Church as their usual place of worship for one year or more and who shall appear by the books to have contributed to the support of the Church. You must be present at the meeting to vote; there is no voting by proxy. (Those who have been members for less than the required one year are invited and urged to be present and observe, even though they will have no formal vote until the next meeting.)

> Nominations for Vestrymen shall be made in writing to the Secretary of the Vestry, signed by five (5) qualified members at least fifteen days prior to the date of the election and the names of the persons nominated shall be posted in the church building on the two Sundays next preceding the date of such election and shall remain posted continuously until the election. No nominations shall be made in any other manner.

The Secretary of the Vestry is Mr. William P. Wilkinson, 553 Baeder Road, Jenkintown, Pennsylvania 19046.

URGENT NOTICE TO ALL PARISH ORGANIZATIONS!!!

Please deliver your annual reports to the Parish Office as soon as possible. You have only one to write; the Parish Office must type, duplicate, and collate ALL the reports of the parish. This takes more than two or three days just before the Annual Meeting. Please help and get yours in NOW!!!

RABBI TO ADDRESS ADULT DISCUSSION GROUP:—

On Sunday, January 25th, following the 9:30 A.M. service, Rabbi Elias Charry of the Germantown Jewish Centre will address the Adult Discussion Group. Rabbi Charry will speak on the general topic of the relevance of the Old Testament to modern living. His talk will be the second element in a series dealing with the relevance of the Bible in modern life.

THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY:—

Theological Education Sunday will be observed at Grace Church on Sunday, January 18th. Under the current system no special offering will be taken as an amount is designated by the Vestry for this. If any one wishes to make a specific offering for theological education, envelopes will be found in the Tract Rack in the North Porch.

CALENDAR FOR THE COMING WEEK

(February 15 — February 21)

Tuesday—8:00 P.M.—Parish House—JOINT LENTEN PROGRAM.

Wednesday—WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, EVENING GROUP meet from 11:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. in the Parish House. All women are cordially invited.

Thursday—WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP meet following the 10:00 A.M. Service. All women are cordially invited to come and work with this group. Bring your own lunch. Beverage and dessert will be served.

REMEMBER: During Lent, there will be TWO Services on Thursdays.

7:00 A.M. and 10:00 A.M.

ADULT DISCUSSION GROUP:—

The motion picture PARABLE will be shown in the parish house following the 9:30 A.M. service on Sunday, February 15th. This is the film that was shown in the Anglican-Orthodox pavilion at the last World's Fair in New York. It is unusual, thought-provoking, and well worth seeing.

As a result of the most interesting and informative talk given by Rabbi Charry on January 25th, and the enthusiastic response accorded him by those present, the committee discussed with Rabbi Charry the possibility of his conducting a series of talks continuing the theme of the relevance of the Bible in modern times. This he has agreed to do. The first of at least four sessions will be held Sunday, February 22nd, immediately following the 9:30 A.M. service. Under the series title of The Prophetic Tradition, this first session will deal with Abraham. Those wishing to get the full benefit of this course will bring along a Bible in which they have already read the story of Abraham in Genesis chapters 13 through 18.

MEN'S CLUB COMING EVENTS:—

A NIGHT OF SONG: FEBRUARY 23rd at 8:00 P.M.: FAMILY NIGHT.

For this Family Night event, the Men's Club will present two singing groups for the interest, edification, and enjoyment of the whole family. Featured will be The Gospelaires, specializing in spirituals and The Octet plus Friends, composed of members of the University Glee Club of Philadelphia. A Night of Song will be held in the parish house; as always there will be no fee or collection and refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the program.

ICE HOCKEY AT THE SPECTRUM: MARCH 7th at 1.35 P.M.

All sports fans in the parish will want to take advantage of this special event and opportunity. A chartered bus will leave from the church at 12:30 P.M. and return there after the game. Both the game admission and the bus transportation may be had for $4.50. Reservations, which MUST be made on or before March 1st, should be sent to Mr. Roderick T. Ragland, 256 E. Durard Rd., Philadelphia 19119.

AMBITION and APATHY:—

On February 17th, the first of the Joint Lenten Series programs will be held here at Grace Church, beginning at 8:00 P.M. A film will be shown followed by discussion of the same led by a panel of lay and clergy persons. Ambition and Apathy—the theme for the evening; Some ABC's of Life—the theme of the series.

CHRISTIAN EXPERIENCE, A. D. 1970:—

This will be the general focus of the Lenten Mission Study of the United Council of Church Women of Chestnut Hill and Vicinity for 1970. To be held Wednesdays in Lent at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, the program begins at 12:10 with Devotions in the church. Beverage and dessert are provided for lunch at 12:30 and the speaker or speakers commence at 1:00 P.M. The first program, on February 18th, will feature Dr. Robert T. Swaim, chairman of the department of Religion and Philosophy of Beaver College. Babysitting will be provided for each session from 11:45 to 2:30.

Thursday—WOMEN OF GRACE CHURCH, DAY GROUP meet following the 10:00 A.M. Service. All women are cordially invited. Bring your own lunch, dessert and beverage will be served.

ANNUAL MEETING REPORT:—

The Annual Meeting of the parish was held Sunday, February 1st, at 7:30 P.M. in the parish house with 75 people in attendance. The reports of the Rector, Church Wardens, and the various organizations were presented in mimeographed form for the approval and comments of the assembled members of the parish.

The election of three vestrymen was one of the major items of business with Richard A. Lilley, Jr., Mrs. Ann Snyder, and Harry Taylor elected to four-year terms. Their election fills the vacancies created by the expiration of the terms of William N. Mead, Henry L. Schimpf, Jr. (deceased), and Geoffrey Tattersfield for whose services the Rector expressed the thanks of the parish. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

RETROSPECT ON A LONG LIFE:—

A retrospect of my whole life, from the earliest period of my recollection down to the present hour, leaves me with this impression, that I have been, and am being, guided by a gracious and mighty Hand, which has made, and is making, that possible to me which otherwise to me had been impossible. Oh that I had at all times unhesitatingly trusted and yielded myself to its guidance.

—Richard Rothe (1799-1867)

DO YOU CARE?

Episcopal Community Services care about many. Can you help them care for one more?

A native of Jamacia, widely travelled in mission work with her Salvation Army husband, now 68 years old, blind and lonely is eager to have a visitor. She has much to offer in experience and a fine sense of humor.

Please call Mrs. Ruth Dross, Director Volunteer Services, at WA 5-8110, if you can help in this situation or are willing to offer your services for other needs of the ECS.

SOME ABC'S OF LIFE:—

This will be the series theme for this year's Joint Lenten Series to be held here at Grace Church, Mount Airy, for three consecutive Tuesday evenings beginning February 17th at 8:00 P.M. Held in the Parish House, each evening's program will consist of a film showing followed by discussion led by members of a panel. The topics for each program, in order of occurrence will be Ambition and Apathy, Boredom and Busyness, Conflict and Capitulation. The dates to save: February 17th, February 24th, March 3rd.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING AND ELECTION

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 1st, 1970

7:30 P.M. — Parish House

Refreshments will be served after the meeting

IN LOVING MEMORY:—

O God of all the living, we thank thee for the happy memories of those whom thou hast called out of this transitory life into the eternal joy of thy Presence. Thine they were upon earth, and thine they are still. We thank thee for their lives of devoted service, for the happy days spent in their companionship, for the example of their faith and patience, the inspiration of their words and deeds, and for their share of heaven's new opportunities of service. Help us so to live that they may welcome us with joy when thou shalt call us to thyself.

—Prayer used by Bishop Ingley

HEAD OF INSTITUTIONAL CHAPLAINCY SERVICE TO SPEAK:—

The Reverend Walter R. Strickland, head of the Institutional Chaplaincy Service of the Episcopal Community Services, will speak to the February meeting of the Women of Grace Church, Evening Group. Beginning at 8:00 P.M. on February 3rd, his talk will be on the Prophetic and Pastoral Role of the Episcopal Community Services.

LENTEN MISSION STUDY 1970:—

March 11th is the date of the next of the four program series presented by the United Council of Church Women of Chestnut Hill and Vicinity. Held at St. Paul's in Chestnut Hill, the program begins with devotions in the church at 12:10 P.M. Lunch in the auditorium is at 12:30. (You bring a sandwich, beverage and dessert will be provided.) At 1:00 P.M. The Reverend Donald Burt, O.S.A., Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, Villanova University will commence his talk.

THE PROPHETIC TRADITION: NEXT SESSION APRIL 5th:—

Because of our schedule, Rabbi Charry will not be with us again until Sunday, April 5th. The time will be the same, immediately after the conclusion of the 9:30 A.M. service. At that time, Rabbi Charry will continue with the Prophetic Tradition by dealing with the Call to Prophecy of the Writing Prophets. As preparation for this session, the following chapters in the Bible should be read: Exodus 3, Isaiah 6, Jeremiah 1, Ezekiel 1.

EASTER MEMORIAL FLOWERS:—

The gift of flowers for the altar and the rest of the church is a most beautiful way to memorialize friends and relatives especially at Eastertide. For the sake of fairness and efficiency, we must ask that the following requests be met with regard to any and all Easter Flower Memorials:

1. Your check, together with the names of those being memorialized, should reach the Parish Office preferably before March 15th.
2. The check should be drawn to the order of the "Altar Guild Flower Fund of Grace Church, Mt. Airy."

Your observations of these two conditions will greatly assist the work of those responsible for ordering the flowers and preparing the leaflets as well as providing for the beautification of Grace Church on Easter Day.

EVENING GROUP COLLECTING . . .

The Women of Grace Church, Evening Group, are collecting the following items for donation to and distribution at Valley Forge Veterans Hospital:

home-made fudge home-made cakes
crossword puzzles paper-backed books long-playing records
pop corn

Any of these items which you have or wish to make should be delivered to Mrs. Harry Taylor by April 7th.

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN TO MEET:—

Although the Business and Professional Women's Club of Grace Church disbanded a few years ago, the group still meets informally four times a year. All women of the parish and their friends are most welcome. Mrs. Colleen Read is the president of the group. The next meeting will be held in the Parish House on Monday evening, March 16th, beginning with dinner at 6:30 P.M. ($1.50) with entertainment following. The meeting will be over by nine o'clock. Do come and telephone Elizabeth Eynon for dinner reservations at TU-9-9049.

GRACE CHURCH: A BIT OF HISTORY: part two—

After a fire which occurred in 1882, plans were discussed about changing the site of the church. Eventually a lot was offered by Franklin B. Gowen, at Gowen and Ardleigh Streets, and a new building erected in 1888. A few years later a parish house and a rectory was given through the generosity of the Gowen family.

In recent years additions have been made to the church and the parish house, and a new rectory has been bought on Sprague Street. For over 30 years, the Reverend Charles E. Eder was rector, retiring in 1958. The present rector is the Reverend Richard K. Bauder.

GRACE CHURCH: A BIT OF HISTORY—

A few earnest workers met in a fire house on Miller Street in Mt. Airy to organize a Sunday School. Soon the meetings were moved to the Steamboat House on Germantown Avenue. The Rector of Christ Church in Germantown, the Reverend A. B. Atkins held afternoon services. In 1858 a vestry was formed and plans were made to build a church on Mt. Airy Avenue. A charter was adopted and the building completed in April 1859. The Reverend Harry Smith, a deacon, had charge under the rector of Christ Church. The parish was admitted into Convention in 1862. Several other ministers followed in quick succession, among whom was the Reverend Charles R. Hale, who many years later was Bishop of the Diocese of Springfield. The Church was enlarged in 1864. The Reverend Simeon C. Hill was rector from 1875 to 1912.
